Chapter 216: Blood only

"What? The top blood is unique. The blood of the Sword Emperor, Arrow Zun, and King of Fighters cannot coexist. You can only choose one."

"The blood of the beasts and the leopards of the leopard can only choose one."

"There are also blood vessels such as Wanhua blood, and Nima can only choose one to upgrade to the top?"

"Is this not a pothole?"

Ye Xuan wants to cry without tears, which means that he will be in trouble in the future.

Now he probably understands that the blood is divided into three categories: fighting blood, physical blood, and blood.

In other words, in the future, he can only promote the three blood vessels to the top level and start the blood specialization.

Then, he saw the extended bloodline column in the phagocytic system, which can cost a lot of phagocytic points and expand the number of these top blood.

Suddenly, he is a hi, it seems that as long as there is money.

However, when he saw the price of this expansion, his eyes were almost paralyzed.

Is this zero, is it a bit too much?

"Forget it, I have just broken through to the realm of God, want to integrate the top blood, it is estimated that what kind of gods can do, or do not want so much."

Ye Xuan is also calm.

Now, he has already broken through to the realm of God, and is considered to be the first person.

There is also a small particle in the golden dantian in the body. This is Ren Dan.

Not only that, but the mysteriousness in his body has also been transformed into Dan Yuan, and the intensity is higher. In the future, Dan Yuan will be driven. As long as he passes through Dan, the power will multiply.

Ren Dan is the essential difference between Shen Dan and half-step Dan Yuan.

"Now, I am afraid that a fist can blow the head of this double-headed poison scale!"

Ye Xuan clenched his right fist and his eyes showed a confident look. He estimated that at this time his strength has increased by at least tens of times compared with before.

Even if it is a person who is a small man in the world, he has the confidence to hit a fist, then if the Taishang Emperor of the Tang Dynasty dynasty meets him, he will be killed by an instant!

"Hey, first give the Bible a surprise."

Ye Xuan opened his mouth and smiled. He looked up and instantly captured the Lingxiao Dapeng at a height of 100 meters.

call out!

At that time, his figure disappeared, and even the afterimages were left.

"Hey!" "Hey!" "Hey!" "Hey!"

Ye Xuan's toes point to the ground, rushing toward Ling Xiao Dapeng, like a lightning bolt. Then, his legs suddenly slammed, and the whole person jumped up.

The Song dynasty on the back of Ling Xiao Dapeng also saw the figure of Ye Xuan, but he could not find Ye Xuan again.

"Hey, what about others?" Song Chong couldn't help but swear.

Her voice just fell, that is, a figure fell on the back of Ling Xiao Dapeng, not waiting for her reaction, this figure is quickly coming to her back, and then put her right hand on her shoulder.

Song Jiaojing's petite body trembled, his eyes wide open, suddenly took out the autumn water sword to the back.

"Oh!"

The sound of the long sword into the flesh spread.

When the Song Dynasty was reacted, it was discovered that she was standing in front of her.

"Ah, how are you?" Song Congjing exclaimed and hurriedly pulled the sword out of Ye Xuan's body.

"You are a girl, the reaction is very fast, you stab my kidney, if you stab it, how do you pay for me?"

Ye Xuan glared at the Song Dynasty.

"Sorry, I didn't mean it. I don't know if it is you..." Song Congjing said, hurriedly took the healing medicine from the Qiankun ring and prepared to apply it to Ye Xuan.

But at this time, Ye Xuan suddenly grabbed her wrist.

"I have a deep stab in this sword. You are not going to stop bleeding?" Song Congjing looked anxiously at Ye Xuan's **** wound.

"Are you taking a closer look?" Ye Xuan pulled the clothes hole apart.

Song Dynasty is very puzzled, but the next moment, her face is a stiff.

I saw that the wounds of Ye Xuan's waist were recovered at a speed visible to the naked eye. Only a few breaths were cured.

How can this be?

The Song Dynasty was already surprised to say nothing, and quickly wiped off the blood. Sure enough, the wounds of the genius had been closed, and even the scars were not there, just as they had not happened.

"Haha, don't worry, my refining exercises are very special, and the recovery speed is extremely fast, otherwise you think I can connect the meridians in one day?" Ye Xuan said with a smile.

After raising the blood of the middle-level flower to the blood of the flower, his resilience is greatly improved. As long as he is not killed by the person in the future, the injury will recover quickly. This is completely a small force that cannot be killed.

"How is this possible?" Song Congjing still couldn't believe it.

"If you don't believe, you can try again with a sword." Ye Xuan said.

"Oh!"

His voice has not yet fallen, and the Song Dynasty has actually stabbed in, still the same position, the same depth.

"Hey, you are a dead girl, letting you stab you are really stabbing, it will hurt." Ye Xuan can not laugh, this girl stabbed his kidney again.

The man's kidney, but an important organ comparable to the heart, what if the stab is broken?

Song Congjing stared blankly, and sure enough, after a few seconds, the second blood hole was merged.

"It's amazing, what kind of exercises you have cultivated in the end, it's so powerful. After breaking your hand, will you grow up?" Song Congjing asked curiously.

"If you break your hand... I don't know."

Ye Xuan said with a black face, but there is time to try it. After all, Zhao Chongwen, who had been bitten by a blood wolf before, was connected with a broken hand.

But for now, it is not the time.

"Wait, your breath..." Song Chongjing responded at this time. After a big war, Ye Xuan's breath did not weaken, but it was powerful.

"I am doing this because of the practice of the body, so after swallowing the mysterious inner Dan, I directly broke into the human condition, how is it, how powerful?"

Ye Xuan smiled and looked at the Song Dynasty.

"You... you are perverted, do you need to stimulate me so much?" Song cuts a small mouth, she just broke through to the half-step Dan Yuanjing, Ye Xuan will enter the Shen Dan, this is hitting her It is.

"Don't worry, you will break through soon, let's go, let's go to the south now, and kill another beast."

Ye Xuan smiled.

"Don't you say that you want to go to the treasure house of the Tang Dynasty?" Song Dynasty is somewhat puzzled.

"Nothing, the treasure house will not run, first go to marry the mysterious beast, lest it be preempted by others."

Ye Xuan replied casually, then he said to Ling Xiao Dapeng and flew south.

With his current strength, no one in the Datang Dynasty can threaten him or even cross the entire East.

However, the people who come to the Tang Dynasty will probably not only be there. Maybe the half-step Dan Yuanjing's brothers have come. If the mysterious beast is taken away, it will be troublesome.

After all, there are not many mysterious beasts in the East.
