Chapter 210: Make a fortune!

After returning to the land, Ye Xuan went straight home and closed the door.

The hundred best spar, all swallowed by him, originally only tens of thousands of devours of Ye Xuan, and suddenly got a lot of swallowing points, a full 10 billion.

"One billion engulfing points, hahahaha, it's really big!"

Ye Xuan laughed three times.

Before he had been desperate for so long, the total amount of points he got did not exceed 5 billion, but now it is directly worth 10 billion, which is so cool.

Now, he is also enough to buy a map of the land, but since the material has not arrived, so he put it first, not for the time being.

However, his face quickly sank, because this hundred pieces of the best spar, he added some of his Dan Yuan, far from the gods.

"This is a money-sending system, but every time you upgrade, you have a lot of new things. Let me see..."

Ye Xuan immersed his mind in the phagocytic system. Now he is also a local tyrant, and he started to buy it.

However, at this time, there was a sudden footstep outside the door.

"Ye Xuan, what are you doing inside, laughing so exaggerated."

The sound of the Song Dynasty was sounded.

Ye Xuan walked over to open the door, and it was indeed the Song Dynasty that stood outside the door, but only looked at it with strange eyes.

"Nothing, suddenly I found some good things."

Ye Xuan casually said, it was taken out a small jade, handed to the Song Dynasty, said: "This thing for you."

"Where are you? It looks so ugly, there is no shape at all, how can girls wear such things? And, why are you sending me something?" Song Congjing wondered.

"This is a meditation, it can resist the demons, and it can also improve the speed of cultivation. When you practice, you can wear it on your hands. Who will let you wear your neck?" Ye Xuan turned his eyes, this kind of auxiliary cultivation, as long as Just use it and see what he looks like.

You know, this little jade, but spent 100 million engulfing points.

"Improve the speed of cultivation?" After the Song Dynasty was heard, the eyes were bright. She had felt tremendous pressure from Ye Xuan. If she didn't try harder, I would probably be opened by Ye Xuan.

She grabbed Yu Pei over, but after thinking about it, she asked: "Why are you sending me something?"

"Do you need a reason to send a beautiful girl?" Ye Xuan asked.

After the Song Dynasty was heard, there was a dark ecstasy in his heart. He said: "It has become a slick tongue recently."

"This is much more than the princess's predecessor." Ye Xuan smiled. "Right, open the door, I will give you a polyphony."

"Why should we re-lay it?" Song Chongjing is very puzzled.

The poly-matrix in her room already has a base, and as long as two medium-sized spar is placed, it can run for a day.

"I broke through in the formation, and now I am giving you a better gathering of the spirits. If you want to, don't let me go." Ye Xuandao.

"Yes, want!" Song Chong quickly opened the door.

Ye Xuan walked in. Within ten minutes, he came out.

"Okay, the effect has doubled, but only in your room, don't tell others."

Ye Xuan reminded him that he didn't want to upgrade other people's gatherings. Now, this little money is not in his eyes.

"Where are you going now?" Song Congjing saw Ye Xuan going out and asked quickly.

"Go to Xuan's House, you must hurry to practice, and when you break through, I will give you a surprise."

Ye Xuan said, he turned and left, this time he is going to Xuanzhifu.

"Surprise?"

Song Congjing looked at Ye Xuan's back and looked forward to it.

After leaving, Ye Xuan went to a mysterious house, and then upgraded Zhao Pan to a gathering. They gave them some things, such as meditation and jade, and Shangpin.

The cultivation of Zhao Pan is also very hard, and with the help of Ye Xuan, it is already the peak of the real world.

Ye Xuan estimates that after a while, they can break through to the real Xuanjing, and then let them challenge the Xuanzhi list and become a formal disciple.

When Ye Xuan went back, he found that one of his yards was already waiting.

It turned out to be the elders of Lingxiaofu, Zhou Yan!

At the same time, the Song Dynasty was also respectfully standing aside.

"Ye Xuan, I have already got it for you, ten pieces of forged materials, one hundred copies of six yuan Dan's refining materials." Zhou Yan directly lost to Ye Xuan a ring.

Ye Xuan was shocked. How long has it been before, things are ready, and efficiency is really a lever.

"Before the elders, then I will start today." Ye Xuan nodded.

"Wait, the gathering of the little spirits in the room of the little girl is laid out by you?" Zhou Yan suddenly called Ye Xuan.

"Oh... yes!" Ye Xuan nodded again.

Zhou Yan sighed: "You have to cultivate, but at the same time master the refining, alchemy, and formation. This is not good. I think you'd better give up the tactics, special refiners and alchemy."

"The younger generation remembered."

Ye Xuan reverently replied, what the other party said is what it is, anyway, he does not need to practice, it does not matter.

"Well, I have another thing to come over this time. This little girl is the sister of the ruling. The qualification is not bad, so I want to be a disciple. Your qualifications will be better, but because of your father, I think it is still Zhou Yan." Zhou Yan reluctantly sighed.

He now has three disciples, one is the river, the second is the Song ruling, and now there is a Song Dynasty.

However, he felt that Ye Xuan was worthy of the three people.

Ye Chong was also his disciple, but Ye Chong has disappeared for more than ten years and he has not been regarded as a disciple.

Hearing this, Ye Xuan is also a glimpse, said: "So, you have to go to the temple of heaven?"

"No, I told the master, I will go again after a while." Song Congjing shook his head.

After listening to Ye Xuan, he also realized that Song Dingjing was waiting for him to go.

"Okay, then I will go first. If anything, you will go to Jiangyou, or the elders who are in the government of the land."

After Zhou Yan finished speaking, he left directly.

After he left, the Song Dynasty also said: "Do you want to refine the refining device?"

"Otherwise?" Ye Xuan asked.

"Then go, wait for you to come out, I may have broken through. Just now the master helped me wash the manure once again, and it is estimated that I will be able to break through soon." Song Congjing was a little excited because Ye Xuan said that as long as she Breaking through the peak of the real Xuanjing, Ye Xuan gave her a surprise.

I don't know, what is this surprise?

Then, Ye Xuan also left directly. He went to the refining pharmacy first, and then directly refining a hundred six-yuan dan, and spent five billion devours.
