Chapter 270: Dangerous land

"It's now!"

Ye Xuan glimmered, suddenly turned over, the whole person jumped onto the boulder, and then slammed it.

Suddenly, his back grew a pair of wings that were condensed by Dan Yuan, and then flew in the direction of direction.

After Ye Xuan turned around, he discovered that the rear was already a mess, and the big pit was everywhere.

However, what makes him even more shocked is not the destructive power of these huge stones.

I saw that the boulders that were lying on the ground began to shake, and then suddenly broke apart. Then, one of the green giants drilled out of the boulder.

"It's the mysterious beast!"

Ye Xuan's eyes are big and big, and looking at it, there are already hundreds of green giants.

"Not good, cut them down..."

His heart trembled and hurriedly flew to his estimated place. However, just as he flew to the ground only two hundred meters away, a green shadow swiftly swept.

"What?" He stared at it and found that it was the green bird that took away the lapis lazuli that day.

There is a road in heaven, you don't go, there is no door to hell, you come in!

Ye Xuan is so angry that if this is not the green squirrel on the day, how can this happen?

The roots of Tianyuanzong were destroyed, and the two sects were also countless dead and wounded. This hatred cannot be ignored!

At the moment, Ye Xuan is directly taking out the bow of the middleware and raising his hand.

"Broken Soul!"

The broken soul broke out, but the green squirrel was small and extremely flexible, and directly escaped this attack.

"Fire Dragon Arrow!"

Ye Xuan took another shot and went out, still being escaped.

At this point, the green squirrel is already close to Ye Xuan, and then a smashing one, a sharp and screaming scream.

"I was planted here that day, will I be recruited twice?"

After seeing this green bird, Ye Xuan subconsciously used Dan Yuan to protect his ears.

This sharp squeak was almost blocked by Dan Yuan, and Ye Xuan was extremely strong, so there was not much effect on him.

The next moment, Ye Xuan is a condensed sword of Dan Yuan.

"Take the person's way to cure his own body, the three blasts!"

After three muffled sounds, the big sword was suddenly slammed down, although it was lightly escaped by the green quilt, but the eight sacred earthquakes had a second effect.

"Sound burst!"

"Hey!"

The Danyuan sword exploded in an instant, and the location of the detonation was only a few meters away from the green bird. At that time, the strong impact was on the body of the green bird, and the bomb exploded like a bomb. The rumble of the rumbling also fell into the ears of the green geese.

The green velvet body is petite and very fast, and the claws can easily penetrate the meteorite. There is also a special way of tweeting, which is an extremely difficult to deal with.

Unfortunately, it turned out to be a net, and wanted to find Ye Xuan's trouble.

After the eight-day-shocked Tianjian burst, the green swan is a white-eyed, falling down. Taking advantage of this opportunity, Ye Xuan body twisted and swept toward it quickly.

"Hey!"

Eight wild swords suddenly split.

Eight wild winds killed, the sky broke!

A horizontal whirlwind swept through the body of the green squirrel, piercing its body, and the heart was smashed and smashed, and died instantly.

Ye Xuan plucked the past and placed it on his body and swallowed it directly.

"Hey, the host swallowed a mysterious corpse and got 300 billion engulfing points."

"Hey, the host swallowed a mysterious inner dan, and got two phagocytic crystals."

"Hey, the host has broken through to Dadan Dacheng!"

When I heard the sound in my mind, Ye Xuan's eyes also flashed a sharp color.

When the person is in a small environment, he can kill the Lvyuan small giant who entered the Dandong. Now the man is in a dare, and the green giant who is dealing with the people of Xiaocheng should not have much problem.

However, I still find the Song Dynasty and they will say it.

He hovered in the open air, which could not fan the wings of the Danyuan condensate and could only be used for gliding.

At this time, there was no boulder in the sky within two kilometers of Tianyuanzong, but the ground had already been pulled out of a large pit.

Suddenly, there was a huge body that blocked Ye Xuan's line of sight. He stared at it and turned out to be a Thunder Eagle.

"Ye Xuan!"

A familiar voice sounded, Ye Xuan stared at it, even Zhou Yan, not only that, Song Chongjing and others are also there.

Ye Xuan sighed a sigh of relief, and said nothing to directly break the Danyuan wings, fell to the Tianlei eagle.

Zhou Yan saw Ye Xuan's appearance as nothing, but he was shocked. He only saw Ye Xuan being hit by a huge stone.

However, what he did not know was that at this time, Ye Xuan was still seriously injured, and many bones were broken, but they were hard.

Ye Xuan's front foot just fell, and immediately there was a shadow that rushed into his arms.

"You are fine."

Ye Xuan took a shot of the back of the Song Dynasty, and checked it carefully. No one was hurt, except for Ling Xiao Dapeng, who was only shot by him.

"I know that your boy is hard and can't die." Tai Yan, the elder of the elders, came over and said, "Don't be so crap, the Luyuan giant may have a second round of explosions. You should hurry away."

When I heard this, Ye Xuan turned around and found that the Luyuan Giant was indeed accumulating, and maybe even erupted again.

"Master, what about you?" Song rudely said.

"In the round, only two-thirds of the people have fallen. With so many of the same door, I can't see you die. You guys will all go back to 10,000 meters!" Zhou Yan said, directly I jumped and jumped.

There were originally hundreds of flying mounts, but now there are only more than 30 flying left. So many gods are on the ground, and Zhou Yan is dead, and they must be kept.

Ye Xuan's heart is also hesitating. After the green giant swallowed lapis lazuli, it seems that it has changed. It is so horrible that so many small mysterious animals have burst out.

He does not know whether there will be a small giant in the sky.

However, let him leave with the Song Dynasty, this can not be done.

"You go first, I will continue to help." Ye Xuan turned and looked at other people.

"I have to go." Song Congjing hurried.

"We are also disciples of Lingxiaofu. We can't just go." The Song ruling is also a step forward.

Jiang Liu also came over and asked: "If Ling Xiao Dapeng flies away, how do you leave?"

"This Lingxiao Dapeng is too slow. If you want to rescue others, you must at least be a beast. Otherwise, you will only add pressure to the stone." Ye Xuan shook his head.

Although this sentence is very harsh, it is indeed a fact.

At this time, there were a total of seven people on the back of the Dawning Dapeng. Except for Ye Xuan's words, the strongest is the river flow of Dacheng Dacheng, followed by the Song Dynasty, the Song ruling, and Jiang You In addition, there are two disciples who first entered the Dan.

These people gathered together, even in the face of the land can be a battle, but the number of small giants under the green source, if they go together, it will only increase pressure on Ye Xuan and others.
