Chapter 574 Barking Up the Wrong Tree

August sat at his desk, reading the report with a frown.

After a long silence, his subordinate asked, "President Adams....."

August came to his senses. He took a glance at the document, then waved his hand and said, "You can leave now. I'll have my secretary contact you later."

The man nodded, then left the office. Not long after that, the door was pushed open again. Zane walked in and reported, "President

Adams, Lucia took the little boy out of the hospital."

August didn't lift his eyes and said lightly, "Okay."

He had seen Lucia's message, and he just did not want to text her back. Zane paused for a moment before continuing, "Joshua told me that he did it on purpose, and he asked me to tell you that you would have a reason to look for Lucia from today."
