Chapter 366

Genevieve thought to himself that Robbin's status had risen.

The last time she apologized, she found a restaurant outside. Now it was Bill who came forward directly. No wonder she was so arrogant!

He glances at Robbin, who reluctantly raises his glass and looks at Genevieve.

"Ms. Lawrence, I shouldn't have set you up with Tony. Actually, I meant for the best. Tony likes you, and dad also regards you as his daughter-in-law. I just wanted to make a good marriage, but..."

Her face turned gloomy. She didn't expect that she had been set up by someone!

I feel so angry at the thought of it!

The celebrity who appeared on the stage that day is still circulating the photos of that day.

If it hadn't been for Robbin's tough words, anyone who dared to send them to the media would have died. She had to apologize for what she had suffered.

Can Robbin not be angry in his heart?

She realized that she had arranged it long ago, and the surveillance cameras on that floor were turned off. Who knew that there was still one in the room?

The scene of her personal appearance and instructions was photographed and sent to Bill.

He asked her to apologize, and she had to.

Thinking of this, Robbin gritted his teeth and put on a pleading smile,

“Ms. Lawrence, don’t argue with me. | will drink to you first.”

As she said, she drank up the wine in her glass.

The crowd looked at Genevieve.

Genevieve smiles, looks at Bill and says:

“| haven't congratulated Ms. Simpson and Mr. Campbell on their marriage yet. Although it is a coincidence, it is also a good story to hear that Ms. Simpson has long fallen in love with Mr. Campbell.

| understood what Mr. Simpson meant. That was the end of this matter, and | would not pursue it. After all, bad things can be good, but | didn’t forgive Ms. Simpson for what she had done.

“It's just for the sake of Mr. Campbell and Professor Simpson.”

Her words were neither humble nor arrogant, which made Wyatt nervous behind Bill.

He didn’t say anything dirty, but he was cursing her every time.

The negotiating genius was much sharper than Bill!

Bill glanced at Genevieve and thought for a moment.

“Thank you, Ms. Lawrence.”

Irven said briskly,

“In my opinion, Robbin really needs a lesson. Mr. Simpson should teach her a good lesson. There is still room for such a thing this time.

If you cause trouble again next time, I’m afraid there will be no end to it!”

Robbin slapped the table and couldn’t help staring at him,

“Irven, who did you grow up with? Don’t think that you are my ex-fiancé and can control me. | haven’t got even with you yet!” Irven couldn’t help laughing and said without hesitation,

“I’m doing it for your own good. Don’t be ungrateful. Mr. Simpson, do you think what I said is right?”

Bill snorted and nodded.

“Irven is right. Robbin, don’t be angry. Our people in the Simpson family’s residence never bully others!” Robbin’s expression changed a little before she smiled and said,

“Got it, Dad.”

Bill then looked at Aiden.

“Who else is there in Mr. Campbell’s family?”

Aiden pursed his lips and said, “My parents are here. It’s not worth mentioning that | do some small business at home.”

Robbin sneered, turned his head away and said nothing.

Bill frowned and glanced at Robbin, and then Robbin's face calmed down slightly.

Bill continued:

"You're not married, and you don't have a girlfriend. You chased after Robbin for some time before, and you got along well with her.

Just one question. Did someone set you up this time, or did you do it yourself?" Genevieve's heart lifted slightly. Aiden said indifferently, "Arrangements? Mr. Simpson should have seen everyone's medical reports, and the problem is with Ms. Lawrence and Mr. Fallon, not Ms. Simpson and me.

It was purely a coincidence that | showed up there. The person | wanted to date was not Ms. Simpson either, so she should know it clearly.

But I'm also curious about why Ms. Simpson came upstairs."

Aiden's words were half—true, and Bill pondered over what he had said.

Robbin's chest heaved up and down, and his face was gloomy with anger. Emergency calls only!

"Obviously, it wasn't you..."

She's so sad.

Did she say that she thought the person above was Anthony?

But she doesn't have any proof.

The celebrity had already broken up with her, and now she wanted to see a joke on her. And I'm not gonna help you testify!

She was now publicizing her love story with Aiden in the circle!

Aiden smiled and looked at Robbin.

"It's not me. Who do you think?"

Robbin froze.

She can't talk.

If more was involved, it would only make things more troublesome.

Bill looked suspicious.

He narrowed his eyes and looked at them up and down, then pursed his lips and said, "Well, let your parents come over sometime. Let's meet and try to get engaged first. Mr. Campbell doesn't want to be prosecuted for hooliganism, does he?"

In this case, the charge is serious.

Aiden pursed his lips and nodded reluctantly even though he heard the arrogance in Bill's words. "I agree with Mr. Simpson's arrangement."

Robbin clenched his fists.

Emergency calls only

Aiden was such a good guy!

How could he pretend to be reluctant?

She forgot that she had dumped her the other day! 100 100%

Robbin thought, "After this period of time, the storm calms@pw6 4d the be canceled immediately!

The meal was tasteless to him.

But Genevieve didn't take it to heart. He lowered his head and ate gracefully. Lucas gave her food from time to time, and Genevieve also nodded his thanks.

Bill was a little pleased to see Genevieve eating without hesitation, and as another gurlid shrimp ball that Genevieve liked.

This girl is really pleasant to eat. She's not picky about food or hypocritical.

Robbin's attention was taken away from Bill by Genevieve again.

She coughed unfriendly and said to Bill in a delicate voice,

"Dad, I don't have a good appetite. I can't eat anymore."

The implication was that she hoped Bill would ask the chef to make another dish for her. Bill nodded understandingly.

She didn't have an appetite these days. It would be if it she had a happened!

He said indifferently, "If you have a bad appetite, don't eat it. It hurts." Robbin's smile froze on his face.

Everyone finished the meal.

Genevieve didn't stay.

Asked to leave.

Before Bill could say anything, Wyatt tried to persuade Austin.

"Why don't you play for a while? You young people must have something to talk about!" Irvan couldn't help muttering:

"It's lucky that we don't fight. What can we talk about?"

Wyatt tutted and frowned.

"What can't you say? | can say anything!"

Irvan:...

Chapter 367

Bill frowned speechlessly,

"Forget it. It's getting late. They don't want to be with us old men. Let them go back and play!" Wyatt looked at the time and said,

“Alex is not back yet!”

“It doesn’t matter if Alex comes back or not. Let the driver drive them!” Bill didn’t know what Wyatt had done behind his back.

It doesn’t matter if Alex is invisible or not.

But Robbin noticed something.

She refreshed, glanced at Genevieve and said with a smile:

“I also think maybe we can see each other when James comes back.” Everyone was puzzled by this remark.

Only Wyatt's face froze.

Did Alex know what he was doing?

He looked at Robbin and asked tentatively,

“What does it mean? “Robbin, I don’t think it is peaceful outside recently. If you let James follow me, I will feel better. What are you thinking about?”

Robbin raised his eyebrows, thinking that the test result had not yet come out, so he naturally couldn’t make it clear. She smiled and said, 5

Emergency calls only

“I mean, I haven’t seen James for a long time, I miss him.”

Genevieve didn't understand their confrontation, nor did he bother to speculate. She stood up directly and said with a smile,

"Mr. Simpson, it's getting late. I have something else to do. Goodbye."

Bill was uncomfortable with the sense of Genevieve's estrangement, but it was inevitable. He nodded and looked at Lucas.

"Send Ms. Lawrence home safely."

"Yes, Father."

Lucas left with Genevieve.

Wyatt wanted to say something but hesitated.

After being interrupted by Robbin just now, it would be a little

Lucas sent Genevieve home.

Strange for her to mention Alex again.

There was also a key in the car for her. It looked like an accessory, golden and antique. Genevieve looked. "What does it mean?"

Lucas smiled and said,

"Golden, valuable."

Genevieve nodded and held it carefully.

Lucas felt funny and rubbed his forehead.

Genevieve's inadvertent little look was lovely.

During this time, he knew her character somewhat.

She would keep the gold carefully and wouldn't throw it about or forget it. Maybe one day, I'll use this golden key.

Genevieve arrived at the door, got out of the car and said with a smile:

"Professor Simpson, I will tell you when I come back. I don't know when to see you next time. Take care of yourself!" Lucas looked at her deeply and nodded.

"So do you."

She waved her hand and walked in with a big smile.

Lucas looked at her back with a far-reaching look.

Sometimes, instead of losing to luck and opportunity, he may lose to his own cowardice. Because she felt that it was not the right time.

Next time, maybe it's about time.

Genevieve returned to the manor.

The baggage was almost packed.

“Where's Selene?”

Helena replied,

“Ms. Quinn said she would meet you at the airport.”

Genevieve nods and looks at Jasper:

“Have you bought the gift?”

Jasper smiled and nodded.

“Don't worry. | have prepared all the gifts for James in the Lawrence mansion! “Goldie, | have checked it back in advance.”

Genevieve breathes a sigh of relief and is clearly in a much better mood: “That’s good. Let's go!”

Jasper immediately nodded and arranged for the driver to:

“By the way, last time Anthony said that one driver was not enough and he wanted to find another driver from us. | think it’s better to send Johnny there as well. We can’t use him anyway.

Genevieve did not inform Anthony of the exact date of his return.

So he doesn't know.”

But Anthony looked at Genevieve’s driver greedily. The last Mike was arranged by him to drive a company executive, so he came to ask for help again.

She also indirectly asked Daniel to find Jasper and euphemistically mentioned several times that there were not enough drivers. Genevieve listened and nodded.

“Okay, give them double wages and leave it to Anthony.” Jasper nodded.

Genevieve had taken care of everything, so they left overnight. Riley is waiting to see her off at the airport.

She had almost adjusted her mood and state.

Looking at the nature, she felt much calmer.

“Ms. Lawrence, send us a message when you get home safely.” 47

“Of course, Ms. Horton. Why don’t you come to Clusia this year? The Lawrence Group is going to hold a high-level meeting in the country?”

It was a whim of Genevieve.

Because she remembered that Jeffrey would leave a few days in advance during the New Year and wouldn’t come back until New Year’s Eve.

He thought, “It’s a vacation. Maybe | can come to spend the holiday with Riley?”

If so, Genevieve really can’t bear to let Riley spend the holiday alone!

Riley was stunned and smiled,

“If the company holds a meeting, you will go.”

Genevieve smiled and waved, then left with his men. Fly over mountains, rivers, lakes and seas. The plane landed the next day, just in time for Clusia’s night.

Genevieve didn’t go back to the

Lawrence Se for one night and adjusted the time difference.

Everyone who followed went back to rest.

A day off.

Genevieve and Selene were full of vitality. Selene was going to the hospital to see Lorelai, so Genevieve returned to the Lawrence mansion.

Dad and Mom had no idea Genevieve was coming back.

So when Genevieve drove a cool car back to the Lawrence mansion, everyone was surprised and happy.
“Ms. Lawrence is back...”

calls onlyz...

James shouted happily.

At the sound of James's dialectal tone, Genevieve felt warm.

This was where she felt comfortable, and even the air was extraordinarily close and clear!

She happily handed the gift to him.

“Sir, your gift is in the back. Please share it with others.”

Mr. James had been at home for decades, so he didn't want to be polite.

“Okay, let's go in...”

Genevieve went in with other things.

Looking at Mom's di Refiefche put wn the wing Fah stretched out his hands to look at her happily:

“Mom, come and hug your Sweetheart!”

Mom ran over happily, held her in her arms, and kissed her face.

“My sweetheart, | miss you so much!”

Mom touched her cheek and said, “You're thinner. | finally fatten you up a little bit, but you are thinner again!” “Im on a diet!”

“| don't need to lose weight. My sharp chin is not beautifu {ay Rutt mM always pretty. Oh, it's all my strength!”

Mom liked to touch her.

Dad ran downstairs excitedly.

“Is Mr. Goldie back?”

Mom rolled her eyes and said,

“You only care about Goldie. Can’t you see Andrea here?”

Dad walked over happily,

“I’ve seen it. If you don’t let go of her, I can only hug Goldie!”

Chapter 368

Genevieve smiles and goes to hug him:

“Daddy, my dear daddy, you all miss me so much!”

Dad laughed happily:

“Yeah, you must be guilty!”

Mom changed the topic and looked outside,

“Where’s Goldie?”

Genevieve said, “So Goldie is more important than me?”

Mom rolled her eyes, and Genevieve immediately said:

“Jasper has consigned the baggage back. It should be at his place. Let him deliver it tomorrow. He is on vacation today.” “Okay, okay!”

Dad agreed quickly and ordered the kitchen staff,

“Make more delicious food and everything Ms. Lawrence likes!”

Genevieve brought the gifts for them.

Mom was given a custom-made red diamond necklace with beautiful workmanship and design, which made her amazing.

Of course, the price is also quite beautiful.

Mom put it on at the scene. Her light beige cheongsam was elegant and noble, which made her look even more beautiful with this necklace.

Dad admired:

“Beautiful! So beautiful!”

Genevieve laughs and teases:

“Is she beautiful or the necklace?”

Dad gave a thumbs up.

“Beautiful!”

Mom's face turned red. She glanced at Dad angrily, then turned around and went to the kitchen. "For the sake of your good behavior, I'll cook a dish myself!"

Dad lowered his voice and said enviously,

"I wish I were a woman. I also want to wear such a beautiful necklace."

"Dad, you don't mean it!"

Dad instantly covered his mouth and laughed.

Genevieve then brings out his gift:

"Dad, I also prepared this necklace for you. It's a man's necklace that is very handsome and tasteful. Now successful Louis would wear it!"

Dad's eyes lit up. He helped open the box and said,

"Daddy can't bring the same style as others. Daddy wants an exclusive custom-made one!" Genevieve had expected it and said with a smile:

"Don't worry. It must be an exclusive custom-made one!"

Dad looked at the sandalwood box, precious and tasteful.

It's... It's a little too big.

Even an antique scroll is enough!

He opened it excitedly and glanced at it. The next second, he immediately closed it. He took a puzzled look at Andrea.

Genevieve watched his reaction expectantly.

But Dad couldn't laugh.

He looked at Andrea and hesitated to say something.

"Did you buy this gift yourself?"

Genevieve pursed her lips. When did she have time to buy a gift?

But she told Jasper to buy something.

"The more expensive the necklace, the better!"

Jasper went to do it at once.

Mom's gift was seen by Genevieve. After all, Daisy knew her best.

Since Louis knew Louis best, Dad's gift was decided by Jasper.

He said, "Men's hanging ornaments are very handsome and tasteful. Now Louis who is successful in the business world wears them."

Genevieve agreed without a word.

But she couldn't feel guilty about Dad's question, or she would be dishonest.

“Of course, I picked it myself. It’s absolutely high-end and classy!”

Mom heard and was happy to see his present.

Dad gritted his teeth, and his head hurt like a string.

He opened the box..

Genevieve and Mom were stunned.

The next second.

Mom covered her waist and laughed.

Dad looked at Genevieve and hung the necklace around his neck:

“Is this the necklace that Louis wears now?”

Have you ever seen Louis in a meeting room with prayer beads hanging around his neck and reading before negotiating?” Genevieve cursed Jasper a thousand times in his heart!

Why is this Jasper suddenly unreliable?

Genevieve forced a smile:

“The exclusive and custom-made products set off your temperament. Theodore’s aura is so inadvertent!” Her eyes fell on Mom for help.

Mom immediately stopped smiling and looked at Dad.

“Yeah, it looks like a deep and connotative Louis. | don’t like the temperament of those nouveau riche in business. You look like you control the wind and rain!”

Mom said so vividly that Dad’s ears turned red.

He couldn't help but grin.

Is that so? | suddenly felt that it matched my temperament. Mr. Gen had good taste. This gift was not bad, and | liked it.”

Genevieve breathed a sigh of relief.

At dinner.

The three of them talked about very light topics, and Genevieve was also amusing.

No one deliberately mentioned Jeffrey.

After dinner.

Genevieve changed his clothes in the room, remembered to send a message to Lucas and Riley that they were all right, and went to the study.

Mom and Dad are there.

There’s no way to avoid it.

Genevieve took a deep breath and walked in.

“In fact, we didn’t get nothing from this trip. At least we have known Tony’s safety.”

She synthesized the information she got from Lucas and Anthony, and told them everything. Mom’s eyes were a little red, as if she had been enduring it but couldn’t control herself.

Dad looked calm. He pondered for a while and then said,

“Well, since Anthony can get his information, it means that has to be to him. As they protect Jeffrey, he will be fine.”

Mom choked and said,

“But it will be dangerous...”

Dad patted her on the shoulder.

“That’s good enough. I thought we agreed to prepare for the worst.

Don’t be afraid of danger. It will pass sooner or later. At this point, the country will protect him.” Dad sees farther.

Although it was cruel to tell the truth, he knew that people could not be redeemed by a simple exchange of interests.

Things have escalated beyond the control of ordinary people.

The peacekeepers and the military are involved, so they can’t drag their feet. I don’t know who is in charge of the situation now!

Mom couldn’t hold back her tears and looked away.

Dad pursed his lips,

“Mr. Gen, you and Anthony...”

Mom was stunned and looked at her immediately.

Genevieve shook his head and said, “We're not together. We are friends at best. He back my bid Scores anymore. Let's just get along well.”)

Mom and Dad were relieved.

Mom pursed her lips:

“If he is suitable for you, you won't get divorced. Don't be soft—hearted. Louis is not a good person!”
Dad coughed heavily.

Mom changed her mind: “Except for your father.”

Genevieve smiles helplessly:

“Okay.”

Mom walked over to hold her hand and pursed her lips, with a hint of worry in her eyes.

“Even if Anthony knows about your Tony, | don't want t

re also the Sweetheart of our parents!

Don't be aggrieved by this, understand?”

Chapter 369 Genevieve nodded with tears in his eyes. Dad took a deep breath and said,

“Well, since you're back, go back to the company and take charge of the situation. Put Jeffrey's case aside for now. I'll find someone to inquire about it.”

Genevieve pursed her lips and nodded.

house.

Bill's face turned pale, and he suddenly stood up with a report in his hand.

“What do you mean? What is this?”

Alex touched his head and looked at Wyatt.

Wyatt smiled and said,

“I suspected that Ms. Lawrence looked too much like Kate. Maybe it has something to do with her!

I asked Alex to try to get Ms. Lawrence's blood and did a DNA analysis with you. Of course, it was inconvenient for me to write your name, so I used Alex's name.

You know, Alex was born sterile and couldn't have had children.

Look, she is your Andrea!”

Alex nodded excitedly,

“Boss, you've been looking for her. She is still alive!”

Bill choked for a moment, his eyes turned red, and then there was great surprise.

Chapter 369

But he remained cautiously hesitant:

“Can't you make a mistake?”

Wyatt smiled and knew what he meant.

“I won't. I asked Alex to divide the blood samples into two hospitals for testing, and the results were the same. “We don't have to lie to you, boss. Your biological Andrea has been found!”

Bill's expression changed a few times, and finally he read the report happily without closing his mouth. “I thought it was a coincidence when I saw Genevieve and Kate look like each other, because their ages don't match...”

Wyatt smiled and said, “You can make up stories about your age. You have to tell the truth!”

Alex stood up and nodded,

“Ms. Lawrence is nice. She's beautiful, kind-hearted and generous. Boss, what are you waiting for? Take her back!”

Wyatt nodded excitedly,

“That's right, boss. Take him back as soon as possible. This is a good thing!”

Bill nodded excitedly and slapped his thigh, trembling with excitement.

"I told you that every time I look at her, I feel intimate with her. How can I not be intimate with Andrea? And the dishes she likes to eat are all my favorite. This is blood connection!"

Wyatt Alex nodded.

Bill was too excited.

Suddenly, she thought of something and showed a regretful look on her face.

Nothing unkind. She was probably angry and didn't call me

"Mr. Simpson" anymore."

She must be angry with me because of Robbin!"

Bill was so annoyed that he wanted to beat himself.

At that time, he thought there would be no chance to see each other in the future, so he would rather let Genevieve swallow this tone and protect Robbin..

What did he do?

Wyatt looked at Bill unhappily.

He immediately walked over and said with a smile,

"Boss, the top priority now is not to think about these useless things.

"Go and tell Genevieve the good news, call her back, make up for it, and don't let her suffer any more."

Bill nodded and said,

“Yes!”

He stood up and took a deep breath.

“Call her back. No, no, I'll pick her up myself!”

Bill said and walked out.

He held the identification report tightly in his hand.

Wyatt followed Alex immediately.

Wyatt was in the car and said with a smile,

“Should I tell Lucas? Will the boy be glad to know that he likes Genevieve?”

Alex shook his head and said, “The person you like becomes Samantha. No one will be happy with such a drastic blot!”

Bill was completely immersed in the joy of finding Andrea.

He smiled and said, “You don't have to tell him. He will know sooner or later.” The car arrived at the manor where Genevieve was.

Bill was so excited that he almost tripped over when he got out of the car. Alex followed Wyatt and held him.

“Boss, this is a good news. Don’t fold yourself in it!”

Wyatt frowned and said,

“Alex, what are you talking about?”

Alex curled his lips and didn’t say anything.

Bill approached.

The manor was empty, and only a few Helena were left to look after the house. Seeing someone coming, Helena walked over and said,

“Who are you?”

“Where’s Genevieve? We came here specially for her. We are her...” Elder!” Wyatt said confidently.

Helena looked at the three of them and said politely,

“Ms. Lawrence returned home last night. If you are elders, you should know.” After saying that, Helena turned around and went in.

Bill stood there stiffly, blacked out, and fell straight down.

Wyatt Alex was so frightened that he hurriedly held him from behind,

Wyatt said excitedly,

“Boss, don’t scare us. She is gone, not dead. Why are you dizzy?”

Alex held the other side and said,

“Go to the hospital quickly!”

Bill followed the bodyguards in three cars to the hospital.

The surprise that had been thrown on her head disappeared in an instant. Will Bill not feel bad?

A floor was cleared in front of and behind the hospital.

Bill just had a low blood pressure attack and passed out.

But there aren't a lot of busy people.

Lucas and Robbin rushed over when they heard the news.

Others crowded into the hospital.

“Uncle James, what’s going on? “Why did my father suddenly faint?”

When Alex was about to say something about Genevieve, Wyatt interrupted him with a cough and smiled. “I came out in a hurry and didn’t have breakfast, so | had hypotension.

It's okay. I'll be fine after the infusion.”

Robbin breathed a sigh of relief and glanced at Wyatt complainingly,

“Uncle Elliot, it’s my trust that | give you the house.

Wyatt's face stiffened for a moment, and then he smiled.

"Okay, it's my fault. Remember that. You can do whatever When Boss wakes up, will tell him that you have been here!"

Robbin pursed his lips, looked at the time, and said hesitantly,

"I still have a lot of things to do. I'll go there first and see him in the evening!" Wyatt nodded and said with a smile,

"Go ahead, Lucas. Why don't you go too?"

Robbin left without waiting for Lucas to speak. He felt different when he was in charge. She is too lazy to waste time on trivial matters.

Lucas glanced at her, frowned slightly, and then withdrew his gaze.

"I'm not busy. The classes at school are over, = I'll stay here have you? Y'l ask someone to send some here!"

My uncle smiled and patted him on the shoulder, "Lucas, I've never missed anyone. You are so filial!" Alex also nodded.

Wyatt leaned over and said in a low voice,

"Do you know why your father fainted?"

Chapter 370

Lucas frowned, "Hypotension!"

Wyatt smiled and said,

“What makes him run out without eating and suffer from hypotension?”

Lucas was a little confused and shook his head.

Wyatt smiled meaningfully,

“We went to Ms. Lawrence’s manor early in the morning, but it was empty!”

Lucas’ expression changed slightly,

“You went to Genevieve? What does the father want to do?”

Alex smiled and said,

“Lucas, Samantha found it!”

He glanced at Wyatt, who did not stop him this time.

Lucas frowned. He was confused for a moment and his eyes widened in surprise. “Genevieve is my father’s biological daughter, Andrea?”

Wyatt nodded and patted him on the shoulder,

“That’s right. It was you who brought Genevieve here. You made a lot of contributions!” Lucas felt complicated.

A lot of flickers crossed his mind.

The fragments in the memory, after recombination, could not be connected with reality. 1/6

She thought, How is that even possible?

His face was pale, his blood flowing backwards and he looked very ugly.

In the house by the sea, a little girl in a skirt ran towards him with a smile.

He remembered that he was less than five years old and had been wandering there for a long time. He lived in a deserted little house by the sea.

He didn't dare to live up there, so he found a warehouse.

The girl came along with a beautiful Daisy.

He couldn't remember what Daisy looked like.

He only remembered that girl was fair and soft, wearing a beautiful dress and smiling like a flower. She spotted him and happily called him Tony.

A few days later.

A group of people came and grabbed Daisy angrily, Before Daisy left, she glanced in the direction of the warehouse.

After that, Daisy never showed up.

They hid for three days.

There was no food at home. Lucas went out to look for something to eat, and when he came back, the girl completely disappeared.

Later, Lucas met her again on the campus of Cambridge and learned her name "Genevieve". Genevieve, how could it be Bill's biological Andrea?

Lucas' chest trembled slightly, and an inexplicable emotion swept over him.

Silvia's connection holds them together, and after so many years apart, it turns out they still have this relationship!

That kind of regret, loss, and immersed in the coincidence of fate, he did not know how to react for a moment! Alex ran over and said excitedly,

"Your father is awake. Go in!"

Wyatt looked at Alex and ran in immediately.

Lucas reacted for a while before walking in stiffly.

Alex and Wyatt walked around Bill and comforted him patiently,

"Don't worry. Anyway, she has been found. Let's go after her when she comes back."

Alex: "Are you going to Clusia?" "No, Clusia's weapons market is not easy to open. We have signed an agreement with the military."

Wyatt said, "We still have a serious business. What are you thinking? We're law-abiding citizens and we can't get Ms. Lawrence into trouble."

Bill's face was marked by suppressed excitement.

He looked at Lucas who came in later and smiled.

"You found out?" Genevieve asked.

Lucas nodded slightly.

Bill couldn't hide his surging mood, and there was a glow in his solemn eyes.

"Samantha, you found it. It's Genevieve! Great!"

Lucas smiled, walked over and sat down. He pondered for a moment without saying anything.

Wyatt restrained his excited tone,

"Lucas, why are you unhappy? "Your daughter-in-law has become Samantha. It's a little sad, but we are all family. You can take care of us all."

Alex stared at Wyatt with his eyes wide open and thought, "Is he talking like that?"

Bill stopped smiling and looked at Lucas.

"Lucas, just say it."

Lucas pursed his lips, which were slightly pale.

He glanced at Wyatt and then Bill,

“Father, uncle Elliot and James, it’s a pleasure to find Samantha. But there is one thing that you have ignored, right?”

The three of them looked at him suspiciously.

Lucas sighed slightly and didn’t want to discourage them, but he had to remind her.

“Genevieve has a family, and the background is not ordinary. She came here to find her Tony. Her family loves her very much.

If you tell her the news, you will deprive her of her present happiness. Haven't you thought about whether she would like to admit it back?”

Lucas finished his words.

The room was so quiet that he could hardly breathe.

Bill’s face stiffened instantly, and his eyes were dark. He didn’t know what he was thinking about. Wyatt and Alex were also silent together, and neither of them dared to speak.

After a while.

Alex scratched his head and couldn't help saying,

“Then what should | do? Don’t you just admit it? “Is that Andrea?”

Wyatt sat there with a frown,

“It's a little tricky. If the girl's current family is almost okay, it can't be bad because she has. enterprise. She will live in a manor when going abroad, How many of them are like this?

She doesn't lack anything. What can we give her?” Bill's face was gloomy.

After the tremendous joy, there was a sadness. Yeah, what's he gonna give her?

Apart from taking away her happiness?

Lucas pursed his lips and said in a hoarse voice,

“Dad, even if you want to get back, don't worry. We have to family the Genevieve family a chance to adapt.

Telling her the news rashly will only frighten her!”

Wyatt nodded in agreement,

“Yes, step by step. Don't be impulsive. Boss, we have found him anyway. We are lucky in the misfortune!”

Bill nodded silently.

He closed his eyes and said seriously,

“Okay, just do as Lucas said. But | can't stop seeing her for now. | have to go find her at least once and take care of her!”

As Bill spoke, he felt that his body was full of strength.

Seeing this, Wyatt immediately walked over and said,

“Yes, I'll go to the group and find a project to see if there is an with the Lawrence family. If not, we can create opportunities!”

Alex pursed his lips, “What about me?”

Wyatt glanced at him and said,

“Don't go. You have appeared so many times that you will be suspicious of Genevieve.” Alex: "...”

Wyatt smiled and looked at Lucas.

“Lucas, you have to stay here. Robbin is too young and not stable enough. If you leave here, it will be chaotic.” Lucas wanted to say something but hesitated. He pursed his lips and finally lowered his head. Wyatt looked at Bill and said,

‘Boss, I'll go with you!’

Bill nodded and was about to pull out the needle.

“Okay, let's go now!”

He was so anxious that he didn't want to wait for another minute.
