Chapter 661 Lucia Acknowledged August

The two looked at each other, with different emotions Lucia took a deep breath, to calm herself down, and she asked, "How do you know? August had said that just now, which meant that he had known that Timothy and Janet were his children! But she had concealed this matter very well, and how did he know it?

August's eyes were sharp, and his pupils were like the black obsidian, and he said word by word, "Half of Timothy and Janet's genes are from me. Even if you deliberately conceal it, you can't cover up the blood relationship and family ties!"

The word made Lucia's heart tremble when she said it, and an indescribable complex emotion swirled in her heart. Her nose was sour, and tears gushed out uncontrollably For these years, she had worked so hard to keep this secret she tried her best to hide it from August, but she didn't expect him to find out the fact in the end

Seeing Lucia bursting into tears suddenly and non-stop. August's heart softened. He stepped forward, raised his hand and gently wiped the tears off her cheek, and said softly, "At this time, even if it's for Timothy and Janet's safety, you also have to go to Sonirie When I settle the matter here, I will rush there as soon as possible, and our family will be reunited"

The words "our family" suddenly moved Lucia. In the past, she hardly thought about a family. When she was with Paul, she hadn't had the feeling of a family. However, this time

Lucia, Timothy and Janet, and August lived together in this small apartment, and she was happier than previous years. Sure enough, the family tie was really irreplaceable. An inexplicable impulse lingered in her chest. She took a deep breath, opened her arms and directly hugged August's waist. Her voice trembled slightly, with heavy worry. "I can't rest assured. I'm afraid." She was afraid that if they separated, they couldn't meet again. She was afraid that there had no chance to stay with each other after they just got back together. She was afraid that it would be the same as six years ago, once they separated, they didn't know when they would meet again

August was suddenly very moved. He stretched out his hand, patted her on the back lightly, and said softly, "Don't worry. I will definitely be ok."

After recovering. August turned her head and looked at Lucia, "From now on, no matter where you go, you must be with me. Now I must go to the company because something needs to be done You and I go there together, and we deal with it at any time, so we won't be afraid of Bishop's action."

Lucia nodded, "okay, I'll listen to you." The two prepared, quickly left the apartment for Lion Group.

Because August and top managers controlled it, the situation in the company gradually stabilized, and all matters were sent to President's Office in an orderly manner, and were jointly decided by August, Jay, and several other managers.

Lasia stayed in the office, listening to them discussing business, while she was flipping through the magazines at hand. However, for some reason, she was always restless, and couldn't help checking the clock hanging on the wall.

At the same time, on a wide road in the suburbs of Austos City, a black car sped past, and the car was filled with the laughter of children. Zane and Aaron were young, and they also liked children, so they got along well with Timothy and Janet in a short time. The two adults and two children were telling jokes and listening to music, so the atmosphere in the car was very happy.

At this moment, a call came in. Aaron, who was driving in the driver's seat, immediately reminded Zane to answer the phone. Zane picked up the phone and found it was a video call from August. He immediately pressed the answer button, and suddenly heard the voice from the other side of the phone, "Timothy, Janet."

Timothy and Janet, who was sitting in the back seat, heard the voice, immediately stopped what they were doing, and shouted excitedly. "Uncle charming!"

August's face appeared on the screen. After chatting with the two little cuties, he then told Zane, "I just want to see if you are safe. If there is nothing wrong, hang up first and call me after arriving there."

When Lucia was sober, the sky was much darker and gloomy, as if it was going to rain. August stayed by the side all the time. When he saw her be sober, his frowning brows were a little relaxed, and he asked gently, "Are you sober

Lucia looked at the ceiling, and her mind was blank. She couldn't remember anything After awhile, she slowly remembered what happened before she fell into a coma. She was very worried again. "Timothy and Janet" Before she finished her sentence, tears fell uncontrollably and non-stop.

August's expression changed slightly, and then he said slowly, "Bishop sent news."

Lucia gritted her teeth, "What did he say?"

August reached out and picked up the mobile phone on the table next to him, opened his phone, and handed it to Lucia. It was a text message on the mobile phone, "If you still want Lucia's hand holding the phone tightened involuntarily. She clenched her teeth, and her body trembled involuntarily. Bishop must have other plans when he lured the two of them to such a remote place alone, but now they controlled Timothy and Janet, so even if they don't want to go, they must go!

She must not miss any chance to save Timothy and Janet! If something unexpected happened, they didn't solve this matter! As a mother, she made a big mistake because they lost. If Chapter 664, Laicia Just Wanted to Die?

After a while, they felt the bumps of the path. The shaking of the car body made people become more nervous. After driving for a while, through the window, they saw a forest next to it, and not far behind the forest was a low wall of cement gray, which looked like a factory building. Their intuition told them that Pine Cloud Electronic Plant was there. August's eyes darkened, and he reminded in a low voice, "Be careful" As he spoke, he stepped on the accelerator to accelerate, and drove towards that side. The body was shaking, and Lucia's attention all focused on that side the factory building, so her heart beat fast.

The car quickly entered the woods and was driving forward when suddenly there were several sounds of "swoosh!", and then something slammed into the car body. Lucia was startled, but before she could react, she heard August beside her say, "There is an ambush!"

"What?" Lucia was stunned for a moment, but soon, she regained her senses, and she realized that the person who can ambush here must be someone who worked for Bishop! He wanted to kill them!

At this moment, they heard a few sounds of "swoosh" and "bang". Bullets flew from all directions and quickly hit the car body, but they did not penetrate the car, but embedded into the car body August frowned, he looked ahead, and said quickly, "Hold on tightly!"

At the moment, he suddenly turned the steering wheel, and the car quickly turned around, deviating from the original route. At the same time, he stepped on the accelerator and went on a rampage in the woods.

Bishop must have predicted it long ago that they would definitely take this road, because if they want to go to the factory, going through the woods would be the shortest road. The trees in the woods were sparse, so it is easy for cars to pass. Therefore, Bishop arranged people to wait for them here, even using weapons. Bishop was really ruthless August gritted his teeth, held the steering wheel and slammed into the woods without any orders, then suddenly rushed behind a bush!

The car stopped suddenly, and Lucia felt that the world was quiet for a moment. Her mind went blank, and her ears were buzzing. Seeing this, August frowned, and called her, "Loria

During the usual short ten minutes someone might be killed Lucia clenched her hands rightly, and her back was sweating a little because of anxiety.

At this moment, a man suddenly walked towards Joshua and reported, "The sniper is in place. It's time for us to take action!"

Joshua's face became serious. He paused, and nodded quickly, "Take Action!" Hearing Joshua's order, the men beside him immediately made a movement. At the same time, all the cars parked there slowly started, lined up in a row, and quickly walked forwards Pine Cloud Electronic Plant,

Lucia was terrified and couldn't help shivering. No wonder Joshua didn't let her go there just now. It turned out that the enemy had already ambushed there! if she walked over alone, she might be shot many times.

"Where am I going she suddenly thought of something, and quickly turned to look at Joshua.

Joshua was about to get in the car, so he glanced at her, "Get in the car."

After Lucia got into the car, Joshua glanced at her and said, "Our people will go into the plant later to help August, and you just stay outside, waiting for our news! The most important thing for you is to protect yourself. Don't run around, ok?

He quickly instructed her a few words. Lucia didn't say much, and she responded quickly and nodded. Soon, the car stopped 50 meters away from the gate. Lucia drove off and

Chapter 666 Jeanne Was Caught

Jeanne's head was covered with blood, and she had already been dying when she was dragged out. She slowly raised her head, looked around with a pale face, and finally her eyes focused on Lucia. She twitched the corners of her mouth, a cold and contemptuous smile appeared in her eyes. She slowly moved her lips and said something. From Lucia's position, she could only see Jeanne's mouth opening and closing, but she couldn't hear what she was saying.

From the moment Jeanne drove into her just a few minutes ago, it was as if Lucia had been immobilized. Her body was stiff, and only the blood in her body was churning back and forth. Seeing that Jeanne said something to her now, even though Lucia couldn't hear clearly, she knew that they were definitely not good words.

Emotions surged in her heart, seeing that Jeanne was about to be dragged away, Lucia was determined to step forward. As soon as she took a few steps, Burton stepped forward quickly, walked to her side, and said in a low voice, "Some of these people are from the police. They all saw Jeanne driving into someone just now. This time she should be directly taken into the police for interrogation, and the things she committed before, the case should not be overturned this time."

Hearing this, Lucia rose her chain slightly. She still looked at Jeanne. Jeanne was still talking to her non-stop, with an inexplicable and strange smile on her face.

Lucia took a deep breath, walked forward quickly. Seeing the people around Jeanne who wanted to take her away, she said, "I want to say a few words to her, and is that okay?" Those people looked at each other, and then nodded lightly. Then, he walked a few steps away, waiting quietly. Burton also retreated knowingly. For a moment, only she and Jeanne

There had been many times that she wanted to stay away from him and escape from him, but at this moment, she only wanted to see his face, and to see him appear in front of her safely As time passed by, she stood at the gate still, watching the rescue team slowly approaching the explosion site around the perimeter, searching, without a trace of disturbance in her eyes

At this moment, she didn't have any emotional ups and downs on the surface, but the tightly clenched hands showed her nervousness.

About 20 minutes Later, the captain of the rescue team walked over quickly and reported the latest situation to Joshna, "The situation is not very good, and the site is seriously damaged. From the scene, it should be that someone deployed a bomb here in advance, just to blow up the factory building, and the factory building here is old and in disrepair for a long time. It was shattered in an explosion, and I am afraid that the people inside are."

Lucia stumbled forward and asked, "Afraid of what?"

The captain of the rescue team looked distressed, moved his lips, and finally said, "I'm afraid they maybe unfortunately..."

The word "unfortunately" was like a mountain, pressing down on Lucia's heart, making her almost breathless. Her heart slowly contracted, and the feeling of suffocation became more and more obvious. Her chest heaved up and down due to the heavy breathing, and her heart was full of pain.

In the twenty minutes just now, she was still hoping for a miracle, but now the words of the captain of the rescue team forced her to fall into hell. She took a deep breath, gritted her

Seeing the wound on his forehead and the bruise on the corner of his mouth, she took a deep breath, lay down on his bed slowly, stretched out her other hand to reach the tip of his nose, and felt the warmth of breath with her fingertips. A few seconds later, she withdrew her hand, and was still worried. She was unwilling to give up, so she pressed her head to his left chest, quietly listening to his heartbeat. "Pop/" "Pop?" The heartbeat was strong and powerful, and the speed was even. When Lucia was listening, she reached out to gently hold his hand, feeling more at ease, but tears fell from

"I thought it was a ghost pressing the bed. I didn't expect it to be you." As he said that, there was an inexplicable smile in his eyes, "Miss me so much?" Lucia secretly let out a long sigh of relief, and muttered to herself. So this is not a dream." It was true! He was really alive, with sound limbs and a clear mind! But when she thought of the pile of bombed ruins, she felt oppressed and palpitated again.

At that time, she had already thought he was gone! She was very heartbroken and hopeless! But she didn't expect that there would be a turnaround, and something funny happened. With a sore nose, she raised her hand and punched his shoulder with a fist, "You are obviously fine. Why don't you come back and find me quickly! You scared me.

Chapter 669 Couldn't Get Together Again

As soon as Paul got off the elevator, he heard bursts of laughter from the ward. He paused and walked quickly to the door of August's ward. Seeing the happy family of four inside the

Lucia was being surrounded by two children and rushed towards. August she was obviously startled when she saw Paul appear, and before she could get up, August's strong arms had already been wrapped around her waist.

"What are you doing here?" August looked towards Paul following the sound, and when he saw Paul standing at the door, his eyes turned cold.

Seeing the intimacy of the two, Paul tightened his fingertips slightly, and his gentle eyes fell on Lucia, "Heard that you were injured, so I came to see you."

"Don't bother you, and she's fine now." Before Lucia could speak, August had already spoken, with obvious displeasure in his tone.

The phone rang suddenly, breaking the tense atmosphere in the ward. August glanced at the caller, with a serious expression, got off the bed with his mobile phone, left a kiss on Lucia's forehead to declare his sovereignty, and then left while rubbing Paul's shoulder.

When Paul saw this scene, a trace of coldness flashed across his eyes, but when he cast his eyes on Lucia, a gentle look appeared on his face again. "I've heard about what Bishop did. You, Timothy and Janet must have been frightened. I've already vacated the house in West Bridge. It's likely for you and your children to live in a familiar environment to avoid psychological shadow. As for the situation in the Amocan, I have already helped you..."

As Paul spoke, he took two steps forward, wanting to pull Lucia into his arms, but before he touched her, Lucia had already taken two steps back, and the distance between the two of them was bigger again.

He felt awkwardly, and Lucia's alienated voice sounded, "Thank you for considering for me so thoroughly, but my follow-up life has already been

In the spacious private car, several black-clothed bodyguards sat around, and Lucia sat in the middle, holding Timothy and Janet rightly in her arms. This was not the first time for

The scene in front of her tightly gripped Lucia's heart, making her eves sore. She patted Janet's back lightly, and said softly, "Mom is here. No one can hurt you, be good."

After speaking, she put one ear of each the children on her body, and covered their other ear with both hands, and then looked coldly at the man in black who took the lead. "Who do you work for?" She tried her best to stabilize her emotions, looking rather awe-inspiring

The leading man in black glanced at her lightly, but did not answer.

Before he finished speaking, Lucia felt a chill in her waist, and she knew something was pressing against her waist without even thinking about it.
