

Summoner 1461

Chapter 1461 Qu Lanyi Is a Man (1)

She ran all the way straight out of the entrance of the cave. The dragon breath in the Sanglong Canyon was still lingering, but it couldn't affect a speck of dust. Yun Feng controlled the Dragon Palace and finally left the Sanglong Canyon carefully. She thought that the Crown Prince of the Clam Phoenix Tribe, Luo Teng, Jiao Yun and the others should already be gone. However, Yun Feng didn't expect to see Luo Teng sitting cross-legged after leaving the Sanglong Canyon.

"This kid still hasn't left?" Yun Feng was a bit shocked. It had been a while since she came out. He was still waiting here?

Yun Feng didn't intend to go out. She was moving with Ao Jin right now. She certainly couldn't let anyone else know anything about the Dragons, especially someone as clingy as Luo Teng. She couldn't get rid of him at all with his speed. This was the only way she could get rid of him completely and move freely in the Endless Ocean. A speck of dust slowly floated out of the entrance of the Sanglong Canyon. Luo Teng, who had been waiting with his eyes closed, suddenly opened his eyes and looked around. A strange feeling sounded in his mind, as if something was slipping away from him.

With Luo Teng's ability, he couldn't recognize the Dragon Palace at all. Where could he find a speck of dust? Luo Teng looked for a long time and couldn't see anything. He stared at the entrance of Sanglong Canyon with his black eyes. "Feng Yun... I won't leave until I see you!" A speck of dust slowly flashed past his face. Luo Teng didn't notice it at all. The speck of dust went further and further away, and finally disappeared from Luo Teng.

Yun Feng chuckled. She was finally free of this kid. The trip to the Endless Ocean in the future would be much more peaceful. Yun Feng was still very vigilant against Luo Teng. If such a member of the Sea Clan followed her in the future, there would certainly be a lot of things she couldn't do. Even if she wanted to do something, she would have to be careful and restrained.

Yun Feng took out the four pieces of the map she got and looked at them carefully. Two of them could be pieced together successfully, but she still couldn't tell what they were. The map had been torn into twelve pieces. Even if two pieces were put together, only a small part of it would be shown.

"Four pieces?!" Mu Canghai walked over and was a bit surprised to see Yun Feng's hands. She got two map pieces on this trip? Yun Feng was too fast! Yun Feng chuckled and put away the map pieces. It was all thanks to Uncle Flirtatious. Without his help, she wouldn't have been able to get two pieces in such a short time. Yun Feng got four of the twelve pieces. If those forces chasing after the map pieces knew about this, they would definitely go crazy.

"Swish!" Ao Jin suddenly appeared on the second level of the Dragon Palace. Mu Canghai was a bit shocked to see such an unfamiliar and handsome man, while Yun Feng was a bit surprised. Uncle Flirtatious came here himself? The Dragon Palace was under her control. Uncle Flirtatious could still come and go freely?

"I was sent here..." Ao Jin said as he suddenly saw Mu Canghai with his golden eyes. "Who are you?"

Mu Canghai narrowed his eyes and looked at Ao Jin with his strange eyes. For some reason, he didn't have a good impression of this man the first time they met. He had the urge to beat him up. "Who are you?"

Yun Feng looked at the two men who were ready to fight and felt a bit of a headache. "You two..." Yun Feng rubbed her temples and started introducing. "Ao Jin, Young Master of the Dragons, Mu Canghai... My good friend."

Yun Feng's introduction obviously didn't satisfy Ao Jin. "Kid, he's a good friend and I'm just the Young Master of the Dragons?"

Yun Feng chuckled. "Uncle Flirtatious is also my best friend. There's no doubt about that."

Ao Jin finally nodded in satisfaction. Mu Canghai looked at Ao Jin in shock. The Young Master of the Dragons? Someone from the Dragons? Yun Feng was so close to someone from the Dragons?

"Kid, you seem to be..." Ao Jin noticed that Mu Canghai was a bit different. Yun Feng immediately reached out and pulled Ao Jin's arm. "Uncle Flirtatious, who sent you here? They've all quieted down. You're quite good!"

Ao Jin's expression was a bit stiff. Thinking of the fifth level of the Dragon Palace, he had a headache. "Luckily, they finally accepted it and didn't cause any trouble anymore. It's all thanks to..."

"Hm?" Yun Feng raised her brows. Thinking of what that person asked him to do, Ao Jin could only purse his lips. "Thanks to my patience."

Yun Feng frowned slightly. She felt that Ao Jin seemed to have something to say, but she didn't ask anymore. If Uncle Flirtatious wanted to say something, he would certainly say it. If he didn't, she didn't have to get to the bottom of it. Mu Canghai obviously saw Ao Jin's special attitude towards Yun Feng. The Young Master of the Dragons should be a Golden Dragon. The Golden Dragon blood in Yun Feng's father, Yun Jing, should be from Ao Jin. And the relationship between the Dragon Palace and the Dragons... Mu Canghai calculated the time in his mind. His eyes darkened slightly. He knew Yun Feng later than Ao Jin did.

Even though it was only a matter of time, Mu Canghai suddenly felt a bit frustrated and couldn't hide the disappointment on his face. His cold handsome face turned slightly to the side and he sat cross-legged. "I'll continue cultivating." Yun Feng nodded, while Ao Jin looked at Mu Canghai thoughtfully and felt a bit resistant in his mind.

Mu Canghai cultivated in peace, while Yun Feng took Ao Jin to another place in the Dragon Palace to talk. "Kid, that kid likes you." Ao Jin sounded a bit upset and his handsome face was also a bit gloomy. Yun Feng was stunned. Mu Canghai liked her? "Uncle Flirtatious, you're wrong." Yun Feng shook her head. Ao Jin's golden eyes glittered. "I didn't see it wrong. That kid does like you!"

Yun Feng was speechless. Speaking of Yun Feng's feelings, it could be said that she got them too late. It wasn't easy for Qu Lanyi to make her accept him. Even though Yun Feng knew what love between a man and a woman was at the moment, even though she knew her feelings for Qu Lanyi, it was very difficult for her to understand the feelings other people had for her, unless they were very straightforward and passionate. Yun Feng wouldn't think that Mu Canghai, who was cold on the outside, had feelings for her no matter what.

Ao Jin swore that Mu Canghai liked Yun Feng, but Yun Feng didn't take it seriously. After all, Mu Canghai had been with her for a long time. She didn't feel that he "liked" her at all. When Ao Jin was about to say something, Yun Feng planned to stop talking about this.

"Uncle Flirtatious, it doesn't matter to me whether Mu Canghai likes me or not," said Yun Feng. Ao Jin was inexplicably relieved. Oh, it seemed that the girl didn't like Mu Canghai. Ao Jin looked a bit better. "Then who do you like?"

Chapter 1462 Qu Lanyi Is a Man (2)

Speaking of Ao Jin's feelings, they weren't any better than Yun Feng's. He had been hanging out with a fool like Er Lei since he was born. How good could he be? He never had a crush yet. Ao Jin didn't know what his vague feelings for Yun Feng were at all. He was angry at the man who appeared next to Yun Feng, but he didn't know why he was like this. However, he knew that he liked to see Yun Feng, especially when she smiled.

Yun Feng had never been asked such a question. Qu Lanyi bombarded her with questions about feelings, so she would more or less take the initiative to express herself. Now, she had to tell Ao Jin the person she liked honestly. Yun Feng suddenly felt embarrassed.

Looking at Yun Feng's red cheeks, Ao Jin suddenly felt that his heart was pounding rapidly. The blood in his body seemed to be flowing faster and hotter, so hot that he didn't know what to do. However, his golden eyes were fixated on Yun Feng's shy look at this moment obsessively and he couldn't extricate himself. Ao Jin reached out his hand and wanted to touch that moving redness, but Yun Feng raised her head at this moment. Ao Jin immediately put his hand down, like a child who did bad things and was worried that he would be discovered.

Her red cheeks and glittering black eyes made Ao Jin even more intoxicated. The girl was getting prettier and prettier. When he first saw her, he thought she looked different from the women of the Dragons. He couldn't move his eyes away after taking a look at her. She was even prettier right now. He didn't want to look away at all.

"Uncle Flirtatious, I haven't told you that I have someone I like."

Yun Feng's voice was a bit hazy. Ao Jin was still immersed in his bubble-like feeling. "Who do you like, girl?" Ao Jin asked again. He looked at Yun Feng's cheeks that were getting redder and redder with his golden eyes. There was also an even more complicated storm in the depths of his golden eyes.

"Qu Lanyi."

Qu Lanyi? The name kept echoing in Ao Jin's mind. A cluster of golden flames in his golden eyes flickered. Wasn't Qu Lanyi... a woman? The girl liked women! Qu Lanyi's charming facial features and her intimate postures with Yun Feng appeared in Ao Jin's mind. Ao Jin had never liked her since the beginning, but now... Qu Lanyi was a woman!

"No!" Ao Jin blurted out. Yun Feng was stunned. Looking at Ao Jin's face that said "no", she finally remembered that Uncle Flirtatious didn't know that Qu Lanyi was a man.

“Ahem, Uncle Flirtatious, there’s one more thing...”

“No! Kid, you can’t like women!” Ao Jin put his hands on Yun Feng’s shoulders and said righteously, “I won’t let you walk on this road of no return!”

Yun Feng didn’t know whether to laugh or cry. “Uncle Flirtatious, let me explain...”

“Kid, what’s so good about that woman? She’s just a bit pretty. She’s far less beautiful than you and her personality is so clingy. I don’t even like her. Why do you like her...”

Yun Feng was speechless. She listened to Ao Jin talk about how bad Qu Lanyi, this “woman”, was. “No man in this world will like her at all!”

Yun Feng nodded. He was right. No man in the world would like Qu Lanyi.

Ao Jin was delighted to see Yun Feng nod. “Kid, you think I’m right too. So, she’s a woman that all men don’t like. Kid, why did you...”

“Qu Lanyi is a man.”

“Kid, what did you say just then?”

Yun Feng took a deep breath and looked at Ao Jin’s golden eyes with her black eyes. She slowly said, “Qu Lanyi was a man. At that time, he was just pretending to be a woman.”

Silence, absolute silence.

“Where is that kid? I’m going to tear him apart!” A furious roar echoed in the entire space. Yun Feng thought Ao Jin would be angry, but she didn’t expect him to be so angry! Was there such a huge grudge between him and Qu Lanyi? There had indeed been conflict when the two of them were together, but it wasn’t to this extent.

It wasn’t Yun Feng’s fault, nor was it her emotional numbness. It wasn’t Ao Jin’s fault that he exploded. If Qu Lanyi were here, the two of them would definitely feel extremely jealous when they saw each other. It would already be surprising if they didn’t fight.

Ao Jin didn’t understand why he was so angry. He only knew that after learning that Yun Feng liked Qu Lanyi, Ao Jin felt that his heart was very painful.

The news that Qu Lanyi was a man made Ao Jin silent for a long time. During this period of time, Ao Jin had been staying on the fifth level of the Dragon Palace and had no intention of coming out. Yun Feng didn’t quite understand what was wrong with Ao Jin, and couldn’t ask anyone else what was wrong with Ao Jin. She could only put this annoying atmosphere aside. She still had a lot of things to do in the Endless Ocean and didn’t have time to think about anything else.

After leaving Sanglong Canyon, Yun Feng planned to come out of the Dragon Palace. Even though the Dragon Palace was safe, its movement speed was too slow. After confirming that they had reached a hidden location, Yun Feng asked the dust of the Dragon Palace to attach to a water grass. She planned to go to the fifth level of the Dragon Palace to find Ao Jin, but such a strange atmosphere recently made Yun Feng give up the idea. She released Er Lei and asked him to call Ao Jin out for her. Er Lei was a bit confused, but he still went.

After a while, Ao Jin and Er Lei appeared in front of Yun Feng one after another. Yun Feng was already prepared for embarrassment, but Ao Jin chuckled at Yun Feng as if nothing happened. "Kid, why didn't you come to find me after so long? Did you miss me?"

Yun Feng was shocked. Er Lei rolled his eyes at Ao Jin and walked aside after mumbling "idiot". Yun Feng coughed gently. "Uncle Flirtatious, what have you been busy with recently?"

Ao Jin sighed. "Those dragon bastards still need to be comforted. Even though they've reluctantly accepted the fact that you own the Dragon Palace, there are still a few disobedient ones."

Yun Feng nodded. Looking at Yun Feng deeply with his golden eyes. Ao Jin asked, "We've already left Sanglong Canyon, right?"

"We've been away for a while. We've already arrived at a place in the West Sea. I plan to go out. What do you think, Uncle Flirtatious?"

"It's time to go out, or we won't be able to find a good place to live."

Seeing that Ao Jin agreed, Yun Feng chuckled. Er Lei said on the side, "Let me follow you too, Yun Feng. It's been a long time since we last met."

Yun Feng nodded. It was good that Er Lei followed her. For some reason, Yun Feng felt a bit awkward being alone with Ao Jin. With Er Lei here, she was much more relaxed. Ao Jin burst into laughter.

"Alright! Someone will relieve my boredom along the way."

Chapter 1463 Qu Lanyi Is a Man (3)

"F*ck, you're making fun of me!" Er Lei roared in dissatisfaction. Ao Jin burst into laughter. The joyful atmosphere between the two of them infected Yun Feng and the uneasiness in her mind was completely put down. There was no time to lose. It was time to leave the Dragon Palace. "Then let's go!"

Ao Jin and Er Lei nodded. Yun Feng closed her eyes and took the two of them out of the Dragon Palace. A beam of light flashed out of the dust on a certain water plant and turned into three figures. The moment they came out, the dust turned into a dragon-shaped jade pendant that landed in Yun Feng's hand. Ao Jin looked at it curiously. "Is this the key to the Dragon Palace?"

Yun Feng nodded with a smile and put away the dragon-shaped jade pendant. She looked around. They were in a relatively desolate place and there didn't seem to be any signs of activity of the Sea Clan.

"Where are we going now?" Er Lei looked at the scenery around and asked. Ao Jin looked at Yun Feng. "Kid, I'll listen to you."

Yun Feng said, "We've already got the map fragment of the West Sea, but we haven't found any traces of Blood Souls. We should explore other seas, but... Uncle Flirtatious, are you satisfied with the West Sea? If you are..."

"Here? Forget it!" Ao Jin curled his lips. "This area isn't to my liking. I'll go to other seas to take a look."

"That's good. There are more choices if we look at more places. We have to find the most suitable place to live," said Yun Feng. "We're leaving the West Sea right now. I think... we should go to the North Sea."

Previously, Qi Luo had told Yun Feng the general situation of the Endless Ocean. The North Sea was the place where there were the most conflicts. People came to provoke you from time to time in that place. If you didn't accept the challenge, all the Sea Clan would look down on you. On the contrary, if you won in battle, you would be respected by the other Sea Clan members. The way you interacted with them was a bit barbaric, but it was also very straightforward. If you wanted something, you could come to the North Sea. As long as you were strong enough, there was nothing you couldn't get.

"A place of dispute? I like it!" Ao Jin immediately agreed after hearing Yun Feng's description. "Such a place is suitable for the Dragons. The Dragons must be the kings of a place!" Ao Jin's thought was very simple. It was very difficult for them to occupy a territory elsewhere, but in the North Seas, you didn't have to care about anything. You only had to show your strength. How strong you were was a necessary condition for doing anything. As long as he won a piece of land for the Dragons, the Dragons could live in peace.

Yun Feng's thoughts were similar. Even though the North Sea sounded like a place of conflict, it was the fairest place in its bones. The powerhouses should like this place. There should be a lot of powerhouses gathered here. If the Blood Souls wanted to establish a base, they certainly had to choose such a place. There would be conflicts at all times and the activities of the Blood Souls would be covered up silently.

The Blood Souls had always been hidden and strange. It was impossible for them to stand in front of the stage. They were very afraid of being discovered, especially in the Endless Ocean. If the Sea Clan knew about it, they would definitely swarm to eliminate them. Yun Feng had the same thought. Once she found traces of the Blood Souls, she wouldn't go there stupidly. The Endless Ocean was her natural reserve army. There would be as many hunters as she wanted. By then, the Blood Souls would be in an extremely sorry state under the pursuit of the Sea Clan no matter how capable they were.

After deciding to go to the North Sea, Yun Feng thought that it was better to leave the West Sea as soon as possible. The three of them continued to the north of the West Sea. After a few days of traveling quickly, they soon arrived near the border between the West Sea and the North Sea. Yun Feng knew that no matter what, she was still later than the Clam Phoenix Tribe.

In the area near the border of the North Sea, Yun Feng didn't expect the Clam Phoenix Tribe to set this place up as a heavily guarded area. Looking from afar, this area was completely occupied by the Clam Phoenix Tribe. If this was the North Sea, the Clam Phoenix Tribe would have already become the target of everyone if they dared to do such an arbitrary thing. However, in the West Sea, the Clam Phoenix Tribe could be said to be the boss here and said whatever they wanted.

"It seems that it's a bit difficult to pass through fair and square." Ao Jin looked at the heavily guarded area in front of him, but Yun Feng chuckled. Which area couldn't be passed through with the Dragon Palace in hand? No matter how capable the Clam Phoenix Tribe were, would they be able to find the Dragon Palace?

Er Lei was put into Yun Feng's Ring of Contract. Yun Feng was about to put Ao Jin into the Dragon Palace too, when Ao Jin suddenly lowered his voice and said, "Kid, I've always wanted to ask you something."

"Tell me."

"...Is that kid good to you?"

Yun Feng was startled. Looking at the extremely clear golden eyes in front of her, she smiled warmly. "He's very, very good to me. Really."

The corners of Ao Jin's mouth moved slightly, as if he wanted to say something else, but in the end, he smiled helplessly and rubbed Yun Feng's little head with his hand. Because Meatball didn't come out, Ao Jin got what he wanted this time. "That's great." These words weighed heavily on Yun Feng's heart, making her feel complicated.

After entering the Dragon Palace, she temporarily put aside her emotions. This time, the Dragon Palace turned into a water drop and completely merged with the seawater of the Endless Ocean, floating slowly towards the border. The closer they were to the border, the more Yun Feng could feel the layers of defense set up by the Clam Phoenix Tribe here. Many masters lingered here and monitored every inch of land near the border, not letting go of any small fry that tried to pass through here. If Yun Feng and the others really wanted to cross the border openly, there would probably be a huge battle.

Looking at the border not far ahead, Yun Feng knew in her mind that as long as they could cross the border safely and reach the territory of the North Sea, the Clam Phoenix Tribe wouldn't be able to do anything even if the three of them appeared. They could only stare. The most important thing right now was whether they could pass through successfully.

"What should we do now?" asked Er Lei. Yun Feng said in a low voice, "We can't panic. It's still uncertain if the Dragon Palace has been discovered. The appearance of the Dragon Palace right now is just a drop of seawater. It'll take them a lot of effort to find this unusual drop of seawater in the sea!"

Chapter 1464 Qu Lanyi Is a Man (4)

The water drop formed by the Dragon Palace slowly moved forward and remained unchanged. However, Yun Feng soon felt the space shake violently. A solid spatial barrier was erected in front of the border, isolating everything on this side. The water drop formed by the Dragon Palace was also blocked!

"Start checking every area of the sea! Don't let go of any stone! Take note of tiny things, even a speck of dust! Find anything that's useful!" A familiar voice sounded. It was the Crown Prince of the Clam Phoenix Tribe. Yun Feng frowned. This Crown Prince was indeed something. He was so meticulous.

"The Clams should have some special ability to sense spatial containers that can transform like the Dragon Palace." Yun Feng frowned and pondered. "All we can do is wait."

The water drop formed by the Dragon Palace was near the space barrier. Once the space barrier disappeared, the Dragon Palace would cross the border and rush into the North Sea immediately. The waiting was a torturous process. This time, the Clam Phoenix Tribe seemed to be doing everything they could to stop anything that wanted to pass through to the North Sea. Every master of the Clam Phoenix Tribe was searching carefully, not letting go of any tiny part. Naturally, some powerhouses checked the area where Yun Feng was, but they didn't find this special water drop mixed in the sea.

Soon, the search didn't yield any result, but the Crown Prince of the Clam Phoenix Tribe didn't give up at all. He was certain that something was wrong. In the end, he issued an order to search the seawater! Every drop of water was to be investigated!

Yun Feng and the others, who were in the Dragon Palace, all had a headache after hearing this. The Crown Prince of the Clam Phoenix Tribe was truly difficult to deal with. He even asked them to search every drop of water! If that was the case, the water drop formed by the Dragon Palace would be exposed sooner or later!

“Clams, I’ll remember you.” Ao Jin gritted his teeth, but Yun Feng frowned even more tightly. A few powerhouses had already come to the area they were in again for a detailed inspection. This time, they were targeting every drop of seawater.

It was actually very simple to test if there was anything wrong with the seawater. As long as they observed the flow of the water drops, they would know. The few powerhouses had already arrived at the small area where the Dragon Palace was located. The powerhouses of the Clams had wrapped a part of the seawater and stirred the seawater with some kind of aura, observing the direction of every drop of seawater. Yun Feng tried her best to control the water drop formed by the Dragon Palace to follow the movements of the other water drops, rolling, spinning and stopping. Everything was flawless.

The few powerhouses watched for a long time and didn’t find anything unusual, so they let go of the seawater. The seawater suddenly spread out and moved very quickly. Yun Feng’s heart suddenly panicked. The speed was too fast. Before she could keep up with the speed of the other water drops, she was half a beat slower! And this half a beat was enough for these powerhouses to notice the existence of the Dragon Palace!

“A suspicious water drop has been found!” The few powerhouses immediately enveloped the seawater where the Dragon Palace was located again. After a while, a figure had already rushed over quickly. The Crown Prince of the Clam Phoenix Tribe arrived. He looked at the small part of the seawater that was restrained and smiled viciously. “Burn! Burn until all the water is gone!”

Even though the members of the Sea Clan weren’t good at and even rejected the fire element, it didn’t mean that there wasn’t any. A raging fire was burning under this small part of the seawater. A lot of the seawater evaporated and the ball of seawater shrank smaller and smaller. In the end, there was only a drop of pure blue water left. No matter how the fire roasted it, it didn’t move.

The Crown Prince of the Clam Phoenix Tribe looked at the water drop and smiled sinisterly. He flipped his hand and an extremely dense aura of the Sea Clan shot out of his hand, hitting the water drop! However, the water drop wasn’t injured at all!

The Crown Prince of the Clam Phoenix Tribe was shocked. Then, he roared furiously, “You guys, attack together!”

The few experts of the Clam Phoenix Tribe on the side immediately mobilized their strongest attack power. A few fierce forces hit the water drop together, but it was still unscathed!

Yun Feng, who was in the Dragon Palace, raised the corners of her mouth. Did they think they could open the Dragon Palace with their strength? There were attacks outside, but Yun Feng didn’t care about them. She began to think carefully about how to escape. Ao Jin roared when he heard the voices outside, “F*ck, let those dragons out and crush them!”

Er Lei was also cursing. “F*ck, let me blast them to death!”

Yun Feng was the calmest at this moment. It wasn't the moment to fight head-on right now. Even if she had enough ability, even if her contracted Magic Beasts had enough ability, even if Ao Jin was here, even if there were so many dragons! This wasn't the time to fight head-on. The Clam Phoenix Tribe had an absolute advantage in numbers, so there were certainly a lot of powerhouses and masters. They could beat back a wave, a few waves, but could they beat back all of them?

The attacks outside didn't hurt the Dragon Palace at all. Yun Feng could also think at ease. There was no rush in the Dragon Palace, but the Crown Prince of the Clam Phoenix Tribe outside was going crazy. No matter how many powerhouses attacked together, they couldn't do anything to this water drop. It wasn't even damaged at all! The Crown Prince of the Clam Phoenix Tribe attacked a few more times with bloodshot eyes, as if he was risking his life. The water drop was still there and glittering, as if it was mocking him.

"Your Highness, why don't we take it back..."

"Idiot! Once this thing transforms into something else, can you detect it?" The Crown Prince of the Clam Phoenix Tribe looked at the water drop fiercely and suddenly shouted loudly, "The creatures inside, listen up! If you're not the person I'm looking for, I'll let you go!"

Yun Feng raised her brows. She didn't need to think to know who he was looking for. Who else could it be other than her?

Yun Feng pondered in her mind. The Crown Prince of the Clam Phoenix Tribe only wanted the map fragment. Judging from the situation at the border, he seemed to be quite crazy. It seemed that he was quite enthusiastic about taking the map fragment. If she didn't think of a way to ease the current situation, even though a stalemate was fine, it wouldn't work for Yun Feng and Ao Jin. They could be in a stalemate for a day, a month, a year, or even ten years! However, they couldn't waste all their time on the Clam Phoenix Tribe!

They couldn't fight here, so they could only think of a way to distract the attention of the Clam Phoenix Tribe and wait for an opportunity to cross the border. However, how could they divert the attention of the Clam Phoenix Tribe and make the Crown Prince of the Clam Phoenix Tribe believe them?

Just like that, the two parties were in a stalemate for a while. The Crown Prince of the Clam Phoenix Tribe looked at the water drop in front of him in exasperation. No matter what he said, there was no response from inside. If the water drop weren't safe from the fire, he would really think that he was a lunatic! No matter how many times they attacked, they couldn't cause any damage to the water drop. There was nothing else the Crown Prince could do except shout.

They shouted a few times every day. Today, something seemed to have happened to the Clam Phoenix Tribe. "Your Highness, are you alright?" The caring voices of the other members of the Clam Phoenix Tribe came to the Dragon Palace, followed by the roar of the Crown Prince of the Clam Phoenix Tribe. "I'm fine! Watch over it! Ahem!"

Joy flashed through Yun Feng's black eyes. It seemed that her chance had come. "That kid who shouted outside seems to be much weaker?" Ao Jin said. Yun Feng chuckled. "He's indeed much weaker. Not only is he weaker, but he's also falling in all aspects."

“Are you talking about the effect of the dragon breath?” said Er Lei on the side. Yun Feng nodded.

“That’s right. The faint dragon breath in the Sanglong Canyon is fatal to the Sea Clan! I came into contact with a scout of the Clam Phoenix Tribe there earlier. At that time, there was a dragon breath in his body that was very faint. At that time, he was already on the verge of death. This time, we went deep into the Sanglong Canyon. There should be a lot of dragon breath left inside the body of the Crown Prince of the Clam Phoenix Tribe. Even if he kept suppressing it with his strength, it was useless in the end. It’s time for it to flare up.”

“Haha, that’s great! When he dies, we can take advantage of the chaos to get out!” Er Lei roared excitedly, but Yun Feng shook her head. “The Crown Prince of the Clams won’t die anytime soon. He’ll be alive for a long time if he drags on with us. He must be very anxious himself. He knows that his life is on the line. If he can’t find that person back then, his soul will probably die.”

Er Lei was startled after hearing that. Then, he burst into laughter. Wasn’t Yun Feng the person the Crown Prince of the Clam Phoenix Tribe was looking for?

“Kid, what are you talking about with Lei?” Ao Jin didn’t quite understand. “Lei, stop laughing! Tell me what’s going on first!”

Er Lei said with a smile, “The person who can control that kid’s life and death is Yun Feng!”

Ao Jin looked at Yun Feng in shock, but Yun Feng smiled lightly. “It wasn’t me. It should be Er Lei. It was all thanks to Er Lei’s help that I was able to save that spy of the Clams back then.”

“Lei, did the dragon breath hurt you?” Ao Jin was a bit worried. After all, the dragon breath came from an unusual dragon. Even though Er Lei had the bloodline of an ancient demon dragon in his body, it didn’t mean that the dragon breath didn’t hurt him. Essentially, he wasn’t a dragon.

“What can happen to me? Those dragon breaths are nothing to me!” said Er Lei unhappily. Ao Jin was relieved after hearing that. Yun Feng pondered quietly. The person the Clam Phoenix Tribe needed the most right now was her. How should she use this opportunity to escape successfully? Yun Feng thought of something and her red lips curled up slightly. How could she forget that the promise of the Clam Phoenix Tribe was inviolable? If she didn’t use it now, when?

The Clam Phoenix Tribe valued their promise the most. If the Crown Prince went back on his words, he wouldn’t be worthy of the word “Your Highness” in the eyes of the Clam Phoenix Tribe.

Thinking of this, she took out the mask and put it on. Yun Feng’s appearance changed back to how she used to be. Ao Jin looked at her. “Kid, are you planning to go out?”

Yun Feng nodded. “The Clams owe me a promise. I’ll certainly ask them to fulfill it now.”

“I’ll go with you,” said Ao Jin, but Yun Feng shook her head. “It’s fine. Er Lei will go with me. Uncle Flirtatious, just wait here.”

“But...” Ao Jin was still worried. Er Lei walked over while cursing. “Don’t worry! With me here, how can anything happen to Yun Feng? Damn it, are you looking down on me?”

Yun Feng burst into laughter. "Don't worry, Er Lei. Let's go!" After Yun Feng said that, a beam of light enveloped her and the two of them and directly took them out. Ao Jin stood there and smiled helplessly. "This girl, do you treat me as an outsider..."

"Your Highness! There's movement!" The powerhouses of the Clam Phoenix Tribe, who had been observing the Dragon Palace closely, immediately warned when Yun Feng and Er Lei came out. The expression of the Crown Prince of the Clam Phoenix Tribe changed immediately. "Get ready! Once the people inside come out, take them down immediately!"

"Swish..." A beam of light suddenly flashed out of the water drop. The powerhouses of the Clam Phoenix Tribe all gathered their strength and planned to capture the person who came out in an instant. Before the light faded, a voice came. "Your Highness, it's been a long time."

The Crown Prince of the Clam Phoenix Tribe was immediately shocked! This voice... Wasn't it that grandmaster-level pharmacist he had searched hard for? Thinking of his current physical condition, the Crown Prince of the Clam Phoenix Tribe immediately shouted, "Stop! Don't hurt this person!"

The masters of the Clam Phoenix Tribe looked at the lightning elements around Er Lei a bit fearfully. The lightning elements would be even more powerful in the water. With water and lightning, the range of attack could be very wide and the conductivity was also extremely strong. The masters of the Clam Phoenix Tribe didn't dare to do anything easily, while the Crown Prince of the Clam Phoenix Tribe looked at Yun Feng excitedly. "It's really you!"

There was a faint smile at the corners of Yun Feng's mouth. She could tell at a glance how much the dragon breath in the body of the Crown Prince of the Clam Phoenix Tribe was wreaking havoc. At this moment, his eyes were already green and his face was pale. It seemed that the dragon breath in his body had been wreaking havoc for a long time. He was already a strong person to be able to suppress it until now. If he didn't eliminate the dragon breath in his body, he would explode and die sooner or later, ending up like that spy.

"It's been a while. I didn't expect you to have such serious symptoms," said Yun Feng. She saw the surprised light in the eyes of the Crown Prince of the Clam Phoenix Tribe. "Does that thing belong to you, ma'am?" The Crown Prince looked at the water drop formed by the Dragon Palace and asked suspiciously. Yun Feng's black eyes darkened slightly. "It doesn't belong to me. A friend gave it to me for the time being."

Chapter 1466 Trip to the North Sea (2)

The Crown Prince of the Clam Phoenix Tribe chuckled. "I really want to know who your best friend is to afford such... a rare thing."

"It's best not to mention my best friend's name. He doesn't want me to mention it to anyone else. Speaking of which, if you don't deal with it, I'm afraid the situation in the future will be the same as before."

The Crown Prince of the Clam Phoenix Tribe frowned. "I've already drunk a lot of the potion with the formula left by you back then, but it still doesn't work. I searched the territory of the Clam Phoenix Tribe, but I couldn't find any trace of you." Speaking of this, the Crown Prince glanced at her suspiciously. Yun Feng chuckled. "That potion isn't a formula for curing. It's just for recuperation. And I certainly can't stay in one place for a long time. I have to walk around and find novel herbs." Yun Feng thought in her mind. She made up that formula casually. It would be strange if it worked.

"I see." The Crown Prince was skeptical. "However, I've already shouted for a few days. Why did you only show up now? If you showed up at the beginning, there would be less misunderstanding between us."

"F*ck, you're so talkative!" Er Lei couldn't stand it anymore and roared. The Crown Prince of the Clam Phoenix Tribe glanced over fiercely. "I don't think I've seen the person next to you."

Yun Feng smiled lightly. "He's one of my assistants. Any questions?"

Er Lei grunted. The Crown Prince was a bit shocked. He knew that the potion masters indeed needed help, but it was a bit unbelievable that such a tall and sturdy person with such a bad temper could be a helper. "Ma'am, you are truly unique." The Crown Prince smiled awkwardly and didn't say anything else.

"Why are you mobilizing so many people here, Your Highness?" Yun Feng raised her brows and asked. The Crown Prince chuckled after hearing that. "It's nothing. It's just that the North Sea hasn't been stable recently. In order to prevent some people in the North Sea from running to the West Sea, we set up defenses here. I came here in person to share the burden of the Clam Phoenix Tribe."

What a dignified statement. Yun Feng chuckled. "Your Highness, you're truly considerate. So, I can't go over?"

The Crown Prince's eyes glittered. "Not for now. Are you going to the North Sea?"

"That's right. I heard that an extremely rare herb appeared in the North Sea. I need it in a formula I developed. I must go there."

"The North Sea is too chaotic. Isn't it dangerous for you to go there yourself? If you want, I can help you."

Yun Feng looked at the Crown Prince's flattering smile and knew that he was trying to get close to her. After all, whether or not he could keep his life depended on her. "You don't have to worry about that. I wonder if you still remember the promise you owe me back then?"

"Yes, of course. Have you thought of a request, ma'am?" The Crown Prince chuckled and looked at Yun Feng. Yun Feng looked at the Crown Prince. "I met a junior during this period of time. Many things were done with the help of this junior. If you meet her, please take care of her."

"If she's your friend, she's certainly my friend. What's her name?"

Looking at the Crown Prince's friendly face, Yun Feng wanted to laugh. She coughed with a serious expression. "This little friend's name is Feng Yun."

The expression of the Crown Prince of the Clam Phoenix Tribe was completely frozen. He didn't know whether to smile or not. Yun Feng was delighted in her mind. She could even pave a way for herself. Not bad, not bad.

"Feng Yun?" The Crown Prince of the Clam Phoenix Tribe said awkwardly, "Are you sure this is her name?"

Yun Feng nodded pretentiously. "Yes, Feng Yun has won my heart and helped me a lot. She left in a hurry and I didn't have anything to repay her. After thinking about it, I can only do her a favor through you."

When Yun Feng said this, she heard the sound of the Crown Prince grinding his teeth. She could imagine how the Crown Prince would feel at this moment. She was even more amused in her mind, but she still pretended on the surface. "The Clam Phoenix Tribe value promises the most, especially the Crown Prince. I don't think there's anything difficult, Your Highness."

"Ma'am, you might not know this, but there's a grudge between me and your junior friend."

Yun Feng raised her brows. It seemed that the Crown Prince of the Clam Phoenix Tribe still didn't want to compromise. "A grudge? What kind of grudge?"

"It's a long story... She took away something precious that originally belonged to the Clam Phoenix Tribe. To be honest, one of the reasons why we have so many soldiers here is to get this thing. I didn't expect Feng Yun to be your friend, ma'am."

Yun Feng sneered in her mind. Er Lei rolled his eyes fiercely on the side. "So, it should be Feng Yun's fault. She should indeed return the thing she took from the Clam Phoenix Tribe."

"Ma'am, you think so too. Since she's your friend, as long as Feng Yun can return that thing, we won't pursue the matter."

Yun Feng raised her brows and glanced at the Crown Prince. She slowly said, "This is between the Clams and Feng Yun. It's not convenient for me to say anything. The favor that the Crown Prince owes me has nothing to do with anything between you two."

The Crown Prince of the Clam Phoenix Tribe was inevitably shocked, but he didn't dare to be angry with Yun Feng. If he angered her, he would lose his life sooner or later. He could only swallow his anger and nod. "Yes, ma'am."

"I don't care about the grudges between the two of you. Those have nothing to do with me. I only hope that Your Highness can keep your promise and not disappoint us."

What Yun Feng said made the Crown Prince even more upset, like a layer of heavy dark clouds. "Don't worry. I'll definitely keep my promise to you, ma'am. I'll definitely do what you say. Even if there's a grudge between us, I won't make things difficult for her."

"Very good." Yun Feng nodded. "Your Highness's condition isn't optimistic right now. Luckily, you met me, so you can relax."

Chapter 1467 Trip to the North Sea (3)

The Crown Prince of the Clam Phoenix Tribe was delighted to hear that. He said so much because he was waiting for what Yun Feng said. However, Yun Feng had learned her lesson this time. It was best to keep a distance from everything. "Your Highness's condition is much worse than that of the guy last time... It's impossible for you to recover completely."

"Even you can't let me recover completely?"

Yun Feng nodded solemnly. "Even though the Sea Clan member was miserable last time, the situation was relatively light. Your Highness is the opposite right now. There's nothing unusual on the outside, but it's worrying on the inside." Er Lei was a bit surprised to see Yun Feng's serious look on the side. She was lying as if she was telling the truth. She was very good at lying!

"Then, how... can you heal me?" The Crown Prince of the Clam Phoenix Tribe looked at Yun Feng nervously. Yun Feng glanced around and saw Er Lei's admiring gaze. She held back her laughter in her mind and continued with a serious look, "It's just 70%... If Your Highness recovers well, you should be fine. However, the other 30% of the hidden dangers are enough to cause a relapse. Your Highness, you must pay more attention."

"Then can your potion formula delay the relapse?"

Yun Feng almost burst into laughter. She nodded and finally held back her laughter. "Sure, of course."

"Thank you, ma'am!" The hope and anticipation in the eyes of the Crown Prince of the Clam Phoenix Tribe made Yun Feng burst into laughter in her mind. 70% of the dragon breath rolling in the body of the Crown Prince of the Clam Phoenix Tribe was easily removed by Er Lei. Yun Feng deliberately left 30% in his body. Even though 30% of the dragon breath was small, it would still take his life sooner or later if it corroded him slowly.

After dealing with everything, Yun Feng specially asked the Crown Prince of the Clam Phoenix Tribe to keep his promise. The body of the Crown Prince of the Clam Phoenix Tribe hadn't recovered yet, so he certainly had to be more respectful to Yun Feng. However, he also had his own plans in his mind. Yun Feng was going to the North Sea this time. Once she left the West Sea, how would she know what he would do to Feng Yun? It was just 30% danger. Even if it relapsed, it might not be fatal! Feng Yun might have the map fragment in her hand. He wouldn't let her go no matter what!

After everything was settled, Yun Feng put away the Dragon Palace. The masters of the Clam Phoenix Tribe let Yun Feng go under the order of the Crown Prince. The Crown Prince of the Clam Phoenix Tribe sent Yun Feng there in person. When Yun Feng arrived at the border, the Crown Prince didn't forget to remind Yun Feng to be careful.

"Thank you for your concern, Your Highness. Please go back."

The Crown Prince of the Clam Phoenix Tribe didn't say anything. He turned around and went back. Yun Feng walked to the North Sea and looked back a few times. The defense around the border didn't reduce at all. She had expected the Crown Prince of the Clam Phoenix Tribe to have his own plan. However, he didn't know that the person he was chasing was right under his eyes and he even escorted her through the border himself. Once he knew the truth, he might be so angry that his heart and liver would hurt.

"Brilliant," whispered Er Lei on the side. Yun Feng smiled lightly. After walking a distance to the North Sea, she let Ao Jin out of the Dragon Palace. Ao Jin was very curious. "Why are you here? Kid, what did you do?"

Er Lei's expression was a bit weird. Yun Feng burst into laughter and winked at Ao Jin. "It's a secret."

Ao Jin was startled. "A secret? Why are you keeping it a secret from me? Lei, tell me!"

Thinking of Yun Feng's trickery skills, Er Lei was truly impressed. He laughed at Ao Jin. "I'm not telling you!"

"Lei, you're hiding something from me!" Ao Jin didn't expect Er Lei to have such an attitude. He immediately roared with anger. Er Lei burst into laughter and didn't care about Ao Jin at all. Yun Feng finally felt a bit more relaxed after hearing the conversation between the two of them. She had already got two map fragments that existed in the Endless Ocean. The habitat of the Dragons might be found in the North Sea, and she might have an answer about the secret location of the Blood Souls in the Endless Ocean. Everything would start again in the North Sea.

In the Endless Ocean, fighting was a common thing. Life and death were the least important things. The Sea Clan living in the north was undoubtedly the most aggressive. This was also the area that was most open to outsiders. As long as you had the strength, you could find a place that belonged to you in the North Sea. Here, everything was about strength.

Even though there were differences in bloodlines, strength was the most important factor. Yun Feng and the others hadn't entered the North Sea for long. They could see a lot of bones in the wilderness along the way that were left behind by different members of the Sea Clan after fierce battles. The bones could be seen almost everywhere along the way, which showed that fighting in this sea was common.

"This area is even more chaotic than we thought. If you don't provoke others, others will take the initiative to provoke you." Ao Jin saw countless skeletons along the way and said this conclusion in a low voice. Yun Feng also felt the same. It was impossible to survive in this sea area in peace. Provocations were everywhere. Even if you wanted to live a peaceful life, others wouldn't allow it.

"The wilderness is like this. I wonder what will happen in places where the Sea Clan lives?" Er Lei frowned. Yun Feng and Ao Jin couldn't help but think deeply after hearing this. There were only two situations where the Sea Clan lived. They would either live in peace or have rivers of blood.

"Do we have to take a detour?" Er Lei turned around and asked. Yun Feng frowned. Fighting was the most common thing here. There would definitely be a second time. Did they have to take a detour every time? Besides, with the terrain they were walking on right now, they would obviously have to take a huge detour. They weren't familiar with this sea to begin with. What if they took a long detour and went in the wrong direction?

"Why are we taking a detour? Just walk there. We're just passing by. So what?" Ao Jin roared angrily. Er Lei burst into laughter. Yun Feng nodded. "Uncle Flirtatious is right. Taking a detour can't avoid trouble and will delay our journey. We're just passing by. We don't care about anything else."

Chapter 1468 Trip to the North Sea (4)

The group continued moving forward. The further they went, the clearer the sounds of fighting became. It sounded like there were a lot of people participating in the battle and the battle was also unusually fierce. Yun Feng held her breath and focused, striding forward. After walking for another distance, a vast battlefield appeared in front of the three of them. Countless corpses were lying on the ground with the red blood that kept flowing out.

Apart from this pile of corpses, there were even more people continuing to fight on the corpses. The battle was fierce. Many members of the Sea Clan kept falling and turning into corpses, but even more members of the Sea Clan were aroused and threw themselves into the battle. Yun Feng looked at the scale of the battle and understood. There should be a battle between two groups of the Sea Clan. It was best for the three of them not to be involved.

“Pa!” A corpse flew over from somewhere and landed in front of Yun Feng’s feet. A few drops of fresh blood spurted on the back of Yun Feng’s feet. Yun Feng’s black eyes darkened and she stepped over, ignoring them.

“Pa!” Another corpse flew over and landed in front of Ao Jin’s feet this time. Ao Jin didn’t even look at it. He stepped on it and continued to ignore it.

“Pa!” Another corpse flew over and landed at Er Lei’s feet. Er Lei stepped on it quite hard. The lightning element burnt a small part of the corpse and he continued to ignore it.

“Clap, clap, clap!” Bodies kept flying over. The three of them stepped forward calmly and ignored them.

“Those three over there, stop!” A furious roar came. Yun Feng and the others stopped. Yun Feng turned around and looked at the two groups of Sea Clan members, who had stopped fighting at some point. She raised her brows and asked, “Are you talking to us?”

“Yes! The three of you!” A member of the Sea Clan, whose face was covered in blood, pulled out his arm and pointed at Yun Feng and the others with his sharp finger. “This is where we fight. You should go around it!”

Ao Jin raised his brows with glittering golden eyes. “Go around?”

“You three are outsiders, right? Hm! No wonder you don’t know the rules of the North Sea, but it doesn’t matter. I’ll teach you today!” The two groups of Sea Clan members, who were sworn enemies just then, were now on the same side. The remaining dozens of people instantly surrounded Yun Feng and the others.

“We’re just passing by,” said Er Lei with a cold face. There was only faint thunder in his hand. Yun Feng looked at the two groups of Sea Clan members, who were obviously fanatical and had already become enraged. It would be best if they could get away safely. If not, it seemed that a fierce battle was inevitable.

“You’re just passing by? Those who are passing by must know the rules! According to the rules of the North Sea, nobody is allowed to step into the place of battle. Once they do, it’ll be a provocation!” The enthusiasm in the eyes of the two groups of members of the Sea Clan hadn’t faded yet. They looked at Yun Feng and the others. “Since outsiders don’t understand this rule, we won’t hold it against you. If the three of you kowtow and apologize, we’ll let you go!”

Yun Feng frowned. The three of them had only entered by mistake, but those people didn’t let them go. The Sea Clan living in the North Sea was truly famous for their bad temper. Kowtow and apologize? Not to mention Yun Feng, there was ancient demon dragon blood in Er Lei’s body and Ao Jin was the Young Master of the Dragons. How would they kowtow and apologize to him?

“F*ck, say that again if you have the guts!” Er Lei roared with a gloomy face. The two groups of members of the Sea Clan, who were fighting excitedly, were immediately enraged. “Outsiders, you’re not convinced?”

“Of course I’m not convinced!” The thunder in Er Lei’s hand became louder and louder. “Hahaha, if you’re not convinced, come out and fight! Useless!”

“What the f*ck are you talking about?” Er Lei roared and was about to swing the thunderbolt in his hand, when Yun Feng shouted coldly, “Stop!” Er Lei put away the lightning element angrily. After all, he was Yun Feng’s contracted Magic Beast. He had to listen to Yun Feng’s command.

Ao Jin’s face darkened. “Get out of the way. Don’t force us to attack you.” Killing intent had already surged out of his golden eyes. The Sea Clan noticed that Ao Jin’s eyes were unusually bright and they all shouted, “Golden eyes? Noble bloodline? Do you really think you’re so great? Let me tell you, don’t talk nonsense about bloodline here!”

“Are you done? For the last time, we’re just passing by. We didn’t mean to offend you.” Yun Feng said in a deep voice as she glanced at the members of the Sea Clan in front of her with her black eyes. This was the last time. Her friendliness was limited. She had done her best!

“Swish!” A stream of fighting energy came from afar and went straight to Yun Feng’s side, wanting to cut Yun Feng’s body from the middle! Ao Jin’s golden eyes darkened as he raised his hand and slashed. A dragon breath jumped out and shattered the fighting energy! The suppressed thunder in Er Lei’s hand was suddenly released, turning the Sea Clan member who attacked just then into a burnt corpse in an instant!

“Kill!” The two groups of Sea Clan members, who were originally opposing each other, became allies at this moment. Dozens of Sea Clan members surrounded the three of them. Yun Feng knew that she didn’t have to hold back this time. She would kill as many as possible!

Until now, Yun Feng was the only one who didn’t do anything. Naturally, the Sea Clan thought that Yun Feng was the weakest one who needed protection. After all, Yun Feng looked weak and was a woman, so people would certainly think that she was weak. The Sea Clan immediately changed their direction. Someone took the lead and shouted, “Kill that woman!”

“Right! That woman is the weakest among the three of them. Kill her first!”

Ao Jin and Er Lei both looked a bit weird after hearing that, while Yun Feng stood there quietly with a cold smile on her red lips. She watched a dozen members of the Sea Clan nearby change their direction of attack at the last moment and pounce on her together. Yun Feng sneered and suddenly opened her slender hand. In front of her hand, a member of the Sea Clan was pouncing on her with a crazy laugh!

“Whoosh...” A ball of scorching fire darted out of Yun Feng’s hand and instantly enveloped the prey that came first!

“Argh!” There was a scream. The Sea Clan member in the fire twisted crazily and the screams kept coming, but the fire bit him firmly and didn’t let go! There was a cruel smile in her clear black eyes. The fire suddenly rose and the Sea Clan member wrapped inside had already gone silent. He turned into a burnt corpse and fell on the ground.

Chapter 1469 Trip to the North Sea (5)

The other members of the Sea Clan, who rushed over with the burnt corpse, were immediately dumbfounded. They looked at the burnt corpse on the ground and then at Yun Feng, who was calm.

Even a fool knew who among the three of them was the strongest! Yun Feng sneered with a hint of killing intent in her black eyes. The members of the Sea Clan didn't dare to stay any longer. They all made the same move and retreated!

The dozens of members of the Sea Clan who were fighting with Ao Jin and Er Lei didn't have any fighting spirit at all when they saw this collapse and run away. They immediately found an opportunity and ran away. After a while, only Yun Feng and the others were left in this chaotic scene, as well as a lot of corpses on the ground that were flowing with blood.

"Gasp..." Someone gasped. Yun Feng and the others glanced over. They were still angry that they were inexplicably involved in the fight just then. The three of them didn't look good. They only saw a figure hiding in a corner timidly. It was obvious that it was another passerby.

"I'm just passing by... I'm just passing by..." The figure looked at the three of them carefully and then at the corpses under their feet. He gasped again and ran crazily! Yun Feng couldn't help but smile helplessly when she saw this. She looked at the corpses under her feet. People would definitely think that the three of them did this.

"F*ck, this is ridiculous!" Er Lei roared angrily. Ao Jin walked over and looked at Yun Feng with concern. "Kid, are you alright?"

"I'm fine." Yun Feng shook her head with a smile. The two groups of Sea Clan members fighting just then were only at the early stage of the God Level. They were probably just some small tribes on the edge. They weren't a threat to the three of them at all. "Let's go. My nose is full of the smell of blood," said Ao Jin. The three of them immediately set off and left this area, continuing to go deeper into the North Sea.

Because there were too many conflicts in the North Sea, most members of the Sea Clan didn't live next to each other unless they had a very good relationship. There would be a huge battle if there was any conflict! The races in the North Sea was very scattered. Usually, each race had their own territory. Outsiders had to be extremely careful when they entered here. There were certainly so-called public areas between countless territories. In the public areas, all races had to abide by the rules here. No private fights were allowed in the so-called public areas. Once anyone fought, someone would deal with them.

After traveling for a few days, Yun Feng and the others came to the first public area in the North Sea. After arriving at the public area, Yun Feng obviously felt that the atmosphere here was much calmer and quieter, far away from the smell of bloody battles. The members of the Sea Clan who were active here wouldn't fight even if there were conflicts. They would agree to settle them outside of this area. Yun Feng thought to herself that it seemed that this area was special in the North Sea.

There was another thing that made Yun Feng feel obviously different, which was the influence of the three of them. After they entered this place, every member of the Sea Clan seemed to turn around and look at the three of them inexplicably with an extremely complicated gaze. Some of them were excited, some respectful, and some were terrified and afraid, which made Yun Feng and the others confused.

Were they attracted by their appearance? Yun Feng and Ao Jin were both handsome and beautiful, but Er Lei was far from that. It was pure nonsense that his messy image could attract people's attention.

Apart from their appearance, what else could there be? The three of them had just arrived. Nobody would know them. They had just arrived. Why did these people who turned around and looked at them seem to be very familiar with them? Yun Feng and the others' doubts were soon explained. This public area was a small city. There was a noticeboard in all the lively places in the small city. The things important or new that happened in the North Sea would be posted on it. Yun Feng walked to the noticeboard and someone immediately noticed her!

"Argh!" With a cry, the group of people in front of Yun Feng quickly walked away. Yun Feng was suspicious and continued walking forward. "Argh!" Another group of people was scared away. Ao Jin and Er Lei were also extremely confused. It wasn't until the three of them walked to the noticeboard and saw something stuck on it that they realized something. When they turned around again and saw the other members of the Sea Clan pointing at them, they felt quite complicated.

The cowardly figure Yun Feng and the others met that day was a famous loudmouth in the North Sea. Most of the news came from his mouth. There was nothing he didn't know. He could be said to be a know-it-all in the North Sea. He described what happened that day vividly. Yun Feng and the others' appearances were also written in detail without any mistake. In this know-it-all's description, Yun Feng and the others became a powerful group that slaughtered two large teams of Sea Clan members. The three of them stepped on the corpses on the ground. The scene could be imagined. No wonder those Sea Clan members were so respectful of them.

"Hm, that's good too, in case anyone takes the initiative to cause trouble!" said Ao Jin. He had golden eyes, golden hair and handsome facial features. He was originally a handsome man, but the fierce expression on his face made him look a bit more ferocious, not to mention Er Lei next to him.

Know-it-all... Yun Feng thought of the cowering figure she saw that day and her red lips curled up slightly. She glanced at the many members of the Sea Clan watching on the side. "Uncle Flirtatious, Er Lei, let's go!" Yun Feng shouted. The three of them left the noticeboard. Er Lei said fiercely, "That know-it-all is so mean!"

As soon as she said that, Yun Feng suddenly saw a familiar figure! Before Yun Feng did anything, that figure saw Yun Feng first and then turned around to run!

"Isn't that the know-it-all?" Ao Jin's golden eyes glittered and he had already chased after him crazily. Er Lei also chased after him with a curse. After the three of them chased after him, the figure had already disappeared. Ao Jin and Er Lei looked around and scolded angrily, "Why did that bastard run so quickly?"

Yun Feng, on the other hand, put on a smile with her red lips. She twisted her wrist and the Finger Spiritual Jade appeared! Looking at the flashing lightning that was constantly moving on it, Yun Feng smiled deeply. There had never been anyone who could escape from her hand!

"Don't worry. Let him run. Let's find a place to rest first. There are a lot of things we need to know about the North Sea." Yun Feng chuckled with a very relaxed tone. Er Lei and Ao Jin immediately understood what Yun Feng meant. Ao Jin chuckled and rubbed Yun Feng's head with his big hand. Looking at Yun Feng's empty shoulder, Ao Jin couldn't help but heave a sigh of relief.

Chapter 1470 Trip to the North Sea (6)

Meatball went into Yun Feng's bracelet by itself. In Na Xie's words, it needed to replenish energy, and a large amount of energy at that. The fate of the Ultimate Crystal Beast was worrying.

The three of them found a random place to settle down in this small city and didn't go to a lively place. After all, the three of them were quite famous. They were pointed at wherever they went. This was all thanks to that Mr. Know-it-all. The three of them sat on a high ground and looked down at the small city. Yun Feng, on the other hand, took out the Finger Spiritual Jade and saw that the little dot of light was still moving constantly. It stopped for a moment and then moved in another direction, constantly changing back and forth, which showed how vigilant that Mr. Know-it-all was.

"What's this?" Ao Jin looked at the Finger Spiritual Jade in Yun Feng's hand and the flashing light spot that kept moving on it curiously. Yun Feng chuckled. "This is the Finger Spiritual Jade. As long as someone's aura is recorded in it and he appears near me, he'll be exposed on the Finger Spiritual Jade no matter how he hides himself."

"This thing is quite novel! Whoever they are, they'll be revealed around you!"

"Not necessarily. Even though the Finger Spiritual Jade has never been wrong, there will always be mistakes."

Er Lei looked at the constantly moving light and electricity on the side and smiled in disdain. "Coward, loser!"

"People who sell information for a living certainly have to be more careful. After all, they know too much, including some things they shouldn't know." Yun Feng looked at the light spot on the jade pendant. Ao Jin was deep in thought. "We can get a lot of information from him."

"Hm, that's indeed the case. Perhaps this know-it-all will give us a surprise."

"He's so vigilant. How can we get close to him?" Er Lei looked at the moving dot on the Finger Spiritual Jade and raised his brows. Yun Feng burst into laughter. "Even the most vigilant person will relax sometimes. Just follow him. With the Finger Spiritual Jade, I'll be able to catch up with him no matter where he goes!"

Just like that, more than two months passed. Yun Feng also realized that this know-it-all was unusually vigilant. He first roamed around the city for a few days and finally left this small city, constantly changing his direction. After a month, he started to approach this small city again and finally returned to the city. Then, he never moved again. It seemed that he was completely relieved.

They followed him from afar along the way. Yun Feng and the others also sighed. If it weren't for the Finger Spiritual Jade, they would probably have lost him long ago. The movement speed of this man who knew everything was very strange. Yun Feng thought of Luo Teng's speed, which was much faster than hers.

After waiting quietly for half a month, nothing happened. Yun Feng was sure that he had already relaxed. After all, he could get rid of the three of them with his speed. He didn't know that Yun Feng had a heaven-defying thing like the Finger Spiritual Jade in her hand.

After two months, Yun Feng decided to take action. She came to a remote corner of the small city with Ao Jin and Er Lei. There was a very inconspicuous small house here. The three of them walked to the front of the house and looked at each other. Er Lei kicked and Yun Feng and Ao Jin blocked the door of the house. Yun Feng extended her foot in the air and saw a black shadow flying past her foot. Ao Jin extended his hand and carried the figure back to the house.

“It’s you! Didn’t I get rid of you?” The figure that kept struggling in Ao Jin’s hand stopped immediately after seeing Yun Feng. Ao Jin let go of him and he landed on the ground. He had a short body, short limbs and a very wretched face. There were also a few long whiskers on his cheeks, which made him look a bit like a rat.

“You still want to hide? We won’t do anything to you. We just want to ask you something. If you answer the questions well, we’ll forgive you for slandering us.” Yun Feng said indifferently. The know-it-all rolled his eyes. Yun Feng sneered. “You want to escape? Sure. Do you believe that I can find you no matter where you run?”

The know-it-all trembled and knew that Yun Feng wasn’t lying. He thought he got rid of them, but he was caught by these three people. Even if he could escape, he would face the same result. These three people seemed to have some special means... He shouldn’t fight them head-on.

“What do you want to ask? If it involves some secrets, I’ll charge you.”

“You’re f*cking charging?” Er Lei roared in disbelief. The know-it-all patted himself with both hands and his expression became much calmer and stable. “You must know that it’s not easy to be in our line of work. Is it easy to make a living these days? People like us, who are fighting on the front line, can’t give away the information we got from the dangers for nothing. However... I can give you a discount. Regular customers are the most important.”

Yun Feng was completely speechless.

As expected of a know-it-all. He had to be capable to survive in the Endless Ocean by selling information. Most of the information he had wasn’t something ordinary people could hear. Without a certain economic foundation, one wouldn’t be able to access any information in the hands of a know-it-all.

“Your price.” Yun Feng said. She knew that it was useless to use force with such a person.

The know-it-all chuckled. “You know the rules best. You know how to talk business.”

“F*ck, cut the crap!” Er Lei roared unhappily on the side. The know-it-all didn’t care about this and was still smiling sneakily. “The price depends on the level of information you want. The price of information of different levels is certainly different. It depends on your choice.”

“What information do you have?” Yun Feng raised her brows. What she wanted to know wasn’t ordinary. The know-it-all chuckled. “Down to the trivial matters that happen to every member of the Sea Clan, up to the secrets of all the senior members of the Sea Clan in the Endless Ocean. Of course, there’s also some special information. I wonder if you can afford it.”

“You’re selling your information repeatedly?” Yun Feng raised her brows. The know-it-all immediately shook his head. “Of course not. This violates my professional ethics! All the information is unique. If you buy it, it’ll be gone!”
