

Summoner 331

Chapter 331: Return to the Capital (4)

Qu Lanyi had been particularly sticky over the days, as if she feared that Yun Feng would suddenly leave. Yun Feng didn't know what she could do about Qu Lanyi's excessive intimacy. Should she scold her for having a thick skin? That would be inappropriate. Qu Lanyi had been helping her anyway, although she had a weird personality and treated other people in an entirely different way. Sometimes, Yun Feng even wondered if she was truly interested her in a sexual way.

Soon, the holiday for the students of the Masang School of Magic came. Everybody packed up their stuff, ready to go home. Yun Feng had little luggage, and so did Qu Lanyi. Yun Feng believed that she had storage containers too. She had no doubt that Qu Lanyi had plenty of secrets, and the jade pendant that she wore on her neck was definitely one of the biggest.

"Fengfeng, let's go." Qu Lanyi smiled at Yun Feng, and grabbed Yun Feng's hand without hesitation. Yun Feng unconsciously dodged, but Qu Lanyi didn't give her the chance. She held onto her. Yun Feng smiled. When Qu Lanyi seized her hand, she unconsciously felt that Qu Lanyi's hand was longer and more beautiful than hers.

Mu Xiaojin was waiting for Yun Feng at the door. Seeing Yun Feng and Qu Lanyi holding their hands, she couldn't help but chuckle. For some reason, Yun Feng felt that her face was hot. Qu Lanyi, on the other hand, smiled unconcernedly. Yun Feng had already informed her father that Mu Xiaojin and Qu Lanyi would return with her and her brother. Her father had no objection.

After they joined each other, they were about to leave, when Kasa appeared again. Kasa walked to Kasa and gazed at her. "What is it? Just say it." Yun Feng was rather impatient. She had been agitated by Kasa's attitude. Seeing her anger, Kasa quickly said, "My father hopes that you could visit the royal family."

After saying that, Kasa turned around and left, as if she didn't want to stay at all. Yun Feng didn't reply, but moved to the bat area with her companions. "Yun Feng, are you going to visit?" Mu Xiaojin looked at Yun Feng with her big eyes. Yun Feng smiled, but didn't say anything. Would she visit the royal family? It depended on her mood.

The four of them reached the bat area, only to discover that there was not a single bat in the place. There was a long line waiting in front of the bat area. The Masang School of Magic didn't have a lot of bats. Although it didn't have many students either, the bats were not enough for them during the holiday time.

Yun Feng saw that the line was quite long, and knew that they would have to wait for a long time. Hardly had they started waiting when Yun Feng saw a familiar person again. She became gloomy. Kasa stood in the distance, as if she was too scared to approach. However, after gathering her courage, Kasa finally walked close.

"I only wanted to ask if you want to come with me."

Yun Sheng and Yun Feng looked at each other, while Kasa stood there awkwardly. She wasn't really fond of Yun Feng, and was only sucking up to her at her father's instruction.

Yun Sheng smiled. "Thank you for your kindness, but no."

Kasa seemed rather embarrassed. After all, as the royal princess, it was perhaps the first time she had ever invited anyone, and yet she was declined. She would never have invited anyone, and certainly not Yun Feng, if she were capable of making her own decision. She became quite angry too.

Hearing what Yun Sheng said, Kasa turned around and left, and Yun Feng's lips curled. This was perhaps the best moment to make fun of the princess.

Noticing Yun Feng's expression, Qu Lanyi couldn't help but smile. "Fengfeng, you are truly a little devil. Speaking of which, do you even need the bats?"

Yun Sheng was dazed, and he and Mu Xiaojin thought of different things. Yun Sheng remembered Little Fire, which had held him in its mouth and carried him on a journey. Mu Xiaojin, on the other hand, thought of Lan Yi, the giant beautiful griffin...

Yun Feng's lips curled. Qu Lanyi had generously regarded her Magic Beasts as vehicles...

"Let's get out of here first." Yun Feng nodded, and Qu Lanyi's smile became bigger and bigger. Yun Sheng and Mu Xiaojin couldn't help but look back at Yun Feng, who smiled back at them and said, "Qu Lanyi is right. We don't need the bats."

Getting out through the Masang School of Magic's gate, Yun Feng locked the space with her mental strength. All four of them were aware of her identity as a summoner, so she didn't have to keep it a secret anymore. She took out the green Ring of Contract, whose patterns made Qu Lanyi widen her eyes. She put on the ring and said, "Lan Yi, come out."

A green streak of light flashed from the ring and landed on the ground, taking the shape of a handsome and elegant man. The mysterious blue tattoos on his cheek made him seem rather mysterious.

"Master." Lan Yi greeted Yun Feng after it appeared. The next second, it stood in front of Yun Feng and stared at Qu Lanyi, "Who are you? Don't approach my master!"

The unexpected turn of events surprised everyone. Standing behind Lan Yi, Yun Feng was rather surprised. What was wrong with Lan Yi? Qu Lanyi, on the other hand, seemed frustrated. "Fengfeng, what's with your Magic Beast? Why is it so hostile? I'm your roommate!"

Lan Yi had been staring at Qu Lanyi vigilantly. "Lan Yi, what's the matter?" asked Yun Feng telepathically. Lan Yi replied, "For some reason, she gives me a dangerous feeling. Very, very dangerous."

Yun Feng glanced at Qu Lanyi and then stroked Lan Yi's back. "That's fine. She's a friend."

Lan Yi was finally relieved, but it didn't completely let down its guard. Yun Feng smiled and said something to Lan Yi. Lan Yi immediately nodded, and then was shrouded in green light. The next moment, a big beautiful griffin appeared, with white fur, an awe-inspiring body, and mysterious wings that had blue patterns. Yun Sheng raised his head and looked at the powerful Magic Beast proudly.

Chapter 332: Return to the Capital (5)

"Let's go." Yun Feng smiled and then leaped to Lan Yi's back with Mu Xiaojin, followed by Yun Sheng and Qu Lanyi. All four of them were seated on the griffin's back, which was quite spacious. Lan Yi flapped its wings, and Yun Feng unlocked the space with her mental strength in the next second. “Shua...” A beautiful streak of blue light rose from the Masang School of Magic in the dark forest’s direction.

Lan Yi kept flapping its wings. The four passengers embraced the wind, which raised the girls’ long hair. Qu Lanyi’s pretty face seemed even prettier when her hair was fluttering. Lan Yi suddenly sped up and flew across the dark forest. There was nothing but silence on its path, without the slightest sound. It was not until it disappeared in the distance that sighs of relief echoed in the wood. Two guys who had been hiding in a corner looked at the blue ray of light that was getting further and further away and shook their heads.

“The madam is finally gone.” The brawny man heaved a sigh of relief. The tall and slim young man laughed too. “About time. But what was that Magic Beast about? It seems too strong to be anyone’s mount.”

The brawny man rolled eyes at him. “Why would I know? Maybe something is wrong with his head. I would rather die before I serve as anyone’s mount!”

The tall and slim young man was amused. He said, “Big brother, don’t make such a statement yet. If the madam is in the mood to ride you someday, you’ll have to bend, won’t you?”

The brawny man smiled bitterly. “What a frustrating life this is... Will it ever end?”

There was a fairly long distance between the Karan Empire’s capital and the Masang School of Magic. The capital was located in the north of the Karan Empire, whereas the Masang School of Magic was in the south. Even Lan Yi had to fly for two days to cross the distance. The long journey wasn’t a problem for the four passengers, as the griffin’s soft fur was free blankets and quilts that prevented them from feeling cold at night. Lan Yi didn’t need any rest in a two-day flight. When it flew at high altitudes, everything down below was as tiny as toys. After flying for two days and one night, Yun Feng looked at the prosperous city in the distance from Lan Yi’s back.

Yun Sheng rose and stood next to Yun Feng. Together, they gazed at the prosperous city that they were approaching, appreciating the high-rising buildings and the sophisticated architectural work. That was the capital, the most honorable place in the Karan Empire where all the major families hoped to have a seat. The Karan Royal Family dominated this place, under the protection of many top experts who had been hiding themselves. Did the Yun family really thrive here before? Yun Feng thought and watched in silence. The brother and sister simply watched like that. This was their first trip to the capital. Neither of them had seen the Yun family’s splendor, or the Karan Royal Family’s concession. However, they could totally imagine how glorious their family must’ve been in the old days!

“We’re finally back...” The ancestor’s sigh echoed in Yun Feng’s head. The sigh seemed to contain a lot of complicated feelings. Yun Feng smiled. She could understand her ancestor. The Yun family had missed the capital for a long time. Its glories had been buried in the passage of time. The Yun family was once at the peak of this place, but it had to leave in frustration. However, at this moment, the Yun family had made an unstoppable comeback!

“The Yun family has returned to the capital!” Yun Feng announced to the city far away. Lan Yi seemed to share Yun Feng’s feelings, and suddenly flapped its wings. A blue streak of light crossed the sky, making all the hidden experts open their eyes. They all had the same feeling: the family that once stood on top of other families in the capital had returned with its summoner!

On Lan Yi's back, Yun Feng stared at the capital that she was approaching, and remembered something. She took Meatball out of the bracelet where it had been sleeping. Meatball seemed drowsy when it was taken out. It blinked its big eyes and looked at Yun Feng pitifully. Seeing that, Yun Feng extended her finger and snapped Meatball's forehead, making it howl in complaint. After seeing the scenery around, it quickly climbed onto Yun Feng's shoulder and wriggled quickly, looking in every direction in excitement.

"Nana, nana!" Meatball shouted aloud, no longer lethargic, as if it were a tiger that had just been awakened! Yun Feng chuckled and touched Meatball with her finger, and Meatball nuzzled against Yun Feng's cheek with its body. They were almost kissing each other.

"What's this?" A voice suddenly came into Yun Feng's ears. Yun Feng felt that the burden on her shoulder was relieved, as Meatball had been picked up. It immediately grimaced scarily and looked back at the person who grabbed it. Qu Lanyi looked at Meatball up and down and asked Yun Feng, "Is it also a Magic Beast that you've contracted? For fun?"

Meatball jerked quickly and struck the back of Qu Lanyi's hand with its furry tail. "Tsk!" Qu Lanyi immediately let go of it, but her hand was already red and swollen. She rubbed her hand and tried to approach Yun Feng, but Meatball opened its mouth and bared its fangs, stopping Qu Lanyi from moving forward.

Meatball dashed back to Yun Feng's shoulder and shivered, as if it felt very uncomfortable to have been touched by someone else. Mu Xiaojin looked at Meatball and wanted to touch it too, but she eventually gave up the thought. Yun Sheng, on the other hand, put on a helpless smile. That little creature remained as close to his sister as before.

Chapter 333: The Summoner's Dignity (1)

"Fengfeng, why is it so bad-tempered? Can't I even touch it?" Qu Lanyi's eyes were moist with tears, which made her look rather pitiful. Also, she had a beautiful face. Any man who saw her would be protective of her. Yun Sheng turned aside and coughed awkwardly. "It's Feng's Magic Beast. You'd better not touch it. It doesn't allow anyone else to approach."

Qu Lanyi raised her brows and gazed at Meatball, and Meatball was gazing at her too. Qu Lanyi moved her finger, and Meatball immediately opened its mouth. The scary expression on its cute little face was rather intimidating. Qu Lanyi waved her hand, showing that she wasn't interested in it anymore. Meatball then closed its mouth too. Yun Feng touched Meatball's body, and made it feel better. It nuzzled Yun Feng's cheek, trying to please her. Qu Lanyi seemed angry after seeing that, but it only made Meatball more proud. It even wagged its tail provocatively.

"Xiao Feng, can you keep it unleashed?" asked Mu Xiaojin. Yun Feng smiled. "I'm a summoner. Isn't it natural for a summoner to bring a Magic Beast with her?"

Meatball raised its head and shouted in joy, as if it was delighted. It then nuzzled again, making Yun Feng feel itchy. Lan Yi had already approached the capital. "Master, where are we going to land?"

Yun Feng, however, smiled. "Just fly into it!"

The other passengers were all dazed to hear that. After the initial shock, Qu Lanyi burst into laughter, and was about to lean against Yun Feng again, but she stopped after seeing Meatball's expression. "Fengfeng, you're truly awesome. Flying into the city isn't a bad idea."

"Feng, is it really appropriate?" Yun Sheng was quite excited, and a little bit uneasy. What shocking news it would be if they just flew into the city? How would the residents feel when they saw a Magic Beast flying across the sky with passengers on its back?

"I'm a summoner. I deserve to be awesome. Lan Yi, let's go!" Yun Feng laughed and gave the command. Feeling its master's mood, Lan Yi instantly flapped its wings and dashed into the Karan Empire's sky in a beautiful blue streak of light!

"Look! What's that?" In a square in the capital of the Karan Empire, someone pointed at the vague blue object that crossed the sky. Many people craned their heads and looked at its trajectory. The residents were all puzzled. "Is it a bird?" someone guessed.

"A bird? How can a bird be so big? It looks like an enormous living creature. It can't be a Magic Beast, can it?" Most of the residents became pale. A Magic Beast was flying across the capital's sky? How was it possible?

"Are you stupid? If it were a Magic Beast, it would've been hunted long before it reached here!" Someone waved their hands unconcernedly, and resumed their business. The bright blue object soon flew away. Many people still watched curiously, wondering what it was.

Seated on Lan Yi's back, Yun Feng found that the things on the ground were too small. "Lan Yi, descend." After she said that, Lan Yi began to descend steadily, until it was only several hundred meters from the ground. The people on the ground finally saw clearly what it was.

"A Magic Beast! It's a Magic Beast!" some people shouted in panic. There was even a riot. Yun Feng happened to be passing the most prosperous street in the capital, and caused continuous exclamations on the ground. Many were shouting about the invasion of a Magic Beast, and running in panic.

"What's going on? What's going on?" The patrolmen who were responsible for safety had arrived. The crowd was already a mess. Many people were running in fright. One of the patrolmen caught a runner and asked, "What's going on? Why are you running?"

The person who was caught pointed at the high sky, where Lan Yi was hovering. "A Magic Beast! There's a Magic Beast here!"

All the patrolmen raised their heads, and changed their expression when they saw Lan Yi. "C-Captain, what do we do?" They all looked pale, as the Magic Beast was too enormous for them to deal with. If it landed, it would cause a catastrophe to the capital! When exactly did the Magic Beast appear? Damn it!

"Inform His Majesty of the invasion of a Magic Beast! You, disperse the crowd and stay on guard!" The captain gave an order to his teammates, who immediately carried out the order. Lan Yi was only hovering in this place because Yun Feng was speaking to her father.

"Father, I'm back. I'm in the capital right now. Where exactly has the Yun family moved to?" Yun Feng took out her Sound Transmission Jade and talked to her father. Very soon, Yun Jing replied. After learning of the specific location of the Yun family, Yun Feng cut the communication and put away the Sound Transmission Jade. Then, Mu Xiaojin asked worriedly, “Xiao Feng, have we caused trouble?”

“Huh?” Yun Feng was stunned. She didn’t really understand what Mu Xiaojin meant. Qu Lanyi pointed down lazily, “There, look down.”

Yun Feng finally looked down, only to discover that the area down below was filled with fully-armed soldiers. Yun Feng couldn’t help but frown and pat Lan Yi’s back. “Let’s go to the south of the capital. The Yun family is there.”

Lan Yi flapped its wings and changed its direction, about to fly south, when a few men appeared out of nowhere in Lan Yi’s way. Lan Yi had to stop. The strangers, upon seeing that there were passengers on the Magic Beast’s back, all gasped hard!

“This is...” One of the men solemnly glanced at the four passengers on Lan Yi’s back. When he saw Meatball on Yun Feng’s shoulder, his facial muscles cramped. Were his eyes deceiving him? It was a Magic Beast that was standing on the girl’s shoulder...

Chapter 334: The Summoner’s Dignity (2)

“Who are you? How dare you break into the capital on a Magic Beast?” One of them roared with fury on his face, as if he would burst out at any moment. Yun Sheng spoke loudly, “We didn’t mean this. We’re only...”

“You didn’t mean this? Such colossal Magic Beasts are forbidden from entering the capital!” the short-tempered man roared again, interrupting Yun Sheng. He glanced at the four passengers, with disdain on his face. “You think you can show off because you can tame beasts? Kids, don’t get too cocky. The capital isn’t a place where you can do anything you want!”

The man next to him felt that his heart was racing, but didn’t say anything. In his eyes, those strangers were just teenagers who couldn’t be older than twenty. They must’ve entered the city on such a huge Magic Beast to show off. Did they think they were awesome? So childish.

“Now, leave the capital on your mount right now!” shouted the short-tempered man again. Yun Feng became completely cold, and stopped her big brother, “Sir, you didn’t even let us finish defending ourselves before you made your accusation. Just who might you be?”

The short-tempered man laughed and looked at Yun Feng scornfully in midair. “Little girl, you must be the one who’s reining this Magic Beast, right? Do you think you are awesome because you are a tamer? Why don’t you try to become a summoner?”

Yun Sheng, Qu Lanyi and Mu Xiaojin were all amused to hear that. A summoner? He was quite right. Yun Feng was exactly a summoner!

“Stupid human beings!” Lan Yi looked at the man who talked in disdain, and commented casually. Immediately, the man burst out like a firecracker.

“Why do you think you’re qualified to talk to me? Get the hell out of the capital right now, or I’ll show you no mercy! Get lost on the count of three!”

Only two men were standing in front of Yun Feng. They seemed rather capable, as they were flying in midair. Generally speaking, only the Commander Level experts, who had grasped part of the laws of space, could fly for a short amount of time.

Only one of the men had been talking furiously, and the other was just watching coldly, without support or argument. However, the two of them were actually the same. In their eyes, Yun Feng and her companions were just arrogant kids who must be taught a lesson. Of course, it might also be because they were jealous.

In this world, mages and tamers were most similar to summoners. Tamers were often confused with summoners, who could be distinguished by the Ring of Contract they wore. However, there was not a ring on Yun Feng's hand. Obviously, the two men mistook Yun Feng for a tamer, who was usually condescending. Although they were no summoners, they were capable of domesticating the lesser Magic Beasts, and were gods in the eyes of the ordinary people.

However, in the eyes of the top experts, the tamers were just snobs. They were no summoners, yet they wanted to be treated as summoners. They were just counterfeits that pretended to be authentic goods. The experts did envy the tamers. After all, it was awesome to have a Magic Beast as a mount, and it was impossible to let a Magic Beast obey without a tamer.

Maybe because tamers and summoners were so similar and the summoners were so rare, the tamers gradually forgot who they were and considered themselves superior. They were arrogant wherever they went. The tamers hired by the Karan Royal Family, in particular, were always cocky. Other experts didn't like them.

Naturally, Yun Feng's dramatic entrance as such a young girl made the two experts feel uncomfortable. Their age and their strength made them despise Yun Feng strongly. They thought that Yun Feng was only showing off and deserved to be taught a lesson.

"Three..." The short-tempered man started to count. Yun Feng stood on Lan Yi's back without moving, and rolled her eyes. "Two..." Another number. The two men looked rather impatient. Yun Feng looked down, and saw a few residents on the street. She didn't realize that she had to fight so soon after she returned to the capital.

"No need to count," said Yun Feng coldly. They didn't do anything. What was wrong with a summoner riding her own Magic Beast? Yet, these two strangers attacked her like rabid dogs without giving her a chance to explain herself. They simply barked without stop. The only choice left for her was to fight them!

"What an arrogant girl! I'll teach you a lesson for your parents!" The furious man took out his weapon and brandished it, causing an ear splitting noise in the air.

Yun Feng sneered. "You aren't qualified to do that!"

"You should've reconsidered! Check this out!" roared the man. The other man was prepared to fight too. Yun Sheng became gloomy. Although he always had a good temper, he had run out of patience with these two nasty strangers. When a battle was about to break out, a voice suddenly echoed, and a powerful air current pushed aside the two men who were charging.

“What are you doing? Stop!” The person who just appeared shocked the two men, who put away their weapons and greeted the newcomer prudently and respectfully, “Lord Randal, what brought you here?”

Randal turned around and smiled at Yun Feng awkwardly. “Yun Feng, my young friend, it’s been a long time. Welcome back.”

Hearing that, the two men were so shocked that their jaws almost hit the ground. Seriously? Why was Lord Randal so courteous? Wasn’t he only courteous to the emperor? The two men’s hearts were racing. Was this girl a person that they couldn’t mess with?

Chapter 335: The Summoner’s Dignity (3)

Yun Feng’s lips curled. “Indeed, and I’ve been well welcomed on my return.”

Randal’s expression was frozen. “Hehe... They’re ignorant of the rules. Don’t feel offended by them, alright?”

“Lord Randal...” The short-tempered man opened his mouth, but Randal simply turned around and snapped, “Shut up!”

The two men immediately kept their mouths shut, not daring to say another word. They stood there, so puzzled that their heads were almost exploding. Even if that girl had a special identity, she was a tamer at best. It’s not like she was a summoner. The Karan Royal Family had other tamers. Why did Lord Randal speak to her so respectfully?

Yun Feng raised her brows, and put on a sarcastic smile at Randal. Randal stiffened again, and mumbled to himself, if you weren’t a summoner, I wouldn’t have demeaned myself by talking to you so obsequiously at all!

Yun Sheng pulled his sister’s arm. “In such a case, Feng certainly wouldn’t feel offended. Thank you for your help, Lord Randal.”

Randal finally looked better at this moment, as Yun Sheng had shown him some respect. Yun Feng smiled and said, “Now that my brother put it that way, I’ll just let them go. Ask them to get out of my way.” Yun Feng glanced at the two men coldly. If they thought she was arrogant, she might as well be!

Both men looked rather gloomy. With their identity, they had ever encountered such a situation, and felt too ashamed to give in. Randal clenched his fists and shouted at them, “What are you waiting for? Get out of her way!”

Both men raised their heads in surprise. Randal looked quite awful too. The two men reluctantly moved away, making way for Yun Feng. Yun Feng patted Lan Yi’s back, and Lan Yi flapped its wings after glancing at them in disdain, causing such a strong wind that the two men were almost blown to the ground. After Lan Yi flew away, both of the men cursed.

“F*ck, Lord Randal, why did you treat the girl so courteously?”

“Indeed. Lord Randal, you’re so honorable that she wasn’t even qualified to clean your shoes for you!”

Randal enjoyed their adulation, and the two men were even more motivated. “Which family is she from? Let’s find an excuse and teach them a lesson!”

“That’s right! She embarrassed Lord Randal so badly, and deserves to be killed!”

The two men were no fools, and knew that they were probably too weak to deal with Yun Feng. Randal, however, was different. As the emperor’s bodyguard who had received some of the most honored titles, he could probably kill Yun Feng easily with a snap of fingers, if Yun Feng was just an ordinary person.

The two men peeped at Randal, and tried to sound persuasive. However, Randal was a top expert anyway. Although he enjoyed all their adulations, he wasn’t so stupid as to be instigated. He coldly glanced at the two men who were still talking. They immediately shut up.

“Keep your distance from her! Whenever you see her in the future, just avoid her. Don’t bother whatever she’s doing!”

The two men looked at each other in bewilderment. W-What’s going on? The short-tempered man couldn’t hold it any longer. “Lord Randal, I know that the Karan Royal Family has been recruiting elites, but that girl is just a tamer anyway. My lord, you know that the tamers all need to be disciplined! We cannot vent our fury unless we find the opportunity to teach her a lesson!”

Randal changed his expression and narrowed his eyes. “Who told you that she’s a tamer?”

The short-tempered man was stunned. “She reined a Magic Beast without a Ring of Contract. What else could she be?”

Randal looked even more sullen. “Who told you that summoners must wear the Rings of Contract?”

The two men trembled hard upon hearing that, and fell to the ground from midair, making a lot of soldiers exclaim in surprise. After hitting the ground, the two men could only think of one thing: had they pissed off a summoner? They looked at each other with a bitter smile. Lord Randal was right. They had to keep their distance from that girl in the future. To offend a summoner was no different than to court death.

Lan Yi flew all the way to the south of the capital, raising rounds of exclamations on the streets. Very soon, the news spread out in the capital that a mysterious gigantic Magic Beast was flying in the sky above the capital. Some speculated that the Magic Beast was under control. Everybody else agreed with the speculation. Most people guessed that the Karan Empire had just recruited a new tamer. However, a small proportion of people proposed a theory that excited everybody: a summoner was here!

Instantly, the possibility of a summoner was discussed heatedly in every corner in the capital. The profession that had been gone in the Karan Empire for hundreds of years ever since the passing of the last summoner thrilled the residents. How fantastic would it be if a summoner had come? That would bring such honor to the Karan Empire!

The south of the capital was the territory of the nobles, where a lot of famous families of the Karan Empire were based. Two of them were most popular among the noble families. They could even compare to the royal family. They were connected to the royal family closely through more than one arranged marriage, so they had completely melted into the circle of the Karan Royal Family.

De was one of the two families. It mastered most of the Karan Empire's political connections and military powers. It was quite close to the royal family by blood. It was said that the leader of the De family hundreds of years earlier was the then emperor's cousin. The De family became even closer to the royal family during its development. Most members of the De family were in important posts in the army, and some others were politicians that provided powerful support for the Karan Empire. The Karan Royal Family relied on the De family more than it relied on the other family.

Chapter 336: The Summoner's Dignity (4)

In the Karan Empire's castle, the emperor and a friendly-looking middle-aged man were having a pleasant conversation. They were clicking their cups now and then with obvious joy. "De Lan, this son of yours is very promising." The emperor smiled, and so did the middle-aged man on his opposite side. The smile made him seem even more friendly. He was born to be approachable.

"You flatter me, Your Majesty. My son cannot compare to your children. All of them have unlimited potential." De Lan smiled humbly. The emperor laughed loudly hearing that. "You think I don't know my children? They're nothing compared to your son!"

De Lan smiled and didn't say anything. After talking and smiling for a while, the emperor finally approached the topic with glittering eyes. "You've heard about the matter, right?"

De Lan was slightly dazed, and then nodded. "I didn't expect the change of schedule. Are the other empires all fine with it?"

"Humph, why would they object? Liuyun is probably the happiest to hear that. They think they'll still be the champion."

De Lan raised his brows and glanced at the emperor, who smiled mysteriously with suppressed excitement on his face and said, "But this time, the Karan Empire will become the champion! Absolutely!"

De Lan smiled and raised his cup. "May your dream come true, Your Majesty."

The emperor laughed and drank up the wine in his cup. "I knew you wouldn't believe me. The Karan Empire's long wait was worth it. De Lan, the person I've been waiting for has shown up!"

When De Lan heard that, his hands and the cup that he was holding trembled. "Your Majesty, do you mean..."

"Hahaha, that's right! A summoner! The Karan Empire's summoner has emerged!"

De Lan's heart raced. He asked without changing his expression, "Is the summoner also from the Yun family?"

The emperor laughed again, apparently in a very good mood. "Yes, the declined Yun family. It was truly surprising. A summoner has risen from the Yun family again..."

De Lan suddenly became gloomy. He seemed to know what would happen, and simply sat in silence. The emperor glanced at him, with cunningness in his eyes. "De Lan, the Yun family is different now. They may have already forgotten that it was you and the other family that pushed them away. This is an opportunity for you to make peace with them. The Yun family is useful for us, at least for now."

De Lan chuckled. "What are your instructions, Your Majesty?"

With a smile, the emperor looked out of the transparent window while holding his cup. His face even seemed somehow deformed. "Give away the real estate next to your house to the Yun family, so that it can join the circle of nobles. If possible, send one of your children to the family."

De Lan's face slightly cramped, and the emperor gradually put on a smile. "The Yun family won't be able to escape even if they want to!"

After Lan Yi flew to the south of the capital, Yun Feng saw enormous buildings on the streets that befitted the rich and the powerful. She had already seen it coming that the Karan Royal Family would offer the best privileges to the Yun family after it moved to the capital.

Soon, she found where her family's new house was. The buildings were too dense for Lan Yi to land, so the four passengers simply jumped off from the sky after it descended a little bit. Because Mu Xiaojin was relatively weak, Yun Feng held her in her arms during the fall. After they landed, they saw a splendid house in front of them.

This neighborhood was quite peaceful. There was no noise at all. Every house seemed to have a powerful background. Yun Feng glanced at the building in front of her, and found that the Karan Empire was rather generous. She knocked on the door. The old man who opened the door, upon seeing her and Yun Sheng, cried excitedly, "Young Master, Young Lady, you're back!"

Yun Feng smiled warmly. Qu Lanyi, who was standing aside, saw her expression, and had glittering eyes. "Come on in! Come on in! They must be your friends. Please come in!" Lan Yi had already returned to the Ring of Contract. Yun Feng and Yun Sheng walked through the door, followed by Mu Xiaojin. Qu Lanyi stayed at the door, and looked around at the environment. "Miss, please come in!" said the butler. Qu Lanyi nodded, and finally came into the building.

After passing through the door, Yun Feng discovered that there was actually a spacious yard behind the door, and that plenty of men were working and plucking weeds in the yard. They seemed to be... "My lady!" cried a young man excitedly, who had raised his head and seen Yun Feng's face. The others all raised their heads too, and walked to Yun Feng when they saw her. Yun Feng smiled. As she expected, the Yun Army had moved here too.

Yun Sheng, naturally, was aware of the Yun Army's existence too. However, he was quite amazed when he saw the dozens of soldiers who ranged between level 5 and level 6. Qu Lanyi glanced at them and chuckled in a low voice. "Fengfeng's family must not be underestimated."

Yun Feng smiled and turned her head, asking the butler, "Where is my father?"

Before the butler replied, those soldiers had all started talking. "My lord was summoned by a bigshot!"

"That's right! I heard that they were going to a casino, and then somewhere else."

The other men all started gossiping too, and confessed all the invitations that Yun Jing had received so far. The butler was rather anxious, but was unable to make them stop. After they were all done, Yun

Feng learned of her father's itinerary during the past few days. Had her father already been corrupted by the city life?

"Stay here for now. I'll go find father with my brother." Yun Feng became solemn. She knew what kind of person her father was. It must've been a noble who came to invite her father and attempted to let her father melt into the circle of nobles. However, no member of the Yun family would ever join such a dark and corrupted network!

Chapter 337: The Summoner's Dignity (5)

Yun Sheng nodded, and left Qu Lanyi and Mu Xiaojin behind. The two beautiful girls stunned the members of the Yun Army. Although their young lady was gorgeous too, these two girls were beautiful in different ways. While they all gazed at the strangers, the butler led Mu Xiaojin and Qu Lanyi into the room. Qu Lanyi had been smiling all the time, whereas Mu Xiaojin was looking around curiously.

Yun Feng and Yun Sheng immediately walked out. Yun Feng looked rather gloomy. Those people were truly shameless. A casino? She couldn't even picture her father being in any casino. Yun Sheng didn't look well either. The two of them left the neighborhood for the central area of the capital, which was the most prosperous part with all kinds of stores, casinos and other entertainment facilities.

Hardly had they arrived when the brother and sister felt the warm atmosphere. There were plenty of dark alleys next to the splendid buildings. It was not hard to imagine what was happening inside those alleys. The sounds of cries and begging came from the noises now and then.

Yun Feng took out the Sound Transmission Jade, and stood together with Yun Sheng. The jade glittered, and Yun Feng immediately asked, "Father, where are you? My brother and I are looking for you."

"Feng, just go home with Sheng first. I'll be back very soon." The jade glittered and then became silent. Both Yun Feng and Yun Sheng were quite bummed. They didn't want the Yun family to be corrupted after its return to the capital; they wanted it to righteously rise to the peak! Yun Feng became grim. At this moment, noises came from behind them. The brother and sister were too upset to hear any of that, until a whip slashed at them. Yun Feng extended her arm and grabbed the whip. She then pulled the whip, making the person who was holding the whip fall to the ground.

"Little girl, did you not hear me asking you to get out of the way?" A lazy voice echoed. Yun Feng raised her head, and saw an arrogant face, whose master kicked away the person who was lying on the ground. He then looked down at Yun Feng, aiming his nostrils at her, as if he were a supreme lord.

"There's plenty of space on my side, or are you too blind to see it?" Yun Feng wasn't in the best mood, and this guy had pissed her off precisely at this moment. She decided to vent her fury on him.

"What did you say? Do you know who I am?" The young man narrowed his eyes, which weren't big to begin with, into a slim line. He also had a flat and partly-broken nose. Therefore, he was rather easy to recognize. Yun Feng glanced at him coldly. "Who are you? I don't know."

"Little girl, do you know tamers?" shouted someone behind the young man. This was the most crowded part of the Karan Empire. The people who were watching the drama were all shocked, and fixed their eyes on the young man enviously, while whispering to each other.

"A tamer! Oh my goodness! I didn't expect to meet one here!"

"I heard that tamers are no different from summoners! I really want to get a closer look!"

The young man looked rather proud, but Yun Feng simply sneered. Tamers? They were always counterfeits compared to real summoners!

Seeing Yun Feng's smile, the young man roared furiously, "What are you laughing at! I can easily let my Magic Beast tear you apart!"

Yun Feng laughed and put a smile on her pretty face, which dazzled the young man. He immediately whispered in fascination, "Little girl, why don't you come with me? You will enjoy infinite luxuries, and I'll forgive you for your disrespect. How does it sound?"

"Bulls*it!" Yun Sheng roared and pulled Yun Feng behind him. He was infuriated that anyone was bold enough to flirt with his sister!

"Did you just say bulls*it? I'll just cut you apart!" The young man was exasperated by what Yun Sheng said. "My master is the Vice President of the Tamers' Union. If you think you have what it takes, just keep yelling and don't beg for mercy!"

Yun Feng sneered. "The Vice President of the Tamers' Union? I'm eager to find out how strong the Vice President of the Tamers' Union is."

"Little girl, you're quite confident for a girl of your age," an old man's voice came from behind the crowd. Hearing that, the young man turned his head back in delight. The crowd gradually split apart, making way for a middle-aged man whose hair was gray. The man looked grim and cruel. He wasn't very tall, but he seemed quite intimidating.

"Master, they despise you and the Tamers' Union!" The young man accused them quickly.

The middle-aged man raised his brows, and Yun Feng sneered. She held her brother's hand, hinting that she could take care of everything here.

"Little girl, you'd better apologize for what you said. The tamers' privileges are beyond your imagination! Even the Karan Royal Family respects the tamers too!"

"The tamers?" Yun Feng raised her brows. "The profession that's closest to the summoners?"

The middle-aged man put on an awful expression. "Summoners? Humph! There hasn't been a summoner in hundreds of years. How can they compare to tamers?"

Yun Feng slightly lowered her head, and Yun Sheng put on a smile. Yun Feng slowly raised her head and stared at the middle-aged man with uncanny pressure in her eyes. "Hehe. Is that so?"

The gray-haired man suddenly narrowed his eyes, with a weird feeling in his heart. Tamers were undoubtedly an amazing and respectful profession. Only they and summoners could deal with powerful and dangerous Magic Beasts. Although unlike the summoners, the tamers couldn't make the Magic Beasts fight for them, they could still subdue Magic Beasts. In the eyes of the outsiders, they were just as marvelous as summoners, even though there was an essential difference between the two professions.

Chapter 338: Revelation (1)

More and more people were attracted to the drama because of the participation of tamers, who weren't as rare and mysterious as summoners, but were still reasonably intriguing. They were envied because they could deal with Magic Beasts. Also, their capabilities were easier to understand. They were more popular and renowned than summoners, who hadn't emerged since hundreds of years earlier.

"They're truly tamers. It isn't easy to meet them..."

"If they fight, will we see Magic Beasts here?"

The audience discussed, and looked at the middle-aged man curiously in admiration. The middle-aged man chuckled with a cold smile. "Little girl, you think you can get away after offending a tamer?"

Yun Feng smiled, and wasn't bothered at all. The young man nearby cried in dissatisfaction, "My master is the Vice President of the Tamers' Union. Girl, there's still time to apologize! Do you know how strong Magic Beasts are? If you don't want them to rip your throat out, apologize now!"

Yun Feng glanced at him and simply said, "Ignorant and stupid."

The middle-aged man clearly lost his cool. Usually, he was the one who was respected and obeyed. Even the Karan Royal Family respected him. "What an arrogant girl. Let's see if you can remain arrogant in the presence of a Magic Beast!"

Brutality flashed on the middle-aged man's face, and the young man next to him laughed. Obviously, the middle-aged man was going to do something. There were whispers in the crowd too. They all looked at the middle-aged man curiously. The tamer was going to take action. A Magic Beast was coming!

"Come out!" roared the middle-aged man. Suddenly, part of his skin glowed, and a huge Rock Lizard appeared in front of the crowd. The lizard had the skin color of rocks, and was almost thirty meters long. The audience stepped back upon the appearance of the lizard, which was letting out hoarse noises.

The crowd was excited. A Magic Beast! A Magic Beast had appeared in the flesh!

The Rock Lizard, crouching on the ground, opened its mouth at Yun Feng, without the slightest aggressiveness. The Magic Beasts that were domesticated by tamers had lost their combat ability, and could serve as a mount or an unusual pet at best. However, the ordinary people didn't know that, and thought that the tamers were awesome enough to rein the Magic Beasts. They all exclaimed, which made the middle-aged man feel better. Yun Feng, however, burst into laughter after seeing the scene.

"Hahaha. Hahahaha!" Looking at the Rock Lizard, which was big, but as cowardly as a rat, Yun Feng laughed so hard that she was almost weeping. The middle-aged man became gloomy, and the young man next to him cursed aloud, "Bi*ch, what are you laughing at!"

It wasn't easy for Yun Feng to stop laughing. She coldly stared at the two men. "I'm laughing at you, who don't realize your identity as counterfeits!"

"I beg your pardon..." Veins on the young man's neck were protruding when he heard that. The middle-aged man became grim and waved his hand. While everybody was watching, another part of his skin glowed, and an enormous Cloud Splitting Leopard showed up in front of everything, making a lot of people change their expression.

The Cloud Splitting Leopard carried beautiful patterns that looked like clouds on its fur. Such Magic Beasts were very fast and looked very awesome. They were the most popular species for the tamers. They were often used as mounts. Most esteemed members of the Karan Royal Family rode Cloud Splitting Leopards.

After the Cloud Splitting Leopard appeared, it stared at Yun Feng with its yellow eyes, without the ferocity of a beast at all. In Yun Feng's eyes, it was just an obedient kitten, but the crowd who were watching exclaimed again, "Oh my god! Two Magic Beasts! They look so awesome..."

"What do you think? He's a tamer! That's a bigshot! This girl is going to suffer!"

"I think so too. Little girl, you should apologize to this tamer right now!"

Yun Feng heard all that they were saying. Meatball, who was on Yun Feng's shoulder, raised its head and grimaced at the audience, baring its fangs. Quite a few of the audience were intimidated. The man whose hair was gray put on a smile after seeing Meatball. "Little girl, are you a tamer too?"

Yun Feng raised her brows and gave him a casual smile. "A tamer? I'm not a counterfeit like you."

"Master! Teach her a lesson! She has no respect for you at all!" cried the young man.

Yun Feng glanced at him impatiently, and took out the red Ring of Contract. The moment the middle-aged man saw the ring in Yun Feng's hand, he narrowed his eyes and trembled hard!

"That's..." The middle-aged man's lips trembled. He gazed at the ring in Yun Feng's hand. Yun Feng smiled, and slowly put the ring on her finger, which silenced everybody. At this moment, even the sound of a needle hitting the ground would be heard clearly.

Everybody held their breath as they watched the girl put on the ring. The mysterious dark-red ring and the strange patterns on it made their heart pound. Some opened their mouths, but could not utter a single syllable. All of them stared at the ring on the girl's finger, blushing.

"I have Magic Beasts too," said Yun Feng casually. Then she roared, "Little Fire, come out!" Under her instruction, a dark red streak of light flashed out of the Ring of Contract. After the light was gone, the temperature suddenly rose. Many people had sweat on their foreheads. The middle-aged man who stood opposite her swallowed hard.

Chapter 339: Revelation (2)

"Master, s-s-she..." The young man, looking at Little Fire which appeared out of nowhere, wanted to say that she was a tamer too, but he could not say that aloud, as this Magic Beast was completely different from those subdued by tamers. There was obvious ferocity and thirst for blood in the wolf's eyes. It was not a tamed Magic Beast; it kept the nature of Magic Beasts!

The Cloud Splitting Cloud and the Rock Lizard both collapsed when Little Fire appeared. The Cloud Splitting Leopard moaned and trembled constantly, whereas the Rock Lizard erected the stones on its skin, using them as shields to protect itself.

"Master, are these two my opponents?" Little Fire looked at the Rock Lizard and the Cloud Splitting Leopard, with mockery in its wolf eyes. Why were its opponents so cowardly? It didn't even want to fight them.

“No, they aren’t worthy enough to be your opponents.” Yun Feng walked to Little Fire and squeezed the wolf’s ears. Little Fire pricked its ears in discomfort, but simply let Yun Feng move.

“Who... are you?” the middle-aged man suddenly asked, while recalling the two Magic Beasts on the ground. He would be humiliated if they were still kept in the open. They were obviously different from hers. He was no match for the girl. Even her Magic Beast was much stronger than his! “Which Tamers’ Union do you belong to?” asked the middle-aged man again.

Little Fire looked at him as if he were a moron, “Tamers? Is there something wrong with your head?”

“You...” The middle-aged man was infuriated, but he was too intimidated by Little Fire to talk aloud. Seeing that, the young man, perhaps because of hot blood, or maybe due to brain problems, shouted, “Bi*ch! You think you’re really a summoner? Stop being pretentious!”

Little Fire’s eyes glittered again. It dashed forward, and its silver claws drew glowing lines in midair. After that, the young man screamed, and he was smashed away. The crowd fell silent again. The middle-aged man could not utter another word after seeing that. It seemed that he could hardly breathe.

Little Fire’s black eyes were brimming with fury. “Brat, you dared to disrespect my master. I’ll destroy you if you do that again!”

“S-S-Summoner... You are a summoner!” The middle-aged man raised his head and looked at Yun Feng stunned. When he saw her ring, he trembled violently again. He thought that the ring was just an ornament. Many tamers had such rings just to be cool, or to fool their opponents. They could subdue Magic Beasts, but couldn’t let the Magic Beasts fight for them. However, summoners were different! They could really be Magic Beasts’ partners!

Yun Feng raised her brows and touched Little Fire’s dark red body. “You didn’t know?”

The middle-aged man became pale, and the audience were completely astounded. One of them pulled the arm of the person standing next to him. “Hey, did you hear what they just said?”

The person replied in disbelief, “I did. He said she’s a summoner.”

“Really? Did he really say that she’s a summoner?”

“Yes,” the answerer nodded numbly. Then, he raised his head and roared, “F*ck! A summoner! A summoner in the flesh!”

Everybody was excited! They exclaimed, pointing at Yun Feng and staring at Little Fire. Their eyes were almost popping out. “Summoner! She’s a summoner!”

“Is there finally another summoner in Karan?! She’s such a young girl!”

“That’s a real Magic Beast! My life is absolutely worth it now that I’ve seen a summoner!”

Their exciting exclamations all came to Yun Feng’s ears. Little Fire was slightly surprised at their reaction, wondering if those human beings were reacting too strongly. Were they crazy?

“Lord Summoner! Lord Summoner!” There was no telling who cried first, but many others followed. The central area of the capital was at this moment an ocean of exclamations. Cheers were echoing so loudly that the entire capital was almost shivering.

“Lord Summoner! Lord Summoner!” The people’s enthusiasm was beyond Yun Feng’s anticipation. The middle-aged man on her opposition side looked at her with complicated feelings that were a mixture of envy, jealousy and hate. A tamer wasn’t a summoner anyway, no matter how similar they were. They weren’t the same after all!

“What’s going on outside?” A few bigshots who were having a nice conversation in a fancy place all frowned unhappily when they heard the wild cheers and exclamations. Although soundproof measures had been taken, the noises on the street were simply too loud to be blocked. It was hard to distinguish what the cheers were about, but they were quite annoying.

“Brother Yun, please forgive us. This happens all the time. Someone will take care of it soon.” A man raised his cup and nodded at the man seated next to him with a smile. The other smile, on the other hand, frowned and listened to the cheers attentively. After finally recognizing what the cheers were, he became solemn.

“Brother Yun, what’s the matter?” the man couldn’t help but ask after seeing Yun Jing’s expression. Yun Jing rose abruptly and pulled the curtain, seeing the view of the street. A tremendous number of people had gathered on the street. They were all exclaiming excitedly. In the center of the crowd was a human and a Magic Beast!

Yun Jing slightly narrowed his eyes. Why did that Magic Beast look so familiar?

“Huh. Another conflict between Magic Beasts? What a bunch of snobs. Magic Beasts are just tools for them to show off. Brother Yun, if you like this Magic Beast, I’ll definitely have them offer it to you as a gift.” The man walked to Yun Jing and patted his shoulder. He looked at the Magic Beast with obvious disdain and mockery.

Chapter 340: Revelation (3)

Yun Jing didn’t say anything, but simply observed carefully. After confirming that the Magic Beast on the street was the same as a certain Magic Beast he remembered, he also noticed the girl who was standing next to it. She was none other than Feng! That Magic Beast was Little Fire that she had contracted! Did something happen?!

Thinking about that, Yun Jing became gloomy and left without thinking. Seeing that, the man pulled his arm. “Where are you going, Brother Yun? We’re not done drinking yet.”

Yun Jing managed a smile. He found it really annoying to socialize with those people. “My kids are looking for me. I must go. Goodbye!” he said quickly and left in a hurry, without giving the man another opportunity to talk. The man didn’t insist at all, but simply let Yun Jing leave. After Yun Jing left, he put on a mocking smile and looked down. “Tamers? Just a bunch of Mr. Nobodies...”

After the man’s whisper, someone suddenly opened the door and came in with sweat all over his forehead. The man frowned unhappily and asked, “What’s going on?”

The person who rushed in took a few deep breaths, and finally said in a low voice, "My lord, a summoner has appeared!"

"What did you say?" The man changed his expression and stepped forward. "Where? What's their name? Which family are they from?"

The newcomer took another few deep breaths to calm himself down, before he finally replied, "The Yun family."

Hardly had he said that when the man rushed back to the window and stared down at the Magic Beast that was surrounded by the crowd as well as the girl next to it, almost sticking his face to the glass. His eyes glittered again. Finally, when he saw Yun Jing running to the girl, he clenched his fists and smashed the glass, causing a huge noise. "The Yun family... The Yun family again..."

Yun Jing ran all the way forward. He was dumbfounded, wondering why Feng appeared in front of so many people with Little Fire. After Yun Jing came close, Yun Feng and Yun Sheng saw their father immediately. Yun Jing looked slightly awful when he saw his kids. The crowd were rather curious to see him. "He's the summoner's father! Look, look!"

Yun Jing's face looked a lot grimmer. Seeing that, Yun Sheng dropped a hint at Yun Feng, who nodded and patted Little Fire again. Little Fire pulled a long face. "Master, seriously?"

Yun Feng smiled and squeezed Little Fire's ears, making it shake its head quickly. Their natural and intimate interaction astounded the audience, whose eyes were all glittering. "Did you see that? As expected of a summoner. She's so close to her Magic Beast..."

"I wish I could do that..."

"Stop dreaming! You think everybody can be a summoner? It's been hundreds of years since the last summoner appeared. Damn it. Am I too excited?"

The Vice President of the Tamers' Union was completely pale. A summoner, whom all tamers envied and hated, had appeared! In the past hundreds of years when there were no summoners, tamers were gods to the people. Nobody knew Magic Beasts better than they did. However, it all ended at this moment. The appearance of another summoner had ended the tamers' advantages and glory for hundreds of years!

The tamers are doomed... That's the only thought that the middle-aged man had. Yun Feng, on the other hand, didn't even bother to look at him. Little Fire trotted to Yun Jing. It was somehow uncomfortable when everybody was watching it. "You... Come on up," said Little Fire. Yun Jing was stunned for a moment. Yun Sheng couldn't help but smile, as Little Fire had carried him by holding him in its mouth earlier.

Little Fire mumbled angrily, as it was taking over Lan Yi's job. It had barely fought since it became its master's Magic Beast. Although it was significantly stronger than before, it had to work as a mount... It didn't want to be ridden by anyone except its master! However, since this man was her father, it probably had to deal with it...

The obvious impatience and agitation in Little Fire's eyes made Yun Jing scared. Should he really hop on? If he did, would this Magic Beast tear him apart in fury? Yun Jing said anxiously, "Feng, that's unnecessary. Let's just walk. We'll talk after we go home."

Little Fire was clearly relieved. Not bad. This man wasn't too stupid. Yun Feng nodded. Little Fire hadn't planned to return to the Ring of Contract. It had few opportunities to come out, and didn't breathe as much fresh air as Lan Yi did, which bummed it. Seeing its expression, Meatball made a noise from Yun Feng's shoulder. Little Fire then bared its fangs and snarled at Meatball, asking it to get away!

Meatball grimaced back without giving in. It was as scary as Little Fire. It also snarled, as if it were saying, red-haired guy, get the hell out of here.

Yun Feng smiled. Those two Magic Beasts didn't seem to like each other. "Little Fire, no need to go back. You'll be free in the future." Yun Feng sent the telepathic message, and Little Fire looked at her in delight. It didn't have to go back? Haha. It didn't need to hide any longer? Haha, finally, it could walk around in public!

"Hooooo..." Little Fire raised its head and howled in excitement. The howl was so astounding that the audience were taken aback and shivered. The Vice President of the Tamers' Union shivered too, and felt the essential difference between a summoner's Magic Beast and a tamer's again.

The three members of the Yun family, along with the dark red Fire Cloud Wolf, gradually moved away. The audience automatically made way for them. Some little kids were ignorantly curious about Little Fire, and tried to touch it as Yun Feng did. The interaction between her and the Magic Beast let them forget that Little Fire was a ferocious Magic Beast in nature.
