

The Substitute Madam Amazes the World Once More

Chapter 449 – 455

Read Free Online Trending & Latest Novel |

Chapter 449: Concluding the Disease

Ming Mei quietly poked Chen Man, who was beside her, with her elbow. She lowered her eyes and asked, “Xiao Man, is your daughter-in-law really a high school student? Why is she asking these things like a fish in water? She knows it better than us who have given birth before?”

Chen Man coughed twice. She was also a little embarrassed now. She smiled embarrassedly and replied in a low voice, “Xiao Zhu... Xiao Zhu is indeed a high school student. Haha, she just asked a little too bluntly. In the medical field, isn't it better to be professional when asking questions? How can she treat the patient if she's hesitant? Maybe she's used to it, used to it...”

Seeing that everyone looked distracted, Mo Zhu cleared her throat and raised her hand to knock on the table. “Uncle, did you hear my question just now? If you didn't, why don't I repeat it?”

Just as he finished speaking, Jin Fang immediately came back to his senses. He waved his hand anxiously with a red face. “It's alright, it's alright. Good child, I heard you clearly. The symptoms you mentioned do exist. It's the feeling you described.”

Sensing that there seemed to be cold sweat flowing down, Jin Fang raised his hand and wiped his sweat quietly. He never expected that Huo Xuan's little fiancée, who was only in her teens, would be able to ask such a question so bluntly without changing her expression. The question choked him so much that he didn't know how to answer it!

When Mo Zhu heard this, she lowered her eyes and rubbed her palms slightly. She said in a low voice, “In that case, if my diagnosis is correct, it should be the person who pushed you who had seriously injured your abdomen. This person is an expert. In the beginning, the two blows would only seriously injure the wall of your blood vessels. After the wall of the blood vessels is damaged, small blood clots will appear in the blood vessels in your abdomen. These small blood clots will pile up in your abdomen. After a long time, your blood, vital energy, and spirit will be damaged. You will naturally feel pain.”

Upon hearing this, Ming Mei could not be bothered with embarrassment. She leaned over anxiously and stared at Mo Zhu as she asked, "Girl, is your uncle's illness serious? Is there any treatment that can solve it?"

Nodding lightly, Mo Zhu raised her eyebrows and said, "Although it has been a long time and the blood circulation in Uncle's abdomen is not smooth, as long as you follow my treatment method during this period of time, you will be able to recover to your original state before long."

Upon hearing this, Ming Mei turned to look at Jin Xuan happily. Tears of relief welled up in her eyes. She said with red eyes, "Fortunately, we realized it early and there's still treatment. Otherwise, if we delay any longer and he's older, it won't be easy for him to recover!"

After saying this, she recalled the checkup that the two of them had gone to the hospital for together. Ming Mei asked Mo Zhu worriedly, "Xiao Zhu, I remember that your uncle and I will go to the hospital for a checkup every half a year. After so many years, we have done dozens of checkups. Why aren't those doctors able to diagnose his problem?"

/ please keep reading on

Mo Zhu picked up her teacup and took a sip. She said lightly, "Just as I said just now, the person who injured Uncle is an expert. The fact that he was able to accurately injure this important blood vessel in Uncle's abdomen in front of everyone is enough to prove his strength. If his methods are used cleverly, even if he seriously injures others, the patient will be diagnosed by the machines in the hospital as having damaged his organs due to aging. Therefore, most of these deliberately created injuries can't be found through normal checks in the hospital."

Upon hearing Mo Zhu's detailed explanation, Jin Fang nodded in agreement. "That's right. In these few years, my daily life was not affected by this injury at all. Apart from my stomach often aching at night, there's only an unbearable pain when I partake in that activity. In the beginning, I just thought that I was old and it was normal for these symptoms to appear, so I didn't pay much attention to it. Now that you've reminded me, I remember that it's indeed what you said!"

Chapter 450: Using Medicine to Treat The Problem

Jin Fang sighed unhurriedly. He turned to look at Ming Mei with a heartache and continued, "Because she doesn't have a son, the Jin family's eldest and second branch have been putting pressure on our family both openly and covertly all these years, coaxing the old lady to give them many good projects. In order to stabilize the status of our family, I had no choice but to rush around every day to get business for the company. Your aunt's heart ached for me. She thought that something had happened to her and had been secretly treating the illness without telling me. I didn't take this matter to heart. I didn't expect the illness to be so serious."

"Child, how should I treat my illness?"

When Mo Zhu heard this, she put down the teacup in her hand and looked at Jin Fang and Ming Mei, who were looking forward to it. She reminded them seriously, "Auntie, Uncle, although this illness can be cured, the treatment process is very painful. I wonder if Uncle can endure it..."

Before she could finish, Jin Fang had already thought of what Mo Zhu was going to say next. He clenched his fists and interrupted the girl bluntly. He said with determination, "Girl, as long as you can cure my illness, I can use any medicine. I can endure any pain!"

Their family lacked a son. He, Jin Xuan, knew better than anyone the consequences of not having a son. For the future of their family, he had to fight for it!

Mo Zhu nodded and took out a pen and a piece of paper from her pocket. She briefly listed a prescription and handed it to Ming Mei. "Auntie, follow my prescription and go to the pharmacy to get the medicine."

Ming Mei did not dare to delay her actions. She took the prescription and immediately stood up to drive to buy the medicine. As Chen Man had come with Ming Mei and seeing that Mo Zhu did not assign her any missions, she followed Ming Mei to buy the medicine.

After the two of them left the small mansion, Mo Zhu instructed Jin Fang, "Uncle, go take a shower first. When Auntie buys the medicine back later, I'll concoct it for you according to the ratio of the herbs used. You have to take a medicinal bath. Remember that this medicine is a little stimulating. No matter how painful it is, you have to endure it. Otherwise, all your efforts will be wasted!"

Upon hearing this, Jin Xuan nodded with a serious expression. He did not delay any longer and went straight to the bathroom to shower.

Huo Xuan was originally sitting on the sofa and drinking tea. Now that he heard that Mo Zhu wanted Jin Fang to take a medicinal bath, he couldn't sit still anymore. He stood up and sat down beside the girl. He frowned and asked in a low voice, "Medicinal bath? How can a little girl like you stare at Uncle Jin taking a medicinal bath? No, I won't allow it!"

/ please keep reading on

The man's eyes were fixed on the girl. His tone was unhappy, as if he would flare up if Mo Zhu said another word.

When Mo Zhu heard this, she raised her eyebrows and reached out to pat Huo Xuan's shoulder. She emphasized nonchalantly, "I only said that I wanted Uncle Jin to use the medicinal bath to treat his illness. I didn't say that I wanted to watch him personally. You will go and watch him bathe in my place. In this case, you should be relieved, right?"

Upon hearing this, Huo Xuan's expression softened. He nodded and replied, "That's more like it. You're not allowed to look at other men's bodies in the future, not even for treatment!"

It was rare to see Huo Xuan jealous. Mo Zhu approached the man with interest and said with a smile, "Alright, alright, alright. I'll listen to Master Huo."

At the same time, in the Kang family in Beijing.

Kang Ting sat in a high seat with Kang Jian and Cheng Tang standing in front of him.

Kang Jian was the second son of the Kang family and also Kang Wan's father. Ever since Luo Nan brought the students who participated in the competition back from Country N, he had learned the news of Kang Wan's disappearance.

Originally, they wanted to pursue the responsibility of the teacher-in-charge, but Luo Nan and Li Xiao had retrieved the surveillance video of the hotel in advance and placed the evidence of Kang Wan leaving the team early in the morning in front of Kang Jian.

Over the past few days, he had sent many people to look for news of his beloved daughter. However, he could not find any traces of Kang Wan no matter what he did.

Cheng Tang also stood in the main hall with a displeased expression. Kang Wan was her biological niece, and she was also very worried about this girl's safety.

"Tang'er, quickly think of a way. Wanwan has been missing for a few days and there's no news at all. She's the only daughter of our second family. Nothing can happen to her!"

Chapter 451: Investigating the Traces

The person who spoke impatiently was Kang Jian. He had already sent many people to look for Kang Wan, but there was still no news of this girl. Kang Jian could only place his hopes on his sister-in-law from the Cheng family.

All these years, the children of the Cheng family's grandchildren had been promising. Not only did they manage the Cheng family's business in all aspects well, but they had also expanded the Cheng family's business overseas. Cheng Tang was also liked by Old Master Cheng, so he wanted her to think of a way to help Kang Wan.

Cheng Tang stood rooted to the ground with a frown. She lowered her eyes and rubbed her palms slightly. A wave of displeasure welled up in her heart. Her entire body exuded a cold aura. "Brother-in-law, don't be anxious. I watched Kang Wan grow up. She has been missing for so long, how can I not be anxious? However, it's useless to be anxious about this. Let's calm down and wait for news!"

Kang Wan had gone missing in Country N in Southeast Asia. Recently, she had received news that there had been a lot of internal turmoil in the various organizations in Southeast Asia. If this matter reached her grandfather's ears, he would definitely throw a tantrum and blame her if he knew that she had sent someone to get involved in the mess because of this girl.

At the thought of this, Cheng Tang could not help but have a headache.

Upon hearing Cheng Tang's words, Kang Jian paced back and forth in the main hall with his hands behind his back. A few seconds later, his tone became grave. "Tang'er, tell me the truth. We've already sent so many people out, but Wan'er hasn't been found. Is she in danger?"

When Cheng Tang heard this, she looked up at Kang Jian and waved her hand as she replied seriously, "Brother-in-law, Wan'er is my biological niece. If there's news, how can I hide it from you? Don't worry, as long as my people find out about her, I'll bring her home no matter what!"

Ever since Cheng Tang was born, she had a deep relationship with her sister. After Kang Wan was born, they met every day because of the close business relationship between the Cheng family and the Kang family. The two of them were not much different in age. Instead of saying that she was Kang Wan's elder, it was better to say that the two of them were more like biological sisters.

Now that Kang Wan had disappeared without any warning, she had a huge burden on her heart and was very anxious for this child.

Kang Ting pinched the space between his eyebrows without batting an eyelid. As the head of the Kang family, he thought carefully for a few minutes. He seemed to have thought of something and said with a serious expression, "According to the two school teachers, Wan'er disappeared in Country N in Southeast Asia. I heard that the Huo family's little fiancée, Mo Zhu, also went to the international competition this time. Furthermore, she was in the same competition as Wan'er."

/ please keep reading on

"Last time, she and Huo Xuan suffered such a huge loss in our Kang family. Do you think Wan'er's disappearance has anything to do with them? That girl called Mo Zhu looks like she has a stomach full of evil tricks. Will she take the opportunity to attack Wan'er?"

Upon hearing this, Cheng Tang thought about it. A moment later, she shook her head and rejected this possibility.

From the people she had sent to Southeast Asia to inquire about the news over the past two days, Cheng Tang learned that Huo Xuan had personally accompanied Mo Zhu to participate in this international competition not long ago.

If the two of them really wanted to attack Kang Wan, with the Huo family's current strength, they definitely wouldn't have waited until Kang Wan left Beijing before taking action. Besides, the two of them weren't stupid enough to attack this girl in Country N and forcefully attract the Kang family's suspect to themselves.

Even if the truth was really as Kang Ting had said, with Kang Wan and Mo Zhu's personalities, it was most likely Kang Wan who could not hold back and started the trouble.

Cheng Tang had specially observed Mo Zhu during the battle with the Huo family. Such a shrewd and scheming person would definitely not act rashly without confidence!

Chapter 452: Discussing Countermeasures

Most importantly, there was no substantial evidence that could link Kang Wan's disappearance to other clues. From the surveillance video that Luo Nan and Li Xiao had sent over, Kang Wan had indeed left the hotel on her own accord. There was not a single suspicious person beside her.

At this moment, Kang Jian was moved by Kang Ting's words. Anger welled up in his heart. He frowned and clenched his fists tightly. He shouted angrily, "In that case, this matter must have been done by the Huo family. Is it not enough that they have been suppressing and acquiring the Kang family's business recently? Now, Huo Xuan actually schemed against my daughter. No, I definitely can't tolerate this! I must make him hand over Wan'er!"

After saying this, before Cheng Tang and Kang Ting could say anything, Kang Jian turned around and walked towards the door. From his posture, it seemed like he was going to end things with the Huo family today.

Cheng Tang quickly raised her hand and asked the subordinate beside her to stop Kang Jian. She took two steps forward and patted the man's shoulder. She instructed in a low voice, "Brother-in-law, the matter hasn't been investigated thoroughly. We don't have any evidence to prove that the Huo family was involved in Wan'er's disappearance. If we act rashly, we will only alert the enemy. If Wan'er is really in their hands, aren't you ignoring the girl's safety?"

At this moment, Cheng Tang had stopped Kang Jian partly for her own selfish reasons. After the incident with Lin Yuan last time, more than half of the Kang family's businesses had been jointly suppressed by the Huo family and the Xu family. The rest had barely been saved with the help of the Cheng family and the other influential families in Beijing who were on good terms with them.

In the current situation, if they really went head-on against the Huo family, and the Kang family fell, the incident would probably shake the Cheng family's foundation. At that time, her status in front of the old master would definitely plummet!

Seeing that Cheng Tang had sent someone to stop him, Kang Jian struggled free from their restraints. As he walked towards the door, he said loudly, "Cheng Tang, don't let anyone stop me. Wan'er isn't your child and your heart doesn't ache for her. You are still speaking up for the Huo family now. You are afraid of the Huo family but I'm not. I must make that kid called Huo Xuan give me an explanation today!"

Upon hearing this, Cheng Tang understood that Kang Jian was stubborn and would probably not be able to persuade him. Her expression darkened, and she put on a cold expression. She said indifferently, "Brother-in-law, since you say so, don't blame me for not reminding you. The Kang family has fallen now, and all of your business now depends largely on the help of the Cheng family. Without my permission, no one in the Kang family is allowed to have any conflict with the Huo family. Otherwise, I will definitely ask the old master to withdraw all the funds the Cheng family has invested in the Kang family and cut off your capitals!"

"You!" Kang Jian was furious. His fingers trembled as he pointed at Cheng Tang and kept patting his chest to catch his breath.

Seeing this scene, as it concerned the Kang family's interests, Kang Ting could not help but stand up from his high seat and walk down. He came to Cheng Tang and lowered his eyes slightly as he said kindly, "Tang'er, no matter what, we are in-laws. We can't be rash in making decisions. It's Second Brother's fault. I apologize to you on behalf of the Kang family. Don't take it to heart. Let's work hard to look for Wan'er. Maybe there will be news tomorrow?"

/ please keep reading on

After saying this, Cheng Tang looked up and glanced at Kang Ting coldly. She turned her head and looked at Kang Jian. She said calmly, "Investigate this matter for two more days. If there's still no useful news in two days, arrange for someone to organize a funeral for her. Southeast Asia has been very chaotic recently. If a person has been missing for so many days, she probably won't be able to return!"

Kang Jian did not expect Cheng Tang to say that. He held his anger in his chest and could not take it down. He was so angry that he coughed twice and hurriedly pinched his waist as he cursed, "Wow, Cheng Tang. I didn't expect you to be such a cold-blooded and heartless person. No matter what, Wan'er is your sister's flesh and blood.

How can you organize a funeral for her before you have confirmed her exact situation! You're cursing her!"

Chapter 453: No Patience

Cheng Tang raised her eyebrows and took two steps forward to Kang Jian's side nonchalantly. She raised her eyes and stared into the man's eyes. She was not angry and she said softly, "Brother-in-law, Wan'er is not a child anymore. She is already in her third year of high school. When I was her age, I was already able to manage the Cheng family's company really well. It's not like we haven't brought her to Southeast Asia before. If something really happened to her, even if she didn't come back with the teachers of the school, she would definitely send someone to send a message to us. But now that so many days have passed and we can't find anything, the outcome is already very clear!"

After pausing for a few seconds, in order to strengthen the persuasiveness of her words, Cheng Tang waved her hand and added, "Also, the subordinates I've sent out to look for that girl these two days are all elites that the Cheng family has carefully nurtured over the past few years. They even used computing talents, but it's still useless. This can only mean that Wan'er is very likely to be gone! Now that the various families in Beijing are eyeing us covetously, the future of the Cheng family and the Kang family is not clear. We shouldn't waste so much time and energy on such matters!"

Kang Jian loved his daughter too much and could not listen to Cheng Tang's advice. He frowned and said, "I don't know whether Wan'er is even alive. I..."

Before he could finish, Kang Ting's sharp eyes caught a glimpse of Cheng Tang's dark expression. He quickly nudged Kang Jian with his elbow and the man swallowed his words.

Cheng Tang glanced at the two of them indifferently and did not care about these small actions. She took out her phone and looked at the time. She changed the topic and said in a low voice, "It's almost time. The doctor who is here to treat Lin Yuan should be here soon. Go to the door and receive him. When the doctor arrives, bring him in directly!"

After saying this, Kang Ting was afraid that Kang Jian would start a conflict with Cheng Tang again when he left, he immediately grabbed the man's sleeve and pulled him out.

Together with the relatives of the other families of the Kang family, everyone went to the entrance of the Kang family's old mansion to welcome the doctor.

They stood in a row at the door and an impatient voice came from the corner. "Which famous doctor is coming to reconnect the family head's wife's broken arm? Why is he such a big shot? So many of us have to welcome him personally at the door?"

Upon hearing this voice, Cheng Tang frowned slightly and walked out of the door. She looked up at the people at the door unhappily and said in a low voice, "The person who came this time is the disciple of the 'divine doctor'? Do you think he is worthy to be welcomed by everyone in the Kang family?"

Just as she finished speaking, the other families of the Kang family who were not at the scene where Lin Yuan was being treated previously and did not know that Cheng Tang was going to invite the divine doctor widened their eyes in shock and started discussing in disbelief.

/ please keep reading on

"What? We actually invited the disciple of the 'divine doctor'? I've heard of this 'divine doctor'. The last time I had a meal with Madam Li, it was said that her old master had hemiplegia due to congestion of blood and vital energy. It was all thanks to the 'divine doctor' that he was cured!"

"Yes, yes, yes. I've heard of this person too, but isn't he very mysterious? He usually doesn't accept orders casually. Why is he suddenly willing to come and treat someone from the Kang family this time?"

Upon hearing this, an auntie from an unknown family could not hold back anymore. She immediately asked Cheng Tang, "Cheng Tang, how did you invite the 'divine doctor'? Are you sure it's not someone else in disguise?"

Cheng Tang leaned against the wall outside the door and smiled disapprovingly. "You'll know when he comes. Whether he's a subordinate of the 'divine doctor' or not, he can pretend to be him, but his medical skills can't."

Chapter 454: The Divine Doctor's Disciple

Seeing the excited expressions of the others in the Kang family, Cheng Tang lowered her eyes and touched her chin. To be honest, she was also very curious why the divine doctor was willing to accept the order. The person she had sent to inquire about the news said that the divine doctor had not accepted an order for a long time. This was the first order he had accepted in the past year.

The divine doctor chose to accept the order. Even if it was his disciple instead of him, it was already very good. After all, he was treating Lin Yuan's hands both ways. As long as he could reconnect her hands perfectly, it didn't matter who it was.

Thinking of this, Cheng Tang suddenly had the idea of taking the opportunity to rope in the divine doctor. If she could use this excellent opportunity to get the divine doctor's disciple to help her connect with the divine doctor, with the divine doctor's help, the Cheng family's power would definitely rise to another level. At that time, the old master would definitely hand the position of the Cheng family's future successor to her personally.

Thinking of this, Cheng Tang became even more determined to entertain the person who came well.

Everyone waited at the door. By the time Mo Jiu arrived, an hour and a half had passed.

Mo Jiu had calculated the time he had agreed on with the Kang family and deliberately arrived an hour and a half late. He had remembered the time when Young Master and Ms. Mo had suffered a loss in the Kang family. Although the two of them didn't explicitly ask him to take revenge, with this grudge in the first place, he wouldn't let the Kang family be happy.

He could take this opportunity to anger the Kang family when he represented the divine doctor to treat Lin Yuan!

The car stopped at the entrance of the Kang family's old mansion. Just as Mo Jiu opened the car door and got out of the car, he saw the Kang family and Cheng Tang standing orderly at the entrance, looking like they were welcoming someone.

Mo Jiu raised his eyebrows. After locking the car and putting the keys in his pocket, he walked towards this group of people.

Seeing Mo Jiu come to the Kang family's old mansion suddenly, Kang Ting frowned unhappily. He took two steps forward and stopped the man. He shouted, "Mo Jiu! What are you doing here?"

/ please keep reading on

When one of the Kang family members who was injured in the battle that night saw this situation and recognized him as a member of the Huo family, he quickly emphasized, "The Kang family has already cut ties with the Huo family and has nothing to do with you anymore. After such a thing happened, do you still have the face to come to the Kang family? Aren't you bullying the Kang family?"

Mo Jiu wasn't angry when he heard this. He lazily took two steps forward with his hands in his pocket. When he arrived in front of everyone, he raised his eyebrows and said indifferently, "Oh? The Kang family is really stopping me from entering? Then don't blame me for not reminding you. The disciple of the 'divine doctor' can't be invited anytime!"

Standing at the door and looking straight at everyone, Mo Jiu watched the Kang family's expressions change very quickly with amusement.

Upon hearing this, Kang Ting turned around and stood in front of Mo Jiu again. He shouted angrily, "Who doesn't know that you're Huo Xuan's subordinate? You want to pretend to be the divine doctor's disciple to stop him from treating the Kang family? Let me tell you, as long as I'm here, this is impossible! Are you leaving? If you leave now, I can pretend that this never happened. If you push your luck, don't blame the Kang family for not showing mercy!"

Just as he finished speaking, Mo Jiu crossed his arms and looked at Kang Ting as if he was looking at a fool. Then, he shrugged and said, "Since the Kang family's master has said so, there's no need for me to stay. Everyone has heard it. Your master chased me away. If I leave this time, don't cry and beg me to come back!"

After saying this, before everyone could react to what Mo Jiu's words had meant, the man turned around and walked towards the car. His action was clean and efficient.

Chapter 455: Stopping Mo Jiu

Seeing this scene, Cheng Tang frowned slightly and pinched the space between her eyebrows calmly. She quickly shouted, "Wait."

When Mo Jiu heard this, he turned around and saw that the person who called him was Cheng Tang. He raised his eyebrows and smiled like Xu Huan. "Oh? Is Ms. Cheng calling me? What's wrong? What's the matter, Ms. Cheng?"

Mo Jiu had met Cheng Tang by chance previously. At that time, he had gone out with Huo Tao to discuss business matters. Huo Tao and Chen Man were both there. When the two of them saw that Cheng Tang had an extraordinary speech and was quite beautiful, they had the idea of having her marry Huo Xuan. However, because the Cheng family looked down on the Huo family, this matter was left unsettled.

Furthermore, not long later, Huo Xuan was poisoned. His body weakened, and even Lin Yuan, who had always liked him, looked down on the Huo family. Considering that they did not want their daughter to marry a sickly person, they watched Kang Ying closely during that period of time and rarely let her visit the Huo family.

Seeing that Mo Jiu recognized her, Cheng Tang smiled like a lady from a wealthy family and asked softly, "Mr. Mo, are you the disciple of the 'divine doctor'?"

Previously, like Kang Ting, when she saw Mo Jiu get out of the car, she had also thought that the man was here to cause trouble. However, from his words just now, Cheng Tang could tell that he really seemed to be a disciple sent by the divine doctor to treat Lin Yuan.

Mo Jiu nodded and replied with absolute certainty, "That's right. My master asked me to reconnect the broken limbs of the wife of the Kang family's master."

After saying this, the expressions on the faces of the Kang family were very interesting. Some were in disbelief, some looked at each other, and some were so angry that they were fuming.

Through Mo Jiu's calm expression, Cheng Tang thought that Mo Jiu might really be the divine doctor's disciple. She smiled and waved behind her. "In that case, we didn't serve you well just now. Someone, please invite Mo Jiu in."

When Mo Jiu heard this, he didn't say anything else. He followed the path Cheng Tang had specially made and walked straight into the Kang family with his hands behind his back.

/ please keep reading on

After Mo Jiu's figure completely disappeared at the door, Kang Jian hurriedly walked out from behind Cheng Tang and grabbed her sleeve. He asked worriedly, "Tang'er, are you really going to let this kid treat Lin Yuan? He's someone by Huo Xuan's side. Don't forget that Huo Xuan personally cut off Lin Yuan's hand! How could he sincerely send Mo Jiu to reattach Lin Yuan's broken limb?"

Upon hearing his words, the surrounding Kang family members surrounded them and started talking.

"That's right, Second Brother is right. The feud between the Huo family and our family are irreconcilable. How can they not be scheming?"

"Why don't we be careful? Why do I feel that something is wrong? This Mo Jiu definitely has a backup plan!"

Following everyone's words, Cheng Tang lowered her eyes and thought for a moment. If Mo Jiu was an impostor and the current situation in Beijing was so confusing, as a member of the Huo family, he definitely wouldn't dare to visit them openly. After all, the divine doctor's name was widely known. In addition, the divine doctor had a close relationship with the Love Pavilion. Offending the divine doctor was equivalent to indirectly offending the Love Pavilion.

From the looks of it, there was an 80% chance that this Mo Jiu was a disciple sent by the divine doctor to treat Lin Yuan.

Mo Jiu had an inseparable relationship with the Huo family and he was the divine doctor's disciple. Then, could this legendary divine doctor be in the Huo family too? Who could it be?

It was impossible for Huo Xuan. If Huo Xuan really had such ability, he wouldn't have been tortured by the Heart-Devouring Poison for so long, let alone travel all the way to Cloud City to recuperate.

If it wasn't for Huo Xuan, who else in the Huo family might have special identities...

Could it be Mo Zhu?

Thinking of this, Cheng Tang's pupils constricted slightly, and her expression instantly darkened. According to her deduction, if Mo Zhu was really this divine doctor hiding in the dark, that was really bad news.

With what the Cheng family and the Kang family had done to the Huo family, there would probably be a storm in the future.

A dark glint flashed across Cheng Tang's eyes, and her entire body instantly emitted a cold aura. Since she could not be used by her, there was only one outcome, death!

After coming back to her senses, Cheng Tang glanced at the Kang family coldly and instructed in a low voice, "I have my own arrangements for this matter. Let's go and see how good Mo Jiu's medical skills are!"