

Super D. S 2291

Chapter 2291: Fire field

It can be said that the fighting power of the Fire Frost Lion is really very powerful. This time, the Thousand Beast Swordsman rushed up with a thousand head-level mounts. You must know that the God-class mounts now call the gold level, and even burst out one. More than a hundred platinum grades and a few purple gold grades.

However, even if it is such a powerful force, but in front of the fire cream lion, it is not enough to see.

I saw the fire lion figure moving, between the claws, it is a frost rushing out, the frost is extremely cold, and the attack range is very great, many god-level mounts, directly reduced, or even frozen.

However, this is not the biggest threat.

The biggest threat is the next attack by the Fire Frost Lion.

I saw that the fire lion opened his mouth suddenly, accompanied by his snoring, is a powerful wall of fire.

The fire wall suddenly pushed forward toward the front. In an instant, hundreds of god-level mounts, which were limited by frost, fell into the sea of fire and burned alive.

The thousand beast swordsmen did not retreat, but ordered the god-level mount to continue to charge.

"Thousand beasts feast!"

Ye Xuan immediately launched a feast of thousands of beasts to further strengthen the combat power of the god-level mount.

The level of the mount is not weak, although they face the super-beast of the realm of the gods, but this does not mean that they have no power.

A few god-level mounts suddenly turned into streamers, and went straight to the fire cream lion.

"boom!"

"boom!"

They don't use any attack techniques, they are the simplest collisions.

After all, Ye Xuan's command to the thousands of beasts is not to kill the enemy, but to lure the enemy.

Ye Xuan, also does not expect to rely on the **** level mount to be able to kill this super presence.

After several crazy attacks, although it did not cause too much damage to the Fire Frost Lion, it succeeded in angering it.

The Frosty Lion snarled loudly and rushed toward the god-level mount.

The thousand beast swordsman is naturally fighting and retreating, and a head-level mount is constantly rushing up, although it is basically equal to death.

But step by step to lure the fire cream lion, toward the banned arrangement of Ye Xuan.

The strength of this fire cream lion is extremely powerful. At the same time, wisdom is not low. He knows that Ye Xuan has arranged a trap in front of him.

However, Ye Xuan's realm is so low, so even if the Fire Frost Lion knew that there was danger ahead, he did not care.

"Roar!"

The fire-cream lion roared and accelerated the speed.

A sprint will hit dozens of god-level mounts and even kill them directly.

However, his sprint has already rushed into the ban of Ye Xuan.

"Prohibition, open!"

Ye Xuan screamed, and the environment around the Froststone Lion changed immediately.

The peculiar charm is forbidden, the most important thing is a singular word, and a phantom word!

At this point, the effect of the semi-prohibition was immediately launched, and the fire-cream lion, in an instant, fell into the semi-field of the illusion of the illusion.

Ye Xuan, standing outside, clearly saw that the fire lion was constantly trying to escape.

However, this is a semi-field, and how can it be so easy to escape?

Ninety-nine nine sacred charms change all the time, and the fire lions will be directly transmitted to the center by the power of the nine ecstasy.

And the power of ninety-nine illusions has also been launched.

One by one, illusory figures appear. These figures are the means of attack that are condensed by divine power.

I saw these figures rushing toward the fire lions. If the fire lions ignored them, they would attack them all the time, but if the fire lions wanted to kill them, they would blow themselves again.

The most important thing is that such a virtual image seems to be endless, and it is condensed every moment. Once it is condensed, it will not hesitate to rush out toward the fire lion.

The illusion of these phantoms can damage the fire lion, but it will not hurt other phantoms, but it can strengthen other phantoms.

Once and for all, the violent attack, if the fire lion does not resist, then he can only be passively beaten.

However, the result of the resistance is that the ability of the phantom is getting stronger and stronger.

Even Ye Xuan is surprised and inexplicable. This means is simply helpless.

Although the Phantom Rune prohibition is only a semi-domain, not a real field.

However, it can still be achieved by condensing the surrounding power.

Therefore, in the four weeks of this ban, there is constant divine power to be attracted to the battle. Isn't the phantoms that are condensed by the power from the outside?

However, once these divine powers enter, they will not be leaked from within the ban. Therefore, the overall divine power in the ban is constantly strengthened.

Even if the phantom is killed by the fire lion, after all, the overall power is still there.

In this ban, the power of the gods will only become stronger and stronger.

Those phantoms are just the cohesive powers.

Ye Xuan stood so quietly, watching the fire lion's struggle, because Ye Xuan was waiting for the best time.

It can be said that this time, Ye Xuan must choose the timing of the shot, and, but also rely on crit to have the opportunity to kill this fire lion, the level of suppression, it is too big, this is already Ye Xuan encountered The most powerful opponent.

"Hey, the system prompts that it detects that the target contains special blood."

"Hey, the system prompts, congratulations to the host to find the only hidden task, Purple Blood Saint!"

"Hey, the system prompts, this task requires the host to kill all the beasts here!"

"Hey, the system prompts, in view of the host discovering this task in advance, the system compensates the host for a permanent positioning transfer!"

"Hey, the transmission is successful, the host will be able to transfer freely between Kunlun and Mysterious Lake, and the host should be careful not to use the transmission during the battle."

A series of prompts from the system made Ye Xuan somewhat embarrassed. What is the situation? Is this system sending benefits?

"Hey, the system prompts that the system has the highest level of humanization, and humanity cannot be improved afterwards."

After waiting for a long time, the system suddenly came up with a hint, but this time, let Ye Xuan understand why there is such a good thing to send welfare.

But the only fly in the ointment is that Ye Xuan still feels that the system is not human enough.

Of course, it is much better than before, and Ye Xuan is quite content.

Ye Xuan with a smile on his face, looking at the trapped fire lion in front, but his heart is gone.

Here is how the monster realm is higher, not your own prey, but also the prey that you can come and kill at any time.

I don't know what kind of benefits I can bring to myself after the task of the Purple Blood Saint is completed.

Suddenly, the fire-cream lion made a giant python, and then, with the fire-cream lion as the center, between the moments, it was a field.

In the main divine environment, the greatest sign is the field, the field, which represents the power that has been able to use the power of the rules to construct its own world.

And this fire cream lion can borrow the power of two laws, fire and frost!

Chapter 2292: Golden blood

I saw that in the illusion of Ye Xuan's illusion, one half of the red is like a fire, and the strange field of blue half like frost appears instantly.

And those phantoms, once they enter, are not killed by fire, they are frozen by the frost.

On the periphery of the flame lion's field, phantoms were annihilated and turned into divine power. For a time, it became a stalemate.

It is reasonable to say that Ye Xuan should be worried about this situation. After all, the purpose of the Fire Frost Lion is obvious, that is, to destroy the half-field ban of Ye Xuan from the inside.

However, the result was exactly the opposite. At this time, Ye Xuan turned his eyes bright and rushed out.

"Good opportunity, haha, Megatron, we are on!"

What does Ye Xuan want to do?

At this time, you broke into the fire lion's ban, isn't it looking for death?

What the flame lion has released, but the real prohibition, it is impossible for Ye Xuan to resist!

What exactly does he want to do?

"Give me to die!"

With a bang, Ye Xuan violently threw a sword.

At this time, Ye Xuan actually used the sword as a flying knife.

And then the power of Ye Xuan, Megatron is at full speed to control the sacred sword and suddenly rushed toward the flame lion!

It turned out that the moment the flame lion was released in the field, it was actually the weakest, because the power in his body suddenly broke out, then naturally his body would be weak.

You must know that this flame lion, after all, is only a medium-sized god, but it has just mastered the power of the field.

The power of the fire roasts the sword, and the power of the frost slows down the speed of the sword.

However, the power of He Ye Xuan and Megatron, the speed of this sword, has already exceeded the extreme.

"Hey."

A sword runs through.

Ten times the crit, the scorpion sword directly on the body of the fire lion, leaving a huge mouth.

Then I will not stop at all, and will traverse the entire field.

"Roar!"

The fire cream lion may have been suffering from severe pain, or perhaps because it was not reconciled, and it made a loud noise.

The powerful snoring contains infinite power. In an instant, countless rocks have broken and countless ancient trees have risen.

Even Ye Xuan, who was blown by this power, almost stood unstable.

"Give me to die!"

Ye Xuan forcedly resisted the powerful force and broke into the realm of the fire lion.

Countless phantoms followed by Ye Xuan rushed toward the front.

Because the power of the Fire Frost lion field was quickly eliminated, it created a protective barrier for Ye Xuan.

"Hey!"

"Hey!"

Each of the charms bursts instantly, and these charms release a lot of power and illusion after bursting.

Ye Xuan, is to be desperate!

If you are unsuccessful, just look at this one!

Ye Xuan's fascinating ecstasy, which is arranged with great effort, is rapidly cracking. However, countless phantoms are also opening a path for him to pass the beast.

The ban on the fire cream lion could not suppress the illusion of Ye Xuan.

Because Ye Xuan is using the power of the explosion, in the ordinary force against the fire cream lion.

With a bang, the Shenjian sword has returned to Ye Xuan's hands under the control of Megatron, and Ye Xuan is also only a hundred meters away from the fire lion!

A hundred meters away, just blink of an eye!

"dead!"

Ye Xuan suddenly waved the sword, seven swords light, like a wave, went straight to the fire cream lion.

"boom!"

"boom!"

"boom!"

Ten times crit!

Ten times crit!

One hit kill!

"Haha!"

Ye Xuan couldn't help but laugh, he was dying this time, but this time the victory is worth venting with laughter.

Ye Xuan has been set up for so long, fighting for so long, and only for this is the last sword.

Moreover, you must rely on crit.

But he is gambling this time, so this time, he made a big profit!

"Devouring!"

Ye Xuan hand waved, the body of the fire cream lion was directly swallowed by him.

"Hey, the host breaks through, and the current three products are in the real world!"

Three products are in the real world!

Ye Xuan slightly frowned, this upgrade is really not too small, but this time, his target of killing is also a medium god!

"Hey, the system prompts, the law of the harvest of the fire, the law of the frost."

"Oh, the number of rules fragments reaches a certain number, which allows the host to directly borrow the power of usage!"

'Hey, different rules, the number of pieces needed is different, and the quality of the rules is different. "

.....

"Hey, the system prompts, the host kills the fire cream lion and gets a drop of golden blood!"

Ok? Golden blood?

Ye Xuan got purple blood in the mysterious lake. Of course, I don't know what it is for now. However, at this time, I got golden blood. What is the use?

"System, what is the use of this golden blood?"

"Hey, the system prompts, the host level is not enough, can't view!"

Ok, it's the same as the purple blood, I can't know the usefulness.

But at least a little Ye Xuan can be sure that this thing is absolutely useful! And still a good thing.

At this time, the resources of Ye Xuan have already been consumed.

After all, it is a semi-field ban, where is said to be so simple, and it can be arranged immediately if it can be arranged. Without resources, it is impossible!

So Ye Xuan can't continue to explore here.

Obviously it is just a seemingly simple task, but it doesn't want to trigger a hidden task. I don't know if this is Ye Xuan's luck or not.

"System, start positioning transmission, I want to go back to Kunlun."

"Hey, the transfer starts! The transfer is successful!"

Ye Xuan took so long when he came over.

When positioning the transmission, it is just in the blink of an eye.

Ye Xuan can't avoid wanting to get this ability, but unfortunately, this is a system reward.

Of course, the wings of the gods can do it, but the energy is not allowed.

This time, this mission, Ye Xuan did not pay, but chose to give up.

Because if you tell Kunlun, the situation there, I am afraid that there will be a big wave of disciples going soon.

Then the exclusive hunting ground belonging to Ye Xuan is gone.

Of course, in this way, Ye Xuan can only find new tasks, but he is not in a hurry.

This time, he is going to try another challenge.

Is it a qualifying war?

Isn't it just challenging other people? Ye Xuan also wants to hit the list.

Of course, although this ranking list says that everyone is on the list, in fact, there are some differences.

The first thousand people, known as Kunbang, each of them are famous geniuses.

And one thousand and one thousand to ten thousand, known as the Lunbang, is not bad.

As for the 10,000, no one will care.

This Kunlun, that is all the geniuses that have concentrated the entire Kunlun domain.

At this time, Ye Xuan is not a Kunbang, even if it is not listed.

This time, Ye Xuan is going to challenge the last one of the list, the 10,000th.

Chapter 2293: Ranking challenge

"I heard that there is a new person who actually directly challenges the masters of the list. Is this guy having a problem with his brain?"

"Small voice, you should never talk nonsense, I tell you, that guy is incredible, it is said that the Lord God is optimistic, and the relationship between His Royal Highness and his wife is also extraordinary!"

"Oh, let's just say, isn't it just about eating soft rice? What are you worried about?"

"Shut up, do you know who he is, I tell you, he is a special trick. Special tricks do not understand, Kunlun special tricks, which one is not a peerless genius, I think when he participated in the assessment battle, the district A guy who is a true god, he uses the power of the field!"

"Yes, I have heard that, Ye Xuan is incredible, and the cultivation of talents is extremely incomprehensible. This guy is not only a genius, but also a sacred master, a banned master, an alchemist!"

.....

"You, are you talking about people? How can someone be so powerful, even if it is a deputy, want to practice to the master level, there is no super resource accumulation, no super talent is impossible, you actually say that Ye Xuan is Three masters, and the cultivation talent is still not enough, I don't believe it!"

The news of Ye Xuan's challenge to the list was over, and the entire Kunlun area was noisy.

Because of the name of Ye Xuan's three masters, and the relationship with the princess, in Kunlun, he was not a nameless person. Now, he joined Kunlun and even directly challenged the list. It is to make countless people very different.

I don't believe in Ye Xuan, but I also think that Ye Xuan can do it.

Even some people have opened a gamble.

The gambling is whether Ye Xuan can win.

What's more, these people, no one even talked about Ye Xuan's opponent.

As if, Ye Xuan is the protagonist, and that is the master of the list, but his supporting role.

In Kunlun, in a loft, Wan Tianyu waved an angry voice. In an instant, a coffee table made of a special material with a lot of value was made into a powder.

In front of him, there are three of his friends.

"Tianyu, don't care so much, this Ye Xuan, but it is just a hairy boy. The newborn calf is not afraid of the tiger. He wants to challenge you. I think he is looking for his own death."

"Oh, death is not enough, really kill him, I am afraid there will be trouble, but Tianyu, this time, you have to teach the guy well, a real **** of the district, not good practice, actually ran to challenge the list ""

"Hey, he doesn't want to think about it. The lowest point in the list is to reach the main divine to enter. What does he rely on?"

Several people are constantly comforting Wan Tianyu, but it seems that the effect is not so obvious.

This Wan Tianyu is the opponent of Ye Xuan. It has been repaired to achieve the spirit of the six spirits. Although it is not long before he entered the list, he must know that he tried it more than ten times before he succeeded. Moreover, he Also has a special magical power.

I just didn't think that a real deity in the district would dare to challenge him. Wan Tianyu has already decided that he must give Ye Xuan an unforgettable lesson.

.....

Ye Xuan really did not expect that his first challenge turned out to be a major event in Kunlun. There was also a space in Kunlun. At this time, the space around Fujian and Taiwan was already packed.

We must know that the battle seats around the Kunming space are specially created.

The simple description is that the space of the ring is the central point, and then there are countless seats in a circle around it. The location here is 100,000!

In other words, 100,000 people came to watch Ye Xuan's first challenge.

As for the usual, even if it is the Kunbang challenge, there are thousands of people who are not bad.

I did not expect the last battle of the list, but attracted 100,000 people!

Of course, I am afraid that there are not a few that really look at Ye Xuan.

At this time, in the battle table, Yu You is talking with Ye Xuan about some encouragement.

As for Kun, it's a good idea to look at it.

"I said Ye Xuan, you really don't make trouble. It's not so comfortable. It's so fast to challenge the list, you are amazing!"

Kun did not read Ye Xuan, and his eyes were full of drama.

He obviously does not think that Ye Xuan can win. Of course, I am afraid that few people now think that Ye Xuan can win.

Look at the odds of the current gambling game, you know, pressure Ye Xuan wins, odds, lose one thousand!

And his opponent's odds are one thousand for one!

This gap is enough to prove everything.

Ye Xuan smiled and did not speak. No matter how others looked at it, Ye Xuan knew in his own mind what he wanted.

In fact, Ye Xuan has already bought all of his last homes and has won himself.

After Ye Xuan's last battle, it can be said that it is quite poor, even if all the resources that Ye Xuan will be able to take out as a mortgage, but in exchange for the 2.3 million Shenjing.

Together with the 700,000 Shenjing of Ye Xuan's domain, Ye Xuan pressed himself three million to win.

Ye Xuan looted the treasure house of Mo Shangge before looting the treasure house of Lin Family. Unfortunately, so many resources were not enough for Ye Xuan's consumption.

It was only the last time the illusion of the half-field was banned, and Ye Xuan was almost consumed.

What's more, before Ye Xuan left most of the resources to them.

Ye Xuan walked slowly into the space of the ring. At this time, Wan Tianyu was already waiting inside.

"Ye Xuan is fighting against Wan Tianyu, and the challenge is officially started!"

With the advent of a Kunlun elder, the challenge has officially begun!

.....

"You are Ye Xuan? Hey, boy, you are not afraid!"

Wan Tianyu looked at Ye Xuan, although his heart was full of anger, but his face was a smile.

"Senior brother please advise!"

Ye Xuan also looked at Wan Tianyu, but his face was no sadness.

"Good boy, it's deep, it's about to attract the attention of the princess, haha, then, today I will let the Princess of the Princess write down your ugly face, because I will beat your aunt and don't know you!"

"Wind, thunder!"

Say it is easy to do it, this Wan Tianyu, one shot, it is killing!

There is an elder guardian in the space of Fujian and Taiwan. Although it does not really want Ye Xuan's life, if this hit is hit, then I am afraid that Ye Xuan will not be better.

"Wow, Wan Tianyu actually shot him with a hand. It seems that this is the boy who is called Ye Xuan!"

There was a discussion on the battle table.

However, the next scene, they let them collectively close their mouths.

I saw that Ye Xuan didn't even have any action, but it was just a wave of it, and there was an energy wall directly blocking the front of Wan Tianyu.

The hit of Wan Tianyu was actually taken down by Ye Xuan.

"Good boy, it's a bit of a skill. With the repair of your real world, you can take me a blow. You have a capital worthy of pride. But, then, you don't have such good luck."

Chapter 2294: Easy to win

"Rain in the rain, bursting thunder and punching!"

In an instant, Wan Tianyu's hands seem to be incarnation. In the blink of an eye, in front of Ye Xuan, all of them are flashing.

This Wan Tianyu, is taking the body repair route, so the other does not say, but his physical quality is very powerful.

Ye Xuan's mouth is slightly tilted and said faintly.

"This time, I finally looked at it a bit."

Then, a wave of hands will appear, and five charms will appear directly in front of him, and one of them will be launched directly.

The one of the charms between them directly exploded, and in an instant, in front of Ye Xuan, there were countless ice cones.

These ice cones are extremely sharp, and, very hard, it is a thousand years of ice.

As soon as the ice cone appeared, it immediately attacked Wan Tianyu.

In the Kunlun area, there is no entity at all, but a direct void.

So at this time, Ye Xuan and Wan Tianyu are proud and empty.

However, with the attack of the two men, a clear dividing line appeared in this space.

Ye Xuan's ice cone is mixed with Wan Tianyu's boxing shadow. Because of the continuous explosion, the space is divided into two halves from the middle position.

The constant explosion sounded through the entire space of the ring.

"Hey, kid, don't you have such strength? Haha, just do it, and dare to challenge me, not self-sufficient."

Wan Tianyu looked at Ye Xuan disdainfully, although it seems that on the surface, Ye Xuan seems to be tied with him.

But in the heart of Wan Tianyu, Ye Xuan is simply a guy who is not self-sufficient.

Ye Xuan frowned slightly. In fact, because it was the first challenge, Ye Xuan still maintained some respect for his opponent, and even called him by his brother!

But what if you don't face your face?

So what do you give his face?

"What did you say?"

Ye Xuan suddenly changed his momentum and said directly to Wan Tianyu.

At this time, Wan Tianyu still does not know, he has inadvertently angered Ye Xuan.

Still yelling there and saying: "Kid, you are a real genius in a district, actually wasting my time, I want you to look good today!"

"I want to look good, it's good!"

Ye Xuan shot, this time, he took the initiative.

"Thousand beast swordsman! Flower **** sword waiter!"

"Give me kill!"

Between the crashes, there are thousands of beasts in the space of the ring.

As soon as these beasts appeared, they rushed straight toward Wan Tianyu.

So, is this finished?

No, this is just the beginning.

"God! Explosion!"

With Ye Xuan's words, the four charms were simultaneously bombarded.

A fire dragon, a giant sword, a warrior with a spear, and countless thunders, attacked the past toward Wan Tianyu.

This is not finished, Ye Xuan has already put out the sword, the whole person has already rushed out.

"boom!"

A sword!

Yes, there is only one sword!

But throughout the ring space, the entire battle room was silent.

Because Ye Xuan's sword, he directly stunned Wan Tianyu.

It is a stun!

Not killing!

The same is the shot, killing is actually much easier than the stun.

Because of the killing, you only need to explode all your strength.

But the stun is not, the stun needs a good grasp.

It is necessary to control the power accurately.

As long as you understand your opponent's maximum affordability and also control your own strength, you can do it.

If it is said that Wan Tianyu and a sword stunned Ye Xuan, perhaps there is not such a big reaction, but now the situation is that Ye Xuan a sword sweeps Wan Tianyu, let him directly faint.

Such a huge contrast, it can be said that many people can't think of dreams.

Some people who are ready to see Ye Xuan's ugliness have already been shocked.

The people who were physically and mentally did not, and after a while, thunderous applause broke out.

"No, how is this guy so strong, actually able to stun a million days!"

"Yeah, Wan Tianyu is the existence of the gods and kingdoms. He Ye Xuan is not a real god. This is how it is possible. Is it that I am wrong."

At this point, everyone responded, but it was obvious that Ye Xuan and Wan Tianyu had just started fighting.

Then, is that all over?

one move! Just such a trick!

Ye Xuan defeated Wan Tianyu?

Countless people are full of doubts. Now, whether they are those who are famous on the list or those who are not on the list, they are already dumbfounded.

This situation is beyond their expectations.

Even those who thought that Ye Xuan might win in the first place felt that this was a difficult battle, but the result was that Ye Xuan shot a second goal!

The elders also reacted for a long time, but after a long time, they reacted and said loudly.

"Ye Xuan challenges Wan Tianyu, Ye Xuan wins, Ye Xuan replaces Wan Tianyu and becomes the 10,000th in the list!"

What is this called?

Some of the people watching the battle are not even ready to watch the battle, and the battle is over.

Suddenly, a voice mourned.

"Ah, my god! My god, this time, you can lose!"

Many people who bought a bet to buy Ye Xuan have already regretted their death.

There was even a suspicion that Wan Tianyu was deliberately defeated and wanted to lie to everyone.

Of course, it is clear that this possibility does not exist at all.

However, Ye Xuan's second move of thousands of days is really beyond their expectations, so that they can only go to this, because no one believes that Ye Xuan has such strength.

Of course, Ye Xuan himself did not care, but went directly to the casino.

When I saw Ye Xuan coming, the person who opened the casino changed his face.

Although, Ye Xuan only pressed three million.

Killing now, what is the thousand times of three million?

It can be said that he simply can't afford it.

"This, here is all my resources, probably worth a total of 10 billion Shenjing, Ye Xuan, I have only so much, and the rest, I will return you later, how do you see?"

Ye Xuan was too lazy to pay attention to this person. For Ye Xuan, these resources can only be regarded as white, and they don't care much at all.

Ye Xuan ignored the expression of the guy. He took the Qiankun ring and turned and left, but Ye Xuan did not notice that the man's eyes were cloudy.

Since I still dare to open a gambling in Kunlun, how can it be that there is no strength? Three hundred billion Shenjing may not be small, but it is also for people like Ye Xuan. In fact, for the big forces, tens of billions of Shen Jing, but lost and played.

Shenjing is nothing but the smallest currency unit in the realm of the gods.

Just because it can be used as a direct absorption of divine power, will it be circulated for a long time.

In fact, above Shenjing, there are also monetary units such as the Spirit of the Stars.

This spirit of the stars is a special crystal that is condensed by the power of the gods and the law. Often the transaction between the Lord God and the Lord God is the use of this currency unit.

Chapter 2295: Dissatisfaction

The exchange of the gods and the spirit of the stars is one hundred yuan for one!

Ye Xuan still does not know this.

Still, only Ye Xuan has enough strength to know more things.

The gods are very big, and the rules are quite the same.

Some are not rules of the rules, there is no corresponding strength, it is difficult to know.

Ye Xuan harvests 10 billion gods, so naturally it is to be converted into resources.

Although there is only one billion gods in this guy's ring, the rest are ordinary resources.

But now, whether Ye Xuan is refining the ban, or refining the charm, or refining the medicinal herbs, all need a lot of Shenjing.

There is an auction market in Kunlun, which was spontaneously formed by disciples. There is no name. The disciples of Kunlun are used to calling him a market!

In the market, everyone exchanges their own things, wants to buy anything, sells anything at random, and here, inside Kunlun, there is no need to worry about things like robbery.

Ye Xuan casually strolled around and exchanged the ordinary resources he didn't need and Shen Jing directly into the special resources he needed.

Then, I am ready to start again.

However, what Ye Xuan did not think was that he had not come and left, but he received a voice.

Someone, challenge him!

Also, Ye Xuan won the battle of Wan Tianyu, and in many people's hearts, he felt quite embarrassed.

Now that Ye Xuan has become the last one in Kunbang, it is inevitable that some people think this is an opportunity.

Ye Xuan's mouth is slightly tilted. These guys, do you really think this is an opportunity?

Ye Xuan does not want to delay too much time because of the challenge.

So this time, he has to solve unnecessary troubles at once.

Originally in accordance with the challenge rules, Ye Xuan can have a rest period of one month.

During this month, he can have the right to reject any challenge.

Moreover, even if he accepts, there are ten days of preparation time.

However, Ye Xuan does not want these, but directly, tomorrow, tomorrow, Ye Xuan fight!

Early the next morning, the viewing area of the Fujian-Taiwan space was once again full. For the first time, perhaps most of the people were coming here instead of Ye Xuan.

But today, many people are for Ye Xuan.

Because until now, no one has thought that Ye Xuan is relying on his own strength to win the battle. Although no one has said it, there is already a rumor that Ye Xuan can win this victory, which is a threat to Wan. Tianyu, let Wan Tianyu take the initiative to admit defeat.

As for Ye Xuan, is this ability?

In their opinion, there is!

Because you are!

Ye Xuan went straight into the ring, his opponent, not yet, Ye Xuan did not speak, so stood quietly.

Soon, his opponent came, an arrogant young master.

At first glance, I know that it is the same family as Kun.

When the guy entered the space of the ring, he said quite disdainfully to Ye Xuan.

"Kid, I am not a whisper, that guy will be threatened by you, I will not, I have to look at it today, what can you have, I am going to pack up and pack you today, let you know, strength, not Get it by opportunism!"

"Are you finished?"

Ye Xuan looked at the guy and asked faintly.

"Oh, finished, what's wrong, I want to admit defeat, late, today, I will beat you to find your teeth!"

.....

Ye Xuan was too lazy to pay attention to this guy, but slowly put out the sword.

"Destroy the gods!"

"boom!"

A sword!

Another sword.

Ye Xuan, another defeated by a sword.

The kid who was still yelling at the moment was actually fainting at the last moment.

"Wow, how is this possible!"

"Don't that guy, is this Ye Xuan hired to do the play?"

"Oh, it's awful, some people have come to Kunlun, and they just don't know how to live!"

The official booth was noisy, everyone said, I said, in short, no one believes, Ye Xuan beat his opponent is to rely on his own strength, in their eyes, Ye Xuan beat the opponent is to use a mean means !

At the moment, however, they made an unexpected scene.

I saw Ye Xuan proudly standing in the space of the Taiwanese, shouting loudly at everyone.

"Who else? Who else is not satisfied, I want to challenge me, stand up once, I want Ye Xuan to pick it up today, give you the opportunity to challenge!"

coax!

He actually declared war like everyone!

This is because one wants to be a enemy of the entire Kunlun.

He is who he is, he thinks who he is, and he is a newcomer to a district, dare to say such words, this is to cause public anger.

Of course, those who are ranked higher than Ye Xuan are not too concerned about it.

In fact, although Ye Xuan's strength is extremely strong.

However, this is Kunlun, after all, the place where the genius of the entire Kunlun gods is concentrated. Therefore, in fact, many people who are taller than Ye Xuan's realm have seen the true strength of Ye Xuan, and understand that Ye Xuan's two battles are real. The strength of the crush!

However, these people know this truth, but there are still many people who don't know.

Especially those who are not better than Ye Xuan, or just a little higher than Ye Xuan, can not see the clues.

Lunbang, I don't know how many people dream of wanting to enter.

Nowadays, a newcomer is on the list, and of course they are not satisfied.

"Good boy, Ye Xuan, today, I will teach you on behalf of everyone!"

A figure falls directly in the space of the ring.

The elders of Kunlun also did not see it, and ignored it.

In his eyes, Zhuo Xu also hopes that Ye Xuan will use this opportunity to establish his prestige.

Of course, it is also possible that he is also unhappy with seeing Ye Xuan, so wait for someone to teach Ye Xuan.

"Hey, it's a limp. I heard that he has already arrived at the spiritual refinement of the nine products, and his strength is very strong. Moreover, he is one of the most promising ones to enter the top of the list. The combat power is very embarrassing. !"

"Isn't it, I didn't expect that this trip was actually standing out. It seems that this Ye Xuan is angered."

There were a lot of discussions on the battle table, and there was space in the ring.

Minhang has also put out his own sword against Ye Xuan!

This guy is actually using a sword!

"My name is Minhang, the nine spirits are waiting for the gods, boy, you are too arrogant, so I just have to teach you."

"Is it?"

Ye Xuan looked at the guy, his face did not show his slightest expression.

Instead, silently put out the sword.

"Destroy the gods!"

.....

Another sword!

Another sword will destroy the opponent!

That trip, even just came and used a sword in his hand to block it, but the result is that his sword is destroyed, people have fainted.

And Ye Xuan, actually did not move even in the footsteps.

Chapter 2296: Who else is not convinced?

"Is there such a cockroach ant? Do you want to challenge me, are these ants?"

Ye Xuan said disdainfully, although he said to Minhang, but this sentence is to say that all the people present are listening.

At this point, most people have lost their voices.

Three swords!

Just three swords!

Ye Xuan defeated the three strong players. The most important thing is that these three people are not really as uncomfortable as Ye Xuan said. They are also well-known people.

However, it was so terrible.

Even the sword that was in Minhang was split in two.

The Excalibur is broken. Who should dare to say that the trip is also a fake?

Also colluding with Ye Xuan?

You must know that the sword is in the coffin, but his treasure is that his ancestors personally asked a master of refining for him!

.....

"There is still no one, to fight, just stand up for me once!"

Ye Xuan once again shouted at the people on the battle.

But this time, obviously many people have no confidence.

Even where Ye Xuan's eyes are, many people dare not look at Ye Xuan.

"I am coming, I have to see if your kid is really so powerful!"

A middle-aged man stood up.

"It is him!"

On the battle table, I was once arguing, because the people who came out this time can be said to be famous.

It is said that this person's qualifications are not very good, but Kunlun is still ruined.

Because, this guy, is a famous war mad, this guy, never know how to write the word.

Some people say that he has a special blood, forever blood!

This is not too rare, but it has a very special blood.

Those who have this kind of blood, the will to fight is very firm, as long as they are targeted, then even if they fail 10,000 times, they will not have the slightest idea of giving up.

Of course, the metaphor of a more vivid point is a dead brain.

This kind of blood is a lot of people who are not willing to provoke. Once they regard you as an enemy, they will challenge you all the time until they defeat your position.

Legend has it that in the Kunlun domain, there was a family that inherited this blood.

However, it is precisely because they think that their dead brains have led to the decline of the family, and now there are not many people left in the entire Kunlun domain.

"Hey, the system prompts, it detects a special blood vein that can be used to strengthen the blood of the people, and it is recommended that the host seize it!"

"Amount, system, this is in Kunlun, do you really want me to fight alone in Kunlun, to capture his blood, isn't he going to kill him?"

Ye Xuan was shocked by the system's prompts.

The idea of killing people in Kunlun is really crazy enough.

"Hey, the system suggests that the host's blood has a special nature, can copy and absorb who's special blood, even if it does not hurt people's lives, you can do it."

Ok?

Can the blood of Wanzong still play like this?

That being the case, then Ye Xuan can not be polite.

The man jumped into the space of Lei Tai, his face was full of war, and the eyes of the dead Ye Xuan, the big intention of opening a fight.

Ye Xuan slowly put out the sword.

This time, everyone has widened their eyes and is ready to see how Ye Xuan defeated the enemy with a sword.

However, when they were looking forward to the incomparable, they found that Ye Xuan actually took the sword and took it.

What does he want to do, is it a failure to admit defeat?

People are surprised at why Ye Xuan does not pull the sword.

No one saw that Ye Xuan's hand had been lifted.

"hurt!"

Suddenly, Ye Xuan's voice came out.

Ye Xuan directly used the six-character mantra.

The power of the mysterious is between the moments.

Although it is said that this person's realm is higher than Ye Xuan, the power of the six-word mantra will certainly be reduced.

But it is not useless.

In the same way, with the words of Ye Xuan, in an instant, the person felt that his body was suddenly stiff, and a sense of powerlessness broke out directly from him.

However, just as he was surprised, Ye Xuan's fist had already come over.

"boom!"

One punch, this time, is it a punch that results in an opponent?

At this time, the eyes of countless people are unbelievable, and at the same time, on the battle table, everyone has completely lost their speech ability.

"Hey, the system prompts that the host has strengthened the blood of the people."

"Oh, the host uses the blood of the eternal battle to strengthen the blood of the eternal blood, and the host will be strengthened!"

Upon hearing the prompts from the system, Ye Xuan nodded with satisfaction.

After a while, Ye Xuan looked up again and asked in the countless battles: "Who else is not convinced?"

Silence, silence, no one talks again, no one is afraid to doubt the strength of Ye Xuan.

Ye Xuan, with their own strength, told them that Ye Xuan's strength is not blown out.

Silence, long silence, people no longer doubt the strength of Ye Xuan, although, Ye Xuan is just a newcomer.

You know, until this time, Ye Xuan did not use any means except the first battle.

You must know that Ye Xuan is a forbidden master, a god-like master, an alchemy master!

No matter who it is, it is very clear that the combat effectiveness of any auxiliary profession is not low.

Otherwise, it will not be so sought after.

Then in other words, Ye Xuan did not break out!

Actually, even if he has not used all his strength, he has been able to defeat many powerful players with one sword, and whoever dares not to accept it.

The strength of Ye Xuan has made everyone afraid to speak.

Although, there are still many people who are very upset about Ye Xuan.

However, either their strength is not enough, or their rankings surpass Ye Xuan.

According to the rules of the qualifying challenge, those who are ranked higher will not be able to challenge the people with low rankings. Of course, if both parties are willing, they can also challenge.

However, the current Ye Xuan has been fighting three times in a row. Now, it is impossible for anyone to challenge Ye Xuan.

After all, in the hearts of those people, now to challenge Ye Xuan, is to take advantage of it.

Ye Xuan stood in the space of the ring, waiting for a while, no one still challenged.

Ye Xuan's mouth was slightly upturned and went straight out.

People silently watched Ye Xuan, Ye Xuan proved with his own strength, what is the real genius!

Moreover, it was only because of Ye Xuan's challenge that he had an admirer.

However, at this time Ye Xuan still does not know this because he has left again.

Now that Ye Xuan has resources in his hands, he will naturally return to the mysterious lake and prepare to hunt a beast.

The realm of the beasts here is very high, which can make Ye Xuan quickly upgrade the level. Of course, the premise is that Ye Xuan must have sufficient resources to arrange the prohibition and the rune.

After all, any of the beasts here is not something that Ye Xuan can handle at will.

Chapter 2297: Four-eared tiger

This time, the prohibition of preparation for refining, although not a semi-field ban, but the power is by no means idle.

"System, let's get started, refining this so-called charm prohibition!"

Forbidden gods? Signature prohibition?

In fact, it is the combination of the prohibition and the rune, but it is only the difference between the primary and secondary.

One is based on the prohibition, and the rune is supplemented by the attack mode, and the other is the attack mode based on the rune and the prohibition.

This time, Ye Xuan is preparing to refine a ban called the deciduous gods!

It doesn't seem to be a big threat to look at the name of the ban, and it sounds pretty good.

However, the power is not simple.

I saw countless resources quickly disappeared from Ye Xuan's hands, and at the same time, one of the charms appeared in the hands of Ye Xuan.

This time, Ye Xuan used a total of one hundred and eight characters.

Among them, there are eight deities that are the core of the construction of the ban, and the other hundred bans are killing.

One hundred and eight characters were quickly refining.

Now, it is only the last ban core.

However, the thing needs to be in place before it can be refining, so Ye Xuan has to temporarily work.

"System, send me to the mysterious lake!"

"Hey, the transfer starts, the transfer is successful!"

In an instant, Ye Xuan came to the mysterious lake once.

Looked at the black water of a lake, Ye Xuan knew that the thing is a good thing, but Ye Xuan is not going to collect it now. Anyway, he can come here anytime, then, it's not as good as the realm. Charged.

"System, detect the surrounding beasts and choose the weakest one!"

Because the last time Ye Xuan came here and made a detection, this time it is simpler, only the system needs to be directly positioned.

"Hey, the system prompts, the positioning is successful."

"Hey, specify the target, the seven products and the gods, and the four ears!"

Seven products waiting for the gods? It seems that the realm is not very high.

Then, Ye Xuan is going to meet this guy for a while to see what special things he has.

When Ye Xuan came to the site of the four-handed tiger, he once again said to the system: "The system detects the attributes of these four-headed tigers."

"Hey, the system prompts, the detection is successful."

Four ears and tigers, with two teams of special ability ears, a pair of listening to the sky, a pair of listening to the ground.

With the help of the special ears of the two teams, the four-eared tiger has the special ability to predict the opponent's attack route, attack action and so on.

Moreover, this four-eared tiger masters a special field, the mountain hill.

.....

Ye Xuan looked at the general attributes of these four-eared tigers, and there was a general understanding in the heart.

It can be said that on the surface, this four-eared tiger does not seem to be the fire lion that he encountered in the above time. However, the ability to predict is quite tricky.

Now that the information has been mastered, then Ye Xuan does not need to delay the time and wave.

The thousand beast swordsman and the flower **** sword waiter appear directly.

After they appeared, they did not hesitate to go straight to the four-eared tiger.

Although the four-eared tiger has the ability to pre-judgment, it is only available when he launches it. Ye Xuan suddenly arrives, and inexplicably launches an attack. Where can the four-handed tiger think?

"Human, you are looking for death!"

A voice was directly introduced into Ye Xuan's ear.

Ye Xuan slightly stunned, this beast, can actually use the voice to speak, it seems that the intelligence is not low, at least, it is more difficult than the fire lion to deal with a few points.

However, Ye Xuan will manage so much at this time. On the one hand, he ordered the thousands of beasts and the flowers and flowers to besiege the four-handed tigers in order to delay the time, but on the other hand, Ye Xuan has already said to the system.

"System, refining the core of the rune!"

This deciduous devil is the core of the ban, it is an ancient tree charm!

No trees, where are the leaves? Without leaves, how to drift.

Therefore, the core of this prohibition is this old tree.

It is precisely because of this ancient tree that it is possible to make this deciduous eclipse ban, and it is possible to launch a sacred attack in the form of a ban.

With the rapid disappearance of countless resources, Ye Xuan's hand appeared a weird rune.

It is because of his appearance that this charm is strange.

The appearance of this rune is actually a seed, a seed with a strange pattern.

Of course, Ye Xuan now has no mood to appreciate the beauty of this kind of child.

I saw Ye Xuan throwing it away, and that seed fell directly in front of Ye Xuan.

"Booming!"

In an instant, that kind of child broke directly into the ground.

Countless roots must spread rapidly and continue to draw power from the ground.

The branches and leaves also grew rapidly. In a flash, Huawei was a hundred-meter-high tree.

This is only because of Ye Xuan's refining, but it is the lowest level of the ancient tree.

You must know that this ancient tree charm is not only one hundred meters, but also kilometers, ten meters, even millions, ten meters high.

However, Ye Xuan does not have the ability to refine such a strong core of ancient trees. At the same time, there is no need to refine the core of such ancient trees.

Later, Ye Xuan threw out the eight core charms.

The eight core characters are directly integrated into the old tree. In an instant, the old tree seems to be alive, and the color is changed quickly. The original green leaves are suddenly Change has become a variety of colors.

These leaves with different colors actually represent different forces.

Later, Ye Xuan's hands were constantly flying out of the gods. These charms quickly blended into the surrounding trees, or in the air, or on the ground, completely changing the space around the ancient trees.

The leaves are drifting and the gods are forbidden, and the refining is successful.

At this time, on the other side, the four-eared tiger has also defeated the god-level mount led by the swordsman, and the flower-flowered **** led by the flower **** sword.

And Ye Xuan, who has the time to look at the four-headed tiger fight, has to admit that this guy's fighting method is indeed very different.

Whether it is a god-level mount or a flower, the attack, even if it is a hand attack, can be easily avoided by the four-handed tiger.

Because this guy has special induction, he can predict the opponent's attack route in advance, so basically the ordinary attack means is useless to him.

But his attack power is not weak.

The special field that the four-eared tigers mastered is called the Mountain Hill. The reason why it is called special is because this field can be arbitrarily launched according to the four-handed tiger.

It can be said that every attack of the four-eared tiger must be accompanied by his special field attack.

I saw that the four-eared tigers waved with one hand.

This claw, the surface does not seem to be anything special, but when he is about to reach the target, suddenly there is a hill barrier that rises around the several god-level mounts that he targets.

This hilly barrier directly traps this god-level mount.

Chapter 2298: Predictive ability

The only thing they can choose is to fly away in the sky.

But the key point is that at this time, a mountain has appeared in the sky, and it is going straight down the ground.

At the bottom of the mountain, there is obviously a special forbidden reinforcement, which is sturdy and abnormal. The god-level mount wants to destroy the mountain from the bottom.

However, it is just in vain.

No matter how the god-level mount resists, it is impossible to ask the mountain.

The size of the mountain is not much more than just the hill barrier.

That is to say, the god-level mount surrounded by him has no chance to resist at all, and he is directly alive and dead in the mountain.

"Is this a special ban on the four-handed tiger? The hill of the mountain, really the image!"

Ye Xuan nodded, and the god-level mount was killed. Ye Xuan wouldn't care. Anyway, these god-level mounts will be resurrected when time is up. Therefore, Ye Xuan has nothing to worry about.

Watching the four-eared tigers raging in the god-level mount.

To be honest, Ye Xuan also wants to have such a predictive ability.

This talent is simply invincible, and any means of attack can be known to him in advance.

Ye Xuan believes that he can also get it in the future.

Only now, it is not the time to consider this.

"Thousand beast swordsman, bring the guy over!"

Ye Xuan ordered the commander of the thousand beasts. At this time, his ban on the gods had been successfully arranged.

However, can the four-eared tiger come in so easily?

Ye Xuan is not sure. After all, this guy has the ability to predict.

And the wisdom is not low, I am afraid that I already know Ye Xuan's intention.

Sure enough, as Ye Xuan expected, this guy is really not so easy to hook.

It even reveals a playful expression.

That looks like it is laughing at Ye Xuan!

"In the trough, I was ridiculed by a beast!"

Ye Xuan is quite speechless. He really didn't think that there would be such a result.

The thousands of beasts and the god-level mounts, as well as the flowers and flowers, no matter how tempted, the guy, but is not willing to hook.

Damn, can't play like this, so play, then Ye Xuan's prohibition does not completely lose its meaning.

No, you have to come up with a way.

"The flower **** swordsman, with your flowers and flowers, give me back to the ban."

Ye Xuan issued an order.

In an instant, the flowers of the flower are all removed into the battle.

Why did Ye Xuan withdraw the flowers from the flower?

Because what Baihuahua is good at is a long-range attack.

In the current situation, the long-range attack is more useful for Ye Xuan.

"Hundred flowers, attack! God level mount, local defense!"

Ye Xuan issued an order, and each of them sent out their own long-range attack means, and the ray of light spurred toward the four-eared gods.

Although he did not hurt the four-handed tiger, he also made him very bored.

"Human, do you want to challenge my endurance limit?"

The four-handed tiger talked to Ye Xuan for the second time.

This time, Ye Xuan will not ignore him.

"Hey, the area is full of animals, look for death!"

Ye Xuan said faintly, in his words, full of disdain for the four ears.

Of course, this is not to say that Ye Xuan really despise the four-handed tiger. Since Ye Xuan has already arranged a ban on dealing with these four-headed tigers, it has already explained Ye Xuan's attention to him.

Only this guy did not enter the hook at all, so Ye Xuan only tried to irritate him.

Only by angering him can he be allowed to enter the sacred ban.

Even if it is a ban, it will be limited as long as it is a ban, that is, it cannot be moved at all.

It can be said that this time Ye Xuan is somewhat miscalculated.

He did not think that this four-handed tiger is so difficult to deal with.

"Haha, Terran, do you think that this will entice me?"

"You don't get hooked, that's what you mean, but I will slowly kill you!"

Ye Xuan said faintly.

Even if Ye Xuan is quite helpless to the four-eared tiger, he can't take it.

Soon, relying on the special field of the mountain hills, Ye Xuan's god-level mounts were all wiped out, even if they were thousands of beasts, they were killed.

However, Ye Xuan did not care, but ordered the Baihuahua to continue to harass the four ears.

When the cooling time is over, Ye Xuan will summon a thousand beast swordsman and a god-level mount, and launch an attack again.

.....

In this way, in ten days, Ye Xuan launched ten attacks, although each time there was no result.

However, such repeated harassment, the four-eared tiger finally could not stand it.

the eleventh day.

"Damn human beings, since you are looking for death, then I will fulfill you. You think that if you set up a ban, you will be able to get me? Today, I will tear you apart and treat your heart and soul as a snack!"

Even if the four-eared tiger is vigilant, but Ye Xuan this helpless general means of attack, he eventually could not stand it.

Time and time again and again, even if those god-level mounts are killed, they will appear again in a while.

At this time, in the heart of the four-eared tiger, I was afraid that Ye Xuan would be regarded as the annoying flies, but he would not be able to drive away, but he was still tossing around.

He finally decided to enter the ban and kill Ye Xuan.

After all, in his eyes, Ye Xuan is just as weak as an ant, and there is no difficulty in killing Ye Xuan.

It's just that the ban on Ye Xuan is a bit strange, so he doesn't dare to act easily.

The four-eared tiger **** with pre-judgment ability can clearly sense the threat from the ban, but his eyes tell him that the ban is not too much threat.

One is the eye and the other is the intuition.

Both belong to his own feelings, how to judge, and only rely on his own ideas.

The reason why the four-eared tiger has never dared to come is because the intuition reminds him that the prohibition is very strange.

However, Ye Xuanyi repeatedly harassed, and eventually let the four-eared tiger God tireless.

"I only need a moment, just a moment, you can kill the human race in front of you!"

"Yes, it's just a matter of moments. Even if there is any threat to the ban, it will not be a threat to me in a flash."

"I can quickly leave after killing the Terran as long as I am fast enough!"

.....

The four-eared tigers constantly cheered on themselves, but also for this time to find out the appropriate reasons for Ye Xuan.

In the end, the impulse defeated the reason, the four ears, and launched the attack.

"Roar!"

The four-eared gods turned into a streamer, relying on his powerful predictive ability, even directly penetrated the defense line of the god-level mount.

Although Ye Xuan does intend to make the defense line seem a bit loose, I am afraid that even if the upgrade mount is fully defended, it will not stop this guy.

Extreme speed, accurate prediction, so that he can avoid any attack.

Chapter 2299: Lin Fengjing was slaughtered

"boom!"

As if it was a broken diaphragm, the four-eared tiger finally rushed into the ban of falling leaves.

In an instant, the wind has started.

In the scope of the prohibition, there was a gust of wind, and this gust of wind was brought by the four-handed tiger.

The faster this guy is, the more violent the wind will be.

This is not the key, the key is the leaves mixed in the wind!

It turned out that the old tree kept falling down the leaves. At this time, the entire ground was covered with withered leaves.

And these leaves are the killers of the entire fallen leaves.

Ye Xuan stood on the old tree and his mouth was slightly upturned.

Today, the leaves are drifting and the gods are forbidden. This four-handed tiger is already blamed by Ye Xuan.

"Closed forbidden!"

Along with Ye Xuan's words, the banned edge formed a defensive barrier built by dead leaves and squally winds.

And not one, it is a whole six.

Six unregulated tropospheres directly lock the entire deciduous zero-forbidden deity.

Ye Xuan looked at the four-eyed tiger.

Today, his own magical ban, Ye Xuan wants to see, he has any skills.

At this time, the four-eared tiger was also panicked because he suddenly found out that his ability to prejudge was not enough.

Yes, he can still make a pre-judgment, but the countless dead leaves make him predict.

Even if he is free to move, he can only activate the front leaves as a siege, plus the active attacking leaves produced by the prohibition itself.

That is to say, every moment, there will be tens of thousands of leaves attacking him, and these leaves are changing at any time.

Even if the four-eared tiger has the ability to predict, how can he lock so many leaves to attack.

Perhaps the leaves of these leaves in the banned leaves are not very good. However, this sacred prohibition itself does not rely on individual attacks to win.

"Hey!"

"Boom!"

The continuous buzzing sound continues to sound.

Every moment, the four-eared tigers are constantly being attacked.

The wind makes it impossible for the four-eared tiger to move quickly.

Even if he is a god, but in the face of the squally wind formed by the fading of the fallen leaves, can only be slowed down, and even bruises.

The loyalty of the ban, the old tree constantly drops all kinds of leaves.

These leaves danced in the wind and continually attacked the four-eared tiger.

The four-eared tiger has just entered the near future and has already regretted it.

However, now he wants to go out and can't do it.

Because here, no matter if he moves in any direction, then the wind will immediately change direction.

Here is the defoliation of the fallen leaves, the law of the wind is not lawful, and it is ineffective.

In the blink of an eye, the wind can complete the direction change, so that these four ears can not help.

The guardian of the four-eared deity is constantly weakened until it bursts.

Then, his body was constantly attacked by countless dead leaves, even if it only left a small wound, but as long as the speed of making the wound exceeded the speed of the automatic healing of the four-eared tiger, then these four ears, There is only one dead road.

A small wound is constantly being enlarged, and although the four-eared tiger is crazy, it is a pity that his madness is just in vain.

In the face of the ruined leaves and the fascination of the gods, these four-eyed gods are directly killed by living.

.....

Finally, the four-handed **** fell, his whole body has long been bloody, his power has also been exhausted.

This kind of death is undoubtedly a kind of super torture!

Ye Xuan waved his hand and swallowed his ability.

The body of the four-eared tiger was swallowed up by Ye Xuan in an instant.

"Hey, the host breaks through, and the current five products are in the real world!"

"Hey, the system prompts, the host kills the four-eared tiger and gets a drop of golden blood."

"Hey, the system prompts, the host kills the four-handed tiger and gets the pre-judgment rule."

what!

Fragments of the prejudging rule!

Ye Xuan is overjoyed. I have to know that this ability to predict is very powerful, but I have not thought that it can be classified as a kind of law.

Originally, Ye Xuan thought that this four-eared tiger, what would burst out, was his rule of the mountain hills. I did not expect that it was a fragment of the pre-judgment rule.

Cool!

This is simply better than the upgrade level.

However, after seeing the number of pieces needed to synthesize the pre-judgment rule, Ye Xuan was still quite depressed.

Because this prejudging rule requires two hundred pieces of debris to be synthesized.

Two hundred pieces of debris, if you want to get it, you can get it.

You know, Ye Xuan killed two beasts here, one is the super-presence of the middle god, and the other is the lower-level god, but each one will only give him a variety of rules and fragments.

In this way, Ye Xuan is not trying to kill two hundred beasts here?

The key point is that there must be two hundred beasts with pre-judgment rules.

The beast with pre-judgment ability, where is so good to find.

This four-headed tiger is the only place to fill the position of the fire lion that was last killed by Ye Xuan, and the beasts of other places have no one like this.

Of course, Ye Xuan has a hope anyway, so Ye Xuan will not be disgusted.

Is the five products in the real world?

From the kingdom of the gods, it has only been upgraded five times. That is to say, it is enough to kill the two beasts here.

At that time, Ye Xuan can enter the realm of the Lord God!

Become the **** of the king!

This can be said to be a qualitative flyby.

God of the Lord God, the God of the Lord!

In the Kunlun domain, in addition to the small forces, or the forces in the marginal areas, the masters of the true core strength, the patriarchs and the like are the main divines, regardless of the gods, or other realms.

"System, transmitted back to Kunlun."

Ye Xuan actually didn't delay much time here, and it took only two months before and after.

For two months, it's just a moment in the realm of the gods.

Originally, Ye Xuan thought that there would be no change after going back.

However, this time he went back and heard unusual news.

"I heard that, there is a place on the edge of Kunlun's godland called Linfeng. It is very small in front of us. There are only a few dozens of fronts, but overnight, it was swept by a force. It's terrible that two-thirds of the people were massacred."

"What is so horrible? Then, in a small remote place, it is not normal to have this happening. What kind of masters are there, I guess, they must have offended someone..."

Lin Fengjing, was slaughtered!

Ye Xuan's heart is stunned, and at the same time, he is also very angry.

Who is doing it, Ye Xuan is clear.

Chapter 2300: frenzied!

Destruction of the organization, the **** organization, in addition to them, simply can not find anyone else.

Last time, Ye Xuan led Meigu Villa, which invaded the mysterious force in the Beast Valley. Originally, Ye Xuan thought that the mysterious power had left, even if it was a revenge against Lin Fengjing, it could not be said to be too strong.

But where can I think that the organization of the extermination has killed two-thirds of the people in Linfeng!

That is the face of dozens of situations, and there are thousands of people who say less!

So many people, and the fight against the organization is only part of it.

Many other people are actually innocent.

"Damn! Really damn!"

Ye Xuan tube can not be so much, directly apply to use the transmission array, and quickly rushed toward Lin Feng.

His first goal is naturally to see the Meigu Mountain Villa.

Because Ye Xuan understands that the Meigu Mountain Villa may become the first attacking enemy of the mysterious organization.

When Ye Xuan went all the way, it really happened, and the Meigu Mountain Villa had already disappeared.

Those who believe in Ye Xuan have already been slaughtered.

This is something that Ye Xuan can't accept at all.

Ye Xuan quickly searched for the wreckage of Meigu Mountain Villa. He hoped to find one or two survivors to understand what happened at the time.

Fortunately, Ye Xuan found it.

A total of five people, two hands and feet were cut off, three people who lost their eyes!

Moreover, the deities of these people have been destroyed, and at this time they are simply waiting for the dead.

These five people simply did not organize to deliberately stay.

"Okay, very good! Off the organization, I am not with you in the sky!"

Ye Xuan was angry in his heart.

Most of the people in Meigu Mountain Village have already believed in Ye Xuan, and regard Ye Xuan as their protector, and even how to promote Ye Xuan in the outside world.

Nowadays, the entire villa, but left the five waste people!

"System, give me treatment for them!"

Ye Xuan's hands emit a faint radiance, which is the healing power obtained from the flower **** sword.

Ye Xuan wants to treat these five people. After all, if the five people Ye Xuan do not care, then they have only one dead end!

"The messenger, you should not be in vain, useless, we are abandoned by the ancient demon, have lost all the qualifications, there is no way to repair."

One person said loudly to Ye Xuan that his hands and feet were gone. Usually, he could only rely on another person who lost his eyes to take action.

When Ye Xuan arrived, they couldn't feel it without God's thoughts, but he could see it if he had eyes.

"What do you say? Ancient demon?"

"Yes, the ambassador, you still don't care about us, you are going to inform the gods, the ancient demon reappear, fear that there will be a big disaster to happen, these guys collect the totem beast, just to resurrect the ancient demon."

"This time, they slaughtered me so many people in the Fengjing area, also for the blood sacrifice of the demon god!"

Damn it!

Ye Xuan suddenly slammed out, but in the middle of the air, he stopped, because Ye Xuan knew that the five people who lost their gods in front of them were very vulnerable.

It can be said that even if Ye Xuan is only slightly changed, he may be killed.

"Well, I know what to do. I will send you to a place now. There, maybe I have a way to heal you. You should not resist. I will send you now."

Ye Xuan said, of course, is to swallow the space, in the swallowing space, Ye Xuan is sure to restore them, even if they can not, they can keep their souls intact.

After all, these five people are already Meigu Mountain Villa, the last five people.

After the five people's income swallowed up space, Ye Xuan's heart could not calm his anger for a long time.

I have to say that it is fortunate to be in a hurry, because they are also resurrected an ancient demon.

However, the organization of the extermination took the ancient demon **** away, and did not retaliate against the enemy.

Otherwise, I am afraid that it is the situation of Linjing in the present, it is a portrayal of the world.

After all, in the midst of the world, there are people who care about Ye Xuan.

The people in the fifth hall, no training camp, Lingxuan Pavilion and so on!

In Ye Xuan's heart, these people are the objects he wants to guard.

"No, it seems that I have to think of a way to go back once and for all, only to leave enough backhands there, I can rest assured!"

Of course, although Ye Xuan's heart thinks so, there is no way at all.

The distance of three million is not to say that it is played, and there are countless obstacles in this journey, countless areas of the main god.

Ye Xuan wants to pass, at least with his current strength, it is impossible to reach quickly!

Therefore, this idea, Ye Xuan can only be temporarily placed aside.

Now, the most important thing for Ye Xuan is to find the hiding place of the organization, and then pull them out to avenge everyone in Linfeng.

However, after collecting the news for several days, Ye Xuan found that he could not get the news he wanted here. In this case, Ye Xuan could not continue to waste time here.

Ye Xuan called on everyone to establish a new city in Linfengjing. Ye Xuan named it Linfeng City, and more than half of the survivors moved here.

Ye Xuan does not hesitate to consume most of his resources, and has placed several permanent defense bans here.

It can be said that below the middle of the gods, I can break through Linfeng City.

People feel very impressed with Ye Xuan, so that Ye Xuan has harvested a large wave of belief values.

However, Ye Xuan did not care about this. He cares about how to find the person who destroyed the organization and avenge the lost people in Linfeng.

At the same time, it is also avoided that the organization will continue to harm the Kunlun domain.

Although Ye Xuan did not know, the person who destroyed the organization got what he wanted to do.

But Ye Xuan understands that it is definitely not a good thing.

Among the Kunlun gods, there are also organizations that make a living by selling intelligence.

Of course, this kind of organization is generally hidden in a special place.

This time, the city that Ye Xuan is going to is the core of the entire Kunlun domain.

It is the place where you live. Under normal circumstances, everyone likes to call it the Palace of God.

Because everything there is for the Lord God.

In spite of this, in this palace of the gods, it is also the entire Kunlun domain, where the headquarters of various forces are located.

After all, where is the entire Kunlun domain more secure than where God's Lord is living?

Ye Xuan actually came here once, but that time he was brought directly here, so, what exactly is this city, Ye Xuan has no chance to see.

This time, Ye Xuan is taking the initiative, so naturally, he will see many things he has not seen before.

When Ye Xuan arrived here, the first reaction was strong!

Yes, it is powerful.
