Chapter 178: Princess Song

The second dynasty war only lasted for six hours. In the Song Dynasty, hundreds of people were injured in the hands of the six people of Ye Xuan.

Assuming there are three hundred people in the Great Song Dynasty, there are only two hundred people now. If you come back a few times, then the Tang Dynasty can easily win.

At this point, the sky is gradually darkening.

Somewhere in the forest, Tang Tianliu were hidden among the trees.

"Ye Xuan, can you find the enemy at night?" Tang Tian said in a subtle voice.

After the sky darkened, there were a lot of insects in the forest. In Tang Tian's guess, Ye Xuan relied on his ears to tell if there were enemies approaching.

However, he guessed wrong, Ye Xuan is not the ear.

"Yes." Ye Xuan nodded and answered.

"That's good, if there is no accident, it may end the battle within three days." Tang Tian said with satisfaction.

However, it is at this time.

"Someone is coming, about ten." Ye Xuan suddenly whispered.

"Improve vigilance and act as planned."

After half a minute, there were ten figures that reflected the eyes of Ye Xuan. Although it was night, the shadow leopard blood provided a night vision effect, so he saw it clearly.

"Not a Song ruling, no one is coming." Ye Xuan whispered.

Before Tang Tian, he showed him the portrait of the Song ruling, so he can recognize it.

It seems that this team is going to be finished again.

"kill!"

Under the order of Tang Tian, the six people swiftly swept out, and soon they killed the ten people.

Ye Xuan killed three, Tang Tian also killed three, and the remaining four were just divided.

"His Royal Highness, we have been in the depths for so long, do you want to see?" asked a guard from the Datang Dynasty.

"Alright, go back and see." Tang Tian nodded.

It was only half a day later that they killed more than 100 people in the Great Song Dynasty, but they could not make a quick profit. If the old nest was discovered, then it would be troublesome.

However, just as they were preparing to go back, Ye Xuan's feet were another meal.

"Someone is coming!" Ye Xuan frowned.

"How many?"

"On a!"

When I heard this answer, Tang Tian was a few people.

A person?

It's hard to be a Song ruling?

"His Royal Highness, it may be the Song ruling, let's go quickly." The guard also said a little embarrassed.

"Slow."

Tang Tian interrupted: "The six of us joined forces, even if the Song ruling came, we could fight, and we are secretly saying that if the sneak attack succeeds and the Song ruling is killed, then this dynasty wars us. It won half."

Song ruling, the strongest of the Great Song Dynasty camp, can swept the four camp owners.

As long as he dies, the Great Song Dynasty can be folded. When the six of them do not have to act with such care and caution, they can be divided into three teams.

At the moment, they are quickly hidden. Fortunately, they are only a team of ten people. The six people have solved it without any effort, and they have not made any big noise.

The person that Ye Xuan sensed was coming towards them, his pace was slow, and he was slow.

However, it was only when he was only a hundred meters away from Ye Xuan.

"what?"

The man's feet suddenly had a meal, and then he walked two steps backwards. Then he turned around and ran.

"It was discovered, he ran!" Ye Xuan shouted at the moment when the other side went backwards.

"It is the Song Dynasty, chasing, leaving her!" Tang Tian dad.

It turned out that it was not the Song ruling that went into the circle of Ye Xuan's induction, but the Song ruling of Song's ruling, the beginning of the real Xuanjing.

After seeing Tang Tian's words, Ye Xuan's five people also understood instantly.

With their strength, the Song Dynasty should not have too many problems. As long as they succeed, they can threaten the Song ruling.

However, the Song Dynasty is also a princess of the Great Song Dynasty. The identity is not worse than that of Tang Tian. Does she have no means to save her life?

"The speed is fast, it must be the top grade martial arts!"

Ye Xuan's heart trembled. He felt that the Song Dynasty had already been three hundred meters away from him. If he came back for a second or two, I was afraid to run out of his induction circle.

The Song Dynasty is the key to success.

At the moment, Ye Xuan is taking out the chasing star bow.

"shoot with great precision!"

Although he couldn't catch up, the speed of the arrow was faster than he ran. He could harass the escape route of the Song Dynasty and let Tang Tian, who also had the highest level of martial arts, catch up.

A series of spiritual arrows directly penetrated the trunk like a thin paper, and shot in front of the Princess of the Great Song, causing no small trouble for her.

"Good job!"

Tang Tian boasted aloud, followed the Song Dynasty.

The Song Dynasty was harassed by Ye Xuan's bow and arrow, and the speed was reduced a lot. Soon, Tang Tian pulled the distance.

At the same time, she also recognized Tang Tianlai.

"Tang Tian, is that you?"

A beautiful voice sounded.

"Song cut, you can't escape, let's take it!" Tang Tian shouted.

"Don't think, there is a kind of you will follow, my brother will kill you!" Song Congjing said with some anger.

She is not stupid, knowing that Tang Tian wants to arrest her to threaten the Song ruling.

"As far as you are concerned, you can't lie to me." Tang Tian did not care. He believed that the Song ruling and the Song ruling must be separated.

"Hey, then you will follow." Song cuts a flash of color in his eyes.

But then, she also realized the danger.

In order to avoid Ye Xuan's arrow, she also wasted a lot of time, so that Tang Tian is getting closer and closer to her.

"The guy who puts the cold arrow, this girl remembers you, don't get caught by me, or I will kill you." Song Congjing was very angry in his heart, and immediately the sacred air in the body gathered in the throat, then big I sighed.

The whole forest echoed her voice.

"Not good!" Tang Tian's face changed.

Even if the ruling of the Song Dynasty is not nearby, I will definitely come over after hearing the voice of the Song Dynasty.

Must be quick and fast!

at this time.

"call out!"

A cold flash of light flashed over the calf of the Song Dynasty and made her lose her balance.

"good chance!"

Tang Tian's eyes lit up and the machine took a long distance.

At that point, Ye Xuan also misunderstood, but it just broke the skin of the Song Dynasty.

However, this is to let the Song Dynasty directly chased up by Tang Tian.

"Song ruling, let's just let it go."

Tang Tian walked out from the shadow and looked at the shadow in front.

Song Congjing said coldly: "If you want to marry my brother, I will not let you succeed."

"Then talk less nonsense, see the real chapter under the hand!" Tang Tian said nothing, the sword rushed over.

The Song Dynasty also knew that he could not escape, and he could only passively fight.

The fighting power of the two real Xuanjing started a fierce battle.
