Chapter 175: Soft and hard

"The number of approved places is related to the ranking of the dynasty. If you lose the second game, then 20 people will enter the land. If you win, then ten people will enter the best heaven." Mo asked to answer.

"It turned out to be."

Ye Xuan nodded.

However, there are only ten places in the Tianzhifu. This condition is too harsh. You must know that the four dynasties add up, I am afraid there are at least two thousand people.

Even if the Datang Dynasty got the second place, it would be twenty places, and the two people in Zhaopan are now in the early days of the real thing, and there are still many more powerful than them.

"but....."

At this moment, Mo asked suddenly and said: "If you choose to give up the second dynasty, then I can send you two directly to Xuanzhifu."

"Really?"

Hearing this, the eyes of Zhao Pan are also bright.

"Not bad."

Mo asked nodded: "However, it is a little reluctant to enter Xuan's House with your qualifications, and after you enter, you will feel tremendous pressure. If you do not meet the requirements, you will drop to Huangzhifu and never reach it. , will be expelled from Lingxiao."

Being evicted from the sect, this kind of thing is not uncommon, so Zhao Pan is not surprised.

"I am willing to give up and enter the Xuanzhi House." Zhao Pan said quickly.

"me too."

"Good." Mo asked to nod again, "Ye Xuan, your strength is very good, I will give you a position, as long as you can live."

In fact, Zhao Pan and Jiang Xian are mostly entering the Yellow House, but Mo asked to be more optimistic about Ye Xuan, so I treated it a bit.

"Thank you for the Ambassador." Ye Xuan hurriedly thanked.

However, he feels that he is absolutely capable of winning a quota. After all, he is a man who can even fly in Tang Tian.

Other law-abiding laws are also asking, and soon they are leaving with their own people.

After the first dynasty, three days of rest, three days later is the second battle of the dynasty. The winner is the winner, the loser is the loser, and the final order is determined.

Ye Xuan chose to continue, so Mo asked to take him to another place to stay, and Zhao Pan and Jiang Xian were sent directly to Xuanzhi House.

"The fat brother is finally entering Lingxiao."

Ye Xuan breathed a sigh of relief.

The only battle of the second dynasty was that he participated alone. He felt a lot easier, and he didn't have to worry about Zhao Pan.

After entering Lingxiao, if you do not meet the requirements, there may be danger of being expelled.

However, the fat brother entered the Xuanzhifu. If he did not meet the requirements, he would first drop to the Huangzhifu. After entering the Huangzhifu, if he did not meet the requirements of the Huangzhifu, he would be expelled from the sect.

As long as Zhao Pan did not leave Lingxiao, the Xuanyang Empire had security, and not many people dared to work on the Xuanyang Empire.

Three days later, it was the second dynasty war. I don't know which dynasty the opponent is.

The Tang Dynasty, Da Zhou, Da Song, and Dayan dynasties, the Tang Dynasty and the Da Zhou Dynasty were similar in strength, while the Great Song and Da Yan were the strongest. If it was accurate, the Song Dynasty would be stronger.

To put it simply, the next opponent of the Datang Dynasty is not the Great Song or the Big Yan. This is a bit of a hassle, because both of these dynasties have super genius in the middle of the real world.

Ye Xuan is also relatively calm, anyway, he is also the worst to enter the land of the government, not bad.

Now that he is in the middle of the real world, if he is still worse, he will be able to break through to the real world. Although it is only a little bit worse, it is not the one that can be upgraded. Besides, there is no material forging the middleware in his body.

However, he has a Chinese-level martial art that is not purchased in the phagocytic system, that is, the floater hand obtained from Lin Zhirong!

However, after three days, it was the second battle of the dynasty. In such a short period of time, others could learn.

"Headache, how can I upgrade?"

Ye Xuan shook his head helplessly, but he couldn't think of any way. It seems that he could only improve in the second battle of the dynasty.

However, at this time, a figure appeared suddenly outside his yard. This person did not knock on the door and went straight in.

After seeing this person, Ye Xuan's face was also a condensate, because it came to Tang Tian, the prince of the Tang Dynasty.

"His Royal Highness, is there anything?" Ye Xuan did not get up, just sat there and asked.

Tang Tian's heart screamed, and he walked to Ye Xuan's front and hugged his fist: "There was more offense on that day, and I forgot to forgive."

"No problem, although I had an identity token at the time, but my Royal Highness did not see me, it is normal to not know." Ye Xuan said casually.

"Well, I am here today, there are other things, then I will go straight to the point."

Tang Tian said: "This time, my Tang Dynasty can win, and you have a lot of credit. But in the next game, we will encounter stronger opponents than the Great Zhou Dynasty, although I don't know who it is, but it is big. Both Song and Dayan have people in the middle of the real world. I am a single enemy and need your help."

"I am also a member of the Tang Dynasty dynasty. You don't have to worry about your Royal Highness." Ye Xuan said.

"I don't mean this, I mean, let you listen to me." Tang Tian said quickly.

Sending?

Ye Xuan's eyes sighed and sent him to be Tang Tian's younger brother. Tang Tian asked him to do what he was going to do.

What international jokes!

"No." Ye Xuan directly refused.

"I can give you a reward and I will be satisfied with you." Tang Tian added.

Hearing this, Ye Xuan also hesitated, but he thought that if Tang Tian asked him to attract the genius in the middle of the real period, what would he do not let him die?

"No, I also have my own ideas, I will act on my own." Ye Xuan still refused.

Tang Tian heard the words and immediately angered: "Are you ignoring my identity or doubting my ability?"

Before he came, he did some homework and knew that Ye Xuan was from a low-level empire. It is not bad for a person from a low-level empire to be able to talk to him like this. He even dared to reject him. I really don't know how to live and die.

Ye Xuan can not eat this set, and immediately screamed: "You are the prince of the dynasty, now I am in Lingxiao, there is no identity, only strength."

Before he played with Tang Tian, Ye Xuan still had some concerns, but after seeing Tang Tian's strength, his confidence also increased.

If you really want to play a game, it is not necessarily who wins and who wins.

"A big tone, you have to forget your identity, your empire, I can send people out in minutes." Tang Tai saw that he couldn't make it, and began to threaten it.

Ye Xuan's face sank and whispered: "His Royal Highness, do you want to push me to the opponent?"

As soon as this was said, Tang Tian was also a shock to the tiger.
