Chapter 223: A self-governor?

"Self-family?"

Song City slightly glimpsed, some did not understand.

Song Ting's face suddenly changed, and immediately stunned Ye Xuan, before they had said good, temporarily concealed, but did not expect Ye Xuan actually said leaked.

At that time, two blushes appeared on her face, and then she sneaked a word in Songcheng's ear.

After listening to Songcheng, his eyes were bright, and he laughed again: "Haha, from family, from family, my Song Dynasty has two more gods. It's so good, after a while, I There were four gods in the Great Song Dynasty."

These people can sit here today, and they are not fools on their behalf. After hearing the words of Song Cheng, they will think about it.

"It turned out that the young man is good, a talent, a perfect match." Song Zheng under the stroke of the black goatee, a smile.

The thin-cut Song Dynasty can not withstand such a toss, and hurriedly transferred the topic: "Grandpa, don't say this first, my brother is also refining the mysterious beast?"

"Yes, after the mysterious beast was killed by me, I gave Nedan a ruling. After a month or two, it should be enough to break through to the people." Song Cheng was nodded.

The Song Dynasty suddenly had three more gods, which was a happy event, and it was a three-happiness.

Then, the Song Dynasty began to tell the story of these days. When she talked about what happened to the Emperor of the Tang Dynasty, all the people present were shocked.

Flying Dragon!

Under the Emperor of the Tang Dynasty, even a dragon was suppressed?

"I can't think of it, I really can't think of it. In a small Tang Dynasty, there was actually a wounded dragon. This Tang Dynasty dynasty is really big, and it is trying to control a flying dragon." Songcheng shook his head: "It seems that the beast The headquarters of the gods should be in the Datang Dynasty."

"Shantou, how is the flying dragon now?" Song Zheng suddenly asked.

"It was killed by a passing predecessor, right, Grandpa, the predecessor flew the dragon with a punch, and was able to fly in the air. What is his realm?" Song Cong asked curiously.

Songcheng heard the words, directly stood up and exclaimed: "What? Flying?"

"Well, this predecessor can stand in the air." Song Congjing nodded.

"That is a super-powerful person who is in a dilemma. When the physical strength of the strong-minded person is raised to a certain extent, he can break through the gas-deficient situation. After the breakthrough, he can fly the air and hit a flying dragon with a punch. Small, he is afraid that he will be able to poke the dragon." Song City said incredulously.

He is just a small man, Dan Cheng, there is still a distance from the land, not to mention the heavens and the gods.

However, he is puzzled that it is an accident that such a strong man would pass the Datang Dynasty.

Hearing this, everyone present was a look of yearning.

Can people fly in the sky?

What a cool thing!

"The gods are in the four realms, and there are still ambiguous situations in the environment. Then there are two realms. I don't know the level of the unlucky ones and the mysterious master." Ye Xuan said in the heart.

"Grandpa, let us talk about this miracle." Song Congjing also came to interest, wrapped around Songcheng Road.

The people underneath are also watching with enthusiasm. Although they are not expected to break through to the gods, it is also very good to be able to listen to them. When they can, they can talk to their children and listen to their desire to cultivate.

"Okay, but I don't know much."

Song City is also a nod, saying: "It is rumored that after the people of Tiandan Dacheng have cultivated to the peak, they will be able to break the shackles. After the breakthrough, the physique will be greatly improved, and the minimum possesses the power of a dragon, called the Dragon. force."

"The average person cultivates to the limit, and it is the power of Bailong. At that time, you can try to break through the ambiguous situation. However, it is said that some geniuses can exceed the power of Bailong, reaching two hundred dragons or even three hundred dragons. Such a person, one The power of the boxing is enough to break the ground..."

"From the breakthrough of the gods to the dilemma, the body of the Dan will be transformed into a more powerful instinct. After breaking through the dilemma, you can use the real gas in the body to fly, and be able to fly in the air. fighting."

"What is the realm after the embarrassing situation?" Song Congjing asked with great interest.

Song Cheng continued: "After the shackles, it is the fine world, and then the gods, but I have only heard of the names of these two realms."

"The grandfather, do you know what the predecessor is?" Song Tingjing asked.

"I don't know this, but he is at least a master of arrogance, and he has been able to kill a dragon with a punch. Moreover, the martial arts that turned the dragon into a fly ash is beyond my understanding. Song City could not help but shake his head.

He is only a person who is a small person.

However, he also had a popular science for Ye Xuan and Song Congjing, which stimulated their desire to cultivate. No, Ye Xuan should be the desire to upgrade.

"Hey, you can fly in a dilemma. It's cool to fly to the sky with the cut."

At the thought of being able to go to heaven, Ye Xuan couldn't help but go out and kill the strange upgrade.

Later, these high-level dynasties continued to discuss, and Ye Xuan was brought to the small palace where she lived.

Since the relationship between the two has been made public, it does not have to be concealed, and there is not only one room in the small palace of the Song Dynasty.

Originally, Ye Xuan wanted to bring a medicinal herb to the big scorpion, but I thought that after two months, the Song ruling would break through to the gods, so I thought it would be.

After all, a five billion engulfing points, expensive!

"You live here tonight, call them when something happens..."

Song Congzhu took Ye Xuan to a room.

"You are not with me?" Ye Xuan looked at her with a smile.

"You are a bad guy, thinking about it, I haven't found you yet." Song cuts a bit of a sly.

On the day of Lingxiao Dapeng, Ye Xuan almost ate her, but was saved by the sound of the dragon.

"You see, your family accepts me, is it better to let me cook the raw rice?"

Ye Xuan said, suddenly reached out and grabbed the slender waist of the Song Dynasty, but he heard that the world is more open, even if there is no marriage.

"Bad egg, you are going in, I am leaving." Song Cong Jing blushes, flies away like a frightened bird.

Ye Xuan regretted it very much. She knew that she had done things on Lingxiao Dapeng before.

However, this is all right. Since the relationship has been confirmed, can the Song Dynasty still run?

Just now, this time since it came out, he can also go back to the Xuanyang Empire to see, by the way, bring something good to Ye Family.

With tens of billions of swallowing points, you can take a little bit of it and you can upgrade your family to the true spirit.
