Chapter 243: distribution

I don't know who is shouting at that, it directly guides everyone, and they are attacking the right arm of the stone statue.

But this can't blame them, a giant sword of this stone statue, but they are not scared, if the right arm can be destroyed, the threat of this stone statue is greatly reduced.

Ye Xuan did not stop, he escaped the stone statue and slashed, and flashed to the half of the left arm that the stone statue fell.

"What, forbidden, can't swallow?"

He was shocked. The material of this stone statue is obviously not ordinary. It is sure to be worth a lot of money. Unfortunately, there is a forbidden line, and it is very clever. If it is a general forbidden array, he can easily break it, but this Huoyang is a master of the array, and Ye Xuan has no confidence to break.

Besides, time is not allowed.

So, can only give up!

", I am dead."

Ye Xuan screamed in his heart, he acted as a bait, braved the danger of being slashed in the middle of the road, but he did not get anything, but also lost a lot of medicinal herbs.

Therefore, his anger is great.

"Hey!"

Just then, a subtle voice fell into Ye Xuan's ear.

flaw!

Another flaw!

Ye Xuan quickly looked up and saw that it was a strange place, but this flaw was not on the arm.

At the moment, he shouted: "The second flaw is in the center of the back!"

When I heard this, everyone was boiling again.

The center of the back of the hand, this is a good position, as long as this second weakness is ruined, maybe this big sword will fall off?

However, there is a problem at the moment. This stone statue is attacked by a big sword, and its attack speed is fast, so it is difficult for the attack to fall on the back of the right hand.

At this stage, it took a lot of time, and Dan Yuan, who was in the military of the first time, was almost squandered. Five minutes later, in a booming sound, the stone's wrist suddenly broke and fell to the ground.

"Haha, it's finally down."

Everyone's face is full of joy.

Without a big sword, the threat of this stone statue has fallen dramatically. It can only be attacked with feet and hands.

Then, someone found a third flaw, a little above the stone's right arm joint.

However, due to insufficient Danyuan in the body, this weakness has not been broken, and it can only be left until the next time.

Enter the ten minute break.

Ye Xuan quickly recovered Dan Yuan and his physical strength. The same was true of other people. Even when the rest time had not yet arrived, some people sat down and began to recover.

Ten minutes, it will soon pass.

Ye Xuan began to attract the hatred of this stone statue, and the rest began to attack the third weakness. In less than three minutes, the arm of the stone statue fell.

Now, its attack method is only two feet. When one uses the foot to attack, Ye Xuan's pressure is instantly relieved, and he becomes more comfortable.

Another ten minutes passed, the stone's right calf broke, and the walk began to sway, which was not enough.

Then, it is the left calf.

Now, it has already ruined five flaws, leaving only the last one.

At this time, there are not many people in the field, and the threat of stone statues is greatly reduced. The people in the field are estimated to be able to avoid the pursuit of stone statues.

But now, everyone is silent, they are no longer looking for flaws, but gathered together.

Ye Xuan Shuguang is also a slight flash, and it is time to count the general ledger.

"Wang Chuanshan, you only brought the stone statue to my Lingxiao government. What does this mean?" The leader of the Lingxiao government came out and asked coldly.

"Hey, I volunteered to be a bait. It doesn't mean that I can sacrifice. I don't lead you to the other side. Is it difficult to lead me to Tian Yuanzong?"

Wang Chuanshan explained that he believes that no matter who is at that point, he will lead to the other side of the camp. This is human nature.

At this time, Ye Xuan suddenly came out and said: "Then you will not say it in advance, I will take over?"

"Just kidding, you are not a master of Lingxiao, no one is in the land, how do I know that you have the ability to lead the stone?" Wang Chuanjun glanced at the stone statue of the limbs not far away.

At this time, the stone statue is attracting hatred from the disciple of Xiaoyuan Xiaocheng, a person from Tianyuanzong.

"Well, this is not to say for the time being. Now there is only one last flaw in this stone statue. If you destroy this stone statue, you can get azure.

stone. Then we will talk about how to distribute! "The river is loud."

When I mentioned lapis lazuli, Wang Chuanjun's gaze was a cold, and said: "Well, how do you say how to distribute?"

Jiang Liu stunned his face, and almost collapsed Ye Xuan, slowly said: "I will analyze it first. First, except for the delay of three minutes, the rest of the time is that Ye Xuan is risking his life. Attracting is to be focused."

"Second, if it wasn't for the medicinal herbs that Ye Xuan gave to you, the Danyuan of your group would have long since used up. The role of these people may not exceed our dozens."

"Third, you Wang Chuanshan also attracted the stone statue, which led to the killing of two disciples in the Lingxiao House by the stone statue."

"Fourth, many flaws in the stone statues were discovered by Ye Xuan."

"So I think, you can get up to 20% lapis lazuli!"

When the voice of the river fell, the face of Wang Chuanshan changed immediately. He said: "Fart, if it weren't for me, just rely on you, even if you give me twenty minutes, you can't destroy a weakness. This lapis lazuli, I 50%!"

That is the split!

Although the number of Tianyuanzong is double that of Lingxiao, according to the river, these people in Tianyuanzong are actually of little use.

After Wang Chuanshan's opening, the group of disciples behind him also looked at each other and then bowed his head slightly. They are not fools, Ling Xiaofu can give a price of 20%, it is already very affordable. If you really want to count it, I am afraid they can only get 10%.

However, this Wang Chuanshan opening is about 50%. It is simply a big opening for the lion, and the face is too thick.

"Just kidding, your contribution can be worth 50%?" Jiangliu almost did not give madness, he is willing to give 20% is already very kind, and Wang Chuanshan still wants 50%, this is simply whimsical.

"Brother, we..."

At this time, suddenly there was a disciple of Tian Yuanzong.

"Shut up, I didn't let you talk."

Wang Chuanshan did not wait for him to finish, directly yelling at the Tao, only then this group of people are there, but he can hear it clearly.

The disciple's neck shrank and hurried back, not dare to speak.

Who is Wang Chuanshan, the third master of the Tianyuan list, or the high-ranking leader of Tianyuanzong, who dare not easily offend, only to be unintentional.
