chapter 301 65 % Gabriel stared at the bank card pushed toward him , his expression frozen in stunned anger , as if he hadn't quite processed what was happening .

After several seconds of silence , he finally spoke , his voice hollow and distant .

No , we He touched his pocket and said blankly , Excuse me , let me check my phone : Henry raised his hand .

Go ahead Gabriel scrutinized the compensation amount , punching numbers into his calculator until he was certain it was too much .

Way too much .

Henry , unfazed by his concern , replied casually .

It's fine .

We just rounded it up That simple , offhand remark hit Gabriel like a shockwave This was how they rounded up For the first time, he truly felt the staggering divide between their worlds .

His attitude was not as guarded as it was at the beginning , but he still did not take the card .

It was he who made the decision , and he should bear the consequences of the debt , but thinking of his current financial constraints , of course , he wanted it , but he only wanted to get back what he had lost .

Take back the extra , he said .

But once the Jones family gave something , they never took it back .

A hint of helplessness flickered across Henry's face , and just as he was about to say something , someone spoke before him .

It was the woman beside him who had been silent all along .

Her voice , like the impression she gave , was calm and rational .

She said , Accept it , Mr.

Hill Don't make things so complicated .

The money was from Tinley , and the amount was her decision .

If Gabriel insisted on returning the excess , theyd have to report it , wait for approval , and issue a new payment down to the exact digit , a tedious process .

That was the Holmes familys style of doing things , very strict .

Furthermore , Tinley would make the Jones family pay back the money given to Gabriel today with interest Therefore , there was no need to return the extra money .

Her tone was calm , and Gabriel was numb after hearing it Seeing their genuine indifference , he hesitated , then finally relented .

He took the card , gripping it tightly .

The password ? Henry only then remembered to tell him .

After receiving the card and password , Gabriel had the urge to pay back all the money right away He stuffed it into his pocket , the vigilance in his heart almost gone .

Maybe something went wrong somewhere , and he 6-35 Sat , 12 Apr N Chapter 301 seemed to have misunderstood them .

Thinking about his attitude when he first entered the dent , he felt a little apelingerie Henry sensed it and asked kindly , Can see sit down and talk new we Gabriel , in front of him , sat down and apologized for his attitude when he first entered the dose Henry didnt mind .

He took out the other and from the box and pushed it over to him .

Weve also made an appointment for your brothers surgery .

This is the contact information of the doctor who will be performing the surgery .

You can contact him at any time Gabriels eyes flickered as he booked at the doctors contact information on the private finess card , and his grip on the card tightened .

He had heard many doctors speak of this person in respectful tones when he was taking Hudson to seek medical treatment Gabriel was able to piece together some information from their fragmented words .

This man was an expert among experts , and with him , the success rate of Hudsons surgery could reach 900: However , the number of surgeries he performed each year was limited , and ordinary people did not even have the opportunity to contact him , let alone make an appointment for his surgery Therefore .

Gabriel did not dare to hope for this person .

His original plan was to find the most authoritative doctor he could reach .

After all , he was unknown , had no background , and did not have much money .

Moreover , the more contact he had , the more he felt that there were many things that money could not solve .

He did not expect that one day this opportunity would come knocking on his door , and the surgery could be done at any time If Hudson knew about this , he would probably be 100 excited to sleep .

He accepted it ; it was really important to him .

Thank you .

He had never thought about the reward before choosing to reject the Jones family , but both of these things were exactly what he desperately needed right now .

Perhaps it would be misinterpreted by them , but it didnt matter .

Henry , who had been quietly observing the changes in his expression , knew that this gift was exactly what Gabriel needed .

the contract that was lying next to h to him.

He then pushed it back to Cabriel in the He didnt think much of it and picked up same manner .

This is ... Gabriel was puzzled after only glancing at the cover .

He tested the thickness of the document with his hand , his eyes growing even more confused It wasnt a contract for a show or a script .

I have already signed a contract with the company .

Its an S class contract , Gabriel reminded him .

Henry knew , of course .

He smiled slightly and said , That contract was signed with the company .

This one is between you and the Holmes family .

The two are not the same .

However , if you sign the contract with the Holmes family , the other one you signed with the company will be voided .

The Holmes family had their own rules and regulations , which took precedence over others , 16:35 Sat.

He w After a thorough discussion , Gabriel finally understood every clause .

His concerns had been addered .

There were e hidden traps .

The contract was generous , surprisingly flexible , except for one thing its duration .

It spanned from now until has gal It was like he was signing away his entire career to the Holmes family But even so , Gabriel felt that he was the one who took advantage .

Because what they were offering was simply too generous .

Holding the thick contract , he felt as if he was now holding a pass to the glory and wealth of the rest of his life .

Gabriel felt a little unreal , as if he were in a dream .

He heard his own erratic voice , Why Why him ? He hadnt done anything extraordinary , and now he felt a little flattered He was the kind of person who usually felt that money was hard to earn , but when someone really gave him money , he didnt dare to accept it .

Maybe he was just used to being poor .

Seeing his lack of confidence at the moment , Henry smiled and said in a very determined tone , Mr.

Hill , please believe in the vision of our Patriarch , and believe in yourself .

What remained unspoken was Henrys certainty that the money Gabriel would earn for them would far exceed the base salary currently offered by Tinley Even his colleagues created value that definitely deserved their salaries Of course , he was the only exception .

He even wondered if he was fated to be poor .

His words had clearly swayed Gabriel Without further hesitation , he asked Henry for a pen and carefully signest his name Chapter 301 on the contract .

There were two copies in total , and he took one back after signing .

Henrys smile became more genuine as he sincerely congratulated Gabriel on joining the company .

The woman sitting next to him took out her phone and sent a message .

After settling the contract , they began to discuss work .

This was also what Henry was most concerned about .

After all , whether he could hold his head high depended entirely on Gabriel .

His tone was laced with concern as he asked , What do you think of your your current agent ? Do you need a new one ? He moved quickly , pulling out his tablet and bringing up the profiles of several of the companys current top agents as he spoke Gabriel shook his head without looking .

Nolan is very good .

Still adjusting to Henrys sudden enthusiasm , he remained reserved .

At this time , the woman spoke again , introducing herself , My name is Cora , and Im also your colleague .

It might be a little difficult for you since youve just joined , so Ill guide you through the transition .

She had been with the Holmes family for a long time since she was a kid , and she had a lot of authority , so what she said carried weight .

She could slowly help Cabriel get the authority he deserved .

It was probably also a bit of a supervisory role .

In short , it was a very important position .

At noon today , Wendy asked the few free people in the WhatsApp group who wanted to be the newcomers teacher , and almost everyone said they would like to .

Cora was the only one who didnt say anything , and then Wendy chose her , thinking that she wouldnt be distracted by men and would be able to concentrate on her work . The two most enthusiastic people came to her to complain , wailing and groaning .

Cora didnt know how to comfort them .

It was only for a short period .

After the New Year , she would be able to leave .

She had her own work to do .

She was only idle these two months because shed already hit this years performance benchmarks .

After all , not everyone one was like Henry .

After the three of them had finished discussing everything that needed attention , Gabriel and Cora left the office .

Freshly onboarded , his schedule overflowed with tasks .

This entire week would be consumed just keeping up , leaving no room for actual work .

Cora glanced at the list , moved the most important things to the front , and turned to Gabriel beside her .

Lets move first .

The place you live in now is quite dangerous .

Gabriel agreed and nodded his thanks to her sincerely .

You dont have to be so polite .

We are colleagues Coras expression was indifferent .

As she took him downstairs to get the car , she suddenly thought of something .

She took out her cell phone , stopped , and added Gabriel on WhatsApp .

Then she kept looking down at her phone and operating it .

After finishing , she explained .

I pulled you into a small internal group of ours .

4/6 16:35 Sat , 12 Apr N NN .

Chapter 301 There were more than 30 people in it .

The moment he joined , a torrent of messages flooded in , conversations exploding faster than his eyes could follow .

But it only took a few minutes .

Because Gabriel was busy , he put his cell phone in his pocket .

Three hours later , after dark , he returned home .

When he took out his phone and opened it again , the topic of the group had completely changed He scrolled through the chat history , silently reading their past conversations .

Someone posted many secretly taken photos of children and spoke in the chat I saw Miss Adler .

When I went there , she was swinging her legs next to Madam Tinley , nibbling on an apple .

Shes so cute , I really wanted to snatch her apple .

] [ By the way , I feel like Madam Tinley was coaxed into a good mood by Miss Adler today .

There was a little accident at my store today because the security wasnt good , but she just told me to be more careful next time and let me go [ If any of you have done anything wrong in the past two days , go confess NOW .

Maybe you can still get out of the Holmes family unscathed .

I cant guarantee itll be that easy later .

] The long message was particularly eye catching .

Gabriel didnt understand and scrolled through his phone , confused .

But the people in the group were obviously much more excited , as messages popped up constantly .

If Cora hadnt told him that the people in the group were all senior executives like Henry , he would have thought he had joined some hobbyist chat .

Regardless of what he thought , the group remained active .

[ Really ? Im going then .

Last night , I just directed my people to do something stupid , and I havent dared to tell the head of the family yeL ] [ Meet me at the entrance of the alley outside the Holmes residence , and well go in together .

I also want to take this opportunity to come clean .

] [ Okay , come quickly ; Im already in the car .

] [ Godspeed you two .

Update us afterward ! And check what Miss Adler is doing while youre there .

] There were many similar messages , and Gabriel even spotted his usually stern boss participating , texting entirely unlike his .

professional self .

Gabriel exited the room , found Coras WhatsApp contact , and messaged her out of curiosity : [ What are they talking about in the group ? I dont quite understand it .

Cora probably was on her phone too , as her message came back quickly .

[ Ignore them .

Youll get used to it .

] After this message was sent , he saw typing ... displayed at the top of the WhatsApp chat , so he didnt rush to exit and waited a few more seconds .

A string of messages popped up .

[ If you ever do something wrong , you can pay attention to this kind of message in the group .

According to their experience , choose a time when Madam Tinley is in a good mood to admit your mistake , and there is a 40 % chance of getting away with it .

If Miss Adler happens to be there , the success rate will increase by another 50 % .

] 16-35 501 , 12 Apt H Chapter 301 All this came from their experience .
