Chapter 245: Scramble

After Ye Xuan and Wang Chuanshan went out, the entire Dongfu House began to tremble and the dust continued to fall on the ceiling. At this time, the rivers and other talents remembered that after the stone statue was destroyed, the entire cave house would collapse.

"Go, hurry out!"

The river slammed low and hurriedly plunged into that passage.

The escape route is very dark and steep. With sonic positioning, the leaf can still handle it.

However, when he chased Wang Chuanshan at full speed, he suddenly found that Wang Chuanshan was getting farther and farther away from him.

How can this be?

"There must be some kind of exercise to improve strength!"

Ye Xuan reacted in an instant. At this time, he hesitated because he would also do this kind of exercise, which is a blast.

However, this explosion has a very fatal sequela, that is, the realm will fall after use, lasting for half a month. Under normal circumstances, it is a three-explosion, and the other is a seven-in-one explosion. The consequences are very serious. That is to repair it as a loss, and to re-cultivate.

However, now, Ye Xuan can't manage that much.

"Puff puff!"

Three muffled sounds spread, and the three acupoints in Ye Xuan's body exploded and his Dan Yuan suddenly surged up.

Before he used the explosion, it was only the peak of the real Xuanjing, and the strength of the increase was very large. Now, he is a small man, but the strength of the increase is small.

However, this is better than nothing, at least not let him be pulled away.

Ten seconds later, Ye Xuan also rushed out of the darkness and came to the ground. He quickly turned his head and saw that a figure of 100 meters away was Wang Chuanshan.

This Wang Chuanshan, like Ye Xuan thought, wanted to take this lapis lazuli to him.

Therefore, the two directly launched a chase.

"How is this possible, my speed, now I can't catch up with him?"

Ye Xuan was eclipsed, thinking that the other party must have used the martial arts at the level of the middle class, which is one level higher than the blast. He is very distressed, because there is very little martial arts in this category, and it is the best one that Ye Xuan can use at present.

The lapis lazuli's  to him is already beyond everyone, and he can't leave Wang Chuanshan to leave.

", Laozi Day, your big cousin, I am Ye Xuan and you fight!"

Ye Xuan's heart screamed, followed by

It's four muffled sounds.

"Hey!" "Hey!" "Hey!" "Hey!"

The remaining four scorpions were also all blasted by him. Now, his seven scorpions have all exploded. As long as the time passes, his cultivation will be lost. He must be rebuilt from the first martial arts.

However, the increase in the seven-in-one explosion is also huge, at least increasing his speed by 30%.

"Wang Chuanshan, I want to kill you!"

Ye Xuan's eyes slammed and chased him up. If his eyes could kill, Wang Chuanshan was already dead countless times.

However, God does not seem to want Ye Xuan to get this lapis lazuli. Just when he was full of seven blasts, a green bird with a basin size suddenly appeared.

The green bird was as close as lightning, and then a paw was found, and it was directly into the head of Wang Chuanshan.

"what?"

Ye Xuan's footsteps, the scene in front of him suddenly came, and even he did not react. When he saw it, the green bird had already caught the lapis lazuli.

Taking advantage of this opportunity, Ye Xuan rushed to within 100 meters of Wang Chuanshan. He took out the bow and arrow of the grounder directly, and then raised his hand was an arrow.

"The prefecture-level Chinese martial arts, fire dragon arrow!"

A huge fire snake smashed out, and the surrounding temperature seemed to rise by five degrees. However, this martial art was not known for its penetration, and the speed was not fast. It was directly escaped by green birds.

"Hey!"

It screamed, and the dark green eyes glared at Ye Xuan, turning around and leaving.

And the body of Wang Chuanshan was weak and weak, and his head was already pierced by the sharp claws of the green bird.

"噗通!"

After seeing the body of Wang Chuanshan, Ye Xuan also swallowed the swallow, a strong land of Dan, who was killed by the bird, then this bird, at least the mysterious beast of the land, may still Didan is a small or a land of Dacheng.

Danger!

Ye Xuan smelled a dangerous atmosphere.

But can he watch the lapis lazuli being taken away by this green bird?

impossible!

"Fight!"

Ye Xuan gritted his teeth and chased him up. Even Wang Chuanshan's body was ignored.

The next moment, he found the speed of the green bird.

Fast, at least faster than him. In the blink of an eye, he is out of his attack range.

"Damn!"

Ye Xuan snorted again, but he was not because the speed of the green bird was too fast, but because there was a large canyon at least two or three hundred meters wide in front.

The green bird has already flown over the canyon.

"Just three hundred meters, see Laozi jump over!"

Ye Xuan was also stunned and swears to catch up with the abominable green bird.

Not a gorge, with the speed of Ye Xuan's rushing, plus the blood of the beasts and the thundering power of the leopard, he is definitely able to pass.

"Chong!"

At the moment of reaching the edge of the cliff, Ye Xuan's speed has reached its maximum.

He rushed to the edge accurately, then stepped on the edge of the cliff, but when he was ready to jump hard, the green bird in front suddenly opened his mouth, followed by a sharp, trembling The sound is heard.

"Hey!"

This voice, like the demon sound, fell into Ye Xuan's ear and instantly defeated his will.

"what?"

This was the last consciousness in Ye Xuan's mind. Then he fainted and the whole person fell into a valley hundreds of meters high.

Looking at Ye Xuan in the gorge, the green bird is also screaming, very disdainful, and seems to say: stupid humans, dare to chase me?

In its eyes, Ye Xuan fell into this abyss, absolutely dead.

If Ye Xuan, who does not have the blood of a beast, will probably fall into a broken body, but it may not be right now.

This canyon is about three hundred meters high.

And Ye Xuan originally had the blood of the Leopard, from the heights, whether it is landing on both feet, there is a buffering ability.

A muffled sound was heard in the canyon, and Ye Xuan fell to the bottom of the canyon, accompanied by the cracking sound of the bone.

Fang Caixuan was sung by the green bird, and it was directly fainted. Now it has fallen to the bottom of the valley. He feels that half of his bones are broken.

At this point, he actually has a little consciousness, like the wake of his mother's wake up in the morning of his school days.

He lay quietly, consciousness began to slowly recover, but then, he just felt that he could not move.
