Chapter 193: Business

"Well, everyone comes one by one. All the Song Dynasty dynasties are five hundred crystals. If it is the China Alliance, as long as three hundred. As for the other seven hundred hundred crystals, one by one!"

Ye Xuan said with a slap in the face, laughing at the mouth, there are at least forty or fifty people here, it is really profiteering!

After the Song Dynasty heard this, it was also a glimpse, saying: "You joined the Alliance of China?"

"Yeah, now is the guest of the Shenzhou Alliance." Ye Xuan replied casually.

"Why are you joining them? Who invited you?" Song Congjing said with some anger that she originally wanted to invite Ye Xuan, but she did not expect to be the first to be picked up.

"Jiang Shixiong of the Armory Hall, he is the owner of the China Alliance. How come, do you want to draw me?" Ye Xuan suddenly asked.

The Song Dynasty was also unthinkable. He was surprised: "Jiang Shixiong is the owner of the China Alliance? What conditions does he give you?"

"You can learn all the spiritual martial arts in the Shenzhou Alliance, plus forging materials are all free." Ye Xuan said in a voice that only the Song Dynasty can hear.

Hearing the words, the Song Dynasty was also a blindfold, but he said: "Is this you bought it? Can you forge the top-grade spirit, and still lack the cost of the forged material?"

"Otherwise? I asked you to teach me the spirit of martial arts before, you still refused, and the China Alliance is the first to invite me, and is the head of the five forces, why should I not go?" Ye Xuan shrugged Shrug.

"Then I invite you now?" Song Congjing squinted his eyes and looked like a playful look.

"No, I have joined the Alliance of China. Do you think that I am the kind of wall grass? I want to increase the price!" Ye Xuan said with a dignified face.

When the Song Dynasty heard this, his eyes immediately lit up: "What do you want?"

Ye Xuan thought carefully and then smiled: "I want you to do it?"

"Go to death!"

Song Cong Jing slammed and went straight back to the house.

Ye Xuan is just a joke. How can he be a woman because of his temperament?

At least two!

Then, he began to greet the masters. These people are almost all of the Song Dynasty. Only a few of them are the Alliance of China. The other three dynasties are also because of the relationship between the Song Dynasty and the Bible.

After all, the relationship between the four dynasties is not very good!

Finally, Ye Xuan also counted a total of forty-four people. Among them, forty people are from the Great Song Dynasty, and four are from the China Alliance.

Therefore, the total income is a total of 22,200 medium-sized spar!

After receiving these spar, Ye Xuan was all Sparta. However, he does not like to owe to others. Immediately, he goes from house to house.

It is a pity that the Lingxiao House is a two-person hospital, otherwise his income can double.

After spending a few hours, he finally finished the matter. After the end, he returned to the yard and then swallowed those spar.

"Ah, it's a step closer to the peak of the real Xuanjing!"

Ye Xuan is very happy, because his engulfing points have reached 300 million.

The land of the land alone has such a large profit. If you add the Xuanhuang two houses, then is it not profitable?

Just as Ye Xuan was laughing and laughing in the courtyard, the door of Song Dianjing was suddenly opened.

Song Dianjing changed his cool clothes and came out. When he saw Ye Xuan coming back, he couldn't help but say: "Are you ready to be so fast?"

"Gathering the spiritual array, only a small meaning." Ye Xuan casually replied.

"Then you are not happy to thank me? I have helped you so many people, otherwise there are so many spar to earn you." Song Tingjing said, is to go to the edge of Ye Xuan to sit down.

Ye Xuan turned his eyes and said: "If I don't live here, I am afraid there will be more people coming. Your relationship with the four dynasties is not good. The relationship between the Shenzhou Alliance and the four dynasties is normal. The spar will certainly be several times better."

"Then what you mean, I want to move out?" Song Congjing's face sank.

"Forget it, live and live." Ye Xuan still felt that it was over, he paused, and finally turned around and asked: "Have you ever heard of a person named Lin Wenyue?"

"Lin Wen Yue? Is it in the Lingxiao House? Is it a disciple or a law-protector, or an elder?" Song Zongjing blinked.

"I don't know, but it should be the level of protection. In short, there are people who ask for this name to help me ask, just give me a favor." Ye Xuan said slowly.

Lin Wen Yue is a name mentioned in his father's letter.

His father is a super-powerful person who is detached from the gods. He should not let him go to find a disciple, so he believes that this Lin Wen Yue should at least be a law-protector or an elder. After all, the letter has been for several years.

"Okay, then I will ask you for help." Song Congjing nodded.

"If you can, help me ask your grandfather." Ye Xuan added another sentence.

Songcheng is the elder of Lingxiao House, knowing more than the average person.

"understood."

Nothing in the night.

Ye Xuan went east and west yesterday, and it was indeed a little tired. However, the next day when the genius just dawned, one person began to knock on the door of their yard.

Ye Xuan opened the door in a confused way. I saw Jiang You, who was standing outside the door. I was surprised to ask: "What is the brother?"

It's hard to be done. The ten swords that were forged before were sold out?

"I heard that the younger brother will still gather in the spirits?" Jiangyou opened the door and asked.

"Well, brother, do you need it?" Ye Xuan licked his eyes and nodded.

"Need, it is too much, we have less Lingfu faculty, and there is no one in the lining. The brothers in the China Alliance can need to gather together. If you agree, I will at least bring you two." Hundreds of people." Jiang You said with a shock.

"What? Two hundred people?" Ye Xuan was shocked.

"Yes, two hundred people. This way, according to the price you gave to the four younger brothers yesterday, three hundred crystals, how about?" Jiangyou continued to ask.

"No problem!" Ye Xuan and Ma agreed.

Lying in a slot!

One hundred and three fine crystal spar, at least two hundred people, isn't that at least 60,000 medium-sized spar?

"As long as I finish this order, I will be able to break through to the peak of the real Xuanjing. I really feel excited when I think about it."

Ye Xuan is excited.

"Okay, then I will go first, and I will come back to you later." After Jiang You finished, he quickly left.

If this gathering is completed, it will not take long for the entire Shenzhou Alliance to improve its rank.

Then, Ye Xuan is waiting for Jiangyou to echo in his residence.

At noon, Jiangyou was once again looking for it.

"Teacher, there are hundreds of teachers and brothers in my house that need this gathering, these are spar!"

Jiangyou directly lost a bag of spar to Ye Xuan. The latter opened it and looked at it. It was not a deposit, but a full number.

At least 30,000 medium crystal spar!
