Chapter 138: Adventure

However, Ye Xuan still underestimated the golden palace. He pushed it all out, but did not shake the door.

"This weight, I am afraid there are tens of thousands of pounds, but this wants to stop my footsteps, no way!" Ye Xuan suddenly gathered the spiritual power, and suddenly slammed the palm of the door.

This time, he used a seven-product martial arts of the cracked Yunzong to successfully open the door.

"Hey!"

The door slammed into the wall, and the entire golden palace echoed this loud noise, and Ye Xuan walked in.

This small palace is empty, and it is close to a football field, and in the corner of this small palace, there is a treasure chest.

"treasure!"

Ye Xuan thought about the past, but the next moment he suddenly stopped.

This little palace is a bit strange.

Now he is in a real spiritual environment, and his senses are very strong. He found that the floor in this palace is a bit strange, so he took a small stone directly from the phagocytic space and threw it in.

really!

When the pebbles fell to the floor, there was suddenly an energy shock, and the small stone was shaken to the ceiling. After several tossing, the stone was shot at the foot of Ye Xuan at the entrance.

"The formation method is originally a battle!"

Ye Xuan reacted instantly.

However, he saw a sigh of relief after seeing the intact stone. It seems that this formation is only for the entrant to return to the entrance, without any aggressiveness.

"Hey, how can I get a leaflet in a district?"

Ye Xuan snorted and searched quickly in the phagocytic system. Sure enough, he found a bloodline called the master of the squad.

Break the masters and increase the ability to sense the law.

The array method is generally a live array, that is, it can be cracked. Few people can create a dead line. If you encounter a dead line, then you can only force the array to blast off. There is no other way.

In the eyes of Ye Xuan, he felt that it should be a live squad, because the energy on the walls and the floor seems to be more powerful than the true spirit.

This array of methods should be laid out by a strong realm. No one of the contestants can forcibly break, so this must be a live.

Ye Xuan spent five hundred points to devour the points, blending the blood of the master of the squad. The next moment, he found the breakpoint of this array.

"The real yuan flows according to certain rules, but in some places there is no real element. Just step on those points and you can get close to the treasure chest."

At the moment, Ye Xuan jumped directly to the nearest point. This standing point did not flow in real money, so he was safe.

He took a closer look and found another standing point, which immediately jumped over.

If the people in the array are here, they will be surprised and surprised, because this is how he spent a year studying the nightmare, and after a long period of modification, they reduced these points. To the limit, and also to cover up.

But who knows, in less than three minutes, it was broken by Ye Xuan.

At this time, Ye Xuan has jumped to the corner of this small palace and opened the treasure chest in the corner.

"Hey."

The treasure chest was opened and reflected in the eyes of Ye Xuan, which is a piece of purple.

Spar!

All are spar!

However, this entire treasure chest is a round defective spar.

"Looking in the trough, making a big deal!"

Ye Xuan screamed out, full of a box of spar, how much wealth does this have?

Even the spar is very good.

At the moment, Ye Xuan is directly choosing to swallow.

"Hey, the host swallowed 10,000 defective spars and gained 10,000 points of phagocytosis."

"There are tens of thousands of troughs in the trough, that is one hundred pieces of the next product, you can buy ten pieces of Qiang Kun."

Ye Xuan was shocked. He found that his true spirit had expanded a lot.

Originally his points were spent almost the same, and now he got 10,000 points to swallow points, and he is almost happy to faint.

However, from the beginning of the martial arts tenth peak to the beginning of the true spirit, Ye Xuan probably spent forty or fifty of the next product spar.

However, after breaking through to the real spiritual environment, what is needed is to increase exponentially. After devouring one hundred pieces of the next product spar, he feels that the experience is less than half, and it is estimated that there will be two or three more boxes.

It is estimated that the Emperor of the Xuanyang Empire is very confident in this formation, so he put 10,000 pieces of spar here.

The emperor will certainly not expect that someone can break this battle.

"Haha, this golden palace is really a lot of adventures."

Ye Xuan's laughter echoed in the small palace. Then he returned according to the original way.

With this one harvest, Ye Xuan's speed is also fast, he does not want to be overtaken by later people.

After entering the Kushiro, there are more palaces like this. However, there are some small palaces that are empty and are used to confuse others.

Half an hour after Ye Xuan entered the golden palace, he finally met a moving thing.

Before the purple coat leader said that there would be some danger in this golden palace, such as the captured enemy, but this is just the case.

At this time, Ye Xuan encountered a cockroach that would move.

This squat is four or five meters high, with thick limbs and silvery body. I don't know what material it is made of.

When Ye Xuan appeared in front of it, the cockroach also rushed toward him, and the rumbling footsteps echoed through the passage.

"It's so fast, it's comparable to the tenth in the middle of the martial arts."

Ye Xuan was shocked and took out the Golden Eagle Bow directly, and shot a starburst arrow across a hundred meters.

"boom!"

The arrow that the true spirit condenses is slamming into the waist of this dragonfly. In the meantime, it blows its body into two halves.

What makes Ye Xuan strange is that after the shackles are divided into two pieces, the upper body will still move.

In desperation, Ye Xuan made up another arrow and blew his head.

"This is not a living thing, it can move. It seems that there is a law in the interior." Ye Xuan swiftly swept past, and after he approached, he really found some clues.

At these joints, there is spiritual power to flow, and as long as you attack this place, you can easily defeat you.

However, Ye Xuan is already a true spiritual environment, so he does not have to attack this weak point.

"I don't know if there will be a real spiritual situation. If there is, other people will be miserable." Ye Xuan thought about it and left, but he did not run a few steps and then folded back.

He scrutinized the cockroach and found no tokens.

"Pit, it seems that the score of the second level of this emperor contest is more rare."

Ye Xuan shook his head helplessly, but the next moment, he heard a footstep, so he could not help but smile.

Say Cao Cao, Cao Cao will arrive.

The person who sent the points is coming!
