Chapter 851: You Can Only Choose One Person (2)

The old voice sighed casually with a hint of helplessness. "I can't believe you're still so stubborn after so long."

"What do you know?" Yao Guang said fiercely. The old voice chuckled and changed the topic. "If you go out, you'll have to..."

Brutality flashed in Yao Guang's gray eyes. "It's none of your business what I do!"

The old voice sighed helplessly again. "Yao Guang, don't mind me. You know very well what this girl is like. Don't make a huge mistake because of your personal grudge. But then again, you can't bear to hurt this girl."

Yao Guang ignored him. Those gray eyes glittered with complicated emotions. "Are you going out to find..."

"Yes, I have to go back. I wonder how much those good-for-nothings have fallen." Yao Guang whispered fiercely as the old voice chuckled. "That's a family that's quite related to you. How bad can it be? It must be thriving on this continent."

Yao Guang sneered. "Really?"

"You can only intimidate them when you go back. So much time has passed. What can you do?"

Yao Guang didn't say anything. In the end, he gave a weird smile, with blood thirst surging in his gray eyes. "What can I do? Since they've inherited my ability, if I can't stand them anymore, of course I'll erase them one by one!"

After a deep sigh, the old voice didn't say anything else. However, a few loud sounds of friction came from the dark, as if the huge body had moved. There was a hint of ridicule on Yao Guang's face. "You old bastard, you can only stay here and be a coward!"

The old voice didn't say anything again. Yao Guang sneered and disappeared. In the darkness, a beam of dark light flashed and disappeared again.

Another two months had passed until the eight-month deadline. However, Yun Feng's wait was fruitful. She finally lived up to her expectations. The director succeeded in creating the Fusion Fluid in such an astonishing short period of time! When he succeeded, he was also extremely excited in his mind. In ten months, he successfully created the Fusion Fluid, breaking the record in the pharmaceutical world! Naturally, half of the credit was given to Yun Feng and Qu Lanyi!

Yun Feng and Qu Lanyi also smiled in relief. The fusion fluid was finally successful! This meant that Mu Canghai's resurrection was just around the corner! Thinking that Mu Canghai could be resurrected, Yun Feng couldn't help but feel a bit anxious. She couldn't wait to find a place to start doing this right now, but she suppressed the excitement in her heart.

“Kid, I didn’t let you down.” The director handed the Melted Fluid to Yun Feng with a smile. Yun Feng was naturally grateful in the depths of her heart. “Thank you for your help, director. If the Pharmaceutical Institute needs my help in the future, I won’t decline!”

The director said “yes” a few times in a row. Yun Feng could see that he was anxious and excited in his mind. “I’ll remember what you said. Go do what you need to do now. I need to rest too.” The director had never done such high-intensity medicine in a short period of time. He was extremely exhausted. Yun Feng quickly nodded. The three of them walked out of the secret room. When the door of the secret room opened, a gust of cold wind blew. Little Fire and Lan Yi, who had been guarding outside, were immediately delighted to see Yun Feng come out.

“Master!” The two Magic Beasts shouted at the same time, but the director didn’t know whether to laugh or cry. What exactly happened in his office? Why was the door gone? And what was with the scorched ground? And why were there two missing cabinets? Looking at Little Fire’s Magic Beast form, the director’s face twitched.

Yun Feng was also shocked that the office was like this. She glanced at Little Fire and Lan Yi. The two Magic Beasts couldn’t say anything. The director waved his hand. “It’s fine. Go do your work. It’s time for my office to be renovated.”

Yun Feng looked at the director apologetically. The director chuckled and said that he didn’t mind. Little Fire transformed from its Magic Beast form into a human form. The little boy’s facial features were a bit distorted. He wanted to tell Yun Feng that he really wanted to slap all the students of the pharmaceutical school away these days.

After saying goodbye to the director, Yun Feng and Qu Lanyi left the office with the two Magic Beasts. Yun Feng immediately decided to leave for the Mu family. She skipped the farewells with Yan Xiaoshi, Xia Jingyi and Shang Rui. Her heart was beating heavily in her chest. Nothing was more important than resurrecting Mu Canghai!

Seeing Yun Feng’s calm face, Qu Lanyi knew that she was excited in her mind and couldn’t help but feel jealous in his mind. He only knew that Mu Canghai was Mu Xiaojin’s brother and Yun Feng’s friend back then, but Qu Lanyi didn’t know the relationship between Yun Feng and Mu Canghai at all. Seeing how determined Yun Feng was to resurrect Mu Canghai, Qu Lanyi was definitely jealous in his mind even though he didn’t say anything.

Meatball jumped to Yun Feng’s shoulder on Little Fire’s head. Seeing the awkward look on Qu Lanyi’s face, it couldn’t help but flash a cunning look. “Nana, nanana!” Meatball cried a few times. Qu Lanyi looked at it angrily. Even though he didn’t know what Meatball was talking about, Qu Lanyi knew that it wasn’t something good when he saw Meatball’s expression.

Little Fire burst into laughter after hearing that and suddenly looked at Qu Lanyi gloatingly. Qu Lanyi was even more upset by the gaze.

Yun Feng rushed ahead and didn’t notice Qu Lanyi’s expression. Mu Canghai’s matter had weighed on her mind for many years. She owed Mu Xiaojin a promise. She was responsible for Mu Canghai’s death. If that young man hadn’t lost his life because of the grudge between her and the Huangzu family, Mu Xiaojin wouldn’t have lost her only family.

Yun Feng suddenly sped up and didn't notice Qu Lanyi's gloomy expression. They took less than a day to return to the Mu family. When Yun Feng came back, everyone in the Yun family was waiting there because of Little Qingchen. Yun Feng landed from the sky and watched her brother hold Yun Qingchen. Mu Xiaojin looked at her with a smile on the side. Her sullen father was also standing there surprisingly. Yun Feng's heart was warm.

"Aunt, Aunt!" Seeing Yun Feng come back, Little Qingchen struggled and pounced on her with his little arms. It had been almost a year since they last met, and it had been a long time.

Yun Feng quickly hugged Yun Qingchen and didn't say anything else. She looked at Mu Xiaojin with her black eyes. "Xiaojin, I can resurrect Mu Canghai now."

Chapter 852: You Can Only Choose One Person (3)

Yun Sheng and Yun Jing were both stunned after hearing that. Then, they looked delighted. Yun Sheng looked at Mu Xiaojin in delight. "Xiaojin, that's great. Feng..." Yun Sheng suddenly stopped talking. At this moment, Mu Xiaojin was standing there with a frozen expression, like a stone statue. Yun Sheng couldn't help but feel anxious. "Xiaojin, Xiaojin!"

Seeing Mu Xiaojin like this, Little Qingchen was also anxious. He struggled in Yun Feng's arms and wanted to hug his mother. "Mother, Mother!"

Yun Sheng quickly took Yun Qingchen from Yun Feng's arms, but Yun Qingchen still wanted to hold her mother and called her mother again and again. However, Mu Xiaojin just stood there and didn't respond at all. Yun Feng sighed helplessly in her mind and slowly walked to Mu Xiaojin. She held Mu Xiaojin in her arms gently and noticed that Mu Xiaojin's body was trembling and tight. The muscles all over her body were tight and stiff as stones.

Yun Feng said softly, "Xiaojin, Mu Canghai will be back. Your brother will be back soon."

Mu Xiaojin didn't move or say anything. Yun Sheng looked at his wife lovingly. Yun Jing also heaved a sigh. This child had suffered these years. Mu Xiaojin was held in Yun Feng's arms gently. Nobody could see her expression. Yun Feng didn't know either, but she knew clearly that a scorching temperature was slowly falling on her neck. It was Mu Xiaojin's tears.

Mu Xiaojin finally recovered from the initial stiffness. It would certainly take some time for Mu Canghai to be resurrected. Yun Sheng, Yun Jing and Mu Xiaojin didn't disturb Yun Feng anymore. Even Little Qingchen seemed to know that the matter was important and surprisingly didn't pester Yun Feng.

The matter of resurrecting Mu Canghai was carried out in Yun Feng's yard of the Mu family. Nobody was allowed to step into this place anymore. No matter how anxious they were in their minds, they could only endure it at this moment. Yaoyao, who had been staying in the Mu family, came close to Yun Feng affectionately when she saw her come back. Yaoyao didn't go to the pharmaceutical school, but stayed in the Mu family. She got along quite well with Little Qingchen, perhaps because they were both children. Yun Feng touched Yaoyao's ear fin, hinting that Yaoyao had something to do. Yaoyao immediately retreated to the side obediently, even though she still wanted to stick to Yun Feng.

"Senior Yao Guang." Yun Feng closed her eyes and called out in her mind. Yao Guang's eyes glittered in the Dragon Palace when he heard Yun Feng's voice. Then, a beam of white light surrounded Yao Guang and then disappeared. Yao Guang then disappeared from the Dragon Palace and appeared in front of Yun Feng.

His body wrapped in a black robe floated in the air. His young face and those strange gray eyes too. "Are you ready?" A hoarse voice sounded. Yaoyao suddenly let out a low roar. She was completely on guard and her little face was also a bit ferocious. When Lan Yi saw this, he immediately held Yaoyao in his arms to calm her down. The last time Yao Guang appeared in the Dragon Palace, he also met Yaoyao, but Yaoyao didn't have this reaction.

Yao Guang's gaze drifted over and landed on Yaoyao. He suddenly realized something. "Hm! I see..."

Yun Feng wasn't nervous. What did Yao Guang mean? Yao Guang ignored Yaoyao. "When will it begin?"

Yun Feng took out the whisker from You Yan, which was the Spirit Gathering Grass, and the Fusion Fluid she got from You Yan. "If possible, Senior Yao Guang, please begin now."

Yao Guang's eyes glittered when he saw the Spirit Gathering Grass and the Fusion Fluid. He had never thought that this little girl would be able to find these two things. It was actually quite harsh to search for these two things in five years. You Yan came and went like a ghost. If it weren't that Yun Feng was lucky, and Si Wen hadn't helped her gather information, and she hadn't met it in the place where Yaoyao was imprisoned, five years would've been far from enough.

"You're quite capable, kid," said Yao Guang. "Are you resurrecting a member of the Yun family?"

Yun Feng froze for a second and then shook her head. "No."

Yao Guang raised his brows. "No?"

"My brother passed away many years ago. He didn't leave anything behind." There was a lot of bitterness in Yun Feng's voice when she said this. Even though she transmigrated and became Yun Feng, the Yun family had already been regarded as her root. The second son of the Yun family, Yun Qi, who had passed away a long time ago, was murdered by someone when Yun Feng was seven. His body hadn't been found yet. Thinking of her brother, Yun Qi, who died like this, Yun Feng didn't feel good in her mind. Even though she didn't remember much about her brother, Yun Feng knew that Yun Qi was protecting her sister like Yun Sheng. Her big brother was gentle and protective of her, while her second brother was thinking of ways to make her happy.

The remaining memories were already blurry, but Yun Feng could still piece together the facial features that had already disappeared. Yun Jing and Yun Sheng had never taken the initiative to mention Yun Qi. This was the eternal pain in the hearts of the Yun family and they didn't want to touch it.

Qu Lanyi looked at Yun Feng's painful face and held her hand with a warm hand. "Senior, can we begin?"

Yao Guang looked at Yun Feng's expression. This was the first time he had seen this girl like this. A thought flashed through his mind and Yao Guang smiled. "Kid, it's your choice whether you want to resurrect the member of the Yun family or someone else."

Yun Feng froze and suddenly raised her head. Qu Lanyi also looked at Yao Guang in shock. Little Fire and Lan Yi were both shocked. "Lord Yao Guang!" Lan Yi called out. Yao Guang stared at Yun Feng with a weird smile. Yun Feng slowly said, "You mean... you can resurrect my brother?"

Yao Guang laughed and swayed in the air. "You only have one chance."

Qu Lanyi's face suddenly darkened. This old man was indeed up to no good! "Senior, forgive me for talking too much. How can it be so easy to resurrect someone who's already dead? There's nothing left. How can you resurrect them?"

Yao Guang was disdainful. "How much do you know?"

Yun Feng lowered her head slightly and could hear her heartbeat clearly. Revive Yun Qi, revive her second brother... Yun Feng knew that this was a crazy thought. How could her brother, who didn't have any remains left, be revived? However, Yao Guang said it was fine! The enthusiasm in Yun Feng's heart was instantly ignited. Even if there was only a chance, even if she knew it was impossible to succeed, even if this was all a lie, she was still willing to try!

Yun Feng clenched her fists so hard that Qu Lanyi's hands hurt. Qu Lanyi couldn't help but look at Yun Feng with heartache. This was such a difficult decision. This old man made Yun Feng make such a choice with bad intentions!

Chapter 853: You Can Only Choose One Person (4)

"Old man, if you have a way, why don't you resurrect both of them?" Qu Lanyi gritted his teeth and said. The word "old man" made Yao Guang narrow his eyes fiercely. "Kid, what did you call me?"

"Lord Yao Guang!" Lan Yi stepped forward. "If you really have a way, can you..."

Yao Guang glanced at her coldly. "No, as I said, you only have one chance." He gazed at Yun Feng, who had her head lowered. "Kid, what do you think?"

Yun Feng slowly raised her head. There was no expression on her little face and her clear black eyes were covered with a layer of thick fog that couldn't be seen clearly. Yao Guang couldn't help but feel startled. "Senior Yao Guang, please resurrect him." Yun Feng took out Mu Canghai's remains in her arms. Yao Guang's pupils contracted and he suddenly sneered. "Very good. Since you don't want the chance, I won't say anything else. Don't let anyone disturb me for ten days."

Yun Feng nodded silently. Everyone left the house. Yun Feng raised her arm and sealed the space in the house where Yao Guang was. After doing everything, Yun Feng and Qu Lanyi came to the house next door. Little Fire and Lan Yi stayed in the yard. Yaoyao was held by Lan Yi and didn't disturb Yun Feng. Meatball also sat on Little Fire's head. The few Magic Beasts knew that Yun Feng wasn't in a calm mood right now.

Qu Lanyi followed Yun Feng into the room and grabbed her arm. "Why didn't you choose your brother?"

Yun Feng chuckled. "A promise is a promise. My father and brother will definitely make the same choice as me, even though... I really want my brother to come back to life." Yun Feng's tone trembled slightly. Qu Lanyi suddenly pulled Yun Feng into his arms and held her tightly, holding this person who must hold up everything and be strong.

Yun Feng leaned in Qu Lanyi's arms quietly and listened to his calm heartbeat and felt his warm breath. Yun Feng slowly closed her eyes. As long as there was a way to resurrect her brother in this world, she would definitely find it even if she had to turn the world upside down!

In ten days, a tense atmosphere had been brewing in the Mu family. All the servants of the Mu family knew that Yun Feng was back, but nobody could approach the yard she was in. Besides, Mu Xiaojin, the leader of the Mu family, had been acting weird these days. She didn't have a smile on her face at all. Even though Mu Xiaojin had become more serious and cautious in the past few years, she had never looked so stiff. Besides, Yun Jing and Yun Sheng were different from before. They often frowned and looked worried. Everyone in the Mu family knew that something big was about to happen.

"Mother, mother!" Ever since Yun Feng came back, Yun Qingchen had been sticking to Mu Xiaojin. He had thought of a lot of ways to make her mother smile, but Mu Xiaojin obviously didn't appreciate it. This made Little Qingchen quite frustrated. He called Mu Xiaojin a lot of times, but she only replied with a "hm." Little Qingchen was unhappy in his mind. Something was wrong with his mother and his father. Now, he couldn't even see his aunt!

Yun Sheng opened the door and saw Mu Xiaojin, who was in a daze. He couldn't help but sigh. Yun Feng had already told them about the ten-day time limit. These ten days were quite torturous. It truly felt like a year.

Yun Sheng didn't know how to ease Mu Xiaojin, because he had been very tense during the ten days. Mu Canghai's resurrection affected everyone's heart. Ten days passed in this inexplicably oppressive atmosphere. Ten days later, there was finally movement in the space that Yun Feng sealed. Yun Feng noticed it and immediately rushed over.

The door that had been silent for ten days was finally opened slowly. Yun Feng stood at the door and suddenly didn't dare to approach. Her heart was pounding inexplicably. Qu Lanyi stood next to Yun Feng and stared at the door. He really wanted to meet Mu Canghai.

Yun Jing, Yun Sheng and Mu Xiaojin came quickly under Lan Yi's notice. Mu Xiaojin was the first to run in, panting. She subconsciously glanced around and fixed her eyes on the slightly open door.

Yun Sheng and Yun Jing stood there and stared at the door. Nobody said anything. They were all waiting quietly for the person to walk out!

"Squeak!"

The door was slowly pushed open. Yun Feng's breath tightened and her voice became several times louder in an instant! Mu Xiaojin's heart beat quickly. Yun Sheng and Yun Jing were both extremely nervous. Qu Lanyi slowly narrowed his eyes. The door gradually opened and a black robe flashed out. Yun Feng was stunned. Was that... Yao Guang?

The person who came out was Yao Guang. He was wearing a black robe that covered his entire body, but his face was pale, as if he had been seriously ill. Half of his body seemed to have been emptied. He glanced at Yun Feng with his gray eyes. Without another word, Yun Feng immediately sent Yao Guang into the Dragon Palace. Yao Guang's extremely hoarse and weak voice sounded in her mind. "Kid..." Yao

Guang didn't say anything else after that. Yun Feng didn't feel good. "Senior Yao Guang, rest well. Don't worry. I'll definitely keep my promise."

Seeing that the person who came out was someone she didn't know, Mu Xiaojin was stunned. Yun Sheng and Yun Jing were also stunned. It wasn't Mu Canghai who came out, so everyone was indescribably disappointed. However, the door was pushed open again by a pair of slender and fair hands. The sunlight shone down gently, casting a layer of shadow behind that person's body. Yun Feng's black eyes shrank fiercely as she looked at the person standing in the shadow in front of her. That familiar name rushed to her mouth and was about to come out!

Mu Xiaojin had already whimpered. Her eyes were instantly red with tears that surged out quickly. Time had cruelly drawn a gap between the two of them. What lay between the brother and sister was none other than life and death.

"Xiaojin."

A soft voice seemed to come from that faint place with incomparable bitterness and uncontrollable excitement. Everyone's heart was tightened by an invisible hand because of this soft voice. Qu Lanyi looked at the tall figure in front of him with a glint of light flashing deep in his black eyes. Was this... Mu Canghai?

"Brother, brother!" Time flew backwards, as if the ten years that had passed had never happened. Mu Xiaojin cried as she ran into that person's cold arms. "Brother, brother!" Mu Xiaojin cried. Hot tears kept sliding down her face. Her cries were accompanied by her tears. Yun Sheng clenched his fists and his eyes couldn't help but turn red. Seeing his wife's brother, who had passed away early, standing in front of him alive, Yun Sheng's heart was also filled with relief and sorrow.

Chapter 854: Mu Canghai (1)

Mu Xiaojin opened her arms and hugged the person in front of her tightly. Waves of coldness passed through this body into her own. Mu Xiaojin didn't care. She only cared that he was still alive. Her brother was still alive!

Yun Feng's black eyes glittered. Nobody knew what she was thinking at this moment. Qu Lanyi looked at Yun Feng. These people in front of her, after she chose Mu Canghai's resurrection, didn't know what she gave up.

The brother and sister hugged each other quietly. Time seemed to have stopped at this moment. Only Mu Xiaojin's soft sobs kept echoing. When everyone was immersed in this moment, Yao Guang's voice appeared in Yun Feng's mind again. "He can't be exposed to sunlight for a long time, or all your efforts will be wasted."

Yun Feng's expression changed drastically. Sunlight! It was the afternoon when the sun was at its peak! Yun Feng's body flashed and she suddenly grabbed Mu Canghai's arm. She only felt a bone-piercing coldness and subconsciously looked up at him. Mu Canghai also glanced over. When their eyes met, Yun Feng suddenly realized something after seeing those eyes clearly!

"You..." Yun Feng quickly dragged Mu Canghai and Mu Xiaojin back into the house. The others were also shocked when they saw this and they immediately followed her in. "Feng, what's wrong?" Yun Sheng asked anxiously. Yun Jing sized Mu Canghai up carefully with a serious look on his face and didn't say anything.

"He probably can't come into contact with sunlight for a long time," said Qu Lanyi as he glanced at Mu Canghai. "After all, he was once... dead."

Mu Xiaojin tightened her arms around Mu Canghai, but Mu Canghai pushed her away gently with a smile. "He's right. Xiaojin can't touch me often, or her body will be invaded by my coldness."

Yun Sheng was immediately a bit worried after hearing that. After all, Mu Xiaojin was a female mage with a weak body. Her physical fitness had never been good. If something happened to her because of excitement, the loss would outweigh the gain. Mu Xiaojin certainly wouldn't give in. Even if her brother, who came back to life, didn't really come back to life, it was the same for Mu Xiaojin!

"Xiaojin." Yun Feng said softly. Stunned, Mu Xiaojin slowly let go of Mu Canghai's body. Yun Sheng immediately pulled her into his arms and felt that there seemed to be coldness in Mu Xiaojin's body.

"Yun Feng, Lord Yao Guang has already told me that I can be resurrected thanks to you." Mu Canghai looked at Yun Feng deeply, as if he was comparing the girl in front of him with the girl in his memory. Suddenly, Mu Canghai put on a smile. "You've changed."

Yun Feng chuckled. How many years had it been? It was impossible for her not to change. Even Mu Canghai, who had been resurrected, was the same. After being resurrected, Mu Canghai seemed to have grown up. He was as tall as Qu Lanyi, and his handsome face became more handsome. His short black hair was quite flamboyant, but the coldness around his body gave him a hint of gloominess.

"It's great that you're back." Yun Jing heaved a sigh. Mu Xiaojin finally realized that she hadn't introduced herself yet because she was too excited. Since the brother and sister parted, Mu Xiaojin was already a mother now. After the introduction, Mu Canghai greeted them one by one. When he found out that he had a nephew, Mu Canghai also smiled happily. This time, Little Qingchen didn't come with her. He seemed to be taking a nap. Mu Canghai said that he must meet his nephew when he had the chance.

Yun Jing left after saying a few words. Yun Sheng was worried about Little Qingchen, so he went back first and asked Mu Xiaojin to stay. After Yun Jing and Yun Sheng left, Mu Xiaojin looked at Mu Canghai straight in the eyes. She didn't say anything, as if she would be satisfied just by looking at him.

Mu Canghai's eyes flashed with heartache when he saw Mu Xiaojin's expression. He was about to reach out and pat his sister's head comfortingly like before, when he immediately retracted his hand. A hint of darkness flashed through Mu Canghai's eyes.

Lan Yi stood aside and didn't say anything. He looked at Mu Canghai's eyes and only spoke after a long time, "Did Lord Yao Guang..."

Mu Canghai nodded at Lan Yi and gently touched one of his eyes with his hand. He rubbed his finger on it slowly and his finger left, revealing an eye. The color of the pupil wasn't pure black, but gray!

“Senior Yao Guang gave me some abilities,” said Mu Canghai in a low voice. Yun Feng’s breath tightened. Thinking of how weak Yao Guang was when he came out, her heart couldn’t help but surge. Senior Yao Guang...

“Senior Yao Guang!” Yun Feng called in her mind. After a while, Yao Guang’s hoarse and tired voice came. “Humph! Don’t think too much. I’m just repaying you for not thinking about using me. I only gave him a small part of my power. I wanted to leave immediately, but it seems that I’ll have to wait for a while. Don’t disturb me anymore.” Yao Guang’s voice was completely gone. Yun Feng couldn’t help but feel shocked in her mind. Even though Yao Guang gave him a small part of his power, Mu Canghai’s eye had already turned gray. How could that be a small part of his power?

Mu Xiaojin didn’t know who Yao Guang was. Looking at her brother’s gray eyes, she only felt heartbroken. Mu Xiaojin and Mu Canghai certainly had a lot to talk about. Yun Feng and Qu Lanyi wanted to go out, but Yun Feng was worried that Mu Xiaojin would hurt herself if she got too close to Mu Canghai. Qu Lanyi patted Yun Feng’s shoulder and whispered, “Go out. He should know what to do.”

Yun Feng nodded and they left the room again. When only the brother and sister were left in the room, Mu Xiaojin’s eyes couldn’t help but turn red again. Mu Canghai sat there and smiled lightly. “You’re already so old, but you still like to cry.”

This forced Mu Xiaojin to shed even more tears. The brother and sister had a lot to say. Mu Xiaojin had a lot to tell Mu Canghai. Seeing Mu Xiaojin’s anxious look, Mu Canghai smiled again. “Tell me slowly. You must tell me everything that happened after we separated, okay?”

Mu Xiaojin nodded with tears in her eyes. The story began on the sad night when Mu Canghai left the world.

The brother and sister in the house were talking about the time they hadn’t seen each other for many years. Outside the house, Yun Feng and Qu Lanyi were sitting in the yard. Little Fire and Lan Yi were standing aside. Meatball was very quiet sitting on Yun Feng’s shoulder. Yaoyao was stuck in Yun Feng’s arms and looked like she was about to fall asleep.

Yun Feng gently touched Yaoyao’s ear fin with her hand. Yaoyao moved her little body comfortably and even leaned into Yun Feng’s arms. Qu Lanyi sat on the side and said in a low voice, “Even if he comes back to life, he can’t touch others like he used to. The cold energy in his body will affect others if he’s careless. My light element can’t completely heal it.”

Yun Feng’s face darkened slightly. “Is this the price of resurrection?”

Qu Lanyi heaved a long sigh. “Death is the opposite of life. The price of resurrection must be paid.” Qu Lanyi looked at Yun Feng. “Even if he’s reborn, he’s not a living being.”

This was quite cruel, but it was the truth. After Mu Canghai was resurrected, he couldn’t touch his former family anymore. “Senior Yao Guang gave him power. I’m afraid... Senior Yao Guang will restrain him.” Yun Feng finally spoke after thinking for a while. Qu Lanyi didn’t say anything.

Mu Canghai was resurrected by Yao Guang and his ability was also given by Yao Guang. Mu Canghai had absolute obedience to Yao Guang to a large extent. If Yao Guang wanted him to do something, Mu Canghai would never reject him. Whether Yao Guang asked him to do anything or not, she would only know after the brother and sister finished talking.

In a blink, three days had passed. Mu Xiaojin and Mu Canghai seemed to be still immersed in the long-awaited family reunion, but someone was unhappy. After not seeing Mu Xiaojin for three days, Yun Qingchen pouted unhappily. His cute little face was tight and he kept pursing his lips unhappily. Even if Yun Feng went to coax her, the little girl still couldn't be happy.

Knowing that the brother and sister had reunited after a long time and their relationship was so deep, nobody bothered them. However, Yun Qingchen didn't know what was going on with his uncle. When he found out that his mother had been with his uncle and ignored him, Yun Qingchen decided to hate this uncle who suddenly appeared.

Yun Sheng felt helpless holding his son, who had been sulking, but he was also worried about Mu Xiaojin. After all, Mu Canghai's situation was special. If Mu Xiaojin was hurt by the coldness... Yun Sheng had been a bit anxious these three days. In the end, Yun Sheng came over with Yun Qingchen in his arms. Yun Sheng couldn't help but smile when he saw his brother and the sullen Little Qingchen. Three days had already passed. It was time to interrupt the brother and sister no matter how long they had been apart.

The door was opened gently. Yun Feng was relieved. Luckily, these two people remembered that they had been waiting for them. Mu Xiaojin walked out with slightly red eyes and didn't look strange at all. Yun Qingchen's eyes glittered when she saw Mu Xiaojin. "Mother!"

Mu Xiaojin raised her head and saw her son and husband. Yun Qingchen anxiously wanted to hold her mother. Mu Xiaojin quickly came over and carried her son over. Even though it was a bit difficult, she couldn't help but feel guilty in her mind. She had neglected her son because of Mu Canghai recently.

Once Little Qingchen was in Mu Xiaojin's arms, he immediately put his arms around his mother's neck and looked at the young man behind Mu Xiaojin with his big black eyes with strong hostility. Mu Canghai followed him out and couldn't help but smile when he saw his nephew's expression.

Yun Feng was shocked to see Mu Canghai. It was daytime right now. He couldn't stay in the sunlight for a long time! Mu Canghai glanced over. "Don't worry. The sun can't shine on me. I'll pay attention to this in the future."

Mu Canghai stood in the sunlight. His entire body seemed to be covered by a layer of transparent cover, blocking him from the sunlight. The sunlight shone on his body and automatically turned around, casting strange shadows on the ground.

"This is Yao Guang's ability?" Qu Lanyi frowned. Yun Feng chuckled. Indeed, one of Senior Yao Guang's abilities was his unimaginable control of space.

"Brother, this is Yun Qingchen. Qingchen, call him uncle." Mu Xiaojin quickly shook Yun Qingchen's body. Yun Qingchen's black eyes glittered and he called out rather reluctantly, "Uncle."

Mu Canghai's eyes became warm. Those black and gray eyes instantly grabbed Yun Qingchen's curiosity. "Eyes! Uncle's eyes are different!"

This made the smile on Mu Canghai's face even deeper. Yun Sheng came over and picked up his son, putting him on the ground. The four-year-old Little Qingchen had already learned how to walk, but he still liked to act cute from time to time.

Yun Qingchen was about to run to Mu Canghai's side and let her uncle hug her to see those special eyes clearly. Everyone was shocked when they saw Yun Qingchen's movement. Mu Canghai's expression changed and his body immediately flashed, sliding to the other side.

Yun Qingchen missed. He turned around and pounced again. Yun Sheng quickly picked up his son. Little Qingchen turned around and glanced at his father. "Father, uncle's eyes are different from ours."

Even though there wasn't much meaning in what he said, everyone understood that his eyes, which were different from others', were the symbol of Mu Canghai, the person who came back to life and the soul who had once died.

Mu Canghai's eyes glittered as he walked over, but he was still a short distance away from Yun Qingchen. Yun Qingchen looked up at Mu Canghai's eyes and suddenly smiled. "Uncle's eyes are so beautiful! Especially that white eye!"

Everyone's heart trembled. Mu Canghai clenched his fists tightly and looked at this warm little boy. "Qingchen," Mu Canghai said in a low voice. Yun Qingchen chuckled. His inexplicable hostility towards Mu Canghai just then also disappeared. Mu Xiaojin's eyes became hot again. Yun Sheng looked at Mu Canghai in front of him and moved his lips. Finally, he said with a hoarse voice, "Brother."

Mu Canghai was stunned and looked at Yun Sheng in a daze. In terms of age, he was a year younger than Yun Sheng, but Yun Sheng was Mu Xiaojin's husband right now, so he certainly had to call Mu Canghai big brother. Seeing how happy Mu Canghai was, Little Qingchen smiled happily. His pleasant childish voice dispelled the gloominess that had been around for a long time and everyone smiled knowingly.

The warm reunion was finally short. Yun Feng was about to set off again. Mu Canghai's resurrection took more than five years, and Yun Feng had something very important to do. The summoners' convention on the West Continent was also held during this period. After dealing with Mu Canghai's matter, she certainly couldn't miss such a convention.

The members of the Yun family certainly knew that Yun Feng was leaving again. It wasn't the first time she had left like this. Yun Jing, Yun Sheng and Mu Xiaojin were all used to it. However, Yun Qingchen became unhappy again and begged Yun Feng many times not to leave. Yun Feng could only smile helplessly.

Yun Feng originally wanted Mu Canghai to stay here, but Mu Canghai shook his head. "I'll stay with you." Mu Xiaojin didn't say anything else after Mu Canghai made such a decision. Mu Canghai was already different now. Even though Mu Xiaojin didn't know what kind of ability her brother was given, it was a good thing to be able to help Yun Feng. It was best to stay with Yun Feng, even though... they had just met and they were about to part.

Chapter 856: Mu Canghai (3)

Mu Xiaojin was already relieved in her mind. As long as Mu Canghai still existed in this world, it didn't matter what kind of situation he was in, or how far they were apart.

Yun Jing and Yun Sheng certainly didn't object. Mu Canghai was extraordinarily capable and could help Yun Feng a lot. Besides, it wouldn't make sense for Mu Canghai, who had this ability, to stay in Mu City. Yun Feng advised Mu Canghai to think carefully, but Yun Feng accepted Mu Canghai's insistence.

Mu Canghai had inherited part of Yao Guang's abilities and was a great help. When Yun Feng went to the West Continent to participate in the Summoners' Convention this time, she would certainly meet people from all walks of life. She would definitely have different encounters. She didn't know what kind of people she would meet or how they would fight. Qu Lanyi also agreed. He must have thought about this. The road ahead would be wider and the people she met would be more difficult to deal with and stronger. Yun Feng was only one step away from the Lord Level at this moment. When she reached the Lord Level, she would reach a whole new level. The dangers and obstacles she encountered would be incomparable!

The further they went, the more difficult it was for them to retreat.

Yun Feng had never told her brother and father about Yun Qi. She wasn't sure if her brother, Yun Qi, could be resurrected. Yun Feng originally planned to ask Yao Guang about it, but Yao Guang was currently in a deep sleep and she couldn't ask him about it, so Yun Feng kept the matter to the bottom of her heart. If she really had a way to resurrect him, it wouldn't be too late to tell her brother and father then.

The ancestor and Qu Lanyi both said that the necessary element to resurrect the dead was the residue of the dead. Without the residue, it would be impossible to resurrect them. However, Yao Guang's attitude gave Yun Feng hope. Senior Yao Guang obviously knew something, or he wouldn't have asked her to choose! There might really be a way to resurrect the dead without the residue!

Yun Feng had another purpose in her mind for this trip to the West Continent. She wanted to find a way to revive her brother, Yun Qi, and bring him back to the human world! This thought was crazy and paranoid, but Yun Feng didn't care at all!

Yun Feng soon left. Although Yun Qingchen was reluctant, there was nothing he could do. He only pouted and asked Yun Feng to come back early. Unexpectedly, he kissed Yun Feng's mouth heavily, which stunned everyone.

Qu Lanyi's face immediately darkened. She wanted to slap the kid, who was taking advantage of her, away! Meatball was also stunned by the sudden kiss. After that, Little Qingchen finally put on a smile. Yun Sheng quickly carried his son over and smiled at Yun Feng awkwardly. Mu Xiaojin couldn't help but pinch Little Qingchen's cheek. Yun Qingchen shouted in dissatisfaction, "Mother and father always do that. I like my aunt, so I want to do that to her too!"

Mu Xiaojin and Yun Sheng were both embarrassed. Yun Feng chuckled. Her four-year-old nephew kissed her. That was truly... "Let's go!" Qu Lanyi roared in a suppressed voice. Lan Yi and Little Fire had already transformed into Magic Beasts. The giant griffin spread its wings. Yun Feng jumped onto Lan Yi's back. Little Qingchen shouted in a low voice, "Auntie! Auntie! Come back soon!"

Meatball jumped to Little Fire's head and stared at Yun Feng's mouth with its big eyes for a long time. "Nana, Nana, Nana..." Meatball said softly. Little Fire immediately had goosebumps all over its body after hearing that. "Hey! Meatball! How can you..."

Meatball glared at Little Fire fiercely and exerted force on its furry body, sitting on Little Fire's wolf head. Little Fire almost couldn't straighten its neck because of this. "You meatball! I'm going to swallow you alive!"

The griffin flapped its wings and flew high. There were three people on its wide back. Mu Canghai stood on Lan Yi's back and looked down with his black and gray eyes. He looked down deeply and then turned his head gently to meet Yun Feng's smiling black eyes.

"We'll be back," said Yun Feng softly. Mu Canghai nodded slowly after a while. The few of them had already flown to the clouds in the sky. The entire Mu City had already turned into a small dot. Mu Canghai looked at that small dot and whispered slowly, "Yes, we'll be back."

Yun Feng smiled. She suddenly noticed that the Sound Transmission Jade in her bracelet was flashing. She flipped her hand, and the constantly flashing Sound Transmission Jade appeared in her hand. Qu Lanyi leaned close curiously. "Who's looking for you at this moment?"

Yun Feng raised the corners of her mouth and immediately infused her mental strength into the Sound Transmission Jade. A voice came clearly, "Miss Yun."

Yun Feng was stunned. Wasn't this voice from Ling of the Summoning Union? However... she didn't remember exchanging the Sound Transmission Jade number with Ling. "How do you know how to contact Fengfeng?" Qu Lanyi asked unhappily. The Sound Transmission Jade flashed and Ling's calm voice came. "Of course, I have my way. Miss Yun, you didn't forget the Summoners' Convention, did you?"

Yun Feng curled her lips. "No, I'm on my way back."

"That's great. I thought you were busy with your own business and forgot about it, Miss Yun. In that case, I won't disturb you anymore. Miss Yun, please go to the Ancestral Forest Hall's Thousand Peak City. I'll wait for you there."

Qu Lanyi's face immediately darkened. Was this guy going to accompany her the entire time?

The Sound Transmission Jade flashed again. "Please come as soon as possible, Miss Yun. Also, it's been a long time. I miss you a lot."

Yun Feng was stunned. Hearing Qu Lanyi grind his teeth, she couldn't help but laugh. What was Ling doing? Wasn't what he said going to set the barrel of gunpowder next to her on fire? "Bastard! I'm going to tear him apart!" As expected, Qu Lanyi exploded.

Looking at the Sound Transmission Jade that cut off the connection, Yun Feng shook her head helplessly. She put away the Sound Transmission Jade and met Mu Canghai's probing gaze. Yun Feng smiled. "You'll see this person soon." Mu Canghai frowned slightly. Yun Feng understood. The corners of her mouth slowly curled up as she looked at the high sky around her. "He's hidden himself well. He's not the only one."

She crossed the Ten Thousand Beast Mountain Range again. This was already the third time Yun Feng crossed the Ten Thousand Beast Mountain Range in just a few years. For a human being, no matter who it was, the number of times was a bit too many, as if this mountain range where countless unknown Magic Beasts were lurking was a threshold that she could cross easily.

When the giant griffin stepped into the territory of the Ten Thousand Beast Mountain Range again, a certain someone deep inside frowned helplessly. Again! The enthusiasm of the Magic Beasts seemed to have been ignited in an instant. The originally peaceful territory was suddenly like a pot of boiling water, bubbling everywhere. Breaths also burst out in an instant, pointing at a certain someone in the sky.

Chapter 857: The Summoners' Convention (1)

Yun Feng easily felt the commotion below and couldn't help but smile wryly. If possible, she didn't want to go through this place every time, but the East Continent and the West Continent were separated by the Ten Thousand Beast Mountain Range. She must go through here.

Lan Yi immediately sped up and wanted to pass through the Ten Thousand Beast Mountain Range in the shortest time possible. Mu Canghai, who was passing through the Ten Thousand Beast Mountain Range for the first time, was a bit shocked at the reaction below. The Magic Beasts were so restless as if a delicious meal had come out of nowhere. Those rather repressed roars hid a sense of enthusiasm for plundering!

"This is..." Mu Canghai looked at Yun Feng. She made these Magic Beasts so crazy!

Meatball, who was sitting on Little Fire's head, roared. Yun Feng smiled wryly. Qu Lanyi looked around vigilantly. "I'm already used to it." Yun Feng chuckled. "You'll get used to it." She would definitely return to the East Continent again. She would familiarize herself with the Ten Thousand Beast Mountain Range sooner or later.

Mu Canghai's expression was a bit stiff. Somewhere in the dense forest below suddenly shook and a few black shadows had already jumped up in an instant! "Roar..." The roars of wild beasts echoed in the air and a few black shadows pounced at Yun Feng crazily. Yun Feng narrowed her black eyes and immediately flipped her hand as scorching fire elements appeared on it!

"Fire Arrow!"

Lan Yi's body suddenly lowered and dodged the attacks of the few black shadows. Yun Feng quickly waved her Fire Arrow and the few black shadows in the sky instantly dispersed to avoid Yun Feng's fire-element attack. Qu Lanyi on the side suddenly sneered and raised his arm. "Light Hammer!"

"Bang!" A dazzling light suddenly appeared behind the few black shadows. In a blink, a giant hammer with layers of glittering light smashed down! Two black shadows were smashed down from the sky by the heavy hammer and fell to the ground. The other few dodged it narrowly and didn't dare to get close easily anymore.

Little Fire flashed back to Yun Feng's side. Lan Yi stopped in the air and flapped its wings, making eagle-like sounds deep in its throat, while Little Fire gnashed its teeth and roared. A few black shadows completely stood in front of Yun Feng and the others, confronting them.

"Roar..." A roar suddenly came from the depths of the Ten Thousand Beast Mountain Range with layers of pressure. Yun Feng and Qu Lanyi were no strangers to it. It was the voice that helped them twice. The voice suppressed the restlessness of these Magic Beasts, but not this time!

The few Magic Beasts that were blocking the way in the air all shivered when they heard the voice, but they didn't leave and still stood there. Yun Feng's heart couldn't help but sink when she saw this scene. It seemed that that person couldn't suppress the restlessness of these Magic Beasts anymore!

The few Magic Beasts in the air suddenly raised their heads and roared. Yun Feng felt that the restlessness below was rising again, even more violent than before!

"Oh no!" As soon as Qu Lanyi said that, a loud noise came from the dense forest below. Another dozen black shadows jumped out from below and surrounded Yun Feng and the others!

A certain someone in the depths noticed this phenomenon and his face couldn't help but darken! These Magic Beasts didn't listen to his order! He immediately turned into a black shadow and rushed towards Yun Feng from the depths at a high speed. He couldn't help but feel uneasy in his mind. He could suppress them a bit at first, but that little madam crossed this place again and again. The Magic Beasts were already provoked by her. It was already dangerous last time, and this time, he really couldn't suppress himself anymore!

The black shadow rushed towards Yun Feng at an extremely high speed. He only felt that things were very tricky. That lord had already returned to the Foggy Forest. It would be fine if that lord was here, but if something really happened to this madam here... The black shadow couldn't help but turn pale and he sped up even more. If something happened to this madam here, he wouldn't have to live anymore.

"Roar..." That roar with pressure came out of the black shadow's mouth just then. Bastards, behave yourselves!

Hearing the earth-shattering roar, the Magic Beasts surrounding Yun Feng were all quite fearful. It was obvious that they were worried, but they weren't willing to give up on Yun Feng easily. They only surrounded her and didn't do anything. However, their eyes burst out with extremely scorching light when they looked at Yun Feng.

Mu Canghai looked at the Magic Beasts around him with a cold face and clenched his fists. Yun Feng also quieted down when the Magic Beasts didn't move. The strength of the Magic Beasts in front of her wasn't low, but their number was the greatest threat for Yun Feng!

"Why don't I know that I'm a delicious meal in the eyes of the Magic Beasts?" Yun Feng felt the burning eyes of the Magic Beasts and didn't know whether to laugh or cry. Qu Lanyi raised the corners of his mouth. "It seems that the commotion last time has already reached the limit. You're not a delicious meal. You're just teasing them."

“Nana!” Meatball arched its body and roared furiously. Little Fire and Lan Yi both looked at the Magic Beasts in front of them fiercely. Both of them let out suppressed beast roars. Their emotions would be completely ignited if they were even slightly upset!

“Roar...” Finally, the Magic Beasts couldn’t hold back anymore and reached their limit. One of them raised its head and roared as it rushed over quickly. Little Fire also roared fiercely and went forward. The sharp claws of the two Magic Beasts collided, emitting strong anger and blood thirst!

This sudden situation completely ignited the scene. All the Magic Beasts that were still watching just then all moved and pounced on Yun Feng without caring about their lives. Yun Feng held Yaoyao in her arms firmly and quickly flipped her hand. She held the Monarch Level wand in her hand and pointed at the group of Magic Beasts in front of her with coldness in her black eyes.

“Earth Shield!” The huge Earth Shield immediately enveloped all the space around Lan Yi. The group of Magic Beasts that pounced on her was blocked by the Earth Shield that suddenly appeared and they immediately bounced away. Yun Feng put Yaoyao down and immediately jumped into the sky, looking down from above. Her black eyes were cold as she spun the wand in her hand gently.

“Thunder!” Her red lips opened slightly and purple lightning elements suddenly appeared in the air. “Zi, zi, zi.” This suppressed sound came out of the mouth of the silver snake. Then, thunderbolts struck and rumbled!

The lightning snakes danced around and landed on the Magic Beasts crazily. The roars of the Magic Beasts became louder and the scene became even more chaotic!

“Crack, crack!” Cracks suddenly appeared on the surface of the earth element. Qu Lanyi narrowed his black eyes and pulled Yaoyao into his arms. The next second, the Earth Shield shattered and a black shadow rushed in with a roar!

Chapter 858: The Summoners’ Convention (2)

“Light blade!” A dazzling light appeared in Qu Lanyi’s hand and turned into a sharp blade, slashing at the black shadow. The black shadow screamed and was sent flying by the light blade. The Magic Beasts were completely crazy. The black shadows that were flying crazily in this direction were already extremely anxious. Those bastards dared to attack!

The chaotic attack of more than twenty Magic Beasts made the sky in the Ten Thousand Beast Mountain Range extremely chaotic. Loud noises, explosions and the roars of the Magic Beasts complemented each other, making the other Magic Beasts that had been suppressed just then restless. More and more figures had already gathered in the sky above and below this fierce battle! Pairs of eyes stared at the battle in the sky, and their auras were filled with uncontrollable excitement!

Yun Feng didn’t notice the movement below at this moment, but she also knew that it would be even worse if this continued!

“Let’s finish this quickly.” Qu Lanyi flashed to Yun Feng’s side and looked down solemnly. “If we delay any longer, we’ll be facing a group of Magic Beasts.” Yun Feng suddenly glanced around with her black eyes. Several auras had already gathered below at some point. There were an astonishing number of them!

She gritted her teeth. She must finish off the twenty or so Magic Beasts in one move, or there would be endless trouble in the future!

Qu Lanyi knew what Yun Feng was thinking. "Just fuse the elements. I'll be with you!"

Yun Feng nodded. Without hesitation, the three elements appeared in front of her eyes. When Yun Feng was about to press them together fiercely, she suddenly saw a figure with her black eyes. It was Mu Canghai, who had been motionless!

"What is he doing?" Qu Lanyi was also shocked to see Mu Canghai. Yun Feng was about to rush over, but Qu Lanyi suddenly pulled her back. Yaoyao, who was being protected in his arms, froze and her body couldn't help but tremble slightly. Yun Feng looked at Mu Canghai with her black eyes. His tall and skinny body was floating in the air. He slowly closed his eyes and caressed that gray pupil with his finger. Then, he suddenly opened his eyes!

It changed. The space around suddenly changed!

Yun Feng's heart trembled. This was... Yao Guang's unbelievable control of space!

"Roar..." "Roar!" The twenty or so Magic Beasts all struggled in pain in the air, as if they were tightly bound by an invisible force and couldn't move! Little Fire looked at the state of the Magic Beasts in front of it in shock. Meatball was also stunned. Little Fire suddenly turned around and saw Mu Canghai standing in the air with that gray eye emitting a powerful and strange light!

They were torn apart instantly!

A rain of blood and the remains of meat fell from the sky. The twenty or so Magic Beasts were completely torn apart at a visible speed and miserable cries resounded in the sky!

The black shadows that were rushing over suddenly stopped where they were. They looked at the scene in the sky not far away in shock and their bodies couldn't help but tremble slightly! That was, that was... It was completely silent. Only the screams of the Magic Beasts before they died sounded in their ears, and it was suddenly quiet down in the sky above the fierce battle! All the Magic Beasts looked at the sky in fear and looked at the large amount of minced meat on the ground!

The blood didn't stimulate the Magic Beasts to be even more restless. It made them all hide!

Mu Canghai's body that was floating in the air swayed slightly. Seeing that, Yun Feng immediately rushed out. Lan Yi quickly flew and caught Mu Canghai's falling body steadily. Qu Lanyi also rushed over to check Mu Canghai's condition, but Mu Canghai shook his head and smiled lightly with sweat on his pale handsome face. "I'm fine. Senior Yao Guang's ability is indeed powerful. I just overused it."

Yun Feng remained silent. He had instantly tore apart more than twenty Magic Beasts and used his spatial ability. Such a consumption was truly huge. If it weren't Yao Guang himself, nobody would be able to withstand it easily. Looking at the quiet environment around, Yun Feng knew that the Magic Beasts wouldn't dare to show up again.

The griffin flapped its huge wings fiercely and the Fire Cloud Wolf followed closely behind. Red and green light flashed quickly in the Ten Thousand Beast Mountain Range, but no Magic Beasts dared to appear easily anymore!

Mu Canghai's face was even paler. This was the first time he used the ability given by Yao Guang like this. Even though it was powerful, he was also much weaker. Because Mu Canghai was different from other people, Qu Lanyi's light elements didn't work on him. They could only help him recover on his own. This also made Yun Feng realize that if Mu Canghai was injured, the water element and the light element would be useless on him, because he was a resurrected person.

Mu Canghai smiled. He only said that Yun Feng shouldn't worry too much. It was normal for him to not know his limits when he used his ability for the first time. He would definitely be more careful in the future.

Yun Feng nodded. Qu Lanyi, on the other hand, reassured Yun Feng. Although elements couldn't heal him, it didn't mean that other methods wouldn't work. Potions were a feasible method. Even though Mu Canghai was a resurrected person, he still had a physical body. The potions would certainly work on him. Yun Feng was relieved after hearing that. She was a pharmacist herself, so this was certainly not a problem.

After crossing the Ten Thousand Beast Mountain Range, the few of them rushed all the way to the area of the Ancestral Forest Hall. Ling had told Yun Feng that he was going to the Thousand Peak City of the Ancestral Forest Hall.

The journey was quite smooth. With Lan Yi's speed, everyone had already entered the Ancestral Forest Hall in a few days. The Thousand Peak City was located in the north of the Ancestral Forest Hall. Yun Feng had never heard of this city. After all, she had only been to a few places in the Ancestral Forest Hall.

The sound of wind blew past her ears. After a few days of recovery, Mu Canghai was a bit relieved. Yun Feng stood on Lan Yi's back and looked at the vague outline of the town in the distance. She knew that that was the Thousand Peak City. The Sound Transmission Jade in the space of the bracelet flashed again at this moment. Yun Feng took it out and heard Ling's voice. "Miss Yun, where are you now?"

Qu Lanyi was very upset to hear Ling's voice. Yun Feng said, "I'm about to reach the Thousand Peak City."

"Miss Yun, please stay where you are. Don't go into the city. I'll be right there." The Sound Transmission Jade flashed a few times and cut off the connection. Yun Feng was a bit suspicious. Don't go into the city? Even though she had doubts in her mind, Yun Feng still stopped where she was. The griffin's huge body stopped in the air. There was also a large Fire Cloud Wolf on the side. Both of the Magic Beasts were so outstanding. Luckily, she hadn't passed by anyone for a while, or they would have been amazed.

After waiting for a while, Yun Feng saw a person rushing over from the sky in the distance. That person was dressed neatly and had a pair of golden glasses hanging on the bridge of his nose. His gentle eyes were hidden behind the thin glasses. Ling rushed to Yun Feng's side and glanced over with a gentle gaze.

“Miss Yun, you’re finally here.”

Yun Feng smiled and looked at the man on Lan Yi’s back. “I didn’t miss anything, did I?”

Ling chuckled. “Miss Yun, you certainly didn’t miss anything. The Summoners’ Convention won’t be held until a few days later. You came back at the right time.”

Mu Canghai sized up Ling in front of him. Even though he was very polite when he called Yun Feng Miss Yun, the friendliness in his words was real, as if he was very close to Yun Feng.

Ling glanced at Qu Lanyi and Mu Canghai next to Yun Feng indifferently. “Miss Yun, I must tell you a few things about why I asked you not to enter the city.”

Yun Feng nodded. The Summoners’ Convention was a grand event, so it was natural that there were some rules. Yun Feng asked Ling to continue. Ling nodded with a smile. “Miss Yun, the Summoners’ Convention hasn’t started yet. I hope you can promise me a few things.”

Yun Feng raised her brows. “Tell me.”

“First, Miss Yun, you must wear the Ring of Contract. Thousand Peak City has already become a special area. Only summoners and escorts can enter. Don’t take off the Ring of Contract until the end of the Summoners’ Convention.”

Yun Feng nodded, and Ling continued, “Secondly, before the Summoners’ Convention begins, Miss Yun, try not to let your contracted Magic Beasts appear.” Ling looked at the giant griffin and the Fire Cloud Wolf in front of him. “Miss Yun’s Magic Beasts are extraordinary. If you’re too high-profile, you’ll inevitably get into trouble. However, I believe that with Miss Yun’s ability, you won’t care even if there’s trouble. After the convention begins, you certainly don’t have to worry about this problem. Don’t worry and let the Magic Beasts appear.”

Yun Feng nodded. The Summoners’ Convention was certainly different from the others. Since the people who came were all summoners, they weren’t people to be trifled with.

“Thirdly, Miss Yun, please don’t leave the Thousand Peak City during the convention.” Ling’s face became serious. “The Summoning Union’s territory is only the Thousand Peak City. If you leave this territory, the Summoning Union won’t care about anything that happens.”

Yun Feng understood that it was safe in this area, but outside of this area, nobody would be punished for anything like snatching Magic Beasts or malicious killing.

“Fourth, Miss Yun, please wear the badge of the Summoning Union. It’ll save you some trouble.”

Yun Feng nodded. She twisted her wrist gently and took out the four-star badge that had always been in the corner. She casually put it on her chest. Ling smiled when he saw that. “Then please take back your contracted Magic Beasts, Miss Yun. We should enter the city.”

Yun Feng and the others jumped off Lan Yi’s back. A beam of green light enveloped the huge griffin and directly entered Yun Feng’s Ring of Contract. Little Fire curled its lips unhappily. “What a meddlesome rule!”

Ling chuckled. "It's just a few days. Please bear with it."

Little Fire grunted and directly turned into a beam of red light, entering the Ring of Contract. Little Fire's voice sounded in Yun Feng's mind. "Master, I really want to slap his face."

He was certainly referring to Ling. Yun Feng raised the corners of her mouth and put on the green and red Rings of Contract. She wasn't a summoner who liked to wear the Rings of Contract, so she was often misunderstood in the past. Yaoyao was very curious when she saw the rings on Yun Feng's hand. She reached her little hand out and was about to touch it. When Ling saw Yaoyao, his eyes glittered. "Miss Yun, there's also this one."

Meatball jumped onto Yun Feng's shoulder. Of all the Magic Beasts, it was the only one who was fine. With Meatball's appearance as a Magic Pet, nobody would fight for it, especially a summoner who had high expectations for Magic Beasts. Yun Feng touched Yaoyao's head and whispered something to her as she nodded. Then, Yun Feng directly sent Yaoyao into the Dragon Palace.

Seeing that all the Magic Beasts were put away, Ling nodded. "Miss Yun, let's go."

Yun Feng nodded and followed Ling. Qu Lanyi followed Yun Feng unhappily. He had never liked this receptionist of the Summoning Union. Ling slowed down slightly and walked to Yun Feng's other side. "Miss Yun, was that little girl the sea demon you won last time?"

Yun Feng nodded. "That's right. It's that sea demon."

Ling glanced at the Rings of Contract on Yun Feng's finger. "Miss Yun, you still haven't contracted it?"

"There are some reasons. After all, she's still young. Forcefully contracting with her will hurt her."

His thin glasses glittered. "Miss Yun is indeed different."

Yun Feng glanced at Ling, but he had already moved his gaze away. He sped up a bit and walked in front of Yun Feng. Yun Feng saw the green ring on Ling's hand and had a thought in her mind. She saw this ring the first time she saw him. It looked very similar to her Ring of Contract, but Ling said that it was just something to attract attention.

Mu Canghai had been looking behind Ling silently with a thoughtful look. The few of them soon approached the gate of the Thousand Peak City. There were ten serious guards standing outside the tall city gate. They were all at the peak of the Commander Level!

With such a team here, it was obvious that the Summoning Union wasn't easy to deal with. When Ling walked to the front, a guard immediately came up to him. It seemed that he wanted to check everyone's identity carefully. "Master Ling." The guard shouted and Ling nodded. "Miss Yun, routine inspections can't be ignored."

Yun Feng understood and showed her Rings of Contract. The four-star badge on her chest was enough to explain everything. When the guards saw the four-star badge on Yun Feng's chest, they all looked respectful. The four-star badge meant that this young girl in front of them was a Monarch Level summoner!

“These two are Miss Yun’s escorts.” After Ling said that, someone immediately came to register them. Mu Canghai and Qu Lanyi’s names were both on the list. It could be seen how strict this event was. Only the escorts of summoners could enter.

“Miss Yun, please.” Ling smiled lightly and led Yun Feng inside. At this moment, a panting voice came from behind. Then, a figure rushed over in a sorry state. It was a young man in his twenties. The guards immediately rushed forward to stop him.

Chapter 860: The Summoners’ Convention (4)

“I’m a summoner! Look, my Ring of Contract!” The young man immediately showed his ring and looked at the city gate of the Thousand Peak City behind him with a yearning look. The guards glanced at the ring on the young man’s hand and didn’t let him go. “Please summon your contracted Magic Beast.”

The young man was stunned. The guards looked at the young man coldly. “Summon your contracted Magic Beast!”

The young man couldn’t help but look nervous. He immediately looked at Yun Feng, who was about to enter the city. “Wait! Why didn’t you ask her to do that? Why did you treat her differently?”

The guards didn’t change their expression and ignored what the young man said at all. However, Yun Feng turned around when she heard his noisy voice. The young man immediately shouted when he saw Yun Feng, “You didn’t ask her to do this. Why do you want me to do this?”

Yun Feng raised her brows. Why was she caught in trouble wherever she went? Ling smiled at Yun Feng and walked over. “Sir, that lady registered with the Summoning Union. What about you? What’s your name? Did you register?” Ling’s smile made the young man suddenly feel embarrassed. Looking at the notebook that suddenly appeared in Ling’s hand, the young man stammered, “I... I didn’t register.”

Ling’s eyes glittered. “In that case, it’s not too late to register now. Please summon your Magic Beast. I want to check it.”

The young man grunted. A beam of light flashed and an earthy yellow lizard appeared on the ground. Ling glanced at it and the guard on the side suddenly jumped out, slashing at the lizard with the long knife in his hand! Before the young man could react, the body of the lizard had already been cut off by the long knife and it fell on the ground.

“You...” The young man was so shocked by this sudden scene that he didn’t know what to do. Ling’s face turned cold as he looked at the ring on the young man’s hand. “It couldn’t even dodge a normal attack. Are you really a summoner?”

The young man’s face suddenly turned pale. Ling closed the notebook in his hand and a glint flashed through his glasses. “Tamers aren’t qualified to come here. You can leave.”

“I... I... Just let me in! I really want to take a look!” The young man couldn’t help but feel anxious when he saw that his identity was exposed. The two guards immediately stopped him. Ling turned around with a faint smile on his elegant face again as he walked to Yun Feng. “Miss Yun, we can go now.”

Yun Feng glanced at the young man who was stopped outside. Ling noticed Yun Feng's gaze and chuckled. "Miss Yun, you don't have to worry about it. The Summoners' Convention is so grand that many people want to come, but they don't understand one thing."

Yun Feng didn't say anything. She glanced at the side of Ling's handsome face and coldness suddenly seeped out of the corners of his mouth, which had always been gentle and smiling. "Not everyone is qualified to step into this world."

Qu Lanyi and Mu Canghai both looked gloomy. The coldness that Ling emitted just then made their hearts palpitate. Then, as if nothing happened, Ling turned around and smiled gently at Yun Feng. "Miss Yun, Ling isn't a summoner. Do you despise me?"

Yun Feng was startled. "Of course not."

Ling chuckled. "In that case, I'm relieved."

Yun Feng only felt a bit awkward in her mind. She soon came to the closed gate of the Thousand Peak City. As the gate was slowly opened, an old aura mixed in the air and spread out. Yun Feng seemed to be able to imagine the long history and influence of this event. She could imagine what kind of anticipation this event that was held regularly carried.

Ling stood in front of the open door and lowered his body slightly. He slowly raised his arm and a beam of sunlight shone down, making Yun Feng narrow her eyes slightly.

"Miss Yun, welcome to the Thousand Peak City and the Summoners' Convention."

The corners of Yun Feng's mouth curled up and her steps were very firm. After walking through this giant door, what greeted her was a meeting that belonged to the summoners themselves, the world of the summoners!

Thousand Peak City, as the venue of the Summoners' Convention this time, had already become a forbidden area that outsiders couldn't enter. Only summoners and summoners' accompanying personnel could enter. Then, there were the staff of the Summoning Union. It was impossible for outsiders to sneak into Thousand Peak City. The Summoning Union wasn't easy to deal with.

All the natives in the Thousand Peak City also moved out of the city. During the Summoners' Convention, only one kind of people could be active in the city, summoners!

After entering the Thousand Peak City, Yun Feng felt a rather oppressive atmosphere. People walked on the streets from time to time. Everyone certainly had a Ring of Contract that symbolized their identity. It was the first time Yun Feng saw so many summoners. It seemed that all the summoners in the world were gathered here. She thought there were very few professions, but there were so many of them like bamboo shoots after the rain.

"Miss Yun, don't be surprised. The number of summoners isn't as small as you think. They're just rarer than other professions. The vastness of this continent makes them look even fewer."

That was indeed the case. There might be a lot of summoners, but the population of the continent was too huge, which led to the rarity of such a profession. However, there would be more of them after they gathered, especially for such a convention.

“Are all summoners registered in the Summoning Union?” Yun Feng asked as she watched. There was a huge age gap between summoners. She saw some young people, but she had never seen a summoner younger than her.

Ling smiled helplessly. “Of course not. The Summoning Union only registers a part of the West Continent. Many summoners don’t want to be restrained like this. They like to enjoy a free life. There are many lone wolves among the summoners.”

Yun Feng clicked her tongue. It turned out that only a small part of the summoners were registered. The lineup of summoners was quite spectacular. This Summoners’ Convention would certainly attract many loners. “Miss Yun, I remember that the little girl who followed you last time is called Xia Qing. She’s also a summoner, right?”

Yun Feng chuckled. Xia Qing was her student. She certainly couldn’t miss such a grand event. “Yes, she’ll come after everything is settled.”

Ling smiled and didn’t say anything else. He continued walking forward with Yun Feng. Under Ling’s lead, they walked a long distance and seemed to have reached the end of the other side of the Thousand Peak City. Finally, Ling stopped. In front of him was another area that was sealed off. It seemed to be more heavily guarded than the gate. This should be the resting area where the summoners gathered. However, was it necessary to be so vigilant in the Thousand Peak City?
