Chapter 177

Kevin shrank to the side.

The white arm stretched out in front of him, shining in the dim light, and the presence was too strong

But he shrank because he saw Jeremy roll up his sleeves, not his muscles.

On TV, this kind of action usually only occurs when hitting someone.

It was not that he was timid. When someone that huge crouches beside him, looking like one punch could send him to the hospital, anyone would be terrified.

Hearing what I

Jeremy had just said about liking Yvonne, Kevin subconsciously defended himself. "I don't like her!"

This is nonsense. When I apologized to her in the office today, I hated her. How can I like her?"

Jeremy narrowed his eyes and stared at his flustered expression, with a meaningful expression on his face.

"No

He leaned over. got very close, and a whole enlarged handsome face went up, looking like a classic shooting technique in a soap drama.

If Kevin were not a four-year-old fat child, it might be a particularly eye-catching scene.

And Jeremy was not the male lead of the idol drama, just a protective brother pushed to the brink of fury.

"Are you sure you don't? For example, you don't have any thoughts of talking to her?"

Kevin froze, and he shook his head desperately in anger.

"No! Who would want to talk to her?"

The tone in this sentence was fierce, and he looked very imposing.

But Jeremy felt even angrier. Pretty like a ghost, he stared daggers at Kevin.

Jeremy's young voice was extremely erratic. "If not... What are you shy about?"

"Who's shy!" Kevin was so big that he wanted to jump away, but was pressed back by Jeremy's powerful hand. Jeremy knew it

They were all boys, and he also came from this age. How could he not know?

"You are still pretending" Jeremy said.

When he was young, many boys in the class bullied the girls they liked to get their attention, and then secretly felt happy.

But Yvonne was only three years old now!

Although Yvonne looked very cute, had a good personality, was very obedient, and was very likable. She has countless advantages

Adults, the elderly, men, women, and girls could all like Yvonne

But little boys of her same age were definitely not allowed to get close to her!

Chapter 177

Boys that age reeked of dirt and recklessness after roughhousing underground. No way Jeremy would let that stench near hist sweet, soft little sister..

Jeremy knew that his thoughts were a bit extreme, and he didn't even know how he became a protective brother.

But when he found out, he had already accepted that identity and enjoyed it.

The principle of protective brothers: absolutely no boys except them can get near their sister.

It was inviolable.

Jeremy gritted his molars. He wrapped his arms around Kevin's neck and lowered his voice in a sullen threat.

"You are not allowed to like my sister, and stay away from her in the future. If I know that you harassed her in school again, believe it or not, I will directly punch you into a triple fold

Kevin looked at him in horror. "What is triple folding?"

On the right, Taylor, who was listening to the whole process, patted Jeremy's arm, his face full of disapproval.

"Jeremy, don't scare a child like that."

Hearing someone speak for him, Kevin leaned over and distanced himself from Jeremy.

Taylor blocked him with one hand, keeping him at bay.

Apparently, he also disliked little boys of this age.

He looked down at Kevin, who was obviously relieved. His aged face was dignified, and his eyes were very sharp.

He didn't protect Kevin, but changed to a more elegant solution.

"Chubby boy, you are not allowed to bully Yvonne at school in the future; she is my apprentice."

Kevin looked at him blankly, his young voice trembling. "You, who are you?"

Taylor certainly wouldn't give Kevin his name.

He thought for a moment and came up with an answer that could intimidate Kevin.

"I'm Yvonne's master, and I'm also someone who can add your homework."

There were too many resources that a top academician could leverage.

And adding some homework to children could also promote their learning, which was a good thing.

Kevin shivered even more. 'God, why is Yvonne's house full of monsters! Especially this big guy who rolls up his sleeves, His whole body exudes evil breath. It is too scary.

Kevin was going back to tell his father that Yvonne's brother was so fierce that he could blow Kevin away with one pun

And this old man was not a gardener, but an excellent teacher.

He wanted to run, but Jeremy wouldn't let him go.

Your dad is chatting with my dad now. Play with me for a while. Don't go in and disturbs them."

Kevin didn't dare to move. The once-feral troublemaker was now broken.

Chapter 177

He only hoped that the strong Jeremy wouldn't suddenly give him a punch.

As for what Carlson told Kevin when he came out, it was completely forgotten, and he had no impression at all.

After waiting outside on thin ice for a long time. Kevin finally saw Carlson come out of the living room.

Like a drowning person seeing a life-saving straw, he hurriedly pounced on Carlson.

Carlson was in a bad mood, apparently due to an unpleasant chat with Kelvin.

He didn't do well in there just now,

Therefore, he did not notice the strangeness of Kevin at this time.

But Kelvin found out.

Seeing Kevin's face full of happiness for surviving the disaster, his faint gaze fell on Jeremy, looking light, but also extremely heavy.

Jeremy was not guilty; he was righteous.

After Carlson and Kevin left, Kelvin came over and scolded Jeremy in a neither too harsh nor too mild tone.

"How brave, bullying a four-year-old"

"He is four years old? So what?" Jeremy was unconvinced. "He bullied Yvonne first. That's how boys of this age are. I have to make him feel afraid, or he will bully Yvonne next time."

Jeremy pointed to Taylor beside him.

"And Taylor also threatened him. Why didn't you criticize him?"

Kelvin looked over, and Taylor stood up with a bag full of leaves, full of resentment.

"What, you want to teach me a lesson?"

He practically glared over. The grudge from being treated like a fool back then still hadn't been settled, so how could he not be seething with resentment?

Kelvin was speechless.

Jeremy was laughing without any worry.

Although he didn't get back his little orange, he managed to chase away a little boy with bad intentions for Yvonne.

Today was still a fulfilling and happy day.
