Chapter 579 No Way to Accept Him.

Seeing Paula fall down, Lucia was the first to react and hurriedly rushed towards her and shouted, "Paula!" But she was still a little late.

Paula fell hard to the ground, her brow furrowed, her face showing a painful expression.

Lucia hurriedly went forward and squatted on the ground to hold her up, "Paula, are you alright?!"

She heard from Burton today that Paula had multiple fractures on that had not fully healed. Even if it was a lot of walking, it might be painful, not to mention such a hard fall! Paula was in pain and couldn't speak, shaking her head with great effort, unable to make a sound.

Over there, Paul and Burton also reacted and coincidentally took big steps over, asking with concern, "Paula! How are you?!" When Lucia looked up, she saw them gathered around with concern, while Timothy, Janet and Garnett were all standing not far away, looking at them with complicated faces. Her heart tightened and she immediately said, "Dad, mom, take kids upstairs!"

Bill and Elisa immediately reacted and took the children away at a fast pace. In a flash, the first floor was left with just the four of them. Paula sat on the floor for a long time and slowly recovered. Lucia helped her get up and let her sit on the sofa. At this time, Paul and

Burton both stood by the side, not daring to speak

Lucia hurriedly asked Paula, "Are there any bruises? Did your bones hurt? Let me check"

Paula shook her head, "It hurts a little, but nothing serious."

Hearing her say so, Lucia was relieved. Then she raised her eyes to look at Paul and Burton over there. Her heart inexplicably surged with a wave of annoyance. She bit her lower lip and said, "How old are you? What's the difference between you and those reckless high school brats?"
