Chapter 2651: One call

"Is it sure?"

Slim and hesitated a bit, and Ye Xuan looked up and down a few times, and then nodded: "Well, since Ye is interested, let you try first, can't we shoot again, as to whether he is oily You can rest assured that you will die when you die. If you die, you will be a human prisoner. No one cares!"

After that, the thin and tall one made a look, and now I went back to the side with the other three demon jailers. This clearly implies that Ye Xuan can now do it.

"Cough..."

Ye Xuan coughed twice, rubbing his scalp to the old man in the cage and blinking over the past. While pretending to smash a spiritual force, he turned into a storm and rolled to the old man, and slowly said: "Old guy, know that your bones are hard, but it's bad luck to meet Laozi today. You'd better hand over the treasure. Otherwise, I can make you cut the green beard of this face and stick it to your head, like a turtle. Climb your letter on the ground?"

This is really too vicious, really want to be like a green turtle?

Thinking about the sour scene, even the four tall devil jailers who had retreated to the side were scared, and the look of Ye Xuan suddenly changed.

Even such a sinister and shameless way to think out, this kid is full of heart.

However, in the place of Wanluo Prison, what is required is stern and sinister. Unconsciously, the four tall people are quite a bit stunned by Ye Xuan.

I can have this heart when I first come, and the future is limitless!

In fact, in addition to the thin and tall four people, even the old man in the cage was scared, and the whole face was all green.

Although I know that Ye Xuan does not have this ability, but now the situation is in front of him, he either directly picks up the pick and does not do it. On the spot, he turned his face and Ye Xuan was scattered.

Either he can only play with him, so that this kid can quickly gain momentum in the circle of the devil jailer.

If this is the case, if he chooses the latter, if he does not express his position again, the boy named Ye's name is forced to rush to make up for it, so that he can only climb his teeth and go to school to climb the turtle. What?

As soon as I read this, Lu Wenxuan's face changed instantly, and he almost hurriedly opened his mouth: "Slow, I, I... I don't know anything about you, isn't it something outside of you? Give it to you, get out of the way, don't Let me bother you!"

During the conversation, he took out a space box and turned it out and threw it out of the cage.

All of this was as early as Ye Xuan's expectation, but even so, he was still pretending to have a bunch of scenes, and in short, the prestige was shaken, so unsatisfactory.

However, it was already a thin tall man who had already retreated to the side. When I saw that the incident was so simple, I was almost not surprised to get the eyeballs out on the spot, and I was stagnant for a while, and the four talents trembled back again. When looking at Ye Xuan, there is no other thing besides admiration and admiration!

The Devils jailers in Wanluo Prison were originally all simple-minded guys with four limbs. In order to gain benefits from the prisoners who were detained in cages, they often tried their best every time. Harvested.

And not every time I can get what I want, more often it is a waste of effort.

However, Ye Xuan in front of him just moved a few times, and almost did not bother to force the old guy who had a hard bone in the cage.

If all this is not seen by the eyes, the four tall people can't believe it.

The guy who first came here seems to have inadvertently pushed a door open, letting them feel a new world.

The original so-called torture can still play like this?

As long as you master the psychology of the other party, you can grasp the weaknesses and move your mouth to achieve the goal. This so-called attacking heart is so magical!

As these thoughts flashed in my mind, the thin and tall four people were completely convinced of Ye Xuan. Perhaps they said that what they admire was actually the means of Ye Xuan's work.

Soon, the treasures and the rare materials in the space box handed out by Lu Laotou were directly divided by the five people.

I tasted the sweet and thin, and I was so eager to make suggestions. I tried to fight the iron and then went to other cages to try. Just let the Ye brothers smelt the hands and get acquainted with the skills of these prisoners.

The latter secretly complained, but he could not refuse. In desperation, he could only find a cage near the side, so he reapplied...

Fortunately, the guy who was detained in this cage was obviously a clear person. What happened before was that he was all in his eyes, and it was obvious that Ye Xuan could successfully merge into the devil's jailer. I was surprised and shocked, and I understood the importance of it.

Therefore, in Ye Xuan's dark voice, he asked the other party to cooperate, and promised that if he had to get out of trouble, he must find a way to help him get out of trouble together. This person only briefly hesitated a few times, and then he confessed. Silently cooperated. Of course, to deal with this guy, the set of words used by Ye Xuan is different. Basically, after reviewing the other side, he directly starts with the outstanding features of the ready-made.

The result is no suspense!

After two consecutive successes, the thin and tall four people have completely sighed at Ye Xuan, and they are simply worshipped as heaven.

In the next ten days, Ye Xuan gradually found the feeling, using the same method, succeeded again and again, and the devil jailer behind him, from the initial thin and tall four, gradually reached Twenty or thirty people.

When Ye Xuan walked out from the edge of the black prison for the prisoner's life, he always called behind and shouted a lot of the devil strong. Unconsciously, his fame was already here. The film was quickly spread in prison, and the scenery was infinite.

Even in the entire Devil's Jailer group, his discourse has a certain prestige, not to mention one hundred words, at least on the bright side, after the other jailers saw Ye Xuan, they basically smiled. With a flattering meaning.

After all, every shot he has made from the beginning, more or less, has never been defeated. He has never failed. The significance of all this, in addition to the specific interests, is more, let the other devils jailers do not know. Feeling from the bottom of my heart, Ye Xuan gave birth to a sense of fear and jealousy.

However, this up-and-coming situation has not let Ye Xuan forget it. In fact, for the past ten days, he has been secretly paying attention to the movement of the little prisoner commander.

At the moment, he is quite prestigious among the entire Devil's jailer group. In this case, if Ye Xuan is the commander of the jailer, he is sure that the other jailers will basically not be too much. Intense reaction.

As long as the prisoner can be resolved, Ye Xuan will be able to replace his position in an instant. From then on, the whole piece of Wanluo will fall into his control...

Chapter 2652: Eight-order star

The prisoner of Wanluo Prison is called the Black Tower. People are as famous as their names, their skin is dark, and they are as strong as a tower. They are a powerful type of devil strong, and the realm is the eighth order of the star nuclear!

Although the cultivation of the devil's strong man is the same as that of the Whala Federation, in fact, their cultivation methods are unique. It is not the human ethnic science and technology camp that uses the genetic culture fluid to discover the potential of the human body and make the mutation of the gene. realm.

Unlike the comprehension camp of the human world, there are all kinds of cultivation exercises, mainly the gods, supplemented by the forging!

There is no * in the strong man, but there is a powerful spiritual power with the same nature and the essence is completely different. Their cultivation is mainly based on the spirit of conciseness, supplemented by the forged body!

Of course, there is also a lot of devils who will attack the spirits and help the spiritual powers. For example, the prisoner of the Wanluo prison is one of them!

Although the main tower of the Black Tower is the technique of forging, the appearance looks like a Shuhan, but its temperament is just the opposite. It does not belong to the type of heroic and hearty, but rather feminine.

Ye Xuan has been in the Devil's Jailer team for ten days, but he has seen him two or three times before and after, and every time he is in a hurry, let alone talk to each other, even close-faced face-to-face contact. Have never been.

As the commander, the black tower's residence is naturally impossible to be with all the other demon jailers. It is an independent hut. It is far from the area where the jailers live. The middle is empty, if Ye Xuan thinks Touching the past, you will be discovered the first time.

And he could not find the proper reason to approach the other side for a while. In desperation, Ye Xuan could only choose to let the other party take the initiative to find himself.

The method is also very simple. All the trophies that will be searched from the hands of the federal powerhouses in the cages are all deducted. According to the rules of the Wanluo prison, these harvests must be turned over 70%. The black tower has a confidant. Every time when a demon patrol team gains something, the person will take the initiative to collect it.

Ye Xuan's plan is to take this guy's knife and use him to force the Black Tower to come and find himself!

In order to ensure that nothing is lost, he decided to raise his own cultivation to the eighth level of the astrological environment. In order to achieve success, even if there are fundamental reasons for instability, he will not be able to take care of it for the time being.

On this day, after the patrol came back, Ye Xuan and the more than 30 demons greeted the class and then entered their own cabin and began to retreat.

This time, in order to save time, he directly threw out a bunch of seven-level purple star nuclear source, and then with the aid of the phagocytic system, quickly began to extract the source energy of the star.

Nearly one day and night passed, and when the entire cube of the seven-level purple star nucleus was taken away, Ye Xuan's mind finally sounded the sound of the phagocytic system.

"Hey, congratulations to the host, the realm of the realm! The current realm: the eighth level of the star nuclear!"

In a short period of time, it has directly entered the eighth-order environment from the seventh stage of the star nuclear environment. This speed can only be looked up to the genius descendants of the national star family.

Feeling the strength of the body at least several times stronger, Ye Xuan gripped the fists tightly, this moment is full of ambition!

Soon after, after re-hiding his own cultivation, Ye Xuan got up and lifted his hand to remove the simple isolation method that was laid before the cultivation, and then stepped out of the hut.

When the more than 30 devils arrived at the class, Ye Xuan waved his hand and led the guys to go outside the cage area...

This time, he deliberately picked a few more goals to start, before the harvest is far better, the more than 30 demon people who follow the same are happy to smack their mouths behind their ears.

Just 30%, and they are equally divided by more than 30 people. The guys are already satisfied. The key is that this kind of good thing is not every day. Before Ye Xuan's arrival, they can only get one or two in a month. Only now.

When the guys smirked and looked at the treasures that were handed down, Ye Xuan was a face-lifting color, playing with a space box in his hand.

It is loaded with 70% of the money that was harvested this time!

"A few brothers, I heard that the tax benefits collected from our Wanluo prison are actually only 50%? Is that the other 30%... all swallowed by the black tower?"

Ye Xuan tempted a sudden inquiry and turned to look at the more than 30 demon people to follow the class.

This discourse clearly made them quite surprised. The smile on their faces disappeared. Even some of them looked carefully and carefully, and after confirming that there was no black tower in the vicinity, this lowered the voice and quietly reminded the leaves. Xuan...

"Hey, this is something you can do in your heart, don't talk!"

"Yes, the black tower guy is not only black, but his heart is blacker. We can only swallow the teeth and swallow it. Who told him to be the prison guard."

"The key people are also strong, and the star nuclear level is eight steps. Hey, we are not opponents on the shoulders!"

When I heard these words, Ye Xuan's heart was counted. I didn't continue to say more now. When I nodded, I led the guys to go home.

Just after returning to the jailer area, the hearts of the two black towers swayed and greeted them. Recently they were used to it. Before the return of Ye Xuan patrol, the two guys must have been waiting for a long time. After all, the two of Hetak's buckles. As a tax, they can get a little more.

"Get it!"

When I arrived, one of the stallers reached out to Ye Xuan. The tone was quite a bit of a sigh of relief: "How is the harvest today? I said that your kid should not be lazy. If you have this ability, you have to make good use of it. Maybe." Whenever the black man puts you up, he will be trained as a confidant!"

The implication is that he is saying that he is superior.

Don't say that Ye Xuan and the more than 30 jailers behind him are on the move. They are other jailers who are not far away. After listening to this, their faces are quite uncomfortable, but they all dare to anger. It's all right.

Ye Xuan took all of this to his eyes, his heart sneered, but his face was suddenly sinking. Zhang mouth replied: "What kind of dog thing do you really dare to use this tone to talk to Lao Tzu? Get out of the way, otherwise wait. I changed my mind and I didn't want to roll it!"

"you....."

The black tower's confidant was so stupid, and looked at Ye Xuan slyly, but he could not return to it.

The other jailers in the surrounding area were all sighing in the air, and they were all surprised by the ground. They were all shocked.

As for the more than 30 jailers who took Ye Xuan's many benefits, after a little hesitation, they were still biting their teeth. They all stepped forward and stood behind Ye Xuan.

Although I didn't speak, this attitude is already very obvious. If the two gangsters of Heita want to start, they must be swarming...

Chapter 2653: Top

"Okay, okay, your name is Ye, the wings are long and hard to fly, right?"

The two black towers gnawed their teeth, but after all, they did not dare to shoot. They turned and ran to the black tower's hut: "Give me the old man, and for a while, the black man will not give you the skin..."

The two guys just left, the more than 30 jailers behind Ye Xuan all came up with the class, all with a worried color.

"Hey, are you really going to fight against the black tower? Not that I say frustration, the chance of success is almost zero!"

"Yeah, it's not that we are afraid of death. The key is to know that there is no hope but toss... I am not willing!"

"If there is a chance to fight, it is not bad, but the Black Tower is the eighth-order powerhouse. We are all third-order and fourth-order here, and we have no chance to fight hard!"

.....

"The black tower will be handed over to me, rest assured, basically you will not need your shot!"

In the face of these euphemistic words of disapproval, Ye Xuan was only a mysterious smile, and then turned to the direction of the black tower's cabin.

In the line of sight, a black man with a height of at least two meters or more is striding in a twilight, followed by the two confidants. At the moment, the two guys seem to have moved back. The face is full of pride.

"I heard that you refused to pay the 70% tax?"

Going to the front, the black tower is standing outside the chest. Because the figure is taller than Ye Xuan, it is a kind of condescending look. The expression on the face is full of banter and ridicule!

"The tax is not not paying, but the achievements of the seven are a bit problematic. I heard that the above collected from Wanluo is obviously 50%!"

Ye Xuan did not show weakness. On the spot, he let Black Tower face his face: "You are the prisoner's commander. If you don't seek welfare for the brothers below, you will be able to deduct 20% of the profits. This is too dark." It's really like the name!"

"Looking for death! A small third-order ants, what qualification do you have to question this command?"

The black tower was ashamed, and immediately became furious, roaring and roaring, and punching the box and rushing to Ye Xuan.

Sure enough, it is the fortune-like devil who pursues the ultimate strength. This punch is smashed out, but it seems to be simple, but it is clearly with the thunder of thunder, and even the space is full of waves and ripples. A force that breaks through the law!

You must know that this Wanluo Prison was built by the space-family with space folding technology. Its internal space can be described as complex and stable. Even the treasures with the transfer function in the hands of the old man can not help him break open. The force of the restraint of this folding space will only show the horror of the stability of the space here.

At the moment, with the black box's random punches, such a solid black prison space is faintly moved a little, this is Ye Xuan are quite surprised.

But it's just a few accidents. It's said that it's the martyrdom of the other's punch. It doesn't exist!

"The third-order ants? I think you are blind to the dog's eyes!"

Suddenly violently screamed, Ye Xuan's body shape retreats, and at the same time, the hidden repairs are fully erupted. A majestic power that is comparable to the black tower spreads out of his body and is shocked by the demons who watched the war. The jailer was screaming and screaming.

It is the opposite black tower, all under the pressure of the sudden spread of the realm of the slight change of the face, immediately after the fall of the box, the move is immediately removed, standing outside the several feet, up and down Ye Xuan looked up: "You really hide Repaired? But what about the eighth order?"

"Do you know why this commander chose to forge?"

"Oh! Our devils are not only born with strong spiritual strength, but more importantly, they have strong resistance to this kind of power. Therefore, the battle between the devils is basically a force to fight together, although you It's also an eighth order, but it's not a repair of the forging. It's just because of the spiritual power that it can't shake me..."

"Go to death!"

In the last sentence, the look on the face of Black Tower was picked up again, and the shoulders were swaying and it was a fierce punch.

"It's just stupid and hopeless!"

I heard that the other party chose the method of forging for this reason. Ye Xuan was speechless and grinned: "Today I will let you see how the spiritual strength is cultivated to the deep and profound metaphysical changes. How strong is it!"

"boom!"

The voice has not yet fallen, and a powerful invisible spiritual force has emerged from Ye Xuan's body, turning into a hurricane-like mental storm, which has also provoked the thunder of sound, rumbling toward The black tower shrouded away.

"puff!"

With the sudden arrival of this spiritual storm, the shape of the black tower that was slammed into the air suddenly stagnate, and under the miserable look, it was actually a blood arrow spurted out of the mouth.

Then he glared at his eyes and fell down on his back. His body was on the ground and a huge bang was heard. Since then, there has been no movement, and it seems that there is no breath, and it has fallen.

"This is the horror of spiritual strength cultivation to the deeper level. Even if it is the same as the devil, you definitely don't want to be completely immune. It will destroy the entire brain in a flash! It is strange to die!"

Looking at the black tower falling down, Ye Xuan's heart was loose, but the discourse still covered up.

The reason why the Black Tower was hit by him was obviously not that Ye Xuan's spiritual strength was so strong, because he was secretly engulfed with the knowledge of a human monk within the mighty spiritual storm. Power.

Although the devil is powerful because of his spiritual strength, he is unable to sneak into the brains of the human beings, but with the spiritual power wrapped up as a cover, Ye Xuan's ignorance I easily fell into the brains of Heita, and immediately smashed his brain into a paste under the rush of rushing. If this is not dead, it is really unreasonable!

Of course, this method is useless to human monks. After all, the human beings still have the gods, the brains are destroyed, and the gods are not going to go out. It is only a matter of repairing a body.

There were two things to cover up, and Ye Xuan turned to look at the magician jailers around him.

At this moment, all the guys were all in a petrochemical state without exception, and they stood up with their mouths open, and their eyes were all staring at the black tower lying on the ground.

A powerful eighth-order demon, actually died so lightly?

All of this, even if you see it with your own eyes, still can't let them accept it in a short time. It's too embarrassing, just can't imagine it!

"Cough! Everyone can rest assured that the black tower is dead now. Although the tax benefits in the future still have to be paid, the 70% is absolutely impossible!"

With a light cough, Ye Xuan even started to win over the hearts of the people, seeing all the devil jailers turned to look at him, and then he said: "But we Wan Luo prison squatting, even the jailer brothers have hundreds No. The number of dragons is not a long-term solution. As most of the brothers are now, why not choose a new leader?"

Chapter 2654: After the fall

This is clearly a suggestive language for the upper position. Although the strength of the hundreds of devils in the surrounding area is low, but the brain is not stupid, even if someone shouts: "What else is good? Ye brother is the best. The candidate, who dares to fight, Lao Tzu is the first to marry him..."

The other devil jailers also responded in a row, and the voices of the times were all the same, all supporting the voice of Ye Xuan!

The final result is no suspense, Ye Xuan has become the commander of all the jailers of Wanluo prison. From this moment on, he is the well-deserved master of the whole Wanluo prison, enough to cover the sky!

However, this right is only valid in this area and is effective for prisoners and jailers in this area.

Let's not leave Wan Luo Prison and go to other areas of this space fortress...

It is the magic man who occasionally enters this Wanluo prison from other areas. In the face of Ye Xuan, he is basically not too cold for his so-called jailer status.

But he doesn't care about these!

For Ye Xuan, the only thing to do next is to search for some arrays of materials, and then ask the green man Lu Wenxuan to help him completely repair the transmission array method engraved on the star-shifting hull.

After doing all this, he must leave Wan Luo Prison, in any case, only to get out of this folding space that can not be broken through the transmission array, in order to have the opportunity to escape this space security!

Soon, when Ye Xuan succeeded in killing the Black Tower and turned into a news for the controller of the Wan Luo Prison, the entire Wan Luo Prison was completely sensational, and the federal powerhouses in the nearly 10,000 prisons were all Excited, the person who controlled this black prison jail became the own person of the federal camp, and the hope of leaving the place finally saw a little dawn.

In the afternoon, Ye Xuan came alone to the cage of Lu Wenxuan, the old man of the green. He looked a little excited: "How is the predecessor? Shouldn't you let me down? Ye said that if you want to take you out, you will be made to order."

"Where is it now? Don't be too happy to be too early..."

Lu Laotou is not as happy as he expected. He seems to be a little indifferent. His attitude is indifferent. When he turns, he then picks up: "You came over this time, you should ask the old man about the various materials needed to repair the warship." Things? I have already listed the list. You have also collected a lot of good things recently, and you can see if you can get together!"

After that, Lu Laotou handed out a jade slip to engrave the information of the gods. After Ye Xuan took over, even if he played a * into the inspection, there was not much, but he and the helper jailers recently collected. Among all the treasures, there are not many refining materials, and they can only make up about half of them.

Returning to the prisoner's lodge in Black Tower, Ye Xuan rummaged through and found out a few space boxes, which contained various treasures and rare materials. It seems that this guy's oil and water on weekdays is indeed abundant, but Now all are cheaper, Ye Xuan, all the treasures and materials have been absorbed into the immortal world.

From the private possession of the Black Tower, the list given by Lu Laotou has been added to a small and a half. In the end, there are only seven or eight materials.

In desperation, Ye Xuan can only summon all the devil jailers and ask them if they have these kinds of materials. Don't say that it was just a collision. I didn't expect the result to actually let Ye Xuan get it again. Two of them.

At this point, all the materials on the list are only five different!

The Devil's Jailer has been smeared and clean, absolutely no play. In this case, it seems that only the federal powerhouses in the cages can find a solution.

Ye Xuan did not delay, went straight out of the hut, returned to the area where Lu Laotou's cage was located, and went straight to a cage not far from the east.

When Ye Xuan was preparing to walk out of the cage, there were a lot of guys in the surrounding cages who sneered at it without any disguise. The guy in this cage was one of them. It was natural to extort money. Picking up the eyes that don't look good.

In the cage, a middle-aged human man is detained. The strength is not bad. It is actually the fifth stage of the planetary environment in the fifth realm. At this moment, Ye Xuan's path is coming straight to this side. I got up and squinted and smiled, and I said, "Ye Daoyou, that day..."

"Don't mention what the day is, it is not a happy thing to be laughed at, and Ye has long forgotten!"

Ye Xuan directly interrupted the other party's words, not only faceless, and the tone is still quite bad, clearly speaking, the idiot can hear it.

The middle-aged man in the cage immediately stunned and laughed with his smile, but did not dare to continue explaining.

Although Ye Xuan's cultivation is still in the wrong eye, but now people are the actual masters of this Wanluo prison, and do not mention the hope of escaping the birth in the future, most of which still have to fall on him. This point, the identity of the prisoner alone, if it is true to his heart, then as the command, the devil jailers must come to wait for him every day, this is not a good thing.

Because of this, even if I understand that Ye Xuan must come to find him after the fall, this middle-aged man can still only recognize his nose, and with a smile at the moment, he will open a space box. I handed it over to Ye Xuan: "I was really wrong with Su, I didn't know Taishan. I also asked Ye Daoyou not to hate it. This is a little bit of my care. If Ye Daoyou does not accept it, it will not forgive Su. Something!"

The implication is that if Ye Xuan took over the space box, then the previous thing would be a write-off. If he wears shoes again in the future, it would be a bit too shameless.

Ye Xuan's eye-catching eyes sneaked at the other side of the eye, and took the space box in a quiet manner. The first time, he would read the gods and look into it. Seeing all the treasures and materials inside is really good. It was quite amazing, and I nodded with satisfaction and turned and left.

For the whole half of the afternoon, Ye Xuan took a tour of the dozens of cages that had been ridiculed. The guys were quite familiar with each other. They all took out a lot of good things, honouring Ye Xuan, only Seeking to break the bankruptcy and disaster relief, more than a few days of birthday.

After all the treasures in the dozens of space boxes were counted, the last five materials missing from the list of Lu Laotou were finally all together. Ye Xuan sighed and took all the materials. Packed in a small space box, and then returned to the front of the cage of Lu Laotou, the space box was handed in with the Star Warship that had been taken up by him.

"Fortunately, not to be insulted, all the materials have been raised, I wonder when the seniors can start repairing?"

After the other party reached out and took the space box, Ye Xuan politely arched his hand: "This warship is very important to me. I also ask the seniors to have more snacks. Ye Xuan is grateful!"

Chapter 2655: Crazy fusion

"You kid won't want to use it to escape from this Wanluo prison?"

Lu Laotou stunned Ye Xuan with a look of eccentricity, and then he shook his head and smiled: "Isn't you told me before? This black prison uses space folding technology, like the independent world, the transmission array is useless. You can only go around inside, you can't go through the boundaries, you better die this heart..."

In this regard, Ye Xuan did not explain too much, just laughed.

What surprised him was that this time it took a full three days to repair. Fortunately, this Lu Laotou did have some skills. After three days, when the space box with the star shift was handed back to Ye Xuan again. In the hands, the transmission array method engraved on the battleship hull has been completely improved.

Once the formation is launched, the battleship will also be transported away with Ye Xuan, instead of being as before, the people are gone and the battleship is left behind.

After thanking the old man, Ye Xuan even returned to his own lodge, flipped the battleship into the body, and then took the purple shuttle from the immortal world, placed it together, and then issued the first to the system. Four fusion instructions.

"Hey, I found a fusion of treasures: purple shuttle, star shift!"

"Hey, the fourth fusion begins, progress 1..."

As the system prompts in the mind, the fourth fusion of Zisuoshu finally began. Ye Xuan took a long breath and the whole person felt a lot easier, just like a stagnation of the heart.

After this fusion, the previously discovered purple shuttle will not only change its shape, but its additional array will have a perfect transmission in addition to the energy shield and speed array that existed before. Array method.

At that time, it is equivalent to possessing the ability of teleportation. Even in the interior of the administrative star of Tianhe, in the event of a huge crisis, Ye Xuan can directly transmit and escape, which is significant!

Compared with the previous three fusions, the fourth fusion of this time was obviously more time-consuming. Ye Xuan was so worried that he waited for four days, and finally the sound of the long-lost sound of the phagocytic system finally sounded.

"Hey, congratulations, the fourth fusion success! Get the battleship: Purple Star Shuttle!"

Ye Xuan was excited in an instant, and the first time he would understand the gods and eagerly examine the purple star shuttle that changed the name of the ship again!

Although the new warship is still a pale purple color, its appearance is completely different from the previous purple shuttle, but the smooth sense of the line has been retained, in addition to those engraved on the hull. The rune of the 晦涩法 method is also more detailed and complicated, revealing a simple and heavy mysterious atmosphere.

As for the performance index of the warship, in addition to a perfect transmission function, the level of the energy shield is also slightly improved, and the speed is the same. Even the two star guns at the bow and the stern are merged. When they came together, the two were one, the diameter of the muzzle was nearly 50% wide, before it was about ten meters, and now it is 15 meters!

The muzzle is wide, and the power of the star cannon will obviously increase. Even the federal military's star-rated warships may not be able to compete with Ye Xuan's Zixing Shuttle, although they are all star guns. A diameter of ten meters, a ten-meter and fifteen meters, the disparity is easy to understand!

Putting down the Purple Star Shuttle, Ye Xuan quickly took out both the weapons and the armor, that is, the two treasures of the scorpion scorpion sword and the glazed star glaze.

Purple Star Shuttle has successfully completed the fourth fusion, but Ye Xuan's weapons and ankles are all only merged twice. Previously, there was no time, and he lacked the ability to join the fusion. The right treasure, but now it is different. Recently, Ye Xuan has collected a large number of treasures and various rare materials from this Wan Luo prison, and it is enough to integrate several times.

Regarding the third fusion, the weapon, Ye Xuan chose a red mineral named Devil Blood Crystal, the size of the fist, crystal clear, and a scent of evil spirits.

On the side of the Guardian, Ye Xuan picks up a special metal material called Immortal Zifeng Gold. The color is purple, although it is not very hard, but this metal has a magical self-repairing ability. The name of its immortality is from this.

If this kind of metal is incorporated into the shackles, once it is damaged in the battle, it is not necessary to wait until Ye Xuan re-melts it after the war, and the scorpion itself will quickly become faster when the battle is still going on. Expand yourself and fix it.

After selecting these two minerals and metals, Ye Xuan once again turned the knowledge back into the immortal world, carefully selected among the treasures, and finally took out an attacking magic weapon and a special protective scorpion. .

These two treasures are going to be used for the fourth fusion!

The attacking magic weapon is not a sword type, but a small blue-colored chisel called a broken barrier. It has the magical effect of ignoring the space. It also has a strong penetrating ability for the various barriers.

If you integrate it into the scorpion sword, it is very likely that there will be a teleportation effect, which makes Ye Xuan feel excited.

As for the shin guard used for the fourth fusion, it is actually a pale purple yarn account called 氤氲玉烟罗, which is not a kind of Guardian, but a defensive magic weapon of the gauze form. After that, it can be turned into a lilac yarn account, which not only has the power of defense, but also emits a faint purple mist, thereby achieving the hidden effect.

Incorporating it into the shackles, Ye Xuan's thoughts can be used to bring out the smog and smog, which is the most suitable for covering the appearance in some special occasions.

After selecting these four treasures and materials for fusion, Ye Xuan even started a crazy fusion. The big sword and the guard are still in progress at the same time.

The third fusion took a full four days. After the completion, Ye Xuan did not close the hand, and immediately launched the fourth fusion. This time it took eight days to finish. Then, the tone of the phagocytic system was again It appeared in his mind.

"Hey, congratulations to the host, the fourth fusion success! Get the weapon: the magic blood marrow sword!"

"Hey, congratulations to the host, the fourth fusion success! Get armor: Purple Phoenix Glass!"

Ye Xuan's spirit is alive, even when I start to see the fusion effect.

The shape of the Devil's Blood Sword is roughly the same as that of the previous Sui Jing Xing Sword, but the black sword body is covered with a layer of vein-like blood-colored netting, which reveals a strange meaning.

Because of the existence of this layer of magic blood network, when the sword is launched and killed in the future, it will be able to slowly improve the quality by collecting the essence of the enemy. It is already a growing type of best attack weapon!

As for the purple phoenix enamel, the most obvious change is that the lines are softer than before. The more you look at the things like women's repairs, this makes Ye Xuan feel helpless. Fortunately, the two magic weapons and materials. Special attributes have been passed over, but it is a good comfort...

Chapter 2656: Escape from the black mosquito

It took a while, and Ye Xuan finally completed the fourth fusion of the three most important treasures of warships, weapons and escorts.

In the process of four consecutive fusions, these three treasures not only all annexed or absorbed several magic weapons and rare materials of the same type, but even the source of the star nuclear consumed during the integration, it is a terrible The number is up.

This kind of horrible, general-purpose monk can't afford it!

Similar to Zhao Long and Bai Zhengying, the status of the detached, full of tens of thousands, is simply a star-level local tyrants, even if the strength is strong, but they do not have this ability.

The possession of the treasures attached to the phagocytic system is afraid that even the top refiners of the cultivating camps will not be able to do so. At least it is absolutely impossible to be so casual and relaxed, so that the three pieces of Ye Xuan's hands have passed. How precious is the treasure of four fusions.

Even the same type of treasures that the Faroese federal contribution points are exchanged for in the treasure house, which are called "the best", can't be compared with them, not to mention the fact that they have only completed the fourth fusion.

If you encounter suitable treasures and materials in the future, Ye Xuan can continue to integrate them again and again at any time!

In fact, even now, many of the various treasures in his hands can be selected for fusion, but now these three treasures have completed the fourth fusion and become super The best star-level magic weapon, the price has been different from before.

In addition, Ye Xuan's vision is also high. The general treasure of the same type can't touch him. I really want to pick some attributes that are not outstanding and forcibly carry out the fifth fusion. I am afraid that the effect will be counterproductive.

For now, the current attributes of these three treasures are enough for him to use for a period of time, at least in the star nuclear territory is absolutely enough, so, Ye Xuan decided to temporarily no longer merge, to be their own cultivation into the realm into the star Consider this after the nuclear environment.

And his cultivation is just a breakthrough before he shot the black tower. It is really difficult to break through in a short time, otherwise it will definitely fall under the hidden danger.

Treasures can't be merged, and they can't continue to break through. For a time, Ye Xuan suddenly feels free.

Calculating the time, he was smashed into this Wanluo prison until now, almost for more than a month, in order to avoid delays, Ye Xuan decided to try and see if he could find a way to escape.

Regarding the internal situation of this space security, when he led the gang of jailers to search for treasures, he had already slashed through the words, and basically understood it.

The same Battlestar has a total of ten in the Devil's group, and the one under the Ye Xuan is called the Black Mosquito. The Supreme Commander is the head of a Devil's group called Nebo Mountain. The guy who had previously thrown Ye Xuan into this Wan Luo Hei Prison was a good man who was a black hole.

Black mosquitoes have four areas!

At the bottom is the Wanluo Prison where Ye Xuan is now, and the middle of the security barrier above the Wanluo Prison is the place where the devils are waiting for their lives.

The bottom-up third floor is the energy cabin, the computer room and the like of this space security. At the same time, the support warehouse and the demon squad are waiting for the various treasures collected by the squad in the funeral star field. The warehouse of rare materials is also there.

This layer belongs to the forbidden area. Except for the confidant of Nebo Mountain, other demons can't get in the way and are not allowed.

As for the top layer, it is the position of the control center of the black pattern. The layer is also the exclusive territory of the Nebo Mountain. Even if it is the confidant of his majesty, if you don't call it, you can't go anywhere.

The whole person in the black squad is surrounded by the Nebo Mountain and the scout is about 10,000.

In fact, unless the return to return to the magical ancestral field in the edge of the first universe, in normal circumstances, the devil in the black pattern is basically only about one or two thousand scouts.

After all, they came to the funeral wormhole across the cosmic wormholes, but they did not come to play, shouldering the mission, so almost all the demons spend most of their time in the funeral star field around the black plaque.

Either inquire about the various intelligences of the Faroese Federation, or extract the origin of the star nuclear. Of course, trapping some of the federal powerhouses with valuable value is also one of them. The nearly 10,000 strong people in the 10,000 prisons are all on their own. The trap was captured.

If Ye Xuan wants to escape the black mosquito number, he must first enter the second floor of the devil's scout living area.

Because the bottom of the Wanluo Prison has only two passages, one is below, before Ye Xuan was taken into the Wanxuan prison by the mysterious black light column, the main passage was taken.

However, this main channel can only be opened and closed by the top-level control center where Nebo Mountain is located. Although this main channel can directly leave the black mosquito number and enter the outer space, there is basically no hope of success.

The second is the secondary passage, which does not directly reach the outer space. It is connected to the second layer of the black mosquito that the demons scouted.

Therefore, if Ye Xuan wants to escape the black mosquito number, he must first enter the second layer, and then leave through the second floor access channel!

The opening authority of this sub-channel, among the prisoners of Wanluo Prison, only the prison guard led the black tower, but the magic core in his brain was thrown into the phagocytic system by Ye Xuan to decompose, from which, Ye Xuan Not only did she get a considerable source of spiritual strength, but she also unexpectedly harvested a streak mark.

This stylized brand is the key to open the second sub-channel!

Therefore, if Ye Xuan is willing, now he can open Wan Luo Prison almost at any time, and enter the second floor of the demon to scout the living place.

After everything was ready, Ye Xuan said all the circumstances even if he came to the cage of Lu Laotou, and the latter was even in the sinking.

After a long time, I sighed and sighed. I smiled and shook my head: "Forget it, the old man will not toss you with it. If the passage leads directly to the outer space, it will be the gateway to the Devil's Base Camp..."

"Don't look at the old man's cultivation is not weak, but the inner space of the black mosquito is filled with strange black fog. Our human monks don't even dare to use the power of God. I really want to go with you, just in case. On the way, I encountered other devils, which made you feel that the identity was small. The old man was afraid that he would still have to suffer from the flesh and blood. Finally, he was sent back to the Wanluo prison..."

Upon hearing this, Ye Xuan stunned on the spot.

This point he really did not consider it. Lu Laotou does not have the spiritual power of the devil. After leaving the cage, as long as he is seen by any seat, he will be exposed immediately. However, although Ye Xuan has an immortal world, his current strength. It is impossible to earn the star-level powerhouse at all...

Chapter 2657: Wolf into the sheep's nest

"We guys are different from you. If you want to escape from birth, you can either enter the space directly from the main channel of the Vullo prison, or you must first let the dark fog that disappears inside the space security barrier disappear. Otherwise, wearing the black fog to pick up the sub-channel, it is simply a dead end!"

For the internal situation of this black mosquito, Lu Laotou just listened to Ye Xuan and said that he was familiar with it. He quickly analyzed the result: "Unfortunately, you are just the jailer of this Wanluo prison. Only the commander of the entire Black Bass Space Fortress, the two points I just said, you can't do it..."

"Okay, stinky boy, let's go, the old man will stay!"

"Looking at you not leaving alone, there is still a heart to promise, I plan to take the old man with me to leave, I can not be too selfish... I know that I absolutely have no chance, but also hurt people and follow you all the time to gamble One, this kind of thing, the old man can't do it!"

During the speech, Lu Laotou took out a space box and handed it to Ye Xuan: "This is all the treasures and savings in the hands of the old man. Staying in the body is only cheaper. It will be ugly. It's an enemy, so take it with you!"

"Remember, if there is a chance in the future, try to kill more devils to avenge me. If it is a reward for the old man's gift!"

Listening to these words, Ye Xuan's whole person's feelings are not good. If this Lu Laotou is as he said, he knows that the opportunity is not big, and it is very likely that he will even be tired of Ye Xuan, but in the end, in order to gamble, Still decided to go with him.

Then, when the second layer of the black mosquito is reached, once the other devils are encountered, the whereabouts are exposed. If things are not possible, Ye Xuan will definitely abandon the other party and leave alone.

After all, he just promised to leave with Lu Laotou, but he did not say that he would surely escape safely. Since he has already fulfilled his promise, what is the way to lose the road?

Can't stay with you to die with you?

However, the old man in front of him obviously did not intend to do that. Not only was his words sincere, he directly pointed this out, and he also intended to give all his treasures and savings to Ye Xuan free of charge.

This kind of temperament and frankness Ye Xuan felt uneasy, if he really took over the space box handed over by others and turned away, I am afraid that today's events will have an impact on his heart.

In fact, even if he doesn't take people's things, Ye Xuan will also leave his heart. After all, he really got the favor of Lu Laotou, but the promises promised before have not been fulfilled... even Lu Laotou himself gave up. But the fact that Ye Xuan has owed nothing can not be erased!

As soon as he thought about this, he immediately shook his head and smiled: "You old man is in a bad heart. Doesn't this mean that I am shaking my heart? Then, in order not to be disturbed by the demons in the future, today I will die." , fight back!"

After that, Ye Xuan looked strangely and slammed the old man and licked his mouth. He turned his hand and turned away: "Dead old man, wait for you, I will leave Wanluo prison now, but it will not take long before I will come back to save you. It's just that the length of time is unpredictable. Don't hang it first, then it's really awkward..."

The voice was degraded, and Ye Xuan's back had disappeared rapidly in the distant black fog.

As his figure went away, even some of the nearby cages were filled with sighs of sighs, and even the coldness of the sorrow was mixed.

Obviously, none of the federal powerhouses detained in these cages believe that Ye Xuan will come back again, unless the brain is sick to do this stupid thing!

For this, the old man Lu Wenxuan is obviously aware of it, and he also issued a secluded long sigh.

"Ugh!"

"The stinky boy is simply stupid and arrogant. There is no cheaper than the bastard! In order to practise the face, even the cultivation of resources is not necessary. This heart... oh, it's still too tender, it's tempered!"

In the sigh, the old man Lu Wenxuan turned his hand and retracted the space in the small box. He turned and walked back to the cage and sat down. Although his face was quite lonely, there was a sense of gratification that was faintly visible. Laughing, self-deprecating and muttering to himself: "But it's good, at least to give the old man a self-consolation thought, nothing to deceive yourself, can live a few days to count in heaven!"

Ye Xuan apparently did not know that the old man Lu Wenxuan thoroughly treated his words as a kind-hearted lie. At this moment, he has returned to the devil's jailer area on the edge of the Wanluo prison.

All the devil jailers were summoned. After the people were together, Ye Xuan even announced that he would leave for a few days and go to the second floor above the Wanluo prison to do something important. These guys don't want to mess, otherwise they will be severely punished.

This kind of thing is not the first time. In fact, the Devils Jailers are also rotated every other year and a half, and the Black Tower, which is the commander of the prison guard, has often left.

Therefore, after Ye Xuan's confession, the other devil's jailers, even if they are in unison, no one feels that something is wrong.

After the confession, Ye Xuan even turned around, and read the body into a touch of mans, rushing to the edge of the deepest part of the jailer area.

A few minutes later, Ye Xuan's figure came to an abrupt end, and looked up to the front of the open space about a hundred meters high, standing alone, cold, not as if it was a memorial archway.

This metal-plated archway is actually a portal, the so-called sub-passage of the second floor above the space fortress!

"call out!"

A faint radiance of black light flashed, and quickly disappeared into the pillar of the archway, and the blink of an eye disappeared.

The spiritual power of the devil is in fact the same as that of the human monk. It can also be differentiated, branding its own unique atmosphere and then spurting it out.

It's just that the spiritual power that Ye Xuan just played out, the brand that was copied on it, is the scent of the stylized mark he got from the brain of the black man's brain, just like the master key. A one-time use subkey!

"Hey..."

As the sub-key was imprinted into the column of the portal, the entire tower of nearly 100 meters high suddenly lit up the black glory, and more humming sounds came out.

These black stalks quickly rushed and gathered, and only two or three breaths of work filled the arched areas under the arch.

The original arched area is like a layer of black light film. The rear of this light film is the exit of the portal!

Very amazing space technology!

"Little lambs, Grandpa Wolf, I am coming..."

Mouth whispered in his mouth, Ye Xuan stepped into the black light film, before the body shape disappeared, his mouth corner, clearly with a strange smile, is rapidly rendering...

Chapter 2658: Hunting begins

Ye Xuan really changed his mind and decided not to leave.

The reason for this decision is not entirely to take the green man Lu Wenxuan together, more, but actually for himself.

However, the words spoken by Lu Laotou at that time did remind Ye Xuan, otherwise he might not make the current decision.

The old guy sighed at the time and said that Ye Xuan was only a prisoner's commander of the Wan Luo Prison. It was not the demon leader of the whole black mosquito, so it was the main channel that opened the ground below the Wan Luo prison. Or is it clear that all the strange black mist that is in the inner space of this spaceguard is removed, he can't do it all!

It is this sentence that makes Ye Xuan heart-throbbing, and there is an extremely bold and extremely dangerous mind in his mind, but if it succeeds, the harvest is extremely impossible to plan!

That is to replace the black tower with the prison guard, and find a way to get rid of the Neboshan, the head of the devil who brought him, and then replace it with the entire black mosquito space fortress!

At the time when the thought came out, Ye Xuan himself was shocked, but after he quietly rehearsed and pondered, Ye Xuan finally made a decision because he saw it. Come, this matter is extremely dangerous, but it is not impossible.

He even thinks that the chance of success can reach at least 40% to 50%. So, naturally, it is worth trying. After all, once he succeeds, he will realize the benefits that are unimaginable and the temptation is too great!

At this moment, with Ye Xuan's footsteps, he stepped out of the black light film, and even if there was a huge empty square in front of his eyes.

The entire square should be a regular square, with a few kilometers on the side, which has already exceeded the diameter of the Black Bass Battlestar. This shows that the second layer of the area he is currently in is also built using space folding technology. Come out, that is to say, here, Ye Xuan still can't directly leave by sending, returning to the outer universe.

At the moment, his position is in the central area of the square. When he turned and looked around, there were three huge space doors like the 100-meter arch.

The one that Ye Xuan just stepped out of is located at the edge, and the space door that stands on the other side is generally the same, but the space door in the middle is obviously different, and the runes on the column and the top beam are more It's a bit of quaint and complicated!

After thinking a little, Ye Xuan roughly guessed the area where the other two space doors lead.

The outer two, one to the lower level of the Wanluo prison, the other, most directly lead to the universe void outside the space fortress, that is to say, the other side of the space door, is the way to escape!

However, Ye Xuan did not intend to try it easily. On the one hand, he had already decided not to leave for the time being. On the other hand, it was because he was not sure about the one that was obtained from the brain of the black man's brain. Is it the same? It can also open the door to the space outside the fortress.

If you can't, if you are alarmed by something that he can't handle now, then it will be really troublesome.

Even if he wants to leave, he must inquire about it, and then make the matter clear before making a decision.

As for the middle of the branded pattern, the quaint and complicated space door is more obvious. According to Ye Xuan, the place where it leads should be the third layer of the black mosquito above. If this is the case, this space will be more Can't touch, at least it's absolutely impossible now!

I looked at the space door that was lined up in three words, and secretly found the reference points of the two space doors next to the argument, and after remembering it, Ye Xuan even took a direction and walked away.

In addition to the three space doors in the entire vast square, there is no more thing and nothing.

But on the edge of the square, each has a straight and extremely wide, full of hundreds of meters of long passages, each of which can not see the head.

From the width of the four passages, it stretches all the way to the far side, and there must be other branching passages extending in the middle.

If this is the case, then the second layer of the black mosquito fortress is actually divided by a large number of criss-crossing straight passages, like a labyrinth, and the center of the entire huge maze should be Ye Xuan's giant square at the moment!

As for the living places where the devils are scouting, there is no doubt that they should be left and right in the labyrinth.

Such a vast and maze of maze, in which the length of the cross-section of the channel is simply inexhaustible, each channel can be built on the left and right sides of the door to open the interior of the cave, so the second layer of the entire black mosquito number, accommodates more than 10,000 The number of devils scouts is indeed not a problem at all.

A few minutes later, Ye Xuan left the central square where the portal was located, and entered the main passage on the right side of the square. After a few minutes of walking, there was a straight passage between the two sides. The passage is much narrower, but it is still about two hundred meters.

Ye Xuan continued to move forward until the sixth pair of secondary channels appeared, and turned and walked to the right.

The same is true for the secondary channel. At every two kilometers or so, two three-stage channels with a width reduced to about 100 meters appear.

Among the previous primary and secondary channels, only the channel mouth appears, and after the 100-meter-wide three-level channel, although there are still two narrower four-level channels every other distance, but all the way When I walked, I could see no less than a hole in the tunnel.

All the caves have no doors, and a huge arched entrance stands on the left and right passage walls. The space inside should be wide and it seems to be separated into small compartments.

Ye Xuan did not stop here, but turned around at the entrance of a four-level passage that was only about 50 meters wide...

There are obviously more open caves on both sides of the four-level passage. The arched doors are dense and dense, and they appear once every thirty or forty meters. Ye Xuan randomly picks a hole in the house, and walks in and walks in. His posture is calm.

Along the way, when passing through some Dongfu, Ye Xuan can sometimes see some of the devil's strong figure, the other side also saw him, but no one found the problem, all of them became Ye Xuan. My own person, yes, he does not need to be nervous at all, the whole black mosquito inside the demon screaming for tens of thousands, you come to me all in a hurry, who can know who?

The reason why he chose this cave in front of him is actually very simple. This cave house is the one with the fewest number of demons he encountered on the entire four-level passage.

There are only six devils who are strong, and the realm of cultivation is not too high, all between the first and second floors of the star. Ye Xuan has a full grasp of the moment after they react, killing instantly!

Crazy hunting...coming soon!

Chapter 2659: Slave

If every hole in the three-level channel is distributed, and all of them are separated by a small single room, then these holes in the four-level channel can only be regarded as a large shop.

This should also be a manifestation of strength and level.

The devil's scout who lives in the small single room of the third-level channel is obviously more advanced and stronger.

The guys in the four-level channel can only live in Datongpu, and naturally they are in a lesser position and their strength is weaker.

The cave house that Ye Xuan entered touched about two hundred square meters. The middle of the cave was empty. There was only one huge platform with a transmission pattern on it. It should be used to turn in the spoils, and the short prizes and daily consumables. Directional delivery platform.

Around the wall, there are some metal partitions that protrude from the wall.

The area between each two partitions is a semi-open, self-contained small space with a small table and a chair.

There are about 40 such semi-open small single rooms distributed around the wall in the entire Dongfu, but they are basically empty. Only in the area farthest from the entrance to the main entrance of the Dongfu, there are six demons. The scouts each occupy one place.

At this time, some of the six devils were lying on the bed, some were sitting on the bed and closing their eyes, and others were sitting on the side of the bed and counting some items.

Seeing that Ye Xuan came in, the six devils just looked up and swept away and ignored it. What are you doing?

Ye Xuan has already concealed the realm to the second stage of the star nuclear environment, and is similar to these six guys. Otherwise, suddenly a magical nuclear eighth-order enters this four-level channel, and I am afraid that it will be sensation in an instant.

Obviously, this kind of Datong shop should be able to live wherever they want to come. These demons scouts are basically performing tasks outside or mining minerals. There is not much time in the Dark Fortress Space Fortress. Who still has that? Keep in mind where your room is.

Ye Xuan walked quietly to the inner side of Dongfu, where the six guys were located.

They still didn't pay attention to it. After all, this is normal. If there is space in the room, who is willing to choose a place near the entrance of the Dongfu.

Although it is a half-open way, whenever possible, anyone will subconsciously try to make their private space more secretive and quieter!

These six guys may also dream that after a day of strength improvement, they will be able to go to the third-level channel to live in a three-level cave house with a real cubicle.

Unfortunately, they never have this opportunity!

"Hey..."

A weakening humming sounds!

Just as he walked to the distance of only ten meters from the six guys, Ye Xuan shot without warning.

As he fully stimulated the spiritual source of the brain, a powerful spiritual force suddenly emerged from his body, like a river rewinding, overwhelming, and instantly shrouded the six demons. .

This time, Ye Xuan was even too lazy to enclose the power of the unique knowledge of the human monk within the spiritual power of the canopy. Six weak chickens, with the strength of the eighth-order of his star nuclear, just with the spiritual power of the devil, it is enough to crush!

In fact, it is true.

In the face of the spiritual storm of Ye Xuan's surging like Tao, these six demons who were only one or two stars in the nuclear world were wiped out in an instant, and the seven bleeds completely lost the breath of life.

"It seems to be a bit too hard..."

Seeing this scene, Ye Xuan was speechless, and some worried that he would shatter the spiritual core of the six guys' heads.

Fortunately, this kind of worry seems to be superfluous! A minute later, Ye Xuan's palm had six extra small black prismatic crystals, which were cut out from the heads of the six guys.

As for the corpse, although his current strength is still unable to bring the star-level power to the immortal world, but this corpse that has no breath and has died, is completely unrestricted.

Before this point, Ye Xuan had secretly tested it privately after he had killed the prisoner and led the black tower. If not, he might not dare to make such a decision. He would have the second person of the black mosquito. Dongfu area, become your own hunting paradise!

"Hey, find out the core of the mind, whether it breaks down, and extract the source of the spirit!"

With Ye Xuan's six demons' brains in the body, the sound of the phagocytic system sounded at the first time. After giving a definite reply, Ye Xuan turned and walked out of the cave, and began to search for the next batch. prey.....

Time passed slowly, unconsciously, and three days passed!

In the past three days, Ye Xuan has for many times rejoiced that he finally made the decision to stay in the Dark Fortress Space Fortress and enter the second layer of the Devil's Cave House for hunting!

Compared to his previous look around for the demon slayer scout, even the most rewarded one, all day down, but also hunted the past of the three devil strong, these three days for Ye Xuan happy It is like a cockroach suddenly falling into a rich gold mine.

In three days, the brains of the devils he had harvested reached a total of 947 horror!

An average of more than 300 per day!

That is to say, in the past three days, almost three hundred or more devils scouted from the Devil's Cave area, died in the hands of Ye Xuan, and the brain was cut and thrown directly by Ye Xuan. The phagocytic system decomposes and extracts the source of spiritual strength, while the corpse...there is all the bones and brains thrown into the immortal world!

Nearly a thousand devils scouts, this is already one-tenth of the total number of black mosquitoes.

Although this second-floor Dongfu area has many devils entering and leaving every day, no one can find out who is dead or left.

But suddenly there is less than one-tenth of the demon's scouts compiled. If you pay attention to it, you can still see some tricks.

The demonic strongmen who are usually stranded in the Dongfu area are basically two thousand up and down, sometimes more, sometimes less.

But now, after being madly hunted by the leaves, the devils who are now staying here are scouting, and at most they are more than a thousand. More than 70% of the four-level Dongfu are almost empty, and they have traveled several times in succession. Level channel, you can't see a figure of a demon.

This situation makes Lian Yexuan feel a little wrong.

If this is the case, then if some of the devils are aware that the situation is wrong, and then report the matter up, then it will be really troublesome.

With this in mind, Ye Xuan decided to temporarily close his hand and wait a few days to see the situation. At least you have to wait for the number of demons in this Dongfu area to slowly pick up some.

It was also at this time that in his mind, the sound of the phagocytic system sounded abruptly.

"Oh, all the magic cores are broken down! The power of the spirit is back to the beginning! Progress 1... Progress 10..."

"Hey, congratulations to the host, the spiritual source has been completed! The source nuclear level has been upgraded, and the spiritual slavery has been condensed! Is it exciting?"

Chapter 2660: Rolling and killing

Slave?

With the hint of the engulfing system in his mind, Ye Xuan's initial glimpse, and then a sudden strong heart of joy suddenly emerged.

Don't say anything else, it's just that the spiritual core of the brain can still be upgraded enough to surprise him.

Ye Xuan had never thought about this before, that is, because he absorbed the original decomposing from the brain of nearly a thousand demons, the amount of the spiritual power that is called the mighty power, led to his brain. This spiritual source was accidentally promoted, and after the system heard the prompt tone, Ye Xuan knew the spiritual source of the devil, and it actually had this kind of benefit.

If this is the case, then if you are hunting for a more powerful demon scout in the future, the magical nuclear grade that must be taken out from his brain should be upgraded accordingly.

In this way, Ye Xuan's cultivation speed in the spiritual power of the devil will not continue to decline because of the higher level of his spiritual strength.

Of course, the premise is that there are enough brains of the devil to decompose and extract.

However, these are not things that Ye Xuan intends to ponder now. His curiosity has attracted the past with the new slavish ability that has been upgraded by the spiritual source.

The so-called slave printing, as the name suggests, should be a spiritual brand used to achieve slavery!

This was originally a kind of understanding of Ye Xuan's subconscious, with a strong subjective expectation, but this understanding was quickly confirmed!

Although Ye Xuan's spiritual source nucleus is not integrated with the phagocytic system, the former has already taken root in Ye Xuan's knowledge of the sea, and he has long been separated from him. The same is true for the phagocytic system, and its authority is obviously higher, almost waiting for the body of the whole body and the soul of the general.

Even the treasures that have been harvested by the blaze can be arbitrarily invoked by the phagocytic system. This spiritual core that has been integrated with Ye Xuan's flesh and blood is no exception.

In fact, after each decomposition of the brains of the devils, the source of a large amount of spiritual power extracted can be injected into the core of the spiritual source of the sea.

At this point, Ye Xuan has issued a clear permission order to the system!

It can be said that all the changes in the spiritual core of his brain are actually in the monitoring and control of the phagocytic system. For this reason, Ye Xuan easily passes the specific information of this slaving ability through the phagocytic system. It's all in the heart!

The so-called slave printing, in simple terms, is actually something similar to the life and death of the Tianshan nursery rhymes.

The only difference is that the former's life and death is a thin piece of ice that is condensed by the water in the space.

The ability of Ye Xuanxin to get rid of the slavery is directly condensed by the spiritual origin of the spiritual source in his brain, and finally turned into a spiritual brand with his own unique atmosphere!

It is like the streak mark that he got from the prisoner to lead the black cerebral nucleus.

The plaid print is the key used to activate the space door, and the slavish smelt of Ye Xuan is used to enslave the devil.

Once this slave print is not in the body of the demon, it will automatically sense the breath of the brain of the devil, and then approach it, and finally integrate into it. After that, the devil will be the core source of the brain by Ye Xuan. The slavish atmosphere is assimilated, and thus becomes the slave of the latter, and it is still loyal, and there is no such thing as a rebellious heart!

To be free, either the devil will die, or Ye Xuan will take the initiative to reintegrate the slave that is integrated into his spiritual source!

From this point of view, Ye Xuan's slave print is compared with the life and death of the mountain virginity that day, the effect is simply crushed, completely not at the same level!

"This is really a sleepy day, and the pillows will fall off in the sky!"

After clarifying the specific effects of smuggling and the condensing methods, Ye Xuan was excited. The excitement only wanted to go to the sky, but the words came to the lips. After all, it was turned into a low-key whisper: "正正I can't continue hunting, I'm afraid I will feel uncomfortable in the next few days. With this kind of slavery, all the problems are just a moment!"

"If you can't kill it for a while, then you will be directly enslaved. If you can plant all the devils who are stuck here, all the slaves will be planted. The second layer of the whole black mosquito will undoubtedly wait for the first. Like the Wan Luo Prison, it has completely fallen into my control!"

The more he said, the more excited Ye Xuan was. In the end, he was no longer imaginative. After finding a Mozuo Dongfu in the fourth-level passage, he walked in the corner of Dongfu and took his mind off. The chaos in the chaos, concentrating on one, urging the power of the spiritual source of nuclear in the sea, according to the method of meditation that has long been known in the heart, began the first sullen refining!

After about ten minutes of touching, Ye Xuan opened a double bottom, and the light was shining, and he felt a sense of joy that could not be suppressed.

The process of condensing was very smooth, and it was almost in one go. The reason why the first slave was spent for nearly ten minutes was entirely because he was too cautious and always be careful, only seeking stability and not counting efficiency.

If it is at the normal speed, and Ye Xuan's current level of spiritual strength is repaired, the time required to complete the condensing of a slave print should be about six minutes.

If you are more mature to a certain extent, this time can be shortened again, and three to four minutes should be successful!

In this way, after Ye Xuan is familiar with it, if he stays up all night, Ye Xuan will be able to condense nearly 400 slaves a day.

The demon of the second layer of the black mosquito, the demon person, is scolded, and the most common time is only two thousand in the first week.

That is to say, with only five days of continuous condensing, Ye Xuan will be able to get enough spiritual slavery to control all the devils in the second floor area.

But he obviously didn't plan to start now!

Since the first slave print has been condensed successfully, if it is not immediately to try its true effect, Ye Xuan is really difficult to calm down, eager to try, can not wait.

After some corrections, he finally did not press and hold, and got up and left the Devil's Cave, looking for some four-level passages in the surrounding area. After a few moments, he finally saw two demons scouting in a cave.

The cultivation of these two guys is still unsightly, only the second stage of the star nuclear environment, weak into this, Ye Xuan even has no interest in disguising, the front foot just stepped into the Dongfu, the next moment even if it has been reminded Moved the spiritual source of the brain.

"Hey..."

"call out!"

In the next moment, a powerful spiritual storm rushed away, and it was even more mixed with a touch of a tiny, black and purple spirit.

"boom!"

Two demons scouted, and one of the guys was crushed down by the hooded spirit storm. The first time they fell on their backs, while the other one was still standing still, but only the rest. The light was quickly lost in the moment when the slain was not in his body...
