Chapter 137: Golden palace

Soon, the purple middle-aged man appeared on the Imperial City.

"You, then the second level of the Emperor's Contest, this second level is still in the secret mirror."

The purple man said, just waved, and then the huge hollow mirror fell again.

"You go in, but be careful, don't start, wait for me to order." Purple people added.

The people in front began to enter the open mirror.

"He is the confidant of my father, Yueshan, is the general commander of the entire Guards, and the real power is strong." Zhao Pan whispered.

Ye Xuan shuddered. Fortunately, he did not shoot Zhao Pan yesterday, otherwise he would be hurt by this Yue Tong.

However, this may expose the identity of Prince Zhao Pan.

Soon, it was the turn of Ye Xuan and Zhao Pan. Now everyone around them knows Ye Xuan and Zhao Pan, and they have opened their distance. These remaining contestants only hope that they will not encounter these two metamorphosis in the second pass.

After a while, everyone entered the secret mirror.

At this time, Ye Xuan and Zhao Pan have come to the front of a golden palace. This golden palace is like a mountain.

"This empty mirror is really amazing. I have been in it for more than ten days before, and I have not found this golden palace." Ye Xuan sighed in his heart.

"Oh, I didn't expect it to be here."

When Zhao Pan saw this golden palace, he was also surprised.

"Do you know what this is?" asked Ye Xuan.

"Of course I know..." Zhao Pan nodded: "This Golden Palace is a palace made of gold."

"Really gold is piled up, not painted in gold?" Ye Xuan is a bit strange.

"Of course."

At this moment, Yueshan of the purple dress suddenly jumped on the usual steps of the Golden Palace, saying: "The second level of the Imperial Capital is in this golden palace."

Everyone was quiet and began to listen quietly.

"This golden palace was built by a superpower. This predecessor came from a dynasty, strong and strong, and also the last master of this empty mirror."

"However, this predecessor lived in my Xuanyang Empire for thousands of years. After his death, the royal family accidentally got this hollow mirror and found this golden palace."

"This golden palace was also built by the predecessors. Although it has been explored by us, there are still many treasures in it, as well as the things that my royal family put."

"However, this golden palace is also dangerous. For example, the enemy of the enemy who was caught by my Xuanyang Empire is fine. These traits are good, at least the tenth of the martial arts, and even the true spiritual environment. If it is encountered, They will definitely kill."

"And all you have to do is enter this golden palace and find the exit within a month. If you don't find the exit within one month, you will be eliminated. Only those who find the exit, and the points are ranked in the top 100. Only then can you redeem points for gold or spar."

The purple uniform leader said very clearly that the people present were able to understand.

If you want to redeem your points, you have to meet two conditions. One is to come out of the Golden Palace, and the other is to rank the top 100 points.

"In addition, at the end of the first level, your points have been locked, and the points are recalculated according to the level. At the same time, this round will be closed and the outside world will not be able to see it."

The purple coat leader said, suddenly fell on the big stone monument outside the gate of the Golden Palace, this is the integral stone monument.

However, the ranking has changed a lot.

Even the first place has changed!

First place, Jiang Xian, 10 million points.

Second place, Ye Xuan, one million points.

Third place, Zhao Pan, one million points.

When I saw this ranking, everyone was shocked.

First place, isn't that called Ye Xuan?

But after they saw the initial points behind the first place, they all lingered in the same place, even Ye Xuan and Zhao Pan.

Ten million points, this is not representative of this person called Jiang Xian, has it broken through the middle of the real spirit?

"Hey!"

The whole scene boiled up instantly.

"Jiang Xian, the son of the general of the National Defense Army, is really powerful. When he entered the competition, he was in the early days of the real spirit. Only half a month later, he broke through to the middle of the real spirit. It seems that he has an adventure in the open mirror." Can't help but say.

Ye Xuan also had to admit that Jiang Xian's qualifications were good. He remembered that Jiang Xian was only twenty-two years old.

"Well, let's go in one by one, go in one person every minute, but don't stop at the entrance, Jiang Xian."

Yueshan of the purple dress shouted.

Then, a young man came out of the crowd and quickly swept in.

There are many treasures in this golden palace. Those who go to advanced places have a high chance of getting treasures.

Jiang Xian, who has already broken through the middle of the real spirit, entered the golden palace directly, but no one except Yueshan would know where he was going.

After a minute.

"Ye Xuan!" Yueshan shouted.

"Fat brother, I will go first."

Ye Xuan whispered, and ran all the way. After entering the Golden Palace, he discovered that there were four passages at the entrance.

"Forget it, take the first one."

Ye Xuan directly selected the first road and rushed in.

After the end of the first pass, there will be a special person who will transcribe the ranking and send it to everyone's house.

Ye Xuan also received, he vaguely remembered that Jiang Xian was ranked third, earning 28 million points. And he is 71 million points, if you remove the current initial points, then Jiang Xian is still worse than his 34 million points.

"What about the real period of the real spirit, can you still surpass me?" Ye Xuan did not care.

The first level of the second level is not useful. It is necessary to add the points locked after the end of the first level, which is the final result.

After thinking about it in Ye Xuan's mind, he quickly swept it out.

The first passage of this golden palace, there is no road, Ye Xuan ran for about two minutes, only to see a crossroads.

Now he has two choices.

One is to stay here and rob others.

Second, just choose a road to go in.

"Forget it, others are not easy. There are a lot of treasures in it." Ye Xuan didn't want to do too much. If he guarded the corner, he came in and robbed one.

He casually found a way to go in, and finally found a closed door.

"Let me see what's inside."

This gate town is here, tight and airless, and the aura can't flow outside, so even if Ye Xuan has the treasures of the treasures, there is nothing wrong with it.

This door is five meters high and looks very heavy, but Ye Xuan is pregnant with intermediate blood, which is no problem for him.
