Chapter 2771: Mosquito beast bloody

"This is... what is it?"

With the appearance of this * murderous mosquito, Ye Xuan felt that his body was more powerful than the tyrants, and suddenly he was shocked, and he subconsciously stepped back a dozen steps. The crazy mosquito king.

"It's * body, representing the blood of the mosquito kings, of course, this point, you can let it conceal, including repair, can also be from the current original point of view, concealed to the lowest planet !"

Speaking of this, the madness of the mosquito king once again glimpsed: "This mosquito, named blood scorpion, is the only son of the emperor, it is the real crazy mosquito beast, although the birth of the wisdom, but has been enchanted... .."

"Blood? Mosquito prince? The original order?"

This series of information is hesitant if it is sunny, and Ye Xuanzhen retreats back and forth, looking at the crazy mosquito emperor: "Before... the predecessor, what do you mean, let me take your emperor as a beast?" God, how can it be done, but it must be slain, I can't pull this face, it's too rude!"

During the speech, Ye Xuan subconsciously looked at the * mosquito, and the pair of eyes on the human head evolved by the other party were completely bloody, full of crazy colors, killing the sky, staring at the leaves tightly. Xuan, if its shape is made by the crazy mosquito, I am afraid that it has already come.

If that's the case, with Ye Xuan only the first-order repair of the meteor, the soul will fly and the bones will not be left!

"In his current state, do you think that if you don't plant a slave to it, will it be very comfortable?"

The crazy mosquito sighs and sighs, and the tone is full of sorrow: "Speaking of it, the reason why it will fall into the madness when it comes to the wisdom is actually because of the emperor's sake, the emperor has something to do with it!"

"In the past few years, although I have been taking it with me, I know that it is very painful. After all, it is the blood of the emperor. The emperor can feel it..."

"In addition, the emperor has a feeling that if it has a day to restore his mind, then this opportunity must fall on you, boy, take it away, the only chance, whether it is the emperor Still, don't want to miss it. Believe in the intuition of a strong natural person, sometimes... the strongest person in the world of heaven has already had the opportunity to touch the slightest sense of heaven!"

"This....."

Listening to the crazy mosquito emperor said so, Ye Xuan could not help but also hesitated.

Before he made the final decision, the eleventh-level slave printed on the side of the crazy mosquito king had already spurred back to Ye Xuan and directly fell into his body.

At the same time, the voice of the crazy mosquito king also passed: "Hands on the kid, and then grinds down, the emperor can only bear more mental torture."

"Well, the predecessors can rest assured that the younger generation must treat it like a brother!"

Seeing the mad mosquitoes and even their own princes can bear the pain in their hands, let them plant the slaves as a beast, Ye Xuan's heart this time is a complete earthquake regret.

Although he knows that there must be a lot of secrets in the body of the crazy mosquito, from the current point of view, the other party is indeed a friend of his own, as it has said before, without any malice.

One thought of this, Ye Xuan even took the 11th-level slave print and regained the knowledge of the sea, took out another ten-level slave print, raised his hand and did not press the * forehead of the mosquito king!

"hiss....."

At this moment, the angry anger of the mosquito king's * cockroaches almost instantly turned into a real blood blade, staring at Ye Xuan tightly, and also issued a sharp sly in the mouth, watching the madness on the side. The mosquito king sighed!

However, such a state quickly disappeared. As the ten-level slave was produced in the beast nucleus in the brain of the mosquito prince, the resentment in his eyes quickly disappeared, but the fierceness The madness of Haotian is still the same as before. The light in both eyes is also bloody, but when I look at Ye Xuan, there is no trace of rebellion.

Obviously, slave printing still has an effect, but the * butre of the mosquito beast is still crazy. This situation is also reasonable. Ye Xuan is not unexpected, but it feels weird. After all, this is still him. For the first time, accept a crazy existence!

"His crazy madman has been in the bone marrow for hundreds of years, so even if you have planted a slave, this state of madness will not be lifted."

At this point, the voice of the crazy mosquito has sounded again: "But it is much better than before, and the power of the king to suppress him has been loosened. Look, it has no change? If it used to be, This is the king, it will rush to the first time without endless, at least now, because of the effect of your slave printing, it will take the initiative to control itself..."

"But you have to pay attention, this control is also relative."

"It's not that it will be dangerous to you, but to other people, it is already your favorite beast, and you are under the slain that has been lost in the legend, compared to the spiritual imprint of the general devil strong , more stable ten million times."

"So, as long as it's repaired without breaking through the limits of the ten-level swearing, it won't have any two hearts for you."

"The relative control I just said is only for people other than you..."

"Because of the effect of your slavery, it will usually have self-control ability. Although it still kills mans like blood, it will not have any impulsive behavior, but once you give it an order to attack, then it is suppressed by him. This kind of madness will burst out several times!"

"The meaning is that once you let it attack, basically it is not endless, so if you do not kill the other party's heart, it is best not to use it, otherwise you can't end it!"

"Predecessors, you mean I understand!"

Hearing here, Ye Xuan suddenly realized, he knows, there is still a layer of meaning in the crazy mosquito king, that is, once Ye Xuan issued an attack command, even if the other party's repair is far more than the * mosquito king, it will not Any hesitation will definitely kill the other side, and it will be the one that comes to death as soon as it is shot.

In this way, I really want to encounter a stronger existence, and my safety is only afraid...

Thinking of this, Ye Xuan suddenly looked like a face, and rushed to the crazy mosquito emperor: "The predecessors rest assured, I just said that in the future, treat it like a brother, this is a swear!"

"Well, this emperor really didn't read you wrong."

"Today, all this is done, although it is gambling, betting a unique opportunity, but with your words, even if the final result is not satisfactory, the emperor can have no complaints!"

Having said that, the crazy mosquito king turned and went: "This emperor can't leave here, take it with him, remember, remember that he is concealed and repaired, and at the same time, the blood of the mosquito and the royal family is also concealed. Surgery is the blood talent of the mosquito and beast royal family. Except for the mosquito and the royal family, even if it is a strong cave, it is impossible to see it!"

When the voice is degraded, the figure of the crazy mosquito king has disappeared. In the distance, the crown of the camphor tree screams at the end, and the blink of an eye disappears...

Chapter 2772: Return to black mosquito

With the departure of the crazy mosquito king, Ye Xuan suddenly fell into sinking.

The * mosquitoes in front of the eyes are still full of fierce madness. The body and trunk are in the form of mosquitoes and animals. Only a skull with red hair is human, but the light in the eyes is bloody. The human feeling is like a terrible beast, and it is inexplicable.

It is certain that the blood of the mosquito family is hidden. Otherwise, there will be a lot of troubles. As for the extent to which the cultivation should be concealed, Ye Xuan is a bit hesitant.

Before the crazy mosquito emperor had already said that the mosquito and the royal family had a strong blood talent in the concealed technique, and there was a heart under the concealment, let alone the black mosquito star commander Zuo Fengtai and the high priest gray bones. The original point is strong, and it is the strongest of the caves of the Emperor, and they can't see it.

Then, how to choose the degree of concealment it has been cultivated is very particular.

If it is too weak, although it will not attract attention, if it is in danger, when it needs to be shot, once it shows the strength beyond the degree of concealment, then the suspicion will be more intense.

The * scorpion is the beast pet that Ye Xuan puts on the bright side in the future. Then, basically, it can be said that the number and chances of its shots will be much higher than that of Naibo Mountain and Ba.

One thought of this, Ye Xuan made a decision when he bit his teeth, and then he gave the first command to the blood of this mosquito and beast with the spirit of power: to collect the blood of the mosquito king! Will be repaired from the original point of the first order concealed to the first level of the black hole!

The first stage of the black hole is basically enough. Of course, because the blood can not be casually shot, a shot must kill the opponent, it is really necessary to fight, it is crazy, it can not control what is hidden, even if The other party is the original point, and it will definitely go all out. In this case, the original point of the repair will definitely be revealed.

Therefore, Ye Xuan will basically not let it shoot, so more often, in the face of crisis and dilemma, still have to rely on Ye Xuan to solve.

As for the fact that he could get a black hole from the mosquito star, the first step of the murderous mosquito, Ye Xuan also calculated the wording in his heart.

On the one hand, as a seed player representing Black Mountain Star to participate in the trial of the black mosquito tribe, he was originally the most talented in the use of spiritual power among the entire Black Mountain star.

On the other hand, although the * cultivation is strong, the state of its madness is arguable at all. In this case, the spiritual strength of Ye Xuan beyond the ordinary ordinary devil is not necessarily There is no chance to confess it.

At the very least, I will take a little more luck.

Of course, the most important thing is that Ye Xuan is the devil of the righteousness. Now there is the eight-level spiritual imprint left by the crazy mosquito king in the spiritual core of his knowledge of the sea. Even the devil can not detect it. His knowledge of the sea, in this case, there is no doubt point leaked, Ye Xuan naturally nothing to worry about.

As these thoughts flashed through my mind, the * side of the opposite had already done everything in accordance with Ye Xuan's instructions.

Its realm of breath has turned into a black hole first-order, and the body of the mosquito that was originally red and * has become a normal black. Only the crazy blood in the pair has not changed, and there is a * unkempt. The hair is still there.

But it's better, you know it is crazy at first glance!

It can be a little confusing effect. In short, Ye Xuan is very satisfied.

"Blood brother, Ye had a promise before, if you are a brother, privately, you will be commensurate with your brother, but before the people, in order to the overall situation, sometimes if you are sent, you still want to bear!"

Speaking of this, Ye Xuan bowed his hand to the blood and gave a deep gift.

What he didn't notice was that at the moment he turned his waist, the * madness of the opposite side of the * face seemed to have a fascinating meaning, flashing quickly, and disappearing quietly!

After doing all this, Ye Xuan waved the * blood into the pet beast ring, and the pet beast ring, which he had previously purchased in the black mosquito star shop area, was purchased by some magical black crystal.

This kind of bracelet, although it can also be a living creature, but because it is refining as a pet pet space, so the space inside is not big, only a hundred cubic meters, income one body slightly larger pets There is not enough space.

In addition, this beast ring does not use the perfect folding space technology, otherwise the space inside will not be so small, after all, it is only the low-level space treasures that the refiners in the demon group have refining themselves, and from the heavenly family. Higher goods, there is still a difference.

The reason why the bracelet is made is for carrying convenience.

After this treasure refining, before you can install the beast, you can earn it in the body. Once you have a pet, you can only put it on your wrist. Of course, if the beast is a corpse, already Dead, but also can be collected into the body!

As the * body disappeared, it turned into a black mangling into the pet beast ring of Ye Xuan's hand. Ye Xuan did not continue to delay too much, directly launched the perfect shock, and hidden the body shape and breath. Then he followed the original road and quickly rushed to the thick black atmosphere of the sky.

It was also at this time that the crown of the giant camphor tree was at the end of the tree. The figure of the crazy mosquito king was also stepping out of the void. Looking at the direction of Ye Xuan's departure, he took care of himself and muttered to himself: "Bad boy, You are the last hope of the emperor, and you must not die in the middle of it..."

Black mosquito star!

On the outskirts of the holy demon ancestral hall in the eastern suburbs of the main city of Black Star City, the small quadrangle used to receive ten quasi-sons.

At this moment, in addition to Ye Xuan, the other nine quasi-sons are here.

The only difference is that the son of the big boss from the Black Comet, that is, the sissy fragrant Fang Fang, although not in the same group as the other eight, alone leaning against a tree in the courtyard, with a dissatisfied face on his face color.

The other eight people are gathered together. One of them is a young man with a rich face like a jade. He is in the middle of the middle. This person is the only son of Zuo Fengtai, the leader of the black mosquito tribe. This person is also the one who won the highest voice of the black mosquito.

He not only has a good talent for spiritual strength, but also cultivated to reach the ninth-order great consummation of the satellite environment in the third realm. It is immediately the magic powerhouse of the fourth largest realm of the planet.

In addition, among his favorite ring of the left wrist, there is a powerful mosquito with a fourth-order star in the fourth world. It is the leader of the black mosquito tribe. Zuo Fengtai personally enters the mosquito star to arrest him. Come.

It can be said that the powerful mosquito and animal beast of the fourth stage of this star river is the greatest dependence and pride of Zuo Licheng.

Because of this, when he listened to a prospective son who was actively looking for it today, the seller who sold the * from Montenegro dared to not look at his mosquito and beast pet, and after saying the sarcasm, Zuo Li Cheng became angry and came to this place.

At this moment, the other seven quasi-sons are surrounding him, with a good intention, and the words are full of vinegar...

Chapter 2773: Rolling

"Zuo Xiong, you were not there at the time. Otherwise, if you see that unscrupulous open face, I am afraid that I will be angry on the spot."

"Isn't it! This kid is obviously selling from the bears in the hands of the bears, and getting the qualifications of the testimony of the Montenegro star. I really want to say it. I am so shy and I am not in the same position. Low-key, no mosquitoes and gods do not matter, the sissy girl sent him a satellite environment, the most irritating thing is that this kid is arguing that before he grabs a head, he still asks me who is the most powerful mosquito."

"That counts that he doesn't know who is not guilty. What's more, I have told the left brother that the mosquito pet is the top thing in the seventh realm of the Star River. This person is still scornful and scornful. I saw it clearly, and I clearly have the meaning of pressing the left brother over you. What is he?"

"Don't say it, the more you say the more angry! I am waiting for the genius of the descendants of the major demons in the tribe? Today, he was stunned by a sly person who sold his ass. This tone is really uncomfortable!"

In the small courtyard, the seven sacred sons who are guilty of misfortunes say a word to me, while talking, while still shaking their heads and sighing, it is a feeling of affection, not only the black surrounded by them. The face of the mosquito star, Zuo Licheng, said that the face was more gloomy, and even the ones who were leaning against a small tree not far away, were all sullen.

It is a pity that this matter cannot be explained at all, and the more it is explained, the less the effect is, the worse it is. Therefore, although Hao Fangfang is not worried, he has no choice.

"The name of this unscrupulous scorpion, Zuo, has also heard about it in recent days. I thought it was a trivial genius. I didn't want to be a bit timid."

Being stunned by these few guys, the anger of Zuo Licheng's heart is obviously also rushing out. Although the tone is calm, but in the eyes, there is a strong indignation: "It's just a few days in the past few days. Today, Zuo, who is here, is here. I have to see if this person has something to do with him. I dare not even look at my left court!"

During the speech, a figure-like figure has fallen from the atmosphere of the black mosquito star to the small courtyard. As the situation slows down, the nine quasi-sons in the courtyard look at the appearance of the coming. They are the people they are talking about!

"Zhang Wuji, seeing you come back in a long time, shouldn't you catch the right mosquito? It doesn't matter, I will leave it for you..."

Without waiting for Zuo Licheng and others to respond, Hao Fangfang greeted Ye Xuan, who had just fallen to the side of the small courtyard, and said, pulling him and going to his door. go with.

This is a bit of a cover-up. Ye Xuan's eyes swept through the eight people in the courtyard and saw a new face. It seems to be surrounded by another seven people. The stars are arched, and even if they are envious. .

Considering that this person is the only son of the black mosquito tribe, Zuo Fengtai, now he is on the site of others. Although Ye Xuan does not despise him, he even feels uncomfortable with Hao Fangfang's reading of the prince's reading. However, at the moment, there is really no need to confront the other party in front of each other.

After reading this, Ye Xuan hesitated for a short while, after all, he followed the drag of Haofangfang, and turned to go to his room, temporarily avoiding the limelight.

"stop!"

Unfortunately, the tree wants to be calm and the wind is not stop.

Ye Xuan did not intend to cause more trouble, but the other party obviously did not think so, almost at the time of his recent step, not far from the center of the hospital, a sound of screaming has been heard.

Ye Xuan's foot was stagnation, and he glanced back subconsciously, but he saw that the young devil man who was born was just sneer and smirked. The rest of the seven people followed, and the face was the same gloating. The color.

"Zhang Wuji is it? I heard that you can't pick up the black mosquito beast of Zuo. Can you have this?"

Seeing Ye Xuan stopped the pace, this person's tone is more sharp, and it seems to ask, but there is no such thing as the meaning of Rong Yexuan's defense. When he even said: "If this is the case, you must enter the mosquito star. The mosquito beasts that I personally caught must be on the left. Everyone is the quasi-saint of the black mosquito. Why not let me open my eyes?"

"But the ugly words on the left can be said to be ahead. If you can't get a mosquito above the left beast, then the previous words are unwarranted and humiliating. In this black mosquito, I am afraid that no one dares to do so. You have to think about it yourself..."

"You should have misunderstood this matter. I don't know you. Where do you say shame?"

Ye Xuan shrugged his shoulders and returned with a word. He turned and walked away.

He is really interested in such boring things.

"Oil chamber slip! Since you can't get a mosquito that surpasses the left beast, you have to pay for your words..."

Seeing Ye Xuan's fluttering back and turning around, he seems to have never put himself in his eyes. Zuo Licheng suddenly became furious, and the voice of his mouth was almost screamed: "It's like you are so dirty. Dirty dog things, Zuo also do not bother, but before, you have to give a left to the pet beast!"

"go with!"

"hiss....."

Go to the word exit, like a roar!

With Zuo Licheng's hand wave, the head was surrounded by the wrists of the beast, and the black mosquito beast with the seventh realm of the Star River was so powerful that he was instantly sacrificed without any warning.

The next moment, Li Wei came, the hurricane began to rise!

A black mosquito with a body size of nearly two meters has already rushed toward the back of Ye Xuan!

Its high-rise forelimbs are black and bright, revealing the texture of the metal, and there is a sense of gold and sharp telescopic, like a black lightning, quickly and unfortunately tied to the back of Ye Xuan...

This is clearly the rhythm of the killing!

"Zhang Wuji, be careful!"

On the side, Hao Fangfang was caught off guard. Seeing that this mosquito was approaching in an instant, suddenly it changed color and disappeared.

"Roar!"

Almost at the same instant, a sound of a beast like a thunderstorm suddenly exploded. Just behind Ye Xuan's figure, a black mosquito that was still on the other side of the body appeared.

This mosquito has even evolved a human head, full of red hair, breathful demon, and even more * red in the eyes, it seems to reveal a real * color, when it appears, The body has already rushed out of a strong pressure, even the space of the small courtyard seems to be crushed, vaguely shocked out a weak thunder!

"squeak....."

With the appearance of this weird mosquito, Zuo Licheng's black mosquito pets were stagnation without any delay, and the long mouthpiece was horrified and panicked, and finally collapsed. With the body, crouching directly on the ground in the courtyard, shaking and shaking, the body has been trembled!

It is not enough to open the repair to the realm. It is the * atmosphere of the mosquito and the royal family that is invisible in the * body. It is enough to easily crush the other side...

Chapter 2774: Grand commander's killing

For bloody, Ye Xuan does not want to be exposed too early.

But just now, the moment when the mosquitoes attacked, he clearly gave birth to a strong feeling that the crisis of life and death is approaching quickly. Then he called the bleeding from the beast ring, but it was helpless.

At this moment, although the killing intention of Ye Xuan's heart has sprouted, but the reason has not been lost, the * summoned is only to resolve the crisis, and there is no intention.

Therefore, as the other side's black mosquitoes trembled and slammed into the ground, Ye Xuan was the first time to read again, waving his hand and then re-incorporating the blood into the beast ring.

Because the speed before and after is so fast that no matter whether it is Haofangfang or Zuo Licheng, it just feels like a flower in front of him. It seems that a weird red-haired mosquito has shook its figure and disappeared. .

They didn't even have time to clearly feel the temperament of the * body, but there is no doubt that it must be extremely powerful. Otherwise, the moment in which the figure appears, in this small courtyard The void is not like being crushed, but there is a deep, thunderous sound that can be heard.

"Dog stuff, what have you done to this little mosquito pet?"

Just one breath didn't, and the situation happened to be such an unexpected reversal. Zuo Licheng's face changed one after another, while roaring and roaring, while stimulating the spiritual source of the brain.

As an invisible spiritual force emerged from his mind, he quickly fell to the ground and smashed the black mosquito beast, and the ban on the beast nucleus in the brain was immediately activated.

"Hey..."

Huge pains came, and the black mosquitoes squatting on the ground gave a fierce and fierce scream. The pair of eyes above the mosquitoes seemed to have a red awn at this moment. Killing * meaning.

"Kill him! Kill him right away... Otherwise, this will ruin you, and you will kill the beast nucleus!"

The same instant that was banned in the brain of this mosquito, the look of Zuo Licheng's face was instantly changed. The original cold arrogance disappeared completely, like a runaway, roaring and raising his hand to Ye Xuan The past.

"Hey!"

The power of the ban on the beast nucleus in the brain caused the black mosquito to be completely violently gone. With the second stern screaming sound coming out of its long mouthparts, it was originally smashed to the ground. The black mosquitoes behind the beasts violently shake their wings, and the figure is like a teleport, just in time to Ye Xuan.

Its black cold and sharp forelimbs are like a spear, and when the head falls to Ye Xuan's eyebrows...

"Zuo Licheng, you are deceiving too much!"

Ye Xuan suddenly changed color, roaring and screaming in his hand, just after his * fate of the beast ring came, his forelimb seemed to be lifted gently, but in the next moment, he was directly inserted without any suspense. Between the two giant compound eyes of the black mosquito pet beast, go straight into the deep brain!

"Wow....."

A sorrowful sorrow like a wow is heard from the black mosquito pet beast. Then, its huge figure is like a boneless body. It instantly falls to the ground and has no breath!

One hit and kill!

What is even more bizarre is that the * offensive seems to be on the surface, only to gently lift the forelimb, while the latter, the powerful black mosquito that has the seventh realm of the Star River, has even evaded There were no chances, and the * forefoot passed by in the moment, and it fell on the spot!

"What? Black hole first step? This is impossible..."

Until then, Zuo Licheng finally clearly captured the temperament of the * body, and his body shape slammed back and forth several steps, stunned, and exclaimed, his mouth squirted. A blood arrow.

The face was visible to the naked eye with the meaning of gold paper.

The black mosquito pet beast was smashed, and Zuo Licheng's ban on the beast nucleus in his brain was instantly eclipsed. This is clearly a sign of a minor internal injury!

All of this is long-lived, but it actually happens between suffocation.

Other people in the hospital, whether it is Hao Fangfang behind Ye Xuan or the other seven sacred sons behind Zuo Licheng, all of them are now sluggish, with a big open mouth and a gaze on Ye Xuan's face. The look on the face changes rapidly, like a ghost in the day!

At the same time, dozens of figures are rapidly plucking around the direction of the courtyard.

Although the previous battle was short-lived, no matter whether it was the whistling sound of the black mosquito-loving beast of Zuo Licheng, or the black-bottle strong atmosphere of the * shot, the movement was absolutely not counted. Small, these powerful demons who are rapidly rushing are obviously alarmed, and this has swarmed.

In this regard, Ye Xuan's brow has just wrinkled, and in the direction of the main city of black mosquitoes in the distance, it has instantly set off a very horrible atmosphere, like the invisible match of the void, with a vague roar of thunder. It is coming quickly.

The people have not yet arrived, and their breath has completely shrouded the entire courtyard. Ye Xuan only feels that the whole body is stiff. At this moment, even the fingers can no longer move.

It is the * side of his body, but it seems to feel the provocation, the * mangling in the sputum, the desire to go.

Ye Xuan's heart is awkward. If it is to let the big commander of the black mosquito tribe, Zuo Fengtai, look up, if the * spurt is angered, then the madness will go away. Today, I am afraid that it will not be able to end completely.

As soon as I read this, Ye Xuan even provoked the brain to understand the spiritual core of the sea, and rolled an invisible soft spiritual force to the blood of the body, trying to soothe, finally letting the violent temper of its body rushing gradually. It was calm down.

"The first stage of the black hole? Who are you, how can there be such a black mosquito beast?"

It was also at this time that the breath of the whistling from the distant black mosquito main city had already arrived in the air. It was a majestic middle-aged demon strongman with a face like a knife, a hard line, and a dawn. Even more arrogant, even if it has been specifically converged to repair the atmosphere, it still reveals an invisible pressure.

Ye Xuan only looked at each other with a glance, and he was already feeling awkward and uncomfortable.

The third-order repair of the original point is a breath, and it is quite different. This person is the great leader of the black mosquito tribe, the father of Zuo Licheng, Zuo Fengtai!

"Back to the big commander, the boy Zhang Wuji, just came from Montenegro today, I heard that the participants who participated in the test of the Son need to bring a black mosquito beast, so that even if they went to the mosquito star half a day ago."

Strongly pressing the heart of the unhappy, Ye Xuan calmly handed a gift to the left Fengtai, and continued to return to the road without humiliation: "This black hole of the mosquito is the harvest of this half-day, it is also luck, although this beast is repaired as Strong, it seems that a simple ingenuity has also been born, but in the process, most of them have accidents, causing them to fall into madness, like crazy, I have something to do, I have been lurking in the side, and finally found the opportunity to shoot out the mental ban. , I was able to surrender..."

"A nonsense!"

After waiting for Ye Xuan to finish, Zuo Fengtai suddenly screamed and screamed, killing his words: "It is crazy again, after all, it is a black hole, a small meteor ants, even in spiritual power. The talent of the aspect is stronger, the spirit of your brand is banned, and why should you surrender this beast?"

Chapter 2775: Shock

"Father, this person's origin is unknown, a small meteor, actually rumors can conquer a black hole in the powerful black mosquito World of Warcraft, which must have conspiracy, and this person has just smashed his mosquitoes to kill the baby's black mosquitoes The beast, this is the matter, you can't stop doing it!"

Seeing his father's arrival, the arrogance and sorrowful color on Zuo Licheng's face appeared again. The blood of the mouth of the mouth was touched. When he raised his hand, he pointed it to Ye Xuan, and then turned to the other side. Ten magical strongmen screamed: "What are you doing? Why don't you get it quickly and torture it!"

"It's a joke..."

Upon hearing this, Ye Xuan was extremely angry and laughed. He sneered at Zuo Licheng and sneered. "You don't have the skills, you don't have to be yourself, you can think of others so badly? This black mosquito Originally, I personally surrendered it. This matter cannot be doubted by anyone."

"As for your black mosquito beast being shackled, I am just self-defense. You have no intention to take the lead. If you want to put me to death, can't I even resist? Can it be so arrogant, skill is not as good as people, dead beast But it's a target, and if you're a black-spotted star, you don't have to lose your identity?"

This is listening to the singer Zuo Licheng, but it does not mean that there is no point to insinuate the meaning of Zuo Fengtai.

The latter naturally heard that there was a flash of cold flashes in the moment, and it was also extremely angry: "Ha ha ha... good for a good mouth, or today, this command will give you a chance, lest you be left behind. People criticize. As long as you can prove that this black mosquito is indeed surrendered by you, the previous commander will not do it. However, since it is proof, it must be able to stand up, the strong word is not Use, this point, you have to make your own mistakes, otherwise it is the play of this command, the death penalty can not escape!"

"The big commander will say this!"

Ye Xuan sneered under his heart, but his face still remained unhappled and screamed. "The mosquito in the black hole is indeed the one I personally conquered. This is the fact, why is it so strong?"

"Of course, for a demon who only repairs a meteor, it is really impossible to ambush such a black mosquito."

Having said that, Ye Xuan's words are not only tense, but he smiles lightly: "However, this matter is impossible in the eyes of others, but for the kid, it is really a simple matter. "

"Don't say that this black mosquito is only a black hole in the first-order cultivation of strength, even if its cultivation has reached the black-level ninth-order great perfection, even beyond the black hole..."

"As long as I can wait for an opportunity to find an opportunity and successfully conquer it, it is entirely possible."

"Of course, if this black mosquito is insane, this chance boy can't wait, so I will only say that the reason why I can successfully conquer this mosquito is indeed a big part of luck. The reason!"

The ambiguity of this statement did not prove that there was convincing evidence. However, Ye Xuan said that he was so confident and full. This strange scene suddenly made the face of many magicians in the courtyard gradually become strange.

Even Hao Fangfang's eyes on Ye Xuan's eyes are completely different from before, and it seems that he has lost his sense of confusion.

"Walk around, you don't seem to come up with strong evidence to prove this, Zhang Wuji, don't challenge the patience of this command!"

Zuo Fengtai frowned, his face showed an extremely intolerant color, and he waved his hand and shouted: "Give you another minute. If there is no result, you will accept it!"

"In this case, the kid can only be honest, but the matter is personal privacy, originally did not want to sway too much, and the tree is big."

Speaking of this, Ye Xuan sighed and then he said: "So, the matter is also ordered by the general commander, so that everyone present today, do not want to spread out, so as not to cause unnecessary impact on the kid!"

Zuo Fengtai frowned again, and the coldness of his mouth slowly climbed out: "One minute is almost..."

"Yes, my cultivation is really too weak. Even if I have mastered the branding of spiritual prohibition, in general, it is basically impossible to conquer a black hole in the mosquitoes! But..."

"But my cultivation is weak, but the level of spiritual strength is very high. Therefore, the spirit of my brand is banned. Even the black hole of the black mosquito World of Warcraft is absolutely not immune, and there is no way to break free."

"The level of spiritual strength?"

Zuo Fengtai, this statement is indeed reasonable, the black hole is a strong mosquito, but its level of spiritual strength is not so, if the spiritual source has undergone three transformations and evolved to the fourth level, then With the spirit of this four-level spiritual power condensed, even a black-bogged mosquito can only squat.

However, among the whole black mosquitoes, there is only one person who has reached the fourth level of spiritual origin, and that is the tribe's high priest. In front of this kid, I really want to take this to get away with it. It's just looking for death!

One thought of this, Zuo Fengtai's scorpion once again smashed a strong killing mang, sneer again and again: "So, your spiritual source nuclear has evolved to the fourth level, is this the meaning?"

Ye Xuan immediately shook his head: "No, the spiritual core of the kid is not the fourth level..."

"Bold! I dare to tease this command! Today will tear you apart and bone!"

After waiting for Ye Xuan to finish, Zuo Fengtai suddenly screamed and screamed. His figure stood still and didn't even move his hands behind his back, but his body suddenly smashed a giant claw like a mountain. India, this is clearly an attacking skill using the power of the spirit, and the momentum is majestic, the giant spirit of the giant claws like a sky, rumbling when even to Ye Xuan.

Seeing this scene, the magicians around them all sneered and sneered, and Zuo Licheng was even more ridiculous, as if he could see Ye Xuan being crushed into mud by this spiritual paw print. The feeling of happiness makes him extremely enjoyable!

In the face of all this, Ye Xuan seems to completely ignore the general, his face still with a faint smile, calmly and unwillingly said the words that have not been finished, word by word, throwing the voice: "My spiritual source core Yes... the fifth level!"

At the same time, the fifth level of the three words blurted out, Ye Xuan is more proof of the general, directly urging the small source of nuclear in the sea, the spiritual strength as far as possible out of the body, he believes, to the knowledge of Zuo Fengtai, the fifth level Spiritual strength, he should be able to sense it in an instant...

"What? This is... five levels of mental strength?"

Sure enough, almost at the same moment that Ye Xuan's spiritual power was diffused, Zuo Fengtai's face was abruptly changed, and the voice was exclaimed. The huge spiritual paw print like a mountain is only in the top of Ye Xuan's head. In the mid-air of Zhang Zhiyao, it stopped!

Chapter 2776: Mysterious gray bone

"Five-level mental strength? How is this possible? Who are you?"

Feel the unique atmosphere of the magical five-level spiritual power that Ye Xuan body has dispersed. Zuo Fengtai's face is almost instantaneous, and his eyes wide open on the inkjet.

Even with his strong third-order cultivation, Zuo Fengtai's spiritual core has only undergone two changes, and now it is only the third level.

It is the high priest of the black mosquito, Greyhate, which is only the fourth level.

In fact, among the top ten tribes of the entire demonic group, the highest level of spiritual origin is the fourth level, which is basically the high priest of the major tribes.

The spiritual source nuclear evolved to the fifth level of existence, only the magic king star.

Moreover, even in the Magic Emperor, the existence of a five-level source nucleus is not a lot, and each of them is the core of the entire demonic group.

Even the Emperor of the Devil, the level of the spiritual source of the nuclear, is only the seventh level.

In this case, a small meteor ecstasy ant suddenly burst out of the fifth-level spiritual source nucleus. All this is true for Zuo Fengtai, and it is almost like a blue sky. The whole person is instantly bombed. Senseless.

Even if he saw it with his own eyes, Zuo Fengtai would not believe it all, because a saintist who has a five-level source of nuclear has basically been able to pass the trial and become the saint of the tribe.

And in all likelihood, this guy will gain some inheritance of spiritual power from the first time he enters the Forbidden City.

Among the top ten tribes of the entire demonic tribe, the sons of the other nine tribes, only the most powerful subordinates of the Heinah, had acquired some spiritual power when they entered the forbidden land for the first time. Inheritance.

This person claims that the younger generation of the entire devil's ethnic group has the most spiritual strength of the existence, of course, except for the devil's royal family.

Even so, the spiritual core of the Son of the Black Nai is only the third level.

In front of this enchanting, the level of its spiritual source core has reached the fifth level of terror.

Is there a chance for his own only son, Zuo Licheng, to pass the trial competition and become a new son of the black mosquito?

As these thoughts flashed in my mind, Zuo Fengtai's killing intentions reached the extreme in this moment. He even had a kind of immediate start, and the news had not spread out. The * guy in front of him had not yet caused it. When he paid enough attention, he immediately smothered him on the spot.

The intensity of his killings, even the opposite of Ye Xuan, clearly felt at this moment.

Under the heart's leaps, Ye Xuan even almost ordered the bloodiness behind him, so that he showed all the strengths of his cultivation, and did his best to fight Zuofengtai.

It was also at this moment, a very distant and empty voice, but suddenly came to the Sihe small courtyard at this moment, and instantly resolved the endless killing of Zuo Fengtai's chest: "Zhang Wuji, come to the Holy Devil's Temple." Oh, this priest has something to say to you..."

The vocal person is obviously the high priest of this black mosquito tribe!

When Ye Xuan frowned, and looked coldly at Zuo Fengtai in front of him, he waved the blood behind him into the ring of the beast, and then he smashed the hand and did not speak. Going to the distant black mosquitoes of the Holy Mozu Temple.

This moment, Zuo Fengtai's shackles, clearly smashed a strong cold to the cold, and locked the back of Ye Xuan quickly, full of unwillingness...

At this moment, seeing Ye Xuan turned and left without any loss, Zuo Licheng, who was dull and sullen, finally recovered from the great shock of the past. Even if there was a worrying color on his face: "Hey, is it?" Just let him go? My beasts are already..."

"Okay, go back and say!"

Zuo Fengtai slammed his words and turned his sleeves away!

After a short period of time, only a few tens of kilometers from the small quadrangle, a leaf on the top of the hill, Ye Xuan fell to the shape, looking up at the temple of the ancestral temple in front of her eyes, although the expression on her face is calm, but the bottom of my heart is secretly worried.

The high priest, Greyhound, suddenly summoned the call, and it was a fierce thing in the end. At the moment, Ye Xuan had no bottom at all.

With his first-class cultivation of the second largest realm, the spiritual core of the brain has undergone four transformations and reached the fifth level of terror. No matter how speculated, it is full of speculation. The strange smell.

Zuo Fengtai was only unable to prevent it at the moment, and with the consideration of his personal interests, he did not think about it for a while.

However, as the high priest of the whole black mosquito tribe, Gray Muller also has the strong talent in the spiritual power, and its own spiritual source core has reached the fourth level. Therefore, the gray bones obviously It is more difficult than anyone to understand how difficult it is for the spiritual core to evolve to the fifth level.

At least, he himself has not reached this level.

Then, Ye Xuan is such a meteor's demon ants, what is he?

This matter, the gray bones can not be without doubt.

Although Ye Xuan's mind knows the spiritual source of the sea, he has been left with a guardian brand of eight-level spiritual strength, not to mention the gray bones, even the magic people of the entire demonic group. Emperor, don't want to easily explore his knowledge of the sea and the source of the nuclear, but this matter is still too dangerous after all, in case someone has no fruit to explore, in line with the idea of killing and letting go, directly to Ye Xuan shot?

There is blood in the room, although Ye Xuan is not really hurt by the gray bones, but as a result, the plan to enter the magic king of the sacred forbidden to find more sacred crystals will be completely ruined.

This result, Ye Xuan is really unwilling!

For this reason, although he has already reached the gate of the Black Mosquito's Temple of the Holy Devils, he has always been awkward and hesitant, his feet have been deliberately slowed down, and his mind is running very fast, analyzing every detail and possible appearance. Unexpected changes, think about the countermeasures!

It was also at this time that the voice of the murder of the high priest, Greyhed, was very loud, but it seemed to be whispering in the ear of Ye Xuan. It seemed to deliberately lower the voice and reveal one. The secret of the stock secret: "Don't be nervous, ask you to come over, just talk about a deal!"

"I don't care if there is any secret in you, even if I can support you to sit in the position of the holy mosquito of the black mosquito, even in the future, if the priest can leave the black mosquito, the high priest can be served by you... "

"There is only one requirement: this time I entered the Forbidden City and helped me bring something out...you can do it!"

Ye Xuan immediately stunned, full of shocked colors.

"Don't hesitate, you have no choice, because if you don't agree, this time on the way to the magic star, you will accidentally fall, Zuo Fengtai, will not give up easily, only me, can help you!"

Hearing here, Ye Xuan's heart suddenly moved and suddenly frowned. This guy... is really mysterious!

Chapter 2777: Depart for the Magic King

"I am just a first-class repairing power in the meteor, and even you can't bring things out. Do I have that ability?"

After a tumultuous fall, Ye Xuan whispered back, he knew that the gray bones must be able to hear.

And what he said at the moment is also the fact that although the gray bones can enter the magical sacred forbidden land every hundred years, but the mysterious object has been so remembered by him, I must have already discovered that if he can not bring it, Ye Xuan really did not have a chance.

"Reassured, you will definitely bring it out, and you will definitely meet it."

The gray-sounding sound of the scent of the scent of the scent of the sigh of sighs again in Ye Xuan's ear, making him feel very uncomfortable: "As for what this thing is, you don't need to know now, I will give you a spiritual brand, when When you approach it, or when it is close to you, this spiritual branding, self-inductance, then, the priests left some of the arrangements in the branding and confessing words, you know it!"

"Live?"

Ye Xuan frowned again, and the feeling of uneasiness in his heart was strong.

"Reassured, there will be no danger. Otherwise, once you fall in the inside, things can't be brought out, the priest has to show his feet for this, and he has to pay for it?"

"Now you only need to give me a reply, do you still do this?"

"If you answer, the priest does not need any guarantee from you. In addition to the spiritual brand, it will give you a life-saving treasure. Although it is a one-off, it is enough to keep you on your way to the magic star. , will not fall!"

"If you don't talk about it, you will leave on your own. If the priest has not found you, but after three days, you will be able to stay on the way to the magic star. If you can keep your life, you have to look at your own creation. It!"

"Remind you that this priest knows that you must have a lot of secrets. However, don't underestimate the means of a former strong point, especially if the other party is once in a high position. It is the top ten command of the entire demonic group. One exists."

"The existence and the underlying means of this kind of existence are not comparable to the general original point-of-day powers..."

After hearing these words, Ye Xuan even stumbled after a long silence: "I can promise this, try my best, but I can't guarantee that I will help you bring the things you need!"

"This is the spiritual brand of the priest's talents. Besides, there is still a defensive ecstasy, which is equivalent to the strongest force of the original point spirit and talents, and it is enough to protect you from the magical star! "

As the words rang, from the front of the temple of the sacred ancestral ancestors, there were two singular spurs of glare, and the refusal of Ye Xuan's reaction had already fallen into his eyebrows.

Fortunately, these two spiritual imprints did not invade Ye Xuan's knowledge of the sea, but stayed outside the sea of knowledge, but let his newly hanged heart fall back.

In addition, the high priest, the gray priest, in the temple of the former sacred ancestors, was no longer heard. Ye Xuan did not stay too much. After frowning, he turned and walked away from the Sihe small courtyard.

The magical emperor is far away, and it takes at least a year to arrive if it is galloping at full speed with a typical large starship.

It's just a trial of the Son of the Devil's Tribe. If you spend such a long time on the way, it's too speechless.

What's more, in this vast and magical demon star field, although more than 90% are deserted star, but the surrounding top ten tribes go to the central region of the magic star of the long interstellar journey, but almost all have a large number of Warcraft Stars, some of which are even extremely dangerous, even if large warships only pass near their stars, they may encounter a crisis of life and death.

It can be said that the magic star who rushed to the central domain from the periphery of the Devil's Star Field is not only time-consuming and laborious, but also dangerous along the way.

Fortunately, the top ten tribes of the Devil's group, in addition to each of them sent to the frontiers of the third universe of humanity, as the Scout's scouts in the space bastion, the main stars of the major tribes still have a space fortress of the same level. Generally, when there are more people in the tribe who need to go to the magic king star, they are used passively as a means of transportation.

This kind of space bastion, even without a natural cosmic wormhole, can make space jumps, which greatly saves the time required to rush to the magic star.

If you do not count the loss, as far as possible to expand the limit space jump, from the black mosquito star of the black mosquito tribe to the magic star in the center of the devil's star, only about seven days.

This time, the Black Mosquito tribe also deliberately advanced three days in advance, and Ye Xuan and other ten black mosquitoes were starting the journey for the first ten days of the original tribal test.

The space fortress, which remains in the black mosquito star of the black mosquito tribe, is called the murderous mosquito. From the appearance, it is almost the same as the black mosquito.

However, its internal structure is completely different.

First of all, the lowest level of Wanluo Prison was omitted, because this space fortress is reserved for internal use in the tribe, there is no need to set up a whole layer of prison area.

In fact, although the interior of the murderous mosquitoes uses the same perfect folding space technology as the black mosquitoes, its internal space is only divided into two layers.

The next layer is the computer room area, the supply area, the kinetic energy area, etc. There are nearly 10,000 black mosquitoes who work in this layer to ensure the normal operation of the mosquitoes.

The upper level is a vast living area with a variety of buildings that can accommodate tens of thousands of demons.

This time, I went to the Magic Emperor Star. Although the real protagonist is only the ten sacred sons who are the first to be Ye Xuan and Zuo Li, but in fact, in order to * them safely to the Magic Emperor, the entire fierce mosquito space castle Inside, the number of black mosquitoes who are responsible for different duties is close to 20,000!

After returning from the temple of the Holy Mozu Temple of the Black Mosquito tribe, Ye Xuan returned to the courtyard. When he entered the small room assigned to himself, he did not go out for three days until the afternoon of the third day. When the small courtyard of the courtyard suddenly came to a huge space fortress, Ye Xuan opened his eyes and stepped out of the wing.

Then, after Hao Fangfang followed the various questions that lingered in the back, he sneaked into the black light curtain channel of the murderous mosquito and entered the interior.

The other eight sacred sons who became the first to the left, apparently already entered the room. Ye Xuanyuan walked out from the black light curtain passage, and the left sacred eight people in the upper central area of the murderous mosquitoes were conditioned together. Turned to look at him.

This moment, Ye Xuan's dawn is inexplicable, and he clearly captures a strong gloating from the shackles of Zuo Licheng!

It seems that the gray bones said that it is true, Zuo Fengtai and Zuo Licheng and his father and son, must have been calculated, and it seems to be very confident...

Chapter 2778: Zuo Fengtai's big hand

"Nothing, you have to be careful, I think the guy from Zuo Licheng is a bit wrong!"

After stepping out of the black film passage, Ye Xuan swept a long distance from the left, and then eight people looked at it. The following secretly sneered, turned and walked to the other side of the upper layer of the murderous mosquito.

In addition to the central hall, this floor is surrounded by a villa in a cave. If anyone can live and see it at a glance, Ye Xuan will sweep away and vacant. So he will pick up a building and step into it. The small courtyard of the villa Dongfu.

Hao Fangfang, who has been lingering behind him, seems to want to follow up, but Ye Xuan stood in the small courtyard and took a look at it. He talked: "Hao Shaozhu, I have to retreat these days. I'm afraid I don't have time to chat with you, so..."

This is clearly the meaning of the customer, the fool can hear it, Hao Fangfang is not incomprehensible, but deliberately pretending to be stupid, actually swearing and screaming Ye Xuanle: "That's right, let's live one House, you close your door, I will help you, so that you can't be attacked by the guy from Zuo Licheng."

"In addition, I have called you to be unscrupulous. How do you still call me a lord and a lord? You have to change your mouth, and then call me Fang Fang!"

The implication is that this guy is planning to die and lick his face and stick it to Ye Xuan.

In fact, Hao Fangfang did indeed do this. As he said, he had already squatted sideways and entered the small courtyard from the side of Ye Xuan. If he had no one, he went straight to the villa on the side of the small courtyard.

Ye Xuan frowned, and wanted to turn to another place to find another place to rest, but after thinking about it, Haofangfang was a bit annoying, but in the case of Zuo Licheng, people's attitude was quite good. , has always been hard Ye Xuan.

In this case, with Ye Xuan's character, I can't bear to do it too much. What's more, this time, among the ten quasi-sons who went to the magic king to carry out the trial of the black mosquito, the other eight people have obviously formed a retreat alliance. Although Ye Xuan has no fear, he entered the trial. After the Sanctuary bans the land, it is indeed necessary for many people around him to take care of them.

After all, this Haofangfang is the young master of the black comet. I must have a better understanding of the things of the devil tribe. If you have any questions, at least you can ask at any time.

Thinking of this, Ye Xuan still stepped into the small courtyard, and at the same time, he made a spiritual branding and fell into the courtyard door, so that it automatically closed, and in the next seven days, without the permission of Ye Xuan, other magicians could not Entering without permission, unless forced to break the door, then, a big move, it is equivalent to the role of the banned police!

At the same time, with Ye Xuan on the other side of the top floor of a large central square, with Ye Xuan picking the place to settle in, Zuo Licheng and others quickly dispersed, each picking the next seven sunsets. But the villa is in Dongfu.

Of course, the villas picked by these eight guys are basically located in the same corner area, and soon after Zuo Licheng entered the villa of his choice, there was a middle-aged demon strongman who came over and went to the door. visit.

This person is called Zuo Hongwu, but is the brother of Zuo Fengtai, the leader of the black mosquito, and the uncle of Zuo Licheng!

This fierce mosquito space fortress, this time is controlled by Zuo Hongwu, in addition to being responsible for sending the ten parasitic sons of the black mosquitoes to the magic king, there are other things that need to be handled by the magic king.

"Two uncles, are you ready?"

After closing the courtyard door and entering the villa, Zuo Licheng had not yet waited for Zuo Hongwu to sit down. Immediately he asked anxiously: "How did I arrange it? Are you sure you can kill that kid? His Mosquito pets are the existence of black holes. Although the second uncle is also the sixth stage of the black hole, but the spirit source of the kid has reached the fifth level, and must have mastered some of the skills of the use of spiritual power, their master and servant join hands I am afraid that it may not be solved so well..."

"Look at your hairy and dry temper! I am doing things with you, are you still not worried?"

The words in Zuo Hongwu's mouth seemed to be reprimanding, but the look on his face was clearly a kind of pet. When he said that he had sat down on the animal skin sofa in the living room, he immediately said: "This time Remove this kid, avoiding the worries of the future, and at the same time, you have to block the mouth of the high priest, Grey's mouth, at least on the bright side, you can't see the dripping water, you can't see too much problem, you can be considered as the next It's a big blood!"

Speaking of this, Zuo Hongwu made a slight sigh, and sighed with a faint sigh. Then he said with emotion: "Speaking of it, the kid is really powerful. Even if it is dead, we have to tell us to spread a fierce mosquito and thousands of demons. With him, this kind of treatment is too sweet to die!"

"What? Thousands of demons are buried? Still have to spread this fierce mosquito space fortress?"

Zuo Licheng was shocked and his face changed: "Uncle, is this a little too big? Is that kid with him? Then again, the murderous mosquito number is gone, how do we go to the magic star? "

"Reassured, I have prepared a large warship for transportation. It is also a warship that uses perfect space folding technology, but it is not a space fortress. On the outside, it is similar to the three-kilometer captain's star-rated warship. However, the internal space is very large. Nearly 20,000 demons in the murderous mosquitoes will be able to live even if they can live the next half of the battleship!"

"However, the original seven-day trip is only a matter of extension, but it is also two or three days at a time. Within ten days, you will be able to reach the magic king star..."

"As for the details, you don't have to ask more. When the time is up, I will inform you in advance! But these two days are not urgent, you can wait for it, after three days, you can almost do it..."

"After three days?"

Zuo Licheng heard a glimpse of it, and the flash of thoughts flashed in the middle of it, and then I didn't know what it was, and my face suddenly changed suddenly: "Two uncles, you...you don't want to provoke the group of emptied beasts? Ah, this is too dangerous. If you get it bad, we all have to fall into the black hole star field!"

"If you don't, how can you let the kid's death become an accident that no one can blame?"

Zuo Hongwu's smashing flashed a slap in the face, and the speech room had already got up. He raised his hand and took a shot of Zuo Licheng's shoulder. He turned and walked outside the villa...

At the same time, Ye Xuan's temporary Dongfu villa.

After entering the villa, Ye Xuan and Hao Fangfang even if they determined their rooms, just next door, Ye Xuan originally intended to enter the house directly, but Hao Fangfang had to take him to sit in the living room on the first floor of the villa. Down, still chattering, just like a shot of blood, excited and excited, and inquiring about * things.

"Hey, it's awesome, all the World of Warcraft stars in the black mosquito star field, the black mosquito World of Warcraft is the most powerful kind of starry beast, even in the entire Devil's Star, it can definitely be ranked before Ten, it is also a few kinds of fierce beasts such as emptied beasts. It is even more powerful than it. I can't think of you, even the black mosquitoes of the black hole can get it, and they are envious of the dead."

Chapter 2779: Heaven falls

"Let the beast? What is that?"

I heard that there is actually a more intensive World of Warcraft than the black mosquitoes in the demon's star field. Ye Xuan couldn't help but be interested. Even if he asked: "Is the starry sky swallowing the beast?"

"No, no, it's a long way..."

Hao Fangfang even shook his head into a splashing drum, with a slightly pleasing color, explained in detail: "The starry sky swallows the beast is rare. It is said that the adult starry sky swallows the beast and even large enough to directly devour ordinary small meteors. And they are born to feed on the star nucleus at the core of the star, which is extremely sensitive to the origin of the star nucleus..."

"However, if the starry engulfing beast is used to find the origin of the star nucleus, it is a great beast, but if it is about the ability to devour, it is compared with the emptied beast, and it is simply a few streets!"

"The empty beast, as the name suggests, is a starry beast that can devour space!"

"This kind of beast is rare even in the first universe, which is vast and vast, because once they form a certain amount, their harmfulness is simply sensational. Therefore, if the fleet of the Tianzu nationality encounters the emptying of the order, The beast is basically doing its best to kill on the spot."

"I just said that the blood of this starry beast seems to have some kind of mysterious talent, so that even the universe can be swallowed up. Once a large number of emptied beasts are gathered together, it is like A group of super termites, but the latter are generally ruined by buildings, trees and the like, and the emptied beasts are ruined by the empty beasts.

"The hordes of emptied beasts are rare, but we have a group of devils in the stars, oh right, this time to go to the magic star, just to pass by the empty black hole star field, It is quite thrilling to think of it."

Ye Xuan frowned, not explaining: "Is emptying the black hole star field? What is this?"

"It is a black hole. It is said that there is still no more than 10,000 years ago. It is completely a normal universe void. Later, I don't know when it started. Because some of the emptied beasts have been gathered, they have not been discovered for a while. With the proliferation, the entire ethnic group is getting bigger and bigger, thousands of tens of thousands of people, the whole universe of the universe of the universe is swallowed up by them, turned into a huge black hole."

"And, this black hole is still expanding outwards, but because its territory is already vast, the speed of expansion does not seem to be very fast."

"Black hole? A black hole that was eaten by a starry beast?"

This result was too unexpected. Ye Xuan was shocked and opened his mouth. He never thought about the fierce black hole in the universe. He could still appear in such a wonderful way, and he was eaten hard!

"Yes, so the star field was named as the black hole star field. The territory of the whole star field is about a few light years in diameter. There is nothing inside, only the worms, they will not be empty. The black hole rushed out, but if you passed by, you could hear some of the roar of the beast faint."

"This empty black hole is also the most famous place of the murderous land of the entire Devil's Star Field. The edge is basically invisible to a single star. It is completely absorbed by the mysterious suction of the black hole, and it is turned into nothingness..."

After a chat, Ye Xuan found an excuse, finally got rid of the entangled Hao Fangfang, got up and entered his room, the door was closed, the whole person was quiet.

It is said that it is a retreat. In fact, what Ye Xuan wants to do is to study the two spiritual imprints left by the high priest, Greyhate.

After sitting cross-legged on the sofa, Ye Xuan closed his eyes and returned to the inner view of the gods. He quickly saw the outside of the sea and saw these two spiritual imprints.

On the surface, it seems that nothing unexpectedly can be seen. The two imprints only refer to the size of the belly, quietly suspended there, but Ye Xuan clearly feels a pressure that makes him extremely uneasy from these two imprints. The inside is faintly exuded.

After all, there is nothing to be prepared in the original point of view. Don't look at the small and inconspicuous, but the energy contained in it is obviously terrible!

Regarding these two imprints, the gray bones did not give any activation method. They only said one of the gray ones. After the holy magic is forbidden, it will naturally react once the trigger condition is reached.

And another black one, but when Ye Xuan encounters the crisis of life and death on the way, just throw it out, and then this spiritual brand will automatically activate, and in a moment will show the equivalent of the gray bones full blow. Terrorist forces help him through the crisis!

After seeing that there was no clue, Ye Xuan tried to throw the two mental imprints to the phagocytic system for identification. Unfortunately, the results were still the same. Even the phagocytic system could not be directly identified, but it suggested that Ye Xuan could be decomposed.

Although there was a bit of movement, but after Yang Xuan hesitated, after all, he still dismissed the idea. He did not dare to let the engulfment system decompose at will, and the trouble would be troublesome.

After letting go of this incident, Ye Xuan even took out a large number of star nuclear sources from the immortal world, and all the bones and brains were thrown to the phagocytic system, and issued instructions to let the system cooperate with the stars to engulf the blood of the beast and to extract these stars. The source energy in the nuclear crystal!

Although he had just broken through the realm not long ago, he still crossed a breakthrough in a big realm. However, after entering the second largest realm of meteor, the elevation of each small step is obviously more difficult than before. The situation that the original source of the star nuclear will be swallowed up will not appear again.

Therefore, as long as there is time, Ye Xuan will throw out some of the origins of the star nuclear source to capture the source energy in it, and keep the constant accumulation of less, so as to ensure the speed of the realm!

Time flies, and three days have passed. In these three days, Ye Xuan has always retired in his own house to extract the energy of the star.

This time, the star nucleus he threw into the phagocytic system had three cubes, all of which were four-level green. If it was before, it would be enough for him to advance two times in the star's nuclear environment, but this time, three whole cubes. The four-level green star nuclear source was all taken away in just three days, and Ye Xuan had no feeling of breaking through.

After opening his eyes, Ye Xuan smiled and sighed, then he got up and opened the door and walked out.

It was also at this moment, amazement, and no signs of abrupt!

"Booming..."

With the huge bombings coming, everything around it swayed violently. This feeling is like a strong earthquake. The entire spaceship is crumbling, giving people a possibility of disintegration at any time. The feeling of falling apart.

Didn't wait for Ye Xuan to react to what happened, the sharp warning of the fortress's central control center was quietly heard on the central square of the villa outside the villain!

"caveat!"

"Encounter the attack! The fort is slipping into the empty black hole! Everyone immediately assembles and abandons the ship to escape..."

Chapter 2780: Disintegration of the mosquito

"Hey!"

"Hey!"

.....

The vast and innocent universe of the void, the sound of violent screams, like the squally showers, is coming from a huge black hole that is incomparably dark.

This huge black hole is the murderous black hole of the Devil's Star Field. As for the dense screams in it, it is obviously from a stalking beast in a black hole.

Not long ago, this huge black hole was still very quiet, and sometimes there were one or two screams coming out, but compared with today's horrible and overwhelming horror scene, it is completely different from heaven and earth.

About ten minutes ago, the emptied beasts in the black hole were suddenly awakened by a very annoying wave noise. At first they were still restrained, but in the next ten minutes, with the void outside the edge of the black hole. A huge space fortress is getting closer and closer. This kind of wave noise that makes the emptied beast extremely resentful and disgusted has not disappeared, but it is clear and strong.

At this moment, when the space fortress approached the edge of the black hole for more than a hundred miles, the worms in the black hole could no longer stand it anymore. In the overwhelming roar, a black nebula formed by countless emptied beasts was like The Milky Way rushed out of the black hole and rushed out of the black hole. The wrath was incomparably wrapped in the space fortress that passed by, and the first time it started a crazy devouring...

This scene is too amazing. The outer surface of the entire space fortress with a diameter of 10,000 meters is covered with numerous emptied beasts. Just like the same elephant fell into the giant ant nest, it was instantly counted. The ants covered the whole body!

In less than a minute, there began to be a series of different sounds of explosions, which started from the inside of the Battlestar.

The interior space of the entire space fortress uses the perfect space folding technology that the Tianji family has just researched for thousands of years. The strong outer shell of the space fortress is the protective layer of its inner space. Once the outer casing is damaged, its inner fold The space will collapse quickly, the entire space fortress will be disintegrated, and the bones will not survive!

The emptiness of the beast and the universe can be swallowed up. A small space fortress is naturally more important. At this moment, with more and more holes being eroded in its outer shell, the entire space fortress has begun to be intense. The ground swayed, and the internal explosion was more intense and frequent. This is obviously the sign that the internal folding space is unstable and the entire fortress will be disintegrated at any time!

Another minute passed, and a huge explosion like a catastrophe suddenly appeared. The shell of the outer shell was quickly blasted at a speed visible to the naked eye. It finally exploded and disintegrated directly.

The huge shock wave has ravaged a vast expanse of the universe, and it is close to the numerous emptiness of the space fortress, which is madly biting, in order to powder, and a large number of different materials and debris, from the interior of the space fortress that is falling apart* Out, this one, even including a large number of devil strong, some still alive, frightened, and the body shape quickly appeared to flee, want to leave this terrible area for the first time.

And more, it is the body of the devil who has long been breathless, at first glance, at least thousands!

"Hey..."

A sound similar to the high-frequency humming sound after the start of the space oscillator also sounded among the vast mass of materials and debris, and the humming sound came from a star-rated battleship of about 3,000 kilometers. This battleship was also the scene of the collapse of the Battlestar collapse. It was revealed from the inside of the battleship. At this moment, the sound of the humming sound was heard, and the space jump function was clearly opened in the first time.

"call out!"

A strong white brilliance made a big hit, and it quickly condensed in less than half a moment. When it finally disappeared, the large star-shaped warships that were originally wrapped in this white light were invisible. Expanding the space jump, silently disappearing away...

"Booming!"

Almost at the same moment, the hull of Dongxu shuttle suddenly and violently swayed, and the whole heart of Ye Xuan, who was caught off guard, hung in the eyes of the blind.

Just before, when the fierce mosquitoes of the Space Fortress violently vibrated and they would be disintegrated at any time, Ye Xuan and the panicked Hao Fangfang rushed to the top central square of the Flying Fortress.

There is a three-kilometer star-rated large-scale warship, and there is a buzzing sound in the ship. It has already started the space jump function. As long as the space fortress collapses, it can immediately expand the space and quickly get away.

For this reason, all the magical powerhouses on the top of the murderous mosquitoes almost all flocked to the warship, but Ye Xuan and Haofangfang were just approaching each other. The energy light shield of the battleship was cleverly propped up. Just in time, Ye Xuan and Hao Fangfang were blocked from the battleship and could not enter.

There are thousands of demons who have been unlucky to accompany them!

At that moment, Ye Xuan realized everything in an instant. Obviously, this seemingly unexpected surprise was clearly the conspiracy of Zuo Fengtai and Zuo Licheng's father and son, and they apparently succeeded.

With this thought flashing in his mind, Ye Xuan did not hesitate, and at the first time he sacrificed the hole in the body.

It is a pity that his body shape has just broken into the inner cabin. When he wants to greet Hao Fangfang, the entire fierce mosquito space fortress will suddenly burst open and disintegrate!

In the next moment, Zuo Licheng's large warships started to jump in space and disappeared instantly. However, Ye Xuan's cave whistling at this moment opened the hidden state of the hidden array, but there were too many fortress fragments and wrecks around. There are more and more innumerable emptied beasts. Although the snails are hidden, they do not mean that they really disappear. The violent vibration of the hull at this moment is precisely because of the crazy impact of a large number of emptied beasts. Therefore.

"Bastard! The bastard! My day..."

"Help!"

Just as Ye Xuan's heart was stunned, he was not sure if the virtual shuttle could hold back the madness of these emptied beasts. There was a void in the battleship not far away, but suddenly there was an angry roar and cry for help.

Hao Fangfang?

The moment the Battlestar collapse collapsed, the Devil's Powerhouse, who had not had time to enter the large battleship, died at least 90%. I didn't expect him to be one of the lucky few survivors. The luck of this guy is really not a general counter. God.

With this kind of thinking, Ye Xuan subconsciously turned to follow the prestige, and the scene he saw in his eyes made him suddenly open his mouth, and his face quickly became strange.

Ok, just retract the words!

This guy is not a bad luck, it is clearly a bad luck!

The catastrophe of the collapse of the Battlestar collapsed, but when it fell, it happened to be in the size of a group of snail-like beasts. At this moment, it was being smashed into a cloud. The empty beast is holding, and he can't help himself quickly rushing to the front of the black hole...
