Chapter 761 The Blue Palace

After signing the contract for the children's clothing brand, they quickly prepared everything and tried to end the filming before the New Year. Therefore, working hours were very tight, and Timothy and Janet hurried to the studio early. The cameramen were ready at the photo studio. After the two children's makeup was done, they soon started to work and do different poses according to the cameraman's rhythm.

Lucia was watching their work and felt proud of them. She was too focused that she didn't even notice when Elijah Reed came to her. "Lucia..." Elijah poked Lucia in the arm and made a 'shush' gesture. Lucia looked at his mysterious movement and followed him to a corner. Pulling Lucia aside, Elijah said with an embarrassed look, "The advertisers just came to me and said that we were busy with the shooting and didn't have a good conversation before. They want to have dinner with you tonight and talk about the details." "I think everything was clear in the contract, and there's no need to discuss the details, right?" Lucia asked with doubt.

Elijah Reed also looked confused and hesitantly said, "It is indeed unnecessary, but this is the last work before the new year. It is always.

right to be serious."

Lucia lowered her head and remained silent. It was obvious that she didn't want to go to dinner. Somehow she felt uneasy, but she couldn't tell what was wrong. Elijah Reed thought that she was worried that August wouldn't agree with that, so he immediately explained, "Don't worry. It's not only you and the advertisers, and the working staff of other departments will come too. I heard they have booked a large private room."

Since Elijah said it like that, Lucia felt it was difficult to refuse. She could only suppress the anxiety in her heart and accept the invitation.

"Elijah, I'll have to trouble you to take Timothy and Janet home after shooting. I think that situation may not be suitable for children." "No problem!" Elijah immediately patted his chest and made a promise.

"I'll come back to you as soon as I send them back to the Griffith

Chapter 762 Failure of the Plan

Seeing this, the man quickly reached out to help her up, and both of them fell on the sofa.

The scornful smile on the face of Brad Stark became even brighter. Before they could get up, he teased in an underbred tone, "Mr. Nash, you are so lucky to have such beauty in your arms..."

The man called Mr. Nash was already drunk. His sneaky eyes scanned Lucia, but he still kept waving his hand.

"Miss Mitchell is President August's wife. I wouldn't dare to have any designs on her no matter how bold I am."

Brad didn't know how to answer for a while and could only smile awkwardly. Several men next to him echoed, "If we have improper thoughts about Miss Mitchell, then we are tired of living "

"That's right. Don't talk nonsense. Everyone in Austos knows President August's temper. We have to make a living "

"Come to think of it, no wonder Ms. Mitchell was able to control President August. Look at where she chose to treat us. She's such an energetic woman."

"Miss Mitchell, you have good taste. Otherwise, how could you arrange such a paradise for us?"

The men's voices were mixed with evil laughter. Although they did not dare to touch Lucia, they did not stop their foul words. Lucia frowned as she looked at those men, feeling disgusted. Even a fool could see that she had been tricked by someone. Moreover, the perpetrator was this wily person, Brad Stark. She was not sure what the other party's real purpose was, but the longer she stayed here, the more dangerous the situation would be. She had to leave this troublesome place as soon as possible and then find a way to investigate who was behind this. Thinking of this, Lucia glanced at the man with her cold eyes, and said drily, "Mr. Stark, you'd better give me a

Chapter 763 I've been set up

In the bedroom of the August villa, there was only a dim yellow light, and August was quietly waiting by the bed. Seeing Lucia's fan-like eyelashes flicker slightly, he was relieved.

"You're awake?"

Hearing the familiar indifferent tone, Lucia abruptly opened her eyes and asked coldly, "Why am I at home?"

"I met Joshua at the Blue Palace and brought you back from there," August replied softly.

When Lucia heard that, she patted her head and felt she no longer had a headache. Fragments of memories emerged in her mind, and the coldness in her eyes grew stronger. She looked at August and said, "I've been set up."

"I know." August's voice did not fluctuate much. He casually put the investigation documents he got from these days on the bed and said,

"I have been paying attention to it, but there has been no result recently."

Hearing those words, Lucia's heart jolted as she asked, "You mean that the other party has been planning this for a long time?" "The things about Philip Shea, your working studio were all planned by some people."

Lucia flipped through the documents while August was talking. As expected, she saw photos of her and Edmund Shea on campus, and she could not help frowning. Who would do that to her? What was their real purpose? Obviously, the other party was just testing her, and so far, they hadn't made any serious move on her, then what was the reason for them to target her again and again?

After thinking for a moment, she and August raised their heads at the same time and asked in unison, "Why did you appear in the Blue

The voice on the other end of the line paused. Elijah reluctantly said, "Mm, Lucia, are you used to it?"

"What else can I do?!" Lucia's face was filled with frustration as she was speaking on the phone. Elijah immediately hung up the phone. Only then did Lucia have the time to read the news. When she saw the news, she could not help but clench her phone tightly. Drinking wine, seducing other men, flightiness, stepmother, a series of unpleasant words appeared on the news. Many media outlets were aggressive, depicting her as a woman who would drink and flirt around with other men in order to find her children's resources. Below the news were screenshots of Lucia hugging a man on the couch in a private room filled with prostitutes. Although their postures were not very intimate, people could still imagine what had happened. After all, the man's eyes were full of obvious desire. The cold coming from beside her made Lucia shiver. The coldness that came from August seemed to make the winter night even colder. "Burton." August's cold voice sounded slowly. "From now on, make sure the man in the photo couldn't appear in Soniré again." Lucia couldn't help but shrink a little when she heard this. She timidly tugged on his sleeve and explained softly, "That... He's only helping me, we....."

Before she could finish her words, August's sharp eyes swept over her and she swallowed the rest of her words. Lucia immediately lowered her head and braced herself to read the comments below the news, trying to minimize her presence as much as possible. The news comment area was filled with dissatisfied comments and some curses to her.

"Why does this woman use her children to attract attention every day? I have seen her in the top searches and the news more than once. I can't delete her even if I want to. She's so annoying."

Lucia frowned. She lifted her eyes to closely size up Emma, feeling that she was quite different from before. Now Emma was mature and steady, but it seemed she had lost her innocence and purity.

"Emma, if you have any difficulties, feel free to talk to me. I will do my best to help you." She muttered softly with a worried expression. Emma's hand suddenly trembled. She hurriedly forced a bright smile and responded, "You are the one I trust most in the company. Of course, I will tell you if I have any trouble."

As she spoke, she handed the document to Lucia and outlined the contents on the paper with an extremely serious expression. "This is our bid product this time, the supplier has currently applied for a patent for the invention. We are competing with Cloud Technology for five-year exclusive usage of the product. If this bid is successful, then the lion group's sales will skyrocket next year."

Lucia carefully read the contents of the document, and her face gradually became serious as Emma spoke. She asked in a deep voice,

"What is the highest bidding price offered by the company?"

"President August told us to do whatever we can and did not directly limit our budget. I don't think Cloud Technology has an accurate budget, either. They have been following our price closely, and every negotiation is 3% higher than ours."

After thinking for a moment, an idea suddenly flashed through Lucia's mind, and a smile gradually appeared on her delicate face. "If we can't win at the price, we can persuade suppliers by other means..."

She looked at Emma and asked, "Do you know where the company plans to use these electronic parts?"

Emma looked at her in confusion and slowly shook her head. "I don't know yet. The research and development department needs to get a

Emma tightly clutched the kraft paper bag in her hand. Her eyes were red, and she kept mumbling, "Lucia, I'm sorry, I can't help it. I really don't want to die. I want to survive..."

Lucia tried to calm herself down in the café for a long time and returned to the company with the things that the woman gave her until she completely calmed down.

"Lucia, the staff from the Design Department and the R&D Department have been waiting for you in the conference room. This is the electronic chip you required me to find."

Lucia took the electronic chip from her and squeezed it tightly in her hand.

The sharp tip of the chip hurt her palm, but she still stared at Emma and asked slowly, "Anything else?"

Hearing that, Emma stopped smiling and looked up at Lucia's eyes in astonishment. When they looked at each other, she quickly turned her head.

"Oh, by the way, E-Lectro said that this chip is only the first generation and there are some minor defects. Please pay attention. If there is any update in the future, they will send the latest samples."

Hearing that, Lucia's face relaxed.

Lucia finally smiled, walked to Emma, patted her on the shoulder, and then strode out of the office.

Seeing that, Emma felt a little relieved, and she has mixed feelings. She quickly controlled her emotions and followed Lucia's footsteps. The key personnel of the Design Department and the R&D Department

In the Cloud Technology office, when Currer looked at the message sent by Emma, she gradually smirked.

She looked up at Jerrod, who was sorting out the documents, and asked coldly, "Jerrod, why is Lucia so eager for something new? What's your opinion?"

Jerrod paused for a moment and cautiously responded, "Maybe it is to impress E-Lectro, After all, only E-Lectro can make this chip. The higher the sales of the product, the more revenue E-Lectro will gain."

Hearing that, Currer squinted and said indifferently, "You should contact Andrew Thomas immediately and say that I have won the bidding project of Cloud Technology so that he can give me the greatest support."

"Um..." Jerrod hesitated and whispered, "Mr. Sullen, Old Mr. Thomas may not agree to it. This is the last big project of the company at the end of the year, and..."

As soon as Currer glanced at Emma, she immediately stopped saying her unfinished words and walked out of the office with her head down.

With the sound of closing the door, the timidity and cowardice on Jerrod's face disappeared and were replaced by grimness and indifference.

"Old Mr. Thomas, Currer has arranged a spy around Lucia. She has also found out Lucia's every move in Lion Group. She will take over this bidding project to compete with Lucia."

Andrew Thomas's slowly said with a gloomy voice, "Is the person she arranged reliable? If we can really know the trend of Lion Group in advance and we can do something before the Lion group carry out their action, then it is not feasible to give this project to her." "I'm sorry, Old Mr. Thomas, I can't answer your question. The spy only contacted Currer alone. I don't know what the details are."

"Well, you have done hard work these days." Andrew Thomas said coldly, "Inform Mr. Thomas to hand over the project to Currer. Just tell him it was my order."

"I have guessed. I'm just here to prove it." She smiled and shrugged helplessly. "You also said that Lion Group people have not come to take samples. Where did I get this sample? You should know better than me."

If his memories were right, Cloud Technology also asked for a sample of the electronic chip a few days ago, and they asked for two copies....

Mr. Wheeler showed a solemn face, slowly returned to his seat, poured a cup of tea for Lucia, and asked in a cold voice, "Did you know there was a traitor in the department?"

"Maybe." Lucia replied with a smile, "Otherwise, how can we come up with a bidding method different from Cloud Technology?"

When Mr. Wheeler looked at her face, he could not help smiling "August is a famous iron man in commercial circles. It seems that Mrs. Adams is an outstanding lady. That is why you are a family.

Within one hour, all the executives of Lion group knew that Lucia embezzled public funds to develop new products. Lucia looked at the popping messages, and coldly glanced at Emma.

Having flashed eye contact with Lucia, Emma immediately lowered her head with guilt, and constantly urged, "Lucia, now they ask President Adams to enforce the law impartially. You should figure it out."

"Figure it out?" Lucia smiled wryly at Emma, looked at her and asked, "What else can we do when things get to this point? Is there any news from President Adams?"

When Emma saw that, she immediately felt guilty and her face was full of embarrassment.

She replied hesitantly, "When the shareholders knew it, they rushed to the company and asked for an emergency meeting. President Adams is preparing for it."

Lucia was filled with a sense of loss. She took Emma's hand and sighed, "I've been naive for a long time, but sooner or later I have to face the reality. Some things can't be avoided or changed."

Lucia tested Emma again and again, and gave Emma opportunities again and again. However, this time she was really disappointed... Emma didn't understand what she meant. When she was trying to comfort Lucia, Lucia suddenly put her hands away and said in a cold voice, "tell the senior managers of all departments to gather in the meeting room. We will meet all shareholders there." "Lucia!" Emma couldn't help roaring, "You're crazy! Are you going to let everyone judge you?"

Lucia did not respond to her words, but straightened up and walked out of the room.

The huge conference room was full of people, with shareholders and important leaders of the company sitting on their seats, and other senior executives standing on both sides of the room. The empty conference room was noisy today.

With the appearance of August, the meeting room became quiet again. He glanced at everyone coldly. Everyone can feel his anger, which made people dare not look at him.

The shareholders looked at each other in embarrassment. One of the shareholders quickly stood up to make amends. "Mr. Nordhaus is young and humorous."

Jamie frowned and asked in disgust, "Who are you? Do you think I'm joking with you? Are you an idiot? You are too old to be an idiot. You should know I'm serious."

Hearing his satire, the shareholders blushed and responded angrily, "Our Lion group has a solid foundation. We can cooperate with Jv International because of our strength, not because of a woman."

"Really? You can try, and we can see if you can get the contract without Lucia."

It seemed that he was threatening, and then he seemed to think of something. He reminded coldly, "Lucia also got the overseas task of cooperation between Lion group and Jv International. Since you have many comments about her, we can cancel it."

The project he said was very important, and can be considered as an important step for Lion group to expand its new industry. Seeing that he proposed to cancel the cooperation directly, the shareholders were scared. They snorted to keep calm.

Jamie patted August on the shoulder and said rudely, "Take good care of your wife next time. If these old men are our company's staff, I would have let them go. I'm not as kind as you."

"They are the elders of the company. I cannot abandon them." August looked at Jamie with disdain, shook his hand off his shoulder, and asked in a deep voice, "How much are you going to give me this time?"

Jamie immediately put on a solemn face. He blushed and said, "No, I'm not here to give a big project. I just came here to ask you for money this time."

Jamie gave August a hint with his eyes to end the meeting. Today, since all shareholders had to eat their word, they were unwilling to stay in the room anymore. Everyone immediately dispersed, leaving only a few of them in the office.
