Chapter 217: Blood seed

Ling Xiao Dapeng flew for another two days, flying from the north of the Tang Dynasty to the south, and then found another sinister beast.

This is a huge tortoise called a lava giant tortoise with hundreds of holes of two or three meters in diameter on the back.

Every once in a while, this lava giant torment will emit countless flames of meteorites, which can easily destroy a city.

"How is this kind of mysterious beast?"

On the back of Ling Dapeng, Song Congjing was not happy. Although she was a half-step Danyuan, her realm was too fast, her experience could not keep up, and her combat effectiveness was much worse than the average half-step Danyuan.

Let her go to the lava giant, but it is a difficult task.

"Don't worry, I am following you." Ye Xuan said, directly handing over the Earth Nebula sword: "This is sending the Nebula sword to kill the big turtle."

"Ground, give it to me?"

A piece of land is not something she can afford, and Ye Xuan has just sent a piece of land, which is too big.

"Why are you so good to me?" Song Congjing suddenly stared at his eyes and looked at Ye Xuan with affection.

Ye Xuan smiled lightly, reaching out and stroking the hair of the Song Dynasty, saying: "I am looking at you, can't you?"

This answer is also a slap in the Song Dynasty. After half a mile, she only came back to God. The little face was already red, and she dared not look at Ye Xuan.

"Well, I want to let the body go, wait for the big turtle to be slaughtered." Ye Xuan finished, directly put his hand on the waist of the Song Dynasty, left the left hand, and took the Song Dynasty. stand up.

"It's so light, it's estimated that it's less than a hundred pounds. I didn't expect it to be so thin, but it was so material on my chest..."

Ye Xuan's eyes glanced at the place where the Song Dynasty cut through the white flowers, and then jumped directly forward, and the whole person jumped from the high altitude of 100 meters.

"Ah, what are you doing?"

When Song Congjing came over, she was already in a state of weightlessness. Her white arms were subconsciously wrapped around Ye Xuan's neck, and her chest was tightly attached to Ye Xuan's neck, and she was screaming.

"Hey!"

After a muffled sound, Ye Xuan safely landed, he gently put down the Song Dynasty, and then rubbed his ears.

"Grandma, my ears are rushing."

"Who told you to jump down without saying hello?"

Song Chongjing gasped, she was scared to death, even if a strong man of a half-step Dan Yuanjing fell from the height of 100 meters, he also had to fall into a dead pig.

Most people have to use martial arts to slow down the impact. However, Ye Xuan is directly holding her and she jumps. She almost thought that she would do a pair of deaths with Ye Xuan.

"Well, it's also a strong man in a half-step Dan Yuanjing. How can you be so small, let me see your strength. Just kill it and I will give you a surprise."

Ye Xuan turned his head and looked at the lava giant tortoise that was hundreds of meters away.

"Hey, look at me."

When I heard the word of surprise, Song Jing's eyes were also bright, and then I took out the Nebula sword and rushed toward the lava giant tortoise.

And Ye Xuan, is quietly behind her.

Although the power of the lava giant tortoise is amazing, it is much better than the double-headed poison scale. However, the defensive power of the lava giant tortoise is not a little bit stronger than the double-headed poison scale.

In the heart of the Song Dynasty, there was no bottom. After being close to the lava giant tortoise, it was a sword that smashed the past.

"Snapped!"

This sword is smashed on the hind limbs of the lava giant tortoise, and it is easily scattered and there is no harm at all.

"Taro, come on."

Ye Xuan was in the air, and his heart was very helpless. Song Zongjing was holding a handicraft and could not break the physical defense of the lava giant tortoise. This is too bad.

"I don't know the level of martial arts."

Song Congjing attacked and said with sullenness, she even smashed more than a dozen squats, only barely broke the skin of the lava giant tortoise.

"Well, I will give you this surprise first."

Ye Xuan said, suddenly there was a transparent seed in the hand, and then lost to the Song Dynasty.

Song Congjing took the crystal-clear seeds and asked strangely: "What is this?"

"You will know when you eat it!" Ye Xuan smiled lightly.

This seed is actually a blood seed!

That's right, it's blood!

And it is still the blood of the senior Swordsman.

This is a function that unlocks the system after he breaks into the gods, and can make a blood into a seed.

Simply put, other people can also integrate blood, but this seed can only take one.

To be precise, it is one.

If you want to make this blood seed, you have to pay a hundred times the price of the blood.

This * seed of the Sword Emperor also squandered Ye Xuan's swallowing points.

This time he also made a * book, only to smile for the Pomeranian.

The Song Dynasty is somewhat strange, but she trusts Ye Xuan very much and directly swallows the blood of the Sword Emperor.

The next moment, her eyes are bursting out two brilliant, the breath of the whole person instantly skyrocketed and became very fierce.

Swordsman blood, fusion success!

"Ye Xuan, this, this is..." Song Congjing widened his eyes and stunned.

"This is a * seed I got by chance, that is, the blood of the Sword Emperor. Now, your understanding of sword martial arts will increase, and the power of sword martial arts will increase."

Ye Xuan said, suddenly thought of something, and asked: "Well, have you got the inheritance of the Swordsman? Have you taught you a few levels of martial arts?"

"Well, there is still one of them is the middle school level martial arts..." Song Congjing is already stunned.

She also heard that there will be high-ranking people who condense what they have learned in their life into blood seeds and pass them on to others.

Unexpectedly, she actually ran into it.

Moreover, Ye Xuan gave her.

What she didn't understand was why Ye Xuan gave her such precious things.

"Okay, don't be stupid, kill this big turtle."

Ye Xuan's words, awakened the Song Dynasty, the latter instantly returned to God, what is the matter, first kill this lava giant turtle and then say.

"Breaking the sword!"

After the Song dynasty's eyes were cold, after a long time of condensing, it was a sniper attack on the thick hind limbs of the lava giant tortoise.

This move is the middle-class martial arts in the blood of the Swordsman, full of power!

"Huh!"

This sniper is extremely fast, and most people can't react. It directly passes over the hind legs of the lava giant tortoise, and it is easy to split it into two segments.

"what?"

Song Chong Jing Zhang had a small mouth. In order to display this Chinese-level martial arts, Dan Yuan in her body had been taken out, and she had made up a lot of mysteriousness.

However, the power of this move is beyond her imagination.

The lava giant tortoise was moving all the time, and now the hind limbs were cut off, suddenly lost balance, and the * sat down.
