Chapter 576 Catching the Traitor

Twenty minutes later, Lucia stood at the entrance of the villa with a jacket. In the distance, a familiar SUV drove over and stopped in front of her. Zane opened the door and got out.

"Lucia, why aren't you waiting in the room?"

Although the weather was not cold, Lucia's hands, which were wrapped around her chest, were trembling. She said seriously, "I want to see that person as soon as possible."

The sooner she saw the traitor, the sooner she could get her revenge on him! Zane immediately understood her meaning. He quickly walked to the back seat and opened the door. Then, a man whose hands and feet were tied was kicked out of the car.

The man fell to the ground and rolled a few times. His face was covered with dust and looked very ugly. Only when he was grabbed by the back of his neck by Zane did Lucia see his face clearly.

I was a familiar face, and he was indeed there the last time she went to Evergreen mountain. However, he gave her the impression that he was extremely honest, buried in work, and did not speak much. She could never imagine that the traitor was him!

Zane explained, "His name is Luke. He has admitted that he was the one who leaked the news to Bishop. He said that Bishop's men had contacted him before and asked him to report the whereabouts of him when he was looking for August. They gave him 50,000 in cash. After that, when we went to the Evergreen Meditation Yard, he sent a message to Bishop's men as usual and specifically marked out the route that the three of us had found. Later, Bishop came with his men after us."

Hearing this, Lucia frowned. She stared at the man on the ground with a heavy gaze, her body trembling slightly with anger. Gritting her teeth, she asked coldly, "Did you really do it?"

The man named Luke lowered his head and didn't dare to look up at her. Hearing her question, he answered with a tremble, "It was me. It was me. I only did it for money. Please, let me go this time. I promise that I will never do it again. From now on, I will be loyal to you and President Adams!"

Hearing his insincere and meaningless promise, Lucia was so angry that she clenched her fists tightly. A wave of anger rushed from her heart. She raised her hand and punched Luke's head fiercely. She was furious and growled, "Do you know that you killed someone? What can you promise to do to him?"

She swore at him, "What
