Chapter 205: Lingxiaofu elder

However, Tang Xun relied on his legs, and those elders who went out to arrest him could drive the Dapeng, and he should be able to catch him.

"This matter is not mentioned for the time being, as long as you are fine, how did you recover?" Song Chengdao.

"Hey, the boy had been practicing outside before, and he accidentally got the inheritance of a predecessor. He also got a life-saving remedy. Otherwise, I may become a waste person this time, and I may lose my life." Ye Xuan answered Road.

In his opinion, it would not be too much punishment if Tang Tang was arrested, because he was already recovering.

Therefore, he must increase the charges of Tang Xun, so that Tang Xun could not eat and walk.

"In such a short period of time, I received the meridians, and the injury was better than half. It seems that this drug is unusual. But you can rest assured that Tang Teng is dead this time, at least it will be abolished." Song Chengdao.

"at least?"

Ye Xuan was shocked, that Tang Xun is also an elder, saying that waste is a waste?

At this time, he suddenly thought of a possibility.

"Predecessors, before..."

Ye Xuan asked.

But before he finished, he was interrupted by Song Cheng: "I will ask you first, how did you know the name?"

The two thought of one piece.

Upon hearing this, Ye Xuan directly replied: "This is mentioned in a letter left by my father. Let me come to Lingxiao House to find her."

"father?"

Song Cheng paused, and suddenly both eyes suddenly shouted, saying: "What is your father's name?"

"Ye Chong!"

Ye Xuan answered subconsciously.

"what?"

Two people exclaimed.

One person is Songcheng, and the other is Jiangyou.

"Ye Chong, isn't this super genius who took the first place in Tianfu's house when he entered Lingxiaofu more than ten years ago?"

Jiang You's eyes widened.

This super genius is actually the father of Ye Xuan?

"You are also surnamed Ye, I didn't expect you to be his son!" Song Cheng said with a shocked face.

The name of Ye is still quite common. There are dozens of disciples in Lingxiao.

Unexpectedly, Ye Xuan was actually associated with Ye Chong.

"Uh....."

Ye Xuan did not think that he thought that Ye Chong was only an elder of Lingxiaofu. He did not expect Ye Chong to be a disciple of Lingxiaofu.

"Where is Ye Chong now?" Song Cheng continued to ask.

"I am not very clear about this. My father has been away from home for many years, and he has broken the shackles of the gods and detached the gods. He left a letter and asked me to come to Lingxiaofu to find someone." Ye Xuan answered honestly.

"what?"

When the words came out, all the three people in the room were shocked.

"Beyond the gods, he has already broken through to the four gods..." Song Cheng opened his mouth.

He is the warrior of God Dan, how can you not understand what it means?

Shen Dan is divided into three major realms, divided into Ren Dan, Di Dan, and Tian Dan. These three realms are subdivided into first entry, small success, and great success. That is to say, there are nine levels in Shen Dan.

Although there are only nine peaks in the real spirits to the true Xuanjing, the difficulty of the nine levels of Shen Dan is 100 times larger.

Song City is just a human being. It is said that the head of Lingxiao House is just a land of Dan.

Ye Xuan, the father of Ye Xuan, has long since broken the shackles of the Tiandan, and has become a superpower of the gods.

"The gods are in the four realms. This is the realm behind the gods. It sounds like a good cow." Ye Xuan said secretly.

"Ye Xuan, are you sure that your father has been detached from the gods?" Song Cheng could not believe it.

"Yes, my letter was written eight years ago. At that time, he was already out of the world." Ye Xuan nodded.

Song City swallowed and swallowed, "I was already a * of the world eight years ago, now..."

He didn't dare to think again.

Song Chongjing and Jiang You have also admired the five-body cast. They all know that Ye Xuan is from a low-level empire. Unexpectedly, this low-level empire has a genius that is even stronger than the head of Lingxiao.

The most important thing is that this genius is still the father of Ye Xuan!

"Predecessors, this Lin Wenye is..." Ye Xuan asked curiously.

"Lin Wenye, no, now should be called Lin Si, she is the daughter of the head, the elders of Lingxiao House." Song Cheng replied.

"The daughter of the head?"

Ye Xuan was stunned again.

"I may also tell you that she was your father's sister and also like your father. However, your father only used her as a sister. After your father left Lingxiao, she began to retreat. Out." Song Cheng sighed.

Ye Xuan three people have nothing to say.

Unexpectedly, there was such a thing in the past.

"The father also asked me to go to her, what if she slaughtered me?" Ye Xuan shuddered.

However, Lin Wen Yue may have known where Ye Chong went.

"Predecessors, then can I see her?" Ye Xuan asked.

"I don't know this. She has been retiring for more than ten years. I haven't even seen the head several times. I don't know if you are..."

Song Cheng was also inaccurate. After all, Ye Xuan was the son of Ye Chong, but he paused and said: "However, there is some contradiction between the head and your father, so the head does not allow you to see the elders..."

"contradiction?"

Ye Xuan's eyes looked like he was in big trouble.

"But, the head also said, if you can enter the top ten of the day, he may let you see the elders." Song Cheng said.

"The top ten in the list of days?"

Ye Xuan took a breath of cold air, and he did not even enter the top ten of the list.

"Predecessors, I am now a disciple of the government of the land, how can we get into the heavenly palace?" Ye Xuan asked.

"As long as you hit the top five in the list, you are qualified to challenge the people on the list of the day. In addition, there are only one hundred people in the list of days." Jiang You explained.

Ye Xuan thought for a moment.

Now he is in the top 20 of the list of the land. As long as you work harder, you can break through to the half-step Dan Yuan and then enter the top ten.

Although the list of days is only one hundred people, but it is impossible for each to be a half-step Danyuan, so it is not difficult to enter the list of days.

Difficult, is to squeeze into the top five of the list of heaven!

He estimated that the top five of the list of days is estimated to be a super genius in the gods, so this is still somewhat difficult.

"Ye Xuan, I see that you are blessed in this disaster. Xuanqi is already at the extreme. I have several prefecture-level exercises here. You should take it first and practice it. I will give you back." Jiangyou took out a few This cheat is coming.

Ye Xuan took it up and said: "Brother, the forged material, please help me get more."

"What? You are still not hurt, you want to forge?" Jiang You exclaimed.

"Nothing, I have a rest for a night, and I will be able to return to the peak tomorrow. And, I am especially short of money..." Ye Xuan answered honestly.
