

Super D. S 140

Chapter 140: General of the town

"Give me your identity token."

Yueshan reached out.

Ye Xuan will take away the identity token in the space and hand it over.

"76.68 million..."

Yueshan reported a number, which is the final score of Ye Xuan.

"This... adults, how many are I?" Ye Xuan asked weakly.

"Reassure, although Jiang Xian broke through to the middle of the real spirit, but the second level of points acquisition methods are not many, he is now only 13 million, get less than you." Yueshan said.

Although Ye Xuan has a lot of confidence in his heart, he can't be sure that he can get the first one. Because Jiang Xian hasn't come out yet, maybe there is a big outbreak of people's family, and find tens of millions of points in a treasure chest?

This possibility is small, but it is still there.

"You are the first to be stable. Although Jiang Xian's realm is high, he is facing himself. If he can't break through, he will probably be eliminated."

Yueshan looked at the gate that had been closed and said slowly.

If you can't surpass yourself within a month, you will be eliminated. At that time, the points cannot be redeemed.

But then again, Ye Xuan's more than 7.6 million points can be exchanged for more than 700 pieces of spar.

"I hope that I will end soon, so that I can break through to the peak of the true spirit!" Ye Xuan is very much looking forward to it.

When he arrived in Nanlin City, he was the ninth peak of the martial arts. However, not long after, he could break through the peak of the true spirit, only three months before this period.

However, when he thinks of the abnormal father of the unlucky one, he feels that this is not enough.

Eight years ago, when Ye Chong took the first place in the Emperor's Contest, the real state was not really a real world, but it was already out of the blue.

The letter was written after the contest.

At that time, he was only 28 years old and 28 years old. He was already out of the world.

Yueshan, in front of Ye Xuan, seems to be forty years old, but it is also true.

This is the gap!

Ye Xuan can grow to the present level, relying on the phagocytic system, and Ye Chong can have such a talent, I am afraid it is an adventure that is comparable to the phagocytic system.

Looking at Ye Xuan, who is worrying, Yue Shan said again: "Okay, there are still more than 20 days from the end of the contest. I will let you take you back first."

.....

In this way, Ye Xuan returned to his previous residence.

He did not expect that he could get the first place in the competition. Although it has not yet been implemented, it is 99.9 percent.

But the big game is not over yet, so he can only spend some time in his house.

In the twenty-fifth day of the second round of the competition, Zhao Pan was also successfully killed. He broke through the realm and only killed the fake Zhao Pan.

Ye Xuan secretly admire, because he relied on the phagocytic system to have such an achievement, if there is no phagocytic system, he is a dregs.

Zhao Pan these people are the real genius.

Thirty days later, the Imperial Capital Competition ended.

According to the news brought by Zhao Pan, Ye Xuan also knows that the second level of the Emperor's contest has a total of eight people, that is, the six true spiritual geniuses, plus him and Zhao Pan.

As for the others, all are eliminated!

Although there are only eight, the scores of eight people are also a small number.

After the contest, Ye Xuan received a notice. Three days later, the emperor personally enshrined him.

In other words, after three days, he will be an official!

Although I don't know what to be an official, he is the first in the imperial competition, and the official is not small.

Three days, it will soon pass.

Under the leadership of Yueshan, Ye Xuan came to the most sturdy place in the palace - Xuanyang Temple, which is the place where Baiguan was on.

When Ye Xuan came, there were already hundreds of officials standing there, including * inspections, and above the dragon chair, sitting in a middle-aged man wearing a dragon crown.

There is no doubt that this middle-aged man is the emperor of the Xuanyang Empire, Zhao Chongguang.

Beside him, still stood a fat man with a fat body, it is Zhao Pan.

This picture is too illegal, Ye Xuan did not dare to look.

"Your Majesty, people have already brought it." Yueshan respectfully clenched his fist.

In this world, it is generally not rude to see an official. Just hold a fist and do it, even if you see the emperor.

Ye Xuan is also rushing to hold the fist, this is the first time he saw the emperor, and his mood is inevitably a little excited.

At the same time, he also noticed that there is actually a hollow mirror on the side, which is difficult to achieve. Now this picture is also mapped to the outside?

He is a bit curious, what kind of official position does the emperor have to seal him?

As long as it is not the **** supervisor!

At this moment, a father-in-law standing next to Zhao Chongguang stood up and opened a yellow scroll. He shouted with a male duck: "Ye Xuan, Jiang Xian, Li Shaotian, Lu Yu..."

He read seven names in a row, except Zhao Pan, all present.

After being recited, Ye Xuan also went to the side of the station. Then he heard a series of words that praised him. What kind of talents, the pillars of the country, anyway, is a bunch of good words, and he is blushing.

When the father-in-law read the official position, the civil and military officials of the Manchu Dynasty were shocked.

"Feng, Ye Xuan is the general of the town, and this is the case!"

The sound echoed in the Xuanyang Temple, and it also fell in Ye Xuan's ear.

"The general of the town of the country, it seems very cattle, that Jiang Xian's father is the general of the National Defense, my name is similar, should be the same level."

Ye Xuan thought in the heart, very satisfied, and hurriedly clenched his fists.

However, after he heard the discussion of the civil and military officials, he was somewhat unhappy.

These civil and military officials believe that he is only a lucky boy. On strength, Jiang Xian should be the strongest. They think this official position should be given to Jiang Xian.

Upon hearing this, Ye Xuan almost wanted to slap him in the air.

This second pass, his luck is not very good, even a real spiritual situation has not met. He was also very helpless. He did not meet Jiang Xian at the second level, otherwise Jiang Xian would definitely be beaten by him and then he would steal everything.

However, these officials can only discuss it privately and dare not stand up against it.

You know, Ye Xuan's official position is bigger than most people present.

The generals of the town, the generals of the country, the generals of the garrison, and the cadres are equal. These are the biggest officials. The vast majority of these officials are second and third. If you see Ye Xuan in the future, you have to be polite.

Next, it is the canon of Jiang Xian, the son of the General of the National Defense.

This Jiang Xian was booked as the deputy commander of the Guards, and the second-class official position was considered good.

As for the other people, the seals are all three official positions, Ye Xuan did not listen carefully, he is not cold about this. However, there is still a question in his mind. Is the Imperial patrol an official of several products?

Soon, the little **** came up with a plate.
