Novel

Chapter 316 The first place Jeremy went to was the company .

But perhaps it was because of his bad luck , he didnt in 1 inform Kelvin in advance , driven by his mischievous thoughts .

awareness of Kelvins itinerary .

When he arrived , Kelvin was not in the company at all .

This led to his lack of aw After being politely escorted out by the assistant , Jeremy learned his lesson .

This time , before going to see Richard , Jeremy called him first .

Sitting ng in the car , he listened as the phone rang endlessly before finally being answered , The moment the call connected , Jeremy heard a mans pained groan , but it vanished in an instant .

Confused , he asked , Richard , what are you doing over there ? Richards voice remained steady .

Tm at the company , very busy .

Important matter ? If not .

Im hanging up ? Jeremy was used to this a attitude .

Still curious about the strange sound hed heard when the call connected , he quickly stopped Richard .

Wait , dont hang up yet He then asked curiously , Richard , why did I hear a strange sound just now ? Richard paused for a moment , his expression unchanging .

Tm at the company working .

There are no strange sounds .

Maybe you didnt hear right .

His tone was so certain that Jeremy hesitated .

Perhaps he really had misheard .

He didnt dwell on the matter , as it wasnt important anyway .

He brought up the real reason for his call .

Richard , which company are you at ? I want to come visit you , he asked with a smile .

Jeremy didnt mention Yvonne because he wanted to surprise him .

When she tried to call him Richard Jeremy even covered her mouth with his hand so she couldnt make a sound .

Richard strongly objected to his arrival and listed several reason Jeremy , you need to understand that not everyone in this family is as idle as you .

Even if you have nothing to do , dont wander around outside .

Just stay home and keep Yvonne company .

Thats the biggest contribution you can make to this family , Hearing this , Jeremy was speechless .

How could you .

he protested .

Before he could finish , Richard interrupted him If someones already playing with Yvonne , go practice your calligraphy .

Silas mentioned youve been slacking lately ... Silas was Jeremys calligraphy teacher and a longtime friend of Richards .

So Silas was not only Jeremys teacher , but also his elder .

Jeremy never dared to slack off in his calligraphy practice .

Hearing this , Jeremy seriously doubted Richard was making things up But he didnt dare to speak up .

He just never menticated going to the company to play with Richard again .

After hanging up the phone , he looked at the innocent Yvonne sitting next to him , and his eyes gradually filled with sympathy as if he had thought of something When Your grew up a little , shed have to learn the arts too , likely from Richards friends .

Those masters wouldnt hesitate to discipline students .

Not only did they hit people , but they also filed complaints .

He boldly carried Yvonne when they arrived , most animals had already been fed to satiety by other visitors and now sat in wait for a bite when the sun was 231 PM and Chapter 316 Jeremy , an unreliable older brother .

skillfully understood and mastered the Proper Use of a Magical Little Sister manual .

Yvonne obediently touched the meat chunks with her finger .

Moments later , Jeremy carried the special piece of meat to the feeding area .

As soon as he reached his hand under the pipe , several small sea otters rushed over towards him in his direction .

Tourists around him , who were also there to feed the animals , all cast surprised glances in Jeremy's direction .

Seeing the little creatures that had ignored him earlier suddenly become so enthusiastic could hardly be described as mere happiness The surprised and envious gazes of the people around him further fueled his sense of satisfaction .

Other visitors , assuming it was a prime feeding spot , rushed to inherit Jeremy's position after he left and imitated him by placing meat in their hands , waiting for the sea otters to come and take it then returned to their lazy appearance , as if their frenzy when facing Jeremy was just an illusion .

However , to everyone's surprise , the little sea otters hesitated , they could only conclude , Were otters ... allow creatures who only responded to handsome faces ? Just because we are not handsome , they won't eat the food we feed .

Although true , but this is a bit too heartbreaking ? In addition to the sea otters , every area Jeremy visited , the animals there rushed toward him like fanatical fans .

Surrounded by envious gazes , Jeremy remained silent , only feeding and taking photos .

Yvonne was in Jeremy's arms , hiding her achievements and feeling her silly brother grinning from ear to ear , she also felt happy with a silly smile on her face .

Suddenly Just then , a thoughtful voice came from behind them .

Why do you have to touch all the food before he feeds it to the animals Hearing this , Yvonne blinked her eyes guiltily , then turned her head stiffly and gave Jeremy a dry smile .

He had told her not to tell anyone about this ; the fewer people who knew , the better .

Tinley So Yvonne racked her brains , her delicate little face scrunched up in thought as she desperately tried to come up with a reason She knew this day would come , so she had asked Tinley to help her think of some excuses at home , so she could just say them when the time came .

She was only four years old , Wasnt it too much to ask of her ? Seeing that she remained silent , ent , Grave looked down at her .

With just one glance , he saw Yvonne's conflicted expression , her delicate brows furrowed together ; she really looked troubled .

He looked away , his voice cold and calm , as if making small talk .

Thinking of how to fool me ? Yeah Yvonne nodded her head before she could even process what he said .

After nodding , she suddenly felt a little guilty Grave didn't think much of it .

Everyone had secrets , and it was normal not to share , Besides , Yvonne was a member of the Holmes family and might even be his boss in the future .

What loss racks their brains thinking about how to appease their employers ! After a út silence , he spoke in a tone .

If you can't figure it out , then don't think about it .

You look exhausted my heart usually only thought about where to play .

Now that she suddenly had to think about such a complicated issue , her brain had probably stopped working guessed her Furthermore , in his line of work , the less he said , the better .

Someday all he needed to know were the reasons , not the reasons behind them .

found out something he shouldn't have .

Tinley would never let him guess was right , and that's Chapter 10 Either she would upgrade his contract and make him work for her for the rest of his life , or she would silence him permanently Although he could run away .

Tinley was rich .

If she offered a reward , he probably wouldn't have a moment of peace for the rest of his life ; In short , they were all terrible consequences , and he didn't want to choose any of them .

He still wanted to retire a few years early , so he decided to Trign ignoraus .

Seeing Yvonne's guilty face , he added .

My question was chil line .

Forget Lasked Yvonne hesitated for a long time , but fasally nodded , feeling a sense of relief .

Okay , Mr.

Sterling Grave hummed absently .

After saying this , Jeremy came over again and took him and Yvonne to another park .

The other tourists behind him watched him go with envious eyes Grave now felt that the two children were really big hearted , so when Jeremy wanted to continue playing .

Grave stopped him .

If the zoo staff noticed something was wrong , they would probably ask questions or investigate .

Although their family could handle it , it would inevitably cut into his rest time .

So he reminded the siblings to ret gs to restrain themselves alle .

When Jeremy was feeding the animals earlier , he had already seen people taking out their phones to record videos .

He didnt say anything , but whenever the camera panned Yeone in his arms , he would shift his position to block Yvonne's face from appearing in the shot As for Jeremy , he was right in the center of attention , so it was unavoidable .

But Jeremy didnt really care .

Jeremy stopped after Grave reminded him .

Although he was still a little unsatisfied , he knew when to quit while he was ahead .

After all , he had a great time today .

He took photos , and it was worth it He took Yvonne to see the pandas and other adorable animals before heading for the exit .

They were going to go straight to dinner , but they ran into someone they knew on their way out .

To be precise , it was one of Yvonne's former classmates .

Kevin was probably brought to the zoo by Karen to relax , but now they were standing at the entrance of the zoo , not going in , just stuck there .

Amidst the bustling crowd , Karen's expression was strained as she patiently coaxed , Kevin , let's talk about this at home .

We'll go to the car first .

skay  Kevin refused .

He kept crying and dragging Karen's hand to pull her to a certain place .

me ! I want Dad ! I don't want the root ! Take me home ! I want Daddy ! Karen disagreed and even forcibly picked him up from the ground and walked toward the car they had come from . Kevin was relatively heavy , y , and he ate a lot , so he had a lot of strength .

As soon as he struggled a little , Karen couldn't hold him .

steps , he was put back on the ground again .

angry and resentful , almost as if he was venting all his anger . He angrily questioned her , Why didn't you help Dad ? He begged you ! His voice was loud , and Karen crouched down and patiently explained to him .

Your father and I are divorced .

You're too young to understand the Chapter 317

Abandoned Super Cutie Adopted by Billionaire Clan Novel

Chapter 317 Before Karen could finish .

Kevin interrupted her again .

He was heartbroken , and he had always been completely biased toward his father . That morning during breakfast , he had heard Carlson's voice . Karen was on the phone with him .

At first , Kevin thought Carlson had come to take him home .

Overjoyed , hed rushed out from the dining room , his face lit up with a rare smile .

Karen , absorbed in the call , hadnt noticed him standing sting right behind her .

Therefore , he listened in for a long time .

Kevin then realized something was wrong with Carlson and Carlson needed help from his grandparents , but they refused , so Carlson turned to Karen .

Kevins heart skipped a beat .

He thought , Mom will definitely help .

But to his surprise , Karen refused mercilessly and hung up the phone .

Upon hearing this .

Kevin couldnt bear it any longer and directly questioned her .

Karen didnt expect him to be listening nearby .

A slightly unnatural expression crossed her face , and she asked him how much he had heard .

kevin didnt say a word , but rushed into his room and locked the door .

No matter how much Karen knocked , he wouldnt open it He stayed inside for two hours .

Dunng those two hours , he made a plan in his room .

He had to find a way to get Karen to take him home .

As long as he returned home , she would definitely help his father , so he opened the door .

Karen was so happy , thinking that he had come to understand , and explained a lot to him .

But Kevin didnt listen at all : he thought it was an excuse .

an excuse Later .

Karen said to take him out to play and relax .

On the way out , Kevin didnt make a fuss , quietly listening to her explanation , giving the impression that he was taking it all in .

It wasnt until he got out of the car and walked to the gate of the zoo that he began to question Karen about why she was so cruel .

He didnt undersund , he didnt even know what had happened to Carbon .

But in his eyes , Carbon was a very powerful person who knew a lot and could do almost bything Carbon had always been so great , and he had never spoken in such a humble tone .

So Kevin though Carlson must luv encountered something difficult At a time like this , shouldnt a family help each other even more ! Why is my mother so cold hearted Not only did she hang up the phone , but she even said she would block Carlsons number and never answer Ervin colder) understand how Karen could be in heartless .

It was already cruel enough that Karen wanted a divorce at a time like this , when something had happened to the family .

happened this morning , he trh even more that Karen was being unreasonable Snow for wanted to make a fuss and gu back to the Jones family no the Jones family with him , there would still be hope , and she would help Carlos Resurried and made noring the at 211 PM d' d' Chapter 317 Karen on the other hand , wasnt angry with him .

In this whole affair , the child was innocent .

Expecially since Kevin was so young , he might have misunderstood something when he heard her on the phone this morning .

But how could she explain the complicated truth to him The reality would be too cruel for a boy who still idolized his father .

Her original plan had been to wait until Kevin was older and could better understand before telling him everything .

She hadnt expected him to make a scene here of all places .

Expecially now , standing at the crowded 200 entrance , she felt that it was not appropriate to be like this , so her tone was inevitably a little anxious Just as she was thinking about how to persuade Kevin to go back with her .

Kevin , who was throwing a tantrum in front of her , suddenly stopped .

It was as if his gaze was attracted by something , and he looked in a certain direction .

His face was still stained with tears , his mouth open as if about to cry , looking particularly dumbfounded .

The passers by around them looked on with indifference .

After all , he was just a child , they usually saw children crying over the slightest dissatisfaction , regardless of the occasion .

They had seen many times and even had such children in their own families Moreover , just by looking at Kevins face , one could guess that he was the kind of child who was doted on at home , the kind who ruled his household with unchecked entitlement .

It was not surprising that Kevin was throwing a tantrum at the entrance of the zoo . The passers by did not stop because of this ; only Jeremy , as he passed by , thought Kevin looked familiar and took a couple more glances .

Coincidentally , Kevin , who was in the middle of his tantrum , also saw Jeremy . At that very moment , they both felt a sense of familiarity with each other .

Kevin stared blankly for two seconds before it dawned on him .

Kevin remembered this was the intimidating older brother who threatened him to stay away from Yvonne during that visit to the Holmes residence . And there had been that scary old man , too , who threatened him with extra homework ! Jeremy also recalled something .

Was this the little brat who took the backpack he'd gifted Yvonne ? The one who'd come to apologize ? He recalled threatening the boy to keep his distance from Yvonne .

He wondered if the chubby kid had listened to him .

Jerry hadn't heard anything about Kevin from Yvonne lately , and he had almost forgotten about Kevin , Jeremy didn't expect to see him here . Jeremy stopped , his gaze unconsciously becoming critical .

The more he looked at Kevin , the less pleasing he found Kevin . Didn't that kid like to be laughing in public ? He is not ashamed at all .

Kevin's stricken face triggered unpleasant memories of his of that other disgusting child yesterday . The sight of the shocked boy disgusted him . Jeremy's expression changed several times , and those few seconds felt like an eternity to Kevin . He finally gave up and wiped his face with a heavily disgusted .

He knew he didn't know how to help him any longer .

He looked away and quickly polied Graves ann to leave Le 2/9 c d Chapter 317 Yvonne was curious and wanted to look back , but he quickly blocked Yvonnnes view and diverted her attention to other topics .

His is sweet , clean little sister mustnt learn bad habits from this slob ! While Kevin stared blankly at a certain spor , Karen also noticed something was wrong with him and followed his gaze .

The first thing she saw was a delicate and lovely little girl .

When she saw this face , her movements froze , and she stood rooted to the spot She recognized the child ; it was Tinleys daughter .

She had seen her before when she went to dinner with Carlson .

Moreover , Yvonne was so adorable that anyone who saw her once would have a deep impression and would never forget her .

But this was the first time she had seen Yvonne up close .

Complex emotions welled up in Karens chest until a chilling glare from Grave holding Yvonne cut through her thoughts .

His sharp eyes scanned her like a ruthless detector , brows furrowed in clear warning Under the pressure of his gaze , Karen couldnt help but look away , not daring to see Yvonne again .

Although she had looked away , she could still feel that piercing gaze burning into her .

She even wondered if she should go up and say hello to them .

But they didnt give her the chance ; after pausing for a few seconds , they hurried away in the opposite direction .

Watching their departing figures , Karen thought of Graves eyes again .

That p gaze was sharp and venomous , like a viper ready to strike at her slightest movement .

Karen knew , she could probably guess what was going on .

Carlson had called her this morning to ask the Martin family for help , which probably meant that the Jones family was in serious trouble , beyond his ability to salvage .

That arrogant man would never humble himself otherwise .

Karen didnt know the details , nor did she care to find out .

Since divorcing him , shed resolved never to soften .

The Jones familys fate , life or death , was no longer her concern .

Besides , Carlson had brought this on himself by targetting the Holmes heiress .

No one could save him now .

With this in mind , she looked at her crying son again , feeling even more determined .

Kevin had also been attracted by the sight just now .

Now that the people who had attracted his attention were gone , he started to make a fuss about going back to the Jones residence .

This time , Karen nodded at him and said yes .

Lets go back to o the car .

Ill take you to your dad .

After she said this calmly , Kevin agreed without thinking .

He wiped his tears , stood up from the ground , and followed her .

The two returned to the car .

Kevin was still thinking about seeing Carlson later , but the next second , he heard Karen say to the driver in front , Take The car started .

Kevin thought for a few seconds before realizing that he had been tricked , He looked at Karen in dubelief and then started crying again, making a fuss about wanting to get out of the car .

But it was not at the entrance of the zoo , and no matter how loud he made a fuss , it would not affect others , so Karen did not need to indulge him at She told the Holme family about Carbons plan in advance , and begged them for a long time to bring her children out of there , just to want them to be safe and sound 3/5 he listened to Kevin and went now , all her previous efforts would be in vain Chapter 117 And she was not sime it she could get out of the Jones residence .

Il Carson knew that she had leaked his plan in advance , then based on her understanding bunt , he would really kill her in a rage .

So she wondered She wanted Kevin to slowly accept In this way , Kevin cried to the Jones residence , and his voice came from crying Karen felt sorry for him , but she still waited When getting out of the car , Kevin used his old trick at being shameless Taking full advantage of his chubby physique and knowing Karen could do possibly .

Sorry him , Kevin stayed in the car and refused to get out , Not what he didn't expect was that Karen asked the driver to help carry him down and put him in the apartment , After sending the driver away , Karen locked the door to the room and put the key in the dresser in her room , a place Kevin Then she started calling the teacher at Kevin's current school and asked for leave , which lasted until the winter vacation In other words , Kevin wouldn't have to go to school again from today until the beginning ing of next year .

things that by that time , the Jones family's affairs .

could have been dealt with .

She was still a little afraid that Carlson would go to the school Kevin to threaten her .

Although Carlson was usually very kind to Kevin when he was at the Jones residence , Karen couldn't risk , Only when the Holmes family concluded their dealings would she feel safe sending Kevin back to school .

Karen didn't expect that the Holmes family would act much faster than she had imagined .

Since Carlson called Karen in the morning , he showed up to her again Carlson had been beaten up before and had been lying in the hospital , While he was recovering something happened to his family company , Carlson already guessed why .

The two children were too important to He was terrified and hurriedly contacted people he had good relationships with , but everyone was unusually different , and no one was willing to help him .

Then he started contacting his parents in law , but his father in law also refused him with an excuse He even said that Karen had divorced him and they would no longer care about the Jones family , Helpless , Carlson could only go to Karen for help .

After a phone call , he was blocked .

He had wanted to force himself out of the hospital to take charge of the situation , But he didn't expect to run into Ian , who came to the hospital to look for him .

He wasn't fully recovered yet , and Ian brought people over and beat him up again , sending him into the operating room .

at Carlson dulot even dare to say a word the whole time , letting lau vent their anger .

After he came out , he had no chance to seek help from others .

His company was being investigated for financial fraud , and he had been taken in for multiple violations incriminating evidence held up in court , Carlson would most likely spend the rest of his life behind bars. Most people in the circle who had heard the news didn't dare to interfere in this matter. The downfall of the Jones family was foreseeable. Supporting Carlson now would be both futile and unwise. Moreover, some people in the circle were saying that it was Carlson who made the first move on Tinley's daughter .

Chapter 318 The downfall of the Jones family was foreseeable .

Supporting Carlson now would be both futile and unwise .

Moreover , some people in the circle were saying that it was Carlson who made the first move on Tinley's daughter .

Everyone could see how much Tinley treasured Yvonne .

Even those who despised the Holmes family wouldn't dare contemplate such an act unless they had a collective death wish for their entire lineage .

If Carlson really had the balls to poke the bear like that , then in a way , he's a very admirable. After all , he had courage that others didn't .

When discussing the Jones family's predicament , conversations inevitably turned to Karen .

Her divorce timing seemed suspiciously prescient .

It happened to be just a few days before the Jones family's accident .

At that time , some people in the circle heard the news and didn't understand her actions .

Because in such a marriage of alliance , as long as there was no problem between the families and there was still an exchange of interests , they would basically not separate .

When Karen and Carlson divorced , there was no problem with the relationship between the two families , and there was no news before that .

So it came very suddenly .

It was said that Karen offered to divorce .

They thought Karen was stupid to make such a decision .

It wasnt until they recently heard about the Jones familys accident that they realized that their previous thoughts were one sided .

Of the entire Jones household , only Karen and her two children remained unscathed It was also at this time that everyone realized that Karen , who seemed gentle , weak , and useless , was actually the smartest person in the Jones family .

People in the circle , and even the Martin family , thought so .

A few days ago , when Karen chose to divorce Carlson , the head of the Martin family disagreed He even said on the phone that if she didnt go back and make up with Carlson , she couldnt go back to the Martin family .

At that time , heartbroken but resolute , Karen had quietly ended that call without argument Turning her head , she continued to do what she had to do .

Her fathers words did not change her mind , but only made her feel sad.

Now , after learning about the Jones familys accident , the head of the Martin Family felt a sense of relief .

He called Karen again and couldnt help but praise her on the other end of the phone .

wou know something in Karen , its a good thing you left the Jones family early , otherwise , you would have implicated us .

You did a good job .

Did you advance ? Even though .

Karen knew her fathers true nature , she still felt a chill in her heart .

In his heart , there were only his interests and the interests of the family , and he would never think about her .

So she didnt say anything , she just listened quietly , and didnt reveal anything to him .

Without getting an answer , the head of the Martin family didnt care and pretended to ask about her current situation .

Probably a little guilt arose in his heart , so he said with a compensatory mentality , You are raising two children alone ... If you need money .

your mother .

He didn't ask Karen to go back , because he was not sure yet .

After all , the two children Karen brought with her were from the Jones family .

He wasn't sure if the Holmes family would let the two children go , so he didn't dare to let Karen come back for the time being He even felt that there was a risk in giving her money .

c d Chapter 318 If the Holmes family decided to wipe them out completely , the Martins would be dragged down too .

If it wasn't for the guilt in his heart , he wouldn't let his wife give Karen money , though he didn't know his wife had already given a lot behind back Karens expression was indifferent .

She didn't show any joy upon hearing this , remaining calm , just like a few days ago when he had yelled apologize to Carlson .

After hanging up the phone , she walked to Kevins room , knocked on the door , but was quiet inside , with no response .

Karen sighed helplessly and turned to leave .

Now it was useless for her to say anything .

She had to wait until Kevin figured it out for himself .

Kevin was still unaware of Carlsons situation .

He was still naively believing that he could change Karens mind by going on a hunger strike , so as to help his father .

But he starved for a whole day , dizzy with hunger , and Karen didn't budge ..

He couldn't help it .

He was so hungry that he finally ate .

While the Jones scandal dominated elite gossip , there was another incident that had also attracted a lot of attention .

The visit of the Cospad delegation had attracted a lot of attention , which also meant that there would be many business opportunities in the future .

Once grasped , it would be a great fortune , This was the highest level of diplomatic activity , involving exchanges in multiple fields , and everyone was taking it very seriously .

After the state banquet , the Cospad delegation showed great interest in the desserts served .

was removed , desserts incorporating cultural The desserts for the state banquet were served near the end of the banquet .

After the main course was elements from both countries were presented .

At that moment , the aroma of desserts filled the entire banquet hall .

Having just finished eating , they had no desire to eat any more .

However , after smelling the aroma , they all seemed to awaken and turned their attention to the desserts .

The person in charge did not expect this to happen .

Looking at the envoys who were enjoying themselves so deliciously , they looked at each other , proud and puzzled at the same time .

In the past , they had invited people from Seawise Pavilion to make Yuresland style desserts , but they had never seen such an amazing situation .

This was the first time a scene like this had appeared .

The desserts attracted everyone regardless of nationality .

Not only were the foreigners across from them interested , but they were curious .

After trying one , they were even more amazed .

Normally , state dinners followed a strict schedule , with a time interval between the main course and desserts to facilitate digestion and communication between guests is spent eating desserts by the guests .

Everyone was too busy eating .

But now , all of this free time was For the first time ever , dessert became the star of the show rather than the main courses .

The news was quietly relayed backstage , and the Seawise Pavilions chefs waiting in the back all smiled with delight when they heard the news .

Great We finally got our revenge These expensive ingredients were worth every penny This is the signboard of our Seawie Pavilion .

No one can say our pastries our pastries arent worth the he price now ! Few people say that now Chapter 318 Ever since the truth about their ingredients came out online , complaints have nearly disappeared .

Even if there were , it was only small number And there was no need to pay attention to those comments at all .

Although most people still thought it was very expensive , new llavors sold com instantly .

The empty display cases said it all All they needed now was an opportunity to make a name for themselves ... Now , people were traveling across provinces just to taste their creations .

From now on , the reputation of Seawise Pavilion would only grow .

In the studio next door , hearing the laughter from this side , the dessert chefs , who also made Western desserts , could bring t The atmosphere on both sides was extreme .

treme , one side full of laughter , the other side gloomy .

themselves to smile .

The Yuresland style desserts were very popular among foreign guests at the state banquet , which meant that no one ate the desserts they made .

Those small and delicate Western desserts with a strong sense of ritual were left untouched .

ey would have eaten two pieces if there were only y Western pastries .

Normally , they But now , with the comparison of the desserts made by Seawise Pavilion , they tasted the amazing taste , and they couldnt eat the small cakes next to Them .

Hearing how coldly their desserts were received , the chef couldnt take it anymore .

Layne rushed to the opposite side angrily .

The moment he entered , the room , filled with laughter and chatter , suddenly fell silent , and the atmosphere became strange .

The two groups looked at each other , and finally , Willie , Grady's eldest disciple from Seawise Pavilion , stood up , He looked at the unkind Layne , frowned , and asked without fear , Layne , what's the matter ? This was a normal attitude , but in Layne's eyes , it seemed that the people from Seawise Pavilion were mocking him .

Layne pointed at them angrily and said , You only won because of those special ingredients ! If you dare to change it to ordinary fruits like us , let's have a fair competition ! He was certain that as long as the other party used ordinary fruits like him , there was absolutely no way they could win Willie didn't take his bait at all .

He frowned and said with a puzzled look , Why should I bet with you ! What's wrong with us using special fruits We brought these fruits ourselves , and we paid for them ourselves .

We didn't ask anyone else to bear the price for us , so why can't we use them ??? In conclusion , each side was just taking what they needed .

They also wanted to take this opportunity of the state banquet to make a comeback and enter the vision of more people , so they bought ingredients from the Adler family in advance , no matter how high the price was In addition to grapes , there were other fruits , all of which were hundreds of times more expensive than the market price .

Grady didn't even blink when he spent the money .

To minimize risks , they had stocked up on extra ingredients just in case mistakes happened during preparation After all that investment , why wouldn't they use every advantage ? Why should we bet with Layne ? Willie looked at Layne with suspicion in his eyes .

He asked thoughtfully , Layne , you're not jealous of us , are you ? If you're not convinced , you can buy these ingredients too .

No one is stopping you The words struck nerve Layne's face flushed crimson , then paled his expression shifting between anger and humiliation .

Of course , he'd considered using those ingredients himself .

At first , he'd dismissed them as money laundering tools , then later as overpriced scams .

But after such a long time , the popularity of Seawise Pavilion had given him the answer .

No business could fake this level of hype for so long These days , Seawise Pavilion dominated soc media trends dady , and every time they launched a new product , there were plenty of people with ct c Chapter 318 money lining up in long queues at their door Layne casually scrolled through the comment section and saw nothing but positive reviews , And there were those comments that said that money was not a problem , as long as he added a few more flavors .

There were too many people who were not short of money , and there were many people who traveled thousands of miles to Strate City for these This was a scene of popularity that Layne had never dared to imagine before .

Until one day , after he returned home , he saw a box of Seawise Pavilion snacks in his house .

After seeing the annoying box again his first reaction was shock and anger .

Upon asking his family members , he learned that his son had gone out of his way to queue up for a long , long time just to buy this small , limited- quantity box of desserts .

The dessert was placed in the room , and even though it was covered with a box , the aroma it emitted was so tempting , impossible to ignore .

Layne didnt want to eat it at first .

He didnt want to admit the craftsmanship of Seawise Pavilion , believing it was all just underhanded tricks .

But when his son cut a piece and handed it to him , his hand seemed to move on its own , as if pulled by a magnet , and his earlier resolve not to eat it began to waver .

In the end , he couldnt resist It was just a tiny piece , but the moment it entered his mouth , it felt like a flower blooming on huis tongue .

This was a dessert that left him craving more .

After eating it .

Layne was finally willing to admit that the ingredients selected by Seawise Pavilion were really good .

With such ingredients , they could elevate their desserts to new heights .

And currently , in the entire capital , Seawise Pavilion was the only dessert shop using such premium materials This meant that if he could also get his hands on these ingredients , he could very well become the next big sensation , just like Seawise Pavilion Layne seemed to see immense wealth beckoning to him .

However , when he started making a detailed plan , he realized something .

He tried to contact the Adler family , the ingredient supplier , but they refused to sell to him after learning of his purchase intent .

Layne then remembered that he had firmly believed there were shady dealings between Seawise Pavilion and the Adler family .

He rallied all the densen chefs in his shop to report them The reason why a team investigated the price of grapes later was also due to his report .

but also declared There was no in was no way the Adler family wouldnt find out .

So when he tried to buy their ingredients , they not only coldly rejected him but that the Adler family would never sell any of their fruits to him or his shop ever

Chapter 319 When the Adler family found out he wanted to buy pastries , they were so furious they refused to sell him any fruit and vowed never to do so again Layne Ochoa was mortified when he learned the answer , but refused to give up on the special ingredient .

He knew that without it , the chefs from Seawise Pavilion would outdo him at the state banquet .

Determined not to disappoint , he resorted to assuming different identities , seeking help from friends , and even attempting to purchase the fruit elsewhere .

However , the Adler familys widespread warning thwarted his efforts , leaving no one willing to sell to him No one wanted to offend the Adler family or risk bring blocked and losing access to their fruits .

Since they could afford Adlers produce , they were well off enough not to take the risk .

So , no one was willing to help Layne He had no choice but to attend the state banquet , even though it meant using the fruit he couldnt obtain .

As the aroma of cooking wafted from the adjacent kitchen , he and his fellow chefs felt a growing sense of unease .

The more enticing the smell , the worse they felt .

Faced with no other choice , they had to persevere .

Just as pastries were served , Layne discreetly messaged someone at the banquet , requesting their help investigating the situation inside .

Both the people at Seawise Pavilion and those opposite were interested in what was happening inside , though for different reasons .

News reached both sides almost simultaneously , eliciting reactions ranging from delight to worry .

Laynes face fell when they saw the message .

The guests loved the Seawise Pavilions pastries and even asked about their names , recipes , and Ingredients .

The pastries were a hit almost all were devoured , even outshining the main courses .

The visiting prince and his consort were so impressed that they requested to meet the chef , a true honor for the kitchen staff .

The piercing cheers of the Seawise Pavilion patrons next door , celebrating their victory , filled the air , but Layne suppressed his frustration and continued reading .

As Seawise Pavilions pastries were so exceptional, their pastries , as described in the following paragraph , received little attention .

Layne , who had always envied Seawise Pavilions success , couldnt bear to witness their celebration .

The cheers from the other side felt like a boastful taunt , driving him to confront them with his men .

Layne thought it was deeply unjust that Seawise Pavilions win felt hollow and lacking merit because they had an unfair advantage from the start .

That was why Layne spoke to them so directly , Layne seethed with resentment , convinced he could have achieved fame and fortune at the state banquet if only he had been given the same opportunity .

His dreams of wealth and adoration were shattered , all because Seawise Pavilion had stolen what he believed was rightfully his .

As his anger intensified , his eyes gradually reddened with hatred and jealousy Willie Sexton , unsettled and confused by this hostility , understood the reason for it . At previous state banquets , their pastries were often overlooked because foreign guests didn't always share their palate .

This year , however , the inclusion of fruit allowed their baking to shine genuinely .

Willie considered it briefly before replying , Layne , we won't use ordinary ingredients just to compete with you .

If you're serious about this competition , you should also buy some ingredients .

That way , we can have a fair fight on a level playing field .

Layne already suspected Willie was mocking him , and that comment just made it worse .

He knew Grady Reese , the owner of Seawise Pavilion , was close to the Adler family .

Layne had his men watch the Pavilion , and they reported Richard frequently visited , bringing fresh fruit and requesting Grady make him various pastries . Grady , assisted by several apprentices , always meticulously prepared these treats .

Richard would either take the pastries himself or have the staff deliver them . Layne felt uneasy after learning this and wondered if Grady had manipulated the situation .

He thought , Grady is so good at getting on the good side .

Maybe he's the one who convinced Mr.

Adler to stop selling fruit to us .

How spiteful ! And he still dares to talk about fairness ! He snarled , Tell Grady to stop asking the Adlers to target us if he wants to discuss fairness ! Willie's face contorted in confusion as he asked , Target what ? He wondered , Why is he mentioning the Adler family and claiming we're targeting them if anything .

Layne is the one targeting us . Despite knowing about his prior report to the authorities , Seawise Pavilion was more concerned with clearing their names than expressing anger .
1/2 Chapter 2 retaliated against him , relying on fabricated , as they never did . Even Willie , uninvolved with the matter , knew Richard was not someone they could manipulate .

Despite his jovial demeanor and affection for nu Pavilion , redeely nude restimated him .
thing was unthinkable .

W Willie was about to explain , but then he saw 色

Chapter 320 He wondered , Why bother explaining ? Layne would never buy it anyway .

People like him only see what they want to see , Were rivals now .

If I reveal too much , hell think Im boasting , not to mention he still wont believe me !
Willie silenced himself , pushing down the explanation he wanted to offer .

This studio is our workspace , he stated directly .

If you only intend to vent anger , I must ask you to leave .

You are not welcome here .

His words sparked further complaints from the group , who were already dissatisfied .

Right , youve ruined our mood .

We can afford this kind of fruit Are you bring sarcastic , or are you jealous ? You claimed our mentor was behind this Remember what happened before ? You reported us without bothering to get the facts straight .

Of course , no one wants to do business with someone like that .

I wouldnt be happy either if I were on the receiving end .

Laynes face contorted in anger at their cruel words .

You , you ..

he sputtered , pointing at the speakers , struggling to breathe .

Finally , he gestured sharply , spat out a curse , and stormed off with his men .

Layne fumed , thinking .

They're just showing off those special fruits ! I dare them to use it like that all the time !
Let's see them give up ordinary Layne also worried that things would get worse if this continued .

Seawise Pavilions reputation would grow after the state banquet , and people would be more convinced their food was worth the price , further elevating their status .

People feared the Ochoa family's pastries would soon become too expensive for most , but Layne was determined to keep them accessible and beloved by all . Despite his long standing business and involvement in state banquets , Layne still lacked a particular delicacy in his reputation .

The Adlers refused . to sell it to him , and their stance discouraged his friends from helping .

Layne thought , The Adlers aren't the only ones who can grow this special fruit ! If they don't sell to me .

I'll find others to grow it with .

Then I'll have all the necessary ingredients and can make as many pastries as I want . While the Adler family's fruit was slightly better than average , their prices were exorbitant .

Layne felt investing in his research was more worthwhile .

He imagined , Since our orchard replicates the Adler family's , starting with a single fruit tree , the setup cost should be manageable .

Moreover , our fruit isn't unique to the Adler family ; countless others could cultivate it .

Considering the vast market and the lack of similar products , it seems unlikely that anyone intentionally avoids competition with the Adler family : Layne didn't think the Adlers would mind even if he expanded his orchard , since he'd use all the fruit for his pastries .

They weren't competitors , so there was no need to create conflict . Layne pondered the plan , growing increasingly confident it was worth pursuing .

He glanced toward the Seawise Pavilions studio , smirking as he imagined their eventual downfall .

Let them enjoy their success while it lasts , he thought , once my fruit hits the market at a lower price , customers will flock to me ! If Seawise Pavilion lowered its prices , it wouldnt make back the money it spent on the fruit .

But if they kept their prices the same , customers would choose cheaper options instead .

Refusing to buy the Adler familys unique , expensive fruit and reverting to ordinary pastries would be a recipe for disaster , making them a laughingstock The more popular they are online now , the harder they could fall .

Their store could lose money , their business could decline , and eventually , their brand might even go bankrupt Layne seemed to have witnessed the public backlash against Seawise Pavilion .

As he considered this , his anger cooled slightly , and he contacted Since the Adler family already had a flourishing orchard , he could adopt their techniques instead of starting from scratch .

And when in reality To replicate their success , he chose a nearby location .

He disguised his true intentions by claiming he was constructing a building w he was planting a small orchard to mimic their water and soil condition He believed that bribing the orchard workers would allow him to obtain valuable information and make a fortune Stealing the Adler familys secrets 1/2 Chapter 320 would be an even bigger prize .

Layne had never seen the orchard , but his friend told him it was enormous .

The Adlers bought the property originally as an orchard .

With so many fruit trees , no one would notice a couple missing .

Layne firmly believed that every problem had a price , if something couldnt be solved , it simply meant he hadnt offered enough money .

Unable to leave , he summoned a trusted subordinate and instructed him to seek opportunities near the orchard .

After waiting outside for several hours , the subordinate finally saw someone emerge from the building .

It was closing time for the employees .

The orchard gate swung open , and the five of them headed home those who lived farther away drove , while those who lived nearby rode their e bikes .

After observing the group , the subordinate approached the man on the e bike , assuming he was the least wealthy since he was the only one without a car .

What puzzled him was why so few people left such a large orchard at the end of the workday .
