

The Substitute Madam Amazes the World Once More

Chapter 129 – 140

Read Free Online Trending & Latest Novel |

Chapter 129: Attending the Banquet

Mo Zhu looked up and scrutinized Chen Man's face for a while before nodding in agreement. "The effect is indeed very obvious. It looks like it suits you very well. Auntie, take these and use them first. Send me a message if you're short of anything and I'll replenish it for you!"

Chen Man nodded happily, and her satisfaction towards Mo Zhu increased by another level. Not only was this daughter-in-law smart, she was also obedient, and multi-talented. She was a treasure that fell from the sky into the Huo family!

After this incident, Chen Man's mood instantly improved. The two of them chatted and laughed, and in the blink of an eye, the banquet was about to begin.

After Chen Man's repeated reminders, Huo Tao had placed great importance on the engagement banquet. He arrived an hour early and not only did he personally check the guest list for the banquet, he also checked the decorations of the banquet hall personally.

After instructing the driver to pick up Chen Man and Mo Zhu from the Huo residence, Huo Tao tidied up his suit and stood at the entrance of the hotel, ready to welcome the arriving guests.

When Chen Man and Mo Zhu arrived, many influential people from Cloud City had already arrived at the venue. Because everyone knew what this engagement banquet meant, when they saw the Huo family's car parked at the entrance of the hotel, everyone was eager to see what the future mistress of the Huo family looked like.

The car stopped at the reception area orderly. Once it stopped, a hotel waiter quickly went up to open the door for the VIP in the back seat.

Chen Man got out of the car first. In order to fit the mood of this festive day, she had specially chosen a rose-red evening gown. It not only showed the Huo family's elegance, but it also looked dignified and elegant to others.

In addition, she had just put on the face mask that Mo Zhu had meticulously prepared which was followed by exquisite makeup. Appearing in such a stunning manner made her appear even more imposing now.

After Chen Man got out of the car, the waiter came to the other side and opened the car door for Mo Zhu. Everyone looked in the direction of the half-opened car door and the first thing that appeared in their line of sight was the ankle of a slender and fair girl who was wearing a pair of pure white crystal shoes filled with diamonds. Then, a pair of slender, fair, and long legs appeared in front of everyone.

Even when Mo Zhu had leaned out of the car, the surrounding crowd did not recover from their shock.

The girl in front of them was wearing a pure white high-end gown. From the hair accessories on her head to the shoes on her feet, all of them gave off the feels of a rich person.

The tube top and waist design perfectly accentuated Mo Zhu's exquisite collarbones and slender waist. Coupled with her devastatingly beautiful face, she looked like a fairy that had accidentally fallen into the mortal world!

Mo Zhu arrived at the right time. Huo Xuan had just finished settling his company's matters and rushed to the banquet. He entered the venue from a side door and saw the beautiful scene in front of him the moment he arrived at the reception.

His eyes and his expression darkened. Damn it. Why didn't he think that this girl was so eye-catching and dazzling in the past? If he had known earlier, he wouldn't have agreed to hold an engagement banquet. If such a beautiful fiancée was targeted by someone else, he wouldn't be able to make up for it!

Huo Xuan stood at the entrance and was instantly mesmerized by Mo Zhu's beauty. He didn't move at all and just watched blankly as the girl walked towards him step by step with her loosely hung dress.

He could no longer hear the surrounding noise and the crowd's noisy whispers. His heart and ears were filled with the girl in front of him. The girl who was smiling and looking at him as she walked towards him firmly.

The air seemed to be filled with a faint floral fragrance. Time seemed to have frozen at this moment. Huo Xuan felt as if he was living in a dream, and for no reason, he felt like his surroundings were unreal.

It was only when Mo Zhu arrived in front of Huo Xuan and gently waved her hand to summon the man's gaze back that she frowned slightly and pinched her brows. "What are you standing here for? Hurry up and go in."

To be honest, Mo Zhu was really not used to being surrounded by so many people. Although so many of her lackeys had listened to her arrangements and instructions in fear and trepidation in the past, this was the first time she was dressed like this in front of everyone. She was not really used to it.

She looked up at Huo Xuan, who had been silent the entire time. Mo Zhu's eyes also quietly lit up. For the engagement banquet tonight, Huo Xuan had also listened to Chen Man's arrangements and specially changed into a suit that matched Mo Zhu's pure white dress.

The color of the cuffs and bow tie was very suitable for the man, they made Huo Xuan look powerful, elegant, and noble. In addition, with the man's handsome looks after the poison was controlled, he looked just like a rich young master.

Mo Zhu smacked her lips quietly as she sighed with emotion at Huo Xuan's outfit today. Although she knew that the man was good looking, she didn't expect him to be so handsome after just a little dressing up. Being able to pass her test, he was indeed worthy to be her man.

(If you have problems with this website, please continue reading your novel on our new website THANKS!)

After looking at each other for a moment, Huo Xuan's eyes darkened. Dark currents surged in his dark eyes. He took a step forward and hugged Mo Zhu. He used his shoulder to block the girl's view of the people behind her. "You're not allowed to wear such revealing clothes in the future! Do you hear me?"

Chapter 130: The Banquet Begins

As if she didn't expect the man to suddenly say this, Mo Zhu raised her eyebrows in surprise. "Young Master Huo even wants to control what I'm wearing? Aren't you being too nosy?"

Upon hearing the hidden provocation in Mo Zhu's words, Huo Xuan smiled and replied, "I can't control others, but I can at least interject and say something to my own fiancée, right?"

Mo Zhu looked up and met the man's gaze. She pouted and said, "Then you've wronged me. These are the clothes that Auntie chose for me. From my hairstyle to the shoes on my feet, they are all Auntie's orders."

He half hugged Mo Zhu and turned around to walk towards the banquet hall. Huo Xuan grumbled unhurriedly, "I don't care about that. In any case, you can only wear such clothes in front of me in the future."

When Mo Zhu heard this, she sniggered at Huo Xuan's childishness and obediently followed the man into the banquet hall.

Because everyone had seen Huo Xuan before, the two of them arrived at the main hall without any obstructions.

Fang Ran, who was standing at one side of the main hall and looking around, was instantly attracted by Mo Zhu's beautiful appearance. The girl was hiding behind a stereo on a side table that was playing a soothing piano song. Her eyes, which seemed to be filled with poison, were staring intently at Mo Zhu, who was not far away from her.

As Mo Zhu's natal family, the Fang family had sent Matriarch Fang, Qin Ya, and Fang Ran. Although Mo Zhu had unilaterally severed ties with the Fang family because of the unhappiness previously, due to Mo Zhu's awkward status, Huo Tao had sent the Fang family an invitation to the engagement banquet a few days ago.

At this moment, Matriarch Fang had also noticed Mo Zhu entering the venue. Her eyes widened instantly.

As if she was shocked by the girl's stunning appearance, Matriarch Fang grabbed Qin Ya's hand and asked in surprise, "Xiao Ya, take a look and see if that person is Mo Zhu?"

Looking in the direction where the Matriarch was pointing, Qin Ya recognized Mo Zhu at a glance. She was her own daughter no matter what. Now that she saw Mo Zhu in this outfit, Qin Ya could not believe it and she had mixed feelings. She did not know how to describe her current mood. She did not expect her daughter, who she had raised in the countryside and did not care about, to have such a stunning side!

At that moment, just as Mo Zhu stepped into the main hall, she heard a series of exclamations.

"Look! Look! Isn't that Sister Mo over there! Oh my god, Sister Mo looks so good in the dress. She's like a fairy that has descended to the mortal world!"

"Boohoo, it really looks like Sister Mo! She's too beautiful. As a girl, I can't help but fall in love with her!"

"I didn't expect Sister Mo to have such a day. I was really blind previously. Looking at Sister Mo and Young Master Huo's appearance, they're simply the perfect match. If anyone wants to break them up, I'll be the first to disagree!"

As she followed the voice, Mo Zhu immediately saw Meng Ran and the other students of Class Eight looking at her with little stars in their eyes. She turned around and told Huo Xuan where she was going. Then, she held her dress up and walked quickly to the crowd.

"I didn't expect you guys to come as well. However, I might be a little busy later and won't be able to look out for you. If you want to eat or drink anything, just ask the Huo family's servants who are dressed in black in the banquet hall. I've already told them in advance!" Mo Zhu's voice had not much emotion in it. Before Meng Ran could react, she raised her hand and ruffled the girl's fluffy hair.

Nodding his head in a daze, Jiang Xun stood behind Meng Ran and took the initiative to agree on behalf of the others in Class Eight. "Sister Mo, go ahead and busy yourself. I'll take care of things here! I guarantee that everyone will eat, drink, and play well!"

Mo Zhu was at ease when Jiang Xun was the one handling the matters. She raised her brows before she instructed. "Then I'll hand this place to you. After the banquet ends, arrange a car for everyone to return together. Don't let anything bad happen!"

After saying this, Mo Zhu didn't stand on ceremony with the students of Class Eight. She turned around and returned to the crowd to look for Huo Xuan.

Chen Man had suggested inviting the students from Class Eight. Previously, when she had attended the parent-teacher meeting in the place of her grandmother, she remembered that Mo Zhu and her deskmate seemed to be good friends.

Besides, her daughter-in-law had just arrived in Cloud City and did not have any relatives by her side. She must have a good relationship with her classmates. With this group of classmates, the banquet might be more lively.

In a few minutes, Mo Zhu found Chen Man and Huo Xuan's location. She quickly walked up to them and looked around calmly.

(If you have problems with this website, please continue reading your novel on our new website THANKS!)

Apart from the group of students from Class Eight who did not have any background, almost all the people who came today were influential figures in Cloud City. Even the principal of Jingyang High School, Elder Xu, was invited. Mo Zhu lowered her eyes. Since everyone was giving them so much support, it seemed like they sensed the importance the Huo family attached to this engagement banquet.

At this moment, Chen Man, who was standing quietly by the side, turned around and smiled at Mo Zhu before giving Huo Tao a look that said, 'You can start now.'

The man received Chen Man's signal and came to the equipment table to get a microphone. Huo Tao slowly walked to the center of the main hall, cleared his throat with a loud voice and said, "I, Huo Tao, am extremely grateful to all of you for coming to my son's engagement banquet today. Next, I'll get my wife to introduce my future daughter-in-law, Mo Zhu."

Chapter 131: Small Talk

Following Huo Tao's words, Chen Man took two steps forward with Mo Zhu and took the microphone from the man's hand. She smiled and said, "This is my Huo family's prospective daughter-in-law, Mo Zhu. She is still young, please take care of her in the future."

Mo Zhu stood behind the woman quietly. Seeing that everyone was looking at her, she nodded lightly.

After introducing Mo Zhu's identity, it was time for Chen Man to introduce her to the ladies in the circle.

Chen Man came to the waiter in the main hall and had just picked up a glass of wine when Mo Zhu, who was following closely behind, said, "Auntie, I can't handle the toasts. Can I not go?"

Hearing Mo Zhu's words, Chen Man turned around to look at the girl's young face. She thought quietly for a moment and nodded. "Since you don't want to go, let's cancel the toast. You're still young, so this is not considered impolite."

Although the toasting segment was very important at the engagement banquet, Chen Man understood her daughter-in-law's personality. She was unwilling to force the girl to do anything that the girl did not like.

Seeing that Chen Man had agreed, Mo Zhu smiled politely. She turned around and walked straight to her classmates from Class Eight with a glass of fruit juice.

Just as she passed through the crowd and arrived at Class Eight's territory, Mo Zhu's sharp eyes saw that the principal, Elder Xu, was also there. Before she could go forward to greet Elder Xu, an ear-piercing female voice suddenly came from behind.

"Sister, you've finally gotten what you wanted — to be the publicly recognized fiancée of the Huo Family. I sincerely congratulate you!"

The person who spoke was Fang Ran. She was wearing a light blue pleated dress today and a pair of sandals that looked seven centimeters tall. She was dressed very maturely and lady-like.

As soon as Fang Ran spoke, Jiang Xun, who was standing behind Mo Zhu, rushed over. He frowned unhappily and said with a mocking tone, "Ms. Fang, what are you talking about? Sister Mo had long been Huo Xuan's fiancée, alright? It's a happy engagement banquet today, so stop finding trouble for no reason!"

Fang Ran ignored Jiang Xun, who was speaking up for Mo Zhu, and stared intently at the dazzling Mo Zhu in front of her.

"Sister, your friend has really misunderstood me. I have always treated you sincerely. If anything happened previously and you had misunderstood me, I will apologize to you."

Fang Ran's tone was perfectly controlled by her, and coupled with her deliberately acting pitiful, if someone with ulterior motives saw her wronged look, they would think that Mo Zhu had bullied her.

When Mo Zhu saw that Fang Ran had started acting as usual, she was not angry. She pulled Jiang Xun back two steps with an expressionless face and stood there coldly to watch Fang Ran perform.

Fang Ran was not a fool. She naturally understood the ridicule in Mo Zhu's eyes and actions. She lowered her head slightly to hide the ruthlessness in her eyes and rubbed her hands together. "Since you don't like me so much, I won't be an eyesore to you. I hope that everything goes smoothly and as you wish it'll be."

After saying this, Fang Ran turned around and walked back to Qin Ya's side.

After staring at the girl's back for a few seconds, Mo Zhu smiled coldly. She would not believe that this younger sister of hers had come specially to congratulate her. There had to be some hidden intentions behind this.

Once Fang Ran left, Mo Zhu ignored Jiang Xun, who was behind her. She walked straight to Elder Xu with fruit juice in her hand and said, "Principal Xu, you're here."

Upon hearing Mo Zhu's voice, Elder Xu patted the head of a boy beside him. The two of them turned around and saw Mo Zhu behind them.

Elder Xu held his wine glass and nodded with a smile. "I hereby congratulate Ms. Mo. Your outfit today is very nice too, it makes you look really outstanding."

Mo Zhu also smiled and clinked her glass with Elder Xu's lightly. "Principal Xu, you're too polite. This is it?"

Seeing that Mo Zhu took the initiative to speak, Elder Xu stepped forward and introduced, "This is my grandson, Xu Ming."

(If you have problems with this website, please continue reading your novel on our new website THANKS!)

The boy in front of Elder Xu was also very obedient. He gently raised his hand and greeted Mo Zhu. He said, "Hello, Ms. Mo..."

Just as Xu Ming finished speaking, before he could say anything else, a middle-aged man who looked rather dignified and donned in a high-end suit walked over quickly.

"Ms. Mo, do you have time to talk to me privately?"

Jiang Yan had been waiting in the main hall since early in the morning and he had just found the girl's free time.

Nodding, Mo Zhu said a few words to Elder Xu before turning around and bringing Jiang Yan to a secluded and inconspicuous corner.

“Uncle Jiang, why are you looking for me so urgently? Is there something urgent?” Mo Zhu shook the fruit juice in her glass and asked casually.

After checking his surroundings carefully, Jiang Yan lowered his voice and said, “Ms. Mo, there seem to be quite a number of big movements in Beijing these two days. Not only did many forces enter sneakily, but the legendary Love Pavilion killer had appeared as well.”

Love Pavilion’s killer? Cheng Yi wanted to interfere in the matters in Beijing too?

Frowning, Mo Zhu said softly, “I have noted about this, Uncle Jiang. I’ll be more careful!”

Chapter 132: A Change in the Banquet

After the two of them finished discussing this matter and seeing that the surrounding people weren’t paying much attention to them, they found a suitable opportunity and left.

After parting with Jiang Yan, Mo Zhu stood at one side, drinking her fruit juice in boredom as she pondered over the possibility of something major happening in Beijing. Many noble ladies walked over one after another and greeted her politely. She responded to them all plainly.

Compared to Mo Zhu, Huo Xuan was very busy tonight. Although this engagement banquet was specially prepared for the Huo family to give Mo Zhu an identity, in the eyes of others, there were more than just a few things that could be done using the Huo family’s banquet as a platform.

Before they came, everyone had already inquired about Mo Zhu’s identity clearly. It was nothing more than a story of a pheasant turning into a phoenix. A country bumpkin from the countryside had been fancied by the Huo family and by a freak combination of factors, she turned into the Young Madam of the Huo family in a flash. It was a perfect Cinderella story.

Towards a small fry like Mo Zhu, who had no power or status, they didn’t care at all. The reason why everyone was so supportive today, other than the students of Class Eight, was all because of the Huo family.

Thus, after introducing Mo Zhu’s identity, Huo Tao and Huo Xuan were surrounded by people sent by the various noble and large families to attend the engagement banquet. Chen Man’s situation wasn’t any better. Just as she parted with Mo Zhu, she was pulled away by a rich lady from god knows where to reminisce about the past.

As the guests were toasting each other and enjoying themselves, someone exclaimed, “Ah, quickly, look what it is!”

Whispers instantly came from the crowd. At this moment, Mo Zhu's gaze was naturally attracted over. She raised her eyes and looked coldly at the center of the chaos.

On the big screen in the main hall that had originally been occupied with the word 'happiness' in red was suddenly replaced by a photo of Mo Zhu and the middle-aged man sitting extremely close together.

In the bottom right corner of the photo, there were a few bold and red words: "Does the Huo family know that Mo Zhu, their future daughter-in-law, is a slut who doesn't know her place?"

At this scene, everyone's expressions changed slightly. They looked at each other and saw Huo Tao, who was already furious.

The man could no longer control his anger. He naturally believed in Mo Zhu's character. However, someone had deliberately released such a photo. No matter how he explained it, there would be people secretly criticizing Mo Zhu behind his back for this matter.

After taking two steps, Huo Tao came to the equipment table and cut off the power supply on the big screen in the main hall. He looked coldly at the equipment officer who was sitting in front of the table with cold sweat and shouted angrily, "What exactly is going on!"

The staff member was also stunned. He knew that he couldn't afford to offend the person in front of him. He wiped his sweat while trembling. "Mr. Huo, I, I really don't know why the screen suddenly became like this. The computer is hacked by some program. I couldn't control it just now."

The conversation between the two was not soft. As Mo Zhu was not far away, she naturally heard it.

After pondering quietly for a few seconds, Mo Zhu quietly left the main hall and borrowed a computer from the hotel's staff.

The sound of typing came from the keyboard. Not long later, Mo Zhu found what she wanted and smiled confidently. She spoke briefly to the staff and brought the notebook back to the banquet hall.

The situation in the main hall had become a little chaotic due to the small episode just now. A few noble ladies who were usually on good terms with Chen Man could not help but go forward and ask.

"Mrs. Huo, what's wrong with your daughter-in-law? She hasn't even married into the Huo Family and this happened already. She might cause some trouble in the future!"

Before Chen Man could answer, another rich lady impatiently added, "That's right, Madam Huo. It's not that we look down on this country bumpkin, but the Huo family is such a prestigious family. If you allow a girl like this to be married into your family, your reputation will be ruined!"

Just as the two of them finished speaking, Chen Man could not help but flare up with a cold expression. "What nonsense are you talking about? The daughter-in-law of the Huo family is naturally an innocent and pure girl. Before the truth is investigated, no one can casually slander Xiao Zhu, or else it will be equivalent to slapping the Huo family's face in public!"

Seeing how aggressive Chen Man was, the wealthy ladies did not want to provoke her. At this moment, they were starting to act as if they were mute.

As everyone was discussing, Huo Xuan walked in from the side door. He had left for a short ten minutes after receiving an urgent call from Mo Wu.

(If you have problems with this website, please continue reading your novel on our new website THANKS!)

The moment the man entered, he heard the discussion in the main hall one after another. All sorts of mean and critical words were spat out from everyone's mouths endlessly.

"Pfft, I didn't expect the Huo family to have such a shameless daughter-in-law. Didn't you see how close the two of them were in the photo on the big screen just now? I think this girl is just one that is greedy for their riches!"

"Exactly, exactly. No matter what, Young Master Huo is already considered a promising young man in his middle age. Furthermore, he has outstanding looks and outstanding abilities. It would be a great blessing if anyone could marry Young Master Huo. I didn't expect this woman to be so ignorant!"

Chapter 133: Solution

"It's no wonder. She's a country bumpkin from the countryside after all. Her horizons are just limited. She gave up on a man who's so popular like Young Master Huo for an old man. Could it be that she wants to endure and spend a few years with the old man so that she could inherit his family business?"

When these words were spoken, the surrounding people roared with laughter.

Although Huo Xuan didn't understand what had happened in the main hall in the few minutes that he had left, he had roughly analyzed the matter from their conversation just now.

How dare someone cause trouble at the Huo family's engagement banquet! She was obviously not giving the Huo family face and wanted to use the banquet to sow discord between Mo Zhu and the Huo family.

Huo Xuan walked through the crowd with a dark expression. He picked up his phone and sent a message to Xu Huan.

Before he could reach the middle of the banquet hall, Huo Tao and Chen Man were already standing where they had introduced Mo Zhu to everyone.

Clearing his throat, Huo Tao didn't even take the microphone. He coldly looked at everyone in the banquet hall and said angrily, "Someone deliberately made a scene at the Huo family's banquet tonight. The Huo family won't stop until we find out who the mastermind is. Now, please cooperate."

Just as he finished speaking, dozens of Huo family bodyguards in black closed the banquet hall's door tightly. Mo Jiu personally brought people to block the door.

At this moment, his expression was not any better. It was clear that someone wanted to play tricks on Mo Zhu. Having interacted with the girl frequently these few days, the few of them had long treated Mo Zhu as one of their own.

Mo Jiu's eyes darkened and his back straightened. No matter what, in order to clear Mo Zhu's name, they had to find out the truth tonight.

Just as Mo Zhu walked out of the logistics office, she saw Jiang Yan walk towards the equipment table angrily.

Realizing that the man might want to clarify about this matter personally, she hurriedly walked two steps to stop Jiang Yan.

"Uncle Jiang, I'll settle this matter myself." Mo Zhu gently pulled Jiang Yan from behind and explained lightly.

Jiang Yan turned around to look at the person who had come. He saw that Mo Zhu was carrying a laptop and her expression was relaxed. He thought for a moment and nodded.

That's right, the photos that were released on the big screen just now were obviously taken by Fang Ran a few days ago of Mo Zhu and Jiang Yan in Huaxing Building.

Although the two of them had only sat together in the cafe, the angle at which Fang Ran took the photo was very cunning. They had originally sat on opposite seats, but Fang Ran had closed the distance between them by the way she had taken the photo. She had done it on purpose to make it seem like the two of them were behaving really intimately. This thus led to everyone discussing it without looking carefully.

She walked around Jiang Yan and headed straight for the most lively center in the main hall. When Mo Zhu passed by Huo Xuan, she gave the man a look telling him not to be worried. Then, she went to her Class Eight classmates, who were all filled with indignation and eagerness to investigate the matter personally and Mo Zhu handed the computer in her arms to Jiang Xun.

“Find the equipment officer and connect this computer to the big screen. I’ve placed a folder on the desktop screen. Listen to my instructions later and open it.”

Nodding, Jiang Xun took the computer from Mo Zhu and walked over to the equipment table quickly and started talking to the staff.

Under the unfriendly gazes of the surrounding people, Mo Zhu slowly walked to Fang Ran’s side and glanced coldly at Qin Ya and Matriarch Fang standing at the side. She smiled and said, “Ms. Fang, in your opinion, which old man will I secretly meet in private not long after I arrive in Cloud City?”

Upon hearing Mo Zhu’s provocative words, Qin Ya took a step forward and stood in front of Fang Ran. She looked at Mo Zhu in disappointment, “Mo Zhu, you have disappointed me. We have given you such a good marriage, letting you marry into the Huo family. How can you be so inconsiderate? Not only did you ruin the Huo family’s reputation, I’m afraid the Fang family will be implicated by you!”

After being reprimanded by Qin Ya suddenly, an indescribable sadness surged into Mo Zhu’s heart. Was this the mother who had brought her into this world after carrying her for ten months? Why did she believe that she had done something wrong without listening to her explanation?

As if she also wanted to see Mo Zhu make a fool of herself, Fang Ran gently raised her hand and pushed Qin Ya away. She walked elegantly to Mo Zhu and said, “Sister, why are you saying this? I never knew who you had an unclear relationship with.”

(If you have problems with this website, please continue reading your novel on our new website THANKS!)

She again looked like a fragile flower. Mo Zhu sneered in her heart. In that case, don’t blame her for not showing mercy.

She raised her hand and patted Fang Ran’s shoulder. For the first time, Mo Zhu smiled at the girl. Although the meaning behind it made Fang Ran feel a chill, she was already certain that Mo Zhu had no chance of turning the tables at this point.

“Ms. Fang, it’s fine if you don’t know. I don’t mind giving you a good lesson on the philosophy of life here.”

Fang Ran thought that Mo Zhu was just spouting nonsense and was unwilling to argue with her. "Sister, I don't really understand what you mean, but in my opinion, you should learn how to do appropriate things. As Young Master Huo's fiancée, you had actually done such a thing..."

Fang Ran did not finish her sentence, leaving a rich imagination for the surrounding people who were eavesdropping with their ears perked up.

Chapter 134: Found the Truth

Just as she finished speaking, the few people in the crowd who wanted to curry favor with the Huo family had already started discussing what Fang Ran meant.

"Ms. Fang was really right. I think the daughter-in-law of the Huo family should learn how to be appropriate. Young Master Huo has treated her so well, she has let his sincere heart down."

"Yes, yes. I didn't expect a young girl like her to give up on such a good man like Young Master Huo and rush to give herself to an old man who looks like he can be her father."

"You really can't judge a book by its cover. I heard that the young lady is still a high school student. She has already learned to seduce men at such a young age. What will happen when she grows up?"

Upon hearing the commotion here, Huo Xuan frowned and quietly walked to Mo Zhu's side and stood behind her.

Seeing Young Master Huo walk over, the people who spoke were unable to grasp the Huo family's attitude. They instantly stopped talking and did not say another word.

At that moment, Huo Tao and Chen Man naturally noticed the commotion between Fang Ran and Mo Zhu. Chen Man had long disliked this daughter of the Fang family who harbored ill intentions. Now that she saw her arguing with Mo Zhu, she lowered her head and pondered for a few seconds. Chen Man also felt that something was wrong.

In the face of Fang Ran's deliberate provocation, Mo Zhu raised her eyebrows disapprovingly and said, "Ms. Fang, you're wrong. If you have anything to say, wait until you've seen all of this."

After saying this, Mo Zhu did not stay any longer. She turned around and walked straight to the center of the banquet hall.

She raised her hand and gave Jiang Xun, who was already prepared and waiting in front of the equipment table, a signal to broadcast it. Before everyone could figure out what was going on, the big screen that had shown the picture just now lit up again, and a video impressively appeared on the screen.

On the dark alley street, a woman wearing a cap and a black mask instructed the man standing in front of her in a low voice. The man looked like a local ruffian and he was donned in a colorful shirt.

Have you found the person who knows how to hack? Why did you insist that I come personally? Can't you contact me through text messages?"

Upon seeing this, Fang Ran's expression changed. Not only her, almost everyone who had contact with the Fang family recognized her. The girl wearing a cap on the screen was Fang Ran.

The video was still playing. The man took out a cigarette from his pocket impatiently and lit it up. He looked at the girl coldly and said ruthlessly, "It's the Huo family's business that you want us to cause trouble for. How can we attack the Huo family without knowing your identity?"

Upon hearing the man's words, the girl looked around nervously. "As long as you settle this matter, I'll double the price we agreed on previously."

The man slowly exhaled a ring of smoke and nodded in satisfaction. "In a while, send me the name of the hotel where the Huo family is holding the banquet. You can set a time and I'll set up this photo and place it on the big screen in the banquet hall."

"Alright, remember to add the line of words I asked for. If you do a good job, there will be a lot of money for you too!"

After saying this, the girl in the baseball cap did not stay any longer. She turned around and prepared to leave the alley. Just as the girl turned around, the video on the screen stopped. The time was just right. The dim yellow street light shone on the girl who had half her face exposed because her mask had fallen slightly. She looked petite and young. Who else could it be but Fang Ran?

"No, it's not me!" Facing the gazes of everyone, Fang Ran could not help but hide behind Qin Ya.

Qin Ya was also extremely embarrassed. Ever since she came to the Fang family, Fang Ran had always been her pride. She did not expect her usually obedient daughter to do such a thing!

"Xiao Ran, you, how can you be so muddle-headed!" Qin Ya sighed in disappointment. The Huo family was powerful and she did not know what to say to protect her daughter.

Grabbing Qin Ya's hand, Fang Ran felt an inexplicable fear. She said with a wronged and sobbing tone, "Mom, believe me. This video, this video must have been edited by Mo Zhu. She wants to use it to slander me. It must be like this! It must be!"

The people present were all from the major families of Cloud City. Everyone had seen many such dirty things that were not presentable. At this moment, Fang Ran's incoherent actions were already concrete in their eyes. Everyone looked at the Fang family with dark and unclear expressions.

(If you have problems with this website, please continue reading your novel on our new website THANKS!)

“So it's you! Ms. Fang, no matter what, Mo Zhu is your half-sister from a different father! How could you use such a vicious method on your biological sister!” Huo Tao's eyes were red with anger. He never expected that today's matter was actually done by the Fang family.

As if she understood that there was no turning back now, Fang Ran's expression changed and her words instantly turned harsh. “Haha, so what if I did it? It was Mo Zhu and the old man who had a private meeting in the first place. If she dared to do such a thing, why would she be afraid of being exposed?”

Mo Zhu had one hand in her pocket as she lazily watched Fang Ran resist. She raised her eyebrows and said, “Ms. Fang, are you so sure that I'm meeting an old man in private? In that case, I'll be good and give you a quick death.”

Raising her eyes to look at the gloomy Jiang Yan not far away, Mo Zhu said lightly, “I'll have to trouble Uncle Jiang to explain it personally.”

Chapter 135: Problem Solved

When Jiang Yan heard this, he walked forward and said in a low voice, “The man sitting opposite Ms. Mo in the photo is me. I'm old friends with Ms. Mo, and my son and Ms. Mo are classmates. Young Master Huo isn't the only one who knows this. I believe many teachers and students in Jingyang High School know this too.”

Jiang Yan paused and gave Fang Ran a cold glance before explaining, “That day, when I was inspecting some of the Jiang family's business in Huaxing Building, I happened to see Ms. Mo pass by and I found a cafe to sit down and have a chat with her. I didn't expect such a simple incident to be photographed by someone who wanted to take the opportunity to frame Ms. Mo.”

“I, Jiang Yan, only have one son. Ms. Mo is like a biological daughter to me. I'm sorry that everyone had a misunderstanding because of this matter.”

Just as the man finished speaking, Fang Ran looked up at the two of them in disbelief and panic. “No, impossible! How could the person in the photo be...”

Before Fang Ran could call out Jiang Yan's name, Qin Ya grabbed the girl's hand and stopped her from saying anything more. "That's enough, Xiao Ran. Don't you find it very embarrassing? Hurry up and apologize to your sister and Young Master Huo!"

In the current situation, Qin Ya wished that she could bring Fang Ran away from this place as soon as possible. Not to mention anything else, just looking at the surrounding people who were watching the commotion was already very embarrassing to her. Now that she saw that her daughter still wanted to provoke the Jiang family after she had offended the Huo family, she suspected that Fang Ran had eaten something that gave her an unusual amount of courage!

Back then, when she proposed to send Mo Zhu to the Huo family, she had originally wanted to use the connections to help the Fang family, whose business wasn't doing well. She didn't expect that before the Fang family's business had improved, Fang Ran had already offended the Huo family and the Jiang family.

Shaking her head calmly, Qin Ya's back was instantly covered in a thin layer of cold sweat. Now that this had happened, she really did not know how to open her mouth to plead for Fang Ran.

"Ms. Fang, don't worry. Since I've said that I want to teach you a lesson, I naturally have to help you understand it thoroughly."

Mo Zhu's brows raised. After she finished speaking, she instructed Jiang Xun to control the screen and change it back to the photo.

Everyone's gazes were once again on the photo with very clear resolution. They had been in a hurry and did not check it carefully just now. Now that Mo Zhu had enlarged it specially, everyone quickly discovered some clues.

"Look at the grid line under President Jiang's feet and the girl's feet. I go to this coffee shop often. If there are three squares like in the photo, the two of them are indeed very far apart."

"Yes, yes. I've been to this store before too. The table in the middle is already very spacious. If we analyze it this way, weren't they just having a cup of coffee together? Like what President Jiang had mentioned?"

Someone sneered and started mocking her, "Don't tell me that Ms. Fang was upset and deliberately causing trouble after seeing her sister marry into the Huo family?"

With someone's reminder, everyone turned their gazes to Fang Ran, who had tears on her face. The girl bit her lower lip tightly, her eyes filled with sparkling tears.

"Oh, I suddenly thought of something. It doesn't matter if you don't want to admit it. In terms of evidence, I've also found a chat record." Mo Zhu looked up at Jiang Xun, and he immediately understood her intentions and opened another document in the document folder.

The picture on the big screen changed and Fang Ran's chat and bank transfer history appeared on screen.

Seeing that all the evidence was gotten by Mo Zhu, Fang Ran sat on the ground exhaustedly and muttered in a daze, "How could this be? How did you get my chat history?"

Mo Zhu raised her eyebrows and smiled casually. "It's a piece of cake to get your chat history. If you want to know the exact details, I don't mind letting everyone see the other things in your phone..."

Fang Ran broke down when she heard this. She looked at Mo Zhu in horror and shouted with a sobbing tone, "No!"

Mo Zhu was too terrifying. When did this country bumpkin sister of hers become so powerful suddenly?

Fang Ran was acting as if she did not know Mo Zhu. She hid behind Qin Ya with a frightened gaze and stared at Mo Zhu intently.

Seeing that the matter was getting out of hand, Matriarch Fang, who had been standing quietly at the side, walked out of the crowd with her walking stick.

(If you have problems with this website, please continue reading your novel on our new website THANKS!)

"This matter is Xiao Ran's fault. I'll apologize to the Huo family and Xiao Zhu on her behalf. We will be a family in the future. It's not worth it to hurt our relationship over a small matter. Just treat it as giving me face. Let's turn this matter into a small one."

After saying this, seeing that the Huo family did not respond, Matriarch Fang turned to leave with Qin Ya and Fang Ran.

Just as she was about to leave, Huo Xuan called out to the three of them, "Matriarch Fang, your granddaughter had taken the liberty to cause a scene at the Huo family's engagement banquet to slander my fiancée's innocence and embarrass the Huo family in front of everyone. Aren't you going to give us an explanation and you're leaving after such a casual apology? Who do you think the Huo family is?"

Matriarch Fang looked up at Huo Xuan and saw Huo Tao and Chen Man standing behind the man with furious expressions. Her expression changed instantly, and she put on a trembling expression as she said, "I don't know what kind of explanation Young Master Huo wants. As long as my Fang family can do it, we won't go back on our words."

Chapter 136: An Accident

"The house in the southern part of the city that belongs to Matriarch Fang is not bad, but I wonder if you're willing to give it over as an apology..."

Huo Xuan raised his eyebrows. Before Matriarch Fang could react, he paused and continued, "Just this bit is naturally not enough. In addition to the house, I think it would be very sincere of you if you add another 25% worth of shares of the Fang Corporation."

Matriarch Fang was shocked when she heard this. Her face darkened instantly. "What? You want 25% of the Fang Corporation's shares?"

Although the mansion in the south of the city was indeed one with good feng shui, it couldn't compare to the 25% share of the Fang Corporation. She didn't expect Huo Xuan to ask for so much the moment he spoke!

As long as they were from the Fang family, they would have held a certain portion of the Fang family's shares. However, the majority of the shares were still with Matriarch Fang. This was also the reason why Matriarch Fang was still in control of the Fang family.

Matriarch Fang lowered her head and pondered. She did have a lot of shares, but if she gave Mo Zhu 25% of it...

Before she could finish thinking about it, Huo Xuan had already frowned and said impatiently, "What's wrong? It looks like Matriarch Fang isn't willing to do so. If the Fang family isn't even willing to take out this little compensation, then our family can only do as we please."

After hearing his threat, Matriarch Fang instantly realized the seriousness of the matter. She immediately nodded and agreed, "Alright, we'll do as Young Master Huo says. I'll get the equity transfer document and the deed of the house to be sent to the Huo residence tomorrow!"

Gritting her teeth, Matriarch Fang did not dare to stay any longer. She quickly left the banquet hall with Qin Ya and Fang Ran.

Compared to the mansion in the southern part of the city and the Fang Corporation's shares, it was more important to find a way to protect the Fang Corporation. If Huo Xuan took action personally, it might not be as simple as destroying the Fang family!

Once the Fang family left, the others in the main hall also stood up and took the initiative to bid Huo Tao farewell when they saw that the atmosphere was not right.

Seeing that most of the people in the hall had left, Chen Man took the microphone and announced the end of the engagement banquet.

Originally, the motive of this banquet was to introduce Mo Zhu's identity in front of the families in Cloud City. Now that the motive had been achieved, the banquet could be considered complete.

Once Chen Man announced the end of the banquet, Mo Zhu walked towards the seats of the Class Eight students and brought everyone out of the hotel. Mo Zhu instructed the Huo family's driver to arrange a large bus to send the students home.

After sending her classmates into the car, Mo Zhu saw Chen Man and Huo Tao walk out of the hotel. She took two steps forward, wanting to ask about the arrangements next.

At this moment, an expensive sports car drove through half a street and rushed straight for the hotel entrance. It looked like it had lost control.

Seeing that the sports car was about to reach them, Mo Zhu's pupils constricted instantly. Her eyes turned cold and she quickly ran towards Chen Man and Huo Tao. As she ran, she shouted, "Danger, dodge quickly!"

Huo Xuan and Xu Huan, who had just left the hotel's elevator, also saw this sports car charging towards the entrance of the hotel. Their expressions turned cold as they quickly ran towards the door.

Although Mo Zhu was fast enough, she only had time to push Huo Tao away. She was about to reach out and grab Chen Man when she was knocked more than ten meters away by the sports car.

The moment the sports car bumped into her, Mo Zhu looked up and saw the dark figure in the driver's seat.

Seeing that Chen Man had already been knocked down, the car did not stop. It immediately turned around and knocked a few more cars away before driving onto the main road. In just an instant, it disappeared in front of everyone.

Huo Xuan was furious. He rushed to Chen Man and checked the woman's injuries as he took out his phone and made a call. "Seal all the entrances to Cloud City and ask Mo Jiu to bring the Seven Star Acupuncture Needles and send an ambulance over. Hurry up! We can't waste any second!"

After saying this, he walked to the car where it was parked, opened the door and started the car. The modified off-road vehicle that had amazing performance rushed after the sports car instantly.

Xu Huan also reacted at this moment. He quickly walked to Chen Man and reached out to pick her up from the ground. Before he could touch Chen Man, a slender arm suddenly appeared in front of the man. "Don't touch her. She's injured quite badly. If there are ruptured blood vessels and shattered bones in her body, her blood will rush into her heart with just a move!"

(If you have problems with this website, please continue reading your novel on our new website THANKS!)

Mo Zhu's entire body was emitting a cold aura. She raised her hand to stop Xu Huan and squatted in front of Chen Man.

After observing the woman's expression carefully, she placed one hand on Chen Man's pulse.

After quietly analyzing the woman's injuries, Mo Zhu quickly and neatly pressed a few major acupuncture points on Chen Man's body. Then, she stood up and coldly instructed Xu Huan, who was standing at the side, "When Mo Jiu comes later, ask him to give Auntie an acupuncture treatment according to the method I taught him last time. We will hold a surgery in half an hour!"

After instructing them, Mo Zhu quickly stood up. She jumped over a few car roofs in an instant, and her thin figure instantly disappeared into the thick night.

At this moment, Mo Wu and Huo Tao also stood up and surrounded Chen Man with anxious expressions. The guests who had just driven out of the underground car park and had yet to leave walked over curiously to take a look. In just a few minutes, the accident scene was surrounded by loads of people.

Mo Jiu, who had received the notice, arrived very quickly. The sound of the ambulance rang out on the street just as the crowd had gathered. Xu Huan looked up at the crowd and shouted in exasperation, "Get lost! Make way!"

Chapter 137: Catching Up with the Culprit

Just as he finished speaking, the ambulance stopped in front of Xu Huan. The door was opened and Mo Jiu carried the stretcher out of the car. The two of them worked together and used the portable stretcher to gently move Chen Man to the ambulance.

After Huo Tao and Mo Wu got into the car, the ambulance sped towards the Central Hospital.

In the ambulance, Mo Jiu took Chen Man's pulse silently. Everyone was tactical and didn't disturb him.

Not long after, Xu Huan suddenly remembered the instructions Mo Zhu had left before she left. He frowned and reminded Mo Jiu, "After the accident, Mo Zhu had already diagnosed Auntie. She had pressed a few acupuncture points on Auntie's body that I don't understand. She said that when you came, she wanted you to give Auntie the acupuncture treatment first and perform the surgery half an hour later."

"Acupuncture treatment? Is it the acupuncture technique that Ms. Mo taught me last time?" Mo Jiu pondered for a moment and asked anxiously.

"That's right, there's no time to lose. Hurry up and save him!"

Xu Huan's tone was extremely irritable. He was already furious at the criminal who had knocked Chen Man down. How dare he lay a hand on Chen Man in Cloud City? Not only was he not giving the Huo family face, but he was also looking down on the young master of the Xu family.

In the entire Cloud City, who didn't know about his relationship with Huo Xuan? With how nasty this matter was, he definitely wouldn't let the culprit off easily!

Seeing that Mo Jiu had already started giving Chen Man acupuncture according to Mo Zhu's instructions, Xu Huan knew that he wouldn't be able to help much. He sat quietly for a while, took out his phone, and made a call.

"Bring out all the surveillance cameras on all the streets of Cloud City tonight. Stop all the speeding sports cars!"

After hanging up the phone, Xu Huan's face was ashen. He pinched his eyebrows and said ruthlessly, "He better pray that I don't catch him. If he falls into my hands, I will let him taste what it means to live a life worse than death!"

Just as Xu Huan was unable to extricate himself from his anger, Mo Jiu had already finished the acupuncture treatment and he was drenched in sweat. He panted as he said, "I've already done the acupuncture on Madam, but Madam's condition isn't looking good!"

"What? I don't care! No matter what, I order you to cure Auntie!" Xu Huan couldn't control his emotions anymore as he roared at Mo Jiu hysterically.

On the other side, Huo Xuan was driving closely behind the sports car that had hit Chen Man. There were a few times when he was about to grab the opportunity to stop him, but the other party had dodged him.

Lowering his gaze, Huo Xuan calmly analyzed that this person should be very familiar with the streets and terrain of Cloud City. Otherwise, with his driving skills, it was impossible for him to not be able to catch up to the culprit after such a long time.

He stepped hard on the accelerator and closed the distance between him and the sports car. However, just as he turned into a bumpy winding road, the sports car in front of him disappeared.

Just then, Huo Xuan's phone vibrated. The man glanced sideways and saw that it was a call from Mo Zhu. He connected his phone to the car and picked it up.

"Xiao Zhu, how's my mom's condition? Is she alright?" Huo Xuan's tone was anxious. Mo Zhu could feel the man's worry just from the voice coming from the phone.

"I've already tried my best to stabilize Auntie's pulse. I had passed her to Mo Jiu and Xu Huan for the time being. Listen to my instructions now and I'll find the car's location for you!"

Mo Zhu had just caught up to Huo Xuan and the sports car and was now standing on a small mountain not far away, receiving satellite location signals.

In front of the girl, a miniature handheld screen was projected into the air from her phone. As Mo Zhu instructed Huo Xuan, she systematically operated the localization system.

"Follow my location. Do you see the red dot I've marked in front of you? The sports car will pass by there in a minute. Let's meet at the red dot later!"

Mo Zhu's voice was cold. In such a tense and exciting moment, she had to force herself to calm down.

(If you have problems with this website, please continue reading your novel on our new website THANKS!)

Now, she was racing against time not only to catch the culprit who had knocked Chen Man down, but also because the hospital needed her. The less time she wasted, the more confident she was in saving Chen Man.

After saying this, Mo Zhu hung up. At present, Huo Xuan's car had been led to a rather remote suburb area of Cloud City by the sports car. In order to prevent the signal from being unstable and causing a location deviation, she had neatly cut off her contact with Huo Xuan after giving him a precise location on the mountaintop.

As he sped along, exactly a minute later, the sports car indeed drove past the location where Mo Zhu had marked the red dot.

Mo Zhu jumped down from a high place and casually picked up a rather heavy stone. She aimed it at the sports car's tire and threw the stone.

A loud bang instantly came from the tires of the sports car. Because the speed of the car was too fast, even though the tires had been punctured by the Mo Zhu, the car still slid for dozens of meters in the middle of the road before stopping.

Just at that moment, Huo Xuan, who was following closely behind, rushed over. Seeing that Mo Zhu had already settled the sports car, he nervously took a step forward and hugged the girl.

“Are you hurt? It’s fine if I do such a dangerous thing myself. Why are you here?”

Huo Xuan stared at Mo Zhu with a cold expression, and his voice was a little anxious.

“I’m not injured. Let’s see if the person in the car is dead!”

Chapter 138: Emergency Rescue

After saying that, Mo Zhu pushed Huo Xuan lightly and ran a few steps to the side of the sports car which engine had already been turned off. She opened the car door with force and pulled out a man covered in blood from the driver’s seat.

She reached out and nimbly tapped on a few acupuncture points on the man’s body. Mo Zhu threw him back onto the ground and patted her hands before turning to Huo Xuan and saying, “Get your men to take him away. We’ll go to the hospital to check on Auntie’s condition first. We’ll interrogate this person another day!”

“Alright.” Huo Xuan nodded. He made a call and instructed them on these matters before driving straight to the Central Hospital with Mo Zhu.

At that moment, there were also many people surrounding the entrance of Cloud City’s Central Hospital. When they heard that Mrs. Huo was injured and her life was in danger, everyone rushed to express their care and concern.

Huo Tao sat in the corridor outside the hospital’s operating theater with a pale face. He knew that Chen Man was in danger, and he felt like he had aged ten years.

The noise outside the door rose and fell, and Huo Tao was exhausted from listening to it. He raised his head gently and comforted the crowd politely. “I know that all of you are concerned about my wife’s safety, but the patient needs to rest quietly. Please leave on my account. If this comes across as rude to you, I will personally visit you another day to apologize!”

Because of Huo Tao’s displeasure, the bustling crowd quieted down. Not long later, seeing that there was nothing to watch, more than half of the people outside the door left one after another.

The light of the operating theater was bright red. Mo Jiu was following Mo Zhu's instructions and treating Chen Man urgently. Mo Wu and Xu Huan, who were standing quietly outside the door, were also very worried.

In a few minutes, the lights in the operating room were switched off. When the door was opened, Mo Jiu took the initiative to walk up to Huo Tao and apologize before anyone could surround him. "I'm sorry, Master. It's all Mo Jiu's fault for being useless. I didn't save Madam. I've tried my best."

Upon hearing Mo Jiu's words, Mo Wu sat down on the ground exhaustedly and muttered, "How could this be..."

When Xu Huan heard this, his eyes turned red as he rushed to Mo Jiu's side. He grabbed the man's collar and cursed, "Why?! Aren't you highly skilled? It's just an ordinary car accident and you can't even do anything! What's the point of the Huo family letting you stay?"

When Mo Zhu and Huo Xuan walked into the hospital, they happened to hear Xu Huan's exasperated voice.

As if he had expected something, Huo Xuan stood at the door, staring blankly in the direction of the operating theater, not daring to take another step forward.

When Mo Zhu saw that everyone was dispirited, she rushed to Xu Huan's side anxiously and pulled away the two people who looked like they were about to fight. "Auntie is not dead yet, why are you shouting here!"

After saying this, Mo Zhu ignored the crowd at the door and walked straight into the operating theater.

It was only when the light of the operating theater lit up again that everyone who was still in a daze outside the door came back to their senses.

Xu Huan suddenly patted his head and said to everyone excitedly, "I'm so stupid! Just because Mo Jiu can't do anything doesn't mean that Mo Zhu can't save Auntie. With Mo Zhu around, Auntie will definitely get better!"

After hearing Xu Huan's words, a hint of hope reluctantly arose in everyone's hearts.

In this situation, only Mo Jiu shook his head. He knew very well what kind of tricky situation Mo Zhu was facing. The man lowered his head and said powerlessly, "But Madam doesn't have any vital signs left. Unless the divine doctor is here, the possibility of her being saved is next to nothing."

If Xu Huan's words had given everyone a glimmer of hope, Mo Jiu had sent them back to the bottom of the valley.

Huo Xuan, who had been standing quietly at the door without speaking, was silent for a while before instructing lightly, "Mo Jiu, I'm worried about Xiao Zhu being alone in the operating theater. Go in and help her if she needs anything."

After a pause, the man suppressed the bitterness and sadness in his heart and continued, "I believe in Mo Zhu's ability. Until the last moment, no one can say anything demoralizing!"

Huo Xuan's words were like a tranquilizer that struck everyone's hearts. Even Huo Tao staggered up from his chair.

(If you have problems with this website, please continue reading your novel on our new website THANKS!)

Mo Jiu opened the door of the operating theater and took a deep breath. He gathered his energy and prepared to go in to help Mo Zhu.

Before he could take a step, Huo Tao's voice suddenly came from behind him. "Everyone, let's go in together. Mo Zhu is doing her best to save Chen Man. We can't just wait outside. Let's just treat it as we are going in to accompany her."

Huo Xuan nodded. He understood the man's thoughts. He took the door handle from Mo Jiu and walked straight in.

Everyone followed Huo Xuan silently. When they arrived at the operating table, no one dared to say a word.

In the operating theater, Mo Zhu had already removed the Seven Star Needles that Mo Jiu had inserted into Chen Man's body and disinfected the needles. Then, Mo Zhu arranged the needles in an order that others could not understand.

After completing these steps, the girl quickly picked up a needle and pierced it into Chen Man's acupuncture points. After going back and forth a few times, she inserted the needle on the woman's heart.

After inserting the needle, Mo Zhu did not idle. She picked up another needle that was arranged in order and began to repeat the same procedure. However, the difference this time was that the needle had landed at another location.

Mo Zhu's movements were rather skilled, her acupuncture was fast and accurate.

Chapter 139: Saving Chen Man

To people who didn't know any medical skills, they would at most praise her for her superb skills. However, in Mo Jiu's eyes, it wasn't as easy as just inserting a needle.

After Mo Zhu inserted the third needle, Mo Jiu finally recalled something. His eyes changed and he couldn't control his excitement as he shouted, "Seven Star Chain Needle?"

After saying that, Mo Jiu walked to Mo Zhu's side quickly and widened his eyes, wanting to see the girl's every step clearly.

Afraid that Mo Jiu would disturb Mo Zhu, Xu Huan suddenly grabbed the man from behind. "Why are you leaning forward for no reason! Can't you see that Mo Zhu is saving someone?"

Mo Jiu turned his head excitedly to look at Xu Huan, who was puzzled. His hands trembled as he said incoherently, "Ms. Mo, Ms. Mo used the Seven Star Chain Needle technique!"

"I know, I know. You shouted so loudly just now, I think everyone downstairs has heard that Mo Zhu's using the Seven Star Chain Needle technique! But no matter what acupuncture technique she uses now, you can't go forward and disturb her from saving Auntie!" Xu Huan scratched his head in frustration.

Huo Xuan's eyes dimmed when he heard Mo Jiu's words. Seven Star Chain Needle? Why did this name sound so familiar? It was as if he had heard it somewhere before.

"Seven, Seven Star Chain Needle! My master had once mentioned to me that when the divine doctor started in the industry, he had used the unique technique of the Seven Star Chain Needle to resound his name internationally. It was said that this needle technique was created by the divine doctor and it could revive someone who had just stopped breathing!" Mo Jiu turned around and grabbed Xu Huan's hand tightly, his face filled with disbelief.

When she said this, everyone turned pale with fright. Before Xu Huan and Huo Xuan could react, Mo Zhu was already unable to perform the acupuncture in peace because of the noise Mo Jiu had created. She turned her head and glanced over coldly, then roared softly, "All of you shut up. Those who don't want to stay here, get lost!"

After saying this, Mo Zhu continued to pick up the next needle and started inserting it while everyone was dazzled.

After being shouted at by Mo Zhu, the few of them stood at the side obediently and did not make a sound.

Xu Huan and Huo Xuan looked at each other. As expected, they could see the word surprise in each other's eyes.

Huo Xuan rubbed his palms lightly. No wonder he thought the name Seven Star Chain Needle was so familiar. So it was the divine doctor's unique technique. Previously, because of his poison, the Huo family had sent quite a number of people to investigate the divine doctor's whereabouts. He had also heard a little about this acupuncture technique.

Now that Mo Zhu knew the Seven Star Chain Needle technique, did it mean that...

Thinking of this, Huo Xuan raised his head and looked at Mo Zhu's back view as she performed the acupuncture seriously. He smiled quietly. He didn't expect that although the young lady looked like an ordinary and simple high school student, she actually had so many identities that he didn't know about behind his back.

Everyone was deep in their own thoughts but Mo Zhu's situation was not very optimistic. The technique of the Seven Star Chain Needle was not as simple as it looked. She needed to clear all the acupuncture points on Chen Man's body with the Seven Star Chain Needle technique.

If that was all, it would be easy. However, to restore the various functions of a dead person who had already stopped breathing, the acupuncture points needed to be cleared in a certain order. If one was not careful, all their efforts would be wasted.

Furthermore, Seven Star's ultimate technique wasn't just for show. Just like its name, only seven needles had to be inserted to clear Chen Man's meridians. One more needle wouldn't be able to save her.

The further one went, the more difficult it was. There were more acupuncture points that needed to be taken into account. By the time the fifth acupuncture was performed, Mo Zhu's forehead was already covered in a thin layer of sweat. She gently held onto the small cart that had the surgical equipment beside her and wiped her sweat before stabilizing her body.

Seeing the girl's pale face, Huo Xuan took a step forward and frowned nervously. "Are you alright? If not, take a rest first."

Without bothering to rest, Mo Zhu gently waved her hand behind her. "I'm fine. Saving Auntie is more important."

In fact, no matter how many acupuncture points there were, Mo Zhu shouldn't be so exhausted from just performing acupuncture. However, the reason why the Seven Star Acupuncture Technique had such a heaven-defying effect was that this acupuncture technique could silently channel the "essence" from the person who performed the acupuncture technique into the patient's acupuncture point.

This channeling technique uses the energy of one person to forcefully reverse the other person's bodily functions, so ever since she mastered this acupuncture technique, Mo Zhu rarely used it. If there was no special need, she would not easily use such a technique that will cause her harm, in order to save someone else.

(If you have problems with this website, please continue reading your novel on our new website THANKS!)

After she composed herself, Mo Zhu took a deep breath and picked up the sixth needle. Thinking of how well Chen Man had always treated her, did not dare to stop for a second. She looked for the various acupuncture points on the woman's body and inserted the needle steadily and accurately before pulling it out.

Mo Zhu had taken a good ten minutes to insert the two last needles. When she inserted the last needle of the Seven Star technique, the girl heaved a long sigh of relief.

Just as Mo Zhu turned to look at Huo Xuan, the ECG monitor behind her suddenly started ringing.

Everyone looked in the direction of the sound. Chen Man, who had just been declared dead by Mo Jiu, started breathing and one could see her chest rising and falling rhythmically. Then, the woman suddenly opened her eyes.

The scene in front of them shocked everyone, especially Mo Jiu, who had seen Mo Zhu's every move clearly.

Chapter 140: Mo Zhu Has Awakened

He could not believe that a patient whose heart had stopped for almost half an hour could be saved by Mo Zhu.

When he saw that Chen Man had opened her eyes, Xu Huan took a step forward and stared at the operating table. He said in disbelief, "Auntie is awake, Auntie has opened her eyes! Little Bamboo succeeded!"

Mo Zhu dragged her exhausted body off the operating table. She had only taken two steps when she fell into Huo Xuan's arms. She held her chest and panted heavily. "Everyone, don't tell anyone about my acupuncture treatment. I'll explain everything to you when I wake up."

After saying this, Mo Zhu took a deep look at Huo Xuan, closed her eyes, and fell asleep in the man's arms.

Realizing that the girl's face was pale and her body was cold, Huo Xuan shouted behind him, "Mo Jiu, come over and see what's wrong with Xiao Zhu!"

Upon hearing Huo Xuan's instructions, Mo Jiu quickly came to the two of them and reached out to feel Mo Zhu's pulse. After a long while, he replied with a sigh of relief, "Young Master, Ms. Mo's body is fine. It's just that she spent too much effort and her body is unable to take it after a busy day. If my diagnosis is correct, Ms. Mo should have fainted from exhaustion."

Nodding, seeing that Chen Man was breathing and had a heartbeat, Huo Xuan handed the hospital's matters to Xu Huan. He picked up Mo Zhu in his arms and drove the girl back to the Huo residence.

Mo Zhu slept for three days straight. In these three days, Chen Man's body had already recovered quickly.

A few doctors who had helped Mo Jiu treat Chen Man's wounds in the operating theater previously checked her body in disbelief. They did not hesitate to use all sorts of equipment to check Chen Man's body. In the end, the conclusion they received was that everything was normal.

What was even more surprising was that Chen Man's internal organs and fractured sternum had actually healed completely in just three days after she was sent to the hospital. This could be considered a miracle in medical history.

Knowing that Chen Man was saved by someone from her own family, the doctors asked everyone for the divine doctor's contact details. However, Huo Xuan's people always found various reasons to muddle through.

After completing all the checkups and confirming that she had recovered, Chen Man instructed Mo Wu to arrange for her to be discharged.

When she heard that Mo Zhu was still sleeping due to the exhaustion from saving her, Chen Man was worried. She brought Huo Tao to the Huo residence to visit the girl every day, but Mo Zhu never woke up.

Huo Xuan had also investigated the person with ill intentions who knocked Chen Man down. However, before he and Xu Huan could force the answer out of him, he had already broken his dentures and swallowed poison to commit suicide.

Three days after Chen Man was discharged from the hospital, she stayed by Mo Zhu's bed worriedly. When she saw Huo Xuan pour a glass of water and walk in, Chen Man asked worriedly, "Will anything happen to Xiao Zhu if she continues sleeping like this? Why don't you find a doctor to take a good look at her?"

Huo Xuan placed the glass of water on the bedside table beside the woman. He looked up and replied indifferently, "Mo Jiu had checked her. There's nothing wrong with her body in every aspect. Apart from fatigue, he can't find any other problems with Mo Zhu."

Huo Tao stood at the door and listened to their conversation in silence. He walked in lightly and patted Chen Man's shoulder to comfort her. "Don't worry, Xiao Zhu is a divine doctor herself. If anything happens, she would have told Xuan'er in advance before she fell asleep. She is so smart, she will definitely make plans for herself in advance."

"I'm still a little worried..." Chen Man lowered her head and looked at Mo Zhu, who was lying quietly on the bed.

"Xiao Zhu will get better."

Before they knew it, night had arrived. A car horn sounded at the entrance of the Huo residence. Chen Man walked quickly and opened the door. It was Xu Huan and Mo Jiu, who were worried about Mo Zhu and had come to visit her again.

Knowing that the girl was still asleep, everyone sat in the living room in silence.

At ten in the evening, it was getting late. Huo Xuan was about to urge everyone to stop waiting and quickly go back and rest, but before he could say anything, the sound of someone pushing the door came from the second floor.

The people sitting in the living room instantly reacted and looked up at the second floor with their eyes wide open.

(If you have problems with this website, please continue reading your novel on our new website THANKS!)

Indeed, it was Mo Zhu who walked out of the room rubbing her eyes. She had slept for a few consecutive days. Not only was her back aching from the sleep, but because she had not eaten, she even lacked the strength to stand properly.

Seeing Mo Zhu moving downstairs, Huo Xuan quickly took two steps forward and said, "Xiao Zhu, you should eat first. You've been sleeping for a few days."

Upon hearing Huo Xuan's words, Mo Zhu nodded and sat down in the dining room.

Chen Man was not idle either. She was happier than anyone else to see that Mo Zhu had woken up safely. She rushed into the kitchen and brought out the chicken soup she had made early in the morning.

Just as the soup was placed on the table, Chen Man quickly scooped a bowl for Mo Zhu and brought it to her.

After thanking her politely, Mo Zhu did not stand on ceremony with Chen Man. She immediately picked up the spoon and sipped the soup.

As Mo Zhu had not eaten for a long time after sleeping, they were afraid that the girl would not be able to digest well. Thus, they had only prepared a simple porridge and the soup that Chen Man specially made.

As Mo Zhu drank the soup, Huo Xuan quietly scooped a bowl of porridge and placed it beside the girl. "Have some porridge after you finish the soup, otherwise you won't have enough energy."

Nodding her head lightly, Mo Zhu drank the soup seriously without raising her head.