Chapter 204: Ran away?

"How silly you are, how many people are defeating them, it is enough, why should we continue to challenge the half-step Dan Yuanjing..."

Seeing the death of Ye Xuan, the Song Dynasty can not help but cry out directly on Ye Xuan.

The people around him are also drunk, and the princess of a dynasty, even the public is crying on a man. What is this system?

However, they also consciously started at the beginning, pretending not to see.

"What are you talking about? I didn't swear that Tang Yaoguang again. If it wasn't for the old man suddenly coming out, how could I become like this." Ye Xuan said helplessly, he wanted to take some oil, but the whole body The meridians have just been connected, and they cannot move.

"If you don't challenge him, you won't have this kind of thing." Song Congjing looked up, and the small face of the pear blossoms with rain, they almost gave Ye Xuan's heart to cry.

"That can't be done, this hatred will not be reported, it will always be in my heart, and it will become a hindrance to my cultivation, so I must break it." Ye Xuan is also a reason to sing, what cultivation, he is completely devour things Growing up, cultivation has nothing to do with him.

Just when the voice fell, Jiangyou, who went out to chase Tang's, suddenly came back, but he was alone.

After returning, he immediately walked to Ye Xuan and looked at the injury.

"You have two elders in the Tang Dynasty, and you have only suffered this injury?" Jiang You asked very strangely.

"Eat a life-saving medicinal herb, or it will be miserable." Ye Xuan opened his mouth and smiled and asked: "What about the old man?"

"The elders of Song went to chase, I can't catch up, so I came back. You can rest assured that the younger brother, Ling Xiaofu will definitely give you a fair." Jiang Youdao.

"The old man was the Emperor of the Tang Dynasty, and the only * in the Tang Dynasty was really a solution to my hatred." Ye Xuan casually said, if he can, he would like to personally return Tang Xium Palm.

"Well, I will lift you back to cultivate." Jiang You said nothing, directly looking for a stretcher, and then sent Ye Xuan back to the yard.

But after he sent it, he suddenly found out that Ye Xuan's room was already a mess, and there was a scarlet 'dead' on the wall.

"This Tang Tian is really against it."

Jiang You personally picked up the garbage in Ye Xuanli, and then changed a large ice cube to put Ye Xuan on it.

The Song Dynasty, on the side of "Millennium Ice?", exclaimed.

"Well, this can help restore with the younger brother, this injury, at least have to rest for a month." Jiang You nodded.

"Thank you brother." Ye Xuan lay on this ice bed, grinning and smiling.

He felt that the ice bed underneath was still good, and it really improved his recovery speed. He estimates that it does not take a month, as long as ten days.

Subsequently, Jiangyou was left. He still had to do something important, and he reported it to Lingxiao. The Song Dynasty, is left to take care of Ye Xuan.

However, what surprised the Song Dynasty was that, in less than half a day, Ye Xuan's injury was a lot of recovery, and even the arms that had just been abolished could actually move.

"How is this possible, this is only a long time..." Song Congjing looked surprised.

"All said that it is a life-saving remedy, worthless." Ye Xuan said faintly, but his heart was already shocked to the sky.

For a long time, he felt that his injuries were better than half.

He has intermediate * veins in his body, plus a medicinal herb that has been purchased for 300 million swallowing points, and the ice bed underneath, all of which can improve his recovery speed.

However, the most effective is the remedy.

"The loss was lost. I accidentally bought expensive medicinal herbs and wasted 200 million." Ye Xuan was very bitter, but the situation was urgent. He could have no time to think about it, so he used the remaining engulfing points to redeem. The best remedy that can be exchanged.

Seeing that Ye Xuan was able to move, Song Dianjing also breathed a sigh of relief and said: "The dan drug must have been left by the predecessor?"

"Not bad."

Ye Xuan nodded. He knew that Song Chongjing believed that his medicinal medicine was obtained together with the local-level refining exercises, so he did not explain much.

After a while, his body can move.

"The day of the fragrant life is also amazing, not only to restore my injuries, but also to ruin the aftermath of the blast, as long as I rest for another night, I will be able to return to the peak..."

Ye Xuan quickly felt it and found that the surprise was more than that.

At this time, his body, Xuanqi is much stronger than before, he has just broken through, and now it has reached the limit, what is going on?

"Is it the effect of Tianxiang's life-saving pills? No, it's impossible, the medicinal herbs have not seen hidden attributes..."

He quickly thought about it for a moment, and finally attributed this surprise to the mid-level flower.

As long as you are seriously injured, the strength will increase after recovery, which may be the hidden effect of the intermediate flower.

"Haha, it's really big, this time, no loss!"

Ye Xuan is very surprised, this time not only does not lose, but also earns a lot!

"Ye Xuan, your realm... How can it be restored?" Song Zongjing on the side could not help but ask.

Only when she realized that Ye Xuan's meridians were broken, Xuanqi began to dissipate. Later, Xuanqi slowly took it back, and the meridians were all connected.

However, at the time, she felt that the strength of Ye Xuan was only the peak of the real world. However, now, it has recovered and is stronger than before.

"Oh, the effect of the remedy." Ye Xuan replied casually.

"Fortunately, you have this kind of god, or you will be ruined in this life." Song Tanjing also felt incredible.

Just then, there was a sudden footstep outside the hospital, and then two people came in.

"grandfather."

The Song Dynasty turned around and found that it was Song City, and immediately shouted.

The other person is the first in the list of Jiangyou.

Song Cheng walked in quickly and asked in an unbelievable question: "How could it be that before your body meridians were interrupted by Tang Xun, how could it be half a day..."

Ye Xuan didn't want to talk more about this topic. Immediately he asked: "Predecessors, what about the old man?"

"The old guy suddenly used a kind of martial arts, the speed soared, I couldn't chase him, and he fled into the 100,000 mountains outside Lingxiao." Songcheng shook his head helplessly and continued: "But Jiang You has already reported his head, and a team of elders went out to arrest him."

"Is it escaped?" Ye Xuan felt a heart, and it was not a good sign.

Tang Xun is a godland, and he has been able to cross the East. If he is remembered, he will be in danger at any time.
