Chapter 331

Tinley listened again to what the witness , who had been caught stealing , said at the Holmes residence and discovered something important .

48 % +23) When the witness was questioned to get a detailed description of the persons appearance , he mentioned it more than once .

I dont remember what he looked like .

He was shining a flashlight in my face , and the light was blinding me .

I just remember he was dressed in rags , like a beggar .

Therefore , the man was in a bad financial situation , so the so called miracle medicine was probably his way of staying alive .

The person was afraid the medicines effects would attract unwanted attention , so he only made one batch a year and stopped when it was sold out .

The money the person got from selling the medicine was used to cover his expenses until all the money was spent .

He would make medicine again and sell it only when he ran out of money and his survival was threatened .

That explained why there was no fixed time for the person to sell the medicine .

It was not that the person was being capricious .

It was that he was acting according to his financial situation .

After Tinley presented her conjecture to Richard , Richard thoughtfully nodded and spoke in agreement , Thats very likely the case .

Based on those inferences , they were already able to analyze a lot of useful information .

Money may just be a means to an end for him .

Perhaps he doesnt care much about money or material possessions .

Maybe he lives in seclusion in a town to pursue spiritual peace and fulfillment , said Richard .

If the person had cared about money , he would not have let go of the necklace he had seen on Yvonne .

He could easily sell his miracle medicine in a much bigger place and make a lot more money than he did selling it to people in the town .

He could make dozens of times more .

However , he chose to sell it at an affordable price to some dying old people and those who were suffering from illness ... He probably didnt make much money each time he came out .

Richard added , One more thing .

Before this , none of us had ever heard of Miracle Medicine , which means he keeps a low profile , and the reach of his activities is limited .

It tells us that hes good at hiding and that he may change his address regularly .

It was easy to understand .

If a particularly skilled doctor appeared in a small town , over time , people would spread the word , and his fame would quickly grow .

When a child in a family was ill , their relatives who knew the doctor would advise the parent , saying , There is an old traditional doctor who lives in a town .

He is good at treating diseases .

You should take your child to see him on Sunday .

If that continued , more and more people would know the doctor , and so would those who come to him for treatment .

Therefore , only by changing his address frequently can the doctor avoid attracting too much attention .

As for the last place he stayed , after three to five years , the locals almost forgot about it .

Even if someone mentioned it , they only sighed .

After Richard finished speaking , Tinley picked up her phone that was placed aside and texted Adrien .

1/4 22:53 Mon , 14 Apr AA .

Chapter 331  48 % 2 +23) Clearwater Town was located in the south .

Even though it was December , the sun was shining brightly there , and there was no sign of winter .

The air conditioner was still on in the car .

The man standing by the road was saying something to the person on the other end of the phone .

His eyes were searching left and right across the road .

Suddenly , as if he had spotted his target , his eyes lit up slightly , and he asked on the phone , Is it a Land Rover ? Perhaps it was because he had received a favorable answer , so he informed the other party , I saw Mr.

Ill go up now .

Then , he hung up the phone and hurried toward the car .

He opened the car door , and the sweltering heat from outside rushed in along with it .

He heard Adrien before he saw him .

Any leads ? asked Adrien .

The man closed the car door and said with a very respectful attitude , Mr.

Holmes , our men have been searching for days before your arrival , but theres no trace of him .

If it were not for the medicine he left behind and a few eyewitnesses , wed think he was a phantom .

There were four people in the car .

Excluding the one addressed as Mr.

Holmes , the other three quickly chimed in agreement .

The guy is too good at hiding .

We never met anyone like him .

His counter surveillance skills are top notch .

Hes a seasoned pro .

As they spoke , someones phone chimed with a new WhatsApp message notification .

The man in the passenger seat turned his gaze toward the phone placed in front .

He raised his hand , and all conversation in the car ceased instantly , leaving a profound silence .

He stared at the message on the phone for a few seconds , then turned off the screen and looked up .

I need you to find out how much medicine he sells each time he appears and compile a list of all the buyers over the past few years .

The three men received the order and got out of the car one by one to handle the matter .

Only the man was left in the car .

He was still sitting in the passenger seat .

After everyone had left , he opened the door and got out , probably wanting to go around to the drivers seat .

However , he didnt rush over after getting out of the car .

He looked around the area where the car was parked , found a shady spot under a tree , and squatted down .

Then he took out a lighter from his pocket and lit it .

It was unknown where he got the cigarette from , but he lit it up like that .

The cigarette butt was scarlet red when it was just lit.

He bit the cigarette , put away the lighter , and looked around at the surroundings .

It was a small town .

A cafe was across the street , and a tobacco and alcohol store was next to it .

On its other side was a small fruit stand .

They were all self owned , and the storefront was connected to the residence .

The street was quite wide , with shops and residential buildings lined up on both sides of the street .

Few people passed by at that time .

Chapter 331 4034 About two or three cars and a dozen motorcycles and electric scooters pass by in one minute .

Grayish white dust was kicked up as the wheels rolled over the street .

The towns station was right next to Adrien , where two weather beaten buses were parked .

It became a station just by stopping at the back street at the north end of the main road .

Adrien narrowed his eyes .

White smoke slowly exhaled from his mouth , blurring the contours of his face .

The small place was hard to find .

It was subordinate to an ordinary state , an ordinary city , an ordinary county .

Clearwater Town was an ordinary town .

It was neither developed nor backward .

It was the hardest to remember .

The sun was at its strongest at that moment .

Adrien looked up .

Adriens phone had the weather forecast for Strate City .

He glanced at it when he got out of the car , and it was already 32 F there .

If it were back home , it would have been overcast for a week , with a cold wind blowing .

How could one still see such a sunny day ? thought Adrien .

The cafe across the street was probably the only one in town , and it was packed .

But through the transparent glass door and curtain , Adrien saw a few people ordering bubble tea .

Most of them were sitting at the tables in the shop , connected to the wifi , playing games .

They were all young children , about thirteen or fourteen years old .

They were making a lot of noise .

Two electric scooters drove over from the south , seemingly about to pass by , but stopped as if attracted by something .

Three boys were riding on an electric scooter .

Adrien heard their surprised voices , as if they had discovered something extraordinary .

Holy crap ! Whose Land Rover is parked here ? We have such a nice car in this small place ? I have to take a picture and post it on Instagram to show off .

Whose life is this ? Instagram So cool .

This car is left on the roadside , and no one wants it .

Can I drive it away ? There were six boys , three of whom had dyed their hair yellow .

After circling the car in surprise , they finally saw the man squatting under a tree in the distance , smoking They were friendly and asked in a loud voice , Sir , is this your car ? Can we take a picture , sir ? We wont touch your car , just show off .

Well pixelate your license plate number after were done ? Adrien took a drag of his cigarette and made an OK gesture .

Upon seeing Adriens gesture , the six boys were as happy as if they had won a lottery , dancing with joy .

Thank you , sir .

You are so handsome ! Super handsome , okay ? You are the most handsome man I have ever seen ! Then , they excitedly went over to strike a pose and queued up to take pictures 3/4 22:53 Mon , 14 Apr AA Chapter 331 Adrien was amused .

He turned his head and stared at them for a few seconds .

Adrien became the most handsome person when he allowed those young punks to take pictures of his car .

The boys were chattering over there .

It seemed that they later quarreled over who would shoot first and who would shoot later , but Adrien didnt pay much attention .

He saw the young men who were originally playing games in the café opposite also come out , probably attracted by the brilliance of the car , and came to take pictures .

The group of people was in a hurry .

They were so focused on looking at the car that they didnt notice a man walking toward the station with something in hand , and they bumped into each other .

The boy who bumped into the man opened his mouth and said something , which looked like an apology .

The man carrying the bag didnt look up and continued walking toward the station .

The group of boys also carelessly crossed the road .

They knew it was Adriens car , so they all approached him .

Sir , can I take a photo with your car ? Sir , I also want to take a picture with your car .

When they came over , Adrien smelled an indescribable faint smell , almost inaudible , or even just a feeling .

Abandoned Super Cutie Adopted by Billionaire Clan Novel

Chapter 332 It felt like an odd smell , one he had never smelled before .

It was just a whiff .

It was swallowed by the smell of smoke in the next second .

Paying it no mind , Adrien put out his cigarette and stood up .

His expression was unchanged amidst the calls of Sir and compliments on his looks .

Go ahead and take the phones , said Adrien .

Then he walked into the tobacco and liquor store behind him , bought a bottle of mineral water , and continued to stand under the tree .

The phone in his pocket rang .

Adrien took it out and glanced at it .

It was from one of his men , telling him to go to the township government .

They had arranged accommodation and would send some people to help them search together .

Adrien tilted his head and glanced at his car .

He couldnt even get in his car with the crowd around .

The boys over there were chattering non stop , very excited .

I saw in the group chat that a Land Rover also came to Lakia Village .

Thats so cool ! Those people are dressed like bodyguards on TV .

Our small town sure is something now .

Not just that .

A Land Rover also went to the east ... Upon hearing what the boys said , Adrien narrowed his eyes thoughtfully .

He waved and called over a boy standing at the edge .

The boy pointed at himself and looked around uncertainly , then trotted over quickly after confirming he was called .

Sir , he called out naturally , but there was still a hint of restraint in his movements and tone .

You called me ? Adrien held a mineral water bottle and stood under a tree , looking down at the boy .

He asked , I heard you have a powerful drug here .

Is that true ? The boy remembered halfway through .

When Adrien finished asking , he nodded excitedly .

Yes , its true .

Those were the kinds of things that people like them who hung out on the streets knew about .

The boy was quick witted .

Thinking of the Land Rover behind him and the man before him who didnt belong in a small place like this , he immediately guessed the mans purpose .

Sir , are you here for that medicine ? Before Adrien could speak , the boy continued , That medicine is amazing .

Mikeles grandma got better after taking it .

Who is Mikele ? asked Adrien .

The boy turned his head and shouted in the direction of the large group of boys surrounding the car , Mikele , come here .

The gentleman wants to talk to you .

Adrien realized Mikele was a boy among them .

1/5 22:53 Mon , 14 Apr AA .

Chapter 332 The boy named Mikele ran over , a little nervous because he didnt know why he was called .

The gentleman also wants to buy that medicine.

Tell him about your grandma .

Upon seeing that , more and more boys gathered around , all talking at once .

The information they talked was jumbled , but some useful details could be gleaned by careful sorting .

40/01 (+23) There were more than twenty villages belonging to the town , scattered over a wide area .

The farthest one was over 12 miles away from the town .

All the children in the villages had to go to only primary or junior high schools in town , so if anything happened to any family , the news would spread quickly as long as they told their classmates .

The group Adrien chose was the most well informed .

There's another one in next class to ours , whose family also bought the medicine , for only 140 dollars .

Yes , it's Alfredo .

His family lives in Riverfoot Village .

There is also one in Riverhead Village ... Upon hearing the unfamiliar place names from them , Adrien interrupted them .

He strode to the front of the car , took out a rolled up map from inside , and brought a pen over .

The map was spread out directly on the hood of the car , showing a detailed map of Clearwater Town and more than twenty surrounding villages .

It was so detailed that in addition to the more than twenty administrative villages , even the natural villages were marked out , densely packed , probably three hundred of them .

There must have been more than 50,000 people .

They would be like headless chickens running around aimlessly if they hadn't made any plans before they came .

He let the boys speak slowly and drew a circle on the map for each place name they mentioned .

Finally , when they had finished telling him everything they knew , Adrien looked at the map again and found most of the locations were concentrated in a certain area .

He looked around the crowd and beckoned to Mikele .

Mikele squeezed in and stood beside him .

Adrien asked , Did your grandma go and ask about the medicine herself , or did the seller come to her ? It was a man in our village .

I should call him Uncle .

He found my grandma and asked her if she wanted to buy medicine .

He said his daughter benefited from the medicine , so my grandma bought it , said Mikele .

Adrien has a general idea .

He put away the map , patted Mikele on the shoulder , and called him to get in the car .

Take me to your house , said Adrien .

Mikele was a little flattered .

Adrien had gotten in the car , but he was still standing before the car door , hesitating .

The boys next to him were chattering .

You are so lucky , Mikele .

The gentleman is taking you for a ride .

Get in the car .

Dont dawdle .

You dont know how lucky you are .

After Mikele got in the car , they watched it drive away and started to feel jealous again .

No one spoke in the car .

The atmosphere was somewhat quiet .

Mike looked around excitedly , unable to restrain his excitement .

He looked at Adrien driving next to him .

Sir , is this a Range Rover ? asked Mikele .

Adrien held the steering wheel and looked at the road , humming without squinting .

Mikeles exclamation came from the side again , Wow , its expensive .

Ive never been in such an expensive car in my life .

Upon hearing that , Adrien smiled but still didnt turn his head .

How come you havent been in one ? High speed rail or subway , none of them are cheaper than this .

Mikele carefully pulled on his seat belt and shook his head .

Sir , I havent taken any of those you mentioned .

Adrien turned his head and glanced at him .

Mikeles eyes were round and bright when he smiled .

He had been taught a lesson .

He had been a little out of touch .

After leaving town , the road narrowed a little .

Adrien concentrated on driving .

Mikele , beside him , took out his mobile phone and carefully asked if he could take a selfie .

After getting permission , Mikele happily held up his phone and took a few pictures of himself from various angles .

After his excitement subsided , Mikele turned his attention to Adrien driving next to him .

He put his phone in his pocket , carefully leaned closer , stared at Adrians profile , and asked gossipily , Sir , youre so handsome .

Do you have a wife ? Perhaps he had sensed Adrians good temper along the way and had become a little bolder .

Adrien smiled .

Youre lying .

You must have .

How can such a handsome man , driving a Range Rover , not have a wife ? thought Mikele .

His gaze drifted downward , finally settling on Adriens hands gripping the steering wheel .

His hands were slightly smoother than his , and a plain ring adorned his well defined knuckles .

Mikele was even more certain that Adrien was lying to him .

Mikele was a sensible and understanding boy .

He thought since Adrien didnt want to talk about it , he didnt expose him but instead asked another question .

By the way , sir , who are you buying medicine for ? Adrien paused and said , My sister .

Mikele said with a hint of pride , Youre right to let me in the car .

That medicine isnt something you can buy casually .

You have to be referred by someone who has bought it before to get it .

He said enthusiastically , Ill have my grandma recommend the medicine to you , and you can get the medicine .

Adrien couldnt help but smile and said , Thank you .

3/5 22:53 Mon , 14 Apr AA .

Chapter 332 Mikele replied nonchalantly .

Its nothing .

You take me for a ride .

The road ahead was empty , and Adrien sped up a little .

He was in a hurry to find that person , finish his business , bring him back to Strate City , and then he could go back too .

He couldnt be blamed for his urgency .

Tinleys attitude gave him an ominous premonition that he wouldnt be allowed to return until the person was found .

What was even more frightening was that , knowing Tinleys ruthlessness , she might actually say that .

Just then , his phone rang again .

It was his subordinate again .

One of them had finished investigating the assigned matters and sent him the list .

Adrien was driving and couldnt look at it , so he put his phone aside , thinking he would look at it after reaching his destination .

The screen went dim , and then it lit up again as he turned at a corner .

Mikele glanced at it curiously and caught a glimpse of the lock screen wallpaper .

He seemed to have discovered something and said with a smug look , Sir , this is your daughter , right ? You just lied to me and said you werent married .

I knew it .

Then , he sincerely praised , Your daughter is so cute .

Why dont you take her for a ride ? Adrien saw the fork in the road ahead and didnt answer .

Instead , he asked , Turn left ? Yes .

The village is just ahead .

After choosing the direction , Adrien answered the previous question with a smile , Take her for a ride ? I havent even met her yet .

Mikele seemed to understand and let out an oh , imagining a scenario in his mind : a father going out to work to earn money and leaving his child at home to go to school .

He figured it out and said nonchalantly , Thats the same as me .

My parents went out to work , and I havent seen them for more than two years .

Mikele was optimistic and said with a grin , You earn so much money outside .

When you go back home , your daughter will be so happy to sit in the passenger seat of your car .

Adrien smiled .

Shes still young .

She cant sit in the passenger seat until shes twelve .

Then she can sit in the back , Mikele said expectantly , cupping his face in his hands .

If it were me , Id be happy even if you let me sit in the trunk .

Adrien glanced at him and said slowly , You like the car that much ? Yes .

Its so cool ! The way he spoke was full of the longing and yearning of a child of his age .

The next second , Mikele saw the familiar surroundings outside the car and quickly said , Stop , sir .

This is my village .

Abandoned Super Cutie Adopted by Billionaire Clan Novel

Chapter 333 Adrien glanced outside .

Not far away , there was a car identical to his .

It was his man , who should have also investigated this village .

3.4460 He looked to the side again and inadvertently made eye contact with a group of women enjoying the shade under a big tree at the village entrance .

After a few seconds of eye contact , his eyebrows twitched , and he was the first to look away .

Mikele unfastened his seat belt and called out to him with a grin , Lets go , sir .

Thats our villages intelligence source .

Then he playfully added , Dont worry , sir .

Theyll gossip about you .

Adrien was amused .

He smiled , picked up his phone from the side , pushed the car door open , and got out .

Mikele walked beside him .

When they passed the villages gossip group , Mikele held his head high , not a bit embarrassed or ashamed , like a general who had won a battle .

He was hopping and skipping ahead of Adrien , who was looking at his phone behind him , walking a little slower .

He was looking at the investigation results sent by his subordinate just now .

The people he had sent out had almost finished their investigation .

Eight doses of those medicines were sold in the first year .

The first person to buy the medicine was in April , and the last one to buy it was in July , three months apart .

In the second year , eleven doses were sold from June to August .

The third year , which was last month , the most medicine was sold .

The exact number had not yet been determined , but it was over twenty .

Most of them were repeat customers .

Looking at the statistics of the transaction time and the table , a bad premonition gradually arose in Adriens heart .

That person used to be carefree , selling his medicine as if he was slowly selecting his customers .

He sold eight doses in three months , eleven doses in two months , and now twenty doses in one month .

He was in such a hurry as if he was short of money .

Adriens bad premonition grew heavier .

He put away his phone without looking and walked very fast .

To save time , he told Mikele , Lets go directly to your uncles house you mentioned .

Mikele was taken aback .

He immediately changed direction , although he was a little disappointed .

He almost ran ahead to lead the way .

Mikeles uncle , he was mentioned , lived at the head of the village , in a low rise bungalow sandwiched between two double- story buildings on both sides .

Mikele said they had spent all their money on medical treatment , so his family was the only one in the village that hadnt renovated their house .

When entering the door , one could see cured meat and dried fish hanging from the beams with bamboo hooks .

The chickens and ducks paced back and forth in the courtyard .

A big yellow dog was tied up under a small shed .

When it saw a stranger coming in , it stood up and barked at them .

The iron chain around its neck rattled as it pulled on it .

The chickens and ducks , which had been peaceful before , were also frightened and fluttered away .

As soon as they entered the door , two people came out , both of whom were acquaintances .

After walking out with the two of them , he found a place to stand and asked , What did you find out ? Three of them stood behind the house , all tall .

Mikele , who followed them , only reached their waists , Mikele also looked up curiously .

His bright eyes were impossible to ignore .

Adrien wanted to light a cigarette but paused and put the cigarette back when he saw Mikele , Its not looking good .

The family we just visited said they heard the medicine seller say he would be leaving this place when they met him three days ago .

So the family bought two pills in preparation .

I bought one from him for 7,000 dollars Then , the man reached into his pocket , took out a small iron box for chewing gum , and handed it to Adrien .

When Adrien opened it , the first thing that wafted out was the minty smell of the original chewing gum , mixed with a refreshing fragrance that felt cool when inhaled .

Adrien closed the lid with a click .

He rubbed his fingers on the edge of the box , his eyes looking into the distance as if thinking about something .

Adrien got it when he heard his subordinate say the medicine seller was leaving .

Adrien thought , The medicine seller was raising money for the ticket .

He is leaving here to go to another place .

He should still use this method to earn money .

If he doesn't want to be discovered , he will choose a place far away from Clearwater Town , a place where no one has heard of his reputation .

But he will need more travel expenses .

No wonder he is in such a hurry to sell so much this time .

Then one of the men said uncertainly , Mr.

Holmes , I just heard the man of this family say he saw the medicine seller walking in the direction of a mountain over there last year .

Shall we go and have a look ? He lifted his hand to point out the direction to Adrien .

Mikele stood on tiptoe and looked around .

Then he turned to look at the three of them , saying happily , I know .

That's Twinpeak Mountain .

There used to be a church on that mountain .

I went there when I was a child .

Upon hearing that there was a church in the mountain , Adriens hand paused , and then he patted Mikele on the shoulder .

Can you take us to the church you mentioned ? Of course ! The four of them returned to the entrance of the village and drove up the mountain .

According to Mikele , there was no road to the mountain before .

A few years ago , he was still darting around in the woods when he climbed the mountain with his friends from the village .

Now , a concrete road had been built to the top , saving a lot of trouble .

They got out of the car and walked a short distance to find the church that Mikele had mentioned .

They went in and took a look .

There were indeed signs of habitation , but it was clear it had long been deserted .

2/4 22:54 Mon , 14 ADE DA A Chapter 333 The two men searched the room to see if there was anything useful .

Adrien squatted in front of a square plot of land that had been boed behind the house and pinched the soil with his fingers .

It was still wet , and it hadnt been long since it was turned over .

It should have been within five hours that the things originally planted there were pulled away .

There were traces on the ground , and the wet soil that had been turned over had not yet dried .

It would have been nice to come a day earlier and block the person here , thought Adrien .

He rubbed the soil open with his fingers .

He was about to stand up when he suddenly smelled a strange smell .

It should be the smell of herbs left there .

Adrien was stunned , then slowly put the hand that had just touched the soil under his nose .

It was an herbal scent he couldn't name , but it seemed familiar .

He had a hunch that the clue would be particularly important .

However , just as he was trying desperately to remember , it was like a blackout , and he couldn't recall it .

Just then , someone called him from behind , Sir Mikele , who had also been wandering around the church .

He came to find Adrien after wandering around for a while .

He probably felt he was more familiar with it , so he wanted to stay by Adrien's side .

Upon seeing his running figure , Adrien's broken memory suddenly connected .

A scene was replayed in his mind .

It was in the town when a group of kids from the cafe across the street ran over to take pictures of his car .

Adrien remembered they bumped into a man in a hurry , carrying luggage .

He found it .

The character , the timing , and the location all match .

That man is probably the one that Tinley asked me to find , thought Adrien .

After figuring it out , Adrien's mood could only be described as regretful .

He thought again , If I had been more perceptive at that time , I would be on my way back to the capital .

Besides , there's something even scarier .

If Tinley knew I had passed by that man but didn't recognize him and just let him go , she would be so angry that she would find someone to beat me up ! At the thought of that , Adrien panicked and took out his phone to call the people he had left in the county , asking them to stop the bus from Clearwater Town to the county this afternoon .

However , it seemed that whatever he was afraid of was coming .

The moment he touched his phone , it rang .

Upon seeing the caller ID , Adrien had never been more nervous .

He didnt dare to hang up and braced himself to answer .

3/4 22:54 Mon , 14 Apr AA .

Chapter 333 Then he was just blabbering on , trying to be calm .

Hello , Tinley .

Im looking for him now .

I already know his address .

Two days ? Um

The signal is suddenly poor .

Im in the mountains , Tinley .

Theres no signal here .

Ill call you back when I get out ? 台糖 Upon hearing the busy tone , he breathed a sigh of relief but didnt dare to rest .

He quickly had someone stop the bus at the station .

Thinking of the deadly two days , Adrien didnt dare to delay .

He stood up , walked around the church , and entered through the back door .

As it happened , his two subordinates who were searching for clues in the room were looking for him .

The three bumped into each other .

A man was holding a piece of paper torn from the packaging of bread .

The outside bore the brands information , while the inside was blank .

Holmes , I found a note on the table with writing on it .

It seems to be addressed to us .

Adrien took it , flipped it over , and looked at it .

It was a line of powerful , cursive characters , written with a black ballpoint pen , ink seeping through the back .

Born into the Holmes family , Adrien had seen all sorts of exquisite things since childhood , but he was still taken aback when he saw the handwriting .

The writers calligraphy was incredibly strong , as if imbued with immense force .

The person must be a grandmaster .

He saw a line of characters flowing smoothly on paper : Do not pursue .

Do not disturb .

Fate will bring us together .

Abandoned Super Cutie Adopted by Billionaire Clan Novel

Chapter 334 Do not pursue .

Do not disturb .

Fate will bring us together .

Richard read these words out loud .

Putting the content aside for a moment , just the handwriting alone earned his great approval .

I have to say , the persons handwriting is truly exceptional , said Richard .

11 He was holding the very piece of paper that Adrien had found in the dilapidated church on Twinpeak Mountain , which had just been delivered to him from afar today .

Richard complimented it and then stroked his chin thoughtfully , saying , I know someone whos been practicing calligraphy for over seventy years , and he doesnt have such powerful strokes .

But Adrien said the person looked to be in his forties or fifties .

It doesnt make sense .

While some people were naturally gifted in the area , it wa often said that handwriting reflected ones character .

The calligraphy had its unique style , unrestrained , with a flowing and elegant air .

It suggested that the person was content with simplicity and detached from worldly struggles .

Otherwise , he wouldnt choose to live in seclusion in the mountains .

Moreover , despite his obvious capabilities , he cared little for material comforts , choosing to reside in a dilapidated church deep in the mountains .

Someone with such a state of mind must have seen and experienced a great deal in life .

He was bound to be older .

Furthermore , the person was so mysterious , even able to anticipate someone coming to find him and leaving the note behind .

The person was truly unfathomable .

Richards interest was piqued .

A strong intuition told him the person was not just in his fifties .

It was even possible that he was older than Richard .

Richard had experienced a lot in his life , but he knew he was still far from reaching the transcendental state .

Tinley held a small tin box , which was delivered with the note .

It was originally a tin box for chewing gum , but it contained a pill at the moment .

Both Tinley and Richard smelled it , and the scent was familiar .

They would have someone analyzed it and found out what it was made of .

As Tinleys slender fingers traced the edge of the tin box , her eyes fell to a certain point as if she had thought of something .

Her gaze froze , her eyes gradually becoming deep .

What Richard had just said had struck a chord with her , and a bold conjecture formed in her mind .

We dont know the upper limit of Yvones ability .

Since it can prolong the life of a dying person , it can delay aging or maintain eternal youth , said Tinley .

Like Richard , she also felt the handwriting was not something a person in their forties or fifties could write .

Upon hearing that , a sharp glint flashed in Richards eyes .

He remembered something from his youth .

Your words reminded me of something .

When I was seventeen or eighteen , I overheard my grandfather talking to someone and learned something .

Chapter 334 He looked toward Tinley .

His voice was soft and faint , and combined with his timbre , it gave people a mysterious feeling .

I dont know if it has anything to do with superpowers , but ... Richard began slowly , speaking word by word , Do you believe that someone in the world can live to be over five hundred years old ? In comparison , wouldnt slowing down aging be acceptable ? Tinleys expression didnt change .

She had long known the world had many unknown secrets .

However , she frowned , probably thinking of Yvonne .

Once again , their thoughts aligned .

Richard leaned slightly toward her with a contemplative expression .

If Yvonne could live that long , shouldnt we stock up on gold for her now ? Unexpectedly , Tinley nodded seriously .

Yes , we should .

But longevity isnt necessarily a good thing .

Richard sighed as if remembering something .

We still need to find that person as soon as possible and ask about Yvonne's situation .

Then he placed the piece of paper on the table and stood up .

As he was about to leave , he smiled cheerfully and informed Tinley , Yvonne's mother .

By the way , I'm taking Yvonne to see Laura's engagement tomorrow .

We'll go there for fun and won't be back tomorrow .

Tinley gave him a speechless look .

Richard left happily after getting her reply of agreement .

He went out and purposefully sought out Yvonne , scooping her out of her pink teddy bears den .

He smiled like a child snatcher .

Your mom said yes .

I will come to pick you up tomorrow morning .

Yvonne nodded obediently.

Good girl .

Richard stared at Yvonne for a few seconds after praising her , feeling something was wrong .

After thinking for a while , he finally figured it out .

He stroked the furry ears on Yvonne's hat .

Ask your mom to put that red furry one on you tomorrow , okay ? Yvonne nodded obediently .

Grandpa , okay ... Yvonne worried she would forget , so she told Tinley about it that night before going to bed .

As soon as she had laid in bed , her mind became hazy as the bed had sprinkled her with sleepy dust .

She was like a chubby , soft little yellow chick , instinctively burrowing into Tinleys arms according to the urge of her body .

After getting in , she closed her eyes contentedly .

Yvonne suddenly opened her eyes two seconds later .

She moved her head as if someone had reminded her in her mind , saying , Mommy , I want to wear red clothes tomorrow .

It was quite a flashback .

Then , Yvonne closed her eyes again , looking sleepy , peaceful , and content .

Chapter 335 The next day Yvonne , dressed festively , happily got into the car and sat beside Richard .

It was half past nine in the morning when they left , a bit late .

Yesterday , Gavyn and Carol called Richard and said they hoped he could come earlier today .

However , Richard thought about Yvannes usual wake up time and disagreed .

He couldnt bear to drag Yvonne out of bed , so he asked Stefan to go over and help early in the morning .

Stefan washed up and went to the hotel at seven oclock .

Richard didnt pick up Yvonne until half past nine .

Theres no hurry .

Its fine to be there by noon , and its no use going early , thought Yvonne .

成 50 % (423) The venue was a top notch , romance themed hotel , lavishly decorated .

The moment Yvonne walked in , she didnt know where to look .

The hall was filled with flowers and crystals .

The venue was crowded with people coming and going .

Stefan , who had arrived two and a half hours earlier than them , was the first to see them and walked toward them through the crowd .

Grandpa , Yvonne .

He stopped beside them and led the way .

Uncle Gavyn and Mr.

Jill are waiting for you inside .

The engagement party was scheduled to start at five oclock in the afternoon .

It was still early .

Apart from the staff and the venue decorators , only members of both the Adler family and the Jill family were at the hotel .

Grandpa someone called from behind .

It was Laura .

She walked over with a man , smiling faintly .

Her eyes were bright .

It wasnt until Laura got closer that she noticed Yvonne .

She was a little surprised .

Grandpa , you brought Yvonne along , too .

Laura was the star of the day .

She had gotten up early to have her makeup done by a professional team .

Her look was a little different from her usual gentle and elder sister style , leaning more toward a brighter aesthetic .

She smiled and introduced the person next to her to Richard .

Grandpa , this is Rupert Jill .

Rupert was Lauras fiancé .

Richard turned to look at Rupert .

He looked at him as if he were looking at his son in law , which was naturally much sharper and more critical than usual .

That faint but undeniable pressure could only be felt by those involved .

Rupert greeted him , pushing through the pressure , Hello , Richard .

Im Lauras boyfriend .

Richard had known about their relationship for a long time , but it was the first time they had met in person .

Richard wasnt particularly close to the Jill family .

However , he thought of Gavyn and Carol , who loved their daughter as the apple of their eye , and of how they would never let Laura marry Rupert if Rupert wasnt decent , so he didnt need to worry .

Rupert had regular facial features , and his eyes were quite clear .

Richard nodded slightly , and Rupert secretly breathed a sigh of relief .

50 % Then , Laura stood beside him , her lips curving upward as she asked with concern , Grandpa , long time no see , how are you Richard heard her voice , and his expression softened a little , no longer as serious as before .

He smiled .

By the way , Grandpa , my parents and Mr.

Jill are still waiting for you .

Lets go over there , said Laura .

She was thoughtful .

Looking at Yvonne , Laura suggested , Why dont we let Yvonne and Widi play for a while ? We can call them over for dinner after were done talking , okay ? Richard gently stroked Yvonnnes hair and said , Why dont you go play with your sisters for a bit ? Its boring to sit here while we chat .

Im afraid youll get restless Mm hmm ? Yvonne nodded .

Richard was relieved .

He let Stefan carry Yvonne away .

He followed Laura to the coffee room .

On the way , he asked and found out that Widi had gone to the craft workshop .

It was an art gallery .

The flower room was piled high with flowers outside and inside the glass door .

The florists were busy arranging flowers .

Across the way was a scented candle shop .

Stefan stopped at the door and knocked .

Soon , the door was opened , and the fragrant smell wafted out .

The bright candles inside caught Yvonnnes attention .

She exclaimed in awe , her eyes shining .

Stefan looked down at her shining big eyes , and the indifference in his eyes melted a little .

Can you play here ? Yvonne nodded , overjoyed .

Children of her age just loved to play with new things .

It was unstoppable .

Stefan had to go back .

He saw Yvonne liked it , so he left her in the care of the craft teacher who opened the door .

The teacher was pleasantly surprised to hold Yvonne and go in .

Her voice involuntarily became gentler .

You are so cute .

I will take you in to play .

Thank you , miss , said Yvonne .

Upon hearing Yvonne's polite voice , Widi , pouring wax into the mold , turned her head and glanced .

The next moment , her hand trembled , and her head buzzed .

Why is she here ? She asked the handicraft teacher .

Adler asked me to bring her in and to have you look after her .

Widi even looked behind the teacher but did not see any of the four figures .

How come ? Were they always inseparable ? Why would they let me help take care of Yvonne ? thought Widi .

Fine , said Widi .

2/3 22:55 Mon , 14 Apr AA .

Chapter 335 She stood up and pulled a stool over to her side .

(+23) After a while , the teacher went to do something else , leaving Widi and Yvonne in the craft workshop .

Widi cut the wax base into small pieces and heated them in a glass of water .

She added two drops of essential oil , and the fragrance instantly filled the air .

Then , she went to find a container she liked .

As Widi turned around , she heard Yvonne's sweet voice , It smells so good ... Alarm bells went off in Widi's head .

She quickly turned around , as if something terrible would happen if she were a second late .

She told Yvonne with a serious expression , You mustn't drink it .

No matter how fragrant it is , you can't drink it .

This isnt something to drink .

Yvonne looked up at her in confusion .

After two seconds of staring at each other , Yvonne shifted her gaze away first and then looked at the orange candle Widi had made ten minutes ago .

It was round and lifelike .

Yvonne pointed at the orange candle .

Her eyes sparkled like tiny stars as she said softly , Widi , this one looks like a real orange .

Yvonne was smart and knew those were fake .

However , Widi didnt know what little Yvonne was thinking .

When Widi suddenly heard her words , she became alert , thinking Yvonne wanted to eat it .

She hurried over , took the orange candle in her hand , and put it in a high place , out of Yvannes reach .

Widis expression was a little unnatural as she spoke , Tell me if you are hungry .

Dont steal it .

She repeated the important thing three times .

You must tell me if you are hungry .

You mustnt steal and eat it ! 8/8

Chapter 336 You mustnt steal and eat it ! Upon seeing Widis serious expression , Yvonne nervously clenched her small hands and shook her head repeatedly .

I dont want to eat ... said Yvonne .

Her voice was soft .

Coupled with her innocent expression , it was as if she was saying : I wont eat it .

Thats all for you ... Widi didnt notice .

She put away all the candles she had made on the table and placed them high up .

Yvonne , who had been staring at beautiful aromatherapy , no longer had anything to relieve her boredom and began to focus on the strange containers on the table .

She rubbed her little hands together , feeling itchy and eager to give it a try .

Widi was skilled .

The colors she blended were beautiful .

The fragrances she chose were pleasant .

The finished products were so beautiful that it was a shame to use them .

Finally , Yvonne couldnt help it .

She looked at Widi with longing eyes and called out in a soft voice , Widi ... Widi was wiping the container when she heard that .

She glanced at Yvonne nervously , afraid she would suddenly start making a fuss .

She was most afraid of children making a fuss .

Besides , her feelings for Yvonne were complicated .

Frankly , Widi was jealous of Yvonne when Yvonne first came home because Widi felt Yvonne was just an adopted orphan .

Yvonne had been brought back not long ago .

Kelvin wanted to give her something precious .

Widi had witnessed how Laura had been doted on since she was a child .

It could be said that Widi witnessed Lauras happy life .

If Laura was the heroine in the novel , Widi would be the contrast .

Widi had always thought that it was because Kelvin and Aunt Carol had only one daughter , Laura , that they had been so fond of her .

At that time , Kelvin had his biological child , but he still insisted on giving the necklace to Yvonne .

The collapse in Widi's heart was imaginable .

She didn't want to be a witness to another person's happiness anymore .

It was too cruel for her .

After all that time , Widi had managed to soothe herself , but Yvonne , who was suddenly adopted and brought home , was like a heavy hammer , smashing the lies she had woven for herself .

Jealousy was inevitable , but Widi thought about it carefully .

Yvonne also didn't know anything and didn't even say a word to Widi .

What reason did Widi have to be jealous of Yvonne ? During those days , Widi's mood had been terrible .

She knew it was wrong to think that way , but she just couldn't control her emotions .

It wasn't until she heard Yvonne was the Holmes family's lost child that her tormenting mood passed away .

At that moment , Widi felt a sudden sense of relief , as if a huge weight had been lifted from her shoulders .

1/5 22:56 Mon , 14 Apr Chapter 336 Widi's spirits soared , and she could finally face the matter with a normal state of mind .

She wouldn't feel any jealousy anymore because she felt Yvonne belonged to the Holmes family , and she was an only daughter like Laura , so Yvonne deserved to be doted on .

It was only reasonable .

After figuring it out , Widi began to regret her previous competitiveness .

Even now , Widi was still a little uneasy .

Yvonne had been there when Widi had been throwing a tantrum about the necklace , but Widi didn't know if Yvonne had understood .

Yvonne must not have understood ... otherwise , she wouldn't have called me Widi so innocently , thought Widi .

Then , Widi felt a little more at ease .

She couldnt imagine how awkward it would be if Yvonne remembered what had happened and asked her about it .

Although Widi didnt like children , she was glad Yvonne was so young .

All these thoughts flashed through Widis mind , but in Yvones eyes , Widi just stood there in a daze .

She tilted her head in confusion , waited a few seconds , and then called out to Widi again in a sweet voice , Widi .

Widi came back to her senses and replied with an unnatural grunt , Are you hungry ?
+23) Yvonne shook her head .

She raised her soft , white hand and pointed to the tools on the table .

Widi , she said with pleading eyes , I want to play , too .

glanced at the tools she was using to make candles .

Her eyes gradually became suspicious , as if she was reminded of something .

Do you want to play , or do you Want to eat it secretly ? said Widi .

Widi was afraid Yvonne would suddenly pick up the candle and take a bite while playing .

If Richard found out , he would be disappointed she couldnt even take care of a child .

It was not surprising that Widi kept thinking that way , as she had met many naughty children .

Fate seemed to be playing a trick on Widi .

Although she hated children , she still had to deal with such troublesome things from time to time .

Her best friends two naughty children had left her deeply scarred .

Therefore , Widi had become overly cautious after those bad experiences .

After she had expressed her doubts , y , spoke .

Yvonne didnt understand why Widi kept thinking she would steal the candles .

She looked down at her chubby belly and fleshy little hands , pursing her lips .

Maybe it is because Im so chubby that I gave Widi the impression I could eat a lot ? But it isnt my fault .

The flesh insists on growing on me , thought Yvonne .

Yvonne felt it necessary to explain , so she rubbed her face , made a serious expression , and said softly , Widi , this is a candle .

It cannot be eaten .

Widi looked at her in surprise .

You know that ? 2/5 22:56 Mon , 14 Apr AA .

Chapter 336 She even thought Yvonne didnt understand just then , so she didnt even explain it to her .

Yvonne pointed a finger at herself and introduced herself seriously .

I understand a lot of things even though I am young .

Widi blinked .

Yvonne nodded eagerly .

Everyone says Im smart .

Widi was dumbfounded .

They looked at each other for a few seconds .

Widi tentatively said with a hint of uncertainty , Well ... How about I find you a set of tools , and you do it with me ? Okay ! said Yvonne .

Yvonne was eager to try .

She was delighted .

She was obedient and didnt touch anything she wasnt allowed to touch , which made Widi look at her several times .

How old are you ? Widi asked suddenly after a while .

Yvonne , fixing the wick to the bottom of the container , held up four fingers .

Im four years old this year .

Widi looked away , a little surprised .

It was rare to see such an obedient child at Yvonne's age .

Widi felt that every child she met was like opening a blind box : one never knew what kind of temperament the child had until getting along with the child .

She wasn't lucky and kept meeting naughty children , but she was incredibly fortunate today and managed to get a super good child .

A rare , intelligent , and obedient four year old girl .

Yvonne was focused .

She could stay there quietly for a long time when she was interested in something .

It was like her family made a bear's den at home for her .

She would crawl in during the day and have a lot of fun playing by herself .

During that time , she would not be distracted as long as no one stood before her and called her .

So the atmosphere was harmonious now .

Both Yvonne and Widi were busy with their work .

Only when they encountered some procedures that were relatively dangerous for children would Widi directly help Yvonne through it .

Finally , after finishing making the first candle , Yvonne smiled contentedly , with the look of having completed a great task .

Widi knew Yvonne would not eat candles , so she no longer put the one in a high place .

She glanced at the time , pushed the container aside , and said , This one you made is relatively large .

It needs to cool for a while before it can be lit.

Then , she added , Ill have someone pack it up later , and you can take it with you when you leave tonight .

Yvonne was happy .

Chapter 337 Chapter 337 Jeremy wasn't lying .

He was intelligent .

Genetics played a significant role , and Richard , his grandfather , had always placed great emphasis on education .

Moreover , there were many children of the same generation in the family .

The relationship between the branches was not harmonious .

If Jeremys grades were a little bit worse , the other two branches would take the opportunity to mock him overtly and covertly .

+23 Although Richard was kind now , if Jeremys grades declined and he became a poor student , Richard would beat him with his cane until he couldnt get out of bed for three days .

Then Richard would deprive Jeremy of all his entertainment time and throw him to his teachers .

At that time , even Yvones pleading would not help .

So , Jeremy was honest when it came to school .

The fact that Jeremy had never brought his mobile phone to school in all his years of schooling had defeated ninety nine percent of the rich second generation .

As the bottom line in the family , the last time Jeremys elder brother sent him to learn flower arrangement , Jeremy had to go there no matter how reluctant he was .

His family was rich and could afford to pay more tuition , so the only way out was to study hard .

How could Jeremy be a poor student in such an environment ? With a serious look , Jeremy cleared his name .

Yvonne was bewildered , unsure if she understood .

She let out a soft Oh .

It seemed like she didnt understand .

Jeremy gently shook Yvonne .

Her round body swayed , her silly hair bouncing along until it stuck up even more stubbornly .

Her little head felt dizzy .

Oh , Jeremy ... said Yvonne .

Her sweet , soft voice could melt anyones heart .

Jeremy stopped and looked at her .

How come you only say Oh ? Dont be so dismissive of me ! Yvonne blinked .

Huh ? Jeremy is becoming increasingly childish , thought Yvonne .

She shook her head slightly and said softly and nicely , Okay , Jeremy .

I understand .

Jeremy was satisfied .

He hugged Yvonne tightly , his eyes curving into a smile .

His gaze shifted , and he saw Widis disgusted look .

Jeremy , youre so childish .

Its infuriating , said Widi .

1/4 r Chapter 338 Jeremys bronx Busowed , and he retorted unhappily .

Are you crazy , Widi ? she is my sister ? Even ven my sister doesnt mind ! She is willing to cooperate with me , so what does Widi have to be disgusted about ? Jeremy would never callWidi sister willingly , Similarly , Widi equally Similarly , Widi equally disliked everyone , including those younger brothers who didnt treat her as an older sister She looked even more disgusted .

Shes from the Holmes family , not your biological sister Just as Jeremy wax about to retort , he suddenly realised from Wides expression that something was wrong with her today .

Jeremy suddenly understood after staring at her thoughtfully for a long time .

Oh he said , drawing the word out .

Then , he stated flatly , I know .

Youre jealous Upon hearing that , Widis tace thushed .

She thought he was going to talk about the incident of her snatching the necklace from the Adler family before .

In a panic , she didnt care about anything else and rushed forward to cover Jeremys mouth .

As she did so , her gase shifted to the side , glancing at Yvonne in Jeremys arms .

Yvonne looked bewildered .

At that moment , she wished she could grab the despicable Jeremy before her , slap him many times , and make him speechless , But right now , she was powerless , almost driven wild with rage .

Upon seeing that Jeremy was about to say those things before Yvonne , Widi was anxious and angry .

Thinking of Yvannes innocent eyes and the way she called her sister , her eyes reddened .

But there was nothing she could do to stop him .

He lowered his head and exchanged a glance with Yvonne in his arms .

Both of them looked bewildered .

+23 In that instant , an idea struck Jeremy .

He lifted Yvonne to Widi .

Im sorry , okay ? If youre jealous , do you want to hold her , too ? He was only guilty of being a jerk , doing something all little brothers were guilty of , having a mean mouth .

It wasnt like he had done anything else .

After thinking for a while , Jeremy decided to say a little more .

Well ... youre not entirely wrong .

Yvonne isnt my biological sister , but shes family to all of us .

You can always come to the Holmes family if you want to see her .

Shes on vacation now , so she has plenty of time .

Oh , the Holmes family also has a newly built pink bear den that only girls can enter .

If Yvonne agrees , you can go in and play with her ... After saying those words , Jeremy thought he should have soothed Widi by now , no matter what .

Widi wiped her eyes , feeling a mixture of anger and amusement .

She was terrified , thinking he was going to bring up that incident .

But seeing Yvonne being held up to her by Jeremy , she couldnt help but burst into laughter .

Yvonne was frightened when she saw Widi crying and didnt dare to speak .

Even when she was lifted , she remained obedient .

Her eyes were wide open like a helpless little doll .

Widis laughter broke the tense atmospheres Jeremy put Yvonne back into his Making Widi laugh is enough .

I wouldnt have o give Yvonne to her , thought Jeremy .

Upon seeing Widi and Jeremy resuming their cheerful banter , the manager , who had been standing by , dared to approach and ask , Mr.

If you don finds out , hell think Im immature .

You ruined my image .

If Grandpa Jeremy replied , Grandpa wont think youre immature .

He fools around with me all the time .

He actually wanted to say : What image do you have left ? However , Jeremy saw that Widi had just finished crying .

As a man , he should still show some consideration for her .

So , instead of retorting , he turned to the manager and said , Please delete all the surveillance footage of our fight just now .

Then he looked at Widi and asked , Is that okay ? The manager agreed and turned around to give instructions through his intercom .

Widi awkwardly thanked Jeremy , turned around , and walked ahead of him .

Jeremy followed behind , holding Yvonne in his arms , and let out a sigh of relief .

Jeremy thought again , I got it ! Widi disliked Yvonne before because she hadnt met her .

Now that she has met Yvonne , she naturally likes Yvonne , the cute little girl .

35044 In addition , I have been holding Yvonne in my arms since I came here , which made Widi jealous .

Later , her sarcastic remarks were refuted .

Then , I guessed what she was thinking , so she got angry and cried .

The logic is simply perfect ! Jeremy couldnt help but praise himself for his intelligence .

He looked down and saw Yvannes big , bewildered eyes as she was in his arms .

He smiled and rubbed his face against hers .

His words were filled with pride for Yvonne .

You are indeed our dear Yvonne .

However , she was experienced .

Chapter 338 Almost everyone was there by the time Jeremy took Yvonne over .

The private room was crowded .

The waiter walked ahead and to the left of Jeremy , gesturing to guide him .

ນັ້ນ ຈັ່ງ The people in the private room were all of the same generation , a group of young people .

They were already talkative when they got together , and without any elders present , it was even more lively .

When Jeremy entered , everyone was busy chatting amongst themselves , and few people noticed him .

Widi had also just arrived not long ago , and their seats were together , very close .

Next to her was Vic , whom Jeremy hadnt seen for a long time.

The empty seat next to Vic was reserved for Jeremy .

Vics face was still very recognizable .

He could be spotted at a glance among many beautiful women and handsome men .

Upon seeing Jeremy and Yvonne coming over , Vic smiled and stretched out his arms to pick up Yvonne .

After picking up Yvonne , he lowered his head and asked with a smile , Yvonne , do you still remember who I am ? His face looked even more dazzling when he smiled .

Yvonne blinked her eyes a little embarrassedly .

She was a little shy because she didnt see him often .

She opened her mouth and said softly , Yes , Vic .

Thats right , Vic chuckled , praising her .

Jeremy sat down next to Vic and instinctively reached into his pocket .

Finding it empty , he groaned .

I forgot to ask the chauffeur to bring my phone .

He glanced around bu didnt see the person he was looking for .

Turning his head , he asked Vic , who was playing with Yvonne , Vic , is Stefan here yet ? Vic looked up , his smile still lingering on his lips .

Stefan isnt here .

He and Laura went to Grandpas private room , said Vic .

Ah ? Jeremy couldnt help but feel a little disappointed when he heard that .

He muttered , I was hoping to play games on his phone .

Jeremy knew Vic would never let him play with his phone because Vic had a girlfriend and was protective of his privacy , afraid others would see his chat history with her .

However , Stefan didnt care about those things .

Jeremy often forgot to bring his phone when he went out , so if he was bored and wanted to play , he would ask Stefan for his phone .

The kind of occasion was perfect for fiddling with ones phone .

There were no elders around and no one to control them .

With nothing to do , Jeremy wanted to take Yvonne back into his arms .

But just as he was about to reach out , he remembered that Vic hadnt been back for a long time and had only been holding Yvonne for two minutes .

If Jeremy snatched Yvonne back , it would seem a bit excessive .

Therefore , Jeremy tried his best to suppress the thought that came to his mind .

Out of boredom , he looked to the side and noticed something .

He turned to Widi , who was sitting on his other side , and asked , Widi , why didnt Jack and John come ? 1/4 22:56 Mon , 14 Apr AA · Chapter 338 林念 50 % (+23) Widi was on her phone , seemingly replying to a message , but her expression was a little unsightly .

She let out a hmm , trying to sound casual .

John has a girlfriend at school , and his grades have dropped significantly , so Grandpa wont let him come .

As for Jack , Widi wasnt quite sure either .

Jeremy nodded and didnt ask further .

Although many of the people of the same age in this private room were related by blood , everyone had their social circle .

When they were young and naive , they could play together , but not after they grew up .

Moreover , Jeremy considered himself to be different from others .

He was a man who had broken free from low tastes .

So , he decided to continue playing with Yvonne .

At a time like that , he felt more than ever that it was a good thing to have taken Yvonne out .

Quite a few people around them cast curious glances at Jeremy , Vic , and Yvonne , but no one made any harsh remarks .

As the dishes were being served , a bodyguard walked in .

He found Yvannes location precisely , walked over , and stood behind Vic .

He was someone who worked for Richard .

Widi could tell , and so was Vic .

Adler asked me to bring Miss Adler over , said the bodyguard .

Richard couldnt get away at that moment .

After all , the marriage of the two families was a big deal .

It wouldnt look good if he left .

Therefore , he could only send his bodyguard over .

Vic had been going to school recently and didnt know what had changed in the family .

When he heard the bodyguard say that , he naturally thought of handing Yvonne over to him to take her to Richard .

Just as Vic hesitated , a hand reached over from beside him and pressed down on his slightly raised hand .

It was Jeremy , who disagreed completely .

If Yvonne is taken away , I wont enjoy this meal , thought Jeremy .

There are all adults on my grandfathers side , and children will feel restrained .

You go back and tell him to let Yvonne stay with us , said Jeremy .

He wasnt making excuses .

He felt that way .

They are all elders .

One has to weigh ones words and actions carefully .

Its troublesome , thought Jeremy .

After Jeremy said that , the bodyguards serious face showed a hint of embarrassment .

Jeremy , please dont make things difficult for me .

If I dont bring Miss Adler over , I cant explain it to Mr.

Besides , Mr.

Adler is worried you wont be able to take good care of Miss Adler during lunch later .

Jeremy was still arguing with him , How could I not take good care of her ? I promise to make Yvonne eat .

Even if I dont eat myself , I will make sure she finishes her meal , okay? Yvonne , who had been listening quietly beside them , reached out her chubby hand and tugged at Jeremy , speaking up for herself .

2/4 22:56 Mon , 14 Apr AA .

Chapter 338 Jeremy , I can eat ! 50 % +23) Jeremy rubbed her head in response and used Yvannes words as proof to the bodyguard , Hear , Yvonne is an independent child .

She can cat by herself .

Please tell my grandpa not to worry .

The bodyguard wanted to say something , but Jeremy was faster , cutting him off .

There are no buts .

If it doesnt work , just blame everything on me when you report back to my grandpa ...
His attitude made it clear that he was in no mood to compromise .

The bodyguard could not just take Yvonne by force , so he had to leave after a few minutes of stalemate .

Watching him leave , Vic hesitated for a moment .

Jeremy , wont Grandpa be angry ? asked Vic .

Could it be that I hadnt been back for so long that Grandpas ltemper has improved ?
thought Vic .

Jeremys expression was natural as if nothing had happened .

Of course , he will be angry .

Then you ... Immediately after , Vic heard Jeremy continue .

But its okay .

Its beneficial to his physical health if he gets a bit angry .

Jeremy was referring to the exercise Richard got chasing after him with a stick .

Jeremy thought , I have gotten used to it .

I wouldnt dare to disobey Richard in other matters , but vying for Yvannes attention is an exception .

Besides , I am not wrong .

Yvonne would feel uncomfortable going there , so it is better to stay with me .

If Yvonne had to choose , she would certainly choose me .

Thinking of that , Jeremy lowered his head and glanced at Yvonne with a smile .

What do you want to eat ? Ill get it for you , said Jeremy .

Vic was holding Yvonne , and Jeremy was in charge of serving food to Yvonne .

By the end of the meal , Jeremy had lived up to what he had just said to the bodyguard .

Just as he was about to continue feeding her , Yvonne shook her head and touched her round belly .

Jeremy , Im full ... The dumpling that had been picked up was turned around and placed in Jeremys bowl .

Vic lowered his head to wipe Yvonnas mouth .

During that time , Yvonnas eyes kept glancing to the side , as if looking for someone .

Widi was in the direction she was looking .

Yvonne was still thinking about the unfinished scented candle in the morning .

She wanted to see if Widi had finished eating so they could go and make candles together .

She remembered Widi was sitting in that spot earlier , but now Widi was gone .

Yvonne was so engrossed in her meal that she paid all her attention to the food and didnt notice at all .

3/4 22:57 Mon , 14 Apr AA · Chapter 338 Now that she saw Widi was gone , she started to get a little anxious .

50 % +23 But then Yvonne thought , Widi promised me at noon that she would take me to make candles in the afternoon , so she must have gone to the bathroom After comforting herself , Yvonne felt at ease again .

But as time went by and Widi didnt come back , she gradually became anxious .

Vic was holding Yvonne in his arms .

Sensing her emotions , he thought she was holding her wrong and changed her position three times , but it was still the same , so he asked , Whats wrong , Yvonne ? Are you uncomfortable sitting ? Yvonne shook her head and mumbled something , but Vic didnt hear it .

Vic chuckled and teased , Do the thorns grow on my legs ? Before Yvonne could speak , Jeremy , who heard that , said proudly , Give her to me .

Shes used to sitting on my lap.

Then he squeezed Vics leg and commented seriously , Indeed .

Its not as good as mine .

Vic , you still need more practice .

Yvonne didnt notice what he said .

She looked away and glanced at Jeremy .

She stretched out her little finger , pointing to the position next to him and asking ,
Jeremy , wheres Widi ?

Chapter 339 Which one ? Jeremy followed her gaze and saw the empty seat beside him .

Oh , he said .

There Widi He really hadnt been paying attention .

Vic seemed to put something together and glanced down at the little girl .

Yvonne , were you looking for her just now ? Mm hmm ! Yvonne nodded , So that was it .

It wasnt because her leg felt weird or because he was holding her wrong , she just wanted Widi .

That was why she had been so restless .

A little awkward , sure , but Jeremy didnt really care .

What do you need Widi for ? he asked , Candles ! Yvonne's hands flew up as she spoke , her excitement painting a vivid picture .

Beautiful candlest Vic nodded in understanding .

You want Widi to take you to make candles ? Yes , yes ! Yvonne's little voice was full of determination .

Well , that settled it .

Candles were apparently more important than either of them .

Since Widi wasn't back yet , they decided to go look for her .

Someone at the table said she had stepped out about ten minutes ago and hadn't returned .

Now that they had finished eating , they headed outside with Yvonne in tow .

The hotel was way busier than earlier .

A huge camera crew and etiquette staff had arrived , and cameras seemed to be everywhere .

Vic carried Yvonne while Jeremy jogged ahead , scanning the crowd for Widi .

As they rounded a corner , they nearly collided with someone rushing toward them a familiar face .

Her face lit up when she saw them .

Oh , there you are ! I've been looking for you everywhere , she said , stopping in front of them and motioning for them to follow .

You both need to get into makeup and change .

She checked her watch .

Its 12:50 now .

Guests will start arriving at 1:30 , so youve got about half an hour .

Muttering something to herself , she turned and gestured again .

Come on , lets go .

Jeremy blinked , finally placing her , she must be the head of the etiquette team his uncle had hired .

He pointed at himself .

Wait ... we have to wear makeup too ? As he talked , Jeremy tilted his head , catching his reflection in the mirrored hallway .

He ran a hand through his already neat hair .

Yeah , perfect .

Im already this good looking , why bother with makeup ? Might as well give the other guys a chance , he thought .

The woman leading them explained , Miss Laura doesnt have any brothers , so you two will be standing in for them at some events .

Normally , this wouldve been handled in the morning , but since Vic and Jeremy had only arrived after their classes , they 1/3 22:57 Mon , 14 Apr A Â · Chapter 339 missed the whole makeup session .

As they followed her , Vic suddenly remembered something .

What about Widi ? he asked .

Did they take her for makeup too ? Yvonne had been looking for her earlier , wanting to make candles together .

Now that he thought about it , Widi hadn't changed outfits at lunch , which meant she probably hadn't done her makeup yet either .

The woman thought for a second before shaking her head .

No , Miss Widi came with Miss Laura .

They finished their makeup around eight this morning But she didn't change clothes Jeremy pointed out .

She said the dress would get in the way , so she wanted to wait until right before the event to put it on , the woman explained .

Vic nodded , then glanced down at Yvonne .

She's probably changing now .

We'll check in on her when we pass by , okay ? Yvonne nodded eagerly .

Thank you .

When they reached the cloakroom , Vic knocked on the door .

A staff member stepped out , and he asked about Widi , only to find out she wasnt there .

Thats weird .

Jeremy muttered .

Where did she go ? Then he noticed the slight disappointment on Yvonne's face .

Leaning down , he grinned .

No worries .

Once were done with makeup , well go make candles with you .

That perked her up .

Really ? Do you know how to make them ? Jeremy absolutely did not .

He had never even touched candle making stuff before .

But with Yvonne looking up at him , all hopeful and curious , there was no way he could say no .

Of course , he said confidently .

I'm really good at it .

Yvonne , completely convinced , turned to Vic next .

She didnt even need to say anything , Vic already knew what was coming .

Vic grinned .

I can do that too paint plaster dolls , make glass art , work with clay , and even make bracelets .

Yvonne had no idea what half of that meant , but she still gasped , eyes shining .

Wow ! You're amazing ! Jeremy snorted .

Sounds like someone's been on a lot of dates , he muttered .

No wonder you're never home .

Always off with your girlfriend .

Meanwhile , I actually come straight home to play with Yvonne after school .

Vic ignored him .

No point in entertaining Jeremy's jealous rambling .

Inside the dressing room , Jeremy glanced around .

Just us ? The makeup artists were setting up their tools .

One of them nodded .

Everyone else is done .

You guys are the last ones .

Okay , then , Jeremy mumbled .

He sat down and let the makeup artist do her thing , keeping quiet for once .

Yvonne , now on her own , wandered around the room , taking in everything .

Eventually , she climbed onto a chair and rested her chin in her hands , watching Jeremy get his makeup done .

There were all kinds of strange things on the table ; brushes , palettes , tiny bottles of who knows what .

2/3 22.31 Mon , 14 Apr AA Chapter 339 The makeup artist was dusting something onto Jeremys face with a fluffy brush , and Yvonne was mesmerized .

Jeremy caught her staring in the mirror and smirked .

Whats up .

Yvonne ? Why are you looking at me like that ? She kicked her legs and asked the question that had been bugging her .

Does it feel itchy ? Jeremy thought for a second .

A little, he admitted .

Then he grinned .

Wanna try it ? He turned to the makeup artist .

Hey , could you use that soft brush on her face ? Shes curious .

The makeup artist smiled .

Of course .

She grabbed a fresh brush , hesitated for a second , then dipped it lightly in blush .

Cupping Yvonne's face gently , she said in a softer voice than before , Close your eyes Jeremy grinned , tilting his head to get a better look .

Across from him , Vic paused mid makeup , distracted by the scene .

Yvonne squeezed her eyes shut , tiny fists clenched at her sides .

Her long , curly lashes twitched with each breath .

The makeup artist swept the brush lightly over her cheeks and smiled .

You've got such beautiful skin , she said .

Chapter 340 51 % 2 After a moment , Yvonne heard the makeup artist's gentle cue .

Her little fists relaxed , and she blinked her big eyes open .

She checked the mirror but didn't see any difference .

Vic , stuck in place while getting his hair done , couldn't turn to look at her .

Yvonne , look at me , he called .

She peeked out , and now he could see her properly .

He smiled .

Your face is all pink , like a little jelly .

Really ? Jeremy chimed in , curious .

Let me see .

Yvonne turned to him without hesitation .

He studied her for a second , then nodded .

Yeah , you do look like a little jelly .

Her cheeks were rosy , her skin was clear , and the way she bounced around made the comparison even more fitting .

So cute , he complimented , then asked the makeup artist , How do I wash this off my sisters face ? Its skincare based blush .

Just rinse with water twice before bed , she replied .

Jeremy made a mental note .

Once their makeup was done , they went to change .

On the way out , they passed by Widis dressing room and knocked again , but the staff gave the same response , she still wasnt there .

Jeremy frowned .

Where the hell did she go ? Then a thought hit him .

Wait ... what if shes still mad ? Is she ignoring Yvonne on purpose ? The little girl , sharp eared as ever , lifted her head from Vics shoulder , her eyes full of concern .

Then what do we do ? Vic shot Jeremy a look .

What did you say to her ? Jeremy sighed .

At lunch , I joked that she was jealous I have a little sister and she doesnt .

She got upset and cried , but I apologized right after .

He hesitated , then added , Do you think I actually hurt her feelings ? Vic didnt buy it .

No way , he said easily .

Widi isnt like that .

If she was mad , she wouldnt sulk , shed tell you straight to your face .

Still thinking , he asked , By the way , where the hell are Jack and John ? Jeremy had actually brought this up before lunch .

No idea about Jack , but John ? He fell for some girl , tanked his grades , and Grandpa found out .

Now hes grounded .

Not that it really mattered .

As long as the elders showed up , no one cared if the younger ones did .

Besides , the third branch still had Widi , and that was enough .

Even Jeremy knew that despite all the constant bickering , when it came to family events , they always stuck together .

Yvonne's engagement was a big deal .

If any family's elders didn't show up , people would start talking .

Hearing that , Vic felt even more sure of his guess .

Then she's probably with Uncle Charles .

So , they changed course and went looking for Widi .

The hotel was massive , but at least now they had a solid lead .

As they walked down a long corridor , Widi's voice suddenly carried from one of the rooms .

1/3 ER OF MON , TAPE C Chapter 340 The hotel rooms were soundproof , but they could still pick up bits of conversation .

That made it easy just find the door that wasn't fully shut .

Jeremy scanned the hallway and quickly locked onto a private room with the door slightly ajar , the handle still pressed down .

He nudged Vic with his elbow , tilting his head toward it .

beside , two figures stood near the entrance .

91 % 0 Widi sounded beyond frustrated , like she had been repeating herself all day .

Mom , you know what John is like .

He barely even acknowledges me as his sister most of the time .

How am I supposed to control him ? What she didnt say was that boys his age thought they were in some kind of dramatic drama whenever they fell in love .

So naive Thy talking sense into them , and suddenly shed be the villain .

He wouldnt listen .

And when it all crashed and burned , he would probably blame her too , like it was somehow her fault .

So , Widi figured , let him learn the hard way .

Nobody could stop someone from falling in love .

After getting dumped once or twice , he would get it .

The moment she finished , Teresas face darkened .

Hes your brother ! How can you say that ? Do you even care about him at all * Widi had just opened the door , ready to step out , when Teresa grabbed her arm and pulled her back .

John cant date that girl anymore , Teresa said firmly .

Since your father and I arent in Strate City right now , Im leaving this to you .

Make sure he breaks up and focuses on his studies .

Keep an eye on him .

She had come today only to realize both her sons were missing .

After asking around , she found out about the mess John had gotten into .

Even Richard had caught wind of it .

Apparently , John had been skipping class , but because of who he was , the teachers didnt say anything .

It only became a problem when his latest exam scores dropped , knocking him down more than twenty places in the rankings .

However , Widi wanted no part of it .

It was a lost cause .

John knew this would piss off Richard , but he still went ahead with it .

That meant no one could stop him .

And right now , whoever tried would just be asking for trouble .

So she shut it down .

Let him deal with it himself .

Grandpa is mad because he disrespected his teachers and let his grades slip , not because hes in love .

Hes already in cram school , once his grades go back up , itll all blow over .

If he can keep his grades steady , he can date whoever he wants .

Didn't Vic start dating in his last year of high school ? But since his grades were good enough for Peral University , Grandpa didn't care .

And now he's still with her .

Outside the door , Vic raised an eyebrow .

He hadn't expected Widi to be that well informed .

But instead of calming down , Teresa got even more worked up .

Your grandpa favors their side of the family .

He lets them do whatever they want , but he's so much stricter with your brother .

Didn't you notice ? Everyone's here today except my two kids .

And when people ask about them , I have no idea what to say .

She had done her makeup back in Blorencia City , but after arriving , her eyes had turned red again .

The smudged makeup under her eyes wasn't too obvious , but it was there .

Widi had been about to say something to comfort her , but the second half of that sentence made her shut her mouth .

It felt like she'd just bitten into something rotten .

So , she stayed quiet and let Teresa keep venting .

2/3 22:57 Mon , 14 Apr AA · Chapter 340 51 % She understood .

Her mom had always cared about appearances and hated being put in a position where she had to explain herself .

With so many cousins here , even Charles had a legit excuse because of his health , her two brothers were the only ones missing .

That had to sting But still ..

if her mom treated her the same way she treated them , maybe she wouldnt feel this way at all .
