Chapter 1621: Glass treasure

Then, the waywardly took out a white dragon token from the Qiankun Ring and handed it to Ye Xuan. "This token is the same as the Knights' badge. You can get in touch with me. I am going to the Penglai Yaozu."

"Hey... you haven't said what map is that?" Ye Xuan asked strangely.

"A thing called Tong Tian Bao Tu!" answered arbitrarily.

"Hey, Tongtianbao map?"

Ye Xuan was shocked. He once got a piece of this thing.

"Why, have you heard of it?" He turned his head in a strange way.

Before Ye Xuan was the Tongtianbao figure obtained from the yin and yang ancestors, and then in order to repay the kindness of the old celestial beings, he gave this Tianbao map as a reward to the celestial being.

Unexpectedly, this thing is so precious!

"I saw it on the task list of the Gongxun Hall. The Glacier Knights are also looking for it. What is this?" Ye Xuan did not say things, but asked.

He feels that this thing is not a trivial matter. If this thing is told to be willful, what should I do if I am not happy?

"Tong Tian Bao map, as long as the collection is complete, you can find the fairy channel, know it?"

"Fairy Channel?"

Ye Xuan brow wrinkled and nodded slightly.

It turns out that this Tianbao map is to find the channel of the fairyland. As long as it can open the channel of the fairyland, then the sky can be directly raised to the fairyland in the future, and it is not necessary to repair the fairy.

After all, the real immortal is much more powerful than the fairy.

At this time, the wayward has already turned the body of the bloodthirsty dragon into the body, and then said: "Now my realm can not be hidden, first send you to the nearby city, you send back to the city, I go out Look, contact me if you have something. As for this trap, you can do it yourself."

"okay."

Ye Xuan nodded, and then directly passed through the crack of the open-cut space and came to a city.

Now, he is alone, and he still wants to rely on his willfulness to get some points of devouring. It seems that he is not good.

At the moment, he directly plunged into the city. There are also the Garlic Knights stationed in this city. After they feel the atmosphere of the white gold badge of Ye Xuan, they are all shocked.

Soon, he sent back to Linfeng City, but the silver knight was gone.

"The Cavaliers, I am back!"

Ye Xuan gave a message to Ma.

"I am in the main hall of the knight." Ma responded.

Ye Xuan did not tell Ma Li, but the latter did not know.

At the moment, Ye Xuan is quickly going to the main hall of the Cavaliers.

When he arrived, he felt that there were two strong breaths inside, one of which was a horse, and the other one was more powerful, but stronger than Ma.

Ye Xuan went straight in, then went to a knight, said: "I have seen the Cavaliers!"

"The soul is not dead, how can it be?"

After seeing Ye Xuan, Ma immediately discovered this and immediately got up.

"I went out to do the task yesterday, and I just got a soulful grass..." Ye Xuan sang a reason for it.

Ma did not ask too much, directly caressing the beard: "Not bad, not only has a very high qualification, but also air transport."

At this time, the other man wearing a silver armor also came over.

"I am the head of the Fifth Army, Lin Guangyao!" said the silver man with a smile.

"I have seen the head of the army!"

Ye Xuan hurry and say hello.

In front of this, it is the legendary glazed knight Lin Guangyao. Although he is the same as the horse, he is more powerful than Ma.

"You are very good. After I heard this news, I wanted to come and see myself."

Lin Guangyao said: "You are the sixth genius who passed the Platinum assessment after me. It is very likely that the sixth glazed knight will be in the future."

After he finished, he took a wooden slip from the ring of Qiankun and handed it to Ye Xuan.

"This is, the glass treasure?"

Ye Xuan glanced at it and quickly transcribed into the super swallow system.

This glass treasure is the strong place of Lin Guangyao, but if you want to practice it, you need five hundred pieces of glass of the five properties of Jinmushui.

"As long as you can practice this glazed treasure, you can become the sixth glazed knight. There are a thousand glazes of various attributes. You can use it first."

Lin Guangyao took out a large bag, which contained the colored glass of various attributes.

There are already many people in the Gladiator's Regiment who have been practicing the glazed treasures. They have not succeeded. Some people even spent tens of thousands of them.

Ye Xuan only needs five hundred, it is still simple.

"Thank you for your command of the army!" Ye Xuan did not feel guilty. After thanking one sentence, he took these up.

"If you run out, you can always find a horse to leave, as long as you can practice, more flowers are worth. In addition, do you condense the soul?" Lin Guangyao asked.

"This, two years ago, I accidentally fell once and did not condense the soul." Ye Xuanzhen compiled a reason.

"If this is the case, then you should try not to go out. There are also some eyes and ears of the three evil sacred places in the Knights of the Glacier. They estimate that they already know your things and want to kill them soon." Lin Guangyao reminded him.

Wen Yan, Ye Xuan nodded and agreed.

After thinking for a moment, I decided not to say anything about the genius, lest the other party be suspicious.

Then, the head of the Fifth Army, Lin Guangyao, left, leaving Ye Xuan and Ma Li.

"You should go back and try it. Later, I will send two crickets to protect you from the Cavaliers." Ma said to Ye Xuan.

"Yes."

Ye Xuan nodded and immediately left the main hall of the knight. Now what he wants most is to practice the glass treasure first.

Soon, he returned to his place of residence and closed the door.

"Hey, the cultivation of the glass treasure is successful!"

The system prompts.

The cultivation is successful, only in an instant.

When the system prompts to sound, Ye Xuan feels that his body is directly increased by three times.

As long as the cultivation is successful, unless the boundary is too big, Ye Xuan will almost not be killed by the space crack.

Moreover, the stronger the body, the higher the success rate of the future.

The main thing is that this glass treasure seems to be divided into several stages. At present, Ye Xuan has become the first stage. As long as you get a certain amount of attribute glass, you can upgrade to the second stage.

This glass treasure has a total of nine steps. I don't know what it will be after the cultivation to the ninth stage. Ye Xuan is also curious.

There are at least thousands of golden knights in the Knights of the Glacier, and dozens of Platinum knights. Five of them have cultivated the glazed treasure and become the glazed knight.

Among the people, the fastest one took a hundred years to cultivate the glass treasure, so Ye Xuan felt that it took him only one day to cultivate the glass treasure. If he was known by the horse, he might be able to take him. Heart disease is scared.

Chapter 1622: Dragon Magic Palace killed

"Forget it, stay a few days."

Ye Xuan thought in his heart.

At this time, there were two figures falling outside his courtyard. These two people are full of breath, and they are all golden knights.

Ye Xuan knows that this is the two squatting horses sent by the horse.

These two crickets saw the door of Ye Xuan closed from the knight, so they did not go to the trouble, they were honestly guarded.

Ye Xuan is not ready to go out, but directly takes out the remaining glass.

This glass is a very strange thing. It seems to be a kind of ore. There are five kinds of gold glaze, wood glaze, water glaze, fire glaze and earth glaze. These things are worth a lot of money, so after thinking about it, Ye Xuan decided to devour it. .

"Hey, the host breaks through, and it's a big one!"

"Hey, Megatron breaks through, and it is currently a triple of heaven!"

"Hey, the ghosts of the great emperor break through, the current is the three heavens!"

A series of three system prompts to sound, Ye Xuan finally broke through to the heavens.

Since this glass is an ore, the old tree is still the same.

"I finally broke through to the heavens..."

Ye Xuan's eyes slammed, and immediately waved, and there was a space crack in front.

This space is not cracked and will soon be restored to original.

Before Ye Xuan had to use the eye of the void and the eye of space to break the void, and now he does not need it.

Of course, this does not mean that the eye of the void and the eye of space are useless. After all, his realm is low, the distance of the void is smaller than the eye of the void, and the eye of space can enhance the power of the torn space, which is not bad.

"With my current blood and realm, I should be able to easily challenge the four levels. If I add the old three, the fifth and sixth levels are not impossible."

Thinking of this, Ye Xuan's self-confidence is suddenly skyrocketing. Of course, if you encounter those geniuses, it is estimated that you cannot fight so many levels.

At this time, he thought of the fall, listening to the heavens and the old fairy said that the fall was born in the Penglai Yaozu, do not know how.

"Now, I should have the strength to go to the Penglai Yaozu..."

Ye Xuan muttered in his heart.

Although the celestial beings can guarantee the safety of the fall, but now the inheritance of the enchanted lord is obtained, and the three evil sacred places have to go to the troubles of the Penglai Yaozu. Who knows what will happen?

After all, the celestial being is only the lord of the Holy Land in the Twilight Holy Land. As a sinister, he cannot be shot in the holy land of Penglai.

Now that Ye Xuan has cultivated into a glass treasure, he is thinking that he will leave Linfeng City and go to the Penglai Yaozu in a few days.

However, on the third day of his retreat, something happened suddenly in Linfeng City.

"Booming!"

Suddenly there was a loud noise in the sky, and Ye Xuan opened his eyes.

"what happened?"

Ye Xuan brows a pick and walks straight out of the residence.

The two shackles outside the door did not know what happened to the knight, because they were here for three days.

"Ye Xuan, there are enemies, you will transfer directly to the fifth main city!"

Suddenly, the voice of the Cavaliers sounded in Ye Xuan's mind.

At the same time, the two passers-by of the doorway received the same news from the Cavaliers.

"what?"

Ye Xuan was shocked. Someone attacked Linfeng City?

What a joke!

You must know that in addition to the horse from the Cavaliers, there are several masters of heaven and earth and 100,000 knights.

Who dares to attack?

Moreover, there are many cities around the city of Linfeng. How do the enemy break through the encirclement?

Still waiting for his reaction, Ma Li continued to pass the voice: "Damn, the transfer palace was destroyed by the traitors, you quickly go to the main hall of the knight, there is a hidden transmission array under the statue, you can open the organ with your platinum badge ""

It seems that this time the enemy is prepared, that is, it does not know which force is attacking Linfeng City.

The sound of the battle began to sound, and Ye Xuan looked at it and saw a black figure in the distance.

It turned out to be the Dragon Palace!

The Dragon Magic Palace is a powerful force established by the dragon family after the Penglai Yaozu was established. The strength is very strong. Although there is no master of the scattered fairy level, there are many people who are full of heaven and earth.

This time they are obviously prepared, directly into the ontology, and in the city of Linfeng.

At the same time, the Knights of the Glass are also orderly.

"Adult, let's go!"

Two donkeys said from the knight.

They actually want to go to the war because their strength is not weak, but the Cavaliers let them protect Ye Xuan, so they must stay in the side of Ye Xuan.

"Linfeng City was attacked, can I back down?"

Ye Xuan looked at the people around him and rushed over to the enemy, directly offering weapons.

However, before they reacted, the vicinity suddenly broke through a space crack, and then several figures swept out of it.

"This is the kid, passed the Platinum assessment at a young age. If you grow up, it is definitely a big problem, kill him!"

The three masters of heaven and earth have fallen their eyes on Ye Xuan.

Ye Xuan's assessment through Platinum is well known, and his portrait naturally falls into the hands of the enemy.

"not good!"

A cockroach changed from a knight's face and pulled out a big sword and greeted him.

The other one is to grab the shoulders of Ye Xuan and say: "Adult, go!"

Obviously, Ye Xuan has become the target of everyone, and many people want to get rid of him.

The three masters who broke through this time are the elders of the Dragon Magic Palace. They are full of heaven and earth, but the strength of the Golden Knights of the Glazier Knights is not covered. Although it is lower than the other side, it is not dominant in terms of numbers. But the true genius is to ignore this.

In an instant, the golden knight played against the other side. Although it was a pair of three, it still had the upper hand.

"The Glass Knights are really different."

After one of the enemies sighed, it was directly transformed into the ontology.

The people of the Yaozu, although they can't use the infuriating after being turned into the ontology, will have a lot of strength, not to mention the dragon among the Yaozu.

"Let's help."

Ye Xuan said to the other person.

"No, I will stay to protect the adults!"

Another cockroach finished from the knight and broke through a space crack directly to the main hall of the knight.

This space in the city is stable. It was originally impossible to break the void. But this method is obviously damaged. Otherwise, how can the masters of these three dragons break through?

Seeing that Ye Xuan is still thinking about it, this is the impulse from the Cavaliers to force the departure of Ye Xuan, saying: "Adult, you first transfer to the fifth main city, I will be able to participate in the war!"

This level of combat, he joined a second in the evening, there will be a large number of companions fallen, so the blood in his body has already boiled.

"Ok!"

Ye Xuan nodded slightly and decided to compromise.

Chapter 1623: Arbitrarily rushed to

Although Ye Xuan's qualifications are very high, but only after all, the Tiantianjing is a heavy one. Even if the old three trees are added, there are at most the masters of the six-heavy and seven-fold masters of Tiantianjing. In case of the heavens and the eight-eighths, he It's dead.

You must know that the masters who came here this time are at least six times more than heaven.

When necessary, I still have to take a look at it, leaving Qingshan without burning wood, this reason Ye Xuan still knows.

At the moment, he passed through the crack in this space and then came to the main hall of the knight.

"Hey!"

Space crack repair, as for the name from the knight, it is joined the battle.

The Cavaliers gave him a long voice, saying that there is a hidden transmission array under the statue of the main hall of the Knights, which can be sent to the fifth main city, which is the city of Lin Guangyao, the head of the Fifth Army.

However, what surprised him was that the statue in the main hall of the knight was damaged.

"The hidden transmission array has also been destroyed?"

Ye Xuan's eyes widened and he hurried to check.

Sure enough, the transmission array was destroyed!

"The Cavaliers, this transmission array has also been destroyed." Ye Xuan rushed to the horse to pass the sound.

"Sure enough, this time the enemy is prepared and attacked dozens of big cities. The fifth main city is at the same time as we are."

After leaving the horse, he said: "In this battle, we will retreat and fight. You will stay in the main hall of the Cavaliers, but be careful with other people, even if you are a gold knight, don't believe it."

"it is good!"

Ye Xuan nodded and summoned the old three of the trees.

At the same time, he also passed the white dragon token and passed on to the wayward.

"The Glacier Knights have also been attacked, this time the three holy places are really big," answered the wayward.

"and also?"

Ye Xuan is a bit strange.

"Tianjiu Palace was also attacked. Of course, the main force went to the Penglai Yaozu, and wanted to win the half of the demon emperor."

"Three-way attack, this is to prevent the Knights of the Glass and the Heavenly Palace to support the Penglai Yaozu?"

Ye Xuan suddenly reacted.

"Yes, but this time the three evil sacred places are miscalculated. The Penglai Yaozu used to have a scent. Before the fall, the dragon singer was very stable in the area of the Penglai Yaozu. Now The gods are in the town of Penglai, no one can rush in."

After hearing the words of self-willedness, Ye Xuan could not help but breathe a sigh of relief. After all, it was also in the Penglai Yaozu.

"You are there, I will be there soon!" He said in his waywardness.

At this point, Ye Xuan has changed his face, unless it is a person of the Glass Knights, otherwise he should not recognize him.

However, at this time, suddenly several people rushed into the main hall of the Cavaliers.

However, these few people are not strong, they are only three-time, four-prepared reserve knights.

"kill!"

The bronze knight, who was headed, picked up his brow and killed the weapon directly.

"Recognize me?"

Ye Xuan was a bit surprised. Suddenly, she thought that she was useless alone. The old tree, the ghostly emperor and Megatron exposed him, because he had used his own way to kill a black dragon.

The most important thing is that he is a Platinum Knight, even if he is a reserve knight, he can recognize him.

Obviously, these people are traitors.

"All done!"

Ye Xuan immediately gave orders to the old three of the trees.

There are a total of five comers, headed by the four heavens, and the other four are the three heavens.

If it is a regular knight, Ye Xuan will be a bit jealous, a few of the three heavenly, four-prepared reserve knight, what is it?

Although Ye Xuan is only one of the most important things in the world, he has already cultivated the glass of the treasure, even if it is a person, it is enough to fight these elite knights, let alone join the old three.

Without three rounds, the five bronze knights were killed by Ye Xuan and others, and the soul was broken.

"Hey, the spirit of the Ashes breaks through, and it is currently the triple of heaven!"

These five Qiang Kun ring, let the tree old breakthrough to the three heavens, the strength has improved a lot.

But the next moment, is a tricky figure, this person is a heaven and earth, and is still a golden knight.

This is trouble!

"Adult, sorry." The golden knight smiled coldly.

The Cavaliers long horses have been dragged by the vice-president of the Dragon Palace, and other masters can't open the body. Who can save Ye Xuan now?

However, Ye Xuan's face was very calm, because he saw that there was a crack in the space in front of him, and then a white-haired boy came out of it.

Through the heavens and the top of the peak!

Self-willed, arrived in time.

"what?"

The golden knight was shocked because the wayward way was higher than him and he was still a golden knight.

Most importantly, the wayward face is very strange to him.

There are dozens of Platinum Knights in the Glazier Knights. In addition, there are also golden knights who are all over the world.

These people, he knows!

"I want to move him, find death!"

After the waywardness, no nonsense, direct shot.

As a former scent, the capricious strength is undoubted, and the golden knight is solved with just one blow.

"It's really timely, or I will die." Ye Xuan smiled.

"If you are dead, who will help me get through the Tianbao map?"

He smiled arbitrarily, collected the spoils in the past, and then took a look outside.

"The main goal of this time is the Penglai Yaozu, so it is only delaying the time. This battle is estimated to end soon."

"The sky is absolutely the old fairy sitting in the town of Penglai Yaozu, the three evil roads will not be scattered masters?" Ye Xuan asked.

Mobility shook his head: "This is not, but what I expected was that the Nether King of the Netherland came."

"The Nether King?" Ye Xuan brows a pick.

"The status of this Nether Emperor is the same as that of the Death Emperor, but don't worry, the Buddha's Holy Land has also come with a Buddha. With my words, the four holy places are coming."

Ye Xuan estimates that this Nether Emperor, and the Buddha, should be the strongest of the nine peaks of the heavens, all for the Lord's command.

The outside movement seems to be a little small, Ye Xuan can not help but go out and see: "The people of the Dragon Magic Palace seem to have to retreat."

"It should be a message that I can't capture the Penglai Yaozu, so I will retreat."

After the waywardness, I will throw the golden knight's ring to Ye Xuan, saying: "Give you, your realm is too low, and you have no ability to protect yourself."

"Thank you!"

Ye Xuan took over the ring.

"As long as you can help me get the Tongtianbao map, even if you pile it up to the top of the horizon, it will not be a problem."

At this time, a voice suddenly sounded in the sky.

"The Glacier Knights, let me go now and leave today!"

Chapter 1624: Goodbye Glass Fairy

"The Glacier Knights, let me go now and leave today!"

The deputy head of the palace headed by the Dragon Magic Palace said that it was directly with the big troops to leave.

Both sides suffered heavy losses in this battle.

Of course, the loss of the three evil sacred places in the Penglai Yaozu is beyond imagination. After all, they do not know that the celestial beings are actually sitting in the Penglai Yaozu, but they do not know that there is a stable space in the Penglai Yaozu.

At this time, Ma directly plucked over, and he looked solemnly at his face, saying: "Who are you?"

Although there is still a gold badge in the incumbent body, but it has not been seen for a few days, the waywardness has suddenly broken from the soul of the immortal to the nine peaks of the heavens, obviously it is a big deal.

"Life is holy, willful!"

After the waywardness, it was directly turned into the Platinum Holy Light Dragon body, and then spit out people saying: "The Nether King of the Holy Land, the death emperor of the death holy land, the Buddha Buddha, all three of them come, how can I not Come?"

Seeing this, Ma couldn't help but look at it. This is indeed the Platinum Holy Light Dragon.

Unexpectedly, in addition to the three evil places, the people of the four holy places have come together. It seems that this holy land competition will be very intense.

But in general, Ye Xuan is safe and sound, it is a blessing in misfortune.

"Ye Xuan, it is not safe here. The legion of the army sent a message. When the transmission is repaired, he will take you to the head!" Ma said.

Head?

After hearing these two words, Ye Xuan and his willingness could not help but look at each other.

The head of the Glass Knights, isn't it a glass fairy?

"it is good!"

At the moment, Ye Xuan nodded immediately.

In fact, Ma Li is not completely convinced of Ye Xuan, so I have to hand over Ye Xuan to the glass fairy to see if it is sent by the enemy.

However, Ye Xuan has a relationship with the Life of the Holy Family. It should not be a person of the evil side.

In any case, it is right to hand Ye Xuan to the glass fairy.

Although the master of the Dragon Magic Palace has receded, the atmosphere of the Linfeng City is still very weird. Taking advantage of this opportunity, Ma has left many traitors, including many golden knights.

Of course, it is impossible for the traitor to smash it out. After all, the glazed knights are mixed, with the exception of humans, demons, and races such as orcs.

Soon, the transmission array was repaired, and Linfeng City and the Fifth Main City were connected.

Then, Lin Guangyao is sent over.

"How is the casualty?"

Lin Guangyao immediately asked after seeing the horse.

"Not too serious." Ma Li replied.

"That's good."

Lin Guangyao nodded, and he was about to turn his eyes on the wayward.

When the horse was seen, he immediately explained: "He is a Platinum Holy Light Dragon, and he is willful."

"How can people who live in the saints join me in the Glass Knights?" Lin Guangyao asked strangely.

"Isn't it fun to come in and play..." He shrugged his shoulders and said: "If it's not me today, Ye Xuan can be dead. You are a lot of traitors in the Glass Knights."

Lin Guangyao heard this, although some dissatisfaction, but he realized that this waywardness is not a general generation, even if he cultivated the glass of treasure, he is not sure to overcome.

"Ye Xuan, follow me to see the head!" Lin Guangyao directly ignored the wayward, said to Ye Xuan.

Still not waiting for Ye Xuan to open, he will recklessly say: "Go to see your glass fairy, bring me one."

"You?" Lin Guangyao frowned.

"Cut, I am an acquaintance with your head." The wayward is very disdainful.

Lin Guangyao glanced at the eyes and then used the badge to pass the sound.

"Bring them over!"

After receiving this response, Lin Guangyao nodded, and then took Ye Xuan and wayward into the transmission array.

They were first transferred to the fifth main city and then transferred to the headquarters of the Glacier Knights, the Holy Mountain.

Here, but the headquarters of the Glass Knights, there are countless strong, the glass fairy is also living here.

Lin Guangyao and other talents have just stepped out of the transmission array, and there are two golden female knights who have passed through the heavens.

"this way please!"

Two hot female knights walked in front, with Ye Xuan and others entering the glaucious mountain.

The two female knights have less armor, and the white skin is exposed to the air, causing the surrounding passersby to turn back frequently.

However, they did not dare to look at it clearly, because the two female knights are apprentices of the glass fairy, and their status is comparable to that of several army leaders.

Soon, under the leadership of the two female knights, Ye Xuan and others entered the glaucious mountain, and after a heavy array of methods, they came to the glass temple.

At this time, on the first seat of the glass temple, there is a shadow, this person is the glass fairy who Ye Xuan once had a side.

She wore a pink armor, and the look of the heroic look was very different from the look of the day.

After she saw Ye Xuan and her waywardness behind Lin Guangyao, her expression was also slightly shocked. The cause of this change of consciousness was not self-willed, but Ye Xuan next to her waywardness.

"See the head!"

Lin Guangyao took a knight ceremony.

The glass fairy gave him a look, then fell back on Ye Xuan, saying: "I didn't expect you?"

"I have seen seniors!"

Ye Xuan hurry and say hello.

Obviously, the glass fairy is recognized by him.

When I heard this, Lin Guangyao was shocked. I didn't expect Ye Xuan to know the glass fairy. How could this be?

"Two years ago, you didn't even reach Vientiane, and two years later, you broke through to the heavens, even if it is a real immortal, I am afraid it is better than you." Glass fairy can not help but sigh.

"Yes, the speed of cultivation of this kid, even the chief disciple of my life Shengzong is also self-satisfied. This kid still recommended him to join your glass knights, how do you thank me?"

Sitting in a position directly, it seems as if the glass knights are their own home.

"The grudge between you and me has been written off. What are you doing here?" The glass fairy was cold.

"Cut, if you have beaten me back to the original shape, I am afraid I will spend the first time I have been robbed. But I also have to thank you. If not, I can't come to fight for the Holy Order." Said.

As soon as this was said, Lin Guangyao was shocked again.

A scatter of dinosaurs?

This wayward, before it turned out to be a fairy!

It is a fairy robbery that passes through the heavens and the nine peaks. If the fairy passage is not closed, the ferry will be a fairy, and you can fly to the fairy.

However, the channel of the fairyland was closed, so it was only after the robbery of the slain.

Once it becomes a scent, there will be a scent of ecstasy every thousand years, even if it is just a catastrophe, it will not be a catastrophe.

Of course, the stronger the strength, the higher the success rate of the robbery.

It is a way of arbitrarily to spend a once-in-a-lifetime annihilation. This means that he was a scam before he was squandered.

"Hey, you want the Lord's Order, it's not that easy!" Glass Fairy did not put the wayward in his eyes.

"Snapped!"

Suddenly, the chair stood up and said: "Maybe you should know, in addition to the three evil places, the death sacred place and the holy place also sent a master. Although you have a Buddha in the holy place of Buddhism, you can help. But don't forget, the Penglai Yaozu and the Heavenly Palace also want this holy order."

"It is better to marry me, I can stand on your side on behalf of the holy land of life."

Chapter 1625: a monk

"It is better to marry me, I can stand on your side on behalf of the holy land of life."

When the voice fell, the other three in the Knights' Temple were shocked, as if they had heard the wrong.

Willful, want the glass fairy to marry him?

"It's really crazy." The glass fairy was cold.

"That may not be. If it was not the last time, everyone really didn't know that the Taoist people in the Buddha's holy place actually had such a beautiful daughter. Therefore, my father had already mentioned him to him. As a result, guess what?"

The waywardness suddenly revealed a sly look, and his eyes turned a little bit on the glass fairy.

"This is impossible!"

When the glass fairy was heard, it was anxious.

She has never heard of this.

"Little girls, you will be my daughter-in-law sooner or later, you still compromise, otherwise the Holy Lord will certainly not have your share." The waywardness has once again sat down.

"I also want to eat swan meat." The glazed fairy calmed down the mood.

"If this is the case, then you can see the real chapter under your hand. You may not know that the chief disciple of my life saint is already on the way. When he joins me, you have the chance to get the Holy Order, I am afraid it is less than One percent!" Reluctantly reminded.

The sacred lord of the Penglai Holy Land is very competitive.

In addition to the three evil places, the Holy Land of Life, the Holy Land of Buddhism, the Holy Land of Death, and the Holy Land of the Nether have sent people.

Not only that, the Penglai Yaozu and the Heavenly Palace are also united on the front.

Therefore, it is hard to add a glass fairy to want to obtain the Holy Order.

Originally, he did not want to grab the Holy Order, but he suddenly thought of a point, that is, you can use the Holy Order to change the Tianbao map. This transaction, the glass fairy will definitely agree.

Lin Guangyao listened to the dialogue between the wayward and the glazed fairy. It was also a cold sweat and did not dare to interject.

At this time, the glass fairy suddenly said: "Ye Xuan, have you practiced the glass treasure?"

"Yes."

Ye Xuan nodded.

Lin Guangyao's face changed and he said: "How is this possible?"

He gave Ye Xuan the attributes of the glass for only three days, Ye Xuan became a glass of treasure, how is this Nima?

"It has been a miracle to break through to the heavens in two years. It is also a good idea to practice the glass in three days." The glass fairy said calmly.

After her reminder, Lin Guangyao also felt that there was some truth.

Fang Caili fairy and arrogant confrontation, but ignored Ye Xuan, now only the glass fairy found this.

The waywardness has also heard of the power of the glass treasure, but this is nothing to him. After all, his body is also very powerful, no weaker than this glass treasure.

The glass fairy looked at Ye Xuan, and suddenly there was a plan in her heart, but she had not yet opened her mouth. A female knight waiting outside the door came in.

"Master, there is a person who wants to read a word outside the holy mountain of Liuli," said the knight.

One thought!

This name has only appeared, that is, the Buddha of the Buddha's holy land.

"Please come in!"

Hearing this name, the cold face of the glass fairy can not help but smile.

"Hey, this little monk comes really good."

Soon, the female knight who had just left was coming in with a pretty bald young man.

This bald youth is the Buddha of the Buddha's holy place. He is dressed in a golden plaque, with one hand in one hand, and a hand-carrying sorcerer walks in.

"See your sister!"

After seeing the glass fairy, I nodded slightly.

In the holy place of Buddhism, there are two paths of Buddhism and Taoism. The Buddha's pulse is headed by Buddha, and the Dao is headed by Ling Dao. However, the relationship between these two veins is good, so the name of the Buddha is called Sister.

"Teacher, I have to ask you this time."

After the glamorous fairy was stunned, he said to a thought.

"A very handsome little monk, how come home?" He touched his handsome white hair, and imagined that if he became a bald head, is it so handsome.

"To shut up!"

The glass fairy is cold and cold.

At the foot of her is her place, and she is willing to sit down casually as she is at home. Now she is also ridiculing her younger brother, which she naturally can't see.

"I have seen seniors!"

As soon as the monk felt the life of the incumbent, he immediately recognized it.

"I heard that you have been practicing for more than three hundred years. It is not bad. Is there any interest in switching to my life?" I have a lot of beautiful women. If you look at it, you will take it away. If you double-repair, the speed of cultivation may be faster. "Be arbitrarily like laughing and laughing."

This time, the glass fairy is completely angry: "White-haired dragon, if you talk nonsense, it will be rude to me!"

"At the moment, you can get this Lin Guangyao and a thought to shoot, scare who."

After the waywardness, I couldn't help but look at the glass fairy. I saw that the glass fairy seemed to be really angry. She shrugged and said: "But it's not a common sight for women. Anyway, you will be my daughter-in-law sooner or later."

In this holy place of Penglai, the scent is not allowed to be shot, so the glazed fairy is really invincible.

After all, the waywardness was once a master of the scent level, even if Lin Guangyao and a monk joined together, it is estimated that it will not be his opponent.

"Lin Guangyao, arrange a place for him." Liu Lixian said to Lin Guangyao.

"No, the chief disciple of my life saints has come, and the little sisters of the glass, leave!"

The wayward suddenly rose, and after seeing Ye Xuan, he left the glazed holy land directly.

I have to say that it is really not easy to win the Holy Order.

On the side of the sacred life, there is a wayward Platinum Holy Light Dragon and chief disciple.

On the side of the Holy Land of Death, there is a simple descendant of the Holy Land of Death.

The Netherland has also come to a Nether King.

In addition, the Penglai Yaozu and the Tianju Palace join forces, and the strength is not covered.

It is almost impossible to grab the Holy Order from these forces. After all, there are too many masters.

The glass fairy was thinking at this time whether she would contact her father and let her father send someone to come over.

However, after thinking about it, she decided to give up the idea.

"Hey, take your uncle to rest. Lin Guangyao, you are also busy." Liu Lixian said to the two.

"Yes!"

A female knight should have a sentence, and immediately left with a monk.

The fifth main city has not been busy yet, so Lin Guangyao also bowed first.

Then, in the glass temple, only the glass fairy and Ye Xuan were left.

"Is the Glass Knights that the White Dragons let you join?" The glass fairy directly opened the door and asked.

"Yes." Ye Xuan nodded.

Since the waywardness has already been exposed, he does not hide anything.

"Your qualifications are even worse than me. I must understand the current situation. Once the demon inheritance is refining by the Yaozu people, they must go out and look for another half of the demon emperor. At that time, the forces of all parties The masters will appear one after another, vying for the Holy Order..."

Chapter 1626: Cooperation!

Liuli Fairy slowly walked down the steps and walked along and said: "I also want to get this holy command, but I can't take it out personally, and the strength of the people sent by the various forces is not weak. It is not easy to get this holy order. !"

"So, I just want to ask you, are you sure that you will improve your cultivation in a short period of time and then help me?"

After hearing the words of the glass fairy, Ye Xuan's eyes glimpsed a little, saying: "Look at what the seniors are willing to pay!"

"What do you want, you can mention it!" Glass Fairy said generously.

In this regard, Ye Xuan did not immediately answer, but asked: "The other half of the demon inheritance, probably when?"

"From the speed of the demon's heirs, it is three days, and the slow is half a month." Liu Zixian answered.

At the same time, she also had to admit that the talent of this demon emperor is a bit strong, even if half of the demon emperor passed on to a refinery, I am afraid it will not be so fast.

"If that's the case, then I'm welcome!"

Ye Xuan's mouth is slightly tilted, the more urgent the time, the more attention this glass fairy has, then he can open the lion.

Although this glass fairy can't be shot, she is also a scent, and she is also the little daughter of the sacred sect of the Buddha.

Then his body, I am afraid it is beyond imagination!

At the moment, he listed the list he needed, which is similar to what he swallowed. The fire attribute of the heavenly treasure, the fire, the ore, etc., but there are five more attributes of the glass, because he wants to put the glass Treasure cultivation goes up.

"I have the means to refine the natural treasures in a short period of time and improve the repairs."

After Ye Xuan finished, he paused again and said: "However, this is only a condition, and I have another condition."

"What conditions?" asked the glass fairy.

Ye Xuan did not want to say: "You will say that you have a Tongtianbao map, so I want to take a look!"

His task is not to get the Tongtianbao map, but to confirm whether the glass fairy has a map of the sky, as long as it is confirmed, then he will complete the task.

After hearing Ye Xuan's words, the face of the glass fairy suddenly cooled down. I didn't expect the incumbent to be interested in the Lord's Order, but also to marry her.

Although I don't know where the waywardness is known, it is not important.

"Just look at it?" The glass fairy asked strangely.

"Well, just take a look, the seniors can hold it."

Ye Xuan solemnly nodded.

The glass fairy is silent. She doesn't know what Ye Xuan is doing.

Even if I really gave the introduction of Tong Tianbao to Ye Xuan, I couldn't take it with Ye Xuan's realm of heaven and earth. What's more, things were still held by her.

"Okay, I promise you!"

The glass fairy should have a sentence.

Anyway, she will not be in danger in this small holy place. After all, she can't do anything. Who can steal the treasure map from her hands?

At the moment, she took a piece of sheepskin from the ring of Qiankun and opened it.

"The things above, as soon as I close, I will forget it for a moment, and you don't know if it is true or false." The glass fairy said to Ye Xuan.

However, how can he know that Ye Xuan has something against the sky?

Super swallow system!

"Hey, the first picture of Tongtianbao is copied successfully!"

After hearing the system prompt, Ye Xuan could not help laughing.

The Tongtianbao map that he gave to the old man before, has long been copied to the super-phagocytic system, which is the second picture in the Tongtianbao map.

At this time, this one is the first picture.

The system has already prompted, which means that the Tongtianbao map is true.

Now that he has confirmed, his task is considered complete, and he has quickly passed the message to the wayward.

"Very good, I quickly let my father give a dowry to Ling Xiaodao." The wayward to Ye Xuan said.

Some of Ye Xuan did not understand, and asked directly: "On a map of Tongtianbao, what is the use?"

"The current Tongtianbao map has no other role, but whoever has the Tianbao map, who has the right to speak."

In this regard, Ye Xuan is too lazy to manage, anyway, his task is completed.

"Predecessors, the younger generation is enough." Ye Xuan said to the glass fairy.

Upon hearing this, the glass fairy quickly closed the Tongtianbao map, and then recovered the Qiankun ring.

At this point, she has reacted and asked: "Is this white dragon to let you confirm?"

Ye Xuan nodded slightly.

Although Tongtianbao has already copied the super-phagocytic system, it can't be copied out. It can only be viewed, and there is no use for it.

"Humph....."

The glazed fairy is very unhappy.

Originally, her father didn't know about Tongtianbaotu, but now she can only report it on her own initiative, lest she be preemptive.

It is true that the arrogance of the arbitrariness is true. The glazed fairy has also been confirmed from her father by the air. Although the dowry has not yet been made, the singer has really promised.

"This way, go back and put you back to the original shape!"

In the heart of the glass fairy, he sneaked a sigh of relief and then returned his eyes to Ye Xuan. "You will send those things to you later. But if the glass of the glass is made of ordinary glass, it can only be cultivated to the sixth stage." The next step is to use the best, which I don't have now."

Ye Xuan nodded slightly, it does not matter.

Then, another female knight took him away from the glazed temple and arranged for a place to live.

What he has to do now is to wait for the spree to arrive.

"Hey, it's not so long before I come to the Penglai Yaozu, so I will ascend so quickly. As long as my realm is elevated, what the death emperor will pass, and what the Nether Emperor will have to roll."

Ye Xuan's mood at this time was very exciting.

Soon, the female knight came with a ring and gave it to Ye Xuan.

After Ye Xuan inspected the Qiang Kun ring, the whole person could not help but hit a spirit.

This thing in the ring is beyond his imagination.

However, he did not immediately swallow it, because it has to be planned.

In this holy place of Penglai, the master of the scent level is generally not going to be shot. Once the shot is taken, it will definitely lead to the punishment of the heavenly path, and it will be seriously injured and severely degraded.

In this way, this time the battle for the Holy Lord is mainly based on the masters of the peaks of the heavens.

The descendants of the death emperor, the prince of the Nether, the monk of the Buddha, and the sacredness of the Platinum Shengguang, all of them have the strength of the robbery, but they are suppressing the peaks of the nine heavens, so the fighting power is very strong.

In addition, the three evil sacred places and the Glacier Knights, the Penglai Yaozu, and the Tianjue Palace also have such geniuses. Therefore, it is impossible to win the Holy Order.

Chapter 1627: Change, the thunder of fire

Although the glass fairy is to let Ye Xuan assist, but if the Holy Lord is taken by him, then the glass fairy is not owed him a human condition?

"The level of the scattered fairy can't be shot, I don't know if Megatron can do it..."

Ye Xuan thought about it.

However, the old tree is extremely suitable for robbing the Holy Order, so he hesitated.

If he breaks through to the heavens, it is estimated that the old tree, the ghostly emperor and the Megatron will reach the level of the scattered fairy.

If he changes the distribution method, then he can already come out with a level of strength, while the other two can stay in the sky.

"Okay, that's it!"

After thinking for a moment, Ye Xuan made a decision, and then directly began to devour the natural treasures of the fire attributes, as well as the body of the Tongtian beast.

"Hey, the host breaks through, and it's the second time!"

"Hey, the spirit of the Ashes breaks through, and the current is the world of heaven!"

"Hey, the host breaks through, and it is currently a triple of heaven!"

"Hey, the spirit of the Ashes breaks through, and it is currently the five heavens!"

"Hey, the host breaks through, and it's the current world!"

"Hey, the spirit of the Ashes breaks through, and it is currently six heavens!"

"Hey, the host breaks through, and it's currently five times!"

"Hey, the spirit of the Ashes breaks through, and the current is the seven heavens!"

"Hey, the host breaks through, and it is currently six times!"

"Hey, the spirit of the Ashes breaks through, and the current is the world of heaven!"

The road system prompts to sound, and Ye Xuan's plan is to first pile up the trees to the peaks of the heavens, so that there will be no restrictions on the trees.

Then she went up to devour the ore, because the tree would never get experience.

However, it is at this time.

"Hey, the host swallowed the Kowloon Thunderbolt!"

"Hey, the spirit of the ashes has changed!"

"Hey, the spirit of the ashes turns into a thunderstorm!"

These two system prompts, it is a surprise to hit Ye Xuan.

There are many ways to upgrade the old trees, such as the corpse of the celestial body and the celestial treasure of the fire. In addition, it can be used with different fires.

There is a dragon-shaped fire in the ring of the singularity of the dragon. This is the third-ranked Thunderbolt fire on the list of different fires. This is a piece of the Kowloon Thunderbolt that has caused the tree to change.

"The trough, the joy of the accident!"

Ye Xuan was shocked and quickly checked the new attributes of the tree.

The name of the Ashes was changed to the Thunderfire, and all three of the old skills of the Tree changed.

The Yanyang cable became the Kowloon Thunder chain, and the fire hood became the Jiu Lei fire hood, and the residual flame became the Kowloon Ray Flash.

In addition, there is also a big move - the Kowloon Xiao Tian strike, the cooling of this move is one day.

"Haha, I made a profit, it's really big!"

Ye Xuan's dawn is flashing and emotional.

He originally only wanted to raise the old man to the heavens, but he did not expect a surprise.

At the moment, he is letting the tree grow up in the planting space with the ghosts of the Emperor and Megatron.

The residual flame could have split two avatars. However, the new Kowloon rushing thunder has reached nine, which can confuse others, while being faster and farther away. The attack power of the first strike has also increased from 30% to five. to make.

The most important thing is that the old attack of the tree is doped with a thunder attribute attack, which has a paralytic effect.

He just punched and smashed the ghosts of the Emperor and Megatron.

Of course, the tree at this time is always full of heaven and earth, six heights higher than the Ghost Emperor and Megatron. The spike is normal.

Since the other three skills can all have cooling time, Ye Xuan did not let the tree use for the time being.

Before the tree old has always maintained two realms than Ye Xuan, now all the resources are piled on him, so now it is three levels higher.

There is a guarantee level contract between Ye Xuan and Shu Lao, so the old realm of the tree is not lower than Ye Xuan, but it will not exceed the three realms of Ye Xuan.

As long as Ye Xuan does not break through to the seven heavens, the old top of the tree is the peak of the heavens, and will not break through to the fairy.

Therefore, Ye Xuan once again swallowed some of the fire property of Tiancai Dibao, and the old tree also successfully broke through to the peak of the world, after all, he has more than doubled growth bonus.

At this time, Ye Xuan is only in the middle of the six-day period.

"Ha ha ha, I didn't expect the old man to reach the peak of Tongtianjiujing. I really didn't think of it."

The old mood of the tree is even more exciting than Ye Xuan. When he thought about it, he was just a magical tree warrior. After he followed Ye Xuan, he broke through to the peak of the heavens. Then the next step is to spread the fairy.

"The tree is old, then I want to grab the Holy Order, so you don't want to rob." Ye Xuan quickly reminded.

"No problem, the Holy Lord will make me sure!" The tree is full of confidence.

After all, he has now reached the peak of the nine heavens, even if facing the Lin Guangyao who owns the glass treasure, the old tree has the confidence to shoot him.

The first step has been completed, then the next step is the second step.

"Ghosts, Megatron, now you are here!"

When Ye Xuan finished, he began to devour those ores and weapons.

"Hey, the host breaks through, and it's currently seven heavens!"

"Hey, Megatron breaks through, and it's the current world!"

"Hey, the ghosts of the great emperor break through, and the current is the four heavens!"

.....

"Hey, the host breaks through, and it's the current world!"

"Hey, Megatron's breakthrough, the current is the world's nine!"

"Hey, the ghosts of the great emperor break through, and the current is the world of heaven!"

After Ye Xuan swallowed a large amount of ore material, Megatron and Ghostly Emperor finally reached the peak of the heavens.

At this point, Ye Xuan is thinking, whether to continue to swallow.

Through the heavens and the nine peaks, and further, that is the scattered fairy, that is, do not know, the ghosts of the Emperor and Megatron can successfully break through to the fairy.

"Now the tree is always the peak of the sky, the ghosts of the Emperor and Megatron, and if the three of them help me, others will not do it!"

Ye Xuan thought secretly.

However, he is hesitating, he wants to make a direct breakthrough for the Ghost Emperor and Megatron, because Megatron is a weapon.

I don't know if the weapon will be shot in this holy place in Penglai, will it be punished by heaven.

"Be still cautious, let them keep the peak of the sky!"

Ye Xuan decided to give up. Anyway, with the strength of his four people, it is estimated that the entire Penglai holy land can be traversed. As long as they do not shoot, they are almost invincible.

Although Ye Xuan has not yet reached the top of the world, he does not care.

With his current strength, even if he is single-handed, he has confidence.

However, the glass fairy said that the inheritance of the demon king has not been so refining, so he simply stayed in the house and did not come out.

Chapter 1628: Exit

In the planting space, the old tree that has become a thunderstorm has already been handed over with the ghostly emperor and Megatron.

I have to say that the old tree after the change is powerful and powerful, so that there is no problem with one enemy and two.

You must know that before he was in the same class, he was only stronger than Megatron, but he was weaker than the Ghost Emperor.

Now, he is even stronger than Ghostly Emperor and Megatron.

"Ha ha ha, try this!"

The tree looked at the sneaky emperor and Megatron, who swiftly swept toward him, and suddenly broke out the chain of nine thunder fires.

This is the new skill of the Thunderfire, the Kowloon Thunder chain.

A total of nine chains, locked in the ghosts of the Emperor and Megatron, the two will be unable to break away.

This Kowloon Thunder chain has a paralytic effect, but it does not have much effect on Ghostly Emperor and Megatron.

Taking advantage of this opportunity, the old figure of the tree suddenly turned into a nine-dragon shadow, directly smuggling toward the ghosts of the Emperor and Megatron.

Kowloon Xiaotian hit!

"Booming!"

The ghost of the Jiulong in the whole of Jiulong, the sky is thunderous, and then there is a rumbling bang.

This levy is a big move for the old tree. The power of this attack is not small, even if Megatron and Ghostly Emperor can't completely block it.

"Hey, the ghost is dead!"

"Hey, the ghost is resurrected!"

Ghostly Emperor and Megatron still have a fundamental gap, the latter is all metal, and under the armor of the Ghostly Emperor is a white bone.

Under the storm of the whistle of the whistle of the Kowloon, the sneaky emperor was directly killed.

Of course, if the blow is only on Megatron, it is estimated that it will not be able to pick it up.

"The Kowloon Thunderbolt is really a blessing..."

Ye Xuan couldn't help but secretly say a word.

There are no fifty and fourty different fires that the tree has swallowed. However, none of them can make him change.

It happened that the glass fairy sent a Kowloon Thunder fire, and it was a great luck. If this is not the case, the old tree is still the spirit of the ashes, and the combat power is only a little stronger than the Megatron.

With these three generals, Ye Xuan is a must-have for this holy command, but unfortunately he has already promised the glass fairy, otherwise he will definitely take this holy command as his own.

Soon, it was three days.

In these three days, Ye Xuan does not leave the house, otherwise I am afraid that the glass fairy will be scared to death.

It's too horrible to break through the heavens and the eight heavens in one day.

Although the waywardness is the same, he is retreating in the life of the saints, only to suppress the realm.

And Ye Xuan, is a real breakthrough!

"Ye Xuan, how is your cultivation?"

At noon on the third day, the glass fairy can't help but ask questions.

"Reassure, this time the Lord's Order is inevitable."

Ye Xuan does not directly say that he has broken through to the heavens and the eight, but only back.

"it is good!"

When the glass fairy was heard, it was broken.

However, she did not disturb Ye Xuan, after all, this time is very important.

A little bit of time, the outside world is also calm, but on the seventh day.

"Ye Xuan, Fangcai Penglai Yaozu came to the news, the demon heir has successfully refining the half of the demon emperor, tomorrow, we will go directly to the Penglai Yaozu." Glass fairy to Ye Xuan.

"Where is it..."

Ye Xuan's eyes are slightly stunned.

Although this half of the demon inheritance is good, but compared with the Holy Lord, it is a bit insignificant.

Although the Knights of the Glass also played the idea of this Holy Lord, they knew that no matter who they fell into the hands of the Holy Lord, they could not fall into the hands of the holy land. Otherwise, the sacred sacred relics of the Holy Land refining the Holy Order. Then the power of the Penglai Holy Land will be bloodwashed.

After all, the relics who refine the Holy Order can be shot in the holy land of Penglai, and will not be punished by heaven. Who can fight with one?

"How are you practicing now?" the glass fairy asked curiously.

"Tongtian is eightfold!"

Ye Xuan replied.

"what?"

This answer, shocked the glass fairy.

Sure enough, she did not read the wrong person.

In just seven days, Ye Xuan's breakthrough from Tongtianjing to the eight-pointed environment is simply unbelievable.

If she had not seen it before, she thought that Ye Xuan was a reincarnated immortal.

"Come to the Glass Temple!"

The glass fairy said to Ye Xuan.

At the moment, Ye Xuan is going to the Liuli Temple. He knows that the glass fairy is to see his realm with his own eyes.

When he arrived, he found that there were three people sitting inside, one of them was the glass fairy, the other two were the monk of the Buddha's holy land, and the fifth army leader Lin Guangyao.

In fact, not waiting for Ye Xuan to come to the glass temple, the three have already felt the breath of Ye Xuan's body.

Through the heavens and the eight!

Sure enough, it is a heavenly environment!

The three men have already been shocked and wide-eyed, and the glass fairy has also felt that Ye Xuan has cultivated the glass treasure to the sixth level, just like Lin Guangyao.

"It's incredible. It really broke through to the heavens!" Lin Guangyao couldn't believe it.

"Is this donor a reincarnation of the immortal, but the inheritance of memory has not yet awakened?" A monk could not help but ask.

"I have seen three seniors!"

Ye Xuan respectfully said hello.

"Under the age of a hundred, you will cultivate to this point, and your qualifications will be incomparable even if you are the sovereign of the Holy Family."

The glass fairy is also a sigh.

The lord of the life saints, but it took only two hundred years to cultivate into a fairy. This is a legend. Only Ye Xuan can compare with him.

However, if the qualifications are good, this will not help the current situation.

"Ye Xuan, you and the beating one!" Liu Lixian suddenly said.

Then, there was a female knight who plunged into the glazed temple. She was the big apprentice of the glazed fairy, and she was a golden knight.

"Try me strength, no matter what..."

Ye Xuan's mouth tilted slightly and turned to look at the hot female knight in front.

The glass fairy spent a great price to pile him up in the current realm. If the combat power is insufficient, he will not be able to participate in the next battle of the Holy Lord.

Therefore, Ye Xuan must overcome this ambiguity.

"come on!"

Ye Xuan clenched his fists and said to him.

"excuse me!"

After a low drink, the breath immediately rose several times, and she directly went to Ye Xuan with bare hands.

This punch, I did not use any magical powers, but it pulled out a long space crack.

Even if there is no space for the points, this punch is enough to kill the ordinary Tongtian Jiuwu, this is the strength of genius.

Unfortunately, this kind of attack is not worth mentioning in front of Ye Xuan.

Chapter 1629: Easily beat

"Hey!"

Ye Xuan slammed a punch and slammed into the pink fist.

The two infuriating collisions, the air waves suddenly swept away.

At this moment, Ye Xuan's fist is like playing on a piece of tofu. After all, his body is more than a hundred times stronger than before.

"Hey!"

In a crisp sound, the arm of the scorpion was broken, and the temper was bombarding her outside the glazed temple.

The leapfrog challenge, win!

That was the eyes of Ye Xuan flying, unable to believe that he was defeated, but this is not finished.

"Snapped!"

He quickly stabilized his body shape and then rushed to Ye Xuan again. This time, she used her left hand.

"Tong Tian Shen Tong, glazed broken golden fist!"

This move is her strongest attack, but Ye Xuan will.

"Hey, the smashed glass punches are successful!"

At the moment when Ye Xuan started, the glass fairy was shocked again, because she did not teach Ye Xuan this magical power, how did Ye Xuan learn?

This kid is really different!

"boom!"

This time, there was no suspense at all. He was beaten again. The left hand was more miserable than the right hand. The bones were all broken and the blood flowed.

I have to say that Ye Xuan really can't pity the jade, and the two punches will kill this hot female knight.

However, this injury is not a thing for a talented nine-time master, and will soon be able to recover.

"Yes, the district is full of heaven and earth, it will easily beat you, your strength is still decent. However, the strength of the dragon is more than the horse is long, and you want to participate in the next battle, you are not qualified!" The glass fairy said to Ye Xuan.

"If this is the case, then ask the head of the army to enlighten me!"

Ye Xuan suddenly turned and held a fist against Lin Guangyao.

If you want to get the approval of the glass fairy, then you can only fight with Lin Guangyao.

"it is good!"

Upon hearing this, Lin Guangyao immediately screamed and stood up.

In the current glazed knights, there are no rivals except the glass fairy and the four squad leaders.

As long as Ye Xuan has the qualification to fight with him, then the Gladiator Knights have a strong helper.

Although Lin Guangyao is a higher level than Ye Xuan, but Lin Xuan's confident look, Lin Guangyao does not dare to support the big.

"Ye Xuan, come on!" Lin Guangyao made a fist with both hands and said to Ye Xuan.

"it is good!"

Ye Xuan did not say anything, directly turned into a figure and plunged to Lin Guangyao.

This speed is beyond the imagination of Lin Guangyao.

You must know that Ye Xuan's shadow step has advanced to a thousand flashes and can be used in combat.

This is a very practical skill. Although it is a bit too expensive to consume, he still has the blood of the undead, and this moment will recover.

"Glass crushed golden fist!"

This punch has also torn a long space crack, and then used with the glass treasure, the power is huge.

In addition, Ye Xuan still has no upper poles, even with his fists, there is a double increase in attack power.

In the face of this punch, Lin Guangyao's face was dignified, then the big foot slammed forward and hit Ye Xuan.

"Hey!"

A loud noise spread in the glass temple, and Ye Xuan and Lin Guangyao slammed a punch. On the surface, the two played a close match.

But don't forget, Ye Xuan's body is unicorn, it has the effect of burning the world.

The next moment, Lin Guangyao's right fist was on.

"what?"

Lin Guangyao was shocked and quickly extinguished the flame with infuriating gas. Fortunately, he also had a glass of treasure, otherwise this fist had to be burned out of the bones.

This time, Lin Guangyao must come up with the true ability.

"Liuzhen Town Tianhuan!"

Lin Guangyao's body was running fast, and suddenly it sprang up. Five kinds of light shone the entire glass temple.

This infuriating shocked Ye Xuan on the thunder, and Ye Xuan only felt a pain in his chest, and the whole person flew out.

In the magical powers, he was weak, but the next moment he made up for this gap.

"Hey, Liuli Town Tianhuan has been successfully copied!"

This system sounds just sounded, and Lin Guangyao is attacking again.

This time, he had a tiger-backed knife in his hand, and he yelled at Ye Xuan, who was flying out.

Since the other party has already polished the weapon, then Ye Xuan can't hide it.

"Megatron, come on!"

Ye Xuan took the Zhentian sword directly. He has not fought side by side with Megatron for a long time.

This embarrassment is the strongest attack of Lin Guangyao. If he can't resist it, the whole body may be slanted in half.

However, the glazed broken gold fist is not his most powerful attack.

"Tong Tian Shen Tong, virtual flameless sword wave!"

"call out!"

Two cold awns flashed, and the two spaces were interlaced.

I only heard ‘嘭’, and Lin Guangyao’s sniper was directly smashed by the imaginary sword wave.

Although he said that Ye Xuan is proficient in any weapon, he is still used to using swords.

After all, the virtual flameless sword wave was exchanged for two points of swallowing, and there was also an increase in the flame attack by the blood of the undead phoenix and the blood of the celestial unicorn.

If this blow can't defeat Lin Guangyao's knife, it shouldn't be too much!

This blow exceeded the imagination of Lin Guangyao, and even the glass fairy did not expect it.

But trying to kill a glass knight is not that easy.

“Lianli Town Tiansan Chain!”

Lin Guangyao tried his best to show this trick.

Ye Xuan's virtual flameless sword wave and the knife mang fight once, and after the three consecutive earthquakes, the power falling on Lin Guangyao is not that big.

Even so, this imaginary sword wave directly hurt Lin Guangyao who was trained to become the sixth stage of the glass treasure.

If you want to fight again, Lin Guangyao will lose!

This blow is already a winner, so the glass fairy directly said: "Enough, stop!"

Then there are more important things. If it hurts here, it will be bad.

"If I fight again, I guess it is not your opponent. You should have a card without it?" Lin Guangyao quickly treated the injury and said to Ye Xuan.

"Ok!"

Ye Xuan is not modest and nods directly.

He has a lot of cards, the old tree, the ghostly emperor, the Megatron, and an estimate can be a battle with Lin Guangyao.

In addition, he also has the skills of killing and marking, and the blade storm is useless.

This strength is estimated to be a battle with Sanxian, let alone Lin Guangyao?

"Very good, I really didn't look at the wrong person!" The indifferent face of Liuli Fairy couldn't help but smile a little, said: "But you are just passing through the sky, can you still improve?"

"It can be, but it still needs a lot of heaven and earth treasures. This time it will be normal." Ye Xuan said to the glass fairy.

Chapter 1630: Through the heavens and nine times!

Before the glass fairy to Ye Xuan's heavenly treasures, in fact, it is enough to create a few masters of the peaks of the heavens.

Now I want to raise him from the heavens to the top of the sky, and the natural treasures that I consume are probably several times before.

However, he understands that the glass fairy will certainly be willing.

"Okay, I will give you!"

The glass fairy bites a silver tooth and throws a strange treasure from the ring.

These things, even Lin Guangyao will be jealous and worthless.

This time, the glass fairy is really a * one.

"This time I am also betting on you. If you fail, give it back to me ten times!" The glass fairy suddenly said a little.

"it is good!"

Ye Xuan did not bargain.

He can easily defeat Lin Guangyao now. The strength is estimated to be top. If he is allowed to break through again, who can fight him?

"You don't care too much. Although your strength is above Lin Guangyao, there is still a gap with the top talents. Those people are capable of crossing the fairy tales, but they have always suppressed the realm, and they have been horrified to the extreme. Xian. What you have to pay special attention to are the two thorny characters of the Holy Land of Death and the Holy Land." The glass fairy reminded.

Although Lin Guangyao is the peak of the nine heavens, but the cultivation time is too short, and the estimates of the three evil roads are all eternal.

If you really want to compare it, Lin Guangyao's strength can only be ranked in the third step. The second step is those who have lived for a long time, such as the masters of three evil places.

As for the first echelon, it is the arbitrariness of Platinum, the death of the Emperor, the Emperor of the Emperor, and the Emperor of the Nether. Their age is better than that of the second echelon, but their background is enormous, but it is not so easy to deal with.

For example, Platinum Sheng Guanglong is willful, if he is not beaten back to the original shape, he is a master of the scattered level.

Although these people are tricky, Ye Xuan is not afraid. After all, he still has a few helpers.

In the case of opening a big move, even if it is a fairy, it is done!

He has not yet broken through, and he has surpassed Lin Guangyao, which is estimated to be the second echelon.

If you break through to the top of the world, then you will be able to squeeze into the first echelon.

"Hey, the host breaks through, and it's the current world!"

In an instant, Ye Xuan's breath is directly skyrocketing, and it is also the peak of the nine heavens.

"Hey, the host has reached the peak of the sky!"

"Hey, the host has reached the request for a ferry!"

"Hey, the current success rate of the host is 95%!"

Another three system prompts to sound.

Ninety-five percent, this probability is already high enough, Ye Xuan estimates that as long as the three avatars fit and improve the strength of 20%, then you can successfully rob.

However, after the success of the robbery, it is still impossible to fly up the fairyland because the fairy passage was closed.

However, it is generally necessary to start repairing the fairy.

There are still important things to do now, so Ye Xuan will not choose to rob, first take the Holy Order and say.

"There was an instant breakthrough from the heavens to the top of the sky, really..."

Liu Lixian and others have been shocked to say nothing.

"In your current realm, I am afraid that even you can't stop a punch!" Lin Guangyao said with some self-deprecation.

He knows that Ye Xuan's current strength should be in the first echelon, not his third echelon can fight with one.

"Very good, with your help, my glass knights also have the capital of death in the Holy Land and the Holy Land." The glass fairy said to Ye Xuan.

"Predecessors rest assured that I have 80% confidence to win the Holy Order!" Ye Xuan said confidently.

"it is good!"

The glass fairy is very satisfied, and then I can see if Ye Xuan can really win the Holy Order.

Tomorrow, it is time for them to go to the Penglai Yaozu to discuss the battle plan. At that time, discuss how to deal with the evil land.

Soon, it was a day passed.

There is a transmission array directly leading to the Penglai Yaozu in the Glazier Knights, but it is very convenient.

The next day, the glass fairy with Lin Guangyao, a monk and Ye Xuan went to the Penglai Yaozu.

"Hey!"

The transmission array starts to run.

Ye Xuan's mood was a bit excited at this time, because the fall was born in the Penglai Yaozu, but now it was just born, and did not open the inheritance memory, it is estimated that he can not recognize him.

At this time, the vision in front of the eyes shook, and Ye Xuan's induction suddenly increased.

Although the fall was reborn, she and Ye Xuan still had an induction. When Ye Xuan landed, she sensed that the fall was in the north and the distance was very close.

However, the landing palace of the landing is already waiting for a group of demons.

"I have seen the glass fairy!"

An old man greeted him and said: "The old man Yao Shan, waiting here for a long time!"

"Other forces are here?" asked the glass fairy.

"Yes!"

This Yaoshan nodded.

Although it has not yet reached the agreed time, the glass knights with the transmission array turned out to be the last one, which is somewhat helpless.

At the moment, this Yaoshan is with a glass fairy four people to the House of Parliament.

The party forces that came to participate in the combat conference, in addition to the Penglai Yaozu himself, there are the Heavenly Palace, the Glass Knights, and the Holy Land, so they are the Quartet Alliance.

Soon, Ye Xuan was taken to the forum.

At this time, there are already many people in the Temple of the Penglai Yaozu, and the strength is not weak. The lowest is the peak of the heavens.

One of them is a master of the scent level!

This person is sitting in the first seat, and is still an acquaintance of Ye Xuan.

Although I have already guessed it, but after seeing the deity of the gods, Ye Xuan still could not help but sigh in his heart: Nima, this is the real hermit!

When he was not still supreme, he had seen the celestial beings. Now he is the peak of the nine heavens, crossing the Supreme Three Difficulty and Tongtianjiu.

No one would have thought that the mysterious man who appeared in the backcountry of the * rocky continent turned out to be a scattered fairy. Although the celestial beings there are only one avatar, they are shocking enough.

Ye Xuan followed the glass fairy into the hall of the discussion, and instantly became the focus of attention.

Lin Guangyao, everyone has heard of it.

The appearance of a monk is also more conspicuous, and everyone recognizes it.

Just, Ye Xuan, this stranger, where did it come from?

At this time, there is another acquaintance of Ye Xuan in the temple, that is, Platinum Shengguanglong is willful, he also came.

"Hey, Ye Xuan!"

After seeing Ye Xuan, he was greeted immediately.

Ye Xuan's breakthroughs have long been known, but the latter also came to the incredible after seeing it.
