Chapter 246: Waste people?

"The trough, it won't be broken in the cervical spine?"

Ye Xuan lay on the ground, and he said in the heart.

It doesn't matter if you get hurt, just give him time and he can recover. The last thing he remembered was that the lapis lazuli, which had a big fist, was lost.

He hates it, can't wait to grab the green bird and roll it round.

Celestite, if you swallow the lapis lazuli that can forge a hundred objects, he should be able to break through to the heavens.

Unfortunately!

However, since the matter has come to an end, it is useless to be sad again. He can only pray there, hoping not to appear in the period of his disability.

At this time.

"Dan Yuan is quickly lost? Is time coming?"

Ye Xuan has already sensed the condition of the body. With the loss of Dan Yuan, his realm is also falling.

Dan Dan Xiaocheng... The first entry into the Dan... The half step Dan Yuanjing... The real Xuanjing peak...

Ye Xuan wants to cry without tears. This is really a loss of the wife and the soldiers. I knew that I had to take the Wang Chuanshan's shackles.

In less than half a minute, Ye Xuan fell below the martial arts. The last point was not repaired, and it became a waste again.

"Forget it, first recover the injury."

Ye Xuan thought, just close his eyes and start to recover. But he did not dare to go to sleep, fearing that there would be a beast and a mysterious beast, or that human beings would be close.

He didn't know if his brothers could find him.

However, he was disappointed. He stayed quietly for two hours under the canyon, that is, no one came.

"When Wang Chuanshan was killed by the green bird, it wasn't me who killed it. However, those disciples of Tianyuanzong might still fight with their brothers, and they would bother to fight for it."

Ye Xuan's heart was very distressed. What made him wonder is that Wang Chuanshan's body was near the canyon. No one even went to the canyon to look at it. He was really sad.

However, it is at this time.

Suddenly a footstep fell into Ye Xuan's ear, and he was so shocked that he quickly closed his eyes and felt it.

people!

Someone!

And still three.

"Not good, tragedy."

In the heart of Ye Xuan's heart, after two hours of recovery, his trauma is good, but the internal injuries continue to recover, so still can not move.

When the average person sees him like this, he will definitely come up to make up a sword, and then take his ring.

This time, it is terrible!

"Damn, my hand still can't move now. I won't be here early." Ye Xuan was very upset. He regretted going to chase the green bird. It really lost his wife and lost his soldiers. I am still dying here now.

At this point, the three people have already reached within three hundred meters of him, and he is almost able to see him.

In this case, he has only one way to do it.

Immediately, he just closed his eyes and hoped that the other party would only take away the ring, not to add a knife.

"Hey, brother and sister, there is a man over there."

Shortly after Ye Xuan closed his eyes, there was a beautiful voice falling into his ear, but he could not blink. At this time, he could clearly hear his heartbeat.

After the three people found him, they quickly approached.

"Is it down from the canyon? It's a good luck. It's a smashing ring."

A man's voice sounded, and then, Ye Xuan felt that his right hand was taken out.

Ye Xuan held his breath and forcibly masked his physical characteristics, letting the other person think he was dead.

However, body temperature can not be fooled.

"There is still body temperature...has not died yet?"

This man is a little surprised.

At this time, a charming voice sounded: "No death is estimated to be abolished, kill it."

"The trough, this woman is really hot, your grandmother." Ye Xuan screamed in his heart, he closed his eyes and found that the man had taken out the sword, ready to give him a fatal blow.

Ye Xuan is already ready to do a good job of scams. Although he can't move, there is no realm in the realm, but he still has the last card.

Eight wild winds kill!

The Eight Swordsman fell with him and fell to the side. If the three men dare to do anything to him, he will swallow all the things in the devour space, and then use the eight winds to kill the three. Personality kills.

He estimated that at least

Enough to run a circle of eight wild winds to kill, enough to kill a person who is Dan Dacheng's strong.

Just when the man was ready to start, the beautiful and pleasant voice resounded again: "Senior brother, people have already been hurt like this, even if it is, I beg you..."

"Sister, you are too kind, if you go out and practice in the future, this may kill you." The man frowned.

The girl did not refute, but she took out a medicinal herb directly, and then directly inserted it into Ye Xuan's mouth, and crossed it into a mysterious scent to help it refine.

"Sister, you are crazy, this is the remedy that the master has given you to save your life. Did you give him?"

The charming woman was shocked and pulled out the long sword directly: "It's not too late, see me kill him, take out the medicine!"

"Sister and sister don't." The girl was directly in front of the charming woman with her body.

"Sister, you let it go, that day is still worth the price of the city, you actually gave him, quickly squatting has not been refining, and quickly take it out." The charming woman in the cold words, it is killing.

"Sister, the * is still the master gave me, that is my thing, the sister wants to take it to save people, is it necessary to stop the teacher?" The girl suddenly asked.

This problem is also a slap in the face of a charming woman.

Indeed, this day, Magic Dan is a girl's thing, she can not be assigned to whom. However, the charming woman's dawn is still a murderous flash, because she really wants that day.

"Oh, the stubborn gimmick."

Although the charming woman is awkward, it is not her thing after all, so she can only scream and say: "Brother, let's go!"

The man did not say much, but the next moment, his figure suddenly flashed out, picking up a quaint sword that fell.

Then, his dawn was a flash, and he quickly took it into the ring.

"Senior brother, what is there in the ring?" The charming woman chased it up and asked.

"It is estimated that it is a child of a small family, a poor ghost." The man directly lost Ye Xuan's Qiang Kun ring.

But what he said is the fact that there are not many things in Ye Xuan's ring, because most of them are in the space of engulfing.

However, the man still flashed a touch of color in his eyes.

The charming woman took a look at the Qiankun ring, and sure enough, she lost her Qiang Kun ring. But the next moment, her eyes are the same as men, and it is also a flash of color.
