Chapter 851 August Was My Husband

"Do we need to tell Dad?" Timothy asked.

Flynt frowned tightly, with a serious expression. This time it was originally a trap for Curren, but now the plan changed. Lucia's situation was unclear. If August knew it, he would definitely go to look for Lucia. In that case, Curren would be aware of it, and their plan would fail. He was silent for a few seconds, and finally sent August a message about Lucia.

After breakfast, Reggio ordered someone to bring the medicine box, and wanted to change medicine for Lucia. Lucia coldly refused, "Mr. Smith, I don't need this now. I just want to know when I can leave here." Reggio was suspicious by nature, and Lucia said this just to make him less vigilant, which was good for her search.

softly, "Lucia, I really want to apologize to you for doubting you before. I hope you can stay here for a while. I showed the diamond ring in her hand, curled her lips, and said, "I'm sorry, Mr. Smith. I think you should know that just a few days ago, my husband August

Chapter 852 Would August Really Marry Curren?

Lucia didn't want to accept the gift from Reggio, but he had a tough attitude and forced her to wear the bracelet, and also bought several other precious jewels, which were forced into her hands. Lucia was carrying a large bag of things, and as soon as she walked out of the jewelry store with Reggio, she felt a sharp gaze.

There was a hint of coldness in this gaze, which made Lucia feel chilly all over her body. As soon as she raised her head, she suddenly saw August standing not far away. Beside him was Curren holding his arm. Looking at each other, Lucia saw a trace of displeasure in August's eyes. It was silent, and the atmosphere was very strange.

Reggio's eyes flashed, and he said first, Mr. Adams August, it's coincident to meet you here.' "It's really a coincidence." August replied calmly, and he stared at Lucia.

Lucia stared at August, wanting to hear his explanation. However, after a full minute, August still had a cold face, without any reply. Lucia was stunned, with deep disappointment in her eyes. August didn't admit nor deny it.

After a long while, she twitched the corners of her mouth and showed a mocking smile, "Then I congratulate you in advance on a harmonious union lasting a hundred years." After speaking, she left without looking back.

After walking out of the shopping mall, the warm sunlight shone on Lucia's body, but she still felt cold all over. She looked at the busy street with a dazed expression, and a trace of confusion appeared in her eyes.

She tied her messy long hair behind her head and took a deep breath. At this moment, she had no time to think about the matter with August. Now, she had more important things to do. She put on a set of light clothes, walked lightly and slowly to the door, and pressed her ears tightly to the door.

After what happened during the day, Reggio did not let down his vigilance towards her, and there were still many people guarding the door. It was basically impossible to sneak in from here without anyone noticing. Lucia walked slowly to the bathroom, and cast her eyes on the exhaust fan on the ceiling. This was the only way she could leave this room.

Lucia moved skillfully, quickly removed the exhaust fan above her head, and crawled in along the ventilation duct without making any sound. After crawling for more than ten minutes, Lucia finally came to the exit.

Lucia took a deep breath, and she was extremely nervous. A thin layer of sweat leaked from the hands holding the book.

Lucia, you shouldn't do this." Reggio's face was gloomy, and he had already lost his previous elegant demeanor, and approached Lucia step by step.

Lucia tried her best to maintain her composure, looking around wildly to look for a way out. Here was a separate balcony, and Reggio's subordinates were below. There was a similar balcony on the left, but there was at least a distance of nearly three meters between the two. If she jumped from here, there was an 80% chance that he would fall from here. Even she was not dead, she would be disabled. Right now, the chance of Lucia escaping from Reggio's hands was almost zero.

He did not dare to approach Reggio because Reggio had taken a knife out of his pocket, and the sharp point of the knife was sticking to the artery on Lucia's neck.

If he were closer to Reggio, the sharp knife would pierce Lucia's fragile neck.

He was able to capture Edwin smoothly before because Edwin was unprepared. Now, August dared not take this risk.

The tense atmosphere was spreading in this small space, Reggio knew that people from Chea dared to attack him directly, which meant they must have mastered the conclusive evidence, and he could not escape from there safely.

Lucia, who was in his hands, was the only guarantee for him to survive.

"Let me go, otherwise..."

Reggio pushed the knife deeper, and the sharp knife instantly pierced Lucia's skin.

Lucia took the apple from him and bit it. Then she looked up at August and said, "What I found before..."

August's fingers had residual apple juice, and he wiped them clean. Hearing her question, he replied as if he had already known what she wanted to say, I have given it to Flynt. It is the account book of Reggio's secret transactions for so many years. With this account book, Reggio will never have a chance to come back again.

Speaking of this, August turned his sights to the woman in the hospital bed, his sights became soft, and said softly, "Lucia, you have done a good job."

Seeing him so gently, Lucia was relieved of any anger before.

However, at the thought of their meeting in the jewelry store, Lucia felt dissatisfied. She quickly became serious and glared at August hard.

'Finally, all this is over.' She murmured.

No, it's not over yet." August held her tightly, and a deep voice came from her head.

Lucia was slightly stunned, she quickly sat up, and she looked nervous, "What's wrong?"

Was there a problem with Reggio's matters?

At the thought of this possibility, Lucia was so nervous in her heart.

Seeing her appearance, August smiled helplessly and said, "Don't worry, it's not a big problem, but now Reggio is arrested and the Cardiff Business Coalition is scattered as the sands."

He raised his head, his eyes slightly fixed, "Many families, large or small, in the Cardiff Business Coalition participated in it. Although Reggio, the leader, has been controlled by us, it is uncertain when the next Reggio will appear/

Two years ago, Daryl left Austos City after an accident. She seemed to disappear, and no one could find her.

Since then, Paul seemed to have changed into another person. He became gloomy and violent. He was looking for Daryl's trace like crazy.

Of course, he failed.

Two years later, after Currer was caught, she said all the transactions she had ever made with Andrew.

After thinking about it, August told Paul all the things.

Hearing this, Lucia had a vague guess in her heart.

She was afraid that Andrew's death had something to do with Paul.

Sure enough, Paula's eyelashes trembled slightly, and she said in a low voice, "The relationship between my brother and him had already eased, but after knowing what he did to Daryl, my brother locked himself in the room for one night, and then... my brother finally did it.'

After a year, his gloomy temperament was more serious than before.

Paul looked at her, his eyes flashed a complex mood, he also said, "Long time no see."

Lucia paused and said, "Did you hear it all just now?"

Paul nodded without denying it.

He did not speak anymore, and the air immediately fell into silence. Lucia looked at the man in front of her with a complicated look and she did not know what to say for a moment.

After a long time, Lucia sighed heavily and said, "Paul, you are an elder brother. Don't let Paula worry about you. Everything in the past has passed. I hope you can untie the knot in your heart as soon as possible."
