Chapter 176: Cooperation

Obviously, Ye Xuan is not a person who eats soft and hard. If he really goes to the opponent, then the Datang Dynasty estimates that there is no chance of winning.

He immediately regretted it and said coldly, "Okay, then I will take a step back. You will assist me. I will not act without permission. If necessary, listen to my command."

Ye Xuan is also a sneer, it seems that this Tang Tian is also afraid that he will go to the opponent's side, so best, he can talk about the conditions.

"His Royal Highness, let me help you, what good is it?" Ye Xuan suddenly smiled.

"One hundred pieces of Chinese crystal spar." Tang Tian did not want to answer.

Upon hearing this price, Ye Xuan directly laughed out: "His Royal Highness, are you kidding me, I have a hundred pieces of spar in the district, and would like to move me?"

One hundred pieces of medium-quality spar, equivalent to 10,000 lower-quality spar, is about the same price as a previous 20-man team.

Not waiting for Tang Tian to open, Ye Xuan said again: "Two thousand pieces of crystal spar, otherwise free talk!"

Tang Tian immediately dissatisfied: "Is it really a big tone, not afraid of being killed?"

"Hey, you attacked me once before, I haven't been with you yet. Besides, I have already arrived, I am sure I can break through to the real world on the day of the assessment. At that time, I will be at the same level as you." The corner of the mouth is slightly tilted.

Tang Tian is the prince of the Tang Dynasty. There must be many good things in the Qiankun martial arts. He does not believe that Tang Tian can't get 200,000 pieces of spar.

"you....."

Tang Tian felt a bit and felt the true element that Ye Xuan deliberately exhaled. Sure enough, this strength is already on the verge of breaking through.

However, two thousand pieces of medium-grade spar can not be a small number, equivalent to 200,000 lower-quality spar, you can buy a top-grade spirit.

"A thousand pieces of Chinese crystal spar." Tang Tian began bargaining.

Unexpectedly, after hearing this price, Ye Xuan turned away and went straight to rest.

"Okay, two thousand!" Tang Tianyi gritted his teeth and agreed.

He also felt the strength of Ye Xuan, although he could not match him, but if he had the help of Ye Xuan, he also had the mid-term cost of facing the real Xuanjing.

"Oh, even if there are not enough spar, you can use Tiancaibao."

Ye Xuan smiled lightly and reached out directly.

Tang Tian resisted the anger and began to pour things out of the Qiang Kun ring. Moreover, the price of some things was very unstable, and he took a lot of things.

Ye Xuan took all these things and smiled and said: "His Royal Highness, then I have to retreat for three days, please come back!"

When he finished, he went straight into the house.

After feeling that Tang Tian had left, he was directly obsessed with what he had obtained, and he had swallowed up most of the things and left some things to spare.

"Hey, the host has broken through to the real world!"

When the system prompts to sound, the real elements in Ye Xuan's body are all transformed into mysterious. This is the benefit of the phagocytic system. The average person breaks through, and it takes some time to convert the real yuan, and he is all transformed and completed in an instant.

"It's finally a real place."

Ye Xuan opened his mouth and smiled, then tried it again. Sure enough, he still couldn't integrate the advanced blood.

"But, the 45 million points of swallowing points, let me see what new good things."

Ye Xuan sinks his mind into the phagocytic system.

Every time you break through, there will be new things, which may be martial arts, weapons, or treasures and blood.

It must be mentioned that there is also a limit to the number of blood vessels, which will increase as the realm increases. Otherwise, Ye Xuan has already exchanged all the intermediate blood for a whole time instead of carefully selecting and merging.

Three days passed by.

When the third day came, Ye Xuan was already waiting for the designated place.

Soon, those who are in the process of re-emergence are reappearing.

However, what makes Ye Xuan wonder is that the place they went to this time was not the valley three days ago, but another one.

"Don't the second dynasty battle, the rules are different?" Ye Xuan was a little surprised.

The same is true of nearby Tang Tian.

Ling Xiao Dapeng put the two hundred people on a cliff.

Then, the elders of Lingxiaofu are the loud voice: "Here, it is the territory of the second dynasty battle, and your opponents have already set it, it is the Great Song Dynasty."

"As for the rules, it is very simple. It is killing. As long as the people of the Great Zhou Dynasty die below 50, it is your victory. Similarly, if you have more than two hundred people who die below 50, you will lose."

"And there is no time limit for this game."

When this sentence fell, the two hundred people present were shocked.

Killed below 50 people?

no time limit?

"However, I am here to give you a chance. Now you can opt out. Anyone who quits can enter the Yellow House." Yang Tai added.

The Datang Dynasty has already won a game. If this game is defeated, then there will be 20 people entering the land. However, only 50 people from more than 200 people can survive. This is too cruel.

Moreover, their opponents are still the Song Dynasty, the Song Dynasty, which is even stronger than the Tang Dynasty.

Immediately, some people chose to quit, and there are still many people.

"Damn!"

Tang Tian in the crowd secretly said that this has not yet started, and they lost half of the Tang Dynasty.

Some people came out one after another, and Ye Xuan roughly calculated it. He even went out for nearly a hundred people. That is to say, there were only a hundred people left.

"This is not a good sign." Ye Xuan is also very helpless.

But he also understands these people. After all, these people are not a death squad. There is no need to work hard. It is not bad to be able to enter the Yellow House.

Tang Tian's face has already sunk to the bottom of the valley. He spent a lot of money to let Ye Xuan assist him. But who knows, the rules have changed, isn't it a big loss?

"Is there anyone else to quit? If not, just start." Yang Tai looked around again, and then let Ling Xiao Dapeng fly.

The second battle of the dynasty, start!

After the elders and the guards all left, the audience was silent for a while.

"His Royal Highness, what should we do now?"

Someone asked.

Tang Tian came out and thought for a moment in his heart, saying: "We have hundreds of people left here, and the Great Song Dynasty should have it, maybe more, so we are not weak."

"However, the strength of the Great Song Dynasty is extraordinary. If it is hard, my Tang Dynasty will be defeated..."

Just then, a person suddenly came out on the side.

"His Royal Highness, I have a plan here. I don't know if I would like to hear it?"

Everyone turned their heads and saw that it was not someone else who came out. It was Ye Xuan from the lower empire.
