Chapter 971 You Are So Good At Making Excuses

The reporters were very excited. This was the first time Lucia had appeared in public since she exposed the Smith family's secret.

Ms. Mitchell, please tell us how did you discover the secret of the Smith family this time?"

Did you encounter any danger during this?"

Lucia smiled elegantly and said to the media with bright eyes, "Thank you all for your concern. What I have experienced is not important, and I hope you can focus on the results and pay more attention to such illegal and criminal acts in the future. I believe that under your eyes, all crimes will be nowhere to hide"

Later, she stopped responding to the questions from the media and walked towards the hall of the charity party holding August's arm.

Although it was a charity auction, the atmosphere there was not formalistic. Many people held champagne to communicate around.

Lucia and August came in and immediately became the focus of the audience.

Some people held their wine glasses and tried to chat with August, but August rejected them and said, 'Sorry, my wife is so strict with me that I am not allowed to drink.'

Zoey looked at Lucia and she was very angry, but she could do nothing to Lucia.
The person in front of her could not be provoked!
No matter how powerful the Ximenez family was, it got no sway with the Lion group.
August held Lucia's shoulder, whispered in her ear, and his eyes were full of love for her.
However, this scene deeply stung Zoey, and her heart was filled with jealousy.
She was jealous that Lucia could join such a rich family as the Adams family, that she had a husband who loved her, and that she even had two gifted children.
However, she married a person who did not love her, and her family was no match for the Lion group.
Zoey was deeply jealous of Lucia.

After finishing Cardiff's work, Eli came to Austos City to pursue the lady he liked.

Eli couldn't speak Chillenese very well, so he brought an assistant who could speak the language before he left.

As a result, the assistant accidentally bought the flight for the two at the wrong time. They took off at different times.

They had discussed that Eli would go to the airport first and wait for the assistant's coming.

It turned out that Eli didn't see the assistant after waiting for a long time.

What was more desperate was that his mobile phone was broken and he couldn't get in touch with the assistant. He didn't know what was going on there.

And he didn't have any money with him at all. All his money was in the assistant's hands.

Eli had to sleep in the airport waiting for the hall for one night, but he didn't see the assistant.

"Sure, Eli."

She had not known Eli for a long time, but she knew that he was a very gentle man.

Since he came all the way to find the person he liked, she didn't mind helping him.

Great!" Eli's eyes brightened.

Well, Eli, can you tell me her name?"

Daryl Davenport."

Eli's eyes softened when he said the name.

However, Lucia and August were slightly stunned.

Is the person Eli likes the Daryl Davenport they know?

There were still many people named Daryl Davenport in Austos City. Lucia did not tell Eli, but asked, "Eli, do you have her picture?"

The consequence of the aggravation of her illness was that Paula almost jumped from the fifth-floor balcony while they were not paying attention.

If Sophie hadn't found out in time, Paula would have...

When Lucia called Sophie, she was persuading Paula to let her down, so she didn't answer her call.

After listening to the whole process, Lucia was worried and asked, "Is Paula okay now?"

Sophie comforted, "Don't worry, I have taken an injection of tranquilizer to her, and now she is asleep.

Lucia was a little relieved.

She frowned and thought about it carefully.

What was the matter? In the past, even if Paula was ill, with their company and enlightenment, she could quickly recover her health.

Recently, however, her illness had been repeatedly recovering and deteriorating.

Burton had always been on call before and his phone had never turned off.
Now they couldn't get through the call to him.
Everyone sensed something was wrong.
Lucia frowned and could not sit still, "Let's go and find Burton."
Sophie, please take care of Paula."
August took Lucia came to Burton's upscale house.
This was the wedding house of Burton and Paula. Lucia had been there several times.
They stood at Burton's house and knocked, but no one opened the door.

Lucia felt quite sorry, "There were too many things that happened so urgent. I didn't have time to tell you in such a short time."

Daryl didn't really blame Lucia. She said, "It's okay. So after your investigation, you found that Burton was the problem, right?"

Lucia was also confused when she mentioned this, "I'm also very surprised that what happened between them... even if they quarreled, Paula would not get sick."

Paula and Burton had a quarrel before, but after Paula chatted with her, Burton would come to find her soon, and they would get back together.

Even if they quarreled, it was absolutely impossible to make such harm.

Unless something happened that was unacceptable to both of them.

August has asked his man to find out where Burton is now. Once they find Burton, we should be able to figure out what happened between them."

Daryl finished these words with a light smile on her face, "I'm very lucky to know Eli."

Thanks to Eli, she had a foothold in Cardiff.

Thanks to him, she could see different landscapes in the world.

Lucia looked at the expression on Daryl's face, but she sighed in her heart.

She could see that Daryl's face was smiling when she mentioned Eli, but her eyes did not have the kind of love for the person she liked.

Eli told us that he came here to find the girl he liked. Do you know his means?" Lucia hesitated for a moment and said this.

The drowsiness was swept away. Lucia immediately sat up and asked, "What's up? Is there any news from Burton?"

August shook his head, "Not yet."

Lucia was a little disappointed. August walked up to her, patted her shoulder gently, and said in a deep voice, "I have sent someone to investigate. I believe that the results will come out soon."

Lucia nodded and leaned quietly in August's arms.

August looked down at Lucia's emaciated cheeks and was very distressed, "You are thinner."

I will accompany you these days.'

No, the company needs you. You should stay in the company. I can handle it. I just haven't had a good rest recently. Just sleep is okay."

No way." August's tone told Lucia this couldn't be refused, "I will accompany you."

He knew that if Lucia was allowed to behave like this, she would lose her health sooner or later.

Lucia's heart warmed.

In any case, he would always pay attention to her health, so she nodded, "Okay, you stay with me."

Burton didn't dodge. A distinct fingerprint was immediately left on his cheek.

'You're tired of Paula so soon? Do you know how much it hurts her?"

Burton didn't say anything. A sarcastic smile crossed his lips as he kept his head sideways. Such a reaction from him angered Lucia even more.

Be a man," she sulked.

If they were not divorced, Paula might not have ended up like this. Paula was seriously ill, but Burton hadn't gone to see her once. What was worse, he was here drinking and holding other women. His silence annoyed Lucia so much that she nearly lost her head.
