Chapter 283: Wanshige

"The man may have fled to the big city, but the direction seems to be not in the right direction, are you going?" Ye Xuan asked again.

"go with!"

Lin Xueer said solemnly.

Ye Xuan does not matter, anyway, he is only to explore the state, and is not ready to stay here. The Thunder Eagle did not know where to fly, so the two could only walk to the big city on foot.

Lin Xueer's speed is slow, so the two spent more than half a day before they came to the big city.

"Thorn City."

Ye Xuan looked up and then walked in.

What they didn't know, however, was that they were already stared at when they entered the city.

After entering the city, they just found a hotel to stay, and then they went out again.

"This is Zhongzhou, the life is unfamiliar, how do you want to find that person?" After leaving the inn, Ye Xuan could not help but ask.

Lin Xueer glanced at him and said: "There is a force in Zhongzhou. They know everything and they can do everything. If they give the price, they can do anything."

"Oh? Is there such a force?" Ye Xuan is very interested. If the price is given, can he still find someone to assassinate the city owner of the first city of Zhongzhou?

Next, he is quietly behind Lin Xueer.

After a while, they came to the front of a building with only three words on the plaque, Wanshige.

Lin Xueer took the lead and went in, and Ye Xuan followed.

Immediately, a waiter came over. He looked at Ye Xuan and said, "Two, what do you need?"

"I want to check one person!" Lin Xueer said straight away.

"Okay, please come here!"

The waiter walked directly into a room with two people, and then took a form to fill in Lin Xueer.

Name, age, gender, appearance, realm, weapons used, martial arts...

Lin Xueer wrote a little and handed it to the messenger.

"I don't know the name, the man between the ages of thirty and forty, the land of Dan Xiaocheng, with a four-foot sword, the sword is engraved with a hole, looks cumbersome, and has a middle-aged friend, hobby... ..."

The waiter read the message.

After Ye Xuan listened, she couldn't help but shudder, Nima, how to tell the information of the cow.

However, such specific confidence should be able to lock into a person, but do not know which city is in which city.

"Please pay the deposit of one hundred fine spar first, and leave the address, you can find his residence at up to two hours, then pay four hundred fine crystal spar." The waiter replied.

Ye Xuan was once again shocked, Nima, inquired that a person would have to have five hundred best spar, you can buy a Chinese spirit.

Lin Xueer was generous. He took out a hundred pieces of spar directly, handed it over, and reported the name of the inn and the number of the courtyard to him.

Then the two returned to the inn.

"Snow, are you too big? Just looking for me is good. Now why should I spend more than five hundred spars to investigate this person?"

After returning to the residence, Ye Xuan could not help but ask.

"This is not necessary for you to control, I will kill him personally." Lin Xueer faintly answered.

"Cough, even if you find him, he happens to be in the city, how do you do it? Just kill him in the city?" Ye Xuan asked.

"Humph."

Lin Xueer just snorted and didn't speak.

Ye Xuan is also helpless. How does he feel that the recent Lin Xueer is not the same as the one at Tianyuanzong.

The waiter of the previous Masters said that at most two hours, the news could be found. The two hours were four hours.

Therefore, Ye Xuan and others are in the residence.

About an hour later, someone finally found it. Lin Xueer opened the door after hearing the knock on the door.

"Two, the people you are looking for have already been found, but you have to pay the remaining four hundred fine spars."

The comer is a young man, about twenty-five years old. The realm is the first time to enter the land, and the talent is still quite good.

Lin Xueer also said nothing, that is, he gave the remaining fine spar to the other party. Then, the young man handed a sheepskin roll to him.

"Kong Rong, the eldest son of the Confucius family in the thorny city, Xiaodan, Xiaocheng, age thirty-three. Kongjia is located in the northern part of the city of thorns..."

This sheepskin roll is written in great detail and is the message of the wretched youth.

"I said, the man appeared in the vicinity of the thorny city. It is very likely that he is a thorny city. Why don't you first inquire about the lower Kong family and waste five hundred spars, your experience is not enough." Ye Xuan said after the horse.

Lin Xueer gave him a blank look. Indeed, she was too anxious, but she just didn't want to see Ye Xuan better than herself.

"Forget it, now that you have found the person's information, what do you do next, quietly sneak into the Confucius?" Ye Xuan turned and asked.

"Yes!" Lin Xueer nodded.

Ye Xuan continued: "Let's go, time is almost the same."

However, at this time, Lin Xueer suddenly stopped: "I go by myself."

"Are you sure?" Ye Xuan couldn't believe it.

"You are here, I will solve this problem myself." Lin Xueer said, just left.

Ye Xuan looked at the back of her departure and said: "This girl is so capricious today, let me go, the province said that I am annoying."

He said, he went back to the house.

However, after a few minutes, he came out again.

"No, the ink master and the elders of the elders let me take care of her. If something goes wrong, how can I go back and explain?"

Ye Xuan thought about it, but decided to keep up.

But the problem is coming again. He doesn't know where the Confucian family is. Now it is a big night. Although there are quite a few people on the street, it is easy to be a stunned snake, so I have to go to see what the Wanshi Pavilion is.

In places like Wanshige, the information about customers is kept secret, and it is extremely efficient to inquire about this kind of thing.

Not long after, he came to the Wanshi Pavilion again and spent a hundred pieces of spar to find out where the Confucius was.

However, when he came to the Confucius family, the whole person was also trembled, and his heart was not good.

At this point, the Confucius family is open, and it is clear that someone is shouting 'Assassin'.

"This gimmick, stealth technology is too bad, it will not be even the clothes have not changed?"

Ye Xuan's forehead had a blue rib.

When Lin Xueer was in Lianyun City, everyone was a good show. He had been practicing in Lin Family and rarely left home. After entering Tianyuanzong, it is still in Tianyuanzong. At most, there will be some management ability, but for other aspects, it is a lot worse.

Ye Xuan now finally understands why Mo Ziyun asked the elders to go to Zhongzhou with Lin Xueer.
