Chapter 306 No one seemed to know where the news came from at first , but it spread especially fast .

At first , people were skeptical .

But after the first group visited Carlson in the hospital and saw his beaten body for themselves , the rumors were confirmed .

Despite having a whole bunch of servants and bodyguards , none of them noticed what happened or came to his rescue .

If the butler hadnt gone to see him for something , who knows how long he would have been lying on the balcony floor ? This was so humiliating ! After the first two people who went to the hospital came back , the news was confirmed and it spread even further .

With at mixture of curiosity and a desire to verify the truth , they all decided to go and see for themselves , At that time , Carlson was still lying unconscious in the hospital bed , his wounds already treated .

He lay there , his face bruised and swollen , and someone even took a few pictures , which were seen by all those who didnt This time , he really lost face .

Carlson couldnt accept this humiliation .

He shut his eyes , his face turning ashen .

He stayed completely silent so still he might have passed out .

In the dead of night , he was so angry that he couldnt sleep The butler didnt dare to speak either .

The atmosphere was quiet and strange ..

After beating up Carlson , Grave took the account book and went back .

After returning to the Holmes family , he handed things over to Wendy and ran to the kitchen to find something to eat .

He had been assigned tasks as soon as he got up this morning , and he left without eating .

So he had gone easy on Carlson earlier .

When she took the account book , Wendy gave him a strange look , obviously aware that he had beaten Carlson into the hospital to vent his anger .

But she didnt say anything , probably acquiescing .

After taking two steps out , probably thinking of something , she turned around and instructed him , Grave , its fine if you act recklessly on your own , but dont let your violence affect Miss Adler .

Grave said nothing and , with a sullen face , prepared to leave .

Wendy called out to him .

This was really important , so she asked in a serious tone .

Did you hear what I just She looked like she wouldnt let him leave unless he answered her .

Grave just nodded impatiently .

He was starving and wanted to get to the kitchen .

He was indeed perfunctory because he didnt really listen .

By that evening , he had already forgotten what Wendy had told him .

While taking a walk with Yvonne , they had a rare conflict with someone .

1/5 said ? Chapter 306 It happened in the park behind the Holmes residence .

The park had the large al lake in all of Sene Gry and was a popolar local attraction .

It was even livelier at night , with many elderly people coming to take a walk after dinner .

The kids were about to be on vacation , so there were even more people than usual Jeremy was carrying Yvonne in his arms as he walked in front .

Grave traced behind them , two steps behind .

There were of people here , and he couldnt help but feel a little socially anxious , though the dim evening light offered sligh He was in no mood to appreciate the surrounding bustle and scenery .

All he could think about was when these two people would finish shopping and go back Jeremy , bursting with youthful energy , had other plans .

As they were walking , they saw some antique stalls on the ground .

Like a moth to flame , he was drawn irresistibly forward Yvonne immediately tensed in his arms , tugging at his clothes and whispering in his ear .

Jeremy , this isnt fun Jeremy , of course , didnt listen .

Didnt he know whether it was fun or not ? The people standing around were all elderly men , and the moment he stepped in , he lowered the average age of onlookers .

He didnt bring his phone today .

When he saw the things in the stall , he lowered his eyes and asked Yvonne in his arms .

Yvonne , do you have any money ? Lets buy something and go home to play .

Yvannes delicate features froze in blank astonishment .

After a long pause , she shook her head slowly .

She was just a child .

Where would she get money Alright .

A little disappointed , Jeremy wasnt giving up yet .

He looked at Grave , who had been following behind them .

Even in the dim light , Grave could see the excitement in Jeremys eyes .

Grave , do you have any ? he asked expectantly It was the first time anyone had ever asked to borrow money from Grave .

The feeling was quite novel to him .

He didnt say anything but silently took out his phone , his intention quite clear .

He had money , and he could give it to Jeremy right now .

Although he didnt say a word , he was super generous with his money .

Grave had a fortune , but he didnt know how to spend it .

Perhaps that was how low the material desires of an assassin were He racked his brains for a long time and finally decided that after earning a little more , he would give all the money to Tinley and ask her to find someone to build another villa for him on the small island .

He had no connections and didnt know anyone , so it was more reliable to ask Tinley for help .

As he looked down at his phone , a small , soft , white hand suddenly rested on his wrist .

He knew who the owner of the hand was just by looking at it .

He looked up and , sure enough , it was Yvonne .

Yvonne , who was being held level with him , placed her right hand on his wrist and shook her head nervously as they made eye contact .

After all , he used to be a killer , so it was normal for him to have exceptional eyesight .

Not only did Grave see her shake her head , but he also saw her chubby cheeks and the expression on her face .

K 64 % The little hand only stayed on his wrist for two seconds before it was quickly withdrawn , as if afraid of being seen .

She stealthily put it away , pretending that nothing had happened .

Hey , this kid .

Grave knew what she meant .

She didnt want him to give Jeremy money , But perhaps out of sheer contrariness , he pretended not to notice .

He handed his phone to Jeremy , even sharing the payment password .

He really didnt care about money , probably because all his other material needs had been met .

Besides , Jeremy was the heir of the Adler family next door .

Even though he stayed on the island all year round , he knew that the Adler family was a big family on par with the Holmes family .

So there was no way Jeremy would cover his little money .

Being trusted like this made Jeremy very happy .

When he took the phone , he handed Yvonne in his arms to Grave Thanks , Grave .

Lets add each other on WhatsApp when we get back , and Ill return all the money I used tonight .

He was a good boy who took the initiative to return the money .

Grave , who rarely acknowledged others , said coldly .

Okay Jeremy turned and squeezed into the stall .

Jeremy had spent the past few days cramming books on antique appraisal and history , all recommended by Kenny .

He felt he had made rapid progress and now was the perfect time to put his newfound knowledge to the test .

He was determined to redeem himself ! Grave , left behind with Yvonne , held her stiffly .

Suddenly , he heard her sigh .

Looking down , he saw the adorable little girl with a dejected expression , a far cry from the curious child she was upon arrival .

Whats wrong ? Does she suddenly get depressed ? uld return to sleep .

Grave didnt ask further , considering this a good thing .

The sooner she lost interest , the sooner they could Yvonne was indeed down .

Unhappy , she puffed out her cheeks like a grumpy pufferfish , her big , round , black eyes fixed on Grave .

Her childish voice was full of disapproval Mr.

Sterling , didnt you see my hand just now ? She had risked being discovered by Jeremy to give him a hint ! I did , Grave replied succinctly .

Her downcast eyes widened .

Her big eyes stared at him in disbelief , her voice drawing out .

Why ? Why did he still give the money to Jeremy ! I gave it because I wanted to .

He answered capriciously .

look Perhaps she didnt expect to hear such an answer .

Her big watery eyes stared blankly for a moment , then she turned to at Jeremy who had been swallowed by the crowd .

The heartbroken expression on her face grew even stronger .

Although she had been dozing off that night , she remembered clearly that as soon as Jeremy squatted down next to these Chapter 100 strange things , he was attracted to them as it his body was glued them and Yvonne didnt understand , but she really wasnt interested in the things She wanted to wander around , not want here hoped Yvonne was hearthaken , and Grave was not much better Ten minutes later , Jeremy , who never smiled , spoke expressionlessly to Yeone in him .

He you but events ther When are you going back to sleep ? Yvonne , being asked , leaned weakly against him , her eyes closed as it she was about to ta Its not up to me now .

Before Grave could even ask , she said , You are going to ask when Jeremy is lewing By this time , Jeremy was already nowhere to be found in the crowd .

Looking at the unfamiliar faces coming and going , Grave had a bad feeling to confirm his booth , ed .

How long do it usually take Jeremy to buy things ? I dont know , Yvonne was already drowsy .

She only perked up when she heard the sound , shook her linde head , and replied .

Jeremy likes these things a lot .

He will play for a long time The long time in a childs mouth was not a reliable reference , Grave thought for a moment , woke her up , and asked Compared to the time you spent playing with the other little girl at the Allem residence , which one is longer ? Yvonne thought for a moment and then said without hesitation , Jeremy takes longer She didnt feel the passage of time at all when she was playing with Anna , but when she was waiting for her brother , the felt that time was particularly long

After saying that , she closed her eyes and was ready to go back to sleep .

She rested her head on Graves shoulder , her sof voice filled with drowsiness .

Thank you , Mr.

Sterling .

Hold me tight .

Im going to sleep now .

What a polite child But Grave had a heart of stone .

He coldly woke up the sleepy Yvonne , as if to say .

If I cant sleep , neither do you When Yvonne , sleepy eyed and drowsy , asked him what he was doing , he said coldly .

Dont sleep , lets go find Jeremy .

You tell him to go home .

Okay , said Yvonne .

Yvonne responded obediently .

She rubbed her eyes , forced herself awake , and searched the passing crowd Grave was also searching .

Perhaps his eyesight wasnt as good as Yvonnas , but he had received professional training , and he was the fastest and most accurate at finding people .

After walking for a few minutes , he spotted Jeremys figure .

Afraid that Jeremy would run away again , he hurried after Jeremy .

In the next second , an arm thrust in from the side , shoving him back two steps .

An elderly woman , leading her grandson by hand , turned to look at him with displeasure .

Watch where youre going she 4/5 16:36 Sat , 12 Apr NNN .

Chapter 306 snapped , glaring up at him .

No respect for elders nowadays ! With that , she pulled her grandson along and slowly shuffled in front of Grave .

Grave glanced at Jeremys retreating figure as he merged into the crowd .

Thinking of his own sleep .

Grave was anxious to catch up with Jeremy and ignored the person in front of him .

He tried to get around the two , but the dense crowd forced accidental contact .

The womans temper flared again .

She suddenly reached out and grabbed Graves arm , looking him up and down .

His silence seemed to mark him as an easy target in her mind , someone she could bully without consequence .

Her eyes narrowed , and she let out a snort before suddenly speaking , her tone obviously unconcerned .

Whats the rush ? As if youre the only one in a hurry .

Her voice was loud , overbearing , and shrill , immediately attracting the attention of passersby .

The angrier the elderly woman got , the more animated she became , letting go of her grandsons hand and gesturing wildly Look at all these people .

Everyone is in a hurry .

Why are you pushing and shoving ? Her words seemed neutral , and those around who didnt know the truth subconsciously stood behind her .

Grave didnt bother to talk to her .

He shook off her hand and walked forward without a word .

By this time , he could no longer see Jeremy .

There were too many people , and he didnt know where Jeremy had been squeezed to .

Seeing that he was unwilling to talk to her , the woman became unhappy .

Seeing her hand being thrown away , she felt that it was a sign of weakness , and she became even angrier .

This time , she reached out and grabbed his arm .

Her tone was full of command , as if she was superior .

Stop ! Dont y you have any munnners ? She had already forgotten where she had left her grandson Being stopped repeatedly , Grave couldnt help but get angry .

He frowned slightly .

He was already in a bad mood because he had lost Jeremy , and now it was even worse .

Let go , he said coldly , his gaze fixed on the woman with the detached indifference one might reserve for a corpse .

Perhaps his gaze was so intimidating that the woman took a step back in fear .

However , realizing her retreat , she felt a surge of shame and anger .

Yof so fright Θ 田

Chapter 307 The womens face thished , and then she became even more right Seeing so many people around , she felt even more embarrassed and unreasonably grabbed Cases hand and shouted How dare you glare at me ! She turned in the crowd , trying to attract help .

Everyone , look ! This man frimped into me , and when I said a few words to him , he threatened me with his eyest Most of the people around were just watching the show and no one came forward to help Failing to attract support , the woman became even angrier , but she didnt care .

Her fighting power was comparable to thousands of troops .

I have you know , young man , its not very impressive to just stare at me .

If youre so tough , then come and his Upon witnessing this scene , the people around them began to whisper amongst themselves , pointing and talking tome even took out their phones and started recording in their direction .

Seeing all the phones pointed at her .

Yvonne lying on Graves back seemed to recall some unpleasant memory , her face contorting in fear .

She covered her little face with both hands , curling into Graves shoulder like a frightened round kitten .

Since they were so close , Grave could still hear her speak .

Her voice , tender and childlike , held a hint of terror and fear as she pleaded pitifully , No , please ! I dont want to be made into potato chips again She was referring to the last time her unreliable grandfather had secretly taken her picture and shown it off everywhere , which ended up with her face printed on potato chip bags by a snack company .

At the time , Grave had been on the island playing video games , so of course , he had no idea about this incident .

He froze for a moment , not understanding .

What is she babbling about ? Who dares make her into potato chips ? Do they not want to live anymore ? Seeing Yvonne bury her head in Graves shoulder , the middle aged woman grew even more arrogant as if she had found some leverage .

Look , even your child is ashamed of what you did .

I dont know how you can be a father .

Your child will grow up just as uneducated as you .

Grave was serious .

He had not been so serious since the middle aged woman stopped him .

This is not my child .

He could never have such an energetic child .

If she were his , he would have to chase after her all over the island .

The thought made him feel hopeless .

Therefore , this had to be clarified However , the middle aged woman was not concerned about that at all .

She just wanted to find an excuse to attack Grave and did not care whose child Yvonne was As long as she could make Crave , angry , her goal was achieved .

1/4 16:37 Sat , 12 Apr NNN Chapter 307 en you are out in public , remember to respect the elderly and care for Dont give me that .

Apologize to me right now .

When the young The middle aged woman seemed to think that lecturing an uneducated young man sat something worth recording and sharing with her family and friends , so she took out her phone from her pocket .

It was a brand new smartphone .

With the New Year just around the corner , she had been acting up for days after seeing her .

daughter in law buy her mother a new phone a couple of days ago .

Finally , this morning , her daughter in law couldnt stand it anymore and bought her a new one too The woman was thrilled and immediately went out with her new phone She was thinking how different the new phone was and how clear the photos were .

It became handy so soon She was going to take a picture of Graves face and post it on Tiktok to show all her friends how badly she was being bullied She also planned to share it in her dancing group chat to show everyone that she was not to be messed with .

With that in mind , she swiped on her phone a few times , went into the camera app , and pressed the record button .

After turning on the video recording , she held her phone up with both hands and shoved it right in Graves face without hesitation , while narrating what had just happened .

I was walking properly , and he was in such a hurry that he kept pushing me tolerated it at first because he was young , but he just kept pushing his luck .

Since this young man doesnt know any better .

its up to us older folks to teach him a lesson ... Grave was lost for words .

What is this old thing talking about ? Grave couldnt understand , nor did he want to .

All he wanted was to punch her .

The more the woman spoke , the more agitated she became .

When she got to the exciting part , she even freed up one hand and pointed forcefully in Graves direction .

Look at this young man .

I said a few words to him and he got all indignant .

With an attitude like his , hell just be a parasite in society , the kind of person who can never afford a decent meal .

When you ever come across young people like this in the future , dont go soft on them .

Theyll even thank us later ....

Before she could finish , a hand suddenly reached out and snatched her phone away .

The woman was slow to react , staring blankly for a second before turning to Grave .

Graves face was expressionless as he pulled out the phone , raised his arm , and hurled it forcefully toward the artificial lake in the distance .

The phone arced in a perfect parabola through the air before plopping into the water .

No sound could be heard , but with the lights illuminating the surface , the sparkling ripples that spread across the lake were visible .

Grave was satisfied , but the woman was going insane .

A few onlookers nearby calculated the distance between them and the lake and let out heartfelt exclamations of admiration .

This young man got some arm strength ! To throw it so far , he must have trained .

Even I wasnt sure I could throw that far when I was young .

It didnt look like the young man was into it.

He could probably throw even farther if he really tried .

is even putting much effort 2/4 16:37 Sat , 12 Apr N N N .

Chapter 307 It might even reach the center of the lake ... The old men , now thoroughly entertained , started clamoring for Grave to put some real power into it and try throwing something else to see if he could reach the middle of the lake .

At this moment , the middle aged woman , who had been stunned for several seconds , finally realized that Grave had thrown her phone into the water.

The woman pointed at Grave , her fingers trembling and a shrill scream escaping her lips .

You , you dared to throw my phone ! She lunged at Grave , trying to scratch his face and cursing at him .

You son of a b * tch ! Im going to rip your face off today .

Dont even think about leaving until I do ! When the woman charged at him , the onlookers quickly backed away , afraid of getting caught in the crossfire , which left a large empty space .

Even those who were in a hurry to leave stopped ; their innate love for drama seemed to awaken .

They instinctively formed a circle around the scene , and the crowd only seemed to grow larger .

Some people even spontaneously explained to those who were unaware of what had happened .

As the woman lunged at him , Grave dodged to the side .

His martial arts foundation spoke for itself .

No explanation was needed .

The cheers from the onlookers said it all .

was a nice It was the same old man from before who had been watching the commotion .

Well done , young man , that was a dodger Even a few strangers started discussing amongst themselves .

See , I told you this kids got training .

You can tell just from the way he moves .

Right , look how steady his footing is .

The child in his arms didnt even move her hair Impressive , kid .

Mustve trained for a long time , huh ? Hearing the surrounding praise for Grave , the womans eyes darkened with anger , her short and plump body swaying unsteadily .

Her rage completely obliterated her reason .

Realizing that she couldnt even graze the hem of his clothes , her blood pressure skyrocketed .

Unable to reason with him , she plopped down on the ground .

Then she resorted to her usual trick and started wailing dramatically The woman was well practiced in this tactic .

She had used it on her daughter in law whenever she didnt listen .

No matter the time or place , no matter how many people were around , if her daughter in law did even the slightest thing she didnt like , shed start making a scene .

If her daughter in law dared to argue with her , she would sit on the ground , slap her thighs , and wail dramatically .

Everyone , come and see ! He is bullying me , an aged woman ! He is stealing my phone ! No one paid her any attention .

The elderly men were still urging Grave to show them another trick .

Chapter 308 Grave didnt reach for the phone that was handed to him .

Just then , the sharp eyed woman happened to see it .

The old man gave him the phone was very considerate and even took off the phone case , Although the light was dim , the shiny Apple logo on the back of the phone still caught the womans attention Her breath hitched , and her eyes lit up .

An iPhone ! Her son used an iPhone an expensive one, costing over 2,000 dollars .

But she thought her son deserved the best , so she hadnt hatted an eye at the price .

On the other hand , when her daughter in law had wanted to switch to an iPhone last year , the woman had thrown such a fit at home that she didnt stop until the idea was abandoned .

Instead of throwing such a pricey phone into the lake , why not give it to her as compensation ? With that thought , the woman sprang up like lightning and lunged at the old man holding the phone .

As she pounced , Grave took a step back .

The old man , however , wasnt as quick .

He didnt even realize hert So the phone was successfully snatched by the woman .

realize her target was the phone in his hand .

Hey , what are you doing ? Why are you taking my phone ? His phone was suddenly snatched away .

The old man asked in bewilderment .

Why did you take my phone ? Thinking about what he had just said , the old man even thought the woman had misunderstood , so he explained again , I told the young man to throw it , not you .

Give it back to him ! But there was no way the woman would surrender what shed seized , especially since shed just lost her own phone .

In her mind , this one was hers now .

Besides , this was an iPhone , much more expensive than the phone her daughter in law had pinched pennies for days to buy her for about five hundred dollars .

She certainly couldnt let go .

She even wanted to write her name on the phone on the spot , in case someone tried to steal it.

This is mine ! the woman said confidently , My phone just fell into the lake , so this one is mine ! The original owner of the phone , the old man , was dumbfounded by this bold logic .

He was stunned for a long time before he could react .

Then go find your lost phone .

What does it have to do with me ? Why are you taking my things ? The old man didnt back down at all because she looked tough .

Perhaps he was also quite tough .

Clutching the phone like it was precious , the woman hesitated , her eyes darting suspiciously around at the onlookers .

As if sensing the older mans urge to snatch it , she shoved the iPhone into her clothes .

She glared at him arrogantly .

This is mine ! If you dare try to take it .

Ill call the police ! 1/2 64 % Chapter 308 Hey , you ... Dumbfounded , the older man could only point at her , sputtering for words .

But seeing her indifference , he swallowed his words .

Still , the more he thought about it , the angrier he became , and he couldnt help but analyze what had just happened .

I knew you were trouble from the start ! You were clearly framing this young man ! With that unreasonable temper of yours youre exactly the type to stir up drama ... Hearing his words and noticing the strange looks from those around her , the woman panicked and began to shout back .

The onlookers aimed their phones at her .

Perhaps realizing the shame of her actions , she waved her hands in front of her face , refusing to be filmed .

Stop filming ! What are you doing ? Who said you could film ? Youre violating my portrait rights She had completely forgotten how she had initially taken out her phone and filmed Grave relentlessly , narrating the whole thing .

The people around her kindly reminded her , but she pretended not to hear them .

Even without explanation , others had already figured out the truth from her previous arrogance and unreasonable behavior .

I saw you hit the young man first , and you deliberately reversed right and wrong to frame him .

Yes , thats right , and you were the one who pointed your phone at him just now , so he threw your phone into the river .

You deserve it .

You're the one who's truly uncultured and disgraceful to us Strate City folks ! Under the crowd's accusations , the middle aged woman couldn't help but feel a little guilty .

She wasn't from Strate City at all .

If she were , she would have used this point to attack Grave earlier .

Stop filming , stop filming .

I'm going back ! Seeing the situation turning against her , she covered the iPhone and prepared to flee .

She lowered her head , searching for her grandson .

But after looking around , she didn't see her grandson .

The woman froze for a moment , then panicked .

She looked up and shouted her grandson's name in an anxious tone , Adam , Adam , where are you ? The people who had just accused her were stunned .

The woman's earlier smugness over snatching the iPhone vanished completely , replaced by sheer terror .

My grandson , my grandson is gone ! AD Comment

Chapter 309 Although everyone loved to watch the fun , they were still reliable when it came to serious matters After hearing that the woman had lost her child , the first reaction of those who brought their children was to hold their own children tight and then look around to help find the boy Some people even began to comfort the woman .

Don't worry .

There are a lot of people here .

Maybe he got pushed away Yes , we'll help look .

Your grandson's name is Adam , right ? Although so many people were talking to her , the woman didn't listen .

Her eyes blackened and her body swayed Fortunately , someone was supporting her After regaining her footing , the first thing she did was accuse someone else .

She looked at Grave , who was holding Yvonne , suddenly stretched out her hand , and cursed him fiercely .

Its you! You're the kidnapper ! The crowd froze , baffled by the sudden accusation .

But the woman's words were well founded and she even made up the whole process in her mind .

You deliberately bumped into me ! While we were arguing , your accomplice must've snatched my grandson away ! This was indeed a tactic that kidnappers would use Before anyone could figure it out , the woman's tone changed , and she pointed at Yvonne in his arms .

This child hasn't spoken yet .

You must have abducted her too ! Hearing this , Yvonne , who was afraid of being made into potato chips , put down the hand that was covering her face , and pointed at herself with her short fingers , looking dumbfounded and dazed .

But I wasn't trafficked .

She knew what trafficking meant ; her brothers often taught her at home not to talk to strangers outside and things like that .

After a while , she understood .

Seeing the looks from the people around her , Yvonne thought for a moment and decided to explain .

She said to the angry woman , her voice soft and sweet , Mr.

Sterling is my uncle ; he's not a bad guy .

Her earnest defense melted the hearts of the onlookers .

Earlier , her face had been hidden , but now that it was revealed , the crowd was utterly enchanted .

What a cute child ! The onlookers couldn't help but exclaim in admiration .

You are so cute , little one .

You could be in movies , What kind of parents could have such a cute child ? I'm envious .

Wew , she can even say thank you .

How cute ! Grave glanced down at her impassively before pressing her head back down with his hand .

It was quite strange , he had just wanted to stab this reasonable woman , but after Yvonne spoke two sentences , he inexplicably gave up the idea , It was like she possessed some kind of magic .

This wasnt the first time Grave had experienced this .

On several occasions when he had been following Yvonne , tired and wanting to call it a day , dark thoughts would surface , Like secretly collecting dead bugs to scatter along her path Then , when she saw them and got scared , he would appear to say the area was full of bugs and it was time to go home , allowing him to take her back to play games and nap .

But each time he prepared to place the bugs , she would look up at him with those clear , guileless eyes , and he would hesitate .

He was a very decisive person , and he didnt know what was wrong with him .

He even began to reflect on whether his methods were too dirty and whether he would scare Yvonne and traumatize her .

In the end , those dead bugs had died for nothing Grave despised himself for being so indecisive , Whenever Grave questioned himself about why he felt this way , he would firmly tell himself , It must be because Yvonne is Tinleys daughter , and Im afraid of Tinley finding out .

After all , that woman treasures Yvonne like her own life , Plus , Tinley isnt easy to fool .

If Yvonne accidentally let it slip that he had scared her with dead bugs , hed be in for another scolding .

Yes , it must be because of this ! It definitely wasnt because he found Yvonne too adorable to go through with it .

Or perhaps ... this was just another form of mutual tolerance .

Unable to bring himself to do it , he could only endure and follow her around .

Now , it was the same situation .

After stuffing Yvonne's head back , he turned to the relentless middle aged woman with a cold face .

He only said three words , concise and to the point , Call the police .

The moment he said this , most of the onlookers mentally absolved him of suspicion After all , they had never heard of a kidnapper voluntarily suggesting calling the police .

His willingness to do so suggested he had nothing to hide .

Combined with the presence of such an adorable child by his side , his credibility shot up significantly .

2/3 16-3 / Sat , 12 Apr HHN Chapter 309 So everyone persuaded the woman as he said Call the police and let them handle it .

64 %% Yes , if the child was just pushed away by the crowd , its fine .

But if it really was a kidnapping , reporting it sooner is better ? Her phone was thrown earlier .

Ill call , offered a kind hearted woman nearby .

Hearing the lady's words , the woman suddenly went crazy and rushed over , snatching the phone from her hand .

The lady thought she was too anxious and wanted to talk to the police in person , so instead of feeling offended , she changed her mind about the woman From what had happened just now , the woman was an unreasonable person who liked to twist the truth and take advantage of others .

But knowing how much the woman loved her grandson , she felt that this person was not so bad .

At least in the eyes of her grandson , she was a good grandmother .

But the next second , the woman did something completely unexpected .

She hung up the phone .

A beep rang out , and the lady heard it clearly .

The call had indeed been disconnected .

She said in disbelief , What are you doing ? Dont waste time .

Call the police as soon as possible .

Every second counts for the childs safety After she finished speaking , the woman put away her phone .

No police ! she snarled , glaring fiercely at the crowd .

Her tone was commanding , as if used to giving orders .

No one calls the police ! If the police got involved , her son would find out she had neglected her grandson while arguing with strangers .

That would inevitably lead to a huge fight .

The woman only had this one son .

Her domineering attitude at home relied entirely on him being a mamas boy who always took her side .

But compared to her grandson , her son was still slightly less important .

If she didnt have a good relationship with her son , there would be no one to take care of her in her old age .

Her daughter in law already despised her , probably even wishing shed be thrown out onto the street , let alone care for her .

So calling the police was absolutely out of the question .

Chapter 310 Though advanced in years , the womans mind remained sharp .

She had already made up her mind .

All she had to do now was blame the man in front of her .

She would say that this man was a kidnapper and had planned it all out with his accomplice .

One deliberately bumped into her and held her up in an argument , even snatching her phone to distract her , while the other seized the opportunity to snatch her grandson away in chaos .

This way , she would become the victim .

The kidnappers methods were just too sophisticated , too well planned .

Thats why they succeeded in taking her grandson © and even robbed her phone in the process .

It wasnt because she had picked a fight and neglected her grandson , letting him wander off .

e was an elder ! The woman was well aware of her actions , and she knew that she was looking for trouble .

But so what ? She was She had said from the beginning that if the young man apologized to her , the matter would be over .

But the young man refused to apologize , so all this happened , and indirectly led to her eldest grandson getting lost .

In the end , it was all the young mans fault ! Having thoroughly convinced herself , the woman grew even more self righteous .

Clutching the kind ladys phone , her eyes red with fury , her wrinkled face twisted in rage as she pointed at Grave .

You kidnapper ! Give me back my grandson right now ! No one could follow her logic , nor could Grave .

He stared at her impassively , the anger he had suppressed earlier flickering back to life .

When he didnt react , the woman became even more incensed .

Without a second thought , she hurled the phone straight at him , screaming , Ill kill you , you kidnapper The phones owner , a kind hearted lady , felt a wave of dizziness and cried out in distress , Thats my phone ! Her phone was thrown , but it didnt fall to the ground .

Grave reached out and caught it effortlessly .

He didnt even look at it and tossed it to the lady running over .

He threw it steadily , right into her arms .

After getting her phone back , the lady held it tightly in her hands , her heart filled with relief , and repeatedly thanked Grave .

Thank you , thank you ... The onlookers didnt miss this dramatic moment either .

Despite the tense atmosphere , the elderly men couldnt help but marvel Nice catch , young man ! Perfect throw !! 1/3 64 % A who had just happened , more people spoke up for Grave , After all , iuge lost a plour and the other picked it up .

The contrast was too clear .

The crowd turned their criticism toward the woman , condemning her irresponsible behavior .

stead of calling the police to find your missing grandson , youre wasting time here arel alienating those trying to help ? Youre the real kidnapper here ! That child probably isnt even your grandson .

You must have stolen him ! Forged by these accusations , the woman lunged at the speaker , screaming , Shut up ! He is my grandson ! The moment she pounced on him , fortunately , there were many people around the man, and each one pushed the woman away with one hand .

Dont mind hert Call the police ? The crowd showed more genuine concern for the child than the someone dialed 911 , the woman attacked like a wild animal , desperately trying to snatch the phone with violent tugs .

No police Who said you could call the police ? Even strangers were enraged by this .

Some even began to question her identity .

She keeps yelling about kidnappers but wont let anyone call the police .

I dont think she is the childs grandmother at all .

What kind of grandmother doesn't care about her grandson ? I suspect she is the real kidnapper This statement resonated with everyone around ; the woman's strange behavior was too abnormal .

Her grandson was missing , yet instead of calling the police , she falsely accused others .

They were just passersby , unaware of who the real kidnapper was , so they analyzed the situation based on what they had witnessed Whoever refused to call the police was the kidnapper ! The woman panicked as everyone started accusing her .

She had no time to look for trouble with Grave now , because there were many cellphones pointing at her .

Afraid that her matter would be exposed and ridiculed by everyone , the woman quickly covered her face with her hands .

her arrogance gone .

Stop filming me ! All of you stop filming right now ! No one listened , and everyone continued to point their phones at her .

The woman was now experiencing exactly what she'd inflicted on others earlier .

For the first time , she understood Graves impulse to throw her phone away She desperately wanted to snatch all these recording devices and hurt them into the river ! Just then , someone in the crowd shouted , I've already called the police .

They'll be here soon ! 2/3 3/3 Chapter 310 It was almost the New Year , and this was the State City , so they had to be extra careful .

No matter how the woman tried to stop them , they had to call the police .

If this really was a kidnapping case , their children could be in danger too .

Therefore , more than one person called the police .

Hearing this , the woman broke down .

She could already envision her son's furious reaction when he learned the truth , how he might send her straight to a nursing home in anger Terrified , she shuddered violently before lunging at Grave in desperation , blaming everything on him .

It's all your fault ! You heartless kidnapper , give me back my grandson ! I'll beat you to death ! I'll beat you to death ! Then my grandson will come back ! Seeing her rushing over , yelling and screaming , Grave frowned .

People like her only knew how to bully others and shift blame ; she was better off dead than alive .

He stood still , lifted Yvonne in his arms , and looked at her blank , delicate face seriously .

Look at me , he said .

Yvonne was extremely obedient , and her voice was sweet and tender .

Although she didnt understand why she was pushed down and then lified up , she still spoke in a sweet voice .

Im looking ! o A.D
