Chapter 587 First, Find Mark Page

When Lucia and Paul were eating earlier, he vaguely saw Paul putting a ring on Lucia....

Why did he suddenly give Lucia a ring at this time? Was it just a gift? Or did it mean something else?

He had no intention of prying into other people's private affairs, but if he didn't figure it out, he would always feel that something was amiss. Coincidentally, there was a surveillance camera facing them above their table. If he guessed correctly, the surveillance camera should have captured their interactions.

Adeline raised her eyebrows slightly and glanced at the table over there. She smiled without saying a word. Instead, she called someone over and asked them to lead August to the surveillance room.

There was a separate surveillance room for the VIP level at Zenith. After leaving the VIP restaurant, they walked along the corridor and soon arrived at the last room.

The person who led him there pushed the door open and said something to the staff member in the room and quickly retreated to let August in.

When they were in the surveillance room, the staff member quickly looked onto the area after getting details of the location and timeframe provided by August.

August then asked the staff member to move aside. He sat in front of the computer and went through the recording in detail. The surveillance camera captured the conversation between Lucia and Paul. He could barely hear it, but it probably answered the question he had in his heart.

It turned out that Lucia and Paul were going to have a wedding in Austos.

In an instant, August felt his chest tightening as bitterness welled up in his heart.

Although he knew that he was far away from Lucia now, he still couldn't control his emotions when he heard the news.

In the end, was it because he still cared for her?
