Chapter 191: Shenzhou Alliance

Tang Tian?

What is it?

"You break your own arm, this thing is done!" Tang Tian's tone is extremely cold.

"His Royal Highness, you are a naked revenge mentality, you broke your own arm, obviously I have to break my arm, my heart is really narrow." Ye Xuan did not agree.

However, his voice has not yet fallen, and Jiang Xian in the crowd ran up and hugged his fist: "His Royal Highness, this arm, I am willing to take it for him..."

"Shut up, I let you talk?" Tang Tian did not wait for Jiang Xian to finish, just angered.

This time, Ye Xuan is finally changing his face.

"Tang Tian, if you want my arm, then you have to see that you are not qualified enough. Don't think that you are a prince, you are superior, not everyone, afraid of you!"

Ye Xuan said, but also looked around a circle, at this time there are already a lot of masters around, are the people of the Tang Dynasty, at least three real Xuanjing medium.

But he is also not easy to provoke. Immediately, he used a forging material in the swallowing space to create a new pair of gloves and then put it on in public.

Shangpinlings, breaking the wilderness!

Only when he used the Chinese spirit, now he is the top quality. He would like to see how many people in the room can block him.

The two sides were arrogant and the atmosphere was extremely tense. The two hundred people were holding their breath and did not dare to make any noise.

Maybe, this battle will be played because of one of their voices.

At this moment, suddenly another figure came out, and at the same time a loud laughter sounded: "Ha ha ha, it is so lively here."

Who?

Who dares to speak out in this situation?

Everyone's eyes were a move, and finally fell on a young man wearing a costume of the land.

"Who are you?" Tang Tian looked at the young man and asked.

Those who can be so calm at this time are definitely not ordinary people.

However, Ye Xuan is to know this young man.

"His Royal Highness, he is called Jiang You, the first in the list of the land, and also a master of the China Alliance." Tang Meng whispered.

China Alliance?

Tang Tianwen's words were also a surprise. What did the people of the Shenzhou Alliance do?

Although the four kingdoms of the Eastern Region have sent people to Lingxiao House every year, there are not many places. In these years, the number of people is only 100, and they are also scattered throughout the three houses.

The Shenzhou Alliance, there are hundreds of people in Xuanzhi House alone. I am afraid that only the four major dynasties will unite to compete with the China Alliance.

Moreover, in addition to the ally and the vice-president, the Shenzhou Alliance has only four owners. In other words, the current Jiangyou, the identity is even higher than Tang Tian.

"This brother, is there anything?" Tang Tian asked friendlyly.

"Nothing, just saw a friend here, so come and say hello." Jiangyou slowly came, smiled and said.

"friend?"

Tang Tian once again saw it, but when he saw Jiang You's going to Ye Xuanfang, his face was already sinking to the bottom.

Ye Xuan, how would you know Jiangyou?

No, how does Jiangyou know Ye Xuan?

"Ye Xuan, these days you have worked hard, how can you not rest well, run Xuanzhifu?" Jiangyou smiled and approached.

"Looking for two friends, how can you be here?" Ye Xuan also asked somewhat strangely.

"Oh, the materials are used up, so I borrowed some from the weapons hall of Xuanzhifu."

Jiang You smiled and then he turned his eyes on Zhao Pan and Jiang Xian. "Since it is a friend of Ye Xuan, then it is my friend of Jiangyou, Tang Meng, who handed them over last month. Give them money, and they won't pay in the future."

Tang Meng took a look at Tang Tian, the latter hesitated, and nodded slightly.

Then, Tang Meng took out two bags from the Qiankun ring, each bag of five thousand pieces of spar, equivalent to fifty medium-quality spar.

These spar were given to Zhao Pan by Ye Xuan. He did not expect that Xuan Zhifu actually had this rule.

"Well, this is a misunderstanding, and it's all gone." Jiang You said, he left with Ye Xuan directly.

And Tang Tian, his face is standing in a gloomy position.

The prince of his Tang Dynasty, in front of this Jiangyou, could not even put a fart.

The group of new disciples also looked at Zhao Pan and Jiang Xian enviously, and Jiang Youfang said, they can hear clearly.

In the future, Zhao Pan and Jiang Xian are in Xuanzhifu. I am afraid that no one dares to find him trouble, even Tang Tian does not dare.

Jiang You took Ye Xuan to leave, and after they disappeared into the sight of Tang Tian and others, Ye Xuan was thankful: "Jiang Shixiong, thank you today."

If Fang is fighting, he is not afraid, but Zhao Pan and Jiang Xian may not be able to stay in Xuanzhi in the future.

But it is different now.

Fang Xuan's whisper, Ye Xuan also heard it. Now he also understands that Jiangyou is a member of the China Alliance and is still a master.

Although he did not know what position the head of the church is, but looking at Tang Tianlian's fart, he did not dare to put it in a look. Jiangyou is not an ordinary person.

"Thank you for helping the brothers!" Zhao Pan and Jiang Xian are also grateful.

"No matter, the brothers and sisters should take care of each other. The weapons hall of Xuanzhifu seems to be a faulty person. If you are interested, you can go there and fight." Jiangyou said with a smile.

"Thank you brother."

Zhao Pan and the two people thanked again.

Being able to do things in Lingxiao, the identity will definitely be higher than the average disciple, even if there is no pay, there will be a lot of people rushing in. And the two of them have the opportunity, because Ye Xuan knows Jiangyou.

At the moment, Jiangyou went directly to the weapons hall of Xuanzhifu, and arranged a position for Zhaopan. In this way, Zhao Pan and Jiang Xian were added to the Alliance of China.

Then, Jiang You is going to do his job, and Ye Xuan and Zhao Pan have gathered together for a while, and handed them the martial arts.

With these four middle-class martial arts, Zhao Pan and two people are very hopeful to stabilize in Xuanzhi House within one year.

At the same time, Ye Xuan also secretly thought in his heart, and when he was, he would create a fiery sword for the two, so that he could get ten.

After a while, Jiangyou was busy, and then returned to the land with Ye Xuan.

On the road.

"Ye Xuan, this time I took ten forging materials of Shangpinling, and then I have to work harder." Jiangyou said with a smile.

"No problem." Ye Xuan casually agreed.

Now, he has already broken through to the middle of the real world, and then he will build a fire sword, and he can also reduce the time appropriately.

At this moment, Jiang You's face suddenly condensed and said: "Yes, Ye Xuan, the girl who came with you before, is the princess of the Great Song Dynasty?"
