

Super D. S 183

Chapter 183: Land house

This is a name, but I was scared of Ye Xuan.

grandfather?

The elder of the Lingxiao House was actually the Emperor of the Great Song Dynasty!

"You kid is interesting, even dare to hold my granddaughter..." Song Cheng eyes stunned and fell to Ye Xuan.

Ye Xuan's urine was almost scared, and hurriedly clenched his fist: "Please also forgive the seniors."

"The old man, as the elder of the Lingxiao House, must be fair and just. However, if something goes wrong with the ruling, even if you enter the heavenly palace, the old man will definitely try to kill you. But fortunately, you have not cast it. Blunder."

Song Cheng said, and turned to the verdict of Song: "The ruling, I am very disappointed with you."

"I know it wrong!" Song decided to hold the fist.

This battle of the dynasty was originally to crush the Tang Dynasty, but the Great Song Dynasty was lost because of him.

"You have to keep in mind this lesson, but it's okay. That Tang Tian is a mud that can't help the wall. Even if you are held back, he will not be a climate, or lose." Song Cheng said slowly.

what?

When I heard this, Ye Xuan was shocked.

How was the Datang Dynasty lost?

"Where is the trough, what is this all about? Is the old nest discovered?" Ye Xuan was extremely surprised.

Then, the old man continued: "The kid, I heard that the magic array is laid by you, the effect is not bad. Unfortunately, when someone went out to breathe, they were discovered and exposed the caves at the time of death."

Ye Xuan is already shocked and can't speak.

Those caves are large enough for more than a hundred people to move, but there are still people who go out to breathe. The most important thing is that after being discovered, he even said everything.

If you die, you can't let other people live. This exercise is really broken.

This is not important. What is important is that he refused the temptation of the Song Dynasty.

If he knew that he would lose, he would put the Song Dynasty, at least he could take 10,000 pieces of crystal spar, and he could directly break through to the middle of the real world.

"Ugh."

Ye Xuan shook his head helplessly, this is life.

The old man saw Ye Xuan's expression and said: "Boy, I am very optimistic about you, but unfortunately you are the Tang Dynasty dynasty camp, it is the failure party, otherwise I will definitely leave you a place."

Although Ye Xuan is the enemy of the Song ruling, it is only once. Now that the war of the dynasty has ended, this is already a past tense, and the Song Dynasty has nothing to do, and he will not continue to pursue it.

"Grandpa, what do you say, this **** almost poisoned me." Song Tanjing said very dissatisfied.

"On the matter, I haven't said you yet. It's so easy to get into the enemy's strategy." The old man looked at Song Congjing.

Song Chongjing also said that he did not speak. This is really her reason. Fortunately, the Song Dynasty still won, otherwise she will die.

"Okay, come up."

Song Cheng said.

Ye Xuan three people jumped on the line of Ling Dapeng, and then, Ling Xiao Dapeng spent more than two hours, came to the mouth of the valley.

At this point, there are already hundreds of people gathered here.

Ye Xuan roughly estimated that there are not many people in the Great Song Dynasty, and it is also a hundred people. In the Datang Dynasty, there were only over forty people left, and it was because of this that the assessment was over.

Ling Xiao Dapeng slowly fell, Ye Xuan three people jumped to the ground, and instantly became the focus.

After seeing the Song ruling, Tang Tian, who lost his arm, suddenly showed a fierce grace.

Mo asked to breathe a sigh of relief after seeing Ye Xuan still alive.

After Yang Tai saw Song City, it was also a big voice: "Well, the second war ended here, and the victory was for the Song Dynasty."

"The Great Song Dynasty won two games in a row, and ten people will enter the House of Heaven. The rest will also be assigned to the Xuanzhi House and the Yellow House."

"The Tang Dynasty dynasty defeated first, and there were 20 places to enter the capital of the land. The rest of the people can also enter the Yellow House."

Next, those who protect the law and report their optimistic people. Mo asked to report Ye Xuan's name.

On the other side of the Great Song Dynasty, apart from the Song ruling and the Song Dynasty, there are five true elements, and the remaining three places are naturally in the middle of the real world.

In the Datang Dynasty, apart from Tang Tian and Ye Xuan, there were only two warriors who were in the realm of the Yuan Dynasty. As for the rest, they were all in the middle of the real world.

However, at this time, Song Chongjing suddenly said to Song Chengdao: "Grandpa, I am not going to the Heavenly House, I am going to the land of the government."

"what?"

Song City was shocked: "You have already won, what do you still go to the government of the land?"

"Little girl, what are you doing?" Song ruling is also puzzled.

He could have directly entered the Tianzhifu, in order to participate in the assessment for the Song Dynasty to enter the Tianzhifu with him.

But now, the Song Dynasty has taken the initiative to propose a place to go to the land.

"Grandpa, the pressure of the Heavenly House is too great. It is the peak of the real Xuanjing. The brother is already the peak of the real Xuanjing. You can keep up with it. But when I enter the real place, I am afraid I will be swept out soon. It was very embarrassing at the time. So, I think it is better to go to the land." Song explained.

"It's really noisy, how many people dream of entering the heavenly palace, but you want to quit, it is simply despising the authority of Lingxiaofu." Songcheng directly blows his beard.

"Grandpa, you just said that my experience is seriously inadequate. If this is the case, then I will give up the Lingxiao House and go outside to travel..."

The Song Dynasty directly began to threaten.

"you....."

Song City was so angry that he couldn't speak.

"Sister, are you serious?" Song ruling suddenly thought of something, asked.

"Well, I don't go to the government of the land, I will not enter the Lingxiao government." Song Zongjing solemnly said.

"it is good."

Song ruling nodded and turned his head: "Grandpa, let her go."

In fact, Song Cheng also knows how much pressure is in the house of heaven.

In the Tianzhifu of Lingxiaofu, there are no newcomers to join in recent years. All the younger disciples are in the house, and they are almost all peaks.

Almost all of these people are retreating in their homes all day long and desperately attacking the gods.

If the Song Dynasty is going in, I am afraid that it will not last long, not because it has been eliminated, but no one is talking with her.

The local government is not the same. The people of the land palace are much more than the heavenly palace, and they can also exchange ideas and go out to practice. The atmosphere is much better than the heavenly palace.

After thinking about it for a while, Songcheng nodded and said, "Okay, but after you have arrived at the government of the land, you can't relax, you know?"

"Thank you grandfather." Song Chong quickly nodded.

He is the chief examiner of the Great Song Dynasty camp, and has the power to decide who is going to heaven. Just say it to Yang Tai.

After obtaining the consent, the Song ruling also looked helplessly at the Song Dynasty. He naturally guessed the idea of the Song Dynasty, and whispered: "Sister, after entering the land, don't make trouble."
