Chapter 241: Work together

"Don't attack the same location, spread the attack and find the flaws!"

Someone reminded.

Every second, there will be hundreds of attacks on the stone statues. However, this stone statue is indifferent. It passes directly between the Lingxiao government team and the Tianyuanzong team, chasing Wang Chuanshan.

"Hey!"

Under the big sword of the right hand of the stone statue, the huge sound echoed in this confined space, stimulating the eardrum of everyone.

After Wang Chuanshan saw the power of this sword, he was also trembled and began to regret it. Why did he volunteer at the beginning? However, this crisis is still easy for him to deal with, as long as the Dan Yuan in the body is enough.

In the first minute, everyone stood in the same place and Wang Chuanshan ran back and forth.

The second minute is still the case.

However, by the third minute, Wang Chuanshan was a little asthmatic, and he was out of breath. The body of Dan Yuan was less than half.

The fate is that everyone in the room still has not found the flaw, that is to say, these three minutes are busy, and a lot of physical strength and Dan Yuan are wasted.

In the fourth minute, Wang Chuanshan also secretly made a decision, improper bait.

There is only one-third of the Dan Yuan in his body. If he continues, the first one must be killed. Therefore, it can only be a disaster.

"Don't blame me for being ruthless." Wang Chuanshan whispered in his heart and suddenly rushed toward the crowd in Lingxiao.

not good!

Upon seeing it, the faces of the fifteen people in Lingxiao House changed completely and immediately dispersed, even Ye Xuan.

Wang Chuanshan gritted his teeth and plundered directly to the disciple of a Huangzhifu. Then he flashed his body and crossed him.

"Family teacher!"

Someone shouted.

But the next moment, the expression of this person is abruptly stopped. He saw that the disciple of the Huangzhifu was directly smashed by the giant sword, and the whole person was divided into two, and the death was extremely miserable.

The first dead was finally born.

There are two.

After killing this person, the stone statue chased the past to a recent disciple. This disciple is also a person from Lingxiao.

"No, don't chase me, chase others..."

The disciple shouted a few times and could not escape the giant sword.

The attack was also split into two halves.

Now, Wang Chuanshan is also out of danger. He shouted: "You have been able to find a waste of this kind of waste for so long."

This shows that he has to be hands-on.

The stone statue is chasing the nearest person to attack. It is a coincidence that the goal of this stone statue is that it is hard to break through the river tour of Xiaocheng.

"not good!"

Jiangyou, who was escaping from the madness, turned around and saw that the stone statue was watching him. He immediately rushed forward and tried to distance himself from the stone statue.

However, the stone statue has already locked him, and he has taken a big foot and chased the past.

Jiangyou is only a small man in the world, and naturally escapes the stone statue that is comparable to the land of Dan, and is quickly caught up.

"Second brother!" Jiang Liu saw, hurriedly screamed, and turned to the stone statue to look at the ability. However, his attack still had no effect, and even a little splash did not float.

"Huh!"

The stone statue raised its right arm and slammed it under the sword. The speed of this shot was already beyond the reaction of Jiang You.

"It's over!"

Jiang You's mind flashed through his mind, and with his ability, he absolutely could not escape this sword.

The sword is getting closer and closer, but when Jiangyou is about to be split in two, suddenly there is a white light, and then the sword of the stone suddenly stays in the air.

"boom!"

A muffled sound spread, everyone is a glimpse.

They stared at it, but they suddenly found another giant sword.

However, this giant sword is not the same as the stone statue. This is a virtual shadow formed by Dan Yuan. However, it was because of this big sword that blocked the attack of the stone statue, so that Jiang You did not die under that blow.

who is it?

Everyone looked down on the shadow of the big sword. I saw that the person holding the sword was a young man wearing the costumes of the house of Lingfufu.

"Ye Xuan?"

Jiang Youyi stunned and exclaimed.

Yes, this young man who rushed out is Ye Xuan. The trick he used at this time was the eight-day-shattering sword that he had just learned.

"Brother, go!" Ye Xuan bit his teeth and spit out a few words.

At this point, he has already made a strong effort to eat milk, and the whole body has been stretched to the extreme.

Limit, the hands holding the eight swords shivered slightly. The strength of this stone statue is beyond his expectations, and he will not last long.

Jiang You also reacted and turned around and ran, but he ran for a while and found that if he ran, Ye Xuan is not the target of the stone statue?

He turned his head in vain, just to see Ye Xuan's big sword virtual shadow was collapsed. At the same time, Ye Xuan also rushed past and stalked directly behind the stone statue.

flaw!

Six flaws!

If you can't find these six flaws, everyone in the room must die, but it won't last long.

There is definitely a support for the inside of this stone statue. The stone image is actually a flaw in the array. In Ye Xuan, there is also a senior bloodline in the body. He must be close to find out the flaw.

Although the stone statue is comparable to the land of Dan, but Ye Xuan has a variety of high blood, speed and resilience is super strong, the stone is like the speed of others, he also saw, he feels, as long as no accident, insist on this There should be no problem with the first ten minutes.

"Boom!"

The stone statue also turned around and fell down against Ye Xuan, but was hidden by Ye Xuan.

The blood of the beast and the blood of the leopard, let Ye Xuan's speed exceed the average person Dan Dacheng, if you use the body martial arts, the full speed explosion may be faster than the Wang Chuanshan. The most important thing is that the test here is not explosive, but lasting.

Ye Xuan took a stone statue to attack the stiff moment, once again took a quick recovery of Dan Yuan's remedy, and then continued to dodge.

Those outside the field have already seen it.

"Who is this person? Is it the strong land of the Ling Dan House?"

"Impossible, there is only one genius in the Lingxiao House, that is the ally of the Shenzhou Alliance, but I heard that this lord has gone to Zhongzhou has not returned."

"He must have just broken through."

"No, this person is not relying on martial arts, but the powerful constitution. Only then did the sword be blocked by him. How strong is this person's constitution?"

These people are surprised to forget the attack.

Not only that, but also the brothers and sisters of Lingxiao.

"The strength of Ye Xuan has actually increased. This speed is not something I can catch up with."

The river murmured, and the next moment, he suddenly remembered one thing, and hurriedly shouted: "Everyone is attacking quickly, find out the flaws, don't let Ye Xuan work hard!"
