Jeremy put down Yvonne's hand and whispered in her car, "Yvonne, I'm going to listen to what she's saying on the phone:

After Yvonne nodded, he ran to Kelvin, got close, and put his car to his phone to listen.

Coincidentally, Nina was talking when Jeremy approached.

"Marian is just a three-year-old child. There may be some misunderstanding between her and Yvonne's necklace. Maybe she thought that necklace was beautiful, so she put it on herself."

Upon hearing this, Jeremy found it incredible.

There was only one thought in his mind at this time.

What happened to Nina? Could it be that Marian tricked her?

'I have only met Marian a few times but still noticed something wrong with her. Why does Nina still believe that Marian is an ordinary three-year-old child?

'But Marian's appearance is really deceptive. If it weren't for seeing her pushing Yvonne on video, I would sometimes be in a trance!'

Thinking of the video, Jeremy was stunned for a second.

He still had a video stored on a USB drive. He should take it to Nina and let her know the true face of Marian.

Thinking of this, he suddenly stood up and hurried upstairs to his room to find something.

The USB drive was put in the small pocket of his schoolbag, and this time it seemed to have been brought with him.

After going back and searching for a long time, he really found it.

He grabbed the USB drive and ran down. But unfortunately, the phone had already been hung up.

Kelvin put his phone on the coffee table and glanced at him. He asked lightly, "What are you doing?"

Jeremy approached, stretched out his palm, and showed him what was in his hand.

He said, "Dad. Give this USB drive to the Yates family and let them know that Marian is not as simple as they think."

Kelvin asked slowly, "What's inside?"

"It's just some videos of Marian bullying Yvonne. When the Yates family adopted, she took Yvonne to a remote place in the morning when no one was there," Jeremy said.

"Bullying Yvonne? It should be handed over to the Holmes family."

Jeremy hesitated for a moment. Finally, he shoved it into Kelvin's hand and said, "It's okay, you can ask your assistant to get two copies. One on each side."

Just thinking about it, Marian's fate would be bad after they got the video.

However, Oliver had a good relationship with him.

Although Oliver had no feelings for Marian, Nina liked her.

How miserable it would be if Marian wanted to go against the Holmes family. So Jeremy wanted to help.

Kelvin got the USB driver and had his assistant do it.

At two o'clock in the afternoon, the Yates family in Strate City received a mysterious package.

They opened it and saw a brand new USB driver.

Nina thought it was someone's prank. After turning it on, she was out of interest.

However, after watching for half a minute, when the protagonist appeared on the screen, her eyes suddenly froze and her expression became serious.

Robert was sitting next to her. When he saw the scene being played, he quickly recognized it. "This is... Orphanage.

He had been to the orphanage and was still deeply impressed by it.

The video quality was restored by professionals so they could clearly see who the two children were on the screen.

It was early morning. Marian walked into a dormitory. She stayed there for two minutes before coming out.

When she came out, she was followed by a little girl.

When Nina saw the girl's face clearly, she exclaimed in surprise, "Yvonne?"

'Isn't the relationship between them very bad? Why did it look so intimate in the video? They went out to play together before dawn.'

She was more confused and continued to watch it.

The two children disappeared at the end of the corridor in the dormitory corridor. The next video started from the playground.

Yvonne stood still with some hesitation, and Marian turned to pull her, saying a lot.

After about half a minute, Yvonne was finally willing to follow her.

They disappeared again.

Seeing the direction they were leaving, Nina felt something was amiss.

From the surveillance video from another angle, it could be seen that the place where Marian and Yvonne went had no buildings at all and was empty.

How did they go there so early in the morning?

Ten minutes later, Marian came back from the direction she had gone. Yvonne, who was supposed to be with her, disappeared.

"What... What does this mean?" Nina was still confused when she saw this.

Robert, who stood behind her, was thoughtful.

He stretched out his finger to the time in the lower-left corner of the video and said, "Nina, look at this time. It happened to be the day I went to the orphanage to adopt Yvonne."

Nina took a look and it was true.

Robert continued, "I was going to adopt Yvonne at that time, but the dean said she was not in the dormitory. I thought she was lost, so I helped find her. At that moment, Marian appeared.

"She said she was Yvonne's best friend, and Yvonne told her she didn't want to come to our home and wanted to stay at the orphanage and wait for her parents to pick her up,"

Marian was only a three-year-old child at the time, so they didn't doubt what she said.

Robert felt a little regretful and wanted to go back. But Marian was so pitiful that he adopted her.

Originally, he thought that the Yates family was destined to miss Yvonne, but he didn't expect Marian to do it on purpose.

"Robert, do you mean that Marian deliberately cheated Yvonne away in order for you to adopt her?"

After thinking of this, in addition to disbelief, Nina felt scared.

After all, Marian was only three years old at that time!

If Marian entered the Yates family in this way, did that mean that her previous claims that Yvonne bullied her were false?

With such doubts in mind, Nina opened the next video.

Sure enough, it was the same as what she had just thought.

The image of Marian in the video and her pitiful appearance in front of Nina were simply different.

She always said that Yvonne had bullied her. But in this video, the person being bullied was obviously Yvonne!

Nina felt a chill in her back at the thought of Marian acting like a spoiled child with a naive face.

She had seen too many hypocritical people, so she especially liked simple kids.

But unexpectedly, she was cheated by a little girl.

Robert saw that her face was extremely pale and asked softly, "Nina, these..."

Nina suppressed the pain in her heart and said slowly, "Put them aside." As if she had made a major determination, she added, "After we go back, we will send her back to the orphanage."

Marian was just terrible.
