Chapter 751 I Will Not Be Absent Again

August stopped the car and turned sideways to unbuckle her seat belt, unknowingly pressing her underneath him. The distance between the two people was so close that they could even clearly feel each other's light breathing

Lucia subconsciously swallowed and hurriedly blocked her hands on his strong chest. He stumbled and said, "What do you want? Stop."

"I want you...." The attractive voice rang in her ears.

He smiled and lowered his head to kiss her wet soft lips, taking in the sweetness of her lips. Until she almost couldn't breathe, he was satisfied to let her go. Lucia's delicate face was flushed. She was hanging softly on his body, breathing in the fresh air.

August looked at her teasingly and said with a smile, "It's just a kiss."

Lucia couldn't help but glance at him, cursing him in her heart. But she pretended to be calm and said directly, "The two of us are a legal couple. How could I be afraid of your kiss?"

"Really?"

August looked at her with interest and was going to pounce in her direction again. Lucia's expression suddenly changed. She pulled open the car door quickly and slipped out. August shook his head helplessly and hurriedly followed her. The two of them stood in front of a

Chapter 752 You Should Have Your Own Life

With an apron on, Currer was busy in the kitchen. Soon several dishes were laid on the table one by one.
She stood by with an unhappy expression and did not sit down. She was just a nanny and had no right to sit at the table to eat. What's more, she had to take care of her employers during the meal.

"Currer, Kade has a sore throat lately, so remember to get some pills for him later." Mrs. Lucius said as she helped Kade with his food and ordered Currer arrogantly.

The disgust in Currer's eyes faded, and then she said respectfully, "I got it, Madam."

Kade didn't eat much food. He was fiddling with his spoon, throwing food everywhere on the table. Currer looked at the mess in front and gloated, rolling her eyes disdainfully. Mrs. Lucius softly coaxed him for a while but it didn't work, which made her lose her temper. She shouted at him, "How clever other children they are! How could I have given birth to such a fool as you!" The more she thought about it, the angrier she became. She dropped her fork and cursed viciously, "How am I worse than that bitch Lucia? Why is she so lucky?" Hearing the familiar name, Currer looked up sharply. The hatred she had hidden in her heart rolled up again. She immediately smiled at

Mrs. Lucius and said with false flattery, "Madam, you are a great and elegant woman, and you have a wonderful life. No one can compare with you."

Mrs. Lucius felt a little more comfortable when she heard this, and snorted disdainfully, "I am no match for that rich and powerful woman, who is so proud of herself because she has money."

"Madam, I've always been quite admiring you. I don't believe anyone is happier than you." She hurriedly asked curiously, "Madam, who is the woman you are talking about?"

"Lucia, you cruel-hearted bitch!" Zoey suddenly emerged from a nearby corner and grabbed Lucia's clothes with a hand. Her eyes were scarlet and her appearance looked very frightening.

Lucia frowned at once. She shook off Zoey's hand and looked at her with a sneer, saying, "I haven't looked for you. Unexpectedly, you've come to me."

Zoey fell into the snow, glaring at her viciously and cursing, "You drove me up the wall for Paula's unborn child. You are a bitch and a vicious woman!"

Listening to every harsh word, Lucia turned solemn and told Timothy and Janet to wait for her in the car, and then pressed Zoey step by step. "An unborn child is also a life. The law has no way to sanction you. But it doesn't mean you can act recklessly."

Zoey looked at her face with justice and her pupils tightened. She moved backward quickly, yelling repeatedly, "Sure enough, you did it! I advise you to stop. Or I'll join forces with Paul against you!"

Lucia slowly squatted down and reached out her hand to squeeze Zoey's chin tightly. Forcing Zoey to look at herself, Lucia reminded her word for word coldly, "Why do you think he will help you if I fight for his nephew?"

Perhaps because of fear and cold, Zoey's body shivered uncontrollably. She looked at Lucia as if she was looking at a demon. Noticing Zoey's reaction, Lucia frowned. She was busy recently and hadn't had a chance to take action against Zoey. She thought Paul would find a way to handle the matter and get justice for his sister. But Zoey's words clearly indicated to her that not only had Paul not punished

Zoey, but he had even deliberately favored Zoey.

Lucia thought, 'A person's eyes do not lie. It seems that Zoey is indeed targeted by someone, so she thinks it is I who did it. But who is trouble for Zoey?' Lost in thought, Zoey quickly broke free from her hands, wretchedly got up, glared at should stop making trouble for me." Lucia then realized her purpose today, thinking, 'Zoey thought I was the one who did all this. That's

After sending Timothy and Janet to school, Lucia rushed to the studio without stopping. Before she could close the office door, her assistant Clara came in with an excited face.

"Lucia, look!" She shook the folder in her hand and happily shoved it into Lucia's arms.

Lucia opened the folder, and a delighted smile immediately appeared on her face. Her tone also carried an unconcealed excitement,

"First Animation Studio has agreed to sign a contract with us, right?"

First Animation Studio was the most promising studio in this year's emerging animation industry. It was responsible for script outsourcing and produced content with clear intentions, which were rare and good works. At the same time, First Animation Studio was extremely demanding of perfection and had high requirements for their partners, including writers and directors. It was the leader in the industry.

Lucia's studio took the initiative to contact First Animation Studio and had several rounds of negotiations. Finally, First Animation

Studio was willing to cooperate with her, which was undoubtedly the greatest news since the establishment of her studio.

Clara nodded and said, "Lucia, they've sent over the script and asked us to turn in a simple first-version sample by next Wednesday. The art team is already working on it, and now we're waiting for your arrangements."

Lucia looked at her simple and cute look. She couldn't help but teased, "You're quite flattering "

Chapter 755 The Terrible Sample

Early in the morning of the weekend, the staff of all departments in the studio had just clocked into work. Lucia took Timothy and Janet and arrived at the studio, the two children were very well-behaved sitting on the sofa reading a book, looking up from time to time to see their mother who was working seriously.

"Timothy, why do you think mommy has to work here? Isn't it good to be at home with us?"

Timothy thought about it and replied very seriously, "I think it should be called work ethic. Work must be treated seriously. If they all worked at home, they would be slack in work."

At his words, she nodded and praised, "Timothy, you are right, awesome!"

The harmony did not last long when Clara rushed into her office in a panic, without even knocking, saying, "Lucia, bad news!"

Several people's eyes fell on Clara in unison. She pushed her glasses and kept stomping her feet, saying puzzled, "First Animation Studio suddenly canceled their cooperation with us for no reason."

Lucia sat up from his chair and asked, "Have you contacted the head of First Animation Studio?"

Clara hurriedly responded, "Yes, but they refused to discuss it with us and told us that they would never work with us again." Lucia took a deep breath and waved her hand to indicate Clara to go out first, saying, "I will deal with this matter. Now, urge all departments to produce the samples. I will personally go to First Animation Studio's office this afternoon to deal with it."

Just after Clara left the office, Lucia's cell phone rang immediately. Leo's name appeared on the screen. When she answered the phone,

The receptionist served her another cup of coffee and persuaded her in a low voice, "Miss Mitchell, our Pushing the cup back, Lucia maintained her elegant smile and gently replied, "Please give the sample

"Hello, Ms. Evie. I am the person in charge of Visual Feast Studio."

Ms. Evie was startled and asked dryly, "Why are you still here?"

Lucia nodded and said, "I've already sent you the latest sample copy by email. Have you seen it?"

Ms. Evie studied her and said, "The new sample is good indeed, but we can't cooperate with you. Please find someone else."

"Ms. Evie!" Lucia hurriedly blocked the elevator. Seeing Ms. Evie getting more and more impatient, Lucia took a deep breath and said,

"Please believe in our company's ability. I hope you can give us one more chance."

"It is not your ability that I don't trust, but unfortunately..."

Early the next morning, Lucia appeared at Ulzil Company again with the evidence. Ms. Evie's last bit of patience had been worn out. She looked at Lucia and snapped, "Ms. Mitchell, with that time to pest me, you'd better go back and think about how to do your job well" Lucia calmly spread the evidence on the desk with an extremely serious expression and said, "These are the evidence that I promised to hand over to you. Those who did those things to my company didn't do their job well, so I found a lot of evidence. Please read these and consider whether to cooperate with Visual Feast Studio again."

Ms. Evie pushed the document to the ground and said coldly, "I don't have time to read all these things with you. Even if there is a misunderstanding, it's still your responsibility and I won't pay the bill for your fault."

Lucia pressed her lips and did not speak. She crouched down and sorted out the paper on the floor. The office fell into a brief silence

Seeing her movement, Ms. Evie felt a little guilty and managed a weak nod.

"Ms. Evie, I didn't take this work only for money. I do it because I believe. We have the same dream that there must be a light of hope in the industry's future. I hope you can consider our cooperation again."

After that, Lucia put the document on the table and bowed deeply in Ms. Evie's direction, without Edmund looked at the smile on Lucia's face and felt warm in his heart. He smiled and said, "You are different from the mothers of other children..."

"Hmm?" Lucia didn't immediately understand the meaning behind his words and didn't answer him.

Edmund shook his head lightly and suddenly reached out his hand to her.

"Mr. Shea..."

Subconsciously, Lucia wanted to dodge, but Edmund stopped her. He did not touch her, but placed one hand behind her head, leaving a safe distance and putting the other hand over her head. In the next second, Edmund took a withered yellow leaf away from Lucia's hair.

"Ms. Mitchell, what did you want to say?"

The smile on Edmund's face was still elegant and warm, but it made Lucia a little embarrassed. She thought that this man was going to...

"Mr. Shea, you should spend more time with Philip. He looked quite lonely during the last parent activity." Lucia quickly changed the subject. Hearing this, Edmund looked embarrassed. "Miss Mitchell, I want you to do me a favor which I hope won't cause you too much Lucia was confused for a moment, then, without the slightest hesitation, she nodded.

Edmund seemed surprised as if he didn't expect her to agree so easily.

"I don't want to give up on Philip. Since you can change him, I hope you can help me to treat him."

Hearing this, Philip's hollow eyes flashed in Lucia's mind, and the bitterness in her heart became stronger. She responded softly, "If

The atmosphere in the Thomas family mansion was gloomy. Only a faint voice could be heard on the phone.

"Uncle Thomas, I can't get in touch with Paul. You must help me." Zoey Ximenez's aggrieved voice came out intermittently. Andrew Thomas's face was full of impatience, but his tone was particularly kind. "Zoey, Paul has been busy with work recently. He has already boarded the plane to Amecan. You have to understand and don't cause him any more trouble."

Zoey's tone became more and more urgent. In a low voice, she explained, "Advanced Technology won't last that long. Uncle Thomas, please help me."

"Since the company has been handed over to Paul, I shouldn't intervene with it. I believe your father can keep the company, right?" "But Paul is so obsessed with that woman, and I'm afraid..."

Zoey wanted to say something more, but Andrew interrupted her coldly. "I've confirmed that you are my daughter-in-law. No one can threaten your position. Don't worry too much."

After saying that, he hung up the phone with a stern face. He looked at Paul on the sofa and reminded him in a cold voice, "This is my last.

Paul said as he stood up to leave.

"Stop!" Andrew shouted angrily, his eyes were full of anger. He snapped, "Lucia Mitchell is already married, do you still want to get her?"
