Chapter 651 Making It Or Breaking It

This was the first time Lucia did such thing, what's more, August was not far away from her. Being nervous made her elbow touch the file nearby, the file fell to the ground with a bang

The extraordinary calm followed the bang, it took a moment for Lucia to pluck up the courage to look up towards August who was looking at her with slight confusion in his frow Lucia forced a smile, bent down to pick up the file on the ground, apologized, "Sorry, I didn't mean to "

As she spoke, she put the file back and focused on the computer again pretending to be calm.

At the same time, Bishop who was monitoring here saw it and sneered contemptuously, "Fool"

He once thought how brave, tough Lucia was, for she didn't flinch or fear when facing Ethan Denko. But now she was so guilty of just downloading something in the USB drive into the computer

He snapped out of it gradually, his eyes were focused on the computer screen again. The camera in the corner behind Lucia could barely film the screen, Although it was not high definition, it was enough.

At this moment, the footage showed August received a call, got up and went to another side to answer it. And Lucia who was sitting in front of the computer quickly plugged in the USB drive that was hidden in her hand, quickly clicked it open, and downloaded the stuffs inside into the computer.

A progress bar showing the download percentage popped up on the screen, and the progressing green was slowly devouring the remaining gray. Lucia was staring at the computer screen without blinking, while Bishop was also unconsciously holding his breath.

Making it or breaking it!

At this moment, August seemed to have hung up and put down his mobile phone, then walked this way. Soon did she get petrified

She tried not to show nervousness, quickly clicked the document open, began typing on the keyboard pretending to be drawing up the plan.

Lucia asked calmly, "Aren't you monitoring throughout?"

Bishop smiled and asked again, "What is the computer password?"

Lucia felt angry at his words, "You didn't order me to ask for the password, I did everything you ordered. What do you want? You have been monitoring, you should be very clear he didn't tell me the password at all."

Lucia's feisty argument made her sound true. Bishop was not annoyed at her words, but whispered, "Relax, I just want to ask you if you happened to see it. Lucia tightened her grip on the mobile phone.

In fact, she did see the password August entered and remember it but she answered quietly, "No, I didn't. if you doubt me, you shouldn't have let me do this " Bishop smiled at her words. Unexpectedly did Lucia see through his thoughts.

He did doubt a bit, but was convinced by her saving. Nonetheless, he threateningly whispered, "If you are playing tricks on us, you won't get away with it." Although he was joking, Lascia could not help being inspired, then she asked directly, "Where are my parents?"

"Don't worry, they are fine"

Lucia frowned, "Didn't you say you will spare them when I have done?"

"Now they are leaving Crokland for South France. They are having a good time. You don't have to spoil the fun." Bishop said lightly, "Don't worry, I mean what I say " Lucia steered at his words, "Bishop, what's the point of doing like this?"

Bill Mitchell and Mrs. Mitchell were in Cardiff now, she couldn't be sure if they were safe or not. Bishop sent someone to follow them, and they wouldn't retreat easily.

So it turned out that she had been cheated. She wanted to contact her parents immediately to let them buy tickets to come back, but it seemed a lot of things couldn't be up to her. Bishop seemed to want to say something, but Lucia said nastily, "Liar!"

Had she seen this message, Lucia should have been happy. But the amount of information behind this message was too huge, she could only feel the gloomy cliff,

Why would he let her parents go home after today? Was he going to take action today? What exactly was his plan? What on earth were those stuffs downloaded into August's computer? What consequences would it cause?

All these questions boggled her mind leaving her without any clues.

She had tried to open the stuffs in the USB drive to see what they were, but she found that they were all encrypted files. What was more terrible was that a countdown was set against the encrypted tiles which could be checked after time out, it looked like a ticking bomb buried there to be detonated at fixed time.

Although she did not know what was inside, she could guess that it was definitely something more powerful than the ticking bomb. When the time came, once it had been detonated, it could have been devastating-

Since it had been downloaded into August's computer, undoubtedly, August was fishop's target.

She couldn't help but tremble while thinking of it. She was hinting herself on her mind again and again, breathing deep to dispel her worries and flurries, calming down forcibly When she arrived at the gate of Lion Group, she pushed the door open and got off as usual, but she felt weak in her feet. She picked up the lunch book and took the elevator to the President's Office

When she arrived at the office door, Cindy came to remind her, "President Adams is receiving Important customers. I'm afraid he won't be able to come out for a while Ms. Mitchell will you wait a moment?"

Locia was a little upset and wanted to take a rest. Hearing what Cindy said, she nodded at once, "Well, I'll wait."

Ondy nodded, "Ok, please follow me

Then she took her to the reception room next door, served her tea, and left the room.

Loca was alone in the room for a while. She breathed deep, the tension was relieved gradually after awhile, then she felt better.

After calming down, she drank tea in the reception room and read magazines, 20 minutes passed unconsciously. Then she looked at the lock on the wall, looked down at the lunch box on the table, and hesitated for a moment.

If I hadn't sent the meal over, it would have been cold. But now it seemed that August hadn't done yet.

At this moment, the door of the reception room was suddenly pushed open, it's Cindy at the door.

Lucia was delighted and asked, "Is it over there?"

Chapter 654 Stealing Business Secrets

When Lucia touched the mobile phone in her pocket and tried to unlock it with her fingerprint, Jeanne walked towards her quickly as if she had known what she would do next.

Then she grabbed Lucia's arm.

Jeanne provoked and sneered, "What's wrong? Are you afraid?"

Lucia forced herself calm to break free from her grip and argued, "What am I afraid of? Jeanne, don't beat around the bush, "

Gloomy looks crept up on Jeanne's face, "Lucia, don't be so arrogant. Since you said that, I will tell you the truth. I am jealous of you! It's time to pay me back what you owe me. As she spoke, her gloomy eyes became scarier.

Lucia shivered, clenched her relaxing hands and sneered, "What do I owe you?"

She knew that she was talking nonsense, but she couldn't help shivering. Although she was not afraid of Jeanne, now she must be careful, held her off and found a way to leave!

At the same time, the door of the President's office was finally pushed open. Several men in suits came out one after another, gathered together and whispered something. Then August sat in a wheelchair and was pushed out by Burton Harris.

At this time, Cindy came forward, held the lunch box in her hand, and said, "President Adams, this is the lunch sent by Ms. Mitchell"

August glanced at the lunch box and asked, "Where is she?"

Cindy told him the truth, "She has been to rooftop to meet friend for a while."

August subconsciously frowned at her words, immediately took out his mobile phone to call Lucia.

He could feel today was not an ordinary day. The recent speeches and internal information he had received indicated that something was about to happen.

Chapter 655 Being Betrayed

As Jeanne got more and more emotional, Lucia was delighted, then said, "No way! He told me that he didn't love you! Never! Jeanne, you are being kept in the dark with your one sided wish. How pathetic!"

Jeanne's emotion spiraled out of control at her words, "Lucia, I will tear your mouth apart! The person he loves is me!

As she spoke, she rushed towards Lucia. Unexpectedly, Lucia stood still and snickered at her.

As she was closing in on her, Lucia ducked away soon.

Jeanne stumbled and almost fell down. At the same time, she brandished the electric baton at Lucia!

Lucia quickly dodged, kicked her calf swiftly. Then Jeanne bent her knee, lost her gravity and was about to fall

At this moment, Lucia rushed forward quickly to snatch the electric baton. Just when she grabbed it, Jeanne realized her intention and gripped it as tightly as possible. Their scrimmage inevitably pressed the switch button. The one touched by it would be defeated by another.

Jeanne made the most of her limbs and kicked Lucia's leg. She frowned in pain, but refused to let go.

At this time, if she had let go, she would have been doomed! Jeanne would have electrocuted her with the electric baton, colluded with Bishop to accuse her, and put her in jail! She knows that Bishop was capable of distorting truth and spreading rumors like a piece of cake.

Therefore, she must get the electric baton and electrocute Jeanne!

At this time, Jeanne kicked her stomach again, cursing. "Bitch, go to hell!"

Although Lucia's stomach had been kicked, she snatched the electric baton with sudden effort on her hands while Jeanne was distracted.

Chapter 656 You Are Bound To Lose!

August was quite calm. He was not surprised at all, as if he had known all this a long time ago. Lucia on the other side also looked at him with almost the same indifferent eyes. It seemed that the one-man show was not as exciting as he imagined. Bishop touched his nose, then spread his hand and asked, "Isn't it exciting?

At this time, Lucia suddenly said, "What if things are different from what you imagined? Or if there is some reversal?"

"Reversal?" Bishop said coldly, "It doesn't exist."

As soon as he finished speaking, August's deep voice came over, "I'm so sorry to disappoint you. Everything you just said is hypothetical, but the reality won't follow your script Bishop suddenly became serious and gloomy, and subconsciously denied his statement, "How could it be! August, you are too arrogant!"

"In the past, everything was according to your rules! In the Adams family and Lion group, you were brilliant and you could do things of your will. But for this matter! The outcome of this matter must be decided by me!"

He walked quickly to August and approached his wheelchair. His eyes were full of coldness and hatred, and he said angrily, "August, you are bound to lose!"

August looked at Bishop calmly and he raised his eyes to meet Bishop's sight directly, "Really

Bishop moved his lips, and before he had time to speak, Lucia on the other side had already spoken, "Bishop, you have already used every trick. You didn't expect that you would make mistakes because of me, did you? That day, what I imported into his computer was not what you gave me at all."

Hearing the words, Bishop's body was a little stiff. He stood still for half a second, then looked at her and said coldly, "It's impossible."

Lucia opened the corners of her lips and said word by word, "I changed the USB drive you gave me. I imported the animation into the computer. It was the same as the file size on the USB drive you gave me. I am afraid that this investigation team will return empty-handed this time."

The air was silent. At this moment, Bishop stood there, his face had undergone several changes, from initial confusion to later anger. Finally, he stared at Lucia with gnashing teeth,

"How dare you!"

His expression became fiendish, "Your parents are still in my hands, how dare you!"

Bob's mobile phone rang. He picked it up and answered the phone. A few seconds later, his expression changed and he immediately reported to Bishop, "Young master,

The helicopter soon went away, but Lucia still felt a loud noise in her ears, and she could not recall what happened.

August stood up from the wheelchair and walked to her. He called her name several times, and she came to her senses.

But somehow, her legs and feet became soft involuntarily at the moment she relaxed. Suddenly, she was about to fall when her body tilted.

August lunged forward, he supported her body and held her in his arms. He was worried about her. "Don't be afraid, I'm here."

After such a fight, Lucia was exhausted and unable to support herself.

She took a deep breath and felt a little uneasy inside. Without caring about her own body, she unconsciously reached out and grasped August's wrist and asked, "Bishop ran away, what should we do?"

Such a demon had escaped, and he might hide in the dark. It would be very difficult to deal with him.

None of them won in today's play

Bishop thought that he would win a big victory, but he did not expect that Lucia and August had already joined hands to make a trap, August and Lucia also thought that they would win the final victory, but in the end, there was an accident.

Seeing Lucia's restless appearance, August was secretly worried. He gently grasped Lucia's shoulder and whispered, "I will catch him as soon as possible. Don't worry" Although she still felt uneasy, Lucia nodded.

At that moment, there was a noisy sound of footsteps coming from the direction of the roofed gate, and then Joshua rushed with many people.

When he saw Lucia falling to the ground, he quickly asked, "What's the matter? Is she injured?"

"No" August frowned, he held Lucia's hand firmly and said gravely, "Bishop ran away by a helicopter."

Chapter 658 Take Mandy Away

The sky suddenly changed and the night fell. At midnight, a car drove quickly across the main road in the suburbs and slowly approached a villa

That was the villa where Bishop often lived. Now the light was not on, and it was hidden among the shadows of trees, which looked a bit spooky and terrible.

He hid the address of this villa very well, even if someone wanted to check it, it would take some time, but he couldn't stay here anymore. He must leave immediately after he packed some important things!

The car suddenly stopped at the door. Soon, Bishop got off the car, went back to the second floor study, opened the safe box, and took the prepared US dollars, foreign bank passbooks, a set of completely fake identity certificates, and defensive equipment.

These were enough for him to leave Austos City safely, and escape to a foreign country. Where there was life, there was hope. It was not too late for him to come back and take August's life after he has cultivated himself well!

With this in mind, he immediately gritted his teeth, quickly put those things in his suitcase, and quietly left the study

He had reached the stairway, suddenly, he heard a small cough coming from the room not far away. His heart moved and his steps stopped

He forgot that the woman was still there.

Bishop frowned and gritted his teeth. He wanted to walk away ruthlessly, but he had just stepped down two steps. He suddenly had sympathy for her and there was inexplicably uncomfortable in his heart.

Somehow, at the thought of the woman staring at him with tears on her face, his heart contracted and he felt uncomfortable beyond control.

Damn it! He had never been infatuated with a woman like this.

At this critical moment of life and death!

However, with every step he took, he felt uncomfortable all over his body. The position of his heart seemed to be hollowed out by some sharp teeth and claws. It hurt badly! Forget it. Taking that woman was like taking a pet. It could be fun if the trip was boring. What's more, it was not difficult to take one more woman with his ability!

Thinking about it, he bit his teeth, turned around immediately, strode up quickly, and walked directly to the door to open it.

The room was dark. He pushed the door open and saw Mandy on the sofa suddenly turn around. It seemed that she was frightened by the sudden movement, her eyes were very big because she was surprised. In addition, she was so thin that her cheeks were sunken, which made her eyes look bigger and emptier.

Bishop quickly walked forward, took out a small key from a nearby drawer, untied her bracelet and anklet, pulled out a long and thick coat from the nearby wardrobe, wrapped it up for her, and pulled her outside

With Jay's support, August finally stabilized the hearts of the people at the important emergency meeting.

"I am August Adams. I want to assure you that the storm and turbulence are only temporary I will do my best to protect the interests of the Lion group from damage. Please give me a chance. If I can't protect Lion group in two weeks, I will abdicate and find a more suitable person to manage Lion group's business!"

His fearless words and promise really effectively reduced the people's temporary doubts and anxieties.

It was not short or long for two weeks, which was also an unknown test for him.

Hack from the conference room, Angiast always frowned and fell into his meditation

Now the company's affairs and Bishop's affairs really made him unable to cope.

The top priority was to catch Bishop first. Only in this way could he do things without being tied down and worrying about the future

If he didn't catch Bishop, he would feel unstable all day.

First of all, he was in a place that could be seen easily, but Bishop hid in the dark, and it couldn't be easier to attack him. Moreover, he had too many weaknesses around him, such as the Lion group, Olivia, Eliot, Lucia, Timothy, and Janet, as well as Lucia's parents. These were the people he couldn't ignore, and they were the people he cared about most After sitting for a long time, he suddenly called out, "Burton"

Burton immediately came forward and asked, "President Adams, what can I do for you?"

"Do you remember the tea manor in Fallen City?"

Barton didn't think August would suddenly mention these things. He paused, nodded, and said, "Yes,"

August paused and said, "I want to arrange for Grandma and Father, as well as Lucia, to go there. After this matter is all over, then we can talk about the other plans."

Seeing Lucia's eyes were red, August's heart softened involuntarily. He extended his hand, took her cold hands in his warm hands, and said mildly, "I didn't mean to blame you, but at this time you must think about it. Even for the safety of Timothy and Janet, you must go there"

Lucu was filled with emotion, but could not say a word

After all, the words August said were reasonable. Although she wanted to stay here and stay with him, the timing and the current situation were not right

She took a deep breath, and her persistence and obsession gradually faded. She raised her eyes, looked up at the man's dark and bright pupils, settled her heart down, nodded, and said, "Okay, we'll see you at the manor then "

Hearing the words, August was relieved secretly, nodded, and whispered, "I'll arrange it right away and see you off tomorrow

Hearing that she was leaving tomorrow, Lucia could not help being surprised. "Tomorrow to taste

August nodded, "My grandma and father have gone there today. The sooner you leave, the better. I will arrange for Zane to tend you, Timothy, and Janet tomorrow there. I can promise assured that he is here "

Lucia felt distressed, hesitated for a moment, and nodded slightly

At this moment, it was pointless to leave one day late. As long as he was safe, it was okay that she left Austos City

"It's getting late Go back and have a good rest. I'll call someone to arrange it.

With that, August got up and walked towards the small balcony.

He stood in the dark, the dark light and shadow enveloped him. Looking at his back, Lucia was still reluctant to part with him. She took a deep look at him, and then got up and left. Such a day would come sooner or later. It was not a bad thing to end early
