Chapter 226: Godland?

"Oh."

The Song Dynasty did not ask again. Now she and Ye Xuan have already broken through to the gods, and can easily defeat those who are half-step Dan Yuanjing. Even, maybe, they can beat some ordinary gods.

After all, she has merged the blood of a sword, the level of martial arts is directly learned, and the integration, combat strength is not a trace.

On the way, Ye Xuan also refines a new ground weapon, this is a lady's sword, named Frost. This is what he specially designed for the Song Dynasty, and also changed the nebula sword.

After a while, they came to the battle of the Tianzhifu.

There are not many people in the Tianzhifu. Apart from the one hundred disciples on the list of the heavens, there are also a dozen newcomers, most of whom are new disciples received from Zhongzhou.

Ye Xuan came all the way, the street was cold and clear, and after entering the challenge, it was still the same.

However, after he saw the challenge of the Lingxiao House guarding the knees sitting next to the ring, his eyes were bright.

"Brother."

Ye Xuan went in and shouted.

After hearing this law, he couldn't help but open his eyes. He saw Ye Xuan and couldn't help but exclaim: "Ye Xuan?"

This person, it is precisely before the recommendation of Ye Xuan to the land of the village, ask, Ling Xiaofu protect the law.

"I didn't expect to meet my brother here." Ye Xuan quickly went over. After the day, he was the first time he saw Mo.

"Although I met for the first time after that time, but I have heard a lot of your things these days." Mo asked to wipe a cold sweat on his forehead.

Wen Yan, Ye Xuan laughed, and recently he was a high-profile.

"Brother, how are you sweating?" At this time, Song Xuan, behind Ye Xuan, could not help but ask.

For the Song Dynasty, Mo asked naturally to know. He explained: "I can't break through the realm of God, so I can only work * the physique, and I am practicing the practice of refining."

The practice of refining the body is not something that ordinary people can cultivate. It must have a strong will, because the practice of refining the body is to continually tear the muscles and repair them. If the average person is practicing, I am afraid that it will faint.

"It turned out to be."

Ye Xuan nodded slightly, before he also tried to practice the practice of refining, it is too unbearable. Moreover, he originally had the blood of a hundred beasts, so the practice of refining the body did not have much effect on him.

It seems that Mo is not the general item of care for these half-step Dan Yuanjing. After all, they can only go on the road of refining.

"Right, brother, these medicinal herbs are for you." Ye Xuan suddenly took out the bottle of medicinal herbs.

"This is..." Mo asked to look at it in a strange way.

"This is the remedy that my younger brother has refining, which can improve the efficiency of the refining body and reduce the pain. It is especially suitable for people who are practicing the body." Ye Xuan replied.

Mo asked that after listening to the eyes, his eyes could not help but brighten. Now he is stuck at a key point. He has tried several times and can't break through. If you take this kind of remedy, you may succeed.

"Okay, thank you very much." Mo asked not to be sentimental, received it directly, and then asked: "Yes, what is your business today?"

Now Ye Xuan thinks that he is going to challenge today. He immediately said: "This is the case. We have already entered the House of Heaven. Come here today, I want to challenge!"

"Oh? Challenge?" Mo asked a little strange, but he didn't think much. He took out a list and asked, "Who do you want to challenge?"

"Cut the rule first." Ye Xuan pushed the Song Dynasty to push forward.

"I..." The list of the results of the Song Dynasty was finally locked in the 17th place in the list of the heavens, and then pointed to the name: "Like this brother."

Do not ask the eyes to look at it, almost did not scare to death, the 17th day of the list did not join any strength, is a scattered person.

However, he is a godland!

"Song Shimei, are you kidding?" Mo asked.

"Mu Shixiong, I am very serious. This time I went to annihilate the beast gods. I have already broken through to the gods." Song Taijing smiled playfully, she was very grateful to ask, after all, it was Mo asked. Arranged her and Ye Xuan in a yard.

"What, God Dan?" Mo asked with a sigh, felt a bit, and found that he could not see the Song Dynasty, even Ye Xuan is the same.

He was already shocked, and he disappeared in just a few months. He even broke through to the gods, and this hit him.

However, he also saw a lot of worlds, and soon recovered calm, said: "Well, then I will contact you."

When he finished, he left directly.

"Shantou, you are now blending the blood of the sword, the sword has improved a lot, you can not lose, or I will hit your ass."

Ye Xuan's left hand was directly caught in the arms of the Song Dynasty. At the same time, his hands began to wandering uneasy and almost slipped into the restricted area, scared the Song Dynasty and quickly broke away.

"You are a bad guy, you are not allowed to move your hands on the outside." Song Congjing glared at Ye Xuan, although there are few people in Tianzhifu, but what if someone passes by.

Ye Xuan smiled slightly and squeezed her Xiaoqiong nose gently. "So, after you go home, you can?"

"I can't go home!" Song Congjing said, don't want to stay on this topic, and immediately shift the topic: "Which brother would you like to challenge?"

"Let's have a look at it first." Ye Xuan replied casually, but he already had a candidate in his heart.

"Well, you actually took me to open the way and test the strength of those brothers?" Song Congjing was a little angry.

Ye Xuan hurriedly said: "Which, okay, I have already chosen someone, guess?"

Song Congjing looked at Ye Xuan's expression like a smile and a smile. Suddenly, there was a speculation in his heart. He said, "You shouldn't, is you trying to challenge Zhou Dongfeng's brother, who is the fifth in the list of the day?"

"Haha, you are really smart." Ye Xuan Le had to kiss her directly on her tender face.

"You are crazy, Master Zhou is a small man in the world..." Song Chong recalled the situation of the day.

"Afraid of anything, just a challenge. If you lose a big month, come back later." Ye Xuan did not say anything, in the simplest way to make Song Taijing safe.

"Then you be careful."

The Song Dynasty did not say much, this time and the events of the Tang Dynasty dynasty may be different. Moreover, she is still very confident about Ye Xuan, although she is also a first-time person, but she feels that she and Ye Xuan's strength is not at a level.

Soon, Mo asked to be back, and brought back two people.

A disciple dressed in Tianfufu costume, and the other one is the elder of Lingxiaofu.
