Chapter 207: Heavenly House

After Song City left, Ye Xuan did not go straight back, but went to another place in the local government.

Refining pharmacy!

The refining pharmacy of the local government was just opened by the people of the China Alliance. This time, Ye Xuan directly purchased a lot of raw materials.

Forging materials are relatively small, and this time he directly refines a hundred fire swords, so the material may have to wait for a while.

Now he needs a lot of spar, so this time, he wants to make alchemy.

Moreover, it is necessary to refine a very special remedy.

Six yuan Dan!

This six-yuan Dan, but can directly let the military condense out Dan Yuan, you can concise Dan Yuan without hard work to cultivate the level-level exercises.

If this kind of medicinal medicine is promoted, it will definitely be in short supply!

It is a pity that the Danfang of the six-yuan Dan is extremely expensive, and Ye Xuan has spent 800 million to swallow the points. Fortunately, he still has 100 million engulfing points, and 10,000 pieces of medium crystal spar to purchase raw materials.

There are also very few materials for this six-yuandan. The refining pharmacy only prepared two copies, and it also cost 10,000 pieces of medium-sized spar.

After adding two more materials in his hand, Ye Xuan directly exchanged Dan Fang, and then spent another 100 million engulfing points and refining two six-yuan Dan.

"The potholes, there is no more than a dime on the body, and I am exhausted." Ye Xuan said helplessly in the heart, and then walked in the direction of the weapons hall.

When I came to the Armory Hall, Ye Xuan just saw Jiang You at the door.

"Ye Xuan, how come you are back, what is falling in the forging room?" Jiang You asked strangely.

"Senior brother, I have something to discuss with you here." Ye Xuan said.

"Oh? What?" Jiangyou continued to ask.

Ye Xuan is also more nonsense, directly took out the two six-yuan Dan, said: "Sister, this is the two remedies I have refined before, look at it."

"What, the younger brother, will you refine the medicinal herbs?" Jiang You exclaimed and took the medicinal herbs and looked at it again. "A good aura, what kind of remedy is this, what effect?"

"Six yuan Dan, after refining and chemical power will form Dan Yuan, but only the talents of the real Xuanjing peak." Ye Xuan said simply.

boom!

This sentence, like the nine-day * thunder, hit the head of Jiang You, and instantly smashed him.

"you sure?"

Jiang Youyi can't believe it.

"Well, brother, you can find someone to experiment." Ye Xuan nodded.

Jiang You is still a bit embarrassed. He hasn't heard of this kind of remedy yet, but he looked at Ye Xuan's dignified expression and chose to believe.

After all, Ye Xuan has forged three hundred swords in three days, which is already a miracle.

"Well, you come with me." Jiang You nodded.

Then, Ye Xuan is following the river tour and moving in one direction.

Ye Xuan was very surprised, because this road was not to Xuanzhifu, nor to Huangzhifu. That being said, it is to go to the heavenly palace.

Tianzhifu is the core of Lingxiaofu, and not the average person is qualified to pass.

The speed of the two is very fast. After the breakthrough of the half-step Danyuan, Ye Xuan has improved a lot. This is also an surprise for Jiang You.

He has a faint feeling that if Ye Xuan breaks through to the gods, I am afraid that even he is not an opponent of Ye Xuan.

Two hours later, Ye Xuan also saw an unusual place, a mountain with a pattern of enemies.

"There is a big gathering in the underground of Tianzhifu. This is laid by the ancestors of Lingxiaofu. Later, there is a power to lay a lockup array, and lock the aura to the heavenly palace, so that it can be passed down all the year round." Jiang You explained to Ye Xuan.

"The ability to lay such a large gathering of the spirits, the strength must be very unusual, and the spar consumed by this base every day is definitely an astronomical number." Ye Xuan exclaimed.

The array he had given to others before, he needed two pieces of spar every day. However, the Tianzhifu is so large that the daily consumption is at least calculated by using the spar.

"I don't know about it. Anyway, it is very big. Right, then I am going to find the vice-president of the China Alliance." Jiang You said.

Deputy leader?

Ye Xuan was shocked, the deputy leader of the China Alliance?

Is that at least a godland?

Thinking of this, Ye Xuan suddenly had a strong pressure. Tianzhifu is a true genius gathering place. Although his qualifications are not weaker than others, he can only work harder in losing his age.

The two rushed all the way into the heavenly palace.

The Tianzhifu is relatively small compared to other Sanfu, but there are more than one hundred people living here. In addition to the hundred people in the Tianzhibang, there are also geniuses of the new income Tianzhifu.

"A good and powerful world is three times more abundant than my yard. It is a kind of enjoyment to live here." Ye Xuan said in the dark.

Although he did not rely on heaven and earth to cultivate, but after entering the heavenly palace, the whole person was refreshed.

"Brother, since you are already a god, why not rise to the heavenly palace?" Ye Xuan asked as he followed.

Jiang You heard the words, but also smiled lightly: "Oh, don't look at me as a god, but I also condensed Dan Yuan at the age of twenty-five, and then merged with a mysterious benefactor. Didan, so simply do not cultivate, help manage the affairs of the China Alliance."

"But brothers, you can break through to the gods, it is already very powerful." Ye Xuandao.

"What awesome, the brothers in the Heavenly House are called powerful. For example, our lord has already broken through to the land of Dan, and the head has already made a commitment. In a few years, the ally will take over."

Jiang You said, laughing again: "Yes, our lord is the first in the list of the day, but the lord went back to Zhongzhou last year and has not returned yet."

"The first place in the day, the land of Dan..." Ye Xuan was a bit stunned. He had guessed that the ally of the China Alliance was not an ordinary person. Now I heard this, and I thought so.

Tianzhifu has strict management, and other people in the three prefectures cannot enter if they have nothing to do. However, under the leadership of Jiang You, Ye Xuan directly entered the place where the disciples of Tianzhifu lived.

Looking at this deserted street, where there is no life, Ye Xuan can understand why the Song Dynasty has not entered the heavens.

The disciples of Tianzhifu are all retreating, there is no one on the street, and the temples of the heavens are almost all of the people of the Chinese Union. Only a small number of scattered people without any influence. If the Song Dynasty is coming in, it can only I talked to the Song ruling.

Unconsciously, Ye Xuan also followed Jiang You to an ordinary mansion.

"Go, go in with me."

Jiang You walked in with Ye Xuan, but there was no one in the yard.

"Big Brother, are you there?" Jiang You shouted at a house.

Ye Xuan also released the ultrasonic probe to find out that there is indeed one person inside.
