

Chapter 1393 Mr. Larson Is Too Terrifying

Sean had successfully motivated Lexi with the group of bodyguards he brought.

Lexi's eyes were full of resolution. She swore to herself to become Janet's right-hand woman, never to hold her back in any way.

Sean noticed the sudden change in Lexi's eyes, and he felt perplexed. "What's wrong?" he asked.

Lexi turned to Sean and replied firmly, "I don't have time for an idle chat. I must prepare for the fashion show!"

She pushed the bewildered Sean aside and rushed excitedly to the computer. Soon, she was immersed in her research on the fashion show, constantly keeping tabs on the competitors.

Sean's mouth twitched when he saw how focused and serious Lexi was. He felt as if he had inadvertently sparked the fighting spirit in her.

Suddenly, Lexi stood up and shouted, "I got it!"

Sean was startled. He leaned over and asked,

"What?"

"Look!" Lexi cried as she pointed to an announcement on Mandy's studio's official website.

It seemed that Mandy was also participating in the fashion show, and many users were posting comments to cheer her on.

"Mandy is one of Boss' strongest competitors. Looks like she is participating in the fashion show and has already started preparations. I must report this to Boss immediately!" she explained passionately.

Better sooner than later, Lexi rushed out to search for Janet.

Sean was still stunned and bewildered by Lexi's outburst of energy. "Isn't it just an announcement..." he muttered thoughtfully to himself.

Meanwhile, Janet gradually calmed down after Brandon's reassurance. She was leaning back in her chair when someone knocked violently on her door.

"Boss, I have an urgent report!" Lexi cried anxiously from the other side.

Janet tensed up again. She cleared her throat and said, "Come in."

Lexi pushed the door open hastily and walked in.

Janet saw the anxiety on Lexi's face and felt nervous again. "What's wrong? What happened?" she asked warily.

When Lexi was about to report, she felt a sudden cold, icy gaze on her.

She looked over cautiously and saw Brandon glaring at her, unmoving.

Oh God! Mr. Larson is terrifying!

Lexi trembled under his gaze and groaned to herself. She froze on the spot and couldn't find the courage to speak. 1

Janet noticed Lexi's sudden silence and furrowed her brows in confusion. "What's the matter? Don't you have something urgent to report?" she asked.

Lexi glanced at Brandon cautiously.

Janet followed her gaze and saw Brandon's cold expression. "Don't scare my assistant like that," she said to Brandon with a wry smile.

Brandon's gaze softened as he looked at Janet and gave her a gentle smile. "Go ahead and report," he said to Lexi as he lowered his head and continued working on his laptop.

Lexi stole a glance at Brandon and tried to calm herself down. She couldn't help but think that Brandon's aura was too powerful. Only Janet could stay composed before him.

"Alright, tell me what happened. Why are you in such a hurry?" Janet asked as she turned her attention back to Lexi.

Lexi walked steadily over to Janet and handed her phone to Janet. She showed Janet the announcement and said, "Mandy had posted that she is participating in the fashion show as well. I believe she is a strong opponent, so I thought you ought to know beforehand, to be mentally prepared."

Janet studied the announcement. It contained a photo which showed Mandy wearing a professional suit and delicate makeup. Her caption sounded confident and expressed her determination to shine in the fashion show.